Niles parks turn down year-round ice program

At a Niles park board committee meeting Monday night park officials turned down a request for a 12-month ice program at the Ballard Park ice rink. Park officials contend it would cost $200,000 to convert the rink for all-year use and estimated the deficit for the summer program would be almost $53,000 which is in addition to the present $51,689 deficit for the 8-month period. Jerry Newman, president of S.P.I.N. (Skaters' Parents in Niles), was spokesperson for about 12 people from the group, which participated in Monday night's meeting. While S.P.I.N. closely questioned the many dollar figures presented at the meeting, they were in general agreement with park director Bill Hughes and board members. Continued on Page 26

Zoners ok Golf Mill dinner-theatre

by Bob Besser

Niles first dinner-playhouse could open as early as September following the approval to construct a stage which was given by the Niles Plan Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals on Monday night.

The playhouse will be run in connection with the Millionaire's Club, 552 Golf Mill shopping center. The current seating capacity of 200 will be maintained as the 18 inch high stage will be constructed over the current dance floor. The theatre, to be called Front Row Center Dinner-Theatre, will have two performances on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday and one performance on Thursday and Friday.

Harry Rogers, speaking on behalf of the dinner playhouse, said their first production will be "The Fantasticks". Other performances planned include "A Street Car Named Desire" and "The Boyfriend". "This will be good, high-class theater," said Rogers. "We want to do it well."

Rogers is also the producer of the Mill Run Children's Theatre. Rogers said the dinner-playhouse will hold 200 people, which is the same number of people the restaurant currently holds. Zoning Board Commissioner Angelo Troiani noted after the stage is constructed, Niles Fire Department officials. Continued on Page 30

by David (Bud) Besser

It was a typical Niles summer day. Warm with gentle breezes winding their way up and down the tree-lined streets.

We had the soft-top down and we were out delivering newspapers. We had goofed the addressing of 10 resident-subscribers' papers and we were a day late trying to make-up for our errors.

Without sounding too hokey we thought it would be a nice touch to go out and meet some of our readers. We always brag about being the local guy in town. We thought it was time to prove it.

On Nordica we dropped off our first paper to a Mrs. Cohen. She was very kind, thought it was very nice we made a personal trip to stop by and thanked us for the effort. Down the street we went to Jonquil Terrace where we met Mrs. Girolamino. She was equally appreciative and we were feeling very good about Bugle readers. We've noticed a great deal of anger swirling in the air these days and were expecting a few "Sir, you're a cur" responses for our day-late delivery.

Warming up to our charge we headed for the old neighborhood, Oakton Manor, where the Bugle first took root. We met Mrs. Hatchko on Overhill, who was the essence of friendliness—then over to Ozanam Avenue where we met Mr. Aylesworth, a fine gent who is a long-time Bugle reader. We stopped at Dziens' who weren't home, over to the Ruhl's on

Mill Run completes seating for handicapped

The Mill Run theatre has completed the seating accommodations for the handicapped and is also proceeding with plans for an additional exit and fire escape from the upper level of the playhouse. The seating for the handicapped was accomplished by removing a front row of seats which will accommodate six to seven wheel chairs. Orders for the safe placement of wheelchairs came from the Niles Fire Department after an incident occurred on March 19 when a small fire in a lighting fixture above the stage caused a

Robber hits Golf Mill shoe store

A lone robber who said he was armed stole over $600 from a local shoe store on Monday. The robber fled on foot and was not apprehended by Niles Police.

According to Niles Police, the robber entered Youthful Shoes, 370 Golf Mill shopping center at about 5:25 p.m. Approaching the sales counter with a pair of gym shoes to purchase, the robber told the male clerk he was armed and the clerk should hand over the money in the cash register.

The clerk told police the robber never displayed a weapon.

Taken from the store were checks, credit card receipts and cash totaling over $600. The robber fled northbound on foot and was not seen entering a car.

However, police report a man with a similar description and method of operation robbed a Fayva shoe store in North Riverside one hour and 45 minutes after the Golf Mill robbery.

Referring to the Fayva robbery, Niles Police Sgt. Al Golbach said, "It sounds like it could be the same man."

The robber was described as between 35 and 40 years old, about five foot seven inches and 220 lbs.

