Nimrod supporter reports receiving
State's Attorney's subpoena

Grand Jury begins probe of Nimrod petitions

by Bob Besser

The Cook County State's Attorney's office has begun subpoenaing area supporters of State Sen. John Nimrod (R-Glenview) to appear before a grand jury investigating allegations that numerous provisions of the Illinois Election Code were violated during the July petition drive which resulted in Nimrod being placed on the November ballot as an independent candidate.

When contacted by The Bugle, one Niles resident, whose son had circulated petitions for Nimrod, said his son had received a subpoena to appear before the grand jury and State's Attorney investigators had taken a deposition from the Niles youth.

Among the charges being investigated by the State's Attorney's office are that Nimrod, his family and friends may have knowingly falsified petitions.

Evidence turned over to the State's Attorney by Chicago election law attorney Frank Lunding, while representing supporters of Rep. Bob Kustra (R-Glenview).

In the catbird seat we, as newsmen, often view what goes on from many different angles. And one truth that has trickled up to the catbird is how little everyone knows, including the guys who are doing the observing.

Last Friday we attended a breakfast in which County Clerk Stanley Kuser was the guest speaker. Kuser's a very stylish guy, dark banker's suit, lots of well-trimmed grey hair, lots of poise, always loose, and has great rapport with his audience. But after the opening inning of banter he got serious and spoke about the balloon budgeting that public bodies indulge in to get the maximum amount of dollars for their public bodies. One of the major publishers in the Chicago area said he didn't understand about the way the multiplier is determined on equalizing tax bills. After a half hour of wandering through the labyrinths of multipliers and assessments, most of us knew less than when we first arrived. Even Kuser pleaded not knowing the inner workings of taxing in the County. We worked hard at that early morning hour trying to understand what seemed almost unexplainable.

District 63 proposes tax levy increase below 5%

by Eileen Hirschfeld

A proposed tax levy increase of $331,000 was discussed by board members of East Maine School District 63 at a committee-of-the-whole meeting Tuesday, October 12, in the Educational Service Center of Apollo School, Des Plaines.

After much discussion, board members agreed to this figure keeping a levy increase extension below five per cent of the total 1981 levy. Any taxing unit may tax up to five per cent by statute without a special hearing. The total levy for tax year 1981 was $7,405,305. A proposed 1982 tax levy total will be $7,775,570.

Administrator Donald Bond questioned whether the $331,000 is capable of providing needed services for the children in district schools. Ann Sostrin, board member, said "gloom and doom" has been heard for 15 years but nothing seriously hurt the district. Final action on the proposed levy will be taken at an open board meeting.

In order to determine a tax levy, board members attempt to consider future needs and costs in light of inflation, salaries, new equipment and building repairs, among other factors. They also consider revenues such as leases, lunch money, and government aid partly derived from property taxes.

Tax income is determined by assessing property which is known as the assessed valuation. A part of that amount is multiplied by a formula, changing from year to year, known as the "multiplier". The resulting amount is the "equalized assessed valuation."

Board member Richard Smith said, "This year we not only have to worry about the multiplier but whether or not it will be continued." Reportedly, some Illinois legislators advocate elimination of the multiplier.

Administrator Bond said some

Retiring village employees

At a recent Village of Niles Board Meeting, two retiring village employees Patrolman James C. Olbrisch (c) and Fire Engineer Matthew Nowakowski (r) were honored for their dedication and service to the community. Both Officer Olbrisch and Firefighter Nowakowski served the village for over twenty-one years.

In reading the inscription on one of the plaques,

Mayor Nicholas Blase (l) stated, "The Village of Niles was built into a great community by spirit and dedication and not by brick and mortar alone." Continued Mayor Blase, "We wish happiness and good health to these employees - they will be missed - but we indeed hope for success in whatever endeavors they pursue."

Cook County gives $88,500 to Doppler system

The Cook County Board voted last week to give the balance of $88,500 needed for the installation of the Doppler Tornado Warning System in Marseilles, Illinois next March. Through the efforts of Niles Fire Chief Al Hoelbl and Mayor Nicholas Blase, the request for the balance of the funding was presented to the Cook County Board and its president George Dunne by Sheriff Richard Elrod. Elrod had previously met with a committee of fire chiefs and Mayor Blase before presenting the request for the funds.

The entire cost of the tornado alert system which is effective within a 160 mile radius was $500,000. Approximately $350,000 of the cost was contributed by the National Weather System which is a division of the Federal Government. Through the efforts of Mayor Blase and Chief Hoelbl, the City of Chicago's Department

The Nimrod Petitions:

Evidence Electoral Board would not hear points to numerous election law violations

Nimrod friend may have falsified petitions

Investigators checking the validity of Nimrod petitions continually found evidence pointing to possible perjury on petitions whose sworn circulator was a Skokie woman who is a Nimrod family friend.

By the time the petition drive had been completed the Skokie woman had signed 18 petitions, asked him to sign it. Gary Padgett of Glenview said Mrs. Nimrod asked him to sign on page 236. On both pages 236 and 237 the Skokie woman swore that, as the circulator of these pages, she had seen every person who had signed the petitions.

While some residents identified the woman as having actually handed them the petitions, many also identified people other than the woman as having been the circulators.

John Evans of Skokie, who signed on petition page 237, said John Nimrod came to his home and, handing him a petition, asked him to sign it. Gary Padgett of Glenview said Mrs. Nimrod asked him to sign on page 236. On both pages 236 and 237 the Skokie woman swore that, as the circulator of these pages, she had seen every person who had signed the petitions.

On page 225 Steven Levantis of Skokie said he signed the petition when Bill Kearney, former Niles Township Republican Committeeman, handed it to him. This is the same page the Skokie woman signed as having been the circulator.

Seven people who signed petition page 250 did so when John Nimrod left the petition unsupervised on the counter of Anne's Pizza in downtown Park Ridge, according to employee Mark Kreuz. Page 250 was later found to have the Skokie friend of Nimrod claiming she was the circulator and had witnessed each person who signed the petition for the Nimrod candidacy.

On petition pages 237, 238, 240 and 241, sixteen residents of Glenview, Evanston and Wilmette who signed the petitions said they had been handed the petitions by either a young woman in her 30's who was alone, a young woman in her 20's with a child, two men in their 40's or an unidentified woman in her 40's. As with the other petitions, the Skokie friend of the Nimrods again swore she had witnessed each person as they signed these petitions.

During repeated attempts to contact the woman, The Bugle was unable to talk with her.

Teen circulators may have broken law

Up to 63 signatures may have been obtained illegally when an 18-year-old Niles resident and his under-age friends gathered signatures on petitions which the 18-year-old later signed as the circulator.

Sources close to the investigation said the Niles youth and a number of friends fanned out in Niles in late July to collect signatures on Nimrod petitions. However, a circulator of a petition has to be a registered voter and since the 18-year-old was the only one of the group old enough to vote, he signed all of the petitions as the circulator.

Evidence compiled under the direction of Chicago election-law attorney Frank Lunding, working for supporters of Republican Senatorial Candidate Bob Kustra (R-Glenview), documents repeated election law violations during the July petition drive by State Senator John Nimrod (R-Glenview). Nimrod became an independent candidate in an attempt to retain his office after losing during the March primary to Kustra. Lunding has since turned this evidence over to the Cook County States Attorney. This special report, written by reporter Bob Besser, is based upon this evidence.

Circulator's claim appears false

A Park Ridge businessman swore that as a circulator he personally witnessed 155 people sign their names on Nimrod petitions.

However, during a telephone check with 52 people who had signed the petitions, 51 of them said someone other than the businessman handed them the petitions. Despite this Park Ridge resident signing as the circulator, 31 residents said a man many years younger than the businessman had been circulating the petitions and 20 other residents said a young woman had handed them petitions which the businessman claims to have circulated.

On page 77 of the Nimrod petitions, which the businessman swore he had circulated, David Schnarr, Loraine Schiffus, Barbara Kellen, William Jonas and numerous other people, all residing in Des Plaines, said a young woman in her 20's, not the Park Ridge resident, had handed them the petition to sign. Also numerous people who signed page 81 of the petitions reported the same woman, not the businessman, was the circulator.

On page 78 of the petitions Frederick Krause, Louise DiVecchio, Peter Infusino and Beverly Zuccarini, also residents of Des Plaines, said a man between 35 and 40 years old had circulated the petition they had signed. The Park Ridge businessman, who again signed as the circulator, is a man well into his 50's or early 60's.

