Niles Chamber presents Lt. John Christie Citizen's awards

Nilesites honored for heroic acts

Four Niles residents were presented the coveted Lt. John Christie Citizen's Award at a March 18 luncheon of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry at the Chateau Ritz, Niles.

Stuart Fieker, 7773 Nordica ave., saw a man jump from a second story building the evening of February 18, 1982 and attempted to capture him. The man had been involved in a home invasion and attempted murder of an off-duty Niles police officer. Fieker alerted arriving police units, and the offender who was running from the scene was captured.

In the same incident, Harry Fitzmaurice, a victim of the robbery attempt, wrestled and subdued a second man who had wounded Officer Wilson. Fitzmaurice did this at great personal risk to himself.

A married couple who live on Cumberland ave., who wish to remain anonymous, foiled a burglary in progress in their Kennesaw, Georgia, the town which made it illegal for households not to own a gun, was featured in People magazine last week. Kennesaw's ordinance was rebutting Morton Grove's gun law which forbids residents to own handguns.

Victor Quilici, a Morton Grove resident, who filed a suit against the Morton Grove ordinance, said in the article, "Kennesaw made a valid statement to the nation the way Morton Grove did. They just demonstrated the other side of the coin."

Morton Grove Mayor Dick Flickinger, a man who minces few words, was more explicit in his comment. He said, "Those guys are nuts, they're hillbillies. We aren't going to monkey around with their moonshine stills, so they shouldn't monkey around with our ordinance."

The Mayor of Acworth, Georgia, the next town down the road from Kennesaw, contends he has a new law in mind for his town. He said he would like every homeowner in Acworth to be liable for arrest if he doesn't own a fishing rod.

Niles Art Guild meeting

Robert Sutz, well known Chicago artist, will be the guest speaker at the April 17 meeting of the Niles Art Guild to be held at the Niles Recreation Center, 7877 Milwaukee ave., at 8 p.m.

Sutz is recognized in America and abroad for his outstanding portraits, fine art and sculptures; his work is found in many private and public collections. Portraits of well known personalities include Leo Burnett, William S. Hart (the first American movie cowboy), and Dr. Preston Bradley. His life masks and sculpted portraits include Ellsworth Schenley of Sedona, Arizona; Mrs. D.D. Payne, Dave Payne of Texas; Bill Wessling and Fred Sinn of Chicago.

Cathy Miller, Administration Assistant for the Village of Niles announced last week at a special public hearing that the village plans to apply for a $50,000 grant from the Cook County Development Block Grant Program. Niles plans to use the funds to study the revitalization of major arterial corridors throughout the village. Many of these are beginning to deteriorate to a point where they are having an adverse impact on the nearby residential neighborhoods. The village's application for the $50,000 grant has to be submitted by April 30 and funds are expected to be disbursed by October.

A Skokie-based company, General Business Forms, plans to open a 50 employee office at 6977 N. Austin in Niles and received approval from the Village of Niles last week for the sale of industrial bonds not to exceed $950,000.

Joseph LoVerde of Niles was awarded to contract for a storm relief sewer program by the Village of Niles on Tuesday, March 23. The LoVerde Company submitted a low bid of $193,678.85 for the project which is taking place east of Waukegan Road between Oakton and Main Streets.

A public hearing on Niles Township's tentative budget and appropriation ordinance for the fiscal year beginning March 1, 1982 and ending Feb. 28, 1983 will be held on Tuesday, April 13 at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in Room 102, Eleanor Rorbach Memorial Council Chamber, Des Plaines City Hall, 1420 Miner, Des Plaines. For further information call the township office at 297-2510.

A Park Ridge man, Ervin O. Lonze, 65, plead guilty of tax evasion charges on Thursday, March 25. An indictment filed March 16 alleged that Lonze substantially understated his gross income for the years 1977 and 1978. The charges stemmed from his ownership of Era Tool and Mfg. Co. in Des Plaines. Judge John F. Grady will sentence Lonze today (April 1). The maximum sentence for tax evasion is 5 years imprisonment and/or a $10,000 fine per count. The investigation of Lonze was conducted by the Internal Revenue Service.

Schedule includes many senior-oriented programs

Park District schedules senior citizen programs

Many Niles Park District activities will be available to Niles senior citizens this summer, according to park district officials. Activities for seniors will include golfing, swimming, luncheons, trips as well as chess, checkers and backgammon tournaments. Also a chess, checkers and backgammon tournament will be scheduled for seniors. A horseshoe pitching tournament will also be run during July and August.

Commenting on senior programming throughout Niles, Nelson said, "Niles has one of the strongest, over-all senior programs in the area with a lot attributed to the village which has progressively programmed in that area." Nelson said among the most popular senior programming are the trips outside of Niles. The varied programs include boat rides, dancing, plays, zoos and museums. Nelson said these programs are popular because "many senior citizens no longer drive or don't want to drive outside the community." Looking towards the future Nelson said she hopes to get more Niles seniors involved in programs using park district facilities, rather than duplicating existing programs provided by the village. Among the programs on the drawing board is a senior citizens fitness program using the new Grennan Heights fitness room.

