Wags Restaurant seeks zoning okay for Oakton-Milwaukee

by Bob Besser

Niles zoners indicated Monday night they probably will approve a request by Walgreens Drugs to build a Wags Restaurant in front of Oak Mill Mall at the southwest corner of Oakton St. and Milwaukee Ave.

The proposed restaurant was described during Monday night's Niles Zoning Board meeting as a "family-oriented" restaurant offering "popular" priced meals. The 4,100 square foot restaurant will have room for 156 customers offering 24 hour service, seven days a week.

Niles Zoning Commissioners said they could not approve the planned restaurant on Monday night as Walgreens officials did not have a signed letter from the owners of Oak Mill Mall authorizing patrons of the proposed restaurant to drive through the Oak Mill Mall parking lot when approaching the District 63 hires firm to study Gemini flooding

Following executive session at the District 63 board meeting Tuesday night board members approved hiring a consulting firm, North American Waste System, to research work done by LeRoi Dare, architectural engineers for the Gemini School site.

Approximately one year ago a lift station to move water away from Gemini School and corrections to grading were suggested by LeRoi Dare in order to alleviate flooding problems.

Following unseasonal rains last summer and fall, flooding occurred in Gemini's basement causing several thousands dollars damage and necessitating school closing for one day.

Board members hope research will determine if litigation is necessary.

by Bud Besser

Notre Dame high school's Jack Burke leaned a bit too hard on the Niles Park board last week and blew what seemed like a very good deal for the high school.

At an early Monday evening meeting Feb. 28, Niles Park board agreed to spend $8,300 on maintaining Notre Dame's baseball fields and a parking area in exchange for the use of its fields for the coming season. In addition to a $4,500 expenditure for maintaining the fields, the park district would spend $2,000 for grading material and labor and spend $1,500 for screening (crushed stone) for a parking area for cars just south of the service area of the high school on the east side of the 10 acre site. An additional $300 would be spent for wood boards for the back-board maintenance.

When Burke walked out of the meeting, park board officials thought they had an agreement. The next morning Burke called back and said the parking area would have to have an asphalt top which would cost the Niles Park District up to $2,500 more with Notre Dame sharing the total $5,000 cost on a 50-50 basis.

Retirement party set for March 24

Lotz to retire from Leaning Tower YMCA

After presiding over the development of the community's largest recreation facility, one might think of retirement as consisting mostly of rest and relaxation. Not so for M. Marvin Lotz, who has been the Executive Director of Leaning Tower YMCA since it was organized 27 years ago.

"When the Y was invited to come into the community, no one had any idea that things would turn out this way," said Lotz. "Our initial projections as to the size building needed fell short of what was actually necessary to satisfy the community's needs. We built big, but still underestimated the need," he said.

Mary began his YMCA career in Chicago (1944) at the west side Sears YMCA. Between 1947 and 1955 he served YMCAs in Wisconsin. His next assignment was Leaning Tower.

Leaning Tower YMCA was organized in a storefront on Oakton st. in Skokie, in 1955. After three years, the operation was moved to its present location, known as Ilg Park at 6300 W. Touhy ave. in Niles. Ilg Park, site of the world's only replica of the Leaning Tower of Pisa, Italy, was given to the Y as a home for

New system to save $280,000 in 10 years

Niles begins using own telephone system

The Village of Niles will begin using its new village-owned telephone system during the middle of March, reports Mayor Nicholas B. Blase.

The system was purchased from Private Telephone Co. of Elk Grove Village for $120,000 - a figure which is expected to be recouped within three years.

"We were paying the telephone company $40,000 a year for equipment," explains Village Manager Kenneth Scheel. "Over the next 10 years we will save $280,000 - more if you add telephone rate increases."

The new system, which was approved by the Village Board of Trustees last December, was designed by Police Sergeant James Gerhardt, director of communications for Niles.

