Officials lash out at phony published letter

by Bob Besser

A handgun control group which claimed to have a file on all Morton Grove gun owners and which demanded a reward for turning in the name of gun owners to Morton Grove officials has turned out to be non-existent even though a local newspaper published the group's demands. Last week local newspapers received a letter-to-the-editor dated January 15 from an Art

Kwyzling who claimed to be president of a handgun control group called Seize-A-Gun/Save-A-Life. In his letter, Kwyzling stated

Construction of maintenance garage and storm sewers on drawing board

Niles studies financing of new municipal improvements

by Diane Miller

The Village of Niles Board of Trustees heard reports Tuesday evening on the options available to the village on the financing of $2,000,000 in municipal improvements.

According to Village Manager Ken Scheel, the village is seeking to construct a 30,000 square foot maintenance garage for the Public Services Department in the rear of the Niles Police Station facing Touhy Avenue. The garage, said Scheel, will be used to house the Courtesy buses and the building and grounds equipment and will have a lift installed for village vehicle maintenance. If financing and bidding proceed according to plans, Scheel said the garage facility would be ready by June of 1983.

In addition $500,000 in storm sewer projects are being planned

by Bud Besser

We've got to get out more often among the troops. Friday, we attended Niles' annual industrial conference and got a great deal of feedback about our comments about women in politics in Niles. Not since Nick Blase's infamous quote two years ago about women who enter politics do so "to fool around", have we had such a reaction from staffers. This week's Letter To The Editor column includes a letter on this subject from Niles Township Republican committeewoman candidate Pat Handzel.

A different phrase which we used in the column also brought comment. We mentioned "Nick's boys" rally around him whenever a vote of significance takes place on the village board. Well, the phrase, "Nick's boys" extends far beyond the village board. Nick's boys are in the key positions all over Niles enabling Nick to push all the buttons in town.

In conversation with an out-of-towner, he mentioned if an autocrat wants to control his community he must have key men on the city (village) board, the zoning board, and in key places in the public departments, and particularly in the areas where inspections take place. Building commissioners and other inspectors are important positions which must be filled by the top man's henchmen. In Niles, "Nick's boys" have long controlled these important areas.

In past years we used to holler and scream because public officials

District 63 approves IEA rental in Oak school

by Eileen Hirschfeld

Board members of East Maine School District 63 approved terms of a lease with Region 36 of the Illinois Education Association for rental of office space in Oak school, Niles. This Region includes 18 school districts, among them East Maine Education Association.

Certain provisions of the lease were agreed to by attorneys from both sides after considerable discussion at a former board meeting seemed to indicate hesitancy to allow rental of Oak school as a strike headquarters or political rally by the union.

Action took place at a regular board meeting Jan. 26 in Apollo school, 10100 Dee rd., Des Plaines.

Motor fuel tax

Illinois municipalities have been allotted $7,447,382 as their share of motor fuel tax paid into the State Treasury during Dec., according to the Illinois Department of Transportation.

The allotments to local municipalities included: Des Plaines, $41,980 and Niles, $23,825.

Free blood pressure readings

Free blood pressure readings will be taken on February 4, at the Niles Administration Building, 7601 Milwaukee ave. Anyone may have their pressure taken between 4 and 8 p.m. This service is offered by the Niles Community Health Department with the help of volunteers as an aid in preventing the long range effects of undetected hypertension. Have your blood pressure checked regularly.

Board member Ann Sostrin disagreed with a revised wording saying it "discriminates" against EMEA. She also said it may be unconstitutional. The board attorney said the IEA waived any claims to constitutional rights.

Supposedly, revised terms forbid use of Oak school by EMEA as strike headquarters and forbid use of the school for community meetings.

Joint planning session

The Niles Family Service Board and the Village Trustees and Mayor held a joint planning session on Saturday, January 16. Seated clockwise are Mayor Nicholas Blase; Larry Renetzky (Executive Director of Niles Family Service); Larry Burg, Board member; Carol Panek, Trustee; Abe Selman, Trustee; Lillian Pickup, Board member; Pete Pesole, Trustee; Joe Ferraro, Board member; Ken Scheel, Village Manager; Isabel Curtin, Board member; Jim Cisek, Niles Family Service; Sandie Friedman, former Board

Chairman; Angelo Marcheschi, Trustee; Len Borkowski, Board member; Bart Murphy, Trustee, and Lloyd Gillet, Niles Family Service Board Chairman. The meeting culminated several informal planning sessions and discussions about how the agency can continue to offer the best professional help at the lowest possible cost. Niles Family Service is celebrating 13 years of service to the Village of Niles and is looking forward to the next 13 years. Mayor Blase noted that there have been many changes in the last 13 years and he was proud of Niles Family Service being there. The many conversations between Board members and the Trustees revealed common concerns of budgets and increasing demand for services. Special mention was made about our new Village slogan - the Village of Niles, Where People Count. This was one of the guiding philosophies of Niles Family Service since its founding 13 years ago. Niles Family Service continues to reflect the caring of the Board for its citizens. People really do count.