Scheduled activities for the summer include a six hour mystery trip in June, a day in July at the Niles Sports Complex which will include lunch and dancing and a Grandparent-Grandchild swim party followed by lunch in August. A park district class being offered to seniors this summer includes a beginners swimming course as well as weekly open swim sessions for seniors. Reduced golf course rates will be available to seniors before 3 p.m. at the Tam Golf course and numerous golf tournaments will be offered to seniors sponsored by the park district during the summer.

LAST MINUTE INCOME TAX INFORMATION

For the first time in many years, seniors in Morton Grove are finding it necessary to file an income tax return because they find that their total income, excluding Social Security, is much higher than in past years. This is due to the fact that seniors find that their interest income is becoming increasingly higher due to investments in six-month certificates, which have been paying excellent interest rates. Seniors must file even though they may owe no tax, in the following cases: Single, under age 65-income over $3,300; Single, age 65 and over-income over $4,300; Married, one over, one under age 65-income over $6,400; Married, both age 65 and over-income over $7,400. Social Security is not taxable, so should not be included in the above figures. Taxable income is: bank interest, pensions, dividends from stock held in corporations, and income from a trust.

Seniors with income less than $12,000 including Social Security, many times find it profitable to prepare and file the Circuit Breaker, which can lead to a refund on their real estate taxes. You have until April 15 to file 1981 tax returns. Seniors who need assistance in preparing their returns can get free help by calling the AARP-IRS hot-line, 965-4658 for an appointment.

Jaffe seeks gunowner competency exam

State Representative Aaron Jaffe (D-Skokie) today introduced legislation to require firearm owners to pass a competency exam before they could receive an owner's permit.

"If someone is going to own a gun, then they ought to know how to safely and properly use and care for it," Jaffe said.

Jaffe invited support for his legislation from the National Rifle Association which conducts an extensive gun safety education program.

"The NRA maintains it will support reasonable gun legislation," Jaffe said. "I challenge the NRA to lobby for passage of this bill which is not only reasonable but important."

Jaffe's bill would require applicants for a Firearm Owner's Identification Card to pass an examination of their competence to fire, store, and keep in functioning order a firearm.

The legislation would also authorize the Department of Law Enforcement, which issues the ID cards, to conduct classes in the safe handling of guns.

"Many of the problems associated with gun ownership can be traced to incompetent and careless use of guns," Jaffe said. "These classes and exams, hopefully, would help to eliminate these problems."

Jaffe added that "if we can't ban ownership of guns yet, at least we can require that people demonstrate their ability to safely handle a gun before they are allowed to own one."

Jaffe compared the test to taking a driver's license exam. "A periodic exam might help to remind gun owners of the responsible and legitimate uses of guns," Jaffe said.

Honored for service

Mrs. Judy Koch (l) is shown receiving a special plaque and corsage in recognition of her service as a church school teacher in the Niles Community Church (United Presbyterian) from 1952 to 1982. The presentation was made by Mrs. Marjorie Bieshaar, chairman of the Session's Committee on Christian Education, in connection with the congregation's 30th Anniversary celebration on Sunday, March 21.

First Baptist Church of Park Ridge

First Baptist Church of Park Ridge will commemorate Maundy Thursday, which recalls the event of the Last Supper of Jesus Christ, in a special way. From five to eight p.m. on Thursday, April 8, an open invitation is extended to the congregation and active friends of First Baptist to a personal and intimate service of Holy Communion with the pastor, Reverend Raymond Gimmi.

During the three hour period people will come to worship whenever they can. Groups of from six to ten will be ushered to the front of the sanctuary. There a table will be prepared and the communicants invited to sit with Pastor Gimmi in a manner similar to the sharing of the supper Jesus did with his Disciples. Family units are especially encouraged to commune together.

Quiet organ music that focuses on the cross will assist participants in entering into the spirit of Maundy Thursday. Marilyn Lamken is the organist of First Baptist. Deacon Joe Field will be the usher for the service of Holy Communion. The church is located at Northwest Highway and Potter rd. in Park Ridge.

Our last article in this series pointed out the need for teaching our children how to think for themselves. More than ever before, our children need to learn effective problem solving skills to meet the challenges of life. Now let's look at some ways that you may be able to teach your children these skills before they learn the hard way in life. (We all have taken some courses from the school of hard knocks.)

There are three basic factors in the development of personal problem solving. One factor is the actual learning of the skill. This can be accomplished in several ways. We model our own method of problem solving to our children. They learn by observing us and they basically act the way they see us act. If they see you react violently and impulsively to a problem, your children may learn to act the same way - and very little is ever accomplished. If on the other hand, they see you think before you react, you are laying the foundation for them to problem solve. There are other ways of learning outside of modeling appropriate behaviors. You can teach them a simple, five step process for problem solving and give them some guidance in the use of this process. Our school systems can also teach creative problem solving as part of the educational curriculum. The schools can help the students use their creativity (rather than memorization) and show them how to apply this creativity and resourcefulness to real life. Problem solving is far more figuring out when two speeding trains will meet. Problem solving applies to real life, also.

