Suit filed against Nimrod for back rent

by Bob Besser

An announcement this week by the Niles Township Regular Republican Organization that State Sen. John Nimrod (R-Glenview) is being sued for back rent owed for offices shared with the Niles Township Republicans raised new questions about Republican reaction to the possibility of Nimrod running as an independent and a "spoiler" in the November Senatorial election.

In an unusual move, Niles Township Committeeman

Nimrod files petitions for ballot spot

by Bob Besser

Following weeks of speculation that he might run as an independent candidate in November, State Sen. John Nimrod (R-Glenview) personally filed petitions on Monday to assure his name will be on the November ballot.

Nimrod, a 10 year State Senator, lost his party's endorsement when he was defeated in his primary bid in March to newcomer Illinois Rep. Bob Kustra (R-Glenview).

Kustra, who out-organized and out-spent Nimrod in the March primary, was thought to be a shoe-in in the November race against Democrat Lou Black, the Niles Township Clerk. However, political observers on Tuesday agreed that Nimrod's independent candidacy could result in

If the umpires are supposed to "call them as they see 'em" then a reporter should "write them as he sees 'em or hears 'em or thinks he sees 'em".

A couple of weeks back an anon telephone caller questioned the way Niles hires its young people for summer help in the village. Anon caller reported Trustee Orville Ottow's niece, a golden gal from California, has one of this year's 25 summer jobs. Caller thought this hiring was highly irregular and smacks of cronyism. He suggested the job should rightfully have gone to a permanent Niles resident and certainly not a distant relative of a village official who comes from a distant port of call.

So, the reporter gets on the telephone and calls "The Man". He's the guy who promised to bring a new era to Niles if only he received your vote. You did and he did. He now is running this town like some back-alley politician with all the favors and political favoritism which go with the back-alley stuff.

He said each one of the trustees has 3 or 4 opportunities for distributing these summer jobs. The fact one of the trustees imports one of his relatives from 2,000 miles away seemed of no concern. "The Man" said the niece of the trustee intends to live permanently with the trustee or in the village.

Much ado about nothing? We don't think so. It may be only one

Quints born at Lutheran General

Quintuplets, born to a Glenview couple Wednesday morning at Lutheran General Hospital, were reported in critical but stable condition one hour after they were born (at Bugle press time). The one male and four female premature babies were born after 31 weeks of gestation. Hospital officials said they consider 40 weeks the normal term for birth. Officials also reported the fertility drug, pergonal, was used by the mother, Amy Chikaraishi, 31, who was reported in good condition. Along with her husband, James, 32, they have an 18 month old child, Erin.

The firstborn, a male baby, was born at 8:09:23 and weighed 2 pounds, 14 ounces. The second child, a female, was born 25 seconds later and weighed 2 pounds, 3 1/2 ounces. The third child and 2nd female was born at 8:10:20 and weighed 1 pound, 8 ounces. The fourth baby, a

"I had to take the phone off the hook", was Ellen Gruenberg's answer when asked if she had much response from her recent help wanted ad in The 5 Bugle newspapers. Ellen was seeking a baby sitter. She said after her phone rang "15 or 20 times", she took it off the hook.

Thanks Jimmy D. and Jimmy O.

Two of Niles' "Finest" retired this week. Both started their service to the village on the same day (August 1, 1961), twenty-one years ago and both decided to "pull the pin" this week.

As I listened to Lt. Marty Stankowicz make some podium small talk at their retirement luncheon, I couldn't help but think back to the first time I ever heard the names of Jim Dvorak and Jim Olschick.

I had just gotten out of high school and our crew used to "hang-out" at Lindy's drive-in on Milwaukee Ave. One day these two giant-sized cops and a matched set of dark green and chrome Harley's pulled in, started hard at all of us and then went to watch us, our cars and our driving habits from a short distance away. No more "burning-out" from Lindy's after that. Those two guys terrorized us into good driving. They looked at least seven feet tall in those helmets, breeches and boots!

When I turned twenty-one and was fresh out of the Marine Corps, I joined the force. At that time we enforced a traffic code contained in a book called the "U.A.R.T." about as thick as a dictionary. I thought it was hopeless to try and memorize all the laws of the State of Illinois said I had to enforce. I was assigned to the motorcycles and had the good fortune to have Jimmy Olschick as my partner. Now I won't lie and tell you Jim didn't write a lot of tickets: (the rumor was that if Jim was feeling cantankerous on a particular day, his next court day had to be held in the Golf Mill Theatre to hold all the defendants.) But Jimmy "O" was the undisputed world champion traffic man. (Later, his brother Lemmy would vie with me for that title, but that's another story.)

An expression...an opinion... a point of view...

Guest Columnist

I figured Jim had to know something about understanding all those traffic laws in that U.A.R.T. book, so I asked him. He looked me straight-in-the-eye and said, "Bathroom law." Then he explained that in his home, his bathroom reading material was that U.A.R.T. book. He forced himself to read 5 or 10 pages every time he went in there. When he finished the book, he'd start over again. Now that's dedication!

