Ruling possible on Nimrod petition by Wednesday

A ruling could come as early as Wednesday, September 1, on whether the Cook County Board of Election Commissioners will have to re-hear the petition objecting to State Senator John Nimrod's (R-Glenview) independent candidacy for the State Senate.

Nimrod, ten year veteran from the 28th District, has been in the center of controversy following his recent filing as an independent candidate for re-election. Nimrod lost his Republican sponsorship during a bitter March primary fight in which Illinois Rep. Bob Kustra (R-Glenview) decisively defeated Nimrod.

Within recent weeks Nimrod has filed petitions as the candidate of the Taxpayers Independent Party. Nimrod has been condemned by area Republicans as his independent candidacy raises the possibility that he may split the Republican vote resulting in Democrat Lou Black, Niles Township Clerk, being the victor.

Following Nimrod's filing his petitions Kustra supporter and

Maine Twp., teachers agree on contract

Maine Township School District 207 and the Maine Teachers Association announced Wednesday morning that they have reached agreement on a three year teachers contract.

Finalizing negotiations came on the first day of school for the high school district.

Contract negotiations broke down last June when District 207 negotiators demanded that the teachers accept a five year no-strike clause in the contract. The teachers' organization had insisted that the no-strike clause remain no longer than three years as in the previous contract.

The contract agreed upon will be a three year contract with a stipulation extending the no-strike clause to between three and four years.

Following negotiations being called off, 285 angry teachers attended a June 7 school board meeting to voice their opposition to the district's actions.

Niles ok's 4.2% tax levy increase

Niles village tax levy went up 4.2% for the May '82 - April '83 year going up from $1,931,000 to $2,012,000. The total tax rate for the upcoming year, based on $10,000,000 increase in assessed valuation for the village, actually decreased from .5290 to .5214 per $100 assessed valuation. Niles estimated village-wide assessed valuation was guesstimated by village manager Ken Scheel at $386,000,000 for the new fiscal year.

Pro Tem Village President, Pete Pesole led his fellow officials in a unanimous approval of the levy at Tuesday night's village board meeting. Interesting figures emerged from a pre-village board press meeting in Scheel's office Monday afternoon. While two-thirds of Niles population resides in Maine Township only 45% of the assessed valuation is west of Harlem Avenue. And in the distribution of 1981 real estate tax money the village of Niles, including the park and library districts, only received 13.01% of the total. Schools receive 66.92%, Cook County received 10.69%, the Economic times aren't good. Despite the sudden spurt in the stock market, and the dropping interest rates, families are tightening up their purses. Vacationers are staying closer to home and all of us are using an extra notch on our belt buckles.

Despite the harder times there's a strange phenomenon going on in our school systems. While public school enrollments are heading downward parochial schools are reporting more students are registering. And this, despite the tight money era and the high tuition tickets schools are charging.

At Notre Dame high school, where the entrance fee is around $1400-$1500, Judy Donash told us she believes the quality education plus the discipline offered at the school are pluses parents are seeking in their schools today. She said the closing of Maine North plus the closing of Chicago neighborhood schools have been reasons more boys are beating a path to Notre Dame. Judy contends the permanent neighborhood feeling the Notre Dames get are important reasons for the enrollment increase.

Sister Rita, principal at St. John Brebeuf, stressed the good educational system the school has as a major factor in the continued increase in enrollment (from 609 last year to 621 this year). She, too, stressed the importance of instilling discipline in Niles and Morton Grove will help pay for the cost of a new radar system which should give residents 10 to 20 minutes warning of an approaching tornado. The new system, called the Doppler tornado warning system, will be located in Marseilles, Ill., 65 miles southeast of Chicago. The total cost of the system will be $177,000. Chicago officials have indicated that they will pay for half of the system with surrounding suburbs picking up the remaining cost. Suburbs are expected to pay about 5 cents per resident bringing the cost to about $1,500 for Niles and Morton Grove each. Officials hope the Doppler system will be installed by next year. The current tornado system located in Marseilles gives residents only a one to two minute warning of an approaching tornado.

Numerous contracts were awarded during the August 17 East Maine District 63 school board meeting. The local Hoff Corp. was awarded a $13,111 landscaping contract for work to be done at the Stevenson, Mark Twain and Melzer Schools. The Northbrook-based Cowger Fence Co. will receive $600 to install a swing set at the Mark Twain School. National Electric Supply Co. will be paid $753.20 for lamps; $2,099.80 will be paid to 3M Company for business machines and $1,368 was awarded to the Porter Equipment Co. for volleyball standards.