Another factor in the teaching of problem solving is giving our children the opportunity to think for themselves. Our children sometimes become intellectually "lazy" and look for others to do the thinking for them. In younger children, that tendency leads to depending. In older children, that tendency leads to peer pressure. Our children need to learn how to think for themselves and have to develop the skill. That takes practice and patience. We find that many parents interfere and do too much thinking for the children. They violate one of the most important principles of problem solving: every time you do the thinking for a child that he can do himself, you are depriving him of an opportunity to learn. And that adds up. Our children need to practice this skill to see for themselves what the consequences are, to learn from their mistakes and to begin to believe in themselves.

The last factor in problem solving is the rewarding of efforts to solve problems in socially acceptable and effective methods. A child who learns that it helps to think before he acts is a child who is developing a problem solving process. Parents must help their children to understand how and why it helps them to resolve a conflict with another person without violence. If a child feels that the so - even at the risk of continual punishment. That punishment acts as a reward. It is far better to reward the better behavior than just to punish the bad.

There is a five step process of problem solving which you can teach your children. It certainly isn't a guarantee that they will always get what they want - or solve their problems. But using this process will minimize the mistakes that are usually made - and make it more likely that they will be successful. The five step process for problem solving is:

1. Identify the problem
 2. Describe what to do
 3. Evaluate each idea
 4. Act out a plan
 5. Learn if your answer worked
- Remember the word I.D.E.A.-L as the word that describes the five step process and what happens when you use it. Next time, we'll show you how you can use this process with your children. Meanwhile, we are available to help you with your own personal problems - whether they are individual, marital, or family. Just give us or Madeleine Settles a call at 692-3396.

Arriving on the scene police were unable to find the burglar who had fled after being frightened by the returning residents or by the police. While the residents said it did not appear anything was missing, they said they would carefully search the house to inventory their belongings.

A 26-year-old Chicago resident was arrested for forgery in Niles on Thursday, March 25. Police report the Chicago man was buying merchandise at the Suitery, 8355 Golf Rd., when he gave a clerk a check for $587.77. When the clerk called Telecheck to verify the check, he was told that not only had the Chicago resident's checking account been closed but that Telecheck also had received a $305 check from the same man which was no good. Suitery officials immediately contacted the Niles Police who arrested the Chicago man. At the Niles Police department police found, on the arrested man, a $211 receipt from a local store and, after contacting the store, were told he had also given them a bad check. The man was charged with two counts of felony forgery and, after being assigned an April court date, was held in lieu of $1,000 bond.

A 29-year-old Niles man was arrested for shoplifting in Niles on Saturday, March 27. Police report the man was shopping in Sears Roebuck and Co., 400 Golf Mill, when he was observed by store employees leaving the store without paying for two sweaters and a screwdriver. After being detained by store employees, the man was brought to the Niles Police Department, where he was charged with retail theft. He was assigned an April court date and released on $100 bond.

Too much circulating

A 33-year-old Prospect Heights man was arrested on Friday, March 19 for shoplifting in a Niles store. According to police, the man was shopping in Sears Roebuck and Co., 400 Golf Mill, when he was seen leaving the store with a Whirlpool water circulator he had not paid for. He was taken to the Niles Police Department and charged with retail theft. Additionally, the Prospect Heights man said stolen merchandise from other stores could be found in his auto. Burglars broke into a local school during the night of Tuesday, March 23, however, were unable to find any money. According to police, unknown persons broke into the Culver School, 6921 Oakton St., and immediately went to the school office. The intruders tried to break open a walk-in safe. The hinge caps were removed as well as the safe dial and handle and the burglars managed to pry the safe door two inches from the wall frame. However, they were unable to gain access to the safe and left the building without stealing anything of value.

Child shot by B.B. Gun

A 13-year-old resident of the 8100 block of Lyons St. was injured when she was shot by a B.B. type pellet while playing in front of her house on Sunday, March 28. According to police the 13-year-old girl was in front of her house when someone from a passing car fired the pellet at her. Running into her house her mother saw that the pellet had punctured the child's leg and immediately brought her to Lutheran General Hospital for treatment. The Niles girl described the auto driven by the offenders as a two door beige car.

T-Tops stolen

A Chicago resident reported his car was broken into while parked in Niles on Monday, March 22. According to police the car, a 1979 Pontiac Trans-Am, was parked in a lot at 7201 Caldwell Ave. Sometime between 11 p.m. and 12:15 a.m., unknown persons smashed a window to gain access to the car and removed both T-Tops. The Chicago resident estimated the value of the tops at $700.

Illinois State Police drunk driver crackdown

The Illinois State Police are getting the drunk driver off the road. For the month of February, 1982, State Troopers assigned to the Illinois Tollway arrested 127 drivers for driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Captain Hugh S. McGinley, Commander of State Police District 15, which covers the entire 256 miles of the Illinois tollroad system stated, "This is the highest number of D.U.I. arrests made in one month for our district. The legislature has given us a good, workable, drunk driving law and my Troopers are holding up their end by strictly enforcing the new law. It will now be up to the court systems to impartially adjudicate each case."