Some years later Jim Dvorak and I were assigned to the Detective Bureau under Lieutenant John Christie. I was full of vinegar and was hot to solve every crime that came across our desks. Jim would carefully read over the reports and suddenly go to a file that had some share of information that was collected when I was one of the punks at Lindy's, hand it to me, crack a joke and watch as I slowly understood how cases were solved, not by "hard-charging" but by slow persistence. He taught me a lot. Old timers will remember how Jim rode his motorcycle standing on the seat at one of the old Niles thrill shows at Notre Dame High School. He claims he still uses a wire brush when he showers to get the cinders out. They got in when the bike burped and Jim slid down the track head first.

Thanks Jimmy D. and Jimmy O. You're the stuff the Niles Police Department is still made of. Little pieces of you are still in traffic court, in the Bureau and on the streets where your mere presence always meant the end of a tough "pinch", a fight finished, or a belligerent drunk easily arrested. The people and your fellow officers owe you.

School barred from receiving student loan funds

OCC reduces default rate of student loans

The student default rate on National Direct Student Loans at Oakton Community College has been reduced to 17.6 percent, according to John P. Donohue, vice president for student development.

Responding to the report that OCC was among thirty Illinois schools barred from receiving federal student loan funds because its default rate exceeded 25 percent, Donohue said that the U.S. Department of Education action was based on July 1, 1981 eligibility.

"During the past year, we have worked very hard to reduce Oakton's default rate," he said. "As of July 1, 1982, our rate has been reduced to 17.6 percent."

"Staff members of Oakton's financial aid and business offices intensified collection efforts on delinquent loan accounts in 1981," Donohue said. In addition, the college employed a professional collection agency specializing in NDSL loan collections. Finally, during the last year, Oakton referred those accounts where collection efforts were unsuccessful to the federal government for collection.

Donohue explained that the college continues activities to assure that loans borrowed under the NDSL program are repaid. Substantial information is collected from the students at the time the loans are given to them. Then, before the students graduate, the borrowers are required to review loan obligations with the Office of Financial Aid.

Sharon Nordlof, manager of financial aid at Oakton, notes that "because of these efforts, a higher percentage of students are repaying loans or remembering to file student deferrals if they transfer to a four-year college."

Repayments increase Oakton's revolving loan fund so that current students who need money for school can borrow," she continues. "In the past Oakton has requested new NDSL money from the federal government but was denied because of a high default rate."

Donohue pointed out that the college will continue to provide student loan funds to OCC students because money collected on student loans will be sufficient. "There will be no new funds but we will have enough to meet our students' needs," he added.

Scoutmaster commended for Scout-O-Rama booth

George Walters, 7214 Breen, Niles and Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 45 set up a diabetes testing booth at the Scout-O-Rama which was held on Sunday, May 2. Walters, together with his boy scouts, manned the diabetes testing at the booth.

On May 24 Walters received the following letter from Charles A. Westcott, a Barrington man who attended Scout-O-Rama with his family.

Dear Mr. Walters: Our family visited your troop's booth at Scout-O-Rama on Sunday, May 2 while our son was working at his cub pack's activity booth. We were especially interested in the diabetes testing, partly because two of our son's school-age friends have been diagnosed diabetic recently.

Both my wife and I had our blood glucose levels checked. As soon as our son had finished his day's tour of duty, he took the blood test, too. Of the three tests given to our family, our son showed an elevated glucose level.

To make a long story short, the next day he had lab tests on both blood and urine. Three days later he was admitted to Lutheran General Hospital after Dr. William Maurer had diagnosed him in early stages of Juvenile Onset Diabetes.

We thought you would like to know that your troop's activities at this year's Scout-O-Rama were instrumental in identifying this condition in our son, Chuck. We are grateful to you all and we hope you will be able continue, or even expand, this public service.

Edgar announces four-year drivers license program

Sec. of State Jim Edgar announced details for a program Thursday that extends the life of drivers licenses from three to four years, making the testing process more convenient for the state's 7.4 million drivers.

Edgar also announced his office will begin giving vision tests in January every time an individual renews a drivers license. "Extending the life of Illinois drivers licenses will benefit drivers and allow my office to administer the drivers license program more efficiently and effectively," Edgar said.

"Drivers will not have to renew their licenses as often, it will be less expensive when it comes time to renew and service should be more efficient by the time it is completely phased in 1987," Edgar said.

Legislation will be introduced by Edgar next session creating a four-year license which would cost $10. Illinois drivers currently pay $8 for a three-year license, or about $2.67 annually. The four-year license will cost drivers less on an annual basis at $2.50 per year.

Family Counseling director celebrates fifth year

John J. Buckley, Executive Director of the Family Counseling Service of Evanston and Skokie Valley is celebrating his

Mr. Buckley said that, "The expansion of services to the elderly has enabled more older adults and their families to get assistance with housing, Medicare/Medicaid, health care, and other day-to-day problems." Similarly, the agency has increased programs to reach parents who are experiencing difficulties with their children.

Currently, the agency is seeking funds to provide the financial counseling program to help families and individuals who have economic difficulties.

62nd wedding anniversary celebration

Elizabeth and Carl Bloedel (left) celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary while Carl was a patient at Resurrection Hospital. Sister Bonaventure, C.R., executive vice-president, and nurses and dietitians gathered for a special ceremony which included an anniversary cake and cards. Also present for the ceremonies was the Bloedel's daughter, Carol (third from right).