It includes two Mitel electronic switching consoles at the police department and one at the administration building with off-premise extensions at the fire department, public works and social service facilities.

According to Gerhardt, who spent almost an entire year

Niles extends bus route coverage

The Niles free bus system will begin serving the north Niles area on Monday, March 14. Niles residents will be able to travel to more shopping centers with the introduction of the new bus route.

The thirty minute route will travel from Sears Roebuck in Golf Mill Shopping Center to Four Flags Shopping Center to Venture on Golf rd. to the Golden Acres residential area north of Greenwood and Milwaukee Ave. and back to Sears.

Commenting on the importance of transporting local residents to shopping centers on the free bus system, Niles Village Manager Ken Scheel said Monday, "We've kept our sales tax up while other towns have flattened out or declined." Scheel referred to sales tax as Niles "life-blood".

The new north route, said Scheel, was first tried as a special route during this past Christmas season. Because of its success and the enthusiasm of area residents to the new route, the Niles Village Board approved making the northern route permanent in January.

Scheel said statistics show that one-third of the riders on the Niles free buses are senior citizens and one-third are children.

Additionally, he said the cost to the village for the unique bus system is currently $320,000 annually.

PREVENTING SLIPS, TRIPS, AND FALLS
Everyone has heard examples about the seriousness of slips and falls. They happen suddenly. They're totally unexpected. And the result of a slip or fall can be a painful and possibly permanent injury that could change your entire life.

Falls kill more people each year than any other kind of accident. Most of these accidents result from slips or trips that happen at floor level rather than from high places. About 75% of these slips and trips occur on walking surfaces such as floors, stairs and sidewalks.

A California study showed that three-and-a-half times as many persons were killed in falls as in motor vehicle accidents. Slips and falls can happen almost anywhere and can be caused by a number of things. Trying to catch your balance when you slip, for example, can pull muscles, tear ligaments, and cause permanent damage to your back, even if you avoid falling down.

Most trips, slips and falls are the result of unsure footing, and not exercising caution or keeping alert. They can occur on any surface that is covered with mud, snow, water, oil, ice, grease, or any other slippery substance.

When entering or getting out of a cab, footing stability can be jeopardized. Always face the cab when going in or out, and use the handrails.

Mats, rugs, and runners are also hazardous if they can slip or slide, or are torn, curled up or loose.

Falls can be prevented if we watch our step and use common sense.

Municipal candidates present their views via Cablenet

Cablenet, Inc. will soon begin production on its first public access series, "Candidates Speak Out". The program content contains statements and interviews with candidates for municipal offices in Cablenet franchise communities.

They will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis for 15 minutes of studio time, which will result in 5 minutes of program time. Candidates may present their own statements or bring along a friend to interview them, however, only candidates, not spokespersons for a candidate may appear.

"Candidates Speak Out" will be telecast on Cablenet's access channel five times a week over a two week period preceding the April 12 election. On election day, Cablenet is planning to inaugurate live coverage of the local municipal races featuring up-to-the-minute election results.

BEST FOOT FORWARD
By Dr. Leonard Pock

LOWER LEG CRAMPS
Problem: severe pain and cramping sensation of your calf muscles after walking any distance. An increased demand for arterial blood cannot be met by the narrowed arterial vessels (impaired circulation). With insufficient blood available to the muscles, there is cramping. If untreated, the pain builds until you have to stop walking and rest your muscles.
With advancing years, or in the presence of ailments such as diabetes or arteriosclerosis, blood supply to lower limbs may become impaired. Walking becomes painful; frequent rest stops and shorter distances are called for.
Protection: have your feet regularly examined by your podiatrist to determine your current circulatory status. He or she will be able to evaluate your needs and prescribe appropriate therapy.

Questions regarding any foot problems will be answered promptly if queried by mail.