Through a statistical breakdown it is found that most D.U.I. arrests are made between 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday mornings. The north Tri-State, I-94, between O'Hare field and Kenosha accounted for 74 of the 127 arrests in February. This is due to the 18 year old drinking age in the state of Wisconsin. The average age of the driver arrested for D.U.I. is between 18 and 27 years of age.

Captain McGinley added, "Arresting drunk drivers is one of our goals in our 'Policing for Results' program which we are sure will lead to a reduction of fatalities and personal injury accidents."

Maine East receiver being recruited by colleges

Senior Mike Aaknes of Niles, all-conference wide receiver for the Maine East Demons, is being recruited by three very prestigious schools—Princeton, the University of Pennsylvania, and St. Norbert's. "This is somewhat hard to believe for Mike, who started playing organized football his freshman year at Maine East and just reached his peak this year when he caught passes for 640 yards and total of 50 points.

Mike is being offered financial aid by all three colleges since they do not offer athletic scholarships. "The whole process in picking a candidate is not very complicated," said Mike. "They get your films, and if they like what they see, they contact you." He has received a number of awards, which include all-conference, an honorable mention all-area and all-state, team and Lerner Newspaper M.V.P., and Chicago Tribune Prep Athlete of the Week. Mike credits his success to lifting weights, joining other sports, and Coach Eck and Olson putting him in the passing game.

Mike said, "I really think students should be active in some activity in school. It doesn't have to be sports. It could be any extra-curricular activity. It will pay off in the long run."

Mike will probably be remembered in Demon football history for his 13 point performance when the Demons beat Evanston 13-12 in over-time. This changed Evanston's ranking of sixth in state and gave the Demons a shot at the conference championship.

OCC Runners hit the road

Oakton Community College freshman Steve Rosenblum, Most Valuable Runner and NJAA All-American of the Indoor Track and Field season, placed second for the OCC Running Raiders in the recent ten kilometer race of the Fourth Annual Cary-Grove Half Marathon and Ten Kilometer road races.

Runners competed through the hilly streets of Cary and Silver Lake, Illinois, under cloudy skies in 32 degree temperatures, while a fiercely cold wind blew at 15 miles per hour.

Jukka Kallio ran a tough half marathon as he placed sixth overall and ahead of over 300 runners. During this 13 plus mile race Kallio broke school records for every mile from seven to twelve, breaking the records of former standout OCC runners Ken Maier, Bill Chamberlain, and Tom Riley. Mike Harrington, captain of the indoor track team, suffered severe cramps shortly after the six mile mark and could place no better than 24th over all.

Two former OCC runners also competed in the half marathon. Mark Buciak placed ninth, about three minutes behind Kallio. Ken Maier was thirteenth and less than a minute behind Buciak.

Demon Girls' Softball opens season

The Maine East girls' softball season opened March 31 at Hinsdale Central at 4:30 p.m. Both teams are very aggressive and skilled, having progressed the same in last year's post season play.

The lady Demons were 14-3 last season but were 1-2 after their third game, "coming from behind is not an unusual occurrence for my girls," said Coach Betsy Bricker. There will probably be 3-4 rookies on the varsity this year with 10 returning varsity players. The new face on the field for the coaching staff is the junior varsity coach, Karen Olsen, who is also a full-time substitute at Maine East.

The returning varsity are Sue Busiel, senior pitcher; Jamie Bender, senior first base; Beth Bialko, senior second base; Lori Spino, senior third base; and outfielders Rosemary DiMaggio (junior), Pam McGuigan (junior), Linda Wilson (senior), Denise Hodge (senior), Vicki Oster (senior), and Ann McAuley (senior).

The girls usually practice from 3 p.m. to dusk, five days a week. Admission to all home games is free.

All home Varsity games are played on the field east of the fieldhouse, the JV, South of the stadium.

SJB 5th grade Boy's basketball

Overall, including early tournament play, pre-season practice games and conference play, the boys registered 17 victories and 6 defeats. In early tournament play at Arlington Heights, the boys lost 2 successive games, but came back to win second place in the Niles Park District's 5th and 6th Grade Holiday Tournament with 2 victories and 1 defeat in the same day. In an extended practice season, the boys began to play better team defense and improved offensively to finish with 6 victories and 2 defeats. These early games helped prepare the team for conference play where they registered 9 victories and 1 defeat and were conference co-champions with St. Juliana's. These teams played each other twice during the season with each team earning a 1 point victory over the other. Evidence of the boys improvement is the fact that during conference play, the boys averaged 23 pts. per game offensively while only allowing the other teams to average 15 points per game.