"The secret to a successful and long lasting marriage is to stay on your honeymoon," said Carl Bloedel, 91, who just happens to be an expert on the subject.

The Bloedels were surprised when Sister Bonaventure, C.R., hospital executive vice-president, and the dietitians and nurses presented them with an anniversary cake on this special day. The Bloedels also received a letter of congratulations from the President and Mrs. Reagan. "It was love at first sight," said

Bloedel as he told his guests how he met his wife when they were growing up in the same neighborhood. The couple were married on June 24, 1920 at St. Maurice Church, 3615 S. Hoyne ave. in Chicago.

The Bloedels have one daughter, Carol, a nurse, who was present at the celebration. The Bloedels also have seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren with a fourth great-grandchild on the way.

Bloedel, a retired auto parts salesman, now lives in Park Ridge with his wife who said she can hardly wait until her husband comes home.

St. Juliana to hold benefit Towel and Linen sale

An extremely important consumer interest problem is the whole spectrum of inflation and just what can be done to keep prices down. An encouraging development to this end has been the evolution of a completely new concept of marketing which features what could be termed Direct to the Consumer Sales. The basis behind this concept is that the product is purchased direct from the producer or manufacturer and distributed directly to the consuming public. By bypassing the middleman, cost factors are eliminated and prices to the consumer are kept down. St. Juliana Church, Niles has accepted an offer from a large linen supply house to conduct a Direct to the Consumer Towel and Linen sale at their School Hall situated at 7200 N. Osceola, Niles. The linens will be sold directly out of the boxes as shipped by the manufacturer, without any fancy displays.

Two trailer loads of American made name brand towels, sheets, blankets, bedspreads, pillows, rugs, mattress pads, kitchen accessories, are only a few of the 28 categories that will be sold at mill wholesale prices at this unique sale as sponsored by St. Juliana Church. Money back guarantee on all items. Sale runs Tues., Wed., and Thurs. Aug. 10, 11, and 12, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Summer driving safety hints

By Secretary of State Jim Edgar. As you are driving this summer be sure to watch the traffic scene well ahead of you as well as immediately in front of your vehicle. By knowing what is going on around you it will be easier to anticipate problems and drive defensively. By being constantly alert to surrounding vehicles you may be able to safely slow down or stop to avoid a collision. Sudden stops and turns are minimized when you are alert. If you are unaware of cars and pedestrians around you and need to stop suddenly, your car may not always be able to stop on time. The distance your car needs to completely stop depends upon many factors. Some of the factors to look for in judging your stopping distance are pavement condition, the kind of tires and tread, chassis design, brake balance and wind direction and velocity. The only way to make sure your car can stop quickly enough is to test it, in a safe place, under various speeds and conditions. This summer make a conscious effort to be alert and aware of surrounding traffic at all times and know how much time your car needs to come to a complete stop to avoid a collision. If you have any questions about the Secretary of State's office, please feel free to use our toll-free telephone number (800-533-5899). A copy of the Rules of the Road will be sent to you upon request. Write to Jim Edgar, Secretary of State, Springfield, IL 62728.

letters to the editor

A Message to the People of Niles

On June 1, 1982 I retired as Captain of the Niles Police Department. This certainly proved to be a major event in my life, one accompanied by the usual round of testimonials, plaques, and a wonderful farewell luncheon. Whether deserved or not, it certainly is pleasant to hear nice things said about yourself. More importantly, I was happy to have the opportunity to thank my family and friends and fellow-officers for their support throughout my career in law enforcement. But one task remains to be done, a word of direct thanks to the citizens of Niles—the people I have served for the past twenty-six years. Law enforcement is truly a service business and none of us should ever forget that. A moral bond of trust is enacted between a citizenry and its police department. The issues at hand are vital: peace and justice, security and safety. I am most grateful for the opportunity to have been so intimately involved with the process by which a community seeks its own welfare and well being. I do thank you all for your support. That support goes far beyond your tax dollars that pays our salaries. That support becomes especially meaningful when it reflects the high spirit of cooperation demonstrated by our business people and residents. You've seen to it that we've been properly equipped and properly trained to do an effective job. You've realized that law and order is every citizen's responsibility and worked closely with your police department to make that a reality. Some of you have yourselves performed heroically in defense of the principles of justice. For all of that I thank you. Perhaps most of all I am grateful for the high expectations you have placed upon us in your police department. You rightfully demand that your police officers are people of honesty, integrity, and unimpeachable standards of behavior. It's this demand that ensures the quality of service which you deserve. It's your refusal to compromise these expectations that will maintain law enforcement as a noble profession. It is a level of trust that must extend to every individual working in the public sector. When a police officer, or any public official, fails to meet these expectations, the citizens must be ruthless in their indignation. "Throw the rascals out" as the old saying goes. For the most part, your public servants are in possession of the integrity and ethics which you want. I feel proud to have known and worked with these individuals over these past many years. They have proved to be a vindication of the faith and trust placed in all who have a service vocation. Again, my thanks to the good people of Niles. I pledge to continue serving my community in whatever manner available to me. A police officer no longer, but a citizen forever. As such, I shall always do my part. Gratefully yours, Ed Dennis