Also on page 80 of the petitions, Ronald Strew, Jean Wagner, Jeffrey Callicic and Thomas Kapper, all of Des Plaines, said either a man in his early 40's or a young woman had circulated the businessman's petitions.

The businessman has refused to comment on whether he falsely signed these petitions as the circulator.

Nimrod story started with Primary defeat

The controversy surrounding Senator John Nimrod's independent candidacy goes back to his loss in the March primary to Illinois State Rep. Bob Kustra (R-Glenview). Following a bitter campaign Nimrod lost by nearly 2,000 votes as Kustra captured 5,211 votes and the right to be the Republican Senatorial candidate in November in the 28th District.

Kustra's opponent in November, Lou Black, Clerk of Niles Township, was unopposed in the March Democratic primary.

Throughout June and July, rumors among local political observers spread that Nimrod was planning an independent candidacy. When it was learned in late July that people were collecting names on petitions for Nimrod, the ten-year veteran of the Senate and former Niles Township Republican Committeeman denied he had anything to do with the petition drive. He said it was a grass-roots campaign organized by his supporters.

The deadline for turning in candidacy petitions was August 2 and late that afternoon Nimrod showed up in Springfield with 263 pages of petitions which included over 5,000 signatures. Since only 3,000 signatures were necessary, Nimrod had become the candidate for the State Senate of the Taxpayers Independent Party.

Area Republicans immediately began calling Nimrod a "spoiler" as the possibility loomed that he could split the Republican ticket resulting in Democrat Lou Black being the winner.

Kustra supporter Sheldon Marcus of Morton Grove filed an objection to the Nimrod petitions on August 7 asking the Cook County Electoral Board to invalidate over 2,000 signatures and find that Nimrod had not collected the 3,000 signatures he needed.

On August 13, a binder check was begun in Cook County Clerk Stanley Kuser's office in which the Kustra and Nimrod forces began checking signatures on the petitions against samples of each registered voter's signature on file in precinct binder books. The outcome of the binder check had Kuser's office determine that 1,557 signatures were not valid leaving Nimrod with 3,327 signatures.

Also during this period some 50 Kustra workers began calling residents whose names appeared on the Nimrod petitions to verify they had indeed signed and to verify who had handed them, or circulated, the petitions.

During a hearing before the three member Cook County Electoral Board on August 16, the all-Democratic board was prepared to hear the evidence on the Nimrod petitions.

Marcus's lawyer, Chicago election-law attorney Frank Lunding, representing the Kustra forces, had subpoenaed witnesses who were prepared to testify they had falsified petitions by claiming they were circulators when, in fact, they were not. Other witnesses would have testified they had circulated petitions for Nimrod but did not reside in the district invalidating the petitions.

Nimrod's attorney, Burt Odelson, was the first to speak giving a 45 minute presentation ending with a motion to dismiss the proceedings based on technicalities in Lunding's written objections to the Nimrod petitions. Such motions to dismiss are routinely made during all such proceedings.

The three-member board, consisting of Kuser, State's Attorney Richard Daley and Judge Eugene Wachowski, then broke for five minutes and, upon returning, agreed to Odelson's request to dismiss the charges thus not affording Lunding the opportunity to present his evidence.

The immediate speculation among area politicians was that Cook County Democrats had conspired to keep Nimrod in the race to help assure a victory for Black and one additional Senate seat for the Democrats in Springfield.

Claiming the cost of additional appeals was too great, Marcus ended the court appeals.

Finally, Lunding turned over his evidence to the Cook County State's Attorney claiming numerous violations of the Illinois Election Code occurred during the Nimrod petition drive.

The State's Attorney's office has only acknowledged it has received the evidence and a spokesman said he could not speculate how long it would take to determine the validity of the evidence.

Possible violations by friend of Nimrod daughter

A Des Plaines university student who is a friend of John Nimrod's daughter, also appears to have falsely sworn that she was a Nimrod petition circulator. At least 16 residents who signed the Des Plaines woman's petitions said someone other than the woman had handed the petitions to them.

Seven Morton Grove residents who signed the petition page 55 have said that Republican Art Fladons of Morton Grove had circulated the petition. However, page 55 was sworn to have been Residents who signed the Nimrod petitions which the 18-year-old swore he had circulated, have said they were handed the petitions by this youth as well as numerous other teens.

John Nimrod circulated by the Des Plaines woman.

Nine other residents of Glenview who signed the petition pages 42 and 49 have said that either a woman in her 50's or a woman in her 30's had circulated the petitions.

Nimrod circulated petition but didn't sign as circulator

The Nimrod petitions investigation has disclosed at least one instance when Nimrod personally circulated petitions which later were signed by a Skokie woman who swore she was the circulator and is a Nimrod family friend.

John Evans of Skokie said Nimrod himself handed him a petition to sign in July. Said Evans, "Yeah, he brought them in the house...by himself."

Evans' wife, Mary, confirms Nimrod's role saying, "He asked us to sign them and we did. He handed one to me and to my husband to pass around to our neighbors and friends."

Mrs. Evans said she and her husband circulated petition page 237 collecting eight signatures. However, she said she gave the partially filled petitions to her next door neighbor, the Nimrod family friend.

By the time the petition was filed in Springfield there were 16 signatures on it and the Skokie woman falsely swore as the circulator, that she personally witnessed each person who had signed the petition.

Also, the petition which Nimrod himself circulated, petition page 235 was falsely signed by the Skokie woman who claimed to be the circulator.

In a related incident, Mark Kreuz of Amn's Pizza in Park Ridge said Nimrod asked to place petition page 250 on a counter in the restaurant. After seven patrons had signed in the restaurant the petition was taken away by a Nimrod staffer.

As with other petitions, the Skokie woman swore she had circulated petition page 250.

Nimrod signatures fall short of required number

Under 3,000 signatures on Nimrod petitions

John Nimrod has been placed on the November ballot even though he turned in fewer valid signatures than the 3,000 required by law.

On August 1 Nimrod filed over 5,000 signatures with the State Election Board as a candidate of the Taxpayers Independent Party. However, after his signatures were challenged by supporters of Bob Kustra, the Cook County Clerk's office ruled that only 3,321 signatures were valid. Many of the signatures were ruled off the Nimrod ballots because people who signed were not registered voters in the 28th Senatorial District and other signatures had been forged.

The Cook County Electoral Board then chose not to hear evidence showing possible Nimrod petition fraud letting stand the 3,321 figure.

However, investigators have shown that a minimum of 907 additional signatures were also invalid bringing Nimrod's total number of signatures to 2,437. This is 563 signatures fewer than required by law.

Sources close to the investigation believe the number of valid signatures on Nimrod's petitions are probably far fewer than the 2,437 figure.

Kuser employees say cards switched to help circulator

A petition circulator who was found to have lived outside the 28th Senatorial District and whose nearly 350 collected signatures have been counted as part of the total Nimrod petition drive is a Skokie Nimrod supporter.

During a check by Kustra supporters with Cook County Clerk Stanley Kuser's office within days of the August 1 petition filing date, it was learned that as of August 1 this Skokie man was a registered voter at 5214 Sherwin ave. in Skokie.

During a second check with Kuser's office on August 5, the Skokie man's home address had been changed to 9047 N. Lamont in Skokie, which is inside the district.

State law specifies that for a citizen to circulate a petition on behalf of a candidate for office, the citizen must be a registered voter and reside within that district.

To try and solve this problem, Inga Nimrod, wife of John Nimrod, arrived at Kuser's office near closing time on August 4 with a change-of-address form for the Skokie man. That Mrs. Nimrod personally brought in the card was confirmed by two employees of Kuser's office.

Kustra attorney Frank Lunding had asked the Cook County Electoral Board to rule that since the Skokie man does not reside in the district, his petitions were illegal but the board never ruled on them.

Therefore, these signatures were also counted among the Nimrod petitions.

Nimrod denies laws broken

Senator John Nimrod denies there were any laws violated during his July petition drive to be placed on the November ballot.

"There was never any forgery that was proven," said Nimrod. Referring to the numerous petitions submitted in which Nimrod supporters falsely swore they had been the circulators, Nimrod commented, "There might be some of that."