Niles church raises funds for asthmatic child

A Niles church will sponsor two fund raisers for one of its students who is suffering from severe asthmatic attacks. The money will be used to pay a $1,700 fee for the child to attend a special summer camp for asthmatic children.

St. John Lutheran Church, 7429 Milwaukee ave., will use its facilities to hold a Christian rock concert on Sunday, July 12 at 9 a.m. The concert will be held between services in the outdoor courtyard where music will be provided by the group Kirkwood and Williams. A free-will offering for the child, Lisa Koller, will be collected following the concert.

The student, Lisa Koller, 12, lives in Chicago with her mother, Diane Pearson. Due to the severity of her asthma, Lisa spends much time in hospitals rather than school. However, she has managed to keep up with her school work and will be entering 8th grade in the fall.

Lisa is attending Bronco Junction Camp for Asthmatics in West Virginia this summer. The camp is outfitted especially for asthmatics and has doctors and nurses within the camp as well as a helicopter to quickly transport asthmatic campers to a hospital if necessary.

Lisa has attended the camp twice before. However, as the camp tuition has shot up to $1,700, Lisa's mother spoke to school officials who began making plans for the fund raisers.

In addition to the concert, a Saturday July 25 bike-a-thon and run-a-thon will be held to raise additional money for Lisa's camp bill. People interested in participating in the fund raisers should call St. John Lutheran Church at 647-8867.

Nashville, here we come! On June 18 2 buses (34 Members) left the S.I.J. parking lot at 7 a.m. to depart on our 4 day Nashville, Tennessee tour. Here lives Country Music! We visited Country Hall of Fame & Museum where we saw rare film clips, musical instruments, Country stars costumes, and Elvis' Solid Gold Cadillac. We toured Music Row where a large number of stars maintain their recording studios. We saw the homes of a few Nashville stars. We went to Hermitage Landing (Old Time Reunion) where we had a country style buffet picnic dinner, a country music show followed by a hay-ride, sing-along, and dancing. Then we traveled to Grand Ole Opry and visited Opryland U.S.A. The Grand Ole Opry is the oldest continuous radio program in the U.S.A. In the Opryland Complex there are 12 shows going and each and every one is just great.

We departed for home on Sunday, June 21 arriving home about 6 p.m. and it seemed hard to believe we had traveled so far, seen and done so much. Want to take this opportunity to say Thank You to our program Chairmen Stella & Leonard Kledzik for getting this beautiful trip together for us.

Anthony J. Guarnaccio Ineffective government costing us $$$

I would like to thank Bud Besser for inviting me to be a guest columnist. I am flattered he thinks my opinions might be of interest to Bugle readers.

One of the areas in which I have strong opinions is that of ineffective managers in our government. Cost of government is going up and the taxpayer is not getting his money's worth, whether at federal, state or local levels.

We have the highest literacy rate in the world and yet we choose to elect ineffective, incompetent people to manage our money at all levels of government. Their incompetence is quite evident by liberal give-away programs such as unemployment compensation, public aid and others. I am not criticizing benefits for the needy that these programs were intended to help, but today it appears to be a status symbol to be non-productive and be supported by the government. Initially, unemployment benefits were for people who were laid off, not for people who were fired or quit their jobs. Public aid is for the needy, not the greedy.

There are no qualifications to be a politician - no educational requirements, no testing procedures, no minimum standards - and yet we let these people govern us based on promises they know they cannot keep. Each election time these officials ask us to re-elect them because they did such a good job. Good job!! If they performed as they promised, why is the country in such a big financial mess?

Guest Columnist

An expression...an opinion... a point of view...

A recent article in the Wall Street Journal stated that in 1970, only 11 years ago, if a person had a salary of $25,000 a year, his after-tax purchasing power was equivalent to $20,000. In 1981, in order to keep his purchasing power of $20,000, he would have to gross $59,000. This leaves $39,000, $27,000 to cover inflation and $12,000 to cover federal incomes and social security taxes.

If we had left profit-minded insurance companies handle our social security system in the last several decades, we might be paying less and getting larger social security checks. Not too long ago, Governor Ogilvie promised that by instituting a state income tax, the financial problems of the State would be solved. The odd part of this is the State appears to have more financial problems now than it did then. We all know what happened to Governor Ogilvie.