Rabid dogs not a problem in Niles

Dear Editor: Recently the Department of Animal Control came pounding at people's doors, and ringing their doorbells as if they were in distress, the reason they did this was to hear a dog bark, so they could make the person who owned the dog pay a fine if their dog did not have a rabies vaccination. I have yet to hear of a rabid dog in this day and age, maybe in the wilderness, but not in the suburbs. Today pet owners pamper, bathe, and take care of their pets. You do not find them running around loose, unless they break off their leash, or a child accidentally lets the dog out. The animals they should be concerned about are squirrels, rabbits, raccoons, possum, and skunks. They're the ones that are rabid. This is a political racket the Department of Animal Control has going for them collecting fees from people who have pets. They should go after the rabid animals that are running around in our front and back yards, then we can say the Department of Animal Control is really doing their job, (but then there is no money in that).

An Ex-Animal owner.

When is enough enough? Will our government ever believe we have enough missiles to deal with the Russians from a position of strength, and if we reach that goal, won't the Russians accelerate to stay ahead of us? And the buildup goes on and on, while the economy deteriorates from high interest rates caused by government borrowing for further costly nuclear protection. With the spread of nuclear armaments to many nations, where does the greatest danger lie - from Russia or from the possibility of a nuclear holocaust. Patriotism - what will it be? The next war knows no boundaries for radio activity. We citizens should talk to our legislators and let them know how we feel. Let's keep the pressure on for a nuclear freeze. Beulah Anthony Morton Grove

Enough is enough on tax increase!

Dear Editor: Governor Thompson promised us in 1978 that he would put a ceiling on tax increases. He even had a Thompson Proposition put on the ballot asking that this be done, but all that he and his cohorts in the General Assembly keep doing is causing our taxes to increase. He has placed the primary taxation responsibility on the homeowner. This absolutely must stop! We are in the midst of a severe recession due to the misguided economic policies of this group. Through no choice of our own most of us have not received raises in salary, which in effect has placed us on fixed incomes, or we are unemployed and our property taxes have been raised as much as 100% in some areas. It takes a lot of nerve to place such a hardship on people and then expect them to re-elect the same regime. Enough is enough!

Diana Burgess Sheffer 1107 S. Hamlin ave. Park Ridge

Expression of gratitude to Niles police officers

Dear Editor: Time, our most precious resource, seems to be constantly eluding us or at time crowding our decision making attitudes. Our work ethic tends to influence our expectations of others or reliance on their services at any instant. While we are encircled in our own lifestyles, we forget to recognize those duties which become so commonplace, they are taken for granted. On the night of Wednesday, July 14, I was participating in a softball game in the Park District's Mens League. While playing, I was spiked by an opposing player. Immediately I received assistance from two Niles policemen, as well as from a spectator. Officers Dean Strzelecki and Gary Amato provided medical attention, as well as offering transportation for hospital treatment. It seems all too often we hear through the media of public officials that have gone astray. As a Country, we tend to praise those deserving people after their tour of duty is over. At this time I would like to express my gratitude to these two gentlemen for the professionalism which they invoke. Respectfully, Peter J. Finan, L.U.T.C. Field Representative

Time Capsule placed at GreatAmerican

A time capsule was sealed and placed in the cornerstone of the 16th GreatAmerican Federal Savings office, now under construction in Oak Park.

"We filled our time capsule with data which will be informative, useful and nostalgic to those who open the capsule in fifty or a hundred years," said John L. Domeier, president of GreatAmerican Federal. "We've included copies of current GreatAmerican promotional materials and passbooks, as well as local and national newspapers, national news magazines, and a current booklet containing pictures and a history of Oak Park."

Assisting in the laying of the cornerstone were Domeier, Sarah Bode, Village president of Oak Park and Peter Smith, president of the Oak Park-River Forest Chamber of Commerce.

Construction began in June on the 1,860 square foot building at the corner of Oak Park ave. and Madison st. which features Frank Lloyd Wright style architecture. The office is expected to be completed and in operation this October. The new office will include four drive-up teller stations with room for future expansion.

In addition to its home office in Oak Park, GreatAmerican Federal has 14 other locations in Arlington Heights, Bellwood, Deerfield, Downers Grove, Elmhurst, Elmwood Park, Franklin Park, Naperville, Niles, Oak Brook, Park Ridge and three in Chicago.

Norwood Federal honors founding fathers

Norwood Federal Savings and Loan Association was organized in 1927 by a group of local businessmen, headed by Stanley M. Babicz. According to Donald J. Babicz, President, Norwood Federal Savings, "These men deserve special recognition in view of the contributions they rendered in the formation of this Association. Their families, many of whom still reside in the Norwood and Gladstone Park areas, should certainly take pride in their initiative and accomplishments."

To commemorate these 55 years of dedicated service in the northwest Chicago metropolitan area, a variety of special events have been planned including a sweepstakes contest. Entry blanks can be obtained at any Norwood Federal office from July 1, 1982 until 4 p.m. on August 31. The first prize is a 26" Sony color television, followed by a Liton microwave oven, silver tea set, Schwinn bicycle and Atari entertainment center. In addition, a $55 Jewel food certificate winner will be chosen weekly for eight weeks.