However, Nimrod defended the entire petition collecting process saying his supporters were not familiar with the correct method of collecting signatures. Said Nimrod, "These people that you're talking about are mostly people who are volunteers who have never been involved in this process before. There wasn't any planned effort on their part nor was there any attempt directly to deceive anybody."

Additionally, Nimrod denied he had ever circulated petitions which were later signed by a Nimrod family friend as being the circulator. "There was no petitions circulated by me," said Nimrod. "I delivered petitions, I had them bring them over to where they were supposed to be. I called people about them. Yes, I did all those things...I got a lot of people to help out and I'm very grateful for that kind of response."

Nimrod said a Skokie woman who is a family friend, whose name appears as the circulator of numerous petitions she apparently did not circulate, had actually witnessed each person who signed the petitions according to the law. The Skokie woman, said Nimrod "was out with other (circulators) because they needed help."

As for a Park Ridge businessman, who may have also signed petitions which he had not circulated Nimrod conceded, "I don't know the whole story about it. I know a little about it. I'm sorry that got mixed up or whatever happened to it."

Evidence shows woman had daughter falsify petitions

Up to 60 signatures on petitions circulated by a Park Ridge woman who formerly was a Nimrod campaign volunteer may be invalid since after circulating petition pages 73, 74 and 75, she had her daughter falsely sign the petitions as the circulator.

When contacted by phone, 19 area residents who signed petition pages 73, 74 and 75 said the Park Ridge woman, not her daughter, had circulated the petitions.

Additionally, Park Ridge residents Jean Petersen, Veritas Thompson, Karen Jaacks and Jack Thompson who signed page 73 identified the circulator as the Park Ridge woman.

The woman had her daughter sign the petitions because it was illegal for her to circulate petitions because of a stipulation in Illinois law which does not allow a petition circulator to work for different parties for a primary election and later for the general election. Since Nimrod ran as a Republican in the March primary which he lost, and now is running as an independent, this would disqualify the woman from circulating petitions for Nimrod again.

As with other circulators, the Park Ridge woman swore she personally circulated the petitions and had witnessed each person actually signing the petitions.

Petitions invalid if circulators used false addresses

Other election law violations may have occurred when people who lived outside the 28th Senatorial District circulated Nimrod petitions, signed an oath stating they lived within the district and then claimed to live at a false address within the district to possibly deceive election officials.

An Arlington Heights Nimrod supporter claims to have circulated petition pages 66 and 67. He swore he resided within the 28th District at 9507 Gross Point rd. in Skokie. However, the telephone book lists the man as living in Arlington Heights which is outside the 28th District making the 50 signatures he claims to have collected invalid.

At the Skokie address where the Arlington Heights man claimed to reside lives a woman with the same last name. The scenario is the same with a Park Ridge man who turned in petition pages 203 and 218. He swore that his address was 431

Elmore st. in Park Ridge which is in the 28th District. However, he actually resides at a different Park Ridge address which is outside the district making the 15 signatures he collected also invalid.

The address the Park Ridge man claims to live at within the 28th District is that of his brother.

As additional proof that both men do not reside within the 28th District, Kustra attorney Frank Lunding had subpoenaed their driver's licenses and vehicle registrations which had their true home addresses to present as evidence during hearings. However, the all-Democratic County Electoral Board never allowed Lunding to present this evidence.

Despite this evidence the signatures on the petitions of both these Nimrod supporters were included by county officials among Nimrod's total signature count.

Seven found guilty of similar violations

Seven people in Kane County, including the Kane County Prosecutor, pleaded guilty to various violations of the Illinois Election Code, similar to the Nimrod petition violations, in July, 1979.

Eugene Armentrout, Kane County Prosecutor and Carl Sorenson, Elgin Township Republican Chairman, along with five other Republicans were found guilty of forging names on petitions for the Thompson Proposition, a tax ceiling referendum.

Armentrout was fined $2,000 and Sorenson was fined $1,000.

The five other defendants, including an assistant county prosecutor, each pleaded guilty to two misdemeanor charges of violating the Illinois Election Code by forging signatures on petitions. Each were fined sums ranging from $1,000 to $1,500.

Armentrout was fined $2,000 and Sorenson was fined $1,000.

The five other defendants, including an assistant county prosecutor, each pleaded guilty to two misdemeanor charges of violating the Illinois Election Code by forging signatures on petitions. Each were fined sums ranging from $1,000 to $1,500.

'I'd investigate petitions' - Carey

Former Cook County States Attorney Bernard Carey said if he were still the State's Attorney, he would investigate the Nimrod petition violations.

"Based upon the evidence, if I were State's Attorney, I would conduct an investigation of it looking toward the possibility of the various crimes. There are various election laws violated under that situation if the evidence can be proven...You certainly cannot dismiss that kind of evidence out of hand with no investigation."

'Had the evidence' - Daley

Within minutes of ending the August 6 hearing in front of the Cook County Election Board without hearing evidence pointing to fraud in the Nimrod petitions, State's Attorney Richard Daley, a member of the electoral board, told an aide, "...they certainly had the evidence."

During the hearing, Chicago attorney Frank Lunding, an expert on election laws, had his case against Nimrod dismissed by the electoral board before he could present his evidence. The board dismissed the hearing because they claimed Lunding made a technical error when filing the written objection to the Nimrod petitions.

Laws possibly broken by Nimrod supporters

Possible laws that were broken during the Nimrod petition drive, and which may be considered by the Cook County State's Attorney's office, include various provisions of the Illinois Election Code.

Judge who ruled on case knew Nimrod

Judge Joseph Schneider, who ruled the County Electoral Board does not have to re-hear the Nimrod petition objections thus assuring Nimrod a spot on the November ballot, had worked professionally with Nimrod on committees during past years.

Laws broken when petitions smeared

An additional Illinois election law appears to have been broken by Nimrod supporters who worked on the controversial petitions.

Blase says Daley will act, Raffé doubtful

Area politicians give conflicting answers when asked if they believe Cook County States Attorney Richard Daley will investigate the Nimrod petition violations.

Witnesses say Skokie resident not circulator

During a spot-check of petition page 152, circulated by a Skokie woman supporting Nimrod, numerous people said the woman's husband, not the woman, had actually circulated the petition.

Black, Kustra comment on charges

Commenting on charges that election laws were violated by Senator John Nimrod and his campaign workers during his July petition drive, Rep. Bob Kustra said that it is "most unfortunate that a public official would misuse his office to such an extent...even more importantly his family and his friends in order to hold on to an office he had lost in the primary."

Bernadini - man in the middle

Assistant States Attorney Chuck Bernadini, who will determine if the Nimrod evidence will be pursued by the State's Attorney's office, has more riding on this case than just the evidence. He has his reputation at stake.

Possible falsified petition

Up to 15 signatures on petition page 5 which was circulated by a Skokie man may not be valid because someone other than himself circulated his petition, though he has sworn that he personally circulated this petition.

Judge Elward to address Niles Chamber

Judge Paul E. Elward, Circuit Court of Cook County, will address the Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry at its October 19 luncheon meeting at The Bradford Exchange, 9333 N. Milwaukee ave.

Salute to former Olympians

In one of the most dramatic tributes ever accorded Chicago's U.S. Olympic athletes—both living and dead—a colorful exhibit depicting amateur athletics at its best was on public display September 15-17.

Public invited for superintendent search

The District 219 Board of Education will hold a public forum on Oct. 21 at 7:30 p.m., so the community members can assist the Board in developing selection criteria for the new superintendent of schools. You can receive information explaining the details of the program by calling the Northwest Suburban Podiatry Group at 965-6323.

Niles and Morton Grove residents will be eligible for low interest home mortgage loans, possibly below 12 per cent, in the coming months.

The program, called the Growing Equity Mortgage Program of Cook County, was created by the Cook County Board to help stimulate home buying in general and the construction industry in particular.

Under the guidelines of the program any area resident who has not owned a home for the past three years can qualify for the county-sponsored loans. The program does not set an annual maximum income limit for residents applying for the loans.

The low-interest loans will be available for new homes costing up to $90,310 and for used homes costing up to $78,430.

The loans will be distributed through area banks and saving and loans. The money for the loan program will be raised through the sale of revenue bonds which county officials hope will be sold by the end of October.

Throughout Cook County, 58 municipalities have agreed to participate in the program. Current home mortgage rates are fluctuating between 15 and 17 per cent.

Commenting on the home loan program Niles Village Manager Ken Scheel said, "Wherever it would help people to buy homes at lower mortgage rates...it will be better than it is right now."