Holy Family Hospital expansion plans approved

Holy Family Hospital has been granted approval from the Illinois Health Facilities Planning Board (IHFPB) to proceed on its modernization and bed expansion plan designed to meet current community needs.
The hospital obtained final approval on its Certificate of Need (C.O.N.) application which documents the need for the 39-bed expansion and modernization plan at the IHFPB's meeting in Springfield on Friday, March 4. Originally submitted in January 1982, the modified C.O.N. application received nine yes votes and only one no.
"We are grateful to State Board members for recognizing Holy Family's need for additional beds and modernization to meet current needs and projected demands for our services," Sister Patricia Ann added, President, Holy Family Hospital, said.
"The expansion project will enable Holy Family to eliminate the three- and four-bed wards on the nursing units and the use of hallways, lounge areas and classrooms for patient beds," Sister Patricia Ann added.
"There will be many benefits to our patients."
The approved plan uses an incremental approach to meeting current community needs through 1985. One major component includes a 29-bed addition which accounts for 14 percent of the total projected costs. Expansion and modernization of departments and service areas, including the nursing units, is planned.
The project includes the construction of a new three-story building in front of the main hospital facing River Road.

Groundbreaking is scheduled in August 1986.
Holy Family's total number of beds will increase upon project completion from 246 to 285 beds.
In the OB-Gyne. Department, eight of the 14 rooms will be increased in size to accommodate patients in the Rooming-In Program which enables the newborn to be with the mother during the post-partum stay.
The project calls for the elimination of the hospital's 28-bed Pediatric Section, however, Holy Family will continue to care for pediatric patients on the hospital's general nursing units.
In addition, new facilities will be provided for the Ambulatory Surgery Program which is scheduled to begin serving outpatients in April 1983. The project also includes the development of a Day Care Program for infants and toddlers of hospital employees.
Total direct costs for the project are $31,500,000, including construction and renovation of facilities, equipment and furniture. Nearly 75 percent of the total project cost will be financed through hospital equity and a fund raising campaign; 25 percent will be through debt financing.

MG Legion to kick off Hines Blood Mobile
Because of their large donation, the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134, 6140 Dempster, has been selected as the kick-off group for the blood mobile program which the Niles VA Hospital will begin in the spring.
Post commander Roland Kepen has been advised that the Hines bloodmobile will be at the local Legion in April to accept donations not only from the Legionnaires and their families, but villagers who wish to also contribute as well.
He says further information will be forthcoming, but indicates that Post #134 is very proud to have been singled out for this honor.
The Morton Grove Legion recently led the donations with $3,000 for this cause.
The Hines Veterans Administration Hospital will use the mobile unit to travel to various service orientated groups to obtain blood for use at their institutions to aid those confined there.

National Nutrition Month in March
"Say Yes to Less!" is the message thousands of dietitians will promote throughout March 1983 during the 11th annual national campaign for good nutrition and fitness.
Saying yes to less salt, fat and sugar supports recent scientific evidence that too much of the three food ingredients may not be good. Because of the dietary implications, National Nutrition Month advocates will promote the 1983 "Say Yes to Less" theme in an effort to steer the public in a nutritionally-wise direction.
"We're not telling people to eliminate salt, fat, and sugar by any means," says Mary Arnold, a registered dietitian and president of the North Suburban Dietetic Association. "But just to cut back if they consume excessive amounts."
Too much sugar and fat, of course, may lead to obesity and scientists have suggested that large amounts of salt and fat may increase the risk of heart disease.

Svithod Singing Club at EPLC

The Svithod Singing Club under the direction of Mr. John Carlson, Jr., will be making its eighth appearance as guest singers at the Midweek Lenten Service, March 16, Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. at the Edison Park Lutheran Church, 6626 N. Oliphant ave., Chicago. At the Service, the Church's Senior Choir, under the direction of Mr. John K. Christensen, will also be heard.

The Svithod group was formed in 1982 by a small group of singers. The purpose was to carry forth in this country their love of song from their native Sweden. They chose as their name Svithod (pronounced Svi-thee-od) Singing Club and it has carried on with growing success ever since under that banner.

