Kosiba says 'we just can't afford it'

Park drops Tam Tennis purchase

by Bob Besser

A divided Niles Park Board voted 3 to 2 Tuesday night to oppose further studies of the viability of purchasing the vacant Tam Tennis Club. In effect, this vote assures that the Niles Park District will not purchase the tennis club.

Voting to refuse funding of a study of the area were Park Board President Dan Kosiba, Vice President Jeff Arnold, and Commissioner Walt Beusse. Voting to proceed with the study were Commissioners Steve Chamerski and Elaine Heinen.

Defending the board's decision after the meeting, Park Board President Kosiba said, "In plain black and white we can't afford it. The facts and figures of our operation are very clear."

Kosiba said the tennis club would have to generate an $85,000 profit yearly for ten years to pay off the $850,000 price of the facility. If the tennis club was unable to

by David (Bud) Besser

Over bacon, lettuce and tomato, Mayor aspirant Tom Flynn was telling us about the barrage of condos at the south end of Niles which may cause a water shortage to north-enders in the coming years. Tom said this was a genuine campaign issue.

Over London broil and french fries, Mayor aspirant Elaine Heinen told us Niles is missing a lot in not making better use of Senior Citizens in seeking their help to run the village.

Candidate Flynn was concerned about zoning and density. Candidate Heinen said Mayor Blase always brings out the water rate issue just before election time. Heinen said this wasn't an issue, inferring Blase has run this flag up the pole one time too many.

Saturday morning we dropped over to Heinen's political headquarters in the 9000 block on Courtland. Seniors Pete and Florence Lencioni, Elaine's campaign people, were doing the housekeeping in the spanking new offices. Since the Heinen campaigners were the first residents in the new building, it required some doing to get the quarters in order. The water pipes had burst a leak the past week, and the gas

Students learn safety

Children at St. John Brebeuf School, 8301 N. Harlem, learned about safety the fun way, with the Ronald McDonald School Safety Show. Don Conley, owner of the McDonald's on Milwaukee and Oakton in Niles and Youth Officer James Gerhardt of the Niles Police made "safety first" a reality for Niles Elementary students with the help of Ronald McDonald's skits, magic and puppet characters.

Youth issued 37 traffic tickets

15 year old cyclist leads police on chase

A 15 year old youth led police on a high speed chase around Morton Grove ending only when the boy crashed into a Morton Grove squad car. Following the boy's release from Lutheran General Hospital police presented the youth with 37 traffic tickets.

According to police the youth was first observed at 3:45 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 16 as he was driving a motorcycle on Oriole St. near Melzer School. Observed by police driving northbound on a southbound one-way street, the boy also had no license plate on the motorcycle or headlight on. Additionally, police said the motorcycle was traveling 50 miles per hour in a 20 miles per hour school speed zone.

After the youth refused to stop, police began to pursue him. Reaching speeds of up to 60 miles per hour, the motorcycle

The Niles branch library was established in 1973 as a demonstration project with funding coming from an Illinois State Library Grant. The first branch location was in the Golf Mill State Bank Building. After rapidly outgrowing those facilities the branch was moved to The Shopper's Walk Plaza on Milwaukee Ave. in 1974. In fall of 1980 the Board of Trustees leased seven rooms at Ballard School giving the branch over twice the space at considerably less cost to the district.

"Mr. Bingo" honored

At the December Christmas Party, Committeeman Nicholas B. Blase, honored Nick Costantino (Mr. Bingo, himself), with a plaque, in appreciation for his sincere and all out efforts in putting together the most successful Free Bingo Parties for the Senior Citizens of the Maine Township area.

It was Mr. Costantino who came up with the idea of the free parties for Senior Citizens eight years ago and Committeeman Nick Blase, asked him to be chairman of this event. They have put together 24 successful Senior parties, which have grown from 300 to over 800 people, who have spread the word about the great afternoon with free refreshments and entertainment, which has been provided for by Mayor Nicholas B. Blase.

As Nick Costantino will tell you, "It takes a lot of people to help put together an event which has grown to such huge proportions", but we say, "We are lucky to have a gentleman of such caliber as our "Mr. Bingo", Nicholas Costantino.

St. John Brebeuf School was the site of a recent sectional meeting conducted by the Archdiocese of Chicago School System. SJB was one of six schools hosting representatives from surrounding parochial schools for a workshop at which the new Archdiocesan "School Policies and Administrative Guideline for Elementary Schools" were explained and clarified.

Pastors, School Principals, School Board Chairpersons and a teacher representative from each parish heard the Vicar of Catholic Education, Father Richard Ehrens, the Chairperson of the Archdiocesan Board of Education, Betty Henneman, and various members of the Archdiocesan Staff discuss and clarify the newly revised policies and guidelines which provide the framework for Catholic education.

Marillac cager named 'Athlete of the Week'

Marillac's Varsity Basketball team, the defending Girls' Catholic Athletic Conference champions, saw their season hit both its high and low points this far this week. Senior Captain Mary Lou O'Brien (Glenview) was named "Prep Athlete of the Week" by the Chicago Tribune for her amazing efforts in the Northstars' three wins last week. She capped these with a 35-point, 20 rebound performance against 1981 G.C.A.C. runner-up Maria High School. But just when things seemed to be getting better all the time, an injury pulled O'Brien off the court and put her on crutches. Marillac defeated Woodlands without their star player, but lost two close games to New Trier East and Trinity.