Now, the state legislators say we all must shoulder the burden of the RTA, CTA, and highways crises and want to increase sales tax again. It has been proven in the last 3 or 4 decades that pouring money into ever-present crises does not solve them but only postpones the day of reckoning. The people are getting fed up with this type of leadership. The RTA, CTA riders whose wages are much less than those providing the services cannot afford to continue to pay for them.

Enough about the State. What has been said regarding waste at the federal level would fill a thick book and I only have one column.

The hefty pay raises and benefits Congress has been so liberal in doling out (government employees are paid wages 8% above the private sector) as well as playing Santa Claus to self-interest

Fire Department readies for dispatch center move

Looking Back in The Bugle

23 Years Ago (July)

The most sophisticated fire communications system in Illinois will soon be serving area residents. Area fire department heads, including Niles and Morton Grove officials, expect the new system to be installed by the end of July.

Once operational the system will receive fire calls for five communities and dispatch men and equipment within these communities. Special features of the communications system will include computer hook ups informing dispatchers not only where a home or business is located but also instant information on the surrounding areas such as chemical storage areas, nearby schools and churches or detours in roads.

The communications center will be the nerve center of the area Regional Emergency Dispatch (RED) system which is made up of fire departments in Niles, Morton Grove, Glenview, North Maine and Glenbrook. Fire departments within the RED system share equipment, training of firemen, and provide assistance at fires and accidents. Also the five communities share the expense of a single dispatching operation, rather than have separate systems.

Harry Kinowski, Niles Fire Department Duty Chief, supervises and coordinates activities within the RED system. Among his responsibilities are overseeing the fire communications system as well as supervising the construction and move to the permanent center.

Since 1977, a temporary communications system has originated at the Niles Fire Department, 8360 Dempster st. However, the equipment used is out of date and the facilities are very small. The new dispatch center will provide 900 square feet for the dispatchers as opposed to the current 180 square feet.

Additionally, the new communications center, to be located in the basement of the Glenview Fire Department, 1815 Glenview rd., will be self contained, which is not the case with the present

Niles man gets 6 years in kidnapping case

James Kurtzer, 49, was sentenced to 6 years in prison last week for the abduction and sexual assault of a 7 year old Niles girl in the Lawrencewood shopping center last Oct. 19. Kurtzer drew the sentence after he entered a guilty plea last May on the charges of deviant sexual assault, taking in indecent liberties with a child, unlawful restraint and kidnapping. According to Cook County State's Attorney's office, the plea bargaining was sought so that the 7 year old victim would not have to appear at a trial.

Kurtzer was charged with forcing the child into his car near the Aldi's store in Lawrencewood Shopping center and taking her to a nearby industrial park where he assaulted her. He then released the child within a few blocks of her home and the incident was reported to the Niles police.

Nilesites turned out by the hundreds on Saturday, July 4th to watch the parade sponsored by the Niles Park District. Approximately 35 units started off from the Notre Dame parking lot at 9:30 a.m. and were loudly applauded by the spectators along the Main st. route. Fortunately the rains didn't come down until the parade reached Grennan Heights, but Park District personnel were quite disappointed when the rains caused the crowd to disperse quickly. Several carnival type games had been set up for the children together with a 'bouncin house' for their amusement and hot dogs, potato chips and pop were available for everyone. The short program which had been planned and the presentation of awards for parade participants were also postponed.

"Jupiter and Its Moons", an exhibit on loan from the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D.C. is currently on display at the Niles Library and the stay has been extended to August 31. Large detailed panels are on display and a movie is also being shown as part of the presentation. Niles Library personnel are very pleased at being able to present this cultural event to the residents.

Congressman John Porter is presenting a Senior Citizen Conference on Saturday, July 11 from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Levy Senior Center, 1700 Maple ave., Evanston. The conference is open to all senior residents of the 10th District and will have a panel of experts present to discuss health, crime and housing, all areas of vital concern to senior citizens. Members of Porter's staff will be present to offer help with Medicare and any other individual problems.

Morton Grove resident Marian J. Swock, 5700 W. Warren st. won $5,000 playing the Illinois Lottery's $1 weekly Lottery Bingo game. Lottery Bingo, which has since been discontinued, required that Marian match four numbers in the second row on her game ticket to win the top weekly prize. Plan's Oakton Drugs, 8006 Lincoln ave., Skokie earned a $50 agent bonus on the sale of Marian's winning ticket.

Nilesite calls for firm action against Chicago

Dear Mayor Blase:
As a tax paying citizen of Niles and a life long resident of our fine community I call upon you for help.