Calling the program a "move in the right direction," Scheel said if the program is successful it could be the beginning of similar programs to assist some buyers.

Niles Parks dedicate Universal Playground

Representatives from the Knights of Columbus; several public officials and numerous residents witnessed the dedication of the Niles Park District's Universal Playground on Saturday, Oct. 2.

The idea for the playground was born in February, 1982 when representatives from the Knights of Columbus, North American Martyrs, Council 4338, approached the Niles Park District Board of Commissioners with the concept of developing a second playground in Niles that would be accessible to the handicapped. The concept included a pledge from the Knights of Columbus, North American Martyrs, Council 4338 to donate $10,000 over a five year period to completely cover the cost of the purchase and installation of the specially designed equipment.

After a number of meetings to review types of equipment and costs an $11,000 budget was established. The Knights of Columbus pledged to donate $3,000 immediately and the remaining $8,000 over the next four years.

All the equipment that was selected had a specific function, and together best compliments the existing equipment already at the site. The equipment selected will be used and enjoyed by children in wheel chairs, children with mobility problems, children with crutches, pre school children and children of all ages.

The Knights of Columbus, North American Martyrs, Council 4338 have a strong commitment to helping the handicapped. Each year they hold a Tootsie Roll fund raiser and use the money raised for various handicapped projects. With their commitment to this project, their $11,000 pledge over a five year period will come directly from their Tootsie Roll drive.

The Niles Park District has shown its commitment to the handicapped by being an active participant in the Main-Niles Association of Special Recreation, an association made up of six park districts in a cooperative effort to offer recreational programs for the handicapped. This playground will be the Niles Park District's second playground built and designed to meet the needs of handicapped children. The first playground designed for the han-

On and on we went and nobody know where we were heading. "Is it Great America, is it Volo", is it The Clock Tower", our Mystery trip had the members on three buses guessing. As we got nearer to our destination, someone said it's the Wagon Wheel and yes, it was. First time in 5 years that we had bad weather on one of our trips, but it didn't spoil our fun.

Our Bake Sale and Bingo on Sunday, Sept. 19 was great. Thanks to Ida Paoletti and her crew, Wanda Palkoner, Catherine Fruetting, Irene Seifert, Mary Gunther, Helen Rogowski, Florence Lenconi, Jo Florio, Catherine Gizynski, Louise Jacob, Frances Kaitis, and Marie Kowieski. Thank You to all the ladies who baked delicious goodies. The Goodie Bakers are so many we can't mention all their names. We would like to thank Jo Glazier who really baked up a storm with 3 big boxes of goodies.

To our Bingo caller Stanley Zabski and his crew Charles Palkoner, Louis Bassi, Peter Lenconi and Jerry Mostek who said they wished that everyone could have been a winner.

Birthdays of the month: Harry Arquilla, Joseph Bachochin, Loretta Baker, Florence Bell, Jo Brown, Marty Corcoran, Jo Crisci, Mary Gunther, John Mancuso, Mildred Miller, Chris Seaglione, Ann Sitarz, Mary Tinko and Barbara Ziegler, Happy Anniversary to all couples celebrating this month.

Please pray for our sick, especially Eleanor Benson and Angela Rospond. We were all glad to see Helen Uramkin better doing well with his two broken fingers. If you know of anyone who is sick, please call our Sunshine Lady Josephine Christie... our condolences to Edward Dzien and his family on the death of his wife Sophie. Remember her and all our deceased in your prayers.

Cutler repaving saves Niles $$$

Recycling streets saved the Village of Niles $33,000 this summer. Actual expenditures to repave 29 streets, 3.5 miles roadway, cost $161,546. Utilizing any other resurfacing method would have increased the cost at least 17%, to $189,000!

Street improvements were completed with the Cutler Repaver, manufactured by Cutler Repaving Company, Inc., Lawrence, Kansas. The machine recycles the top layer of a street surface, thereby reducing the amount of new material needed. The Cutler Repaver heats the existing pavement and scarifies the surface by digging up 1/4 inch of the old asphalt. A rejuvenating agent is applied along with a new 1/4 inch of asphalt overlay. This is done in one continuous process. The Cutler Repaving process eliminates seams in the surface and does not deteriorate the curb line of a street. The life of a street is prolonged eight to ten years with this process. The machine can repave a street in a day without closing off the street.

Off the NILES POLICE BLOTTER

Thursday, October 7.... A 49-year-old Niles man was arrested after leading police on a wild chase which wound up on Nordica ave. Police officers report having stopped the man earlier and warning him to put identifying lettering on his pick-up truck. Seeing the truck one week later still without lettering Niles police again stopped the man and, when he produced only a traffic ticket for identification, said he would have to follow them to the Niles Police Department. While traveling west on Oakton st. the man suddenly sped off into the Lawrencewood Shopping Center where, with police cars pursuing him, he disregarded two stop signs and then drove north on Waukegan rd. and east on Oakton st. finally turning on Nordica ave. Stopping in front of his home he jumped out of his car, leaving the motor running and the door open and ran into the home. Slamming a sliding glass door behind him the Niles police broke through the door and arrested the man. The man was charged with resisting arrest and fleeing and eluding the police officer. He was released on $100 bond and assigned a November court date.

Thursday, October 7.... A Niles business was burglarized during the night resulting in a loss of over $1,500. Officials of Jerry Gleason Ford, 9401 Milwaukee ave., reported unknown persons gained access to their car lot and broke into a used car. Taken from the car were its T-Tops, trick steering wheel and radio. Also, the auto's dash board was damaged. Officials said the merchandise and damage totaled $1,700.

Alert drivers to night driving

By Secretary of State Jim Edgar

The fall season brings decreasing hours of sunlight, and driving without headlights as darkness is setting in can be dangerous.

If there is not sufficient daylight to see other vehicles ahead or behind you, or if rain, fog or other conditions dictate, turn your headlights on. Vehicles must have two headlights that are visible for at least 500 feet. They must be lighted from sunset to sunrise and at any other time when visibility is so poor that lights are required for safety.

Motorcycles operating on streets and highways must have at least one lighted head lamp at all times. Headlights must be dimmed at least 500 feet before meeting and 300 feet before overtaking another vehicle.

If your headlight is not readily visible to approaching drivers, the potential of danger to yourself and others is increased dramatically. Make sure your headlights are on when visibility is limited. Using them could save a life. If you have any questions about the Secretary of State's office, please feel free to use our toll-free telephone number (800) 252-8980. A copy of the Rules of the Road will be sent to you upon request. Write to Jim Edgar, Secretary of State, Springfield, IL 62756.

Yates poll shows priorities of Ninth District voters

Residents of the Ninth Congressional District of Illinois strongly favor a nuclear weapons freeze, control of handguns and a reduction in military spending according to a poll conducted by Congressman Sidney R. Yates. They also reported by more than 2 1/2 to 1 that they did not think President Reagan's economic policies or his foreign policy are working. Yates received 23,892 returns in a poll of his enlarged district which now includes Chicago's northside area, Evanston, and parts of Des Plaines, Glenview, Golf, Morton Grove, Niles, Northbrook, Skokie and Wilmette. Yates said that his votes in Congress have been in agreement with the majority of the respondents.

Ninety-one percent said they favored a "mutual and verifiable freeze and reduction in nuclear weapons between the U.S. and the Soviet Union". Six percent were opposed and 3 percent not sure.

On handgun control, the vote was 85 percent in favor, 13 percent against, and 2 percent not sure - a margin of more than six to one. District residents were against reductions in Social Security benefits, 64 to 18 percent, and opposed to cuts in food stamps, day care centers, educational programs, and Medicare.

On the question of cutting defense spending to help reduce federal deficits, the vote was 74 percent in favor, 19 percent against, and 7 percent not sure.

Annunzio recommends Lech Walesa for Nobel Peace Prize

Lech Walesa, the leader of the Polish independent trade union Solidarity, has been recommended by Congressman Frank Annunzio (11th Dist-III) to be the recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize for his "peaceful, nonviolent activities to improve job conditions and to insure the human rights of workers in Poland."

"It is an honor for me to urge the Nobel Prize Committee to select Lech Walesa," said Annunzio, "because he has dedicated his life to achieving a better life for all Poles, in the face of imprisonment and personal danger."