Coach Rich Pausback feels that the situation should improve, however, since O'Brien's trouble has been diagnosed as a sprain. The holder of Marillac's single game and career scoring and rebounding records should be back in action by play-off time. Pausback tries to look on the bright side. "Some of the younger players have gotten more experience now," he stated. "And Kathlynn Eshoo has taken charge in Mary Lou's absence." Eshoo, a junior from Niles, was an Honorable Mention selection to the All-Conference team last year. In addition to scoring 28 points against Trinity, she broke the school's career record for assists and steals this week. Despite her size, the 5'5" guard has colleges looking at her already. "Kathlynn is extremely quick, and is probably the best defensive guard in the area," said Pausback. "I'm glad we've got her for another year."

Freshman Christy Schachte placed 2nd in the All-Around competition at the 1st Freshman Invitational at Niles West on Jan. 31. Schachte also took awards in every event, with a 2nd in Vault and Bars, 5th in Floor Ex, and 10th in Beam. In addition, Abbie Katz took 10th in the All-Around with 29.4 points. Coach Betty Axelson commented that "Abbie and Christy should be very proud of their performances since they have worked on these compulsory routines on their own for the most part, and hopefully the skill they've gained this year will carry over to the optional competition at the Varsity level. Christy is an extremely hard worker and has a great future ahead of her. Abbie also is a very hard worker and has come a long way this year in all 4 events."

The Maine East Varsity team clinched a 6-0 dual meet record on Jan. 30, as they defeated Highland Park 103-86 to 89.15 points. Sr. Amy Katz was the Demon's All-Arounder with an 8.06 average, taking 1st places in Floor Ex and Vaulting. On Bars, the Maine East gymnastics team was weaker than usual, with Lisa Wax scoring 6.8, and Amy Katz and Schachte both hitting 7.9's. # BEFORE WE SWITCHED TO A GLENVIEW STATE BANK NOW ACCOUNT, WE DID A LITTLE CHECKING AROUND.

Like most people we want maximum value for our savings and checking deposits. We were pretty excited when we learned that banks would start paying interest on checking accounts on January 1. When the new NOW Account programs were introduced, we made a comparison between the different programs offered by banks and savings and loans in our area.

With Glenview State Bank we only need to maintain a $750.00 minimum balance in our account to keep our NOW Account absolutely free and we receive 5 1/4% on our average monthly balance. If our balance should drop below the minimum, we are charged only $5.00 for that month or $ .25 per check, whichever is greater. Of course, we wouldn't let the balance drop below $750.00, but it's nice to have the liquidity in the event an emergency did arise.

We're glad we switched our checking and savings accounts to Glenview State Bank. 60 years of checking experience is reflected in the Glenview State Bank N.O.W. Account. When you compare it to other programs, the difference in value is obvious as it is with most financial programs offered by Glenview State Bank.

If you do some serious checking, we think you'll see the advantages of the Glenview State Bank NOW Account, too.

CHURCH AND TEMPLE NOTES

Edison Park Lutheran's 54th Anniversary celebration

Members and friends of Edison Park Lutheran Church, Avondale and Oliphant aves., Chicago, will celebrate the 54th Anniversary of the Church on Sunday, February 22, at both the 9 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. Services. The guest speaker at these special Services will be Dr. Walter Wietzke, Director of The American Lutheran Church's Division for Theological Education and Ministry. He is the author of "In League With the Future" and "Believers Incorporated".

On the same afternoon, at 4:45 p.m., a Friendship Hour entitled "Balinese Holiday" will be presented by Mr. Carl Johnson. Mr. Johnson has a reputation of being a fine travel photographer. Refreshments will be served by members of the Naomi Circle at a fellowship hour immediately following the program. The Friendship Hours are a special feature of the life of the congregation and have brought outstanding programs of inspiration and entertainment through the years of Sunday afternoons.

Edison Park Lutheran Church held its first services in a portable church that was shipped to Edison Park via railroad, and was unloaded and assembled by men of the Church. The Reverend Roy A. Harrisville was installed as the first Pastor on March 20, 1927. In 1938, the Reverend A. Gordon Nasby, Pastor Emeritus, came to E.P.L.C. and served the congregation for forty years. Today, The Reverend J. Thomas Housholder serves as Senior Pastor.

In the month of January, the congregation completed thirty years of continuous broadcasting the sermon portion of the 9 a.m. Services over Radio Station WOPA, at 1490 kh. (9:30-10 a.m.) A Pre-school has been conducted for twenty-nine years serving the community.

Each summer, children from all of the area churches take advantage of the program which has been offered by the Church for Vacation Bible School, and the Church's facilities have been taxed to capacity for this program of Bible study and training.

A unique feature in the church's life has been that never during the fifty-four years of operation has the Church operated its program with the use of pledges. All giving is free-will giving.

Everyone in the community is invited to come and celebrate the Fifty-fourth Anniversary of Edison Park Lutheran Church on Sunday, February 22.