School District 64 expects at least 22 children will enroll in their after-school day care program being offered for the first time this year. Responding to the needs of working mothers the District 64 program provides supervised activities for school children from the end of the school day until parents can pick up their children. Also, for the first time, the elementary school district is offering extended care for kindergarten children. Following the morning kindergarten class children will be bused to the vacant Jefferson School at Oakton St. and Greendale for the rest of the day. As no state or federal funding is available for either program parents must pay for the entire cost of the day-care program. Interested parents are urged to call 399-7300.

Skokie's Circuit Court District 2, located over the Lincoln Ave. Skokie Police Department, is scheduled to move to new quarters by November 1. The court will be housed in the new Cook County Courthouse complex on Old Orchard Rd. It was scheduled to originally be in its new home by September 1, however pillars in a parking garage have been found to be dangerously weak resulting in a postponement of the court complex opening and a lawsuit. (Which will hopefully be heard in a court house other than the Old Orchard Rd. complex.)

The Niles Township Regular Republican Organization is charging its last committeeman, Bill Kearney, with possibly taking $3,000 in the organization's funds. According to Niles Township Republican deputy committeeman Bill Handzel, husband of Committeeman Patricia Handzel, Kearney did not turn over any financial records to the township organization after Handzel's upset victory. In a bitter dispute, a local court ordered Kearney out of the race when it was determined he was not a resident of Niles Township. According to a recently distributed news release, Niles Township Republicans are warning Kearney to "make restitution of $3,000 in treasury funds missing since March 16, 1982, or face criminal charges."

M.G. to rule today on handgun referendum petition

Morton Grove officials will rule on Thursday resident William Blameuser's petition calling for a non-binding referendum to determine how voters feel about Morton Grove's controversial ordinances prohibiting the private ownership of handguns.

It has been doubtful since Blameuser turned in the referendum petition earlier this year whether it would be accepted by Morton Grove. Village officials were quick to point out that the petition did not have enough signatures on it. According to Illinois Law the petition would have to have

Public school enrollments in local elementary schools are expected to continue their 12-year downward trend while parochial schools are holding their own or increasing for the coming year. Maine Township High Schools are following the elementary schools in its district showing decreases which are projected to continue downward past the mid-year in this decade.

At Oakton College the student population is rising substantially to nearly 10,000. In 1980, when the school moved from Morton Grove to its permanent campus in Des Plaines, it had 7,189 students. In 1970, the first year of the college, it had an 832 student enrollment. By the fall of 1986 the population is expected to swell to 12,400, an expected 5% average increase per year. More than 50% of the students are over 25 years old indicating older students are returning to the school. While at first the hefty increase in student population is impressive the district annexed several north suburban areas into the district several years after the college opened.

In East Maine district 63 the '70-'71 year's enrollment had 7,237 students while this year's projected figure is 3,088. Subsequent decreases of about 100-150 students per year are projected for the next immediate years with a 2,490 enrollment expected in 1986-87. In Niles elementary district 71 population is expected to be about 350 students. The two-school district has had 900 students in its peak year, 1965-66. Population decreased in recent years, going down to 516 in 1977-78, 441 in '78-'79, 428 in '79-'80 and 365 in 1981-82. In the Park Ridge-Niles district 64 schools student population is expected to be about 2,975 students. The June closing of Merrill and Jefferson schools will have the transfer students going to Field, Franklin or Roosevelt schools. In Maine Township high schools the projected student population is 7,875 for the coming year. It reached its peak in the 1975-76 year when there were 11,864 students. Future projected.

Nurse and husband honored for heroics

Betty Armstrong, a nurse at Resurrection Hospital, and her husband Charles are flanked by Sister Bonaventure, C.R., executive vice-president of the hospital and Dr. John J. Barrett, president of the Medical staff, during the presentation of a plaque citing the Armstrongs for their citizen involvement.

When Betty Armstrong, a nurse at Resurrection Hospital, and her husband Charles responded to a neighbor's plea for help, it was almost an automatic response. It was a "human-oriented" reaction, according to Betty and Chuck.

In the early morning hours of August 9, Betty and Chuck raced up to the Chicago apartment above them to find 19-year-old Jeannine Pearson bleeding profusely from stab wounds, unaware that an assailant was attacking Jeannine's mother in a nearby bedroom. Meanwhile, Chuck returned to their apartment below for an emergency medical kit. Upon his return, Jeannine was able to inform them of the intruder's presence still in the apartment.

Chuck pushed open a bedroom door and ordered the assailant to drop the knife he was holding and had him lie spread-eagle on the floor until the police and paramedics arrived. One week later on Monday, August 16, the Sisters of the Resurrection and the Resurrection Hospital Medical and Dental staff paid special tribute to their "heroic actions" during the noon luncheon hour in the hospital's cafeteria.