Our state legislatures in Springfield have failed to straighten out the mess the RTA/CTA are in. It now looks as though Cook County residents will have to "pay the freight" for Chicago once again through increased taxes.

No suburbanite - even those that use mass transit - could not honestly agree that the money present taxes already generate for mass transit is used fairly. The suburbs provide more revenue than Chicago and millions of our tax dollars are given to the CTA every year - this is suburban money - but it is not used for suburban transit.

The whole system needs a complete revamping. As far as I am concerned the Chicagoans can have the CTA and run it. The suburbs should run the RTA. The two systems should be totally separate.

You are fully aware that Chicago is "biking" more money than necessary now on the recent 50% increase in water rates. I'm sure not happy about that increase in Niles water rates - if it were for our village I would say fine, but this money is going to Chicago. They use this money for everything else claiming it's going to increase costs. You and I both know this is a bunch of bull.

We need your help on this, Mayor! The suburbs must get together to prevent Jane Byrne and the "Crook County" Board from raising Cook County taxes to pay for the CTA. I will not pay another penny for the corrupt and mis-managed mess the CTA/RTA is in. Especially, when I see that both the chairmen of the RTA and CTA are in line for hefty pay increases this year and the CTA is revamping their downtown offices into a super plush and modern office. This is a system going bankrupt!

It is time us suburbanites get together and put a stop to mismanagement of our tax dollars. The suburbs should succeed from the whole mass transit system and go it alone. We'd do a heck of a better job than the corruption and mismanagement that's going on downtown in Chicago.

What do you think, Mayor? With your power you should be able to get together with other mayors in the area and try to help. We need you desperately. To my fellow suburbanites - let's get together on this - let your voices be heard. Do you want your tax dollars going to the CTA???? That's what is happening right under our noses.

Leaning Towers Seniors expand Outreach Program

Do you know a lonely or isolated senior citizen in the Niles Township area who needs a Friendly Visitor?

The recent funding from the Niles Township Administration has made it possible for the Leaning Tower Senior Adult Center to continue and expand the wonderful Outreach Program which is the "baby" of Shirley Spears, director of the Leaning Tower Senior Center. Shirley started the program back in 1977 with the help of a grant from Niles Township and because of the Board's funding the program has grown to where it now has 2 Outreach Supervisors and 8 Friendly Visitors, who cover 8 Niles Township Area Nursing Homes and in addition visit about 50 isolated seniors in their own homes.

"The main goal," says Shirley Spears, "is to provide supportive services to help the elderly so that they can function in their own homes." The center is very proud to be able to bring some sunshine into the lives of many seniors in the township who have no relatives or friends to visit them. Every client, whether in an area nursing home or a homebound citizen, is assured of being helped in every possible way. The 8 Friendly Visitors, under the able direction of Outreach Supervisor, Lenna Siens and her assistant, Mildred Kaplan, do a superb job of "Case Management". Even emergency calls are answered.

Recently a desperate call was received from a woman who needed someone to stay with her elderly mother while she rushed her young daughter to the hospital. The woman could not find anyone to stay with her elderly mother. After she had made over a dozen calls to other agencies, she contacted Leaning Tower Senior Center's Outreach and one of the staff went right over and stayed several hours. Needless to say, this woman was very grateful.

The Outreach Supervisor evaluates each case referred to the center and decides what steps should be taken. Once a decision has been made to handle a case, one of the Friendly Visitors is assigned to the individual. The list of seniors helped by the Friendly Visitors through the Outreach Program is endless. In one month alone more than 5,000 people are provided with some form of service through the center and its Outreach Program.

In July there will be a Piano Concert at the Leaning Tower Senior Adult Center and several of the area Nursing Homes are invited to bring their residents to enjoy this lovely afternoon. All of the Friendly Visitors will be on hand to help the Senior Center's members host this event and serve refreshments. It is gratifying to see these Nursing Home Patients smile and keep time with the music by tapping their feet and clapping their hands.

If you know of anyone who would benefit from this Outreach Program in the Niles Township area, please contact Shirley Spears, 647-8222.

'South Pacific' next production for Theatre 219

Theatre 219's production of "South Pacific," scheduled later in the month, will highlight some of the area's most talented and skilled dancers under the direction of Maria Lampert, a dance teacher and choreographer.