Svithod is a literary word in an historical and poetic sense, adopted from Icelandic and found in many stories in and around the eighth century. The meaning of the word is Icelandic for Sweden. Visitors are cordially invited to be present at this and the remaining Midweek Service on March 23, "A Time For Renewal" featuring the Maine Township South Concert Choir.

Immediately following the Service, a Coffee Hour will be held in the Church Parlors hosted by members of the Church's Luther League.

Actually, no. You've always leased your phone from us, which is a lot like renting. So, if you've had a basic rotary desk phone for 10 years, you've paid about $100 to use it, although you still don't own it.

But now, you can own your phone. And it will cost you much less than leasing, thanks to a plan recently approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission that allows us to stop leasing phones.

In fact, if you buy the phone you already have, it will cost you much less than buying any other phone like it. As little as $11.50.

Details about prices, billing options and returning unwanted phones are coming by mail, so be sure to look for them. And, if you still have questions, please feel free to ask any time.

Pianist featured in Young Steinway Concert

On Sunday, March 13, pianist Dana Piolet, of Aurora, will be the featured artist in the Skokie Public Library's First Young Steinway Concert series. Her concert will begin at 3 p.m. in the Library's Petty Auditorium, 5215 Oakton.

The program will include the works of Bach, Beethoven, Liszt and Chopin. Admission is free.

Piolet is the fifth performer in the new concert series designed as a showcase for young musical artists. On June 26 the last Young Steinway Concert of the series will highlight 12-year-old violinist Eunice Lee of Wilmette.

Piolet is currently a fourth year piano student at the Juilliard School of Music in New York. She has been studying with the world renowned concert pianist Beveridge Webster.

At age 15 she began studying with Saul Dorfman, a famous concert pianist and professor of piano at Roosevelt University's Chicago Musical College. She later won the Rudolph Ganz Memorial Award including a scholarship to study at the Chicago Musical College.

Piolet has appeared twice as soloist with the Fox Valley Youth Orchestra. She spent one summer at the Aspen Music Festival, performing and studying. In 1981 she gave recitals at Aurora College and the Evanston Public Library.

OCC students transform anonymous wall

"Once a mural is up, the wall is no longer anonymous," says mural artist Cynthia Weiss. As visiting artist at OCC/Skokie, she recently helped a class of 30 Humanities 101 students transform a blank wall into a work of art.

"A mural is something people will have to take into consideration. In the best situations people will learn to love it. The images become a part of their day at Oakton."

Located in the basement of the west building near the cafeteria, the mural, entitled "Metamorphosis", represents 11 sessions of class plus considerable extra time over a five-week period. Participating students, members of the Humanities Artists Workshop class of associate professor Leslie Smith, ranged in age from 18 to 60, and most had no art experience.

In the planning stage the students shared disparate ideas - many saying they wanted something concrete and easily recognized.

"I suggested that it was better if everyone can react to it in a different way. Surprisingly, they went for something more abstract and poetic."

The mural's overall theme concerns growth and changes that come about because of education. Colorful, bold images include a bridge which changes into a piano keyboard, the silhouettes of students, the four seasons of a tree, and transformation of animals. Ms. Weiss helped a similar class during spring semester create a mural called "Life Games", also at OCC/Skokie.

Visiting artist Weiss describes herself as a "carpetbagger art teacher". During the school year she works for Urban Gateways, and is also a member of the Chicago Mural Group (since 1976) another non-profit group. The members have contributed to 200 community and neighborhood murals.

She recently completed a mosaic mural on an exterior wall of the Bernard Horwich Center on Touhy Ave., and is involved in plans to do a future mosaic mural for the Mayer Kaplan JCC, Skokie.

She believes her calling may have been inspired by the six years she lived in Mexico, where there are some spectacular outdoor murals.