Niles officials are currently discussing with Natchez Ave. industries the possibility of contributing up to 90 per cent for the repaving of the street. In the past Niles has asked local industries to contribute to the streets used as entrances to their parking lots and loading docks. Village Manager Ken Scheel said these streets deteriorate much quicker than residential streets because of the heavy trucks. Another village improvement program planned is the reconstruction of Milwaukee Ave. between Touhy Ave. and Albion. Included in the plans are the repaving of the street as well as installation of new curbs and gutters. Niles hopes to begin collecting bids from contractors so the project can be completed by next October.

The Oakton Community College Board of Trustees approved an increase in tuition rates at their Jan. 15 board meeting. The board also voted to raise the rate to $16 per hour immediately after the 1983 spring semester.

Illinois' new drunk driving laws are expected to greatly reduce the difficulties local policemen have encountered in arresting drunk drivers and may even result in an increase in drunk driving arrests.

"It's a new move from a weak, unworkable law to a tough, efficient law," explained Niles Police Captain William Terpinas. Effective January 1 Illinois' revised drunk driving law tightened up loopholes which made the previous law less effective. Among the most significant problems of the old law was its allowing a driver arrested for drunk driving to wait 90 minutes before deciding whether to take a breath test to measure his alcohol content. Not only was there the possibility that the alcohol content would decline during that waiting period but it also meant the arresting police officer had to be detained in the station during that waiting period.

Under the new law an arrested driver must take the breath test immediately. Also, if the arrested driver refuses to take the breath test, his driver's license can be suspended for six months. Under the old law if an arrested driver refused to take the breath test, his license could only be suspended for three months.

Additionally, the new law allows the results of a breath test to be used in court though the old law did not.

Another important provision in the new drunk driving law is that police are now allowed to test an unconscious person who is suspected of having driven while drunk. In the event of a driver being injured in an accident, police can request that a doctor draw blood from the driver while he is unconscious to determine the amount of alcohol in his blood stream. Under the old drunk driving law police were forbidden from testing unconscious persons.

Also the new law covers not only drivers who have consumed too much alcohol but also applies equally to anyone who is unable to safely drive an auto because of any drugs. A driver can be arrested if, while taking a prescription medicine, he is unable to safely operate an auto. Though the new law allows for blood tests to be administered, Terpinas said he expects the tests will be rarely used except when a drunk driver is involved in a serious accident. However, if a driver who is suspected of drunk driving is not involved in a serious accident, Terpinas said he doubts police could get a doctor to draw blood from a drunk driver fearing he may become tied up in endless court appearances.

Terpinas said that in 1961, Niles police arrested 69 drunk drivers. Additionally, of the 1,424 traffic accidents reported in Niles in

Questions & Answers on new drunk driving laws

Q. What does driving under the influence (DUI) mean?
A. It means an individual's inability to safely operate a vehicle as a result of the influence of alcohol, any other drug, or a combination of alcohol and any other drug or drug.

Q. Are individuals arrested for DUI required to take a test to determine how much alcohol or any other drug or drug has been consumed?
A. Yes. Illinois law provides that any person who drives a motor vehicle on the public highways has given consent to submit to a chemical test, or tests, of breath, blood, or urine.

Q. The testing must be conducted in accordance with Department of Public Health standards by an individual certified by the department. Only a physician or registered nurse may withdraw blood for testing.
A. Yes. However, refusal to take the tests may result in the suspension of driving privileges for 6 months for the first incident and 12 months for the second and subsequent refusals within 5 years.

Q. Can an individual refuse to take a test or tests?
A. Yes. If prescription medication impairs the ability to safely operate a vehicle, an individual can be arrested for DUI. Individuals taking prescription medication should consult with a physician for the effects of all medications, and all labels should be read carefully.

