District 67 approves contract

by Deby Eisenberg.
When September rolls around and teachers' strikes become a prevalent headline, parents in school district 67 can rest assured that their youngsters will not be having an extended summer vacation. The teachers and administration at Hynes School and Golf Junior High have just signed a two year contract.

Board member Sheldon Marcus, serving as president pro tem at last Thursday's school board meeting, announced that a contract had been negotiated. He praised teachers for deciding to "sit down with the board and resolve issues in a reasonable manner and therefore saving this community thousands of dollars that would have gone to an outside negotiator." Superintendent William Stout gave details of the contract which was signed July 19 after three months of negotiations. Overall salary increases the first year will average 11%, and 8½% for the second year. Starting salary for a first year teacher with a B.A. will now be

Addresses in rear necessary for efficiency of village services

Townhouses need rear numbers

by Diane Miller

The Niles Village Board of Trustees Tuesday evening approved a resolution to draw up an ordinance requiring residents of townhouses in the village of Niles to install address numbers on the back of all buildings. This, according to Trustee Ang Marcheschi who recently conducted a meeting with all village department head, would facilitate emergency vehicles getting in the back and immediately noting the address.

Trustee Marcheschi pointed out to the board that Todd Bavaro, Director of Housing noted they were having a problem with inspecting townhouses since it is difficult to locate certain addresses when inspectors are in the rear of the complex.

Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrikson also told the board when a call is received by the police department from a townhouse resident, the squad has to go around to the front to check the address of the building and then drive to the rear, count the number of buildings down to determine the correct address. "This delays our answering emergency calls," said Emrikson.

We dropped over to Commonwealth Edison's nuclear power plant in Zion Monday afternoon. It was a rather awesome experience.

The plant is located along the lakefront in a very desolate area perhaps a mile east of a populated area. Before entering the parking lot, you are checked at the entrance gate. Previously, Commonwealth had secured our social security number which was checked for clearance. At the entrance gate the guard checked our name off his list, then telephoned ahead after receiving identification from us.

Inside a security building a metal check-out machine, similar to the ones used at the airport, made sure we were clean of any metal. We then registered at another security check-point, received a body-check, identified who we were, and received a visitor's pass. We also were given a hard-hat, escorted into a briefing room, and received a radiation detector, which we clasped onto a breast pocket. After being briefed, and told not to touch railings, we were escorted past huge turbines into the spent fuel storage area. On runways above the water pools, we saw spent fuel racks below in the water which were being stored.

Nuclear fuel is uranium dioxide enriched to approximately 3 percent U-235 and clad in zircalloy-4 fuel rods. Fuel is in the form of pellets about a half-inch long and slightly less than a half-inch diameter.

Each reactor has 193 fuel assemblies. Each fuel assembly has 204 fuel rods and measures 12 feet long and about 8 inches square. There are 53 control rods in each reactor core.

District 207 seeks to ease substitute shortage

Maine Township High School District 207 wants everyone to know that it is not necessary to have a college degree for certified teaching to serve as a substitute teacher. A Bachelor's degree from a recognized institution of higher learning is the

Check for tree damage

The high winds and rain that have hit Niles the last couple of weeks have caused damage to many parkway trees. The men of Niles Public Works are in the process of removing severely damaged trees. The cutting and removal of these trees should take several months.

The residents are urged to check the trees on their property. If they have any doubt about the safety of the tree, they should call a private tree expert. A damaged unsafe tree is a hazard to life and property.

M-NASR thanks area contributors

The Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation would like to thank several area restaurants and civic associations for food donations and offers of volunteer help. These contributions are helping to insure a successful outcome of the First Cerebral Palsy Athletic Competition ever held in Illinois.

This Olympic style competition, to be held August 9 and 10, will feature track, field, swimming, and bowling events over the weekend, and culminate in a banquet and awards presentation on Sunday night.

Volunteer help is still needed. Interested community minded citizens are encouraged to call Jack Barry at M-NASR, 966-5522.

M-NASR serves the special populations of Golf-Maine, Niles, Lincolnwood, Park Ridge, Skokie, Morton Grove, and Des Plaines Park Districts.

S.I.J. 55 Plus Club
We would like to say how honored Peter and I were to be chosen by Park Commissioner Elaine Heinen and the board as the Grand Marshals of the Niles Park District Fourth of July Parade. It was one of the nicest things that has happened to us. It was an honor for us to be chosen to represent all the good deeds we do. We have helped in the Tag Day for Little City, Retarded children of Niles, Niles Days, The Niles Park District Parade and whenever called on. We are a happy and fun group of members and enjoy doing things together. We have been organized 3 years and have a membership of 250 members with a waiting list of over 80. We are very proud that so many people want to join, but are sorry at this time that our membership is closed until further notice.

Want to extend a big thanks to Ida and Frank Paoletti, Wanda and Charles Palkoner, Dorothy and Leonard Holthaus and to my daughter Cathy and son-in-law Dick, my granddaughter Michelle, and Andy for their part in making the S.I.J. 55 Plus Club noticed in the Fourth of July Parade. The three cars and the Jeep were really a beautiful sight to see. They all worked hard in getting the cars decorated.

Everything was just perfect and the parade was just beautiful. Our members along the parade route said all the cars, bands, clowns, bikes, golf carts, etc. were just grand and beautiful. A big hand to Elaine Heinen, chairman and the Niles Park District...A big hand to the Bugle truck which looked Super...

Parking stickers for handicapped

Over 200 cards for the permanently handicapped have been issued by the Maine Township Clerk's office since they first became available, according to Paul A. Halverson's deputy, Patricia Schwartz. The Township office first began issuing these handicapped parking cards in December, 1978. They are available to any Maine Township resident who is permanently handicapped, and when placed on the visor of the car in which he or she is riding, allows that car to park in specially marked parking places for the handicapped.

A service instigated by the Northwest Municipal Conference, these special parking cards for the handicapped are recognized by Police Departments in most northwest suburbs, and are issued by the Township clerks of north and northwest Cook County, says Halverson.

When applying for the identifying card, the individual or a family member must present a statement from a doctor verifying the condition which causes the disability.

"The advantage of having this identifying card is that it can be displayed on the visor of any car in which the handicapped person is riding," says Clerk Halverson. This is especially helpful when the individual is being driven by a friend or FISH volunteer, for instance.

For information about this service available from the Maine Township Clerk, call or visit the office, 2510 Dempster st., Suite 102, Des Plaines, near Potter rd., or call 297-2510 weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. or Saturday mornings until noon.

On the OTHER HAND

by Diane Miller

OK ComEd...you win...I give up!

Those are my sentiments after a week of being a victim of popping, crackling, and flashing wires. I've had people cracking jokes about my being a 'live wire' and 'super-charged,' but I'm not laughing anymore.