The history of Norwood Federal Savings is in many respects synonymous to the history of the northwest side. When the Association was founded, the neighborhood was sparsely populated. Milwaukee ave. was a country road and blocks consisted of two or three houses.

Originally known as Norwood Park Building and Loan Association, the first office was located in a small basement near Milwaukee and Imlay aves. The Association changed sites several times throughout the years to accommodate the substantial increase in growth, but remained within 1 1/4 miles from the original building. Assets totalled $35,000,000 when the present main office was completed and occupied in 1972.

In the decade that followed, Norwood Federal expanded its market to serve their growing customer base by branching into nearby communities and suburbs. Offices were established in Edgebrook (1975), Park Ridge (1976), Norwood Park (1976), Glenview (1980) and Elk Grove Village (1980).

Commenting on the success of the Association, Babicz stated, "We attribute our present asset size of $163,000,000 to conservative managerial action and to the confidence of our customers. As one of the oldest savings associations founded on the northwest side of Chicago, we have grown proportionally with our communities. We plan to continue to help our communities by safeguarding savings, by providing home loans and by offering excellent financial services."

In the report to stockholders, Frederick F. Webster, Jr., Chairman of First Des Plaines, stated that both total deposits and total assets had the largest year-to-year increase in the last nine quarters.

"Assets on June 30 were $279.9 million, up 9.1 percent from the same date last year and deposits rose to $238.9 million, up to 10.1 percent from last year," said Webster. Webster also reported that net income at mid-year reached $1,147,517, or $2.09 per share, up 6.9 percent from 1981's mid-year total of $1,075,076, or $1.94 per share.

"As net interest income margins continue to be suppressed by persistently high interest rates, fee or non-interest income plays a greater role in overall profitability," said Webster. "The Bank has competitively repriced its services in all areas to better reflect the cost of doing business."

According to the report issued to stockholders, the Bank's non-interest income for the first six months of 1982 was up 22.1 percent over the same period last year and 61.2 percent over the same period in 1980.

Capital, or stockholders equity, increases 6.1 percent to $19,550,426, up from $18,432,483 from last year.

Webster said, "Our capital to asset ratio, as calculated by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, is 7.27 percent, which management considers to be healthy in today's unsettled economic environment."

Arthur R. Weiss, Chairman of the Board, First National Bank of Des Plaines, reported to the stockholders that the recently opened Oakton Street Office, at Oakton and Lee in Des Plaines, "is being enthusiastically accepted by both customers and neighbors alike."

During the first eight weeks of operation, the Oakton Street Office, handled nearly 66,000 customer transactions, including the opening of more than 1,000 new accounts.

"At its present pace, we project that our Oakton Street Office will service its 1,000th customer by the end of the next year," said Weiss.

"We have also received many compliments on our efforts to blend the facility in with the surrounding neighborhood through our effective use of 'green space', trees and shrubs," said Weiss.

News Information Committee and Bugle join forces

The recently formed News Information Committee is moving rapidly to bring Niles news to the attention of Chief Executive Officers of our 26 largest industrial employers. Since these executives do not live in Niles, the Committee felt they needed to know more about their Business Home. Niles Bugle publisher Dave "Bud" Besser agreed. Through the courtesy of Bugle Publications, the Chief Executive will receive a complimentary six-month subscription to the local newspaper. It is hoped all firms involved will become more active participants in the future of Niles. Committee members are Cliff Crestodina (LogCom Inc.) Chairman, Charles Kohlerman (Village of Niles), Robert C. Wordel, Jr. (Teletype) and Bud Besser (Bugle Publications).

Volunteers from the Niles Senior Center, and other civic organizations are expected to man the Information Center during peak consumer traffic days. Printed materials describing all aspects of Village and Chamber services will be distributed to residents and interested visitors. A special promotion to encourage young families to move to Niles will highlight the information program. Ed Zielinski (Better Kitchens) has provided a sketch of the booth to be constructed by Public Services, under the direction of Keith Peck.

summer job, but some youngsters in Niles whose parent pays the local taxes should get the job. But, after 21 years in office, "The Man" thinks this is a small matter.

In past years, "The Judge's" son had one of those jobs. The youngster got the job because the judge worked in "The Man's" office. And one summer "The Doc's" son got a job. And "The Doc's" a crony of "The Man".

This is 1982, not 1961. When "The Man" promised Niles would be cleaned and purified, its political innards receiving a thorough cathartic, we thought he meant it.

It's really only one small incident. But large enough to let other youngsters say you need clout to get a job in Niles. Enough to let an unemployed teen in town say the system works only if you know the right people.

Nimrod petitions.

Black being the victor in November. Both Maine Township Democratic Committeeman Nicholas Blase and Maine Township Republican Committeeman Phil Raffe agreed on Tuesday that Nimrod's running in November is caused by his bitterness over the primary loss to Kustra.

Nimrod's candidacy is a result of "his bitterness...at losing the primary," said Raffe. "If you hurt him (Nimrod), he carries a torch," agreed Blase.