Q. Under the new law, refusal to take the tests is admissible in any civil or criminal proceeding resulting from the offense.
A. Yes. If prescription medication impairs the ability to safely operate a vehicle, an individual can be arrested for DUI. Individuals taking prescription medication should consult with a physician for the effects of all medications, and all labels should be read carefully.

Marillac entrance exams

On Saturday, January 9, 153 eighth grade girls from Chicago and the surrounding Northwest suburbs took the entrance exam for Marillac High School. The outstanding number of expected entrants for the Class of 1986 marks the third straight year in which Marillac has acquired at least 150 new students. The high number of prospective students is especially noteworthy because such statistics forecast a 2% increase to the school's population come September. This upward trend puts Marillac ahead of local suburban public schools which have witnessed a gradual decrease of students during the last few years.

Sr. Anne Schelder, freshman counselor and coordinator of enrollment statistics, attributes Marillac's increased enrollment to two primary factors: the high quality of education which the high school maintains, and family influences—there was a pool of 22 eighth grade sisters of Marillac girls from which to draw this year and there will be 41 next year.

The high school attracts students from a number of parishes and public school districts in the surrounding area. The parishes which are most consistent in contributing new girls to Marillac are St. Isaac Jogues and Our Lady of Ransom, both in the Niles area, and St. Emily in Mt. Prospect. Other local parishes contribute at a varying rate over the years.

JCC offers an evening of pro entertainment

Tickets are still available for "An Evening with Karen Mason and Brian Lasser" to be held 8 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 7 at the Mayer Kaplan JCC, 5050 W. Church St., Skokie.

A native of Arlington Heights, Ms. Mason's professional singing career began in 1976 in local near-North clubs and cabarets. So great was her audiences' response that, with the help of Aaron Gold and other local celebs, she premiered a year later at Chicago's "Park West" in a Standing Room Only concert. Since that night, Karen has performed as headliner in all the major night spots and supper clubs and has shared the stage with Phyllis Diller, Jack Carter, Wayland Flowers, Peter Allen, Bob Newhart, Lainie Kazan and Pudgy; all of whom agree that her stardom is inevitable.

Born and raised on Chicago's South Side, Brian Lasser began his musical pursuits at the age of six; but first received formal training in theatre at the Henry Hart JCC under the tutelage of Sonya Burns and Ed Goldberg. After being further educated as an actor-singer-dancer at the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana, he embarked on a professional acting career in the Midwest. After three years of success as an actor, he joined the creative staff at "Lawrence of Oregon's" where he joined forces with Karen Mason. They have been partners ever since.

Proceeds for The Tribute Concert will go to the "Avis Trachtenberg Youth Theatre" which will sponsor a once a year teen production. The first production will be "Grease", a 50's rock and roll musical - auditions for teens to be held in late May, early June.

Tickets are $15. There is free parking. Reservations may be made by calling 675-2200 ext. 213.

Chicago Balkan Dance Ensemble

Balkanske Igre, the Chicago Balkan Dance Ensemble, Inc. appears in concert at 8 p.m. on Saturday, February 13, in Pendleton Hall of the New Christian Church, 74 Park Drive, Glenview. Donations $3.50 for adults; $2.50 senior citizens, students and children.

The diverse folk traditions of Bulgaria, Croatia, Greece, Macedonia, Poland, Russia and Serbia will be presented in dance, song and music, according to artistic director Mary Monahan. Performing since 1964, the ensemble's appearances include ChicagoFest, Renaissance Fair, and Chicago International Folk Festival.

Ethnic food from the areas will be available to try at a nominal cost following the concert. The 25-member troupe will meet and talk with the audience at that time.

Come share this night in the Balkans and eastern Europe. For more information call 728-6218.

Maine East work program students at WLUP Radio

WLUP radio in connection with the Maine East work program is providing valuable experience to Don Dockman and Steve Strull, both of whom anticipate a career in radio broadcasting. Don is enrolled in the Cooperative Work Training program with Mr. Ray Scharf as his instructor. Steve is in the Office Occupations Program, taught by Mrs. Caroline Hommerding.

The Cooperative Work Training and Office Occupations programs both give students a chance to learn and gain experience about the working world while they earn high school credit (two credits, one for the course and one for holding a job).

Don has been working at "the Loop" for two years and two months and continues to work four days a week assisting in the station's programming, production, and promotion departments.

In addition to his job, Don is currently program director at Maine East's own WMTB radio 88.5 FM. He is also a varsity radio speaker on the speech team. Don is very optimistic and determined to someday be a professional radio broadcaster. He plans to continue his broadcasting background with two performing arts, hoping to someday attain his goal of working at a major radio station.