After congratulations from Dr. John J. Barrett and presentation of a corsage of roses by Sister Mary Gerard, C.R., vice-president, and a tribute to the Armstrongs from Celerina Behrman, director of Nursing, the honored couple were luncheon guests. Later that afternoon they hurried downtown for a private meeting with Mayor Jane M. Byrne and congratulations with a Merit Award Certificate from the City of Chicago.

MS Bike 'N Hike

In announcing details of the North Branch Route, open to cyclists and hikers between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., coordinators Don Crawford of Northbrook and

It was a grassroots effort that brought MS to Weigel's attention. Ninety-three persons with multiple sclerosis who gathered at a recent 'summerfest' in Elmhurst personally signed a request asking Weigel to be part of the Bike 'N Hike.

Crawford and Kenealy hope that the North Branch Route can make a good showing in supporting what these MS volunteers already have achieved.

All participants receive an MS Bike 'N Hike T-shirt. They also are awarded a certificate and a sew-on patch when their collected pledges to MS are received. Special are patches go to long-distance bikers and hikers. Sponsor forms are available at True Value Hardware stores or Jewel Food Stores. ## Resurrection Pavilion patients swing their partners

Patients and staff members at Resurrection Nursing Pavilion in Park Ridge recently enjoyed some old-fashioned, hand-clapping, knee-slapping, foot-stomping square dance music and calling when professional square dancer Joe Kretler and his wife, Jane, came to visit. Patients were assisted by nursing pavilion employees as they formed squares and began learning the fundamentals of dosi-do, allemand left and even the complicated left and right grand. Visitors and nursing staff members joined in the fun as the activity room crowd enthusiastically clapped their hands to the lively beat of the music. The Kretlers are members of the Park Ridge Runners, a square dance group, and also teach square dance classes at the South Park field house. "I believe the pavilion patients enjoyed the afternoon, especially the times the wheelchair patients

Drivers must stop after auto accidents

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar
If you are involved in an accident that causes damage to an unattended vehicle or other property there are several agencies you must notify.

After parking your vehicle in a safe place you must first fine the driver or owner of the damaged vehicle or property. If you are unable to find him or her, you must securely attach a note with your name, address and license plate number in a highly visible location.

You are also required to notify the nearest police station and the Illinois Department of Transportation of the accident and fill out the required forms.

Remember, you are legally bound to stop at the scene of an accident in which your vehicle is involved. A driver who fails to stop or neglects to report any damage to an unattended vehicle or other property, can be fined up to $1,000 and sentenced to no more than one year in jail, if convicted.

Illinois law gives my office the right to revoke the driving privileges of drivers convicted of leaving an accident scene involving death or personal injury and to suspend the driving privileges of drivers convicted of leaving an accident scene which resulted in over $1,000 damage to a vehicle.

If you have any questions about the Secretary of State's office, please feel free to use our toll-free telephone number (800-252-8980).

Erod seeks police training expenses from lawbreakers

Legislation to expand the program of charging law breakers for the training expenses of all peace officers was called for Wednesday (Aug. 11) night by Cook County Sheriff Richard J. Erod.

Speaking before the Cook County Democratic Party Platform Committee in Mt. Prospect, Sheriff Erod requested that the platform include his plan which would change the rules for reimbursement of training funds to cover all peace officers, not just police officers.

Sheriff Erod currently requires training for all sworn personnel—correctional officers, court services deputies and police officers—and is one of the few sheriff's departments that mandates training of all sworn personnel. However, reimbursement by the state is only for training of police officers.

Effective this year, the Illinois Local Governmental Law Enforcement Officers Training Board receives funds from the surcharge levied on offenders of the law. However, Sheriff Erod said, this surcharge is only to reimburse for the training of police officers in Illinois.

Sheriff Erod's plan requests that (1) reimbursement for training by the state be extended to correctional officers and deputy sheriffs and (2) that the cost of that reimbursement be borne by the surcharge fund.

Sheriff Erod is responsible for the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department, the third largest department in the state; the busiest county jail in the country; and the largest court system in the nation.

Commends Blase, Black for watching taxpayers' money

Dear Editor:

We were surprised and angered by recent statements made in the press and on television by State Representative Robert Kustra (R Glenview) about his House Bill No. 2482 concerning a property tax freeze. He accused the "Cook County Democrats" of killing his bill and denying the people of any property tax relief.