The musical is the eighth in a series of distinguished summer productions of the community theatre arm of the Niles Township High Schools' Board of Education.

A range of ages and occupations is represented by the dancers who include Lee Goldberg, Andy Goldstein, Matthew Silver, Jeff Sumner, Ed Nemmers, Michael Brody, Steve Stark, Sheldon Silverman, Gretchen Witte, Wendy Grah, Ellen Acker, Laura Rosow, Lori Amstadter, Amy Yale, Eleah Horwitz and Lillian Mendez-Soto.

Sumner, Yale, and Horwitz, all recent Niles North High School grads, are extremely active in high school and community theatre. Just a few months ago, Horwitz played the title role in the children's play "Pegora the Witch."

Yale, Sumner and Horwitz are attending a workshop at the Goodman School of Drama, while Sheldon Silverman, a current West student, attends Gus Giordano's school of Dance in Evanston. Laura Rosow, also a West student, served as vocal director of her school's annual variety show this year. North student, Michael Brody, is participating in his fifth Theatre 219 musical, having played a "workhouse boy" in "Oliver," one-half decade ago. Silver has danced in all the musicals and dance shows at North for the past several years.

Ellen Acker is an Indiana University student, working for a publishing company this summer. "I remember how bored I was last summer," she said, implying that her dancer's role has enlivened this one considerably.

Lee Goldberg, who manages the audiovisual department of a tape company and has considerable talent and experience, joined the show "so I wouldn't spend a lot of money this summer," but has ended up having a great deal of fun.

Matthew Silver, who is fielding a summer job at Evans Purg, enjoys evenings working on the show.

Lori Amstadter, a Southern Illinois University student, and Steven Stark, a Niles North graduate and gymnast, bring an impressive array of singing and dancing experience in school and community theatre to their new roles, as does Ed Nemmers who has danced the lead in a variety of area productions.

Wendy Grah and Andy Goldstein are warmly remembered as two of the leads in last year's "Fiddler on the Roof," as well as for their parts in many other local shows. Gretchen Witte, who has ice skated and danced in area productions over the past years, and Lillian Mendez-Soto, who has appeared in West's and other dance shows, complete the musical's 1981 chorus line.

"South Pacific" will be presented in the Niles West Theatre, Oakton St. at Edens, Skokie, on July 24, 25, 31 and August 1 at 8:15 p.m. Performances on Sunday, July 26 will begin at 1:15 and 7:15 p.m. General admission is $4.50 while student and senior citizen tickets are $4. The Sunday matinee is $4 and $3.50. Dinner theatre packages and group rates are available. Tickets may be purchased at the door or in advance by writing Theatre 219, 7700 Gross Point rd., Skokie, 60076; or in person at the District 219 Offices, at the same address. Those desiring more information should call 966-3800, ext. 1233.

Saga of The Tampico Kid

(Part Two)

THE FIRST PHASE of "The Tampico Kid's" (the slaying of $3 billion dollars from the Federal budget) is now approved. Now comes the setting in motion of one of the most gigantic economies ever attempted in the short history of the United States.

Its critics, and they are legion, will loudly raise their voices as one, to protest. There will, probably be "sit-ins", "sit-downs", "shut downs" and various other demonstrations, mostly vocal, some passive, and even perhaps (but hopefully not) physical demonstrations throughout the length and breadth of America, and maybe even abroad.

But the first phase of "The Tampico Kid" will be to wield a big axe to cut bureaucratic, unnecessary and unproductive expenses. To trim all the fat from its mammoth deficit budget is already underway and will move like a giant steamroller to accomplish as quickly as possible one of his major campaign promises, in accordance with the Republican platform; and the keeping of "The Tampico Kid's" solemn pledge to the majority of those who voted for it.

This will be quickly followed by the second phase, a reduction in the Federal income tax, hopefully, over the next three years, and according to the script designed by the master architect and blueprinted ones of time ago. This shall also come to pass.

From time to time, hopefully, I shall comment, in this column, sometimes with a full 1200 word essay and, at other times, in maybe just a line or two of type, about the continuing, stirring, thrilling Saga of "The Tampico Kid". But remember, only posterity will decide its final merit!

I've just enjoyed, like many other Americans, the long Fourth of July weekend, in Grand Blanc, a rather affluent suburb of Flint, Michigan. The weather here was perfect. The food fit for a gourmet, and I acquired a reddish tan and a much-needed rest plus plenty of oxygen-filled air for my wheezingly-weak lungs.