Additionally, Raffe said, "By staying in the race he (Nimrod) helps a Democrat...he's burning bridges behind him. The primary is over...his (new) role is a spoiler's role."

"The right thing is to back the party," said Raffe. "By filing he is (running) against the people who have helped him."

Blase said he expects Nimrod will be a "one-issue candidate" focusing his attention on property taxes.

Blase also said "there is no question in my mind" that the Nimrod candidacy could propel Black to the State Senate in November.

Throughout the recent petition drive, Nimrod repeatedly denied that he was behind the move to place himself on the November ballot. Nimrod said that his former supporters were circulating the petitions. However, observers said that throughout the drive, Nimrod and his family were organizing the petition drive.

Commented Raffe, "Three weeks ago I talked with Nimrod. Petitions were being circulated then by his friends. I told him, 'If you file, you will be turning your back on your friends.'"

Raffe added, "The Maine Township Republican Organization kept him in the Senate for 10 years...we could have replaced him."

Recalling a recent conversation with Nimrod, Raffe said, "I told him, deep in your heart you know you can't win."

Officials of the State Department of Elections said Nimrod handed in petitions containing 5,296 signatures urging his name be placed on the November ballot. 3,000 signatures were necessary for being placed on the ballot.

Nimrod suit . . .

Patricia Handzel sent out a news release to area newspapers announcing that Nimrod and the Republican Organization were being sued $1,000 in back rent owed for office space in a building at 4948 W. Dempster, Skokie, owned by Emily Portes of Skokie.

Questions raised by Handzel's action include: Is the Niles Township Republican Organization beginning an anti-Nimrod publicity campaign in retaliation for his threatening to run as an independent in November? Or is the Niles Township Republican Organization trying to disassociate itself from the possible fiscal or organizational

In trying to place as much distance as possible between her regime and the past one, Handzel said, "It should be noted that no records were passed to her by either Nimrod and/or Kearney," regarding Niles Township Republican Organization trying to disassociate itself from the possible fiscal or organizational

PROFESSIONAL WORK AT AMATEUR PRICES!

OUR PRICES DO THE TALKING

Our process is the professional quality carpet cleaning system. It combines the best features of a shampooer and a steam cleaner in one unit. The shampoo method has agitation without extraction; most other "steam" carpet cleaners have extraction without agitation.

Our process is the original carpet cleaning system that combines both agitation and extraction for professional results.

Powerful jets force a hot water cleaning solution deep into the carpet pile. The Vibrating Brush floor tool gently scrubs back and forth 3200 times per minute to break up both surface soil and deeply imbedded dirt. It scrubs and thoroughly cleans both sides of the carpet fibers and lifts and fluffs the nap without distorting the pile.

Almost simultaneously, the powerful vacuum system extracts the suspended soil and cleaning solution, leaving your carpet bright and beautiful. Since our system extracts most of the water from the carpet, it dries quickly and is ready to be used within a short time.

Savoy-aires announce production of "Princess Ida"

The North shore Savoy-aires will present a Victorian opera's look at the issue of equality for women—Princess Ida by Gilbert and Sullivan. There will be four performances at Niles North Auditorium (Old Orchard rd. and Edens Expressway) three at 8 p.m. September 2, 3, 4, and one at 7 p.m. on Sunday September 5.

As in so many other Gilbert and Sullivan works, Princess Ida is astonishingly up-to-date almost a hundred years after its creation. The central issue—shall women receive the same quality higher education as men—parallels quite closely the current furor over the Equal Rights Amendment and does so in a typically witty and musically delightful manner.

There are some critics, in fact, who suggest that Princess Ida offers much of Sullivan's finest work, ranking with The Mikado and The Gondoliers.

The Savoy-aires first presented Princess Ida to north shore audiences in 1967. The group has been performing since its founding in 1965 by Frank Miller of Skokie, principal cellist of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and Lilaia Circle of Wilmette. Miller is music director of the Savoy-aires, and Circle is producer.

Dr. Ronald Combs of Chicago, head of the Opera Department at Northeastern Illinois University, makes his debut with the Savoy-aires as stage director of Princess Ida.

The 1982 production of Princess Ida is designed by Robert Carlington of Washington D.C. Kevin Peterson of Chicago is choreographer and assistant to the stage director. Rosemary Wells of Winnetka is assistant to the music director.

Other key production positions for Princess Ida include Donald McQueen of Glenview, set construction; Semour Kornbluth of Morton Grove, properties; Nancy Franz of Park Ridge, costumes; Langston Boyle of Skokie, lighting design; Renee River of Evanston, makeup; and Robert Fovenez of Highland Park, business manager. The chairman of the board of the Savoy-aires is James Brandt of Chicago.

Tickets for Princess Ida may be ordered by mail by sending a stamped self-addressed envelope to: The Savoy-aires, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave., Skokie, Ill. 60077. Tickets may also be obtained by telephone at 673-6300. Ticket prices are $8.50 and $6.50.