Mr. Kustra's accusation is an outright lie. The complete HB 2482 status which is compiled through the Legislative Information system clearly states Representative Kustra pulled out his own House Bill prior to its third reading and place it into the Interim Study Calendar of the Executive Committee. He killed his own bill!

In June 1982 he made public statements to the press that he was opposed to any tax freeze as it might harm local governments. He further stated that his fellow legislators' tax freeze efforts were publicity stunts. Mr. Kustra at no time has shown any interest in curbing the run-away property taxes. The people who live in his district should not be lied to as they pay increasingly

Bugle tax story on target

Dear Editor:

The Left Hand column in the August 19, 1982 Bugle by Bud Besser was one of the best I have read in my 20 years as a Niles resident.

"Ballon levying" was quite evident in this year's recent tax bill. I am especially concerned over the almost 5 million extra dollars that Maine Township has for the high schools. I almost laughed myself silly to read in another local paper that the school board had meetings take place in the next 3 years before the next reassessment takes place.

With almost $5 million extra in the kitty, I am sure the teachers will get a much bigger raise than the rest of us. Many people in the job force did not even get a raise in 1982. Most companies have us over a barrel. Most of the teachers now in the Maine Township schools make more money

Condemns Kustra tactics

Dear Editor:

I have been reading with great interest the continuing saga of the Black-Kustra-Nimrod soap opera.

It amazes me that an elected state official (Mr. Kustra) has to mask his apparent inability to intelligently discuss issues which are of the utmost importance to the voters of the 28th District with name-calling, innuendoes, and "gutter politics."

Mr. Kustra; please do not insult the voters with the fiction that Mr. Black and Mr. Nimrod could possibly be conspirators against you when in fact you and enormous taxes, with no relief in sight.

Our credentials regarding property taxes are established through our ongoing studies of taxes since we were given a charter on June 21, 1978, as the Taxpayers Revolt Advisory Program (TRAP). We have constantly advised against the use of the "Multiplier" on property taxes. When property values increased, people were not aware of the danger of the multiplier. Now that property is no longer increasing in value, Cook County tax bills are killing the home owners, future home owners, and even renters who higher rents pay these taxes.

However, both Mayor Nick Blase of Niles and State Senate candidate Louis Black, Niles Township Clerk, have excellent records for watching the taxpayers' money. We wish to publicly thank Mayor Blase and candidate Black for their help in securing thousands of signatures for the ending of the multiplier.

James Stack, Chairman
People United for Tax Reform

Writer charges Democrats rigged vote for Nimrod

Dear Editor:

The recent decision by the Cook County Electoral Board to leave John Nimrod's name on the ballot as an Independent candidate smacks of a political deal by the Democratic machine. Chicago Democrats realize that the only way the Democratic candidate can possibly win is for Nimrod to stay on the ballot and split the Republican vote. Although I am confident that Kustra will win anyway, your readers should know why the Democrats rigged the vote for Nimrod.

Since his return from Springfield, Kustra has been very critical of the recent property tax increases. In addition to admonishing local governments for their increased tax levies, he has charged Assessor Thomas Hynes with failure to assess property

Malathion foe deplores use of chemical

Dear Editor:

I appreciate your interest in the malathion spraying issue. It was malathion, incidentally, not Agent Orange, that was sprayed in California and caused such great controversy there.

We are facing a similar issue in Morton Grove. Do we want malathion used in our neighborhoods?

Nobody disputes the fact that malathion is a poison which kills mosquitoes. The issue is that the spraying as done on our streets doesn't work and is a health risk. Many experts believe malathion is being used improperly if it is sprayed from the back of trucks onto residential streets. They caution that malathion is "highly toxic."

To kill mosquitos effectively with malathion, we must poison them when they are in a concentrated, immobile and accessible stage, i.e. Larvae. Mosquitos find much more fertile breeding places in our backyards than along the hot streets.

In 1975, Illinois mosquitos carried St. Louis Encephalitis. But this dreaded disease has not been a health problem since then. Recent tests throughout the state show only one current "probable" case of this illness — in Madison County.

Why spray a poisonous substance if the poison doesn't get to its target, if St. Louis Encephalitis isn't occurring here and if the chemical itself is considered by many experts to carry health risks?

If we don't want those annoying insects to bother us, we can buy mosquito repellents. Or better yet, let's take real steps in cutting down the mosquito populations — steps that all experts agree work. Empty out water collecting in outdoor containers. Keep your yard free from weeds or long grass.

The trucks should spray where they can be truly effective and no threat to people — in vacant lots, swampy or heavily wooded areas. Let's hope our elected local officials will insist that mosquito abatement measures in our community are effective and safe to the mosquito nuisance.