St. John Brebeuf considers Pre-school

Holiday spirit continued by SJB students

A project designed to remind the students of St. John Brebeuf School of the true spirit of Christmas, thinking of others and sharing with them, has produced a continuing concern for the less fortunate among many of the students.

As part of the project, each classroom picked one or two families from a Catholic parish on the West Side of Chicago and collected food, including a turkey or a ham, clothing and toys for their Christmas celebration. The project was made more personal because the children were made aware of the names, ages and sizes of the family members. Also, a representative group of students from grades 3, 6, and 7 went along when the gifts were distributed.

Some of the SJB students are extending their concern for their "adopted families" beyond the Christmas season by making plans to share the joys of the Easter season with them as well. Such continuing concern for others and the willingness to share with the less fortunate are important lessons that SJB students have learned well through this and similar projects.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Attends "disappointing" township meeting

Dear Editor:
I had the experience recently of attending a meeting of our Township government.

My first impression was that I couldn't understand why meetings are held in such a small room! There were only 5 spectators and the board present and yet the room was crowded and overbearingly warm.

I sensed an almost oblivious nature toward our presence. It was as if we were not present. We were not given agendas or told what to expect.

We happened to be sitting in on a bill paying session. As a taxpayer I was appalled to hear the checks being approved for payment. No mention was made as to who received payment, what services were, or even dollar amounts. It went something like, "check number 15, OK, check number 16, OK." I left there not knowing anymore about bill paying sessions then when I entered.

At one point a letter was read commending the Township for their fantastic efforts. The letter was supposedly from a senior citizen and oddly enough, it was printed on a Township letterhead! When questioned about this, the answer given was that it was typed on their letterhead for purposes of reproduction. I would have felt a little more at ease had the original letter been simply xeroxed for members to read. It would have lent more credibility also.

There were other things that didn't quite seem appropriate.

The board was approving minutes from previous sessions dating back 2 months, from total recall. No copies of those meetings were available to anyone.

The general procedure of holding the meeting was very informal, with no heed given to rules and principles governing it.

I got the distinct impression that this was more of a social occasion than a board meeting. One usually expects to see a more structured program with agendas and formal setting.

This was truly an unusual experience to see our Township government in action. It was disappointing. But you'd have to be there to believe it!

An appreciative Nilesite goes south!

Dear Mr. Besser:

After living in Niles for the past 22 years, we are moving next month to Camp Point, Ill., a little town south of Quincy. I'd like to take this opportunity to say "thank you" to Niles for so many things. For Oak School and Maine East High - where our children received such great educations; for Niles Community Church, where they received great religious training; for the many parks, the library and handy Bookmobile; the many stores and good restaurants - the free bus - the Bugle Newspaper! Some years ago I was privileged to be a part of the celebration when Niles won the All-America City Award, and that is how I am going to remember it - as the All-America City - Thanks, Niles, for 22 happy years!

Sincerely,
Helen Jorgensen
Niles, Ill.

Urges voters to air their views

Dear Sir:
The Committee to Elect a Democratic Township has launched a comprehensive door to door campaign throughout the township in order to determine the special problems and needs of Maine Township residents. We are very concerned that residents presently have no voice in their township government, due in large part to the fact that they are unaware of either its existence or its services.

Our is a very real appeal to the voters of this township to air their views so that improvements can be made. We are, therefore, most anxious to have township residents contact us directly.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite interested township residents to write to us, the Committee to Elect a Democratic Township at 870 N. Milwaukee, Niles, Illinois 60648. You can be assured that your comments will be considered confidential and will be given our complete attention.

Sincerely,
Terry Shevelenko,
Democratic Candidate
Maine Township Collector

OCC Child Care Services Club wins prize

The Child Care Services Club at Oakton Community College learned recently that one good deed can be returned almost tenfold.

This good deed happened to be the club's.

Last Christmas the club members put their heads together to come up with a way of helping children have a merry holiday season. They wanted to do something that would get the whole school involved, said Florence Munuz, faculty advisor to the club and assistant professor of Child Care Services. They decided to raise money for WGN radio personality Wally Phillips' Neediest Children's Fund. The club collected $120.

The names of the contributors to the fund were then placed in a barrel for a drawing. The winners were given prizes.

One of the names drawn was that of the Child Care Services Club. It won a $1,000 certificate for a catered party. With that certificate, the club plans to have a party, Ms. Munuz said, for teachers and directors of the schools in the field who have helped the child care students learn about young children. No date had been set yet for the party, but it will be held at OCC the end of the semester, with caterer and all.

"This is the first time the club has had a project of this nature," Ms. Munuz said. "The students may try to do the same or a similar project next year."

Meanwhile, Child Care Services has a lesson in generosity for its charges.

Man with rifle surrenders after barricading family

A Northwest suburban man, apparently dependent over not having a job, surrendered to police Saturday after an afternoon confrontation near Des Plaines during which he held seven members of his family hostage.

L. George J. Nicosia of the Cook County sheriff's police said Simon G. Torres, Jr., 23, of 8805 Robin Dr. in unincorporated Maine Township, was involved in a domestic quarrel Saturday afternoon. He said Torres forced his family to stay inside the house after he barricaded the doors. One of Torres' sisters called police, and Officer Jeff Pace responded. After Pace got out of the squad car, Torres allegedly fired two shots from a 22-caliber rifle, both missing the officer. Pace called for reinforcements.