Last year, at the same time, I also gained the same personal benefits, but there has been a subtle change...

And, that subtle change is this: Flint, Michigan, where General Motors' big Buick plant is located (plus other General Motors activities) is starting to hum again. The atmosphere has changed...

This change is reflected in the bars, the restaurants, and other places of recreational activity. They are much busier than last year. The fog of gloom and doom seems to have lifted and there is even a changed expression upon the faces of many of its natives. Some are actually smiling again while they are spending their money. And, that gargantuan chain store, Meijer's, (pronounced Meyer's) is now jammed with thousands of customers, as evidenced by the long waiting lines at the check-out cashiers. (Last year at precisely the same time, same

Des Plaines Jaycees plan Eric Elias benefit

Activities have stepped up in preparation for the Des Plaines Area Jaycees' annual Monte Carlo Nite benefit which this year takes on a whole new look and has become a community wide effort. Proceeds from the event, call the Eric Elias Benefit, will be deposited into the Eric Elias Trust Fund. Eric, an 11-year-old Des Plaines resident, suffers from the Dushane form of Muscular Dystrophy, the debilitating and rapidly progressive form of the disease. This Spring Eric was still able to get around with leg braces and the help of his parents, David and Ann Elias. However, he is now confined to a wheelchair.

The Jaycees began the trust fund for Eric after the humanitarian association decided to give funds raised at its annual benefit to a local handicapped child. Bob Fabian, chairman of The Eric Elias Benefit, has been working on its plans since late Fall, 1980. The Eric Elias Benefit will be held July 18 at the Sheraton-O'Hare in Rosemont. It begins with cocktails at 6:30 p.m., followed by Dinner at 7 p.m., the Rick Saucedo (shown above)/50's-60's Rock & Roll Show at 8 p.m. and the Casino at 9:30 p.m. With the permission of Playboy, Inc., Playboy Bunnies will act as hostesses and Jaycees members will run the game tables. A free weekend trip for two to Las Vegas is the Grand Prize in the door prize drawing. An auction at 12:30 a.m. will conclude the evening. Donations are $25 per person and tables of 10 are available. Phone Bob or Kathy Fabian at 824-2903, any member of the Jaycees, or call the Saucedo Hotline, 934-0033.

Others selected by the membership were: 1st Junior Vice Commander, Robert Dyslin; and 2nd Junior Vice Commander, Joseph Airdo. Dyslin will be in charge of the fund raising activities; and Airdo has the chairmanship of the meeting food.

Completing the corps of officers is Ed Vorpapel, re-elected as finance officer.

Rehab speaker at NW Press Club meeting

Simone J. Nathan, director of Communications and Public Relations for the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, will speak on "Conveying A Positive Image About Disabled People," at the Friday, July 10, meeting of the Northwest Press Club. Mrs. Nathan has been with the Rehabilitation Institute for eight years and professionally involved in the communications field for ten years. In 1979 she received the prestigious Golden Trumpet Award from the Publicity Club of Chicago, and in 1980 she was a semi-finalist for an award from the Chicago Association of Direct Marketing.

The luncheon meeting will be held at October Five Restaurant, 8600 Waukegan rd., Morton Grove. Registration begins promptly at 11:45 a.m. Cost for the meeting is $5.50 for members and $6.50 for nonmembers. For reservations contact Susan Schneider at 696-6110.

Membership in the Northwest Press Club is open to all persons working in the media or public relations fields.

Blood pressure screening

Free blood pressure screening and education programs will be offered by Holy Family Hospital at the Indian Trails Library in Wheeling at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, July 14 and Tuesday, August 11. The United States Department of Health and Human Services estimates that 60 million people suffer from high blood pressure, contributing to two of the nation's top three killing and disabling diseases: heart attacks and strokes. High blood pressure is called the "silent killer" because many people do not know they have it.

In addition, persons who are already have learned CPR may be recertified at a class Holy Family is offering from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesday, July 28 and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, August 15. Persons trained in CPR must be recertified once a year. The fee for both classes is $3, which includes the cost of a booklet on the CPR procedure which all participants receive. To register for the programs, to be held in the hospital's Des Plaines Room, call Holy Family's Public Relations Department at 297-1800, ext. 1174.