Each boy played an important role and contributed to the team's success. Without your active support and participation in getting the boys to practice and games, we certainly would not have been able to achieve what we did. Team members include: Bill Brown, Glenn Grendzinski, Mark Hanks, Jeff Jung, Tony Klancnik, Jeff Koppensteiner, Dave Kruczek, Greg Mastri, Steve Notaro, Brian Ochab, Chris Pisani, John Reid, Greg Weiss and Tom Wolshon. The boys were coached by Ray Wolshon and Don Kruczek. A special thanks to Athletic Director, Dan Kosiba, for including a 5th period of play to insure that each boy received the playing time necessary to develop his skills. Supporting the team during its conference schedule were the 5th Grade Girls Cheerleading Squad and their parents. The Cheerleading Squad was comprised of: Leslie Filipowski, Linda Gurley, Denise Gutt, Amy Kalas, Kathy Letscher, Tina Purta, Margie and Mary Sheridan, Becky Sill and Sandy Urban.

Skokie Valley Chapter No. 75, Telephone Pioneers of America, will sponsor their Fourth Annual Easter Egg Hunt for blind and visually-impaired children on Saturday, April 17. The event will be held on the lawn of the Teletype Corporation, 5555 Touhy ave., Skokie, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The eggs can be hidden and refound hundreds of times. Each egg found will be exchanged for candy to fill their Easter baskets. These audible eggs are constructed from pattyhose containers, each equipped with a "chirping" device. The Telephone Pioneers of America, founded in 1911, is the world's largest voluntary social/industrial organization. It is comprised of men and women who have at least 18 years of service in the telephone industry, and retired employees. Pioneers are dedicated to community service programs and helping the handicapped. There are over 3,000 members in Teletype Corporation's Skokie Valley Chapter, and over half a million members in the United States and Canada. The Easter Egg Hunt is free, but reservations must be made by April 12. For reservations and information, call the Pioneer Office at 982-2450.

Porter backs continued Student Loan funding

Funding for Guaranteed Student Loans will continue at current levels through the remainder of fiscal 1982, Congressman John E. Porter (R-Winnetka) believes. The House Appropriations Committee March 23 rejected an Administration proposal for substantial cuts in the program beginning April 1. Instead, the committee approved $1.3 billion in supplemental funds to continue

Dental Assistants meeting

The North-Northwest Branch of the Chicago Dental Assistants Association will hold their next meeting on Tuesday, April 13. The program for this month will be "Safety and Precautions in the Dental Office," and our speaker will be Dr. J. Feder. Also, we will be electing our new term of Officers. The meeting place will be The Pars Cove Restaurant, 4353 N. Central ave. in Chicago. Dinner will be served at 7:00 p.m. sharp, and our meeting will begin at 8:00 p.m. The Branch wishes to invite all area Dental Assistants to attend our meeting. Hope to see you there.

For further information and reservations, please contact Mrs. Linda Uatry at home 769-5970 or at her office, 948-7008.

the program at existing levels through Sept. 30. The supplemental funding must be approved by both houses of Congress and signed by the President to take effect.

Porter, a member of the Appropriations Committee, said the changes proposed by the Administration would eliminate graduate students from the program, jeopardize some undergraduate loan commitments for the current school year and reduce eligibility for undergraduate loans for this fall beyond standards enacted by Congress last year.

"The Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 included a number of major reforms that corrected abuses in the student loan program," Porter said. "It would be terribly irresponsible to attempt to re-write the law in the middle of the fiscal year, especially at a time when students are trying to firm up their finances for next September."

The proposed cutback, if enacted, would exclude 625,000 graduate and professional students from the loan program.

Centel seeks to remove main phones from leased line

Central Telephone Company of Illinois (Centel) announced today that the company filed a proposed tariff with the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) which, if approved, would require new single-line business and residential customers to purchase rather than lease main telephones.

If the request is granted as submitted, it would take effect April 11, and would apply only to customers in Centel's Des Plaines, Park Ridge and Chicago exchanges. Current customers, as well as new customers applying for service prior to April 11, will continue to have the option to either lease or purchase an instrument. However, present customers who change service, or new customers applying for service on or after the effective date, would no longer be able to lease their telephones.

The company is requesting the change as part of its continuing efforts to hold down monthly rates, according to Donald U. Adkisson, general manager - regulatory/planning for Centel - Illinois.

"More customers are taking advantage of the option to buy their own phones," he noted. "In other words, fewer people are choosing to lease now." Centel Telephone Company of Illinois is a subsidiary of Central Telephone & Utilities Corporation, the fifth largest telephone company in the nation, with telephone operations in 10 states.

Bank offers new product

Chicago-O'hare International Bank is now offering its customers a convenient new way to buy gold and silver, announced Mrs. Rita Florczak, Investment Officer. The new "Precious Metals Program" allows customers to purchase an undivided interest in gold and silver bullion without ever taking delivery. This saves the individual manufacturing, shipping, handling, safety deposit box and vault costs, as well as certain taxes.

Mrs. Florczak says, "O'Hare Bank's Precious Metals Program, allows the customers to purchase as little as 5 troy ounces of gold or 100 troy ounces of silver at prevailing market prices, normally available only to large dealers. It's the simplest way to purchase either metal."

A commission fee is charged for both the purchase and sale of either metal.

Customers also have the option of taking physical delivery of their purchases in the form of gold or silver bars.

Mrs. Florczak added, "O'Hare Bank's Precious Metals Program is an innovative way to add gold or silver to an individual's investment portfolio. Of course, we always advise interested individuals to seek the counsel of their financial advisor before making any investment."