In his letter of recommendation to the Nobel Prize Committee in Norway, Annunzio pointed out that "Walesa remains devoted to his religious faith, and is a man of peace - a symbol to all those striving to free themselves from the yoke of tyranny and oppression."

Although today Lech Walesa remains a prisoner, isolated from his friends and family, held by the Polish authorities without charges and with no prospects of his release," the Illinois lawmaker noted, "the communists have been unable to crush the Solidarity movement, or its leader's unwavering spirit and his commitment to achieve human dignity for all Polish workers."

Kustra endorsements mount

State Rep. Bob Kustra (R-Glenview), Republican candidate for state senator from the new 28th District, has added the endorsement of the Illinois Education Association (IEA) to his list of supporters.

The IEA endorsement was based on Kustra's voting record on educational issues and his commitment to high quality education throughout the state.

Kustra, a professor at Roosevelt and Loyola Universities, said, "Not only am I dedicated to improving educational opportunities for all students in Illinois, but I also have fought vigorously to insure fair treatment for suburban schools."

"I truly appreciate the IEA's support by acknowledging my efforts. I also am pleased to have the support of local members of the Illinois Federation of Teachers," Kustra said.

Kustra also has won the coveted Independent Voters of Illinois (IVI) endorsement as well as the endorsements of all of the regular Republican organizations in the new 28th District.

Bob also has earned a 100 percent rating from the National Federation of Independent Businesses, a 90 percent rating from the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and an 85 percent rating from the Illinois Manufacturers Association.

Meet your Candidate

"Meet Your Candidate", an informal get-together with area legislators, is being sponsored by Glenkirk Association for Retarded Citizens at the Glenview State Bank on Waukegan rd. in Glenview on Monday, Oct. 18, 7-9:30 p.m. The following candidates will be there.

For Congress: John Porter (R-#10), Eugenia Chapman (D-#10) and Catherine Bertini (R-#9).

For Illinois Senate: Bob Kustra (R-#28), Louis Black (D-#28), John Nimrod (I-#28), Roger Keats (R-#29), Donald Eslick (D-#28), Donald Deuster (I-#30), Barbara Monsor (D-#30), Jack Schaffer (D-#32), Arthur Berman (D-#2) and Virginia Macdonald (R-#27).

For Illinois House: Daniel Pierce (D-#58), Hugh Sommerfeld (R-#58), John Birkinbine (R-

#57), Bob Peterson (D-#57), Aaron Jaffe (D-#56), Diana Burgess Sheffer (D-#55) and William Peterson (R-#60).

Nimrod calls for reduction in tax levies

Senator John Nimrod, candidate of the Independent Taxpayers' Party, is calling upon local taxing bodies to reduce their tax levies. "Local governments must accept spending restraints, but officials refuse to trim the fat from their bloated budgets. Instead, they force the homeowners to cut even further into their household budgets to pay their property taxes. The homeowner is given a choice of pay up or move on."

Those school district taxing bodies who receive "windfalls" should quit stalling and give the money back by reducing their tax levies before the December deadline. Cities and park districts should not ask for one cent more. The taxpayers deserve this."

Senator Nimrod noted that neither of his opponents have been attending the budget meetings of local taxing bodies to hear the concerns of the taxpayers present. "I am not surprised by the absence of Mr. Kustra since he has stated that he is against curbs on local spending. He is the candidate of the local officials and government employees who are responsible for the increases in taxes. From the first his candidacy has been supported by Mayors Butler and Seitz, school board officials Rueckert, Attea, and Marcus, and Maine Township Supervisor Paul Halverson."

There could be a reduction of the tax levy now which would cut next year's real estate tax by over 25 million from the surplus funds reported to be in the Maine Township Schools. Referring to the Democrat candidate, Nimrod stated: "Lou Black is a local government official. He is attempting to keep a low profile but he should be made to face the issue of spiraling local property taxes."

Cites Black for flip-flop positions

Dear Editor:

I find it amusing to read that Louis Black, the Democratic candidate for State Senate is complaining that republican Bob Kustra is not specific on the issues. After all Mr. Black has a long history of flip-flopping positions and even his political party affiliation, in order to further his ambitions.

Until 1974, when he lost an election for Niles Township Republican Committeeman, Mr. Black was himself a Republican. Only after this loss did he suddenly embrace the Democratic party. Since that time he has done whatever the party has asked of him, no more, no less.

Mr. Black has certainly made himself clear on the issues. He is an opportunist who stands for whatever it is that he thinks will lead to his election.

Sincerely,
Mark Stein
815 Long Road
Glenview, IL 60025

Objects to political signs on school buses

Dear Editor:

I noticed, in the local papers, that people were complaining about political signs being posted on street corners in the neighborhoods. My complaint is much more specific.

I strongly object to signs for the Republican candidate for State Representative being displayed on Maierhofer school buses which serve High School District 219. When I checked, I discovered that a William Maierhofer is Chairman of this same candidate's election committee. I am a local taxpayer and I am furious! For a man whose business is supported by tax dollars to blatantly publicize his political preference on school buses is outrageous.

I am also writing to the school districts and Mr. Maierhofer himself to express my dismay. I hope this situation will be corrected immediately.

Sincerely,
Pauline K. Roth

Vote for nuclear freeze

Dear Editor:

In the popular movie "Network" of a few years ago, the news broadcaster had a remarkably large response when he invited any disillusioned people in his audience to go to the window, open it and shout, "I'm mad as hell and I'm not going to take it anymore." On Nov. 2, we are going to have an opportunity to do a similar thing.

The referendum on freezing nuclear weapons will be on the ballot and we will be able to shout "enough" at the nuclear arms race. It seems unbelievable that with all of the opposition from the general public, from the atomic scientists, from the medical profession and from the retired military people, the government continues to race ahead with nuclear arms proliferation. They continue to do this while telling us that they sincerely (?) want a reduction.

For too long, too many of us have relegated too many things of too great importance to be decided by "experts" remote from us. Our lives and the lives of our loved ones are intimately involved in these decisions and some of these decisions have been obscenely absurd. A few weeks ago, Congress approved a large appropriation for the manufacture of MX missiles without even knowing how they could be stored while turning down many other appropriations dealing with job opportunities, health and education because these other appropriations would "break the budget".

I am writing this letter to The Eagle because I live in the unincorporated area next to Niles and

I hear so little from the neighborhood about the referendum vote. I hope the letter will be published and motivate many people to shout to the powers that be that we are angry and disillusioned - shout by voting "YES" on the referendum to freeze nuclear weapons. Because apathy towards the entire election is expected, a large affirmative vote on the referendum could shock many of our decision-makers and keep them from straddling the fence on this issue. As of now, their votes on appropriations are quite different from their public posture when they state their alarm over the ever-increasing prospects for a nuclear holocaust fueled by the arms race.

IVI explains Kustra endorsement

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to a recent letter by Ruth E. Stelzman of Park Ridge criticizing the IVI-IPO for endorsing State Rep. Bob Kustra for the Illinois State Senate in the 28th District. In her letter Ms. Stelzman complained that Rep. Kustra voted like a "downstate Republican" and that her candidate, Louis Black, reflected independence, integrity and honesty. We disagree.

She also erroneously claimed that the local interviewing committee had recommended Kustra and Black. No IVI-IPO interviewing committee recommended Mr. Black as either "qualified" or endorsable. If the truth be known, Mr. Black was exceptionally ill prepared. He was forced to answer "need more study" or "don't know" ten times on our forty question questionnaire.

Second, there was no pressure on our Board of Directors by U.S. Senator Charles Percy or any other person. The fact that the interviews were held twice is ample evidence that all candidates were given a fair chance to be heard. The Board vote to uphold the local interviewing committee recommendation was unanimous, 25-0.

Rep. Bob Kustra was endorsed by IVI-IPO because we felt he was the best of the 3 candidates running. During the last term in Springfield he tied for the 5th highest score of any Republican in the House, and was tied for 1st among suburban Republicans in our ratings of legislators.

Bob Kustra agrees with IVI-IPO positions on such good government issues as open primaries, merit selection of judges, abolition of double dipping and patronage, and party operation issues. He would be a spokesman for good government positions on the Elections Committee in the Senate next year after his election.

The choice in the 28th Senate District is between a moderate, thoughtful Republican, an unqualified Democrat with little familiarity with the issues, and an arch conservative renegade Republican. We feel the choice is clear, and urge the Independents living in the 28th Legislative District to join us in working for the election of Rep. Bob Kustra to the Senate.

