Four drunk drivers arrested after auto accidents

In the week following the death of a 23-year-old Niles resident caused by a drunk driver, a 16-year-old Chicago girl in an auto accident caused by a drunk driver needed medical attention. The Illinois State Police are working on two accidents involving drunk drivers. The accident report at the moment is showing that the 16-year-old girl had a car thrown into the air, and a 23-year-old man had a difficult time standing up. The man was taken to Lutheran General Hospital by R. T. S. F. K. and then flown to the hospital. When police arrived at the scene, they found no signs of a drunk driver on duty at the accident report. Additional questions regarding the extent of the injury were answered by the Illinois State Police.

Newspaper is so much more.

A newspaper is more than a source of current events. It is a human institution that serves its community and educates its readers. It is the most serious incident, a document that is read by millions of people every day. Kestra's attempt to freeze multiplier killed

In an attempt to maintain the budget for the next fiscal year, Kestra's proposal to freeze the multiplier was defeated. The vote was 5-2, with the majority of council members opposing the proposal. The freezing of the multiplier would have resulted in a 2% increase in gas and electric bills, which was not acceptable for most residents.

Give taxpayers the right to cut taxes by referendum

As a result of the defeat, the city council will need to find an alternative solution to increase revenue. One option is to propose a referendum to allow taxpayers to decide whether to cut taxes by a certain percentage. This would give residents a direct say in the matter, potentially leading to a more equitable distribution of financial resources.

Jaffe pushes for tax multiplier

State Representative Aaron Jaffe has been advocating for a tax multiplier in the legislature. The tax multiplier would allow for the automatic adjustment of taxes based on changes in economic conditions, such as inflation or unemployment. Jaffe believes that this approach would create a more stable and fair system of taxation.

Pro-Taxpayer bill sent to Governor

A pro-taxpayer bill has been sent to Governor Pat Quinn. The bill, sponsored by State Representative Aaron Jaffe (D-Chicago), would allow for the automatic reduction of state taxes if the federal government reduces its tax rates. Jaffe believes that this would provide a much-needed relief for Illinois residents.

Rueckert charges Jaffe with abuse of state funds

State Representative Rueckert has charged State Senator Jaffe with abuse of state funds. Rueckert alleges that Jaffe has used state funds for personal expenses, including travel and entertainment.

Jaffe has refuted the charges, arguing that he has used state funds in accordance with state guidelines. The matter is currently under investigation by the Illinois State Police.