Sgt. John Reed talked Torres into releasing the family members, then spent more than half an hour persuading him to surrender.

Torres surrendered, and no one was injured. Torres was charged with attempted murder, armed violence, unlawful use of a weapon, and not having an identification card for the rifle. A bond hearing was scheduled for Tuesday.

State troopers to check truck equipment

Illinois State troopers will now be watching more closely for faulty equipment and unsafe vehicle violations on trucks on Illinois highways.

Captain Hugh S. McGinley, Commander of District 15, Illinois State Police Headquarters in Oakbrook stated, "House Bill 2708 exempts any truck properly registered in another state and displaying a valid registration plate, from the Illinois Safety Test requirements."

"This means that troopers will have to pay particular attention to all types of vehicle equipment violations, so that the second division vehicles traveling in Illinois do not become in such a state of disrepair as to become a hazard to the motoring public," McGinley added.

Equipment checks set up at toll plazas by State Police will be checking for worn tires, broken springs, lights not working and flags and flares not carried in the vehicle as well as other equipment violations.

Weatherproof energy.

In winter, for the past several winters, many parts of the country have experienced energy shortages. The oil and coal needed to make electricity couldn't be delivered. Rivers were frozen. Stockpiled coal was frozen solid. The machinery to move coal was frozen.

As fuel ran low electricity had to be rationed. Plants and schools were closed. People were laid off. Shivering became the national pastime. But not in northern Illinois.

It wasn't luck that got us through those winters: it was nuclear power. Over 40% of the electricity we make comes from nuclear fuel. Because no matter how much it snows or how cold it gets, nuclear fuel is available—weatherproof.

Enough uranium to provide all the electricity we need for an Illinois winter can be stored in a one car garage.

In summer, nuclear power gives us the reliability we need to respond to summer peak demands without brownouts. In the last decade, when growth of air conditioning helped increase demand for electricity more than 35%, Edison's nuclear stations had an unbroken record of summer availability.

And nuclear power is today's great energy bargain. It costs about a penny and a half a kilowatt hour less than coal and over four cents less than oil. If we replaced our uranium with low sulphur western coal in 1980, it would have cost an extra $460,000,000 in fuel expense. Using oil or gas instead of uranium would have driven the cost up to almost 1.5 billion dollars. Instead, the nuclear fuel we used, the equivalent of 46,000,000 barrels of oil, saved over 10% on your electric bill.

With our strong nuclear capability, we're ready for the weather. Let it snow! Let it sizzle.

Niles Family Service on remarriage and the stepfamily

A lecture and discussion series is being offered by Niles Family Service concerning remarriage, stepparenting and the stepfamily on three successive Wednesday evenings from 8-9 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. starting February 25 and concluding March 11. This will be held at Niles Family Service at the Niles Trident Center, 8060 Oakton St., Niles.

The chances that a child will grow to adulthood in the same home with both mother, and father is growing more and more slim. It is known that one in five children will be a child of divorce.

It is also estimated that approximately sixty percent of all divorcees remarry within five years. As a result, the number of stepparents is growing and the "blended" families brings with it special problems and challenges.

The process of remarriage and stepparenting presents difficult challenges in adjustments to all family members who have to grapple with a wide range of new attitudes, feelings and expectations. The idea for this educational/problem-solving workshop grew out of a recognition of the vast numbers of people facing this challenge.

The first session is offered to provide general information about stepparenting and stepfamilies and will involve a movie and discussion. The two concluding sessions will follow a group problem-solving format in which families will be invited to bring their interests, concerns, and experiences to a small group comprised of families like themselves.

The series will be co-led by Jeanne Pilat from Lutheran General Hospital and Diane Yost from Niles Family Service. Ms. Pilat is a graduate of Catholic University and the Family Institute of Chicago. She has many years of experience in family treatment and has worked closely with increasing numbers of step families in the past several years. Ms. Yost has over ten years of experience in the field of child welfare and is a stepparent herself.

The fee is $10 for Niles residents and $20 for non-residents. (same cost for individuals or couples). If the fee presents an obstacle, please call Dr. James Cisek, Director of Community Outreach, Niles Family Service for special arrangements.

We urge families to get involved in this experience and enroll as quickly as possible. Please call Ms. Yost or Dr. Cisek at 692-3396 or stop in at Niles Family Service in the Trident Center, 8060 Oakton Street, in Niles.

ED HANSON

February...
A "Blah" Month..

February, the shortest month in the year, always seems like the longest. But, cheer up! Spring is just around the corner.

In time for spring, Arvey's newly remodeled restaurant and cocktail lounge will be ready to open in about 4 weeks. ARVEY'S RESTAURANT, a favorite in this area and with the north-side folks of Chicago, will sport an elegant bar and cocktail lounge, and a completely new look in their main dining rooms. The "New" Arvey's, at Oakton & Waukegan, Niles, will continue to serve the kind of gourmet foods that made them "Internationally Famous", but many new features have been added to make your dining more enjoyable. Watch for ARVEY'S big announcement ad in the Bugle newspapers in the near future. Meanwhile, the big job of remodeling continues. ARVEY'S is open for business as usual.