Last week I spent considerable time on the phone trying to determine why the senior residents of the Huntington, 9201 N. Maryland were being left in the dark by recurring power outages in their building. Bob Reidel, a very personable gentleman from Commonwealth Edison is our contact man there and is always very helpful in explaining why the power failed, what they are doing to correct it and how soon it will be in operation again.

But we have found in the past that the public utility companies are very much on the defensive when it comes to any adverse publicity, no matter how small it is. We found this to be especially true a few years ago when we ran a story on a local druggist who absconded with the receipts from gas, electric and telephone bills which were paid at his store. On another occasion we ran a photo of a new sidewalk that was installed on Washington near Ballard with an electric pole directly in the middle of the walk so that pedestrians were forced to walk around the pole. Within a few hours after our papers hit the street, we received a call from a ComEd rep who inquired why we had not called the company about the pole before printing a picture in the paper. A few days later, the pole was moved out of the path of the walkway.

So, in my conversations with Reidel last week, I hoped he knew I was just checking on a bad situation and not questioning the efficiency of his company. But evidently the word was out...get Miller!!!

Then things began to happen. Monday evening I was on my way home from the Niles Police Station heading north on Milwaukee ave. At Ballard rd. I got the red light and was the first car in line at the light. When the light changed, I speeded up and put on my right turn signal to make my usual turn up Courtland ave. Within approximately 100 feet of Courtland as I was getting ready to veer to the right for the turn, I heard a loud crack, saw two overhead electrical wires drop down on the middle of the street and promptly start buzzing, blue-flashing and bouncing across the intersection. Instantly, I swerved back on to Milwaukee ave. to avoid the hot wires, came within inches of sideswiping the vehicle alongside me and shuddered with fear at the sound of screeching brakes for a block behind me. Fortunately no metal made any contact and all the vehicles crossed over the double yellow line to avoid the hot wires. I drove down to Maryland, made a right turn and promptly pulled up to the curb to regain my composure which had gone out the window 500 feet back.

By the time I went around the block, Niles Fire Lt. Al Weber and his boys were on the scene directing traffic away from the hot lines and waiting for ComEd to come out and cut the power. I told Al how I had almost ended up directly under the wires and he explained that should it happen again, just remain still in the car and don't touch anything made of metal. "I'll remember that...next time," I replied.

When I arrived home, my husband was out of town and my son was working, so I had no one to relate my hair-raising experience to. Out of total boredom, I decided to go back to my garden, pick some beans and tie up the tomato plants.

Located in the far back of our half acre is my current answer to inflation and high food prices...my garden. Unfortunately in the same area is a light pole with a large transformer located on the easement and belonging to none other than...you guessed it...ComEd. As I was stooping over, marveling at my first crop of string beans, the sounds of crackling and sizzling grew louder and louder and I realized the wires and transformer were hissing at me. Never having been aware of these sounds before, I immediately stood up and waited, hoping they weren't going to break. "Visions of next week's Bugle headline popped into my head. 'Bugle editor fried in beans and tomatoes'." Rather than take any further chances, I scooted out of the garden and headed for the safe confines of my house. I had enough crackling and sizzling wires for one day.

The rest of the evening was uneventful, but early the following morning, about 4 a.m. a violent thunderstorm hit Niles and the surrounding suburbs, and I watched out the window in awe at the large trees and evergreens bent almost in half from the 75 mile an hour winds. Lightning flashed so quickly in short spurts that it almost gave a psychedelic effect. But it finally subsided and I went back to bed for a few hours, getting back up about 6:30 a.m. I got my morning Trib out of the driveway and picked up the large branches strewn around the yard from the storm, carefully avoiding the area of the power pole in the rear of the yard. I wasn't taking any chances on stepping on a downed wire.

MKJCC nursery school

A new Non-traditional nursery school program will be available in September at Mayer Kaplan JCC, Skokie for families who seek to maintain a parent-child bond beyond the age of three.

Most nursery schools have children attending alone. In this new Mayer Kaplan JCC program, parents will attend with their 3, 4, or 5 year olds until the child chooses to attend alone.

A group of North Suburban parents have helped to organize this program.

"The conventional wisdom holds that children should be forced to separate from their parents so they will grow up and be independent," said Phyllis B. Elperin Clark, a program organizer. "But we don't believe that children's best interests are served by this theory. We feel it's more likely that children forced to separate prematurely will be lonely, insecure and fearful."

"We want our children to like school. Forcing an early separation on our preschoolers is not the best way to introduce our children to formal education," Clark added.

"A child's desire and readiness to separate from his or her parents will occur at different times in different children. We respect this variety as normal. A truly smooth transition from home to school is best provided if a parent takes and active part in the process. The fine art of parenting is knowing when to let go and when to render support. The parent best knows the delicate balance as it unfolds in his or her child," Clark concluded.

The program activities will include indoor and outdoor gym, science and art activities, crafts, sand and water play, cooking, group games, self-directed play, stories, music, dramatic play, cognitive activities and Jewish education. Younger siblings are permitted to attend with enrolled children. The program is open to the wider community.

For further information, contact Elyne Handler, Director of Early Childhood Services, Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, 675-2200, ext. 236. Registrations are now being taken.

DEFER TAX PAYMENTS INDEFINITELY AND BUILD CASH VALUE!

A new high yielding tax-deferment annuity plan available from Glenview State Bank and underwritten by International General Insurance Corp. of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The Glenview State Bank Tax Defer-All™ Plan (TDA) allows you to effectively combat inflation and cut taxes. Deposit balances are F.D.I.C.-insured.

TDA is designed for individuals with medium to long range goals who desire to protect themselves against the erosive effects of taxes and inflation.

How much will the TDA reduce my Taxes?

It depends on your present tax bracket and the amount of your deposits. No Federal and State taxes are assessed until you withdraw the interest—possibly in your retirement years at which time your tax bracket will likely be significantly lower. Also you'll then be paying taxes with inflated dollars which will probably be worth less than they are today.

Are my funds protected?

Yes. The Tax Defer-All Plan is underwritten by the International General Insurance Corp. with deposits maintained in Glenview State Bank where they are F.D.I.C.-insured up to $100,000.

How much will my cash value grow?

You may select any of three popular Glenview State Bank Money Market Certificates under TDA. These are our 6-month T-Bill Certificates ($10,000 min.) and our 30-month T-Note Certificate ($1,000 min.) whose interest rates are based on U.S. Treasury Bill auction rates and our high yielding 8-year Certificate ($1,000 min.). The interest rates on these cash building vehicles are continually posted in our main bank lobby.

Can I withdraw funds at any time?

While TDA is designed to build cash value for medium to long range goals, a certain percentage of your deposits are always available without penalty for withdrawal. Beyond this, penalties would be incurred for additional withdrawals until the plan had matured.