Phyllis D. Clark

Criticizes Annunzio on nuclear arms vote

Dear Editor:

In the August 8 Sun Times article entitled "20 go both ways on A-freeze" Thomas J. Moore reported that "Three Illinois representatives voted both to freeze development of nuclear weapons and for a rapid buildup of the same weapons..." Frank Annunzio, representing the northwest side of Chicago, was identified as one of those who vacillated on the issue.

The voters and taxpayers residing in the 11th Congressional District have the right to know where their Congressman stands on an issue of such great import as nuclear proliferation. As usual, Mr. Annunzio has managed to straddle the fence in his characteristically wishy-washy, noncommittal manner. He created confusion and misconception on an issue that usually tends to have clearly drawn lines.

In order for the voters to intelligently cast their lot on November 2 for the candidate who best represents their views and philosophies, they need to know the candidate's positions. We wish Mr. Annunzio would get off the fence so his constituents can address their concerns through the ballot box. Bill Scott

The Niles Park District 13-15 year old Girls Softball Team won the Skokie Girls 12" Invitational Tournament held Aug. 6-8.

The Niles Team swept the tournament by winning 4 straight games: in the Championship game, Niles defeated Hinsdale 5-2. In the four games a total of only 4 runs were scored against Niles. The spectacular defense was led by shortstop GERALYN BERTUCCI.

The offense was sparked by Janet PUISIS and Larissa WYNNYCHENKO. The tournament capped a remarkable season for the team. The girls received their awards Aug. 16 at a splash party held by their coach Jay Russ. For the

200 run in OCC marathon

Nearly 200 runners participated Sunday, August 22, for the first annual Oakton Community College "Bypass the Bypass" 10 km run.

Ryan Stoll of Lake Bluff led the field in a time of 31:24.0 followed closely by David Haller in 31:24.5. Diane Moore of Schaumburg was the first woman across the finish line in 42:07, more than five minutes ahead of her nearest competitor.

Former world record holder Tom O'Hara started the 196 runner field ranging in ages from six to seventy-six under threatening skies. There was a light mist, which combined with temperatures in the 60's, kept the field comfortable for the entire 6.2 mile circuit.

In addition to the overall winners, medals were given out to the first three winners in six age divisions for both men and women.

Despite 86 additional competitors registering the morning of the race, the whole event went off without a hitch, according to the race coordinators, Maurice Weitlauf, Pat Savage and Tom Jordt. Thirty-five volunteers from the college helped set up the course, register participants, awarded medallions, called split times and assisted in a superbly organized race.

"For a first time event, we couldn't be more pleased with the turnout and with the way things went so smoothly," Jordt said.

In other track news, Oakton Cross Country Coach Pat Savage was extremely pleased with his top performers in the 14th annual two person 10 mile relay. Jukka Kallio and Steve Rosenblum combined for a time of 45:30 for first place followed by Jesse DeFluente and Mike Hamilton in 47:08. Steve Maden and Chuck Weidenbach finished first in a 4 mile relay in 20:54 followed by Jeff Turklin and Peter Vasquez in 21:55.

Variety Club Golf Tournament

All systems are go—for the 5th Annual Variety Club-Irv Kupciet Invitational LPGA Pro-Am Golf Tournament and Gala Dinner, to be held on Monday, August 30th, at the Evanston Golf Club, Skokie, Illinois, says chairman Mike McDermott.

Each player and his lady will be the guests of Arnold Morton and Irv Kupciet on Sunday evening, August 29th, for pre-celebration festivities at Arnie's on State St. The evening at Arnie's bids fare to be an exciting event, for, in addition to a sumptuous repast, there will be assignments of lady pros, one of whom will compete each foursome.

Harlem-Irving chosen for Resurrection care facility

A satellite immediate care facility will be constructed by Resurrection Hospital on the southwest corner at Harlem and Irving Park rd. and will offer both immediate and primary physician care to residents and industry.

In announcing the site acquisition, Executive Vice-President Sr. Bonaventure, C.R., stated that the site selection followed an in-depth study of Resurrection Hospital's service area conducted by Ernst & Whinney.

"Our evaluation of the market share assumptions used to project demand for immediate care physician visits indicated the feasibility of an ambulatory care center for the neighborhoods surrounding this chosen site," Sr. Bonaventure noted. Those neighborhoods include the communities of Harwood Heights, Norridge, Elmwood Park, Franklin Park, Schiller Park and the Dunning area in Chicago.