Having taken part in the various cooperative education programs, Don and Steve feel confident of their ability to cope with the fast-paced business world.

Deadline for OCC China Study tour

Gwendoline Y. Fortune, professor of social science at Oakton Community College, announced this week that the deadline for the China Study Tour sign-up is February 15.

The tour to the People's Republic of China is scheduled for May 19 to June 4 at a cost of approximately $2,700. Included in the field study of historical and contemporary life will be stops at Beijing, Xian, Nanjing, Suzhou, Hangzhou and Shanghai, with a possible stopover in Hong Kong or Tokyo.

Participants will have an opportunity to learn firsthand the changes that have occurred in China's political, economic and social structures since 1960. They will visit schools, health care facilities, work place, rural and urban areas.

Students can earn three semester credit hours in Social Science 101, 201 or Independent Study 299.

"The study tour will combine an introduction to the new China with a perspective on the old and exotic. Participants will enjoy the additional benefit of an economical package while sharing the experience with an adventurous group of travel companions," Dr. Fortune noted.

"This is the China that as youngsters we dreamed of reaching by digging through to the other side of the globe. The study tour is a practical way of realizing the dream," she added.

Dr. Fortune traveled to China in 1978 with the first group of educators invited to the People's Republic of China, and has led a study tour to Africa.

For further information about the study tour call Dr. Fortune at 635-1968.

OCC Child Development Center has openings

Openings remain in the Oakton Community College Child Development Center program at OCC/Des Plaines, 1600 E. Golf rd. in the Monday-Wednesday-Friday morning and afternoon sessions, and Thursday morning sessions. Structured for children 2 1/2 to 5 years old, the program tries to meet each individual child's needs, according to Pat Kovar, a specialist in early childhood development.

"We offer activities designed to encourage creativity, the growth of the child's intelligence and physical and social well-being, but at the same time providing a trusting and supportive environment," Ms. Kovar explained.

The Child Development Center, which maintains a ratio of approximately one to seven children, is staffed by experienced personnel. Priority for enrollment goes to children of OCC faculty, staff and students. Children of community members fill remaining places.

Cost for the Monday-Wednesday-Friday session is $55 a month. These sessions meet from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Cost for the Tuesday-Thursday session is $35. These sessions meet from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. A $15 registration fee is required.

To enroll, children must be completely toilet trained. For a registration appointment, call the Child Development Center, Des Plaines, 636-1840.

Notre Dame-Marillac to share curriculums

Marillac High School, Northfield, and Notre Dame High School, Niles have announced that for the 1982-83 school year there will be shared curriculum offerings between the two schools.

Sister Felicia Mazzola, D.C., marillac principal, and Father David Tushar, C.S.C., Notre Dame principal, felt that there was a need to enhance the curriculums of both schools.

During the past two years, Notre Dame High School for Boys, 7655 Dempster, Niles conducted an extensive curriculum study. One of the findings was the possible development of increased Fine Arts opportunities for Notre Dame students. Through the shared course offerings with Marillac High School, more Fine Arts courses will become a reality for ND students. Marillac will offer to

Notre Dame students courses in Chorus; Art Concepts and Images; Ceramics; Introduction to Theater; and Acting.

After study of their curriculum, Marillac High School wished to develop increased course offerings in computers and band. This will become a reality for Marillac students: Introduction to Computers; Computerized Data Processing; Symphonic Band; Engineering Physics; and Recordkeeping.

The courses will be offered at the beginning or ending of the school day to allow for flexibility in transportation. Each student must supply his own transportation to the respective school.

According to Father Dave Tushar, C.S.C. and Sister Felicia Mazzola, D.C., "This program has great potential in helping both schools expand their course offerings to students."

Kellogg Fellowship recipient

Dr. Daniel R. Bock, a resident of Skokie, is one of 12 Northeastern Illinois University faculty members to have been awarded a Kellogg Faculty Fellowship for 1982. The fellowship gives tenured faculty members the opportunity to pursue research in the areas of program and curriculum development.

Bock is a professor of educational foundations. His Kellogg Fellowship, the second which he has received, will enable him to work jointly with another faculty member on a proposal for a program which would allow Northeastern students to study and live at Oramim, the Kibbutz teacher training institution in Israel, and at several other kibbutzim.

The lease must be returned to IEA for final approval. According to one report, some members of EMEA are unhappy about lease arrangements.