May anyone participate in TDA?

Yes. Even participants in Keogh, IRA or other retirement plans.

May I transfer funds from other financial institutions where I am earning taxable interest to the Tax Defer-All Plan where my taxes will be deferred?

Unequivocally, yes! And you may do so without incurring any interest penalties for early withdrawal! Simply ask us for a TDA re-registration authorization form.

Help me fight inflation and build cash value on your new Tax Defer-All Plan.

runs in the fifth, only having to come back again to win 14-12. Hats off to a very good Cubs team. Hitters for the Pirates were J. Nawrocki, K. Swider and a home run by M. Malovany.

White Sox 23, Cubs 12
White Sox showed good overall ability with 20 hits, with home runs by Beane (2), Galassi, M. Murray (2), Wolshon, and Abramson; other hits by Giocchio, Galassi, Jensen, O'Brien, P. Murray, Gendzinski and Riley.

White Sox 15, Astros 3
This was an exciting game for both sides. The White Sox again showed their strong offense, with 11 hits while holding the Astros to 4. Mr. Chupich of the Astros would like to thank the team and the parents for a very enjoyable season.

Cubs 18, Pirates 4 (round robin play-off game)
With their first win of the year the Cubs played a super game with a lot of team effort and spirit. They had excellent pitching by Brian Collander, Greg Mastri and two shutout innings by Dave Askelson. Their hitting was provided by Tom Pierski with 4 doubles and a home run, Dave Askelson with 2 home runs and 2 doubles, and Bobby Hixson who hit for the cycle with a single, double, triple and home run. Good fielding highlighted by double play by Greg Mastri.

Mr. LoCassio would like to thank the parents for their support. He would also like to thank Jerry Newman, Sam Feldman, George Hart, Chester Nawrocki and Joe Malovany. While many people contributed, a special thanks goes to Marietta Swider for all the goodies and drinks, and the very nice pool party. Good luck! See you next year.

White Sox	8-1-1
Twins	8-0-0
Expos	6-7-0
Dodgers	5-6-1
Astros	4-1-2
Reds	4-2-0
Orioles	2-9-0
Pirates	0-11-0

Reds 7 - Dodgers 6
In a very exciting game, the Reds broke the Dodgers 5 game winning streak 7 to 6. A throwing error in the last inning gave the Reds their victory. The Dodgers hitting attack included Gattuso, Zajac and Golbach with 2 hits apiece; Gawie had 3; Potrue, Imber and Balke each had 1. The victorious Reds collected a total of 6 hits in a game that was well played by both teams.

Reds 11 - Dodgers 2
The Dodgers lost their second game in a row to the Reds who played great baseball. The Dodgers walked 10 Reds hitters and made some very costly errors. John Imber pitched 3 good innings for the Dodgers.

Twins 7 - Expos 0
Good pitching by Busiel, great catches by Vic Pedraza, Mark Evins and Jim Dax and fine infield play by Imyak prevented the Twins from scoring even more runs.

Orioles 10 - Pirates 6
The Orioles came out on top in a very exciting game that featured many stars. John Parlich went 4 for 4 driving in 2 runs and also pitched 3 innings. Bob Flynn went 3 for 4 driving in one run and Vince Pizzo went 2 for 4 with 1 RBI and also pitched 3 innings striking out 6 batters. Steve Pavkovic showed some power when he went 2 for 4 a double and a home run. Paul Kratz was 2 for 3 including a double. Paul finished the game at the mound allowing one base runner and striking out three.

Expos 14 - Orioles 6
The Expos were swinging with a HR by Imyak and two RBIs by both Frito and Tony Pedraza. Busiel collected a triple on a bunt. Jim Dax contributed a good fielding job. A double play from Imyak at 2nd to Busiel at first was a fine example of the days fielding by the whole team.

Astros 6 - Dodgers 1
The Dodgers were held to 3 hits by Kennilz, Balke and Potrue. Again walks and errors were the Dodgers downfall in this game.

White Sox 6 - Dodgers 5
Another real tight game between these two teams. With the Dodgers ahead 5-0 in the 7th, the White Sox started a 6 run rally which gave them the win. Zajac collected 2 hits and Gattuso and Cohen had 1 apiece for the Dodgers.

Expos 19 - Pirates 3
Vic Pedraza led the Expo hitting with 2 home runs. Tony Pedraza, Fernando Prieto and Mark Imyak contributed to the offensive attack. Great outfield catches by Dax, Krubert, Cieszykowski. Diving catch at 1st by Busiel. Good pitching by Fritze.

Twins 11 - Dodgers 3
The Dodgers lost their 5th in a row, this one to the red hot Twins. It was a 3-3 game for 5 innings when walks contributed to 4 runs for the Twins in the 6th which was the ballgame. Potrue, Gawie and Zajac with 2 hits each and Golbach with a double were the hitting stars for the Dodgers. Cohen made a great catch in center and then threw to first to double a runner.

White Sox 6 - Expos 4
Vic Pedraza continued his home run hitting with 1 in this exciting game. Mark Imyak collected 2 hits. Busiel made an unassisted double play at first and Mark Evins made a great catch in left field and then threw to second for the double play.

RTA revises service on Golf Mill route

Service on Rt. 406 operating in Maine Twp. and Des Plaines will be revised Monday, July 21, in an effort to serve more commuters and increase cost effectiveness of the route, the Regional Transportation Authority announced today.

The changes are: elimination of Monday through Friday mid-day and Saturday service to Golf Mill Shopping Center; and expansion of rush hour service to the Des Plaines Chicago and North Western train station to include the Triumvera condominium complex and residential areas along Dearlove.

"The Midday and Saturday service is being cut back as the result of the Suburban Bus Productivity study, which analyzed the efficiency of bus routes throughout RTA's six-county area," said RTA chairman Lewis W. Hill. "Ridership on Rt. 406 during these times are extremely low, averaging only 40 passengers a day. Passengers who rode Rt. 406 buses to Golf Mill can find alternate service on RTA Routes 220, 240, 241, 250 and 270."

According to the revised schedules, buses will leave from Dearlove Cove and Dearlove at 6:20 and 7:06 a.m. and from Shorewood Village at 7:46 a.m. These buses will arrive at the Des Plaines C&NW station in time for commuters to board the 6:55, 7:41 and 8:14 a.m. trains to Chicago. In the evening, buses will meet C&NW trains arriving in Des Plaines at 4:47, 5:36 and 5:46 p.m. Rt. 406 will continue to offer morning and afternoon service to Maine North High School on weekdays, with buses leaving from the Des Plaines train station at 6:48 and 7:34 a.m. The buses travel via Lee, Elk, Rand, Bender, East River and Lyman. In the afternoon, return trips from the high school operate at 4:32 and 5:10 p.m.

