Police seek molester of 3-year-old Niles boy

In what appears to be an isolated incident in a park setting, the 3-year-old boy was lured into a car and sexually molested by a stranger.

According to Niles Police, the boy was playing in a park on May 13th when he was approached by a man described as being between five and eight inches tall, weighing between 170 and 180 pounds, and having black hair. The police have asked for the public's assistance in identifying the suspect.

Village salutes Niles Public Works

A bugle commentary

The controversial Nutridyn (Nutridyn) issue is the latest in a series of controversies that have plagued the village of Niles. Nutridyn is a supplement that is believed to improve health and well-being. The issue has become especially hot in recent months, with many residents expressing concern about its effects.

In a recent statement, Village President John Doe said that the village has received numerous complaints about Nutridyn and that the issue has become increasingly controversial. "We have received numerous complaints about Nutridyn," Doe said. "We are taking the issue very seriously, and we are working to find a solution that meets the needs of our residents and the health and safety of our community."

Marillac Basketball Camp

A Girls Basketball Camp will be held for the next session at Marillac College, 1555 North Holts crane, Chicago. The camp will run from May 14-15, and will be for girls in grades 6-8. The cost of the camp is $25 per girl. For more information, please contact Coach John Lascarber, Niles leads the tennis teams.

Congratulations to all. This will become an annual event.

The success of this year's meet has worked very well. "We have a strong philosophy we have for not only athletics, but also for the girls. We want them to have fun, to enjoy the game, and to develop their skills."

The Dons will compete in the 400 meter relay the OCC championship, and a trip to Illinois State University soccer. Melnick, an honor student in journalism, has been a key player on the team. "He's like a brick wall and

Morton Grove Bank heads up new banking group

Morton Grove Bank has joined three other Chicago area banks, Chicago Southwestern National Bank of Cicero, First National Bank of Bellwood and Western National Bank of Cicero, in an affiliation called the Morton Grove Banking Group. The group was formed as a result of the merger of the Western National Bank of Cicero in December 1982.

"With the acquisition of the Western National Bank, Morton Grove has increased its assets to $135 million, its deposits to $22 million and its employees to 180 people," said W. Alan O'Hara, Morton Grove president.

O'Hara said the merger will improve the bank's ability to provide a full range of banking services to customers.

"Our customers will benefit from a broader range of services, including checking, savings, demand deposits, and personal and business loans," O'Hara said.

The Bugle, Thursday, May 20, 1982

The 10th Anniversary of the Chamber of Commerce of Hinsdale and Willowbrook was celebrated Tuesday evening at the Willowbrook Civic Center. The event featured a dinner, entertainment, and the presentation of awards.

Chamber president John E. McCaslin welcomed the guests and introduced the keynote speaker, Illinois Governor James R. Olin. Governor Olin spoke about the importance of small businesses in the state's economy and the role of the Chamber in promoting economic development.

In his address, Governor Olin noted the Chamber's efforts to attract new businesses to the area and to support existing ones. He praised the Chamber for its work in promoting economic growth and job creation.

The Governor also spoke about the importance of education and the role of the Chamber in supporting local schools. He emphasized the need for continued investment in education and the importance of preparing young people for the workforce.

Throughout his speech, Governor Olin highlighted the Chamber's role in promoting the community and its valuable contributions to the local economy. He expressed his gratitude for the Chamber's efforts and encouraged its members to continue their support of the community.

After Governor Olin's remarks, the Chamber president presented several awards to individuals and organizations for their contributions to the community. The honorees included local businesses, community leaders, and civic organizations.

The evening concluded with a dinner and entertainment provided by local performers. The atmosphere was festive and celebratory, with guests enjoying each other's company and the achievements of the Chamber.

The 10th Anniversary of the Chamber of Commerce of Hinsdale and Willowbrook was a successful event, reflecting the Chamber's dedication to the community and its contributions to the local economy.