Plans for the new immediate care center now on the drawing boards call for a two-story structure of approximately 5,000 square feet. The ground floor will contain examining rooms, ancillary facilities including laboratory and x-ray, reception and administrative offices. The second floor will contain private physician offices. Easy access to ample parking will be provided. Opening of the new center is expected early next year.

Citizens Bank promotion Reorganization at Des Plaines National Bank

The Board of Directors of Citizens Bank & Trust Company is pleased to announce the election of Phyllis Healy (l.) to New Accounts Officer/Assistant Department Manager. Healy joined CitizensBank in 1978 as a bond and general purpose teller, and became New Accounts Representative in 1979. In her new position, Phyllis will be assistant to the department manager and will be responsible for opening of new checking, savings, IRA accounts, and certificates of deposit.

Phyllis is a graduate of St. Benedict High School and Northwestern University. She is mother of Lisa, Laura, and Jon, and makes her home in Park Ridge.

In a reorganization aimed at serving customers more effectively and efficiently, Des Plaines National Bank has announced the creation of two new banking units and two major appointments.

Senior Vice President Bruce M. Slagg, who has been with the bank since 1979 as head of lending, will take charge of the bank's newly formed Retail Banking Group. This division will be engaged in offering deposit/investment, residential mortgage, installment lending, and financial advisory services, and will be oriented to meeting the needs of the personal consumer.

Joseph M. Tomasello, formerly of First National Bank of Chicago, joined the staff of the bank on August 19 as senior vice president in charge of the bank's newly created Commercial Banking Group. This division, which will employ a staff twice the size of the bank's former Commercial Lending Department, will be engaged in offering lending, deposit, and cash management services to business customers of the bank throughout the northwest suburban area.

Under this new alignment, the bank looks forward to an intensified business calling program and accelerated growth in commercial loan volume.

Tomasello is a commercial banking specialist who began his banking career at Citizens Bank in Park Ridge in 1973. He joined

ICC approves freeze on telephone leasing

The Illinois Commerce Commission approved a tariff August 11 that requires new single-line business and residential customers of Central Telephone Company of Illinois to purchase rather than lease main telephones.

The only customers affected will be those who have Centel phone numbers in Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Chicago and other communities served by Centel in the immediate vicinity. The tariff will become effective Sept. 1, 1982. Current customers, as well as new customers applying for service prior to Sept. 1, will continue to have the option to either lease or purchase a telephone. However, existing customers who change service (for example, moving from one residence to another within the Centel serving area), or new customers who apply for service on or after the effective date, would no longer be able to lease their telephones from the company.

Centel requested the adjustment as the telephone industry continues to move toward further deregulation and competition, according to Donald U. Adkisson, general manager - regulatory/planning for Centel - Illinois. "This will provide customers with an opportunity to hold down their monthly rates," he said. "A customer can save $10 or more per year by purchasing a phone rather than leasing it from the company."

Telephones can be purchased from Centel's Pick-A-Phone Center at 727 Pearson St. in downtown Des Plaines, where a complete selection of new and refurbished phones are on display and available immediately for purchase. The Pick-A-Phone Center is open weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Central Telephone Company of Illinois is a subsidiary of Centel Corporation, the fifth largest telephone company in the nation, with telephone operations in 10 states.

$40 million to reduce noise at O'Hare

The Senate has authorized $40 million for new, quieter engines for Air National Guard tankers based at O'Hare field. Senator Charles H. Percy (R-IL) announced today.

The fleet of eight KC-135 planes are now equipped with 30-year-old J-57 engines that are as loud as the supersonic Concorde on take-off. The new engines will reduce noise levels at take-off by 60 percent.

"The operation of these aircraft has been a nuisance to suburban communities surrounding O'Hare," Percy said.

The Conference Report authorizing the funding, which Percy supported, was approved 77-21 Tuesday night by the Senate. The House of Representatives voted 251-148 to approve the measure Wednesday night.

The tankers at O'Hare are operated by the 126th Illinois Air National Guard Refueling Wing, providing support to the Strategic Air Command (SAC).

Gallery of Art at Dempster Plaza Bank

by Ed Hanson

It's the priceless Mona Lisa, painted by the famed Leonardo da Vinci. Just about everything has happened to this most prized and pampered painting of all time. It was confiscated by the Nazis, stolen by Vincenzo Peruggia, an employee of the Louvre museum, in Paris. Leonardo da Vinci had painted the lady with the mysterious smile on wood instead of canvas, so that Peruggia couldn't cut it out of its frame, roll it up and shove it under his coat. Instead he cleverly managed to spirit to his apartment where it remained in the false bottom of a trunk for more than two years.