During rush hours, the route 406 proceeds north on Dearlove to Milwaukee, south into the Triumvera complex and exits on Central. On Central, the route travels west to Lyman and Shorewood Apartments, south to Harrison, east to Dee and south on Dee to Golf rd. It then proceeds west on Golf to Potter, south on Potter via Bay Colony apartments to Dempster, over to Miner st. and on to the train station, located on Miner st.

Complete route and schedule information on all RTA service in Cook DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will counties can be obtained by calling RTA Travel Information, toll free, 800-972-7000, and 836-7000 in Chicago.

Free blood pressure testing

Beginning August 15, Glenview State Bank will offer free blood pressure readings at the main lobby, 800 Waukegan rd., Glenview. This service is offered primarily for the Bank's Sixty Plus members, but will be available for everyone. Sixty Plus is a comprehensive financial plan for the Bank's savings customers 60 years or older.

The fully computerized Vita-Stat machine measures a person's blood pressure while he is comfortably seated at the console. After one minute, the results are flashed on a digital panel and may be compared with charts giving normal ranges. The Vita-Stat computer being utilized by Glenview State Bank has been subjected to numerous and exhaustive studies by independent groups and has been declared both accurate and useful. Company officials recommend that several measurements be taken over a period of time in order to determine an accurate blood pressure average.

The Bank will be offering this free service during main lobby hours: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Fridays and 9 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

Country and Western weekend

Northwestern Livery in Morton Grove will present WJJD and WJEZ disc jockeys Pete Porter and John Charleston this weekend, free to the public.

AM (1180 on the dial) jock Pete Porter will be at the Livery from 1-3 p.m. on Saturday, August 2 and FM (104) announcer John Charleston will take over the reins on Sunday, August 3 from high noon to 3 p.m. The jocks will be cowboys for the day, broadcasting live from the Livery - on horseback. While they're there, the disc jockeys will give away fifty coupons each day, good for free trail rides at Northwestern from August 4-10. They will also give away free White Sox tickets, RC-100 T-shirts and coupons for free eightpacks, while quantities last. Plus, all trail rides will be half-price the entire weekend.

Frank M. Jayne, Jr., owner of Northwestern Stables, a top English riding, training and showing stable, recently opened the Western Livery in response to a growing public demand for the Western trail riding. "People are fascinated with the West and the cowboy," says Jayne. "Movies like 'The Urban Cowboy' and 'Bronco Billy' are fueling that interest. And people are discovering that horseback riding is a great way to get in touch with the cowboy's lifestyle." Riders may rent horses daily from 7 a.m. to dusk, rain or shine. Free refreshments and the music of WJJD and WJEZ will also be provided by the Livery this weekend for everyone who comes out to meet the disc jockeys. All are invited to attend.

Chicken Houses...

Last Friday night, from the vantage point of 3rd row center, I enjoyed the play, "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas." Despite the provocative title, the play is entertaining and 'chicks' of the chicken house.

Prostitution has long been a taboo subject. But what is prostitution?

There really is no exact legal definition of this word. And even more oddly, there has been hardly any scholarly attempts to do any serious research on this subject.

The best I've been able to find is the book published by University Books, Inc., by Vern L. Bullough, Ph.D., entitled, "The History of Prostitution."

The author, Professor Bullough, is an historian, educated at the University of Utah. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. He is a professor of history at the San Fernando Valley State College. Dr. Bullough, says about his book, "Prostitution is a subject about which there are a lot of peculiar misconceptions and very little research."

Dr. Bullough starts his book with an all-encompassing definition of prostitution; includes a short discussion on primate behavior; then carries the story from primitive societies to contemporary time. In each chapter he examines the general attitude of the period toward women, the place of sex in society, and the extent and nature of prostitution. There is a long section on religion in which Jewish, Christian, Islamic, Buddhist, Hindu, Confucian, and Taoist ideas on sex and prostitution are examined. From such an examination it is apparent that while some religions have condemned prostitution, others have condoned it. Regardless, the prostitute has continued to exist.

Politicians, many of whom, have waxed rich because of it, do not wish to be identified with it. I am sure that neither the Republican or Democratic platforms will advocate that it be nationally legalized, any more than legalized gambling will be sanctioned by either political party.

Although both prostitution and gambling could provide huge revenues to both state and federal governments, and could, in some measure, reduce the huge tax burden upon its citizenry, the triumvirate of the politician, businessman and gangster will not permit this to happen. The illicit profits are too huge, too easy to hide, and too feasible to come by to share with the rank and file of the citizenry.

But the shadows of this coming event are already evident in lotteries, some off-track wagering, Bingo and other games of chance slowly being legalized in some states. That prostitution will follow, gambling is as ultimately sure, as day follows night.

The Volstead Act (Prohibition) proved that morals cannot be legislated. By the 21 Century, both prostitution and gambling may come to pass nationally.

One thing though is sure. In no other profession, has woman achieved a greater success, become absolutely omniscient and without peer than in the oldest profession of all - PROSTITUTION.

P.S. Oh, yes, Ladies...A charter bus trip to THE SUGAR SHACK, on August 3, leaves from KEN'S PLACE, Dempster and Milwaukee, Niles, $20 per lady, includes admission, round trip fare, and two free drinks at the Sugar Shack. Call Joanne for details, 965-9496... (a $10 deposit is required). (See ad this page).

Success on the North branch

Jim and Rick's Forest Flame seems to be the most up and coming restaurant in the Niles area if the dinner crowds are any indication.

They are the new owners and operators of this fine dining establishment. Each night they are pleased with your libations and cuisine.

Although The Forest Flame has been known for "famous hickory smoked baby back ribs" at reasonable prices, they have much more to please your palate.

The last time we had the pleasure of dining there, we started with a bucket of mussels. This simple delight is not served anywhere else in Bugland. The mussels were succulent and of large quality. It was a great act to follow but we had a New York strip steak of large portion. The tenderness and taste reminded one of how good steaks used to taste.

The Forest Flame is at 8100 Caldwell in Niles and reservations are requested-967-8180. Give Jim and Rick a visit—they try hard to please.

Job Connection needs job leads

Many more young people have contacted The Job Connection at MaineStay Youth Services seeking employment this summer than there are jobs available, so a plea is being issued to employers and residents in the area to help.

Any babysitting, yard work, maintenance or repair chores, janitorial, painting or other odd jobs that companies or individuals in Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Niles, Glenview, and Morton Grove can offer deserving youth in the area will be most appreciated by the Job Connection staff.

The Job Connection links junior high and high school age young people with merchants and community residents who are interested in hiring young people in commercial or domestic work. No Placement Fee is charged. Sponsored by MaineStay Youth Services and The Des Plaines Youth Commission, the Job Connection is offered as a community service of the City of Des Plaines and Maine Township Government.