Board policy may have to be reviewed in light of an appeal to board members by Larry and Phyllis Burg on behalf of their son. The Burgs requested mandatory change from afternoon to morning be waived citing employment of both as well as the child's enrollment in the Montessori school, a private program, and inadequate afternoon busing.

School policy now provides that kindergarten children must alternate between one semester each of both morning and afternoon classes.

According to the Burgs, their son, Daniel was allowed to change his kindergarten assignment in September from afternoon to morning quoting a letter by Dr. Donald Stetina, assistant superintendent, saying the child could be kept in morning class the second semester if the building principal and staff considered it to be in the child's "best interests".

Stetina explained to the Burgs at the board meeting that those "best interests" would only include special circumstances such as medical or special education needs. This did not seem clear in his previous letter.

After some debate, board members voted to uphold the administration's recommendation although some indicated a policy review was in order to accommodate special instances. Meanwhile, the Burgs will have no choice but to pull their child out of kindergarten for the second semester.

School Board Superintendent Dr. Donald Bond said he understands the parents' situation, that board policy should be reviewed and "we will do it".

James Bowen, business manager, reported to board members that Lutheran General Hospital operating Parkside services requested a full-time custodian for which the group will pay the difference from the district's part-time custodian. Bowen suggested this would be a good opportunity to hire a chief custodian for part-time work in Nathanson school, Apollo and Oak. At this time, Apollo does not have a custodian.

The board approved a motion for the administration to draw up a tentative budget. Board members adjourned to executive session to discuss probable or possible litigation. Under the revised "Open Meetings Act", executive session must be adjourned only to discuss items announced in public which fall under a need for executive session.

many charitable and civic projects which the local Legion involve themselves in which include scouts, handicapped children, the hospitalized veterans, nurses scholarships and community-wide service as needed.

The Auxiliary Unit serve light refreshments, and these are available before the bingo begins as well as during the evening. The menu includes hot dogs, potato chips and snacks, coffee, donuts, etc. The Legion bar is open for cocktails and there is plenty of free parking in an adjacent lot.

Niles Village Board...

in various areas throughout the village.

Ed Benjamin of Benjamin and Lang, Municipal Financial Consultants and Charles Koehlerman, Niles Finance Director both told board members that "money is available at a price", but that they are looking into "all avenues of financing and what is best for the Village of Niles." Koehlerman said there are basically five methods of financing which they are checking and their decision will be based on the engineering estimates for the projects rather than going ahead with the bidding process which is customary.

Koehlerman also noted that local banks cannot handle financing of this magnitude and they are currently working with two downtown Chicago banks.

In other business Kevin Foss, 8242 N. Wisner, Niles was presented with a $100 bond and a "Wisner Avenue" street sign for being the winner in the recent slogan contest sponsored by the Village of Niles. 8-year-old Kevin submitted the winning entry, "Where People Count".

Fire Chief Al Hoelbl reported to the Board of Trustees on the current status of the Doppler Radar Warning System. Chief Hoelbl together with 100 fire chiefs of the Metropolitan and Northeastern Fire Chiefs Association have been trying for 2 1/2 years to get this system installed in the Chicago area. According to Hoelbl this innovative warning system would pinpoint the location of a tornado and would give people up to 20 minutes advance notice. Hoelbl said the project is currently "in limbo", but another meeting with the fire chiefs is planned in April.

Fire Department Duty Chief Harry Kinowski reported to the board on the current status of the Regional Emergency Dispatch (RED) Center. Kinowski said there are currently 7 dispatchers on the line and the computer system is being loaded with information for the expediency of the system. Kinowski said Prospect Heights will shortly petition RED to join the system which currently consists of Niles, Morton Grove, North Maine, Glenbrook and Glenview.

Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry Director Curt Hockett reported on the 1981 progress of the Niles Chamber and the activities planned for 1982 under their new president, Phyllis Galanter. Hockett said innovative upcoming activities include an Industrial Expo in September in Golf Mill and a "Citizen of the Year" award.

Two ordinances were passed by the board covering "No Parking" signs. One area prohibits parking for 40 feet on the north side of Foster Lane west of Washington Street and the other prohibits parking from the corner at 7635 Greenleaf to the alley on Greenleaf.

have 10,000 people killed by handguns each year (in the United States) but 25,000 people killed by drunk drivers."

The consensus of opinion among the other trustees was that there would be little opposition to the ordinance by members of the Village Board.