Country Rock at Sports Complex

Sugarfoot, the country-rock band will be appearing August 20 at the Niles Sports Complex, 8435 Ballard rd. The two hour concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are on sale now at the Sports Complex and Park District offices, 7877 Milwaukee ave. The price is $2.50 in advance, $3 at the door.

Legion's Beer Garden a summer success

During the summer months the Morton Grove American Legion Post 134 has traditionally not held their weekly fish fries, however, there is a buzz of activity each Friday at 6140 Dempster this year as a Beer Garden has been instituted. The public is welcome from 6:30-9 p.m.

Food is cooked on the patio as weather permits. The extensively stocked bar is open for cocktails of all types throughout the evening.

The "Thank God It's Friday" effort presents pizza cooked by well-known Bob Strissel and bratwurst from Jake's Meat Market which is served with sauerkraut.

For those already having partaken of this new endeavor the word is that the same informality and congeniality prevails as the American Legion is known for. Prices are moderate.

The new Friday repasts will be served until Labor Day when the regular fish fries will begin their season once again.

Delourdes Alumnae plan for growth of college

An enthusiastic group of DeLourdes College Alumnae met last week with Charles Lynch, the Director of Development, to discuss plans for promoting their Alma Mater.

Fran Mika, Alumnae President, said that the group's goal was to spread the message of DeLourdes to as many women's groups as possible. A special fact sheet and brochure are being prepared by the college using the ideas presented by the Alumnae.

"There are so many women who would love to earn a degree but are afraid of taking that first step," said Mrs. Mika. "DeLourdes really makes it easier with small class sizes and a faculty who understands the demands of women with families," said Maureen Rafferty, a recent DeLourdes graduate. "It's not necessary to be a full-time student right off the bat, you can take one or two courses if you like to get the feel of going back to school," said Mrs. Rafferty.

This group of Alumnae know that once you come to DeLourdes you're hooked. If you want to know more about DeLourdes College at 333 N. river rd. in Des Plaines call 298-6760.

LET'S PLAY BALL

Niles Peanut League plays at Thillens Stadium

Saturday, July 31, teams from the Niles Park District Little League had a chance to play at Thillens Stadium in Chicago on a regulation diamond, complete with an announcer and a scoreboard.

The Reds were the only team scheduled for a doubleheader, first against the Giants and the second game against the Twins.

The Giants played good ball and beat the Reds, with the help of some players from other instructional teams who filled in on the Giants team. Hitting for the Reds were Kenny Lubinski, Aaron Waxer, Brad Stein and Frank Bozzi, with pitching by John Freeman and Jeremy Steiner.

In the second match-up with the Twins, the Reds won 14-13 in an exciting game. Kenny Lubinski hit a grand slam and Jeremy Steiner made a fantastic triple play, and clutch hitting by Greg Fessler (a fantastic triple), Adnan Bhanpuri, Ryan Torf, Jeff Erkenwick, Billy Ladra and Jimmy Mazik all contributed to a great team effort.

Special thanks to Coach Ted Bieniek for his outstanding coaching job the entire season for the Reds. His dedication to the team as a whole and each individual player is what enabled the Reds to have such a wonderful season which culminated at Thillens Stadium. Thanks, Ted!

Scorpions 4

The Nuggets season record as of 7-26-82 - 17 Wins-6 Losses

The "Nuggets", sponsored by Bennigan's, 8490 Golf Rd., Niles, won 3 of their 4 weekend games and are currently in second place in the Greater Chicago League. The Nuggets have 2 league games left to play and then will enter the divisional playoffs. Coaches Stan Bretzman and John Gallatz are very pleased with the progress each player has made during the season. The team is representing Niles and themselves with honor and dignity.

Lee Newlan pitched very well in the first win against the Dukes in Saturday's doubleheader. The Nuggets had 11 hits! Ken Nehlsen had a double, a single, scored 3 runs and collected 4 RBI's; Mike Veltri had 2 singles, scored once and had an RBI; Bob Fergus had 2 singles and an RBI; John Gambio had 2 singles and scored twice; Nick Busija had 2 singles, scored twice and had 2 RBI's and Scott Swierad had a single and 2 RBI's.

Ken Gast pitched very well in the second win against the Dukes in Saturday's doubleheader. Ken Nehlsen had a fine day, stroking out a double and 3 singles and collecting 4 RBI's. Lee Newlan had a great day, hitting a triple, a single, scoring 4 runs and collecting 3 RBI's. Chris Piazza had a single, Nick Busija had a single, and Phil Raffin had 2 singles.

Bob Heath pitched very well in Sunday's win against the Scorpions. The Nuggets had only 4 hits, but managed to score 10 runs. The Nuggets 4 hits were singles by Lee Newlan, Bob Fergus, Nick Busija, and Bob Knauer. Nick Busija made an outstanding catch on a line drive up the middle. Nick snatched the ball out of the air robbing the batter of a base hit!

Art Scher was the Nuggets' pitcher in Sunday's loss to the Scorpions. Art pitched well and the Nuggets played excellent in the field, but the Nuggets' bats were almost silent. The Nuggets had 3 hits. Chris Piazza had 2 singles and scored the only run. Nick Busija hit a single enabling Chris to score.