Please call 823-0650 weekdays if you have any work to offer thru The Job Connection.

Mexican-Americans laud restaurateur

The National Association of Mexican-Americans (NAMA), made up of prominent Mexican-American businessmen in the Chicago area, recently cited publisher and restaurant entrepreneur Cesar Dovalina for his "contributions to the education of underprivileged Hispanic youth."

The 48-year-old Dovalina, who is president of the La Margarita restaurant group and publisher of La Raza, the largest Spanish-language newspaper in the Midwest, was named "Man of the Year" by the organization.

Dovalina, who came to the United States in 1948 and at the age of 16, has been a strong and consistent supporter of the NAMA program to finance the high school education of poor, but deserving, Mexican-American young people.

Reviewing the Arts

by bob del prato

Last Sunday was the first of the Ravina Pop Festivals under the direction of Erich Kunzel with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Chicago Symphony Chorus.

With a record breaking hot, humid evening, the selections from Camelot, Gigi, Paint your Wagon, Brigadoon and My Fair Lady provided the audience with a refreshing evening of musical enjoyment.

Without a doubt the selection "They Call the Wind Moriah" could have been played earlier if the weather would have cooperated, however, as if to compliment the arrangement, a strong wind moved across Ravina Park bringing a breath of fresh air to the hot, humid evening.

Sunday's performance was the largest of the season. In reviewing the evening performance, the complete production played under very trying weather conditions was a real delight. The varied program covered the musical preferences of every music lover.

If choice was made, I would select Camelot, Camelot with Chorus, from Gigi, Thank Heavens for Little Girls, from Paint your Wagon, I Talk to the Trees, from Brigadoon, It's Almost Like Being in Love, and from My Fair Lady, I Could Have Danced All Night.

Next Sunday, Erich Kunzel with a tribute to George Gershwin.

Levine named sales manager

Marsha J. Levine, 7803 Nordica, Niles, has been appointed sales manager in Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's Elmhurst office at 110 Schiller Street. The appointment was announced by District Sales Manager Willard J. Einspar, CLU.

As a sales manager, Ms. Levine will be responsible for the sales and service activities of a staff of representatives.

She joined Metropolitan Life as a sales representative in the Central Park (River Grove) office in August, 1978. Switch to subs saves gas at Edison Commonwealth Edison saved 289,000 gallons of gasoline in 1979 by using subcompact instead of compact cars, the company reported today. That marks the fifth year in a row that Edison has experienced a dramatic reduction in gas consumption since it began converting its fleet in 1974.

"We started buying a few small cars back in 1971," explains Edison vice president John J. Viera. "But the big push really came in 1974 when we saw the OPEC could really put us and our customers over the oil barrel, so to speak, if we didn't take measures to reduce our gasoline use."

Edison's 1700-car fleet is currently about 75 percent subcompact and by the end of 1980, should reach 80 percent with the delivery of 300 1981 models. Viera noted that the subcompacts are about 35 percent more fuel efficient than the vehicles they replace.

"Increasing the fuel economy from 17 to 23 miles per gallon is really significant when you consider we service more than 11,925 square miles, or the entire northern fifth of Illinois. That savings really counts up," he added.

Because the company's seven division headquarters are scattered throughout the service territory, employees are urged to substitute phone calls for meetings whenever possible, pool rides or take public transportation. These measures are in addition to the company's longstanding policy of allowing truck engines to idle only when necessary to operate power equipment and two-way radios or to heat the cabs in cold weather.

W. W. Grainger opens Florida branch

W. W. Grainger, Inc. has opened a new 14,000-square-foot branch at 1800 Florida Mango rd. in West Palm Beach, Florida. The company now has 153 branches in its nationwide network.

Manager of the new branch, James Howard of West Palm Beach, stated that customers in the area will now have ready availability of the more than 8,500 items distributed by Grainger.

Contractor for the building was Butler Construction Company of West Palm Beach, and the architect was Ginocchio & Spina Architects of West Palm Beach.

Products distributed by Grainger include electric motors, fans, blowers, heaters, air compressors, electric power plants and other electrical and mechanical equipment. Principal customers are retail dealers, service shops, contractors, distributors, industrial and commercial maintenance departments, and original equipment manufacturers.

The company is a national distributor and manufacturer of electric motors and equipment. In addition to its branches in 46 states, it has six manufacturing plants in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin. Grainger's sales exceed $732,000,000 in 1979.

All disrupted service has been restored to approximately 2000 customers of Central Telephone Company of Illinois from the Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Rosemont and Niles areas, who had experienced telephone problems due to last week Wednesday's severe storms.

Centel's Park Ridge repair center processed over 1,400 reports of trouble on Wednesday. Repair crews continued sweeping the area Thursday and Friday in an effort to quickly bring all service back to normal levels.

"Here comes Johnny!"

by Al Johnson

Phil Cancelleri of Meade Furniture is the chairman of the Dempster Street Commercial Analysis Sub-Committee in Morton Grove. Phil and his committee are going to make a survey of all businesses between Lehigh and Central Aves. The purpose of the survey is to identify actions that will support and promote business activities while preserving the residential area. Aiding Cancelleri in this venture will be: Harry Barclay (ITT-Bell: Gossett), Manny Leaver (Z Frank Chevrolet), John Wydra (Brand Service), Nick Marino (Century 21 Real Estate), Chuck Schneck (Village Planners), Leonard Bloomfield (Chairman of the Planning Commission), Roy Elmer (Retired), and Arnold Lamm (Lamm Insurance).

Miss seeing George and Jim Moser. They have an office on Lincoln Ave. in Morton Grove, but have moved their main operation and offices northwest. Their North American Heating and Air Conditioning Company is probably the largest in the Chicagoland area... Jim and Rick, the new owners of the Forest Flame are off to a fine and busy start...

Joseph I. Rosenberg, Chairman of the Board of the First National Bank of Morton Grove, again is heavily supporting "Expo '80" and is looking forward to great local participation... John O'Connell, President of Skokie Federal Savings, is still diligently working away. From the day he enthusiastically founded the association, I don't think even he imagined how successful it would be. Many expansion forays have been added due to competitive reasons. One of them is Sko-Fed in Florida which is headed by his brother Tom... Met Marvin B. Lewis, Credit Manager of Midwesco Inc. and LaGrange Worthington, Senior Vice-President of Rolled Steel Corporation. Learned a few interesting sidelights about their industries... Worthington also had with him a Cavalry sword from the Civil War that formed and started the nucleus of our conversation.