Sincerely yours,
Saul Mendelson
State Chair

Questions Pullen's stand on O'Hare

Dear Editor:

I don't understand why anyone would want to stop the agreement between the O'Hare Suburban Commission and the City of Chicago. It is obvious from her opening statement at the hearings, that Rep. Pullen really does not want this agreement ratified.

The public service given to the community by our mayor and the members of the Commission will have been totally wasted. It makes one wonder whether it's worth the effort to try to make your community a better place to live.

SJB Varsity wins game

The 8th grade girls from St. John Brebeuf won the opening game of their 1982-83 basketball season by beating Mary Seat of Wisdom 43 to 31 in the Chicagoland Girls Basketball League. SJB are favorites to repeat as league champs.

"Star of the Game" went to Eileen McAuley for her outstanding play at point guard. Eileen scored 8 points and had a game high four assists. Coach Dan Kosiba noted that the "Big E" had no turnovers. "At point guard at the grammar school level you expect 3 to 5 turnovers per game, to have none is an exceptional performance," he said.

The Marillac H.S. basketball coaches, Pat O'Connell and Rick Pausbeck, attended the game to show their support for the team and for the school's basketball program. Mr. O'Connell stated that he has the highest respect for the program. "The school's entire coaching staff teach the players the sound basic fundamentals of basketball," he emphasized.

The high scorer for the game was Krista Eshoo with 12 points and four assists. Janet Rzepiela tallied 8 points and had a game high 14 rebounds. Cathy Bratek scored six points. Kris Gotshall scored two baskets from the "3 point range area".

Stacie Jakobi and Shellie Giovannelli each scored a basket. Cathy O'Grady provided one point. Lori Colosi came out of retirement to play a good game defensively. Kathy Lake failed to score but garnered eight rebounds. Jennifer Stevens and Karen Beefink both played aggressively but failed to put the ball thru the hoop. Linda Strauss is on the 30 day injured reserve list because of a knee ligament injury.

Midget's zap Hinsdale

The N.S.Y.A. Falcon Jr. Midget's out scored the Hinsdale Falcons 28 to 0. The Falcon offense was led by Kirk Strauss with 2 TD's, Bob Pozdol, 1 TD, Vince King, 1 TD and 1 extra point, Shawn Parlick, 1 extra point and Adam Marker, a safety.

For the second week in a row, the Jr. Midget defense, coached by Kevin Higgins held their opponents scoreless.

The injury ridden Midget team had a disappointing loss to Hinsdale 18-6. Falcon Backs Biede, Wiltgen and Passanante had a good game but interceptions and a fumble stopped all one of their drives to the end-zone. Before being injured Quarterback David Hancock hooked up with John Karrells on a twenty yard pass play, bringing the ball down to the 7 yard line but a fumble stopped the Falcon threat. Early in the second half, full back Joe Passanante brought the ball down to the 1 yd. line, where Jimmy DeMeo then took it in for the TD.

Although disappointed with the Midget loss, Coaches Biede, DeMeo, and Ruby were very proud of the Midget squad, who never gave up even though injuries left them with only 12 boys to play the entire game.

The Falcon Jr. Pee Wee's traveled to Calumet City to face the Calumet City Eagles.

The first half of the Jr. Pee Wee saw plenty of action with both defenses stopping numerous threats. Falcon tackle Jeff Chupich had 3 Quarterback sacks.

In the 2nd quarter, Quarterback Kevin Shifman ran 1 yd. for the Falcon's first score. Running back, Chris Komo ran in the conversion. Halftime score was Falcons 7, Calumet City 0.

The second half was virtually a carbon copy of the first, with the Falcon's playing an almost flawless game. The offense moved the ball well. Late in the third quarter, Chris Komo scored again, on a 4 yd. run making the final score Falcons 13, Calumet City 0. The Jr. Pee Wee's are now 2 and 0 in league play.

The Pee Wees lost their first game of the season to the Cal City Eagles, 24-13. Falcons were forced to go to the air early in the game. Quarterback Murray, was eight for thirteen on pass completions. Murray had help with the good hands of Tom Stancy. Falcons scored twice with Murray going in on a one-yard quarter-back sneak, and an eight-yard run. Murray's pass to Stancy gave them an extra point. Other good contributing runs were Jason Chupich's two 15 yard kick-off returns and Benny Panke's great 30 yard run. Some bright spots in the game came from the Falcon defense. There were two fumble recoveries by Murray and Jack Feiter. Derek Guld again played excellent defensive end, stopping two extra point tries by the Eagles.

Friday, Oct. 15, has been designated blue and white day, and a number of activities have been planned.

First, at 7:15 to 8 a.m. a pep assembly will be held in the cafe. In charge of the assembly is Ann Joo, who has organized the introduction of team members and captains, a pep band presentation, and cheerleading and Demon Squad routines.

Organizing this is Sharon Biales.

The final Homecoming activity is the Saturday, Oct. 16, dance sponsored by the senior class. Tickets will cost $10 per couple and will be sold during the lunch periods on Oct. 12-15. Access to the student cafeteria will be through the girls' gym entrance only, and no one may enter the dance after 9 p.m. Keep in mind, too, that tickets will not be sold at the door that evening. ## Maine East Concert Planned

As the first month of school draws to a close, everyone at Maine East seems to be getting back into the beat of things. Concert Orchestra and Concert Choir members are no exception to this as the two groups prepare for their first concert.

The concert, scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium, is free to all those wishing to attend.

The Concert Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Jim Hajost, will perform the "Holberg Suite," composed by Edward Grieg; "St. Paul's Suite," composed by Gustav Holst; and a few other pieces, one of which may include members of the beginning and intermediate orchestra.

The Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Jack Olander, will also perform several selections at the Oct. 20 concert.

The two groups may collaborate on a piece, and a newly formed Chamber Orchestra will also perform.

Teaching at Maine East this year is Mr. Hajost's first teaching job. He is a 1974 graduate of Maine West and a 1981 graduate of Northeastern Illinois University, where he received his bachelor's degree in music education. He completed his student teaching at Maine North.

ED HANSON

Be Smart But Wiser

It's The Cardinals in six!
For this is the battle of the beers. It's Budweiser vs. Schlitz. The latter made Milwaukee famous, the former made the word "gusto" renowned. While the Milwaukee Brewers are foaming at the mouth to win the series, it's the Schlitz guys that have the "gusto" and the "cool" plus a better "head" to win.
That's why it's the old gashouse gang, The St. Louis Cardinals, who'll wrap up the World Series in six games or less. And, in my opinion, Budweiser has no peer when it comes to beer.
Neither do the Cardinals when it comes to baseball. It just ain't in the Cards for Milwaukee to win, because they're in the Busch league while the Brewers are in the bush league.

P.S. Next week HANSON'S COLUMN IS BACK IN THE BUGLE. And that's something to "toot" about too!

East Maine students play in Festival Band

Students from Gemini who were selected for this honor include the following: Carla Kraft, Laree Toomer, Lisa Jacobson, Julie Cole, Lisa Rousseau, Sue Shevelenko, John Rozinsky, Jeff Cox, Matt II, Matt Bernstein, Dan Mueller, Jamie Stutzman and James Guglielmo.

Niles North Thespians offer "Idiot's Delight"

The Niles North High School drama department will present "Idiot's Delight," a drama with comic and musical elements, on October 21, 22, and 23 at 8 p.m. According to director Mr. Jerry Proffit, the 1936 Robert Sherwood drama is set in an Italian resort near the Swiss border just before the outbreak of World War II. "The relationships between the characters and their hatred of war but inability to prevent it constitute the substance of the plot," he adds.

Members of the technical crew are Dan Elekman, Ron Becker, Jana Blumberg, Kathy Fritchie, Elyse Arkin, Deanna Taylor, Eric Jacobson, Bonnie Wax, Arell Gottlieb, Ross Berkson, Steve Dicker, Jordan Sigale, Aaron Kushner, and Nancy Sangerman. Costumes include Syndi Zatz, Diane Field, Natasha Prager, Emmy Medina, Diana Samuelson, Lori Statland, Sung Hee Kim and Soo Young Chung, while Andrea Granick, Michelle Tamkin, Bonnie Silverman, Karen Bustamante, and Jackie Broderick are serving on the make-up crew.