More signs of Spring, dollar signs, mostly, (which horse players lose) is the opening of Sportsman's Park. Last Monday, Sportsman's Park opened Chicago's longest thoroughbred season in the long history of Chicago racing. Just remember, at any race track, no horse can go as fast as your money can. All gambling experts agree that nobody can beat the nags. It seems they're so hungry for the sucker's buck, they keep opening earlier each season and running later. The percentage against you in playing the nags is so great there is not any way you can win.

But no horse player believes it. "You mean a guy can't get lucky and win a bundle?" they cry.

Luck is the most overused term in the business of gambling. And gambling is the biggest business in this country. It's combined money volume surpasses that of more than 100 of America's giant corporations. Its participants number more than one hundred million adult Americans. Of these, 95% have little or no knowledge of the odds of the games they play. For the most part they rely on the non-existent factor of luck.

Recently I heard of a young man of 32 who quit a good paying executive job to play poker for a living. When asked what his vocation is, this young man now replies, "I'm a probability engineer."

That answer has some degree of intelligence because it shows he is, at least, on the right track. But there is a bumpy and unpredictable road bed under those tracks which can make the ride very uncomfortable at times.

What is probability? Basically, probability theory is a set of mathematical principles used to predict the outcome of future chance events. This can be translated into odds. If you throw three dice, the number 10 will occur more frequently than any other combination. The reason being there are more ways to make the total number of ten - 27. In craps (two dice) there are 36 combinations and the 7 can be made the most number of ways or a total of six. And regardless of what number appears on any one dice, a total of 7 can be made with the other dice.

But the most important principle to remember is that probability theory states what is expected to happen, not what is inevitable. There are no guarantees. When the unexpected happens it is called luck - good or bad.

Only Black Jack or Craps, in an honest place, has a "prayer" of being beaten.

"Peter and the Wolf"

Kids Need Culture Too!, the performing arts series for children ages four to ten, continues at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 22 with the Piper Puppet's presentation of "Peter and the Wolf" held at the Devonshire Recreation Center, 4400 Grove St. The Kids Need Culture Too! is co-sponsored by Skokie Park District, Skokie Fine Arts Commission and Skokie Federal Savings and Loan.

Kathy Piper's version of "Peter and the Wolf" is presented as a three-act play, not a narration. The performance is preceded by the appearance of an animated, eleven member "orchestra". A marionette conductor introduces both the orchestral instruments and the musical themes composed by Prokofiev. The musical characterizations are fully explained and repeated but are not used as a background to the action.

Kathy Piper creates all the marionettes, writes the scripts, constructs the stage and scenery and plans each intricate manipulation in the production. The characters are portrayed by large marionettes, one-half life size. The acting is "live" and the many voices are so skillfully portrayed one finds it hard to believe they are the work of one person.

Admission to the show is 60¢ per person. Tickets are available in advance at Devonshire Recreation Center or at the door. Seating is not reserved. For additional information call 674-1500.

"The quality of the exhibit is exceptional," says Porten. She is planning arts and crafts exhibits for other high school staff and faculty members. "I feel this is an excellent way of showing how multidimensional our employees really are," concludes Porten.

M-NASR party

On Jan. 23, Niles Park Commissioner Elaine Heinen was hostess at the Oak School for the Handicapped (Maine Niles Special Recreation). The hall was decorated with blue, white and silver decorations.

Elaine gives a big thank you to Lucille and Nancy Kozanekki who made all the decorations for the party. It was a pleasure to see all the shining faces as they received cake, cookies, candy, pop, potato chip, etc.

Helping Elaine pass out the goodies were members of the St. Isaac Jogues 55 Plus Club and members of the St. John Brebeuf Golden Age Club. A good time was had by all. A big hand to Elaine for her help and concern for the Handicapped, Seniors, and all residents of the Village of Niles.

Allgauer's Fireside hits high prices

Quality and good service have not been sacrificed at Allgauer's for their low-priced "early bird" full course dinner specials served between 5:00 and 7:00 p.m. during the week.

Entrees are priced from $6.40 to $7.95 for full course dinners, which are served in romantic and well-appointed surroundings. None of the charm is gone because of these low-priced "specials". In fact, it has been a "between weekends" meeting place for accomplished gourmets who know good food and appreciate the pocket-pleasing savings.

Last Wednesday we started in the Library - a room of conversation comfort and stimulation. The bar in the Library served generous before dinner drinks.

We started with excellent onion soup that would make a Frenchman tip his beret. The Stuffed Boneless Breast of Chicken was delicate and savory. During the 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. gala, you may have your choice of vegetable or potato. Leaving room for Allgauer's great desserts, we chose the vegetable. The tossed salad was crisp and the "house dressing" superb.

Our dining experience was topped with the Black Forest Torte and coffee. It was getting close to 8:00 p.m. and we went back to the Library and listened to guitarist Bob Storm - a great entertainer and a great way to end an evening.

Allgauer's is located at 2855 Milwaukee Ave., Northbrook, Ill. For this early extravaganza, it is suggested you be seated by 6:30 p.m. Demand has made reservations a must. Call 541-6000.