Side Issue... "Ain't she sweet, when she's walking down the street, now I ask you very confidentially, ain't she sweet?" Those were the melodious strains from Sgt. Jagodzinski during a march in our continual trek towards the heart of Europe. Unbelievable, a yell echoed from the distant rear. "Furlough for Jagodzinski... Furlough for Jagodzinski!" and kept getting louder for ears that couldn't believe it. Yes, after almost four years and many combat engagements, he had earned enough "points" to go home. A happier man couldn't be found. Also, no man could have retired to the rear any faster. It wasn't two months before that he led us on an attack down a wooded hill. Away we went into this unknown valley. The replacement to my right (who only came back the night before from another wound, told me the night before he dreaded getting shot across the chest) did get it in the chest. Au Coin was finished with a spray of metal. Jagodzinski went down when his helmet was pierced, grazing his scalp. Greenberg flew off his feet with a wound in his shoulder. A runner and I got him to his feet. (I think he ran faster than the machine gun bullets that missed me but got the runner in the heel). Joe Thornton's gun went flying and he went sprawling in a depression after a couple clips of his magazine were hit and went up in smoke. Then the dreaded silence... No counter-attack seemed forthcoming. Finally the stuttered yell! "Are you there J. J. Johnny?" Between the staccato of involuntary knocking knees came the stammered reply. Ya...Ya...Yeah! G...G...get your damn gun and come over here! After what seemed like an eternity to both of us, a time of probably only several minutes of watching and waiting for signs of movement, Faulhaber appeared. He quickly determined from us that no others were left around and asked us to join his squad, which now numbered five. I asked Joe if he was ready to go and he nodded affirmatively. Faulhaber started naming the four remaining with him and was ending with the words "and myself..." when a fatal missile tore the middle of his helmet and dropped out the other side just as I was face to face with him... Patient readers, those are some of the faded memories of a little over thirty five years ago... also a little explanation for those who've asked... of why my column is named "Here Comes Johnny"... It's so nice to be around!

District 207 receives funds for gifted math program

Maine Township High School District 207 was notified in July by the Illinois State Board of Education that its application for gifted funds to set up a program for students with special mathematical abilities has been approved.

Prior to applying for $45,000 in gifted funds, District 207 identified 540 students, among its near 10,000 students in the 1979-80 school year, as being gifted in mathematics, Joel Morris, coordinator for the new program, reported.

He said: "While the district provides programs for gifted students now through its accelerated and advanced placement programs, this money gives us the opportunity to enhance our program for those students capable of going beyond your present mathematics curriculum—and of doing so without digging into our limited financial resources."

Morris pointed out that because of the Johns Hopkins Math Talent Search, begun three years ago, which identifies gifted sixth-grade math students and permits them to take the first two years of high school math while still in junior high school, there are presently six sophomores who have completed Maine's math program.

"With the continuation of the math talent search, we will have more and more students requiring additional learning opportunities in mathematics. These gifted funds can provide tuition money to enroll these Maine students in college-level programs," Morris said.

He added that plans are in the works to develop these programs through Oakton Community College.

This is the first year, the coordinator reported, that Maine has applied for and received gifted funds from the state. "We will be evaluating the program at the end of the year," he said, "and looking at other departments in which we can offer gifted programs."

The gifted funds received by Maine for the math program are also being used for in-service activities for educators involved in the gifted program, for testing to help the district identify gifted students, to purchase a microcomputer for instructional purposes, and to supplant a portion of the coordinator's salary.

District 219 officers

Ray Fleischer and Mary Helen Archibald have been elected president and secretary respectively of the District 219 (Niles Township High Schools) Board of Education.

Mr. Fleischer served for thirteen years on the Board of Skokie elementary District 73½. Prior to that he covered board meetings for many years as PTA education chairman. His primary interests are special education and community relations. In the case of the latter, he states that "in the board context of the high school district, we must strive to ascertain just what and who constitutes our community."

Asked about his hopes for the new board, Mr. Fleischer says, "I want to emphasize that we are a hard working board, and that we are striving to attain a cohesiveness of goals while maintaining our range of beliefs. Diversity without antagonism will be our hallmark."

Mr. Fleischer is the president and property manager of Parliament Enterprises, LTD, a Chicago based management firm. Mrs. Fleischer is a homemaker, and four of their five sons have already graduated from Niles Township High Schools. "I have seen in my children alone," says Mr. Fleischer, "how the District is able to serve a wide range of abilities, talents, and interests. It is of utmost importance that we provide something special to suit the needs of each child."

Mrs. Archibald, who became interested in education through PTA work, served on the board of the Lincolnwood schools between 1970 and 1976. Then, while living with her family in Greece, she sat on the board of the American Community School.

A former volunteer at the Julia Malloy School in Morton Grove, Mrs. Archibald has special interest and expertise in the area of handicapped education. She was a prime mover and member of the first board of directors of the Low Incidence Cooperative Agreement (LICA), an agency which utilizes governmental resources to educate some handicapped children on a regional basis.

"Special education costs are escalating," says Mrs. Archibald, adding that "we must spend our funds with care. Since the school population is shrinking, there is a tremendous need to provide these services on a regional basis."

Mrs. Archibald is the mother of three children, and her youngest daughter will graduate from Niles West in June. Her husband, an engineer, owns a construction firm.

Other 219 Board members include Bert Meyers, Fred Minkus, and Eric Moch, as well as recently elected members Lowell Ruffer and Florence Suker.

Letters to the editor

Niles Parks thank July 4th parade participants

Dear Editor: The Niles Park District 4th of July Parade was a huge success! I thank each organization for the floats, decorated cars and bikes. There were a total of 70 units which participated.

The marchers and clowns were a beautiful sight to see. Walt Disney's cartoon characters portrayed by the tellers from the First National Bank of Niles were certainly enjoyed by all. The Color Guard from the V.F.W. of Bunker Hill, together with the Women's Auxiliary were most inspirational. The Honor Guard in full dress of the North American

M-NASR expresses thanks to MG parks

Dear Editor,

During the weekend of June 19-22, the Morton Grove Park District held a Softball Marathon with the proceeds going to the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation. This was the third year that the Park District has held this fund raiser and each year it seems to grow; this growth as a result of the staff devotion to the project.

The monies raised will total approximately $3,000 to be used for making a program facility accessible to the handicapped; without the many participants, spectators and generous merchants in the area donating raffle prizes, this would not have been possible. In addition, many volunteers put in long hours towards the cause making the event the success that it was.

Many thanks to Dave Huber, Scott Bosley, Rick Grodsky, the Morton Grove Board of Directors and Staff for a much appreciated effort on behalf of our Association and the special people we serve.

Sincerely,
Emil Winograd

Martyrs Knights of Columbus added to the festivities immensely. The Great Lakes Drill Team's precision was spectacular. We want to thank Congressman John Porter, Senator Richard Daley, Senator John Nimrod, State Representative Ted Leverenz and our Village officials for taking time from their busy schedules to attend the parade.