To find out how you can join the thousands of Americans who have bought gold and silver, request the Precious Metals Brochure from Mrs. Rita Florczak, O'Hare Bank, 8501 W. Higgins rd., or phone 693-5555.

On the same day, they also invited St. Peters Catholic School in Skokie and again presented a classroom American Flag to the 6th graders, plus the rulers and the "Pledge of Allegiance" flags. The 6th graders did themselves proud in answering the questions posed by the Patriotic Instructor.

SJB daughters vs. dads

Suiting up for the annual parents versus daughters games at St. John Brebeuf is Mr. Walter Byk, assisted by his wife. The dads had to wear boxing gloves in the contests to compensate for their height advantage. The 5th grade SJB girls triumphed by 1 point in a low scoring game, climaxing their season with 21 wins and 2 league championships.

The girls had to resort to strategies such as lining up for jump balls with one girl atop another's shoulders to give them added height.

In the other daughter versus parents games played that day, the parents defeated the 6th grade girls teams by one point. The 7th grade game ended in a tie.

Maine-Niles Camp Fire presents computer

The Maine-Niles area of Camp Fire Metropolitan Chicago Council which includes Wilmette, Evanston, Park Ridge and the surrounding environs, presented a home computer to a disabled Camp Fire member following their 17th Annual Variety Show on March 21, at the Maine-South High School Auditorium in Park Ridge.

Camp Fire youth embarked upon this unique service project to raise money to purchase a home computer for Lisa Bertolini, a 16 year old Camp Fire member who has had muscular dystrophy since infancy. Lisa attends Maine East High School.

Over $2,500 was raised by the boys and girls, ages 6 to 18, and the presentation was the culmination of many months of fund raising. Lisa has very limited use of her hands and the computer will be of great value in helping with school work, but also, the machine will provide her with the skills to find employment after she graduates from high school.

The project was supervised by Camp Fire Coordinator, Mrs. Arlene Elmgren of Cedar st. in Park Ridge. Among those attending the presentation were Ms. Lynn Orlebeke and Mr. Roger Mills of Enterprise Systems, Inc. in Bannockburn. Their expertise and financial assistance enabled Camp Fire to purchase the computer.

Also present were the following donors: Ms. Marge Mickey of the Edison Park Women's Club, Mr. William Breihnan, President of the Park Ridge Kiwanis and representatives of the Norridge-Harwood Heights United Way.

Play time for Grandparents Unlimited

"When my kids were growing up I was working and couldn't volunteer for PTA or Boy Scouts. Being part of Grandparents Unlimited is my way of giving something back to the community for other children, for what my children received when I couldn't volunteer," says Lorraine Politis of Skokie.

Grandparents Unlimited is a volunteer program sponsored by Community Outreach at Oakton Community College, and trim, petite, Lorraine has been volunteering through this unique program for 1 1/2 years at the Mayer Kaplan JCC Day Care Center. Her own grandchildren live in Tennessee, Washington, and Florida so she spends a half a day each week at the bustling center where she helps and plays with the children. She works with those children who can't participate in regular activities because of colds or soar throats, and supplements the teacher's efforts during lunch and later at naptime with a backrub or some relaxing one-to-one conversation with the children. Most important of all, she is there when someone needs extra love or comforting.

"People who have become Grandparents Unlimited are a very remarkable group," says Blanche Block, coordinator.

"The men and women whose ages range from 50-75 come from varied backgrounds and educations. Some have not completed high school, others have college degrees, and one is a Ph.D., but all are caring and loving people who like children."

Mrs. Block plays the role of "matchmaker" between the community nursery schools or day care centers and the volunteers.

"The agencies specifically request our volunteers because they do such a fine job with the children. It is a terrific program that fills a mutual need. Grandparents often need loving as much as the children do," Mrs. Block observes.

Invariably the grandparents discover unexpected rewards. Lorraine Politis tells this story:

"One little girl asked me my mother's name. Then she asked if I would have my mother call her mother so that I could come over to her house to play."

Lorraine believes that most people are happiest when they are busy, and she adheres to that philosophy. "It's a wonderful way to spend time," she adds.

Mrs. Block is quick to stress that each volunteer decides how much time he or she has to give. Some volunteer 2 or 3 hours each week and other 2 or 3 days per week. "Commitment is the key, children learn to count on seeing these grandparents."

For further details call Blanche Block at 635-1936.

District 64 Business Director working budget constructs

Children are expensive. Ask any parent. They have to be fed and clothed and cared for in innumerable ways. They strain the budget of even the best-run households.

One of their most important requirements is a good education, which they're entitled to have in order to grow up to be contributing members of our society. The budget for that education is something the Board of Education and the Administration of District 64 take very seriously, as Ken Carroll will attest.

As Director of the Business Services for District 64, with its present enrollment of 3,175 students, Carroll is one of the people financially responsible for the education of the children in Park Ridge-Niles District 64.

And in that role, one of Carroll's primary tasks is to take the Fiscal Policy developed by the Board of Education and develop a working budget within its perimeters.