The Nuggets got their team jackets from Jim Gordon's Dempster All-Sports Store in Morton Grove. Everyone is in agreement that the jackets are PERFECT. The Nuggets are grateful for all the help we have received from the community.

Petitions circulating for deletion of tax multiplier

Petitions for dropping the real estate tax multiplier are still circulating in Niles according to Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase. Blase noted that Governor Jim Thompson's recent actions on the deletion of the tax multiplier were only recommendations and the state legislature still has the final vote in the disposition of the tax multiplier. Blase said over 300 petitions are circulating and the entire Cook County Democratic party is behind the move to acquire the necessary 600,000 signatures needed by August 13.

The winners of the cash prizes of the Morton Grove American Legion Post 134's recent Krazy Daze carnival have been announced by prize chairman Gus Katsoulis. In addition, he has named the bond winners for each of the evenings the annual carnival was operating.

Grand prize winner of $5,000 was Jerome Mayer of Crystal Lake. The $1,000 cash second prize was awarded to M. Groffman of Morton Grove. Completing the prize list was 3rd prize, $500 which was presented to W. Barry McHenry, and 4th prize, $250 cash, won by J. Schuhrke of Morton Grove.

Residents received tickets delivered to their homes for the above prizes; but were also eligible for nightly drawings of savings bonds. The $50 bonds were awarded to: Thurs., Ed Vorpapel, 8847 Moody; Fri., Mr. O'Neil, 9200 Marmora; Sat., Barb Pintz, 5940 Main; Sun., Germain Schaefer, 8833 Austin; and Mon., Mary Ellen Fisher, 9000 Marmora.

Katsoulis issued a hearty thank you to villagers who participated in this prize drawing and was joined by retiring commander Ralph Hintz who expressed his special thanks for all those who attended the 5 day function and supported this yearly Legion project. According to new commander Roland Keppen, the Legion's budget is being drawn up for the ensuing year and the profit derived from this July event is instrumental in insuring the continuation of the many community projects which Post 134 involve themselves in such as scouts, handicapped youngsters, the blood program, baseball, children and youth and rehabilitation of the former servicemen.

Traveling Hands lend hand to Lincolnwood Library

The Traveling Hands Theatre Troupe from the Center on Deafness will present "Small Town U.S.A." during the summer reading program awards presentation at the Lincolnwood Library, 4000 W. Pratt ave., on Saturday, August 7, at 2 p.m. The public is invited free of charge.

Kathleen Scherer, director of the troupe, said, "Traveling Hands is composed of both hearing and hearing impaired actors. 'Small Town U.S.A.' was written specifically for the troupe to bring a broad variety of theater to the public. We specialize in choreographing the hand movements of sign language to poetically communicate the message of the music."

Among the most enthusiastic members of the audience will be the 95 Lincolnwood children who have participated in the summer program, "A to Zebra." Prizes will be awarded to the two children who reached the "Z" on the board first, and to two who read the most books. Certificates and prizes will be presented to all game participants.

Karen Schneider, Children's Services Coordinator, said, "The competition in this summer's reading game has been intense.

O'Hare noise . . .

5. Your name, address and direction from O'Hare Airport (S, SE, SW, N, NE, NW, E OR W)

According to Bill Marek, chairman of the BEPC, your complaints are important in seeking solutions to the problem of O'Hare Airport's co-existence with its neighbors and will help in setting up guidelines for a permanent O'Hare noise abatement office that will continue with the job of taking complaints, seeking remedies, and enforcing regulations.

The next few months will bring about changes in operations at O'Hare which will affect us all - some will be a little better - some will be worse, Marek says. He explains that additional flights allowed by the Federal Aviation Administration and continued changes in airline slotting will mean more and more planes overhead; and runway resurfacing in September will change flight patterns. Marek says it is important for everyone to notice the subtle changes and to call to record their feelings...and he stresses that it will definitely make a difference now while the development plans for O'Hare are being made and while corrective and protective noise abatement measures are being considered...these opportunities are not always available to us outside of court action."

So, says Marek and the BEPC, don't go around waving your fist at the planes, or mumbling to yourself, or quietly holding back your annoyance - CALL!

OCC receives grant for Clark Copy training

Oakton Community College has received a grant of $48,877 from the State of Illinois to provide in-plant training for Clark Copy International Corporation (CCIC) located in Melrose Park, according to Maureen Turici, director of OCC Educational Services for Business, Industry and Government.

Ms. Turici and Liz Borowitz, OCC assistant director of community relations, collaborated to secure funding for the program. The college will assist CCIC to train 80 new employees at the Melrose Park plant to help the company meet the terms of a recently signed $5.5 million contract to deliver copy machines to the People's Republic of China.

The grant, received from the Illinois Department of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education under the High Impact Training Services program, will be used to develop a curriculum and four cycles of training.

Oakton's training program will enable CCIC to expand the number of its employees from 15 to 95 by June 30, 1983, Ms. Turici said.

The program will consist of four components: intensive training, on-the-job training supplemented by a refresher course, vocational English as a Second Language, and evaluation.

CCIC's contract with the China National Bureau of Instrumentation Industries requires delivery of 1,000 new light-weight desk-top copiers, and parts for an additional 5,000 machines, during the next 20 years.