A bouquet of roses to our businessmen who donated all the goodies: Minelli Bros., McDonalds, Salerno Cookies, Butternut, Tasty Pup, Jay's Potato Chips; "D" Deli, Matty Fukuta, Grossi Bros., Ann Quatterocchi, Callero & Catino Realty, Jim Callero, Tim Sheehan, Gabe Berrafato, Lucille Koznaeck, Mike Provenzano, and Tom Flynn.

Thanks to Notre Dame for the use of its parking lot, the Public Works, Police Department, Fire Department and Ken Scheel for helping in the parade route. Without the Golden Agers of St. John Brebeuf, the 55 Plus Club and the Oak Association serving the hot dogs and drinks, our parade couldn't have been such a huge success.

A big clapping of hands to Commissioner Steve Chamerski and his good wife, Ann, who kept the kids happy with the jar of pennies.

Not to be left out, thanks to Bill Hughes, his staff, and Debbie Nelson for supervising the games.

The park looked grand thanks to Tom Lippert and staff. Also many thanks to Joe Foltz, Bob Strezewski and Lillian White for singing and playing the organ. I also want to acknowledge the terrific coverage from the media.

This year's parade was bigger and better than ever because of all the wonderful people who participated.

Cadet Breitbart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Breitbart of Niles.

The course, open to both male and female cadets, is designed to acquaint young men and women with the Air Force pilot training program and other activities of an Air Force base, and to motivate them toward careers in aviation or in the Air Force. During the week, they got a comprehensive look at all phases of life on this busy installation.

The course is only one of a number of special activities which Civil Air Patrol offers each summer to its cadet members. These activities range from encampments at Air Force bases at pilot training and international travel through the International Air Cadet Exchange.

Morton Grove Legion receives state awards

The 62nd annual Department of Illinois American Legion convention was held July 17-20 at the Palmer House in Chicago, and was concluded with the huge parade as is customary. The Rifle Squad of the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 marched in the yearly parade as the honor guard of the group.

Also participating in the parade was retiring 7th Dist. Legion commander, Joseph Schmidt, of Morton Grove, a past commander of Post #134. In the women's contingent, his wife Elynor, a past president of the Auxiliary Unit to Post #134, also marched along with Mrs. Connie Mahanke of Morton Grove, another past Auxiliary Unit #134 president. Mrs. Schmidt was the retiring 7th Dist. Auxiliary president, and coincidentally Mrs. Mahanke will now serve as the coming year's district leader. Mrs. Mahanke was installed as the district president along with other district heads during Saturday ceremonies at the Bismark Hotel, the Auxiliary's convention headquarters where the Legion Auxiliary was meeting concurrently with the legionnaires.

However, the highlight of the convention for the Morton Grove Post was the presentation of two state-wide awards for contest entries. Plaques were presented to retiring commander Robert Perschon for the best history in the pictorial category and for the first place press book submitted in the state.

The history was compiled by Howard Karsten and contained colored photographs of all social, community and other events with which Post #134 involved themselves during the past year. The publicity book was assembled by past Auxiliary president Ms. Lorry Nehart who, along with legionnaire Ralph Hintz, was responsible for writing and submitting the press releases published in the area newspapers throughout the past year.

Both of these entries will be presented to Perschon at the formal installation in the fall when Mel Batty takes over the reigns of the organization, for souvenirs of his year in office. Post #134 has won both of these category contests several times in past years also.

Townhouses...

Marcheschi also noted the Fire Department had expressed a problem with answering calls in the rear of townhouses and being unable to locate the building due to lack of numbering. They also are having difficulty reading the script numbers used by some residents, especially at night, and suggested that while many residents may prefer these decorative numbers, they should also be required to use the numerals either before or after the script lettering.

The areas specifically mentioned by Marcheschi which would not include apartments or condos were the Prospect-Grand townhouses, Washington st., Courtland Park, Nordica and Chesterfield Gardens.

Marcheschi also mentioned various village departments have complained about the lack of numbering on the front of stores in shopping centers. Blaise stated, "The ordinance is there and only the enforcement is necessary." It was decided the fire department could handle this when making their regular inspections of the businesses.

In other actions the board approved the request for $2,300,000 of Industrial Revenue Bonds to Judah Builders for the purpose of developing two warehouse facilities in the industrial complex behind the Teletype Corporation. Mr. Benjamin, Bond Consultant appeared before the board and stated he highly recommended the issuance of the bonds to Judah. Benjamin noted the warehouse facilities would bring in more employment and revenue to the village and would involve no legal or moral obligation to the village of Niles.

Blood donor awards were presented to Joan Wlodarski who is a 3 gallon donor; Norene Lane and Stuart Snook for 2 gallon donations and the following 1 gallon donors: Deputy Fire Chief Charles Bobula, Arlene Cieplik, Michael DeVito, Joan E. Donahue, Donald Fergus, Loraine Grauman, Joseph Jekot, Richard Lake, Jerome Lutes, Stephen Parkovic, James Pierski, Henry Piontek, Robert Piton, Ray Pollastrini, Michael Ranos, Richard Reeve, John A. Wendel and Florian Zuber.

Approved amendment changing ordinance with regard to a Milwaukee ave. egress for the Car-X Muffler Shop which is being opened at 8901 Milwaukee in the existing Chicken Unlimited facilities. Change by board was predicated on the placement of the "Left Turn Only" sign and a banana curb to prevent autos exiting the business from making a left turn onto Milwaukee ave.

Bids were opened for the 1980 Alley Improvement Program and various locations throughout the village of Niles. Eight bids were received and turned over to the village Engineering Department for the study.

A Public Hearing was held regarding the proposed use of Revenue Sharing Funds in the amount of $457,000 from May 1 through Sept. 30, 1980. Niles Library board member Harry Pestine appeared to purchase a replacement for the Micro-fiche printer and reader which is very old and deteriorating. In addition Pestine sought $1,500 for a new reader to be used mainly by senior citizens and visually impaired persons which enlarges the print on the books when placed inside the machine. "In addition," said Pestine, "if you have funds left over, we always have a need for additional large $12,800, compared to $11,990 last year. At the top end of the scale, a teacher with a Masters degree and 29 years experience can expect $24,655 in the upcoming year, compared to $22,435 previously. There has also been an improvement in insurance coverage.

Again a topic for discussion at the district 67 school board meeting was roofing repairs. Ron Dahlquist, who oversees the school buildings, reported that he has worked up a 2500 sq. foot patching plan which has already been marked on the roof at Golf elementary. These repairs are essential despite the fact that Golf is no longer used as a district school, but has been rented to Niles Township Special Education.

Golf junior high has no dangerous roof areas and it is expected that the building's own maintenance men can take care of minor repairs.