AEP proud of Niles transportation

The Village of Niles is proud of the public transportation that is offered to the residents of our village. The Milwaukee ave. bus route that is covered by NORTRAN had over a million riders in the year 1980. This ridership made it the most and best travelled route in all of Cook County.

In conjunction with the excellent public transportation of NORTRAN, the Village of Niles embarked upon its own community bus system. Our village was the first to offer a free municipal bus service and it has proven so successful and has been so well received by our residents that it has been emulated by communities all over America.

Effective good public transportation does much for a community. In many cases it eliminates the need for a second automobile and in this time of fuel inflation it is also a tremendous means of conserving energy. Many articles have been written about the success of this program and its good effect on our community.

We of the Achievement With Economy Party pledge to continue our progress and programs of better public transportation at the lowest possible cost to all of the residents of the community.

April 7, 1981 is an election day in the Village of Niles and we request your support in re-electing the administration that has been responsible for our free Courtesy Bus Transportation System.

Vote for incumbent Mayor Nicholas B. Blase, incumbent Village Clerk, Frank C. Wagner, Jr. and incumbent Village Trustees A. Selman, Peter Pesole and Carol Panek. They pledge to continue to achieve new goals with economy.

If you wish to help the Achievement With Economy Party, please call Mayor Nicholas Blase at 692-3388. The Achievement With Economy Party is willing to appear before any recognized Niles group or organization.

Grand opening of Heinen's campaign office

Peter Lencioni, Campaign Manager for Elaine Heinen, Independent Candidate for the Office of Mayor of Niles wishes to announce the Grand Opening of their headquarters at 9073 Courtland ave. (near the corner of Milwaukee and Courtland in Niles) on Monday, Feb. 23 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend the Grand Opening celebration. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. Lencioni stated they plan to open with a 'big bang' and will start their campaign in stride, bringing out various issues and programs. "We will run a clean campaign. Elaine will run on her record as a hard working citizen, her record as Park Commissioner which speaks for itself, in addition to being a real humanitarian with understanding."

Elaine has promised to give up her job with a Law Firm where she has been working for the past 14 years, if elected, she can devote full time to the job of being Mayor. A Mayor should always be available in order to be of service to the people, and to

Flynn cites Niles condo zoning as dangerous

Thomas Flynn, Niles Mayor and Candidate, said he is "crying out to the people of Niles" to stop spot zoning changes for one year. He said the proposal now before the zoning board to grant a 20 parking space variation to convert a 24 unit building into a condominium was proof of a needed moratorium.

Mr. Flynn said, "Zoning in Niles has the sole purpose of making money for developers. There is little concern for people or our future. The rows of apartment buildings South of Touhy and East of Milwaukee are another example. Each apartment building replaced a single family home and increased the lot value alone from about $40,000 to over $125,000. Some developers are becoming millionaires."

"Stand in front of St. Isaac Jogues Church and look south at the new condominium complex. Similar proposals were rejected over and over again by the Cook County Zoning Board in the early seventies. Why did Niles Annex this land and then grant the zoning change from single family home to high density condominium development?"

This project has created a traffic and safety problem for the school children, taxes water and sewer lines and endangers the very residents if there is a fire when water pressure is low. Why did Mayor Blase and the Village Board approve this project?"

Mr. Flynn concluded "Zoning is a dull subject and if it does not affect you personally, you often ignore it. Can you ignore a fire in the North Niles that kills many nursing home residents or those in the new Golf rd. condominium complex because water pressure is low? I beg you to stop these changes now before it is late."

Lipin urges cutback in government spending

Barry C. Lipin, Democratic candidate for Maine Township supervisor, announced today that the Democratic slate is strongly committed to cut back in government spending. Lipin stated, "We must streamline operations in the township offices and reduce spending in areas where services are duplicated."

In these times of economic turmoil, governmental units must review and examine where the money is being spent.

"Maine Township is wasting taxpayers' money by supporting organizations that duplicate services. For example, the Alcohol Council duplicates services that Lutheran General Hospital offers." Lipin charged, "It is time that township officials wake up and eliminate unnecessary expenditures."

"We can save money by cooperating with existing agencies that do similar work," Lipin stated. In the area of youth services the township should coordinate efforts with local municipalities.

"It has been too long that Maine Township has operated as an island in the middle of the sea of local governments."

Moving south on Waukegan Rd., the boy turned into the parking lot behind the Illinois Telephone Company, 8930 Waukegan Rd. Police squad cars immediately blocked the lot's entrance and exit and an additional car blocked the motorcycle from driving onto an adjacent field to escape.

with the local police departments in attempting to solve the drug problem. Penalties suggested by the Task Force have been enforced - a comparison of drug and alcohol related suspensions shows that as of Jan. 31, 1981, there have been twice as many suspensions for these offenses as during the same period last year.

High school staff members told the Task Force that teachers, administrators, and security personnel have been thoroughly briefed on drug behavior and paraphernalia. However, the Task Force is continuing to work in the areas of health education programs for students as well as special programs for parents. According to Dr. Weldy, "While parent programs are not the specific responsibility of a high school district, it is unlikely that anyone else will take the responsibility." A subcommittee on drug education is pursuing educational programs for students, and another group will be investigating possible parent programs.