After the "heat" died down, he attempted to sell it to his native Italy but Italian officials had him arrested and returned the most valuable painting of all-time to France where it now hangs again in the famous Louvre Museum of Paris.

Not too many years ago, you may recall, under tight security, it was brought to the United States, and for a time was exhibited in the Art Institute of Chicago where it drew record-breaking crowds.

Did you know that art exhibits, last year in the United States drew more people than all the teams in major league baseball. And, art, in the United States has become big business, its combined sales surpassing that of the stock market and some other financial investments.

Now beginning Sept. 2, Dempster-Plaza State Bank is featuring a GALLERY OF FINE ART offering original Oil Painting and lithographs at a fraction of their cost.

These original oil paintings are the works of talented artists from around the world. And, hand carved wooden frames made by a master craftsman are available in many styles and sizes which can enhance these wonderful works of art.

Who knows? The oil painting you may purchase at the DEMPSTER PLAZA STATE BANK, at Dempster and Greenwood, Niles, may someday be worth a great deal of money. You can purchase one or more for a mere pittance during DEMPSTER PLAZA'S great world wide Art Show.

On behalf of the management of the DEMPSTER-PLAZA STATE BANK, I'm inviting you to come in and browse around as long as you like. If a painting or lithograph captures your eye, you'll be amazed how reasonable you can purchase.

The fine people of the DEMPSTER PLAZA STATE BANK will explain just how easy you can own an original oil painting whose future value may be worth many, many times the small price you paid for it.

You are all invited. There's no obligation. Just come in and browse around - it's a wonderful way to get away from the cares of the today.

I'll see you there - Aloha...

Savoy-Aires cast for "Princess Ida"

Leading romantic roles in Princess Ida by Gilbert and Sullivan, the 1882 production of the Savoy-aires, will be performed by Nancy Arlen of Evanston and Dan Kane of Chicago. The two will appear as Princess Ida and Prince Hilarion. Leading character roles are assigned to John Shea of Chicago (King Gama), Ron Markwell of Evanston (King Hildebrand), and Jo Ann Minds of Northbrook (Lady Blanche). The Savoy-aires were founded in 1965 by Frank Miller of Skokie, principal cellist of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Lillis Circle of Wilmette. Miller continues as music director and Circle as producer of Princess Ida. Princess Ida is based on a blank-verse parody of a Tennyson poem. The story, while first presented in 1894, is remarkably 1882 in tone. It deals with the emerging status of women and specifically with equality and education. Princess Ida is the head of an all-women university from which men (regarded as idiots) are totally excluded. This allows some lively fun when Prince Hilarion, to whom Ida was betrothed as a baby twenty years ago, turns up to claim her hand.

Princess Ida is an untypical Gilbert and Sullivan opera in that it has three acts with a full-fledged battle in the third. It contains some of Sullivan's finest writing and is frequently compared musically to The Mikado and The Gondoliers. The Savoy-aires first presented Princess Ida in 1967. The current production will open at Niles North Auditorium at Old Orchard on Thursday, September 2 at 8 p.m. and continues Friday and Saturday evenings also at 8 p.m. A final performance will be presented on Sunday, September 5 at 7 p.m.

The cast and chorus of Princess Ida contain performers from all over the north and northwest areas of Chicago and suburbs. Male leads include Alejandro Abraham (Chicago) as Cyril, David Duval (Morton Grove) as Florian, John Lagerlof (Wilmette) as Arac, Hughes Hopewell (Park Ridge) as Scythius, and Anthony Green (Wilmette) as Guron. Other female leads are Lisa Kristina (Chicago) as Lady Psyche, Eleanor Stern (Chicago) as Melissa, and Gloria Hopewell (Park Ridge) as Sacharissa.

The stage director for Princess Ida is a newcomer to the Savoy-aires but not to the Chicago area. He is Dr. Ronald Combs of Chicago, head of the opera department at Northeastern Illinois University. Combs has directed several performances for Chicago Opera Theater.

A number of area children will participate as performers in Princess Ida. Four Deerfield brothers: Brian, Bradley, Eric, and Kevin Morris will appear as page boys to the royal courts. And as "Daughters of the Plough", Margaret Hicks and Meg Waldon of Winnetka; Jody and Wendy Kanter of Evanston; and Elizabeth Weinmehl of Skokie.

Tickets for Princess Ida may be obtained by telephone at 673-7300. Ticket prices are $8.50 and $6.50.