Danica Katz, Lara Anderson, Joan Stein, David Morse, Alissa Greenman, Barry Roskin, Susan Sommers and Jami Becker are responsible for advertising, and Aaron Weiss, Aviva Brandt, Jeffrey West, Tracy Paige and Robert Katz are coordinating ticket sales. Jeff Max and Kim Kochman are serving as ushers. ## Young Steinway Concert performer at Skokie library

Violinist Sang Mee Lee, 10, is the first soloist in the new Young Steinway Concert Series of the Skokie Public Library. The concert will be held at 3 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 17 in the library's Petty Auditorium, 5215 Oakton, Skokie. Admission is free.

Sang Mee, of Highland Park, will be performing works by Bach, Bartok and other composers. The program will be similar to that which she played last month as the youngest artist to ever appear as a Dame Myra Hess Memorial Concert soloist at the Chicago Public Library Cultural Center.

The Young Steinway Concert Series will feature six young musical artists - three violinists and three pianists - in concerts from Oct. 17 through June 26. The program includes: Nov. 14, Svetlana Belsky, pianist; Dec. 13, Elissa Barston, violinist; Jan. 9, Darya Khan, pianist; Mar. 13, Dana Prael, pianist; and June 26, Eunice Lee, violinist. Eunice Lee is performing as a soloist in November with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sir George Solti.

The youth series was inspired by the library's acquisition of a Steinway Grand piano through the generosity of the Niles Township Administration. The Skokie Public Library Board of Trustees is sponsoring the youth concert series as a showcase in the development of the young artists' performing talents, just as traditional library materials afford the opportunity for users to expand their activities. Young Sang Mee is indirectly a member of the Skokie Library family. Her mother, Yong In, who serves as her accompanist, is a reference librarian at the Skokie Library.

The young Korean-American girl first performed as a soloist at age 3 in Orchestra Hall and toured Germany with the Suzuki Academy of Performing Arts at age 5. In Chicago, she has soloed with the Chicago Chamber Orchestra, the City Symphony Orchestra, Chicago Businessmen's Orchestra and the Lake Forest Orchestra.

She has made numerous television appearances such as "Phil Donahue Show" and "Good Morning America."

Come prepared to sing a song from a Broadway musical. For more information, call 470-0228 after 3 p.m.

Young Republicans AMVETS installation

Jim Moynihan's bid to unseat congressional incumbent Frank Annunzio (D-11th) received another boost last weekend when the Young Republican Organization of Illinois Board of Governors meeting in downstate Decatur, voted to target the 11th Congressional race. Moynihan's campaign was one of six races in the state targeted by the group. The criteria used in the selection process included the candidate's active support, and friendly relations with, the YROI, as well as the perceived ability of the candidate to win his or her race. Moynihan convinced the YROI Political Action Committee and Board of Governors that he satisfied both requirements. This action entitles Moynihan to as many as 75 experienced YR campaigners who will work in the district this fall on his behalf.

State Senator Robert J. Egan (D-7th) (second from left) served as the main speaker at the recent installation of 1982-83 officers for the Young Republican Organization of Illinois. Campaign Manager Bill Scott commented, "This news is particularly gratifying to Jim and his staff. It will help convince others that the 11th District is winnable."

Lerner receives highest ranking

Judge Jerome Lerner, candidate for retention to Cook County Circuit Court in the Nov. 2 election, has been "highly recommended" by the Judicial Evaluation Committee of the Chicago Bar Association, the evaluation group's highest possible rating. Elected in 1976, Judge Lerner has presided over many major civil jury trials at the Daley Center.

Prior to going on the bench, he practiced law for 25 years and taught numerous law courses as a member of the faculty of Loyola University, Roosevelt University, and North Park College.

He also was a frequent lecturer at legal seminars, an author of articles relating to jury trials, and an instructor in the Adult Evening Division of MON-NAPEP. Lerner is a Cum Laude graduate of Loyola Law School and has been a resident of Skokie since 1954.

IVI endorses Sheffer

Diana Burgess Sheffer, Democratic opponent of Rep. Penny Pullen, was unanimously endorsed by the IVI Independent Precinct Organization. "I am very happy about this unanimous decision because I feel very strongly about my views, which I feel represent the district. The issues here are not really Democrat vs. Republican, but are good government and accountability issues," said Sheffer on receiving the endorsement.

Porter awarded

Rep. John Edward Porter has earned the "Guardian of Small Business" Award—and an endorsement for re-election—from the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) for his outstanding voting record on small-business issues. The nation's largest small-business group presented Porter with the award because he voted with a majority of NFIB members 77 percent of the time.

Two weeks ago we were over at Maine South High School's administration building to hear mostly Park Ridge residents protest their skyrocketing tax bills. Some of the Park Riders said their bills had climbed $1,500 from last year and then proceeded to lash out at the Mayor of Park Ridge for "allowing this to happen". When many of the protesters were told school districts are separate taxing bodies, as are villages, the angry protesters continued airing their frustrations to a school board which has heard this litany many times before. Again, there was such a lack of knowing. People are angry. They know public officials are in between them and their tax bills so they yell furiously at the nearest public official.

In our parents' time most of them didn't get involved. If you were a renter, as many of us were, real estate tax bills were really not a concern. Even though you were paying the taxes through your monthly rental payment, nevertheless, I never heard of parents marching down to school board meetings, let alone PTA meetings. Similarly, how often did you hear of parents marching down to a school concerning changes in curriculum? And when did the past generations protest a school teacher's actions? But today, from shore to shore, citizens are knocking at the doors of all public bodies and asking for more accountability.

There's little doubt today's taxpayers know more. They read more, hear more and see more and thus have more means for contributing. On the other hand, the world is moving so much faster today that the need for knowing has multiplied. And I'm not sure we've really acquired enough knowledge or the right knowledge.

To sit with a group of public officials who admit they know little, or less, than residents protesting their tax bills many months too late, and then exhorting the wrong public boards, makes you realize we all have a knowledge gap which is hurting all of us.

At the Maine High School board meetings in past years the superintendent ran the show. The past boards were greatly influenced by "the sup" who was the professional and was able to dominate meetings. The boards seldom failed to support the guy they were paying $50,000 a year. In hindsight they built Maine North which was a costly mistake. But there was little understanding in 1970 school enrollment was about to go down. Again, this lack of knowing became costly.

When you sit at public board meetings week after week, at all levels, you periodically are aware there is a lack of knowing by the board members. And it extends to the specialists, the attorneys, the planners and the myriad of "experts".

Sunday, we were speaking to a District 63 school teacher who told us her 8th grade classroom is now equipped with a computer. She enthusiastically reported how quickly the students have grasped the many concepts in this new field.

The new knowledge explosion being attacked with computers may keep the younger people abreast of their times. But in our generation we've fallen behind. We just don't know enough.

who defeated Nimrod in the March Republican primary, alleges repeated cases of Nimrod supporters swearing to have circulated petitions they had not circulated.

Among the possible Nimrod supporters being investigated is a Skokie woman, who is a Nimrod family friend, who signed an oath stating she had circulated 18 petition pages. However, when investigators called people whose names appeared on the petitions, they were told numerous other people had actually circulated the petitions.

Among those named as circulators of these 18 petition pages include Nimrod, his wife Inga Nimrod, and their daughter as well as numerous Nimrod friends.

In other instances, up to 400 signatures may have been illegally obtained by Nimrod supporters who lived outside the 28th Senatorial District. State law stipulates that in order to circulate a petition for a candidate, a citizen must be a registered voter in that district.

However, evidence points to at least three Nimrod petition circulators swearing to live at false addresses so election officials would believe they lived within the 28th District when, in fact, they did not.

Illinois law also does not allow a candidate of one party during a primary election to circulate a petition for a candidate of a different party for the general election.

This apparently presented a problem for numerous Nimrod supporters who had circulated petitions for Nimrod when he ran in the Republican primary in March but were prohibited from again helping Nimrod who is now running as an independent candidate for the Taxpayers Independent Party.

However, evidence indicates numerous instances of the same people who circulated petitions in the primary again circulating for Nimrod in the general election, only not signing as the petition circulator.

Investigators are looking into allegations that a Park Ridge woman, who formerly did volunteer work for Nimrod, circulated petitions for Nimrod in July but had her daughter sign as the circulator.

Also, a Des Plaines supporter appears to have also had her daughter swear she was a petition circulator when the daughter had not circulated the petitions. And a Skokie man who circulated petitions may also be questioned for having his son falsely sign as the circulator of petitions.