At the end of the meeting, Task Force members voted unanimously to send a letter to Mr. Raymond Dreiffuss, owner of the Magical Mystery Tour Limited, in Morton Grove, requesting that he suspend his practice of stocking and selling illegal drug paraphernalia. Copies of the letter will be mailed to approximately 25 newspapers, educators, and community members.

MG Parks...

park programs would be altered brought citizen reaction at a Feb. 9 recreation committee meeting. The plan, according to superintendent of recreation Richard Grodsky, will set Mansfield park with an organized kiddie camp and National Park with a new 5th and 6th grade Camp Mor Gro. Children will be bussed from Mansfield to Austin or from National to Oketo park if they wish to participate in a drop-in center only, where counselors are available, but children are not in an organized camp program. Busses will be chartered four times daily for these trips.

Of the 14 residents in attendance at the recreation committee meeting, most were opposed to losing a drop-in center at Mansfield. But after the discussion, 75% of the residents saw the validity in the changes, according to Grodsky.

Trustee Piper said they will be utilizing many suggestions from citizens made at the meeting and in traffic court in Skokie.

MG Parks...

"we'll give the program a try for at least a year and if it doesn't work, we'll try something else."

Also at the Feb. 16 meeting of the park board, a bid for summer bussing was awarded to the Scholastic Transportation Co. for $3911.50. This bussing contract also includes summer field trips.

MG baseball...

THEN and NOW
There was a time, during the first half of this century, when America was in full change of its energy resources, when we knew where we stood on fuel supply because we supplied our own needs. Producer of half the world's oil, America even supplied other nations' fuel.

THEN: Then, things began to change. In the first few years following World War II, the United States began to drift into energy dependence. The prospect of energy scarcity was obscured for a long time, however, by large discoveries of easily accessible oil in the Middle East and elsewhere.

NOW: Today, about half our oil comes from foreign countries and America is in a vulnerable position, economically and politically. Fortunately, some people are doing something about it. A group of some 200 organizations including business, labor, government and civic groups are sponsoring American Energy Week, March 15 to 21. In addition to various activities scheduled for that week in Washington, D.C. and around the country, petitions are being circulated that call for the search for energy answers to be our nation's top priority. For free copies of the petition, and free leaflets about American Energy Week and its activities, write to American Energy Week, 1111 19th Street, N.W., Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20036.

company had to be notified about turning on the gas lines. It was a new beginning for the new store as well as for the neophyte campaigners.

At lunch Elaine told us she wanted to run for Mayor 10 years ago. She felt the town always needed a woman's point of view with a lot of fresh ideas. Somewhat coyly, the lady candidate held back her fresh ideas, preferring to release them weekly in local newspapers.

Elaine, who comes out of Charley Weber's 45th Ward in Chicago, said old Charley wanted to adopt her during her childhood days. She said he helped put food on the table in her widowed mother's home, to be shared by the 13 kids in the family. She said she's an old St. Alphonsus Parish product coming from "the good old Southport Avenue area."

The lady talked mostly about her past. Polish-Catholic family. Lots of kids. Cardinal Stritch once sent her a letter. He commended her for treating people well and yet retaining her position as their boss.

Elaine said 2 terms were long enough for any Mayor. She said she was sorry she was in a three-person race. She would have preferred to take on Nick Blase on a one-to-one basis. She said there would be lots of doorbell ringing in the next 7 weeks. And she reminded us, "We're not going to hush anyone", referring to reports she would be firing people now working in public jobs. She also said she'd quit her job and become a full-time mayor, even at the $3,000 a year pay.

While the two candidates are jockeying for positions in the three-person race, the incumbent Mayor's forces will be reminding Nilesites about the free bus service they enjoy in town. While there might not be any free lunch in this world of ours, in the environs of Niles, Illinois, there is a free bus. And all the natives will be duly reminded of it, and who was in office when it was activated.

Ms. Heinen, who said she'll be spending out-of-pocket money for her upcoming campaign, will not be attending a March 15 "meet the candidates" meeting due to other commitments. Her campaign chairman is having a luncheon for her on that date for fund-raising and she said she'll be unable to attend.

While our job is to report the news, we also try to interpret what we report. And if you read over the past paragraphs, you would likely agree with us Nick Blase could retreat to his Florida hacienda for a couple of months and still retain his Mayorship in the upcoming election. As of now it's no contest. Ms. Heinen and Mr. Flynn are sincere candidates, motivated by good intentions. But unless they both hurry up and get their acts together, they're going to be steamrolled in a Blase landslide. As of today they don't have a prayer.

The 5-time Mayor hasn't had any competition for office since he first retained his job in 1961. And this year's competition is no greater than in past years.

All new candidates get many calls from disgruntled residents who built up the candidates by telling them about the many dissidents in town. But if there's 200 dissidents who'll turn out at the polls that's a great many. And this year they'll be dividing their 'anti' vote between the two new candidates.

We agree with Elaine 5 terms is too long a period for one person to serve in office. We agree with the first candidate we heard say this. Mr. Blase ran for office 20 years ago claiming the then Mayor, Frank Stankowicz, had been in office too long and it was time for a change. Ironically, Mr. Stankowicz had just served his 5th term.

There are lots of issues. But unfortunately, the new candidates are already much too late in attempting to create them. And while The Bugle had been in the forefront in past years in presenting these issues, we believe the candidates themselves should make some attempt to present them.