Last Monday, at a meeting held at Washington School, the Board of Education presented its Fiscal Policy for the school year 1982-83. According to Richard Smith, Chairman of the Finance Committee for the Board of Education, the policy is "the bones we hang the budget on."

The new Fiscal Policy is actually a continuation of one which has been in effect for several years, Smith said. "It's a workable plan that's evolved through the last several years with minor changes, one that holds the administration firmly to reduction of expenses."

Smith, who is working on his third budget for the Board, says that costs do not decline in proportion to the enrollment.

We're constantly looking for new and effective means of reducing expenditures," he said. "I think this year's Fiscal Policy provides a practical framework for a reasonable budget."

With the presentation of the Fiscal Policy, one aspect of Ken Carroll's job is set in motion, for he is responsible for constructing a budget the school can work with and the Board will approve.

"Forms have already been sent to the appropriate people in the district-program coordinators, media personnel, purchasing department, the supervisor of buildings and grounds, people in the bookkeeping department, school principals and others-for their requests and recommendations. Between now and June when we prepare a tentative budget for the Board's approval, there will be several rewritings which will be closely reviewed by the Finance Committee," Carroll said.

He explained that a lot of things can happen between June and September that could affect the budget. "The legislature may make changes that could affect our programs, and the Board may ask us to trim our proposals accordingly. However, our greatest single expenditure, salaries is decided before June so in that respect we're fairly well covered against surprises."

Life wouldn't be difficult for any of us if we just had one thing to do, and the same is true for Carroll. The preparation of the budget (which results in a 73-page booklet by the time it is finally adopted in September) is only one of his responsibilities.

Another is maintaining the District's financial records and preparing reports as needed by the Board and the State and Federal governments. He also takes responsibility for the district's Fiscal Policy provides a practical framework for a reasonable budget."

M-NASR program for 3 and 4 year olds

A new program is in the marking at M-NASR. It is a program specifically designed to meet the needs of 3 and 4 year olds who are showing signs of some delayed development. The major goal of this program will be to help the child grow socially, emotionally and physically. To reach this goal, the program will maintain an environment that is conducive to having a balance between an active/quiet and free/structured environment.

Activities to develop body identification, an awareness of how the body moves, a sense of balance and rhythm and gross motor skills will be a part of the daily schedule. If you feel that your child may need a developmental program and your child is between the ages of 2 and 4 years old, contact Jan Fritz at 966-1460 or M-NASR at 966-5522. Your child will be tested by the Maine Township Special Education District and a program structured to fit your child's needs will be developed.

M-NASR is a cooperative serving the special populations of the Skokie, Golf-Maine, Lincolnwood, Niles, Morton Grove, Des Plaines, and Park Ridge Park Districts. For more information about these or any other M-NASR programs, please call 966-5522.

M-NASR 0-3 program

The Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation (M-NASR) is offering a moms and tots play group to children with physical handicaps or those showing delays in development, and who are between the ages of 0-3 years old. This program is run cooperatively with the Maine Township Special Education District and the LICA program. Moms are required to stay and participate in the program, to learn to play with their children and socialize with other moms.

An initial skills assessment is made of all the children and used as a guide to promote this physical, emotional and mental development through recreational and social activities geared specifically to meet their needs. If you feel you and your child could benefit from this program or know of another family who can, please call the M-NASR office at 966-5522.

M-NASR sponsors leisure programs for all disabled populations as a park district extension of Golf-Maine, Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Skokie, Lincolnwood, Morton Grove and Niles.

Holy Family Hospital outlines modernization/expansion plans replacement of beds.

The applications, submitted on March 12, is an extensive document that describes the project and proposed construction and renovation plans which include a new building on the east side of the main hospital facing River Road.

Holy Family's expansion plans include the addition of 92 beds (78 Medical/Surgical; 10 Intensive Care/Coronary Care; and 4 Obstetrics/Gynecology). This will bring the hospital's bed capacity from 246 to 338.

The project includes the relocation of 60 beds in the hospital to the new building, reducing the size of each existing nursing unit to 30 beds. To meet current needs and future growth, ancillary and support services departments will be modernized.

Holy Family's expansion plans have been formulated after a year-long study which included an analysis of hospital utilization and population changes in the community and their impact on the need for hospital services.

Niles seminar . . .

will discuss terms of notes and mortgage documents issued by lenders.

The Village is sponsoring the seminar in order to help residents who are contemplating the sale of a house, "particularly those who fear putting their homes on the market because they feel homes just aren't selling", according to Village Trustee Bart Murphy.

"The material presented by these experts will give potential sellers a current evaluation of the state of the real estate market, the many alternative ways there are of developing a financing package for a buyer, as well as concrete points on how to make a house more saleable at minimum cost."

Murphy said the seminar is actually a part of the Village's ongoing campaign to attract young families with children as first home buyers to the Village.

"The Village is trying to make it easier for Niles residents who want to sell their homes to develop a financing package which will help them make the sale. On the buy side of the market, the Village is trying to focus the attention of young families who are actually in the first-home-buying market on the advantages of living in Niles."