Hike chairman distributes prizes

Bill Ryno, Hike For Hearts chairman and Chicago Association of Life Underwriters member (center) hands out prizes to two of the winners in the Hike For Hearts event held recently at Chicago's Navy Pier. Jason Wankovsky, 10, of Skokie (left) raised the most money in the 9-to-12 age category and Joshua Wankovsky, 8, of Skokie, won a certificate for a bicycle in the 8-and-under category. Sponsored by the CALU, the 10-mile hike was targeted to raise money for the Heart Fund Campaign of the Chicago Heart Association's Women's Council. They expect to raise more than $20,000 for CHA to fight premature heart diseases and stroke.

Benefits and medicare premiums increase

Social security beneficiaries and supplemental security income recipients will receive 11.2 increase in their monthly checks, according to Marilyn Robertson, manager of the Des Plaines social security office. The increase will be reflected on the July 1 SSI and July 3 social security checks.

Robertson also announced that at the same time basic premium for medical insurance (Part B) of Medicare will go up from its present rate of $9.60 to $11 per month. Medicare beneficiaries who have their premium deducted from their monthly benefit, will have the new premium reflected in their July 3 social security checks along with the increased payment amount.

The maximum benefit for a worker retiring at age 65 in 1981 will be $752.90; up from $677. The average benefit for a retired worker with no dependents rises from $337 to $374 per month. The maximum SSI payment increases from $238 to $264.70 per month.

Robertson emphasized that the increases are automatic. Nothing has to be done to receive them. The increase is required by law because of the increase in the average monthly consumer price index from the first quarter of 1980 thru the first quarter of 1981.

The estimated fiscal year 1982 cost of the social security increase to the trust fund is $15.4 billion. The SSI increase will cost an estimated $600 million from general funds.

For more information about social security benefits or supplemental security income, call the special teleservice number 823-0815.

Niles Parks...

It was not financially feasible to proceed with an all-year program.

The S.P.I.N. group, an organization of figure skater's parents and the Niles Park District, because of scheduling problems, demand for prime time for summer ice and transportation problems, have been unsuccessful in making use of neighboring ice rinks.

Park director Hughes noted the ice rink facility was designed to operate 6 or 7 months a year. No heating system was provided under the concrete slab, and unless the ice is melted under the slab during the summer months, the frost line will rise and the concrete slab and the freon pipes imbedded in the slab will break. An entire new system would have to be installed including a heating system and a new slab with new freon pipes. According to Hughes, since no money is available for such construction, the approximate $200,000 would have to be borrowed.

In answer to many questioners from the S.P.I.N. group, park officials emphasized the rink was approved by voters to be built with revenue bonds, which means the rink must produce revenue from its operation for its own use. In 1974, 2.7 million dollars was made available to the district which has been used for open space (TAM golf course, parks) and upgrading present existing parks. Hughes noted the balance of money, now accruing interest, is to be used for landscaping, play equipment, lighting systems and general beautification of all parks. If the money was used for the ice rink construction, Hughes and park board president Dan Kosiba noted residents would be rightly object to the use of these funds for the ice rink which was voted to sustain itself. Hughes emphasized there has already been a $107,000 deficit at the rink and $200,000 of debts from the rink have previously been written off.

In reviewing figures from 5 park districts, which fully responded to Hughes query for figures, four showed a deficit for a May thru August ice program. Skokie, which had a $34,000 profit, was questioned by Kosiba, who scoffed at the Skokie figures, noting "Skokie's park district is bankrupt". Their financial figures were out of line with the other four.

A five year comparison of Niles park district ice rink figures showed deficits each year. In '80-'81 $51,689 was shown, with prior year deficits of $91,462, $69,608, $56,667, and $38,858.

Hughes report showed the debt service requirement of the park district, which under state statute limits the method a park district can borrow money. The estimated cost of the improvement would be in excess of $200,000 and the district would have to borrow money under an installment contract which must be paid back in 10 years or less. The interest rate is limited to 9% or 70% of the prime rate. A rate of 18% would result in a loan rate of 12.5% which could rise or fall depending on the particular day's bank activities.

Estimated figures were then shown for a summer ice program which estimated expenses of $127,930 and revenues of $75,000.