In bygone years we often heard candidates quote The Bugle about some areas in town which could be improved. And while it initially seemed flattering, we quickly became dismayed the candidates themselves did not ferret out the issues. It was much easier to let the local newspaper do the digging.

To win a local election requires a great deal of organizing. It is the paramount quality needed. No matter how attractive the candidate, unless he or she is well-organized, the likelihood of winning is slight. Also, it is absolutely imperative the Mayor candidate have a full slate of candidates to run with. Each trustee and clerk candidate has so many friends and acquaintances who are essential in getting out the votes for all the candidates on a ticket. It is an essential ingredient in being politically successful.

It is imperative the candidate be hungry. Hungry enough to want to win and hungry enough to want to confront the competition. Ms. Heinen says she has another engagement the day of the League of Voters candidates meeting. She would look more stateswomanlike if she cancelled her luncheon date and appeared at the candidates meeting.

Mr. Flynn has more of the ingredients we are referring to. But Tom doesn't have the organization. And his falling away at the Mayor will lose him as many votes as he'll gain.

It's too bad Blase has gotten weary of his job. He's filled his jeans with the fruits that came with the Mayor's job. He's exploited it more than any Mayor candidate in any neighboring town around, outside of Lincolnwood. But the natives really don't care. And as long as they deem he's made most of his bucks above board, they begrudgingly admire him for it.

We think it's time for a change. But it's not going to happen this year. And interestingly, the Nilesite who would most agree with both these statements is the man who will be elected for the 6th consecutive time as Mayor of Niles.

CETA employees hired by library

By Eileen Hirschfeld

Five persons were hired by the Niles Library district under CETA (Comprehensive Employment Training Act) funds as reported by library administrator, R. Mark Neyman, at a February 11 meeting.

CETA employees are Susan DeLorenzo, Rebecca Rosenfield, Janet DeMerit, Donna Pels and Brad Swartz.

A non-CETA employee, Helen Kowalek, was appointed children's librarian of the branch library located in Ballard school, Niles. Neyman also reported about 6 more applicants will be interviewed for CETA positions.

Board members reported an energy audit of the library, necessary to apply for certain energy grants, has not been completed. According to the report, the library is awaiting inspection by an architect.

Several library employees were given the option of waiving disability premium insurance to have the same funds deposited in an IRA account. All but two employees opted for the IRA account.

Harry Pestine, library board president, said only about 166 books a day are being checked out.

terested in serving, the board will appoint a candidate to an interim term to run until the general election in April of 1983.

out from the branch library. Board members had foreseen an early decline in the newly-established branch. Martin Hodes, board member, said the figures should be checked.

The branch library is now open in Ballard School, corner of Cumberland and Greenwood avenues. A formal opening ceremony early in the month was delayed. However, patrons may make use of the facilities.

Board members approved a motion for Harry Pestine to be temporarily designated as representative to the North Suburban Library System, until a new board member replaces the former representative, Judith Czyzewicz. Czyzewicz resigned at a special residency hearing called by the library board to determine whether or not she was a legal resident of Niles.

Lastly, Commissioner Walt Beusse announced Niles Public School District 71 gave, at no cost, a set of parallel bars to the Niles Park District. Beusse said the bars had already been put in to use by the park district gymnastics program.

Tam Tennis . . .

generate that much revenue, according to Kosiba, cuts would have to be made in other park programs and in park district staff to pay off the yearly bill for the tennis facility.

Additionally, Kosiba added, even if the money was allocated for the study, there would be "no guarantee" the results of the study would eventually be proven out. "The question was whether to spend $10,000 to tell us something we already know," said Kosiba.

Taking exception to the board's vote Commissioner Steve Chameriski said, "We spent $17,500 on a feasibility study for Grennan Heights and now we can't spend $6,000 on this study?" Chameriski said the initial fee for the Tam study would be only $6,500 and could go up to $9,500 if the study was advanced to additional stages.

Commissioner Elaine Heinen, who also voted in favor of the study, expressed astonishment at the outcome of the vote. "I feel shocked that it went this way," said Heinen. "I think it's terrible. We shouldn't have left Arlington Heights, Federal Savings and Loan hanging this way." Heinen said the park district had negotiated with the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan for the past 3 months and continually indicated being seriously interested in purchasing the tennis club.

Commissioner Walt Beusse, who voted to oppose the study, said he objected to the limitations of the 38 stall parking lot at the facility. Also he said he doubted the facility could generate the necessary revenue because, according to Beusse, tennis is not as popular as it had been. "I think our community is too old for a tennis facility," said Beusse. Referring to what should be done with park district money, Beusse said, "I think we have to improve what we already have."

In other business the Niles Park Board announced the result of the recent lottery to determine the position of candidates in the April 7 park board election. The first name on the ballot will be James L. Pierski, followed by Daniel Kosiba, Mary Marusek, Steve Chameriski, and, lastly, Milt Post.

The Niles Park Board unanimously approved to renew an agreement with the Des Plaines Park District allowing Niles residents to receive the same rates for using Lake Opeka as Des Plaines residents are charged. In exchange Des Plaines residents are charged Niles residents rates for use of the Ballard Sports Complex.