"It is a good marketing equation. We are helping to stimulate and support the home market in Niles which ultimately benefits every resident because it helps maintain home values in the Village."

'Project Big' Career exhibit at Maine East

Project Big, a special annual exhibit designed to help people of all ages find out about hundreds of careers that are available to them, will be open to all Wednesday, April 21, from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the Maine East fieldhouse.

This event, the biggest of its type in all of Illinois, according to career counselor Keith Honn, was initiated in 1969 in the hope that it would better inform college bound and non-college bound people of the careers available to them.

Representatives from 175-200 local businesses, industry, and service clubs will be in attendance. The careers represented are for people right out of high school to those seeking a professional degree.

For many people who have never been to Project Big, it is a good opportunity to speak on a one-to-one basis with a representative from the many careers, including all of the Armed Forces.

Mr. Honn advises students asking questions to consider what job qualifications, if any, that are needed, what training might be required, and what one can anticipate in the field.

For those people who have no ideas on what field they would like to go into, a special computer program (the Guidance Information System) will be available to assist in finding the career that is well suited to them.

After obtaining the information, one may then proceed to the area designated for that career. All careers that are represented will have handouts and an experienced person from that field.

Who organizes Project Big? It is organized by the District 207 Career Education Advisory

In the past as many as 4,000 persons have attended Project Big. Many of the popular representatives have included accountants, pilots, stewardesses, athletes, a stunt man, and even a married couple representing "Marriage: The Full-time Job."

By fees paid by the residents and their families, State of Illinois grants, and private donations.

For information, contact Robert T. Adams, Managing Director, Orchard Village 7870 Marmora Manor, Skokie, Illinois 60077 or telephone (312) 967-1800.

Council, career counselors, cooperative education teachers, and vocational education teachers under the supervision of assistant superintendent Michael Myers as well as by nearly 200 people who donate their time to tell visitors to Project Big what their career is like from the standpoint of a person earning a living at that job.

imposing a utility tax on its constituents. Three home-rule communities, Evanston Rosemont and Oak Park won a Circuit Court case last week challenging the legality of the additional tax.

The tax, which is imposed in Niles but not Morton Grove, is a less painful tax for household residents, as well as commercial and industrial firms. Rather than paying a higher village tax, as happens in Morton Grove, utility taxpayers pay the extra revenue in small doses monthly. It seems less painful.

Chicago, which expects a 23% increase in 1982 utility tax revenue will receive $269 million dollars from these added fees. Evanston will receive $6.7 million dollars for this year, up 11% from last year.

For this year Niles budgeted $1,220,000 for anticipated revenue from utility taxes. It is up from last year's $1,038,000. Last year Commonwealth Edison received a 13.6% increase, which is roughly the increase in Niles budget for utility taxes for this year.

Even though the percentage tax remains the same, increased taxes mount when utility bills increase. With water, gas and electric prices going higher, the utility tax increases along with the higher bills.

This year's bitter winter sent heating bills to an all-time high. Likewise, the utility taxes you pay on these heating bills also mounted.

Morton Groves' village taxes are substantially more than Nilesites'. But, after deducting utility taxes on electricity, gas and telephone (no tax on water), householders in Niles average an additional $40 per residential unit, which lessens the gap between the two towns.

Karen Lee wins Bausch & Lomb Science Award

National Society of Professional Engineers. Karen Lee, Lincolnwood, was named winner of the annual Bausch & Lomb Science Award recently at Niles West High School. The award, a handsome bronze medal, is presented each year to winners at more than 8,600 participating schools throughout the United States and Canada.

The Bausch & Lomb Science Award is especially significant," according to Len Ackman, director of math and science at the school, "because it recognizes the senior student at our school who has attained the highest scholastic standing in science subjects."

A straight A student, the sixteen year old Lee is considered one of the finest students that has ever come through this district," by her counselor, Leo Hoosline. While carrying a class load containing advanced placement courses in biology, chemistry, and physics, she also finds time to serve as president of the school math club and to tutor other students in math, science and German. She is a member of the National Honor Society and occasionally plays the violin or viola with the school orchestra.

Outside of school, she teaches Sunday school and is the concertmaster of the North Shore Youth Orchestra.

Her achievements in math, science and music literally cover several pages and include awards in the state science fair, the state solo and ensemble music contest, and the state mathematics meet, among others. She's a National Merit Semifinalist, and the recipient of the Rensselaer Medal for excellence in math/science.

As winner of the Bausch and Lomb Award, Lee is eligible to compete for one of several four-year scholarships at the University of Rochester. But she will not be able to avail herself of the opportunity, since she has already been accepted at MIT, where she will major in chemical engineering. Instead, she will try for a National Merit Scholarship, or for one of those offered by the

This roadway construction will include installation of left turn bays at all intersections, and a new traffic signal system that

Skokie traffic engineers feel will provide improved safety for pedestrians and motorists in this area. "Traffic will be able to move through this area, but not as smoothly as before the construction. In the long run, of course, we expect this to enhance traffic movement," according to Municipal Engineer Mark Schoeffmann.