S.P.I.N. representatives were in agreement with the park board a summer ice program was not feasible. However, Newman noted their children "were imbedded into figure skating" and groups (lobbies) has become a way of life in Washington. Government cannot continue these 'gifts,' taxpayers can't afford them.

At last we have a President who is more concerned about the financial and social problems of this country than he is about his political future; rare among politicians. It probably will take him four years or more to get us out of the mess we got into the last few decades.

The message is loud and clear that the general population wants him to keep his promises made during the campaign. Remember we 'fired' one who did not.

President Reagan is not out to eliminate welfare, public aid, social security, school funding, etc., he is only trying to make these programs more efficient. When President Reagan wants to cut waste in these programs, the self-interest groups, with the aid of the news media, panic the people by stating that the President wants to eliminate these programs.

We have to continue to strive to remind the public servants THEY ARE ON OUR PAYROLL, and that every several years we can 'rehire' or 'fire' them. Then, and only then, can we achieve effective government.

center. Kinowski said the new center will have its own electric generators in the event of a blackout as well as security from storms and vandalism. Additionally, the temperature will be controlled in the communications center which is necessary because of the sophisticated equipment.

Any phone call reporting a fire emergency from any of the participating communities comes in to the communications system. After taking down the location and type of emergency, the dispatcher locates the site on a grid map and turns to a microphone to announce the emergency to the appropriate fire houses. The microphone is hooked into public address systems within the fire houses in the five communities. The dispatcher feeds additional information to the rushing fire equipment over the radio.

The current dispatch system has three separate consoles. One handles telephones, one, the public address system and the third controls the fire radios. When the new system is installed, these three operations will be consolidated into one console.

Additionally, a "call-check" system will be installed. Every phone call received by the RED communications system is tape recorded. Currently, if fire officials want to verify information reporting an emergency, they must rewind the tape hunting for the correct phone call. With the call-check system, any call can be found electronically allowing for almost instant verification.

Another feature offered by the new system will be the ability to put a fire truck or ambulance in phone contact with anywhere in the world. As an example, the practical use for this system, said Kinowski, will be if firemen are fighting a chemical fire, the men at the scene can talk to the chemical manufacturer anywhere in the world instead of having an intermediary talk to the company. Kinowski says that chemical companies have had to be contacted twice in recent years while fighting a fire.

Also the phone patch system can be used as a back up system for ambulances transporting patients to a hospital. If the radios connecting them with a hospital malfunction, they will be able to talk by phone to the emergency rooms or doctors.

The fire department computer system being installed will allow fire dispatchers to get immediate information about the location of an emergency. Currently dispatchers must refer to a file to obtain information about an area. After the installation of two computer terminals, the dispatchers will be able to get this information within seconds. Also, information will be added to include locations of any nearby hazards such as chemical storage facilities, as well as schools, churches and road conditions. Kinowski noted the computers will enhance the dispatcher's operation without requiring more dispatchers to be hired.

The cost of moving into the new center will be about $100,000, according to Kinowski. Included in this cost is the construction of the facility in the Glenview Fire Department basement, the purchase of new equipment and moving the telephone lines. Kinowski said 32 phone lines are being installed at a cost of $245 per phone line.

The streamlined communications console, which will include phone, radio and public address systems, will cost $52,000 including installation. The computer terminals will cost $45,000. Kinowski noted the cost has been kept down by using existing equipment in addition to participating fire departments loaning equipment for the new communications center.

Referring to the new communications system, Kinowski said, "This is the cap on the head because it coordinates fire services where they can be most effective."

Learning about car maintenance

For many people the workings of an automobile seem like an unsolvable puzzle, but anyone interested can learn how the pieces of the puzzle fit. "Know Your Car" is the topic of the next Passages Through Life program, 1 p.m. Tuesday, July 14 at Oakton Community College, 1600 E. Golf, Des Plaines.

Jim Gravin will resolve such mysteries as what to do when your car breaks down, the components of the dashboard, cooling system and tires. He will explain what an automobile warranty covers and the owners rights. Also members of the audience will learn what the serviceman really means when he says, "You're a quart low."

Gravin, who now teaches for MONNACEP, (OCC's Adult Education) has retired from 25 years working for General Motors. Passages Through Life is a series of free films, lectures and discussions concerned with the growth and development of adults starting with mid-life. Weekly programs stimulate and encourage reflection on various aspects of life and changes that affect everyone. For further information call 635-1977.