When questioned by The Bugle, Assistant State's Attorney Chuck Bernadini, who is heading up the Nimrod investigation, refused to answer any questions about the on-going Nimrod petitions investigation.

Laws possibly broken by Nimrod supporters include numerous provisions of the Illinois Election Code. The code specifically addresses itself to possible perjury or fraud committed by those who falsely swear to circulating a petition or anyone attempting to deceive election officials by listing false information.

A more serious crime, conspiracy to commit election fraud, may be considered by the State's Attorney if evidence points to any Nimrod supporters actually having worked in unison while making false statements on petitions.

If found guilty of these crimes, Nimrod staffers could face possible fines and/or imprisonment.

of Aviation agreed to contribute $88,500 towards the system because of its decided advantages to O'Hare Field.

The balance of $88,500, if not approved for payment by the Cook County Board, would have been paid through an assessment of $800 to each of the fire departments of the communities affected by the Doppler system.

The Doppler tornado warning system is expected to be installed and in operation by April 1983.

The system, to be located in Marseilles, Illinois, which serves the Chicago metropolitan area, will give area residents a 22 minute warning when an approaching tornadoes are in the area. Also, the new system will allow forecasters to pinpoint the area of a possible tornado to within two square miles.

The current tornado warning system only has the ability to alert residents of the six county metropolitan area of an approaching tornado without determining which specific areas could be affected.

In a statement issued by the Village of Niles on October 7 the Doppler system was described as being "considerably more accurate in predicting tornadoes than anything we have had in the past and (area) Fire Chiefs feel it will contribute towards the saving of lives in the future."

The auction is sponsored by the Village of Skokie and the Skokie Police Department.

feat of engineering to build a new building on the same site as the old building and then move from the old to the new - and never lose a day of banking business."

While many new concepts have been introduced into the banking business during First National Bank of Skokie's 75 year history, including electronic funds transfers, computer account keeping, automatic tellers and Drive-in banking with two way TV cameras, the basic concept of the Skokie bank hasn't changed throughout the time. The Bank still serves the community by accepting the deposits of local citizens and businesses and making loans to local citizens and businesses.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15 and 16 will be celebrated at the main bank with special events for the gala Diamond Jubilee. The bank's employees will dress in 1907 costumes and a jar full of "Diamonds" will be on display for customers to guess the total number and the closest guesser will be awarded prizes as nice as a TV cassette recorder and on down for fifteen places of prizes. Contest ends Oct. 28.

Artifacts from old Skokie (Niles Center) and pictures of the town from the era when the bank was first founded will be on display. A miniature replica of an early Ford will be shown as well as a Pop Corn machine, Barbershop Quartet and other things which grace the lobby of the 75 year old bank both Friday and Saturday.

Friday afternoon at 5:30, the mayor and local merchants will present their congratulations to the bank to the accompaniment of local band music. Everyone is invited to come on over to the bank and wish it a happy 75th birthday.

already been changed. The $18,000 was originally earmarked for a water main link-up with Niles water system at Waukegan rd. and Georgia dr. Presently, Morton Grove has another link with Niles in the Washington st. area alongside the power lines at the northwest end of the village.

In other actions Monday a resolution was approved authorizing a parade request for Post 134 of the American Legion November 7 commemorating Veterans Day.

Fire Chief Brady reported the Doppler Radar System will not be ready for use until next spring. The County Board just approved the $88,500 expenditure for the new system which will give evidence of tornadoes approaching the area.

The Mobile Eye citizen volunteer group aided police in finding a 4-year-old girl who had wandered off from her residence and was found by the Illinois Bell facility near the forest preserve area.

Trustee Greenberg reported sales tax was up $9,500 for the month of June and $24,000 for the first 6 months of this year.

Trustee Snider reported flu and pneumonia inoculations will be given free of charge this Thursday and Saturday for Seniors over 55 years old at the Senior Citizens room at the village hall. Thursday hours are 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Police and local merchants were commended for their cooperation and efforts in eliminating Tylenol products from drug counters during the recent emergency.

Trustee Youstra reported the new incandescent lights in the Fernald-School area (about 30 lights) are a welcome aid in that area.

Mayor Flickinger proclaimed Thursday, November 18, has been declared the Great American Smoke-Out day. Smokers are asked to give up smoking for 24 hours. Last year 16 million people participated in the "no smoking" day. Five million completed the period without smoking. The program is recommended by the American Cancer Society.

Trustees Cashman and Youstra commented on the number of residents who drive through stop signs. Mayor Flickinger noted with dismay many neighbors can be seen "running" the stop signs. Cashman said he was amazed at the number of residents in the Oriole and Ozark areas ticketed by policemen for the offense. Youstra and Flickinger noted a similar problem in the School st. area. Flickinger said residents "were not using their heads and going through stop signs. Something is going to happen (an accident) and we don't need it", the Mayor commented.

Trustee Joan Dechert reported Tim Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schnell has a feature role in the new Broadway production of "Cats", which is the likely top musical in New York today. She said with so much bad news, it's nice to report about this pleasant news to residents.

suburban superintendents "compared notes" saying they would lose about 40 per cent of state funding without use of the multiplier.

State ADA is also determined by Average Daily Attendance (ADA). The ADA is a per capita amount received for an average of students enrolled at certain times. As student enrollment declines, so does state aid.

Board members also approved the tax levy extension be divided between six funds with an equal percentage of each fund distributed. This would include: Working Cash Fund, $100,000; Operations, Buildings and Maintenance, $1,203,997; Transportation, $335,280; Education, $5,811,000; Torts and Liabilities, $75,000; and the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, $200,000.

A district may borrow from its Working Cash Fund but money must be paid back, according to statute. Some items in school costs may be paid for by more than one fund. Cash on balance in the Working Cash fund is $1,727,798. The District's 1982-83 budget is about $700,000.

Trustee Snider reported flu and pneumonia inoculations will be given free of charge this Thursday and Saturday for Seniors over 55 years old at the Senior Citizens room at the village hall. Thursday hours are 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Police and local merchants were commended for their cooperation and efforts in eliminating Tylenol products from drug counters during the recent emergency.

Trustee Youstra reported the new incandescent lights in the Fernald-School area (about 30 lights) are a welcome aid in that area.

Mayor Flickinger proclaimed Thursday, November 18, has been declared the Great American Smoke-Out day. Smokers are asked to give up smoking for 24 hours. Last year 16 million people participated in the "no smoking" day. Five million completed the period without smoking. The program is recommended by the American Cancer Society.

Trustees Cashman and Youstra commented on the number of residents who drive through stop signs. Mayor Flickinger noted with dismay many neighbors can be seen "running" the stop signs. Cashman said he was amazed at the number of residents in the Oriole and Ozark areas ticketed by policemen for the offense.

Youstra and Flickinger noted a similar problem in the School st. area. Flickinger said residents "were not using their heads and going through stop signs. Something is going to happen (an accident) and we don't need it", the Mayor commented.

Trustee Joan Dechert reported Tim Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schnell has a feature role in the new Broadway production of "Cats", which is the likely top musical in New York today. She said with so much bad news, it's nice to report about this pleasant news to residents.

M.G. Historical Society meeting

The Morton Grove Historical Society will be taken "way back" at its next general meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the public library, 6132 Lincoln ave., Morton Grove, when Professor Jay Wollin, Evanston, presents his talk about the strange case of the frozen mammoth.

Prof. Wollin is a teacher of Earth Science, instructs Geology and Paleontology at Oakton Community College, Niles East Campus in Skokie. His wife is a part-time instructor at the school, teaching History, so Jay has an interest in that subject too.

Another interest is metal detecting, and he has found a fertile field for old beer bottles at what used to be the site of an 1890's beer garden behind the present Morton House in Morton Grove. He came to Morton Grove as a boy in 1952, was graduated from the Morton Grove Elementary School and Niles East. He is a Past President of the Chicago Rocks and Minerals Society and a Past President of the Midwest Federation of Geological Societies.

With such credentials, Prof. Wollin's subject that concerns the scientific mystery about thousands of mammals and mastodons. Frozen alive centuries ago in the wilderness of Siberia and Alaska, should prove out of the ordinary. In his talk, he will explore how it happened, what happened, why it happened and how it may happen again.

The general public is invite to attend this gathering without charge and the evening includes free doorprizes and light refreshments.