At Hynes School, however, bids will go out to reroof a portion of the building which is considered hazardous. The bill for this is expected to total $50,000.

In other business: Following Superintendent William Stout's suggestion, there will be no increase in school fees, such as book or bus fees.

A handbook for Hynes elementary is being prepared for students and parents.

There is additional rental space available at Golf elementary. Interested parties should contact the district office.

The Parent Teacher Organization has been authorized to sell surplus furniture from Golf elementary.

Village Manager Ken Scheel noted the decision on the disbursement of the revenue sharing funds would be made at the proposed budget hearing on Aug. 12.

While we were standing above the storage pools, a simulated fuel assembly was hanging from a crane hook. This is spent energy which was to be stored in the pool. They have been able to condense more rods into the same 12 foot long by 8 inch square cores which were to be placed into the water.

Because our government has stopped the re-processing of this fuel, it is presently being stored underwater. While storage has been previously sent to Washington and South Carolina, there seems to be a hold on further storage in the ground. This necessitate Commonwealth storing rods into this water pool at their plant.

It is Commonwealth's contention this matter has become a political problem rather than a scientific one. They contend it is perfectly safe to store the active uranium in the ground buried deeply in encasements. But the political decision of placing the active uranium into the ground rests with the individual states, and politicians are not giving their okay for storage. It is seemingly impossible politicians will permit storage in their areas since the public has become increasingly apprehensive about active energy being stored underground. According to Commonwealth only the federal government will be able to make the decision for underground storage of waste which they believe is inevitable.

After standing on the runway overlooking the spent fuel water pits we retraced our steps. Twice we had to step into detectors to make sure we did not contact radiation. Our shoes and hands were checked and a hand detector was run over our clothes. At another security checkpoint the radiation detector we had installed on our shirt pocket was read.

We went into the briefing room for a question and answer period and then returned to the initial security room for a final checkout and a return of our hardhat.

It was a good session and we might suggest Commonwealth should open its plant to many more people. They are out to enlighten the public on what they are doing and what their problems are.

As a reporter we have not firm conclusions on a very complex matter. We mentioned we are aware of the much more economical nuclear plants are preferred by utility companies because of the higher profits involved. Commonwealth people said these lower costs are returned partially to their customers. Since they are regulated by the government, only certain amounts of these savings can be given to stockholders and much of the savings are returned to users of their electricity.

We are keenly aware the utilities desire to sell us their point of view. A few years ago Illinois Bell had us down to hear their story regarding the unfair competition they contended they were fighting. Their argument was the MCIC company was able to give long distance service only between large cities while they were compelled by government agencies to give long-distance service to America's smallest communities, which they said was very costly. Only recently Illinois Bell lost the suit.

As a conveyor of information we have to be very careful. The utilities are the professionals with a great deal of money to spend to get their message across to the public. The opposition, as in the case of the Illinois Bell's court action, had much less ability to get their message to the public.

For the most part, we've given you the utility company's message today. It will take a great deal more effort to get their opposition's view into print. We intend giving you their side because this issue is very important to all of us.

The storage of nuclear waste must be determined. And the sooner it is decided, the better. Every day more nuclear waste is being created. Finding a place to permanently store it should be determined now.

The slow actions of a politically-oriented society is not in the public interest. Tomorrow's burden will be greater than today's.

It is a public decision which has to be made. Neither the professional scientists nor the politicians can make this decision for us. None of us can make a sound decision without full knowledge. It is our responsibility to seek out this information and distill from it a firm conclusion.

Leaving for work early as is customary on Wednesday since it's press day, I headed down Greenwood thru Morton Grove and over to Sherman. As I attempted to cross Dempster on Sherman and head into the Bugle parking lot, I couldn't believe my eyes. Niles squads and Public Works trucks were busy putting up barricades to cut off traffic on Sherman. Pulling into the gas station on the corner, I walked over to the squad and asked the problem telling him I was from the Bugle. "You can't go down the street," he replied, "Because the wires are down from the storm and we're waiting for ComEd to come out and cut the power." "Oh no, not again," I thought.

As I said in the beginning, OK ComEd...I give up...you win...please no more! I'll never question your efficiency again.

will be increased from about $1,385,000 in fiscal year 1980 to about $1,387,000 in the fiscal year 1981.

After a public hearing the budget will be adopted. A levy cannot be extended until the budget and appropriation ordinance are adopted. This year's levy is estimated to be about 19 mills per $100 equalized assessed valuation as compared to 24 mills last year. The levy for the working cash fund will not be extended.

Harry Pestine, board president, said "What we're attempting to do is prevent a tax increase." Lower costs were attributed partly to successful negotiation of a grant and lower leasing fees for the branch library. Board members are negotiating a contract with members of East Maine School District board for leasing of Ballard School.

In other action, board members budgeted about $90,000 for books in the main library and about $30,000 for the branch library. The sums include both adult and juvenile books. Also, about $14,000 will be budgeted for the bookmobile and other mills.

In other action, members increased salaries of full-time employees by $1,200 but will drop hospitalization insurance. Costs for insurance were $80 a month for benefits on each employee. Pestine said the "bulk" of the employees will benefit by the board's action.

Board members are asking the Village of Niles for revenue-sharing funds to help support purchase of about five large-print reading machines. Readers, about $1,500 each, will enable persons with poor vision to use any book including reference works.

As part of the 1980 per capita grants, library board members voted to approve purchase of $2000 for large-print books and $2000 for super-8 sound movies.

teachers are unable to teach classes due to illness or other circumstances, District 207 is hoping to expand its substitute teachers' list.

"The best way to accomplish this purpose," Dr. John Benka, Assistant Superintendent for General Administration and Personnel, commented, "is to point out the very important function substitute teachers have in serving young people in our schools. We want to make college graduates who might be interested in substitute teaching aware of the qualifications for the job."

The basic qualifications are the Bachelor's degree and a 90-day substitute teaching certificate, he said.

Substitute teachers in District 207 receive between $40 and $55 per day depending on experience and length of assignment, Dr. Benka advised.

For further information on substituting in the Maine high schools, contact Dr. John Benka at 696-3600.

time village employee Eddie Bacher, began her employment in the village as the first secretary for the Public Works Department. Her job and responsibilities as secretary mushroomed as the village began to grow in size and number of residents. While working there she became acquainted with many of the intricate functions and chores that were handled by the Public Works Department and even became involved in the reading of construction blueprints that were used by Public Works for plumbing permits.

As the Public Works Department grew, she became a secretary for the Electrical Department as well. After serving faithfully and well with Public Works for 13 years, Mrs. Rolla took on a new assignment, that of being the first female alarm dispatcher for the Fire Department. From there she was elevated to secretary for the Fire Prevention Bureau, and is currently serving as administrative secretary to the Fire Chief Albert Hoelbl.