SCHOOL NEWS

Dr. Moses greets East Maine staff members

The Institute Planning Committee of the East Maine School District #63 has announced that Dr. Kenneth L. Moses, Clinical Psychologist and Director, Resource Networks, Inc., Evanston, Ill., will be the keynote speaker at the Teachers' Institute to be held in the Galaxie Theater of Apollo School on Monday, August 30. The program will begin with welcoming messages from Larry Solomon, Board of Education President, and Donald C. Stetina, Associate Superintendent. Dr. Donald E. Bond, Superintendent, will speak to the staff on "An Auspicious Start to the 1982-83 School Year." Dr. Moses' presentation is entitled "Teaching in Turbulent Times." Following the presentation, building faculties will meet at each school to share their ideas as to how these messages can be implemented in the new school term.

Student assists in antibiotics research

The members of the Institute Committee are: Mr. Frank Wagner, Assistant Superintendent of Cook County; Ramona Wood, Special Services Representative; Harriet Papp, Nurse; Natalie Feldman, Psychologist; Esther Blumenthal, Psychologist; Eileen Carlisle, Teacher, Gemini School; Viola Stanton, Teacher, Meizer School; Elsie McAvoy, Teacher, Nelson School; Harriet Judy, Teacher, Stevenson School; Georgia Nirgiotis, Teacher, Mark Twain School; Lolita Sayadian, Teacher, Washington School; Dorothy Cwaygel, Teacher, Gemini School; Judith Hennig, Basic Skills Teacher; Walter Siederski, Principal, Mark Twain School; Milo Heilman, Principal, Washington School; Dr. Donald C. OCC wins International Studies Grant

The U.S. Department of Education recently granted Oakton Community College $44,000 for the first of two years of funding to initiate an international studies program. The grant project reflects the input of OCC faculty members and administrators whose work was coordinated by Patrick Casali, professor of humanities and Foreign Languages. "Since we no longer live in a nation isolated by national boundaries, students will benefit greatly from international programs. Increasing global interdependence affects everyone. Although we must keep traditional subjects, we have to add the global perspective to help students broaden their educational careers and achieve their personal goals," Casali said. "Students must be trained to understand the world's interdependence and how to manage its opportunities and problems in the dawning global century," Casali added. Liz Borowitz, assistant director of community relations, noted that Oakton was one of 13 colleges in the U.S. to receive funding to initiate an international studies program. The project's objectives include: internationalizing the curricula for students who plan to transfer to four-year colleges and universities, as well as for those pursuing general education, vocational-technical and continuing education curricula, and providing opportunities for overseas study. Another objective is establishing OCC's program of Educational Services for Business, Industry and Government as a resource to the business community for international education.

District 63 receives State commendation

The East Maine Public Schools have received a letter of commendation from the Illinois State Board of Education, Program Planning and Development Section, complimenting the District on its Basic Skills Improvement Program. The State's review of the final report congratulated District #63 for its many opportunities for parent involvement and the collection of instructional materials which have been developed by teachers and administrators. During the last school year the District received a grant to initiate this project and to assist other districts in the State with in-service training to improve instruction in the basic skills throughout Illinois. Dr. Donald E. Bond, Superintendent, expressed his appreciation to Dr. Lenore Page, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction and Basic Skills Project Director, and to the many teachers and administrators involved in this program. During Parent-Teacher Conferences to be held in November, parents will view their children's Individual Student Profiles illustrating their progress in the Basic Skills areas of reading, mathematics, oral and written communication.

Oakton receives $100,000 Creative Writing training grant

Oakton Community College was recently granted $100,000 to provide in-plant training for Infolink Corporation of Northbrook, according to Maureen Turci, director of OCC Educational Services for Business, Industry and Government. Funding for the period of August 16, 1982 through June 30, 1983, was granted by the High Impact Training Services (HITS) Program of the Illinois Department of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education. OCC will use the funds to assist Infolink in training 50 Illinois residents, primarily engineers, field engineering support staff, and operations personnel, who will be the nucleus staff of Infolink's expanding Northbrook operations. Infolink, has a facility in Northbrook as well as one in San Diego, California. The company designs, produces and markets data collection and communications systems. The first creative writing workshop sponsored by the Park Ridge Center of Concern began last March, and was so successful that Patricia Leonard was asked to teach another class in the fall of 1982. The workshop, to be held once a week for two hours, trains writers to express ideas in creative imagery and clarity. The unique approach is learned so quickly that the assignments seem to write themselves, and fine writing is turned out. Enrollment will begin Thursday, September 9, and the first class, Thursday, September 16, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. A tuition of $40 for the 8-week workshop should be paid at the time of enrollment directly to Mrs. Leonard as the Center of Concern is a non-profit organization. The workshop will be held in Suite 4 of the 1580 N. Northwest Highway Building, Park Ridge. For further information, please call 823-0463.