However, Morton Grove Mayor Richard Flickinger, during a Tuesday interview, said Dechert's ordinance was nothing new. Flickinger said according to state law a village can hold a liquor establishment financially liable for the damage caused by a customer who becomes drunk.

Flickinger said he was baffled by Dechert's introduction of this ordinance. "We didn't hear from her (on the Village Board) for five years and now she's doing something," said Flickinger.

Calling Dechert "one of the poorest trustees I've ever had," Flickinger said she has often not fulfilled her responsibilities as chairperson of numerous Village Board committees.

In other business, the Village Board unanimously approved two ordinances giving the village greater control over area food establishments. In the first ordinance Morton Grove Trustees changed the definition of what a food service establishment is to include "any place food is prepared or served for individual servings. This would include restaurants, employee cafeterias and even vending machines which serve meals. However, Ashman was quick to point out that residential homes are not included within this definition.

The second ordinance increases the powers of Morton Grove's Board of Health to temporarily suspend, without a prior hearing, a food-selling license in Morton Grove. Ashman said this would permit Morton Grove officials to act quickly if a "substantial and imminent threat to the public" was found in a Morton Grove food establishment.

Under current Morton Grove laws it would be necessary to first hold a hearing before suspending or revoking a license. Ashman said under the new law, a hearing would be heard following the suspension in the case of an emergency closing of a restaurant or cafeteria.

Lastly, Trustee Lou Greenberg announced the total sales tax collected by Morton Grove for last October was $126,838 which was $23,000 less than that collected during October of 1980.

Winter Program at Leaning Tower Senior Center

Winter activities are in full swing at Leaning Tower Senior Adult Center, 6300 W. Touhy Avenue, Niles. In addition to Swimming and Exercise, there are "Coffee Talks" every Monday morning at 11 a.m. Bowling continues every Friday morning at 9 a.m. at Habeler Bowling Lanes with almost 100 bowlers meeting there each week. The Tower-Tones Choral Group meets every Wednesday morning at 10:30 a.m. Duplicate Bridge meets at 11:45 a.m. each Wednesday.

There is a Mini-Health-Fair once a month on the 4th Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. A representative from Legal Aid of Suburban Cook County is at Leaning Tower every other month from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Appointments are necessary for Legal Aid.

Dancing Class continues every Monday morning at 12 noon. This class is so popular that an additional Beginning Dance Class is held on Friday mornings at 10:30 a.m. In addition to many more activities there are trips, both "in-town" and "out-of-town" for those members interested.

New Van for M-NASR

The Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation (M-NASR) is quite pleased with the recent addition to the staff - the brand new blue van!

The 1982 Ford XLT Super Club Wagon is equipped with air conditioning, tinted glass, power steering, power brakes, carpeting, deluxe insulation, and rust proofing. Besides the standard stock options, M-NASR has installed wheelchair lifts, a raised roof, raised doors, a step and a hydraulic lift. The new "super van" can accommodate up to six wheelchairs and has been a great help in assisting with M-NASR transportation. M-NASR does door to door transportation for all its programs for physically handicapped individuals.

M-NASR is still open for creative suggestions in naming the van. If you have an idea, call Dick Well. His decision will be final on this matter.

We hope that the new van will be enjoyed by all - it sure seems to be so far.

Philip endorses Nimrod for re-election

Illinois Senate Republican Leader James "Pete" Philip (R-Elimhurst) has endorsed Senator John J. Nimrod (R-Glenview) for re-election from the new twenty-eighth Legislative District, which consists mostly of his present 4th District.

"John Nimrod is among the most effective Senators in Springfield," Philip said. "He is a leader in our first priority of reviving the business climate in order to stop the export of jobs from Illinois. While others were wringing their hands about the mess in workmen's compensation, John Nimrod passed a tough reform package through the Democratic Senate, an incredible feat. If the House had gone along we'd have taken a giant step toward correcting the abuses in the system."

"John is a leader for the beleaguered property taxpayer too," Philip noted, "and his engineering background and his expertise in the field of Energy is vital to many of our deliberations. His knowledge in Local and State Government, Business, and Finance has provided leadership and direction in his work in the Senate committees and when voting in the Senate chamber."

Philip, who was elected Senate Republican Leader last September and who is Chairman of the Republican Party in neighboring DuPage County, appeared at the Senate Business, Professional, and Industrial Conference recently in Park Ridge. The conference was attended by some 300 local business people and civic leaders.