Park Candidate Glon cites meeting attendance as prerequisite

Raymond Glon, Niles Park Commissioner candidate, was in attendance at the March 7 meeting held at the Sports Complex. Mr. Glon is a regular attendee at Park meetings. Although attendance at these meetings is purely voluntary, Glon stated that attendance by candidates is essential. The workings of the issues facing the Niles Park District gleaned from these meetings cannot be obtained from any other source.

I believe, said Glon, that Niles residents are interested in electing qualified, knowledgeable, and concerned candidates and not candidates known only for their family name or for having had held public office on previous occasions. He went on to say that the sparsity of the other candidates, excluding the two incumbents, as shown by their absence from the meetings does not demonstrate a sincere commitment on their part to serve the Niles Park District residents if elected on April 12.

Tee Ball registration

Tee ball is a fun, introductory program, designed to give boys and girls 6-8 years old, the opportunity to learn the skills of baseball and/or softball.

The first four weeks of the program will consist of instruction for skill sharpening. Teams will then be formed and coaches assigned to each team for controlled games. During these games, play will be stopped in order to emphasize proper team work.

The name "tee ball" is derived from using a standup rubber tee for hitting the ball, thus eliminating pitching in the game. An inning consists of all players from a team batting and then changing sides. This enables everyone a chance to play and get an opportunity to hit the ball.

The program will be held at Gretna Heights on Saturday mornings beginning at 10 a.m. (11 a.m. class also available) with Sunday afternoons for rainouts.

Registration is now being accepted at the Park District office, 7877 Milwaukee ave. in Niles. Resident fee is $12 and includes any child attending a school which serves Niles children. Non-resident registration is $24. Call 967-6633 for information.

Eighth grade students and their parents will attend orientations at Niles North High School throughout March. A special orientation night for parents only is scheduled Wednesday, March 16 at 7:30, and junior high students will visit the school throughout that week with their own classes.

Additionally, the evening orientation is "a tremendous opportunity for parents to become acquainted with their children's counselors and future surroundings."

The Orientation Night activities include a general meeting in the auditorium, followed by group meetings with counselors who will explain the objectives of the school's different curriculum paths to the parents. This will be followed by a question and answer session.

District 67 initiates drama club

This year twenty children from the fourth grade signed up for Drama Club at Hynes School. Miss Mc Govern and Mrs. Kokrda are co-sponsoring the club. Club members meet once a week after school to learn how to use their voices and actions to dramatize skills and plays. Since January, the children have worked in small groups writing and recording commercials, and memorizing and performing short skits. The children criticize their own performances by listening to themselves on tape recorders and watching themselves on video tape.

The children are now preparing to try out for the major play production that the Drama Club will perform for the entire school audience. The play is called Once Upon a Shoe. It is a fast-paced whimsical enactment of several famous Mother Goose tales. Once Upon a Shoe will be presented sometime in late May or early June. Watch for details!

St. Isaac Jogues students learn to 'just' relax

Relaxation, or relieving stress in one's life can be as simple as 'one, two, three'. This is what the Junior High students of St. Isaac Jogues School in Niles found out in a mini-course on stress management.

The course, entitled "Loosening Up", was offered to seventh and eighth graders by St. Isaac Jogues School in cooperation with Niles Family Services and Life Skills Training Associates. The program suggests a three-part skill system for reducing feelings of stress in one's life: 1. Relax the body using exercise and controlled breathing; 2. Relax the mind using realistic thinking; and 3. Prevent ill effects of stress with good eating and sleeping habits.

The program took place in six sessions over a three-week period. It was taught by the Junior High staff of four female teachers each teamed with a male guest instructor. Dr. James Cisek of Niles Family Services consulted on and supervised the program.

The students' responses to the program were very positive. Many believed that the course in "Loosening Up" helped them to become more aware of their reactions to stressful situations and to be able to control those reactions. They claim that they find the skills they've learned to be helpful in many situations.

"Loosening Up" is just one of a three-part program in Life Skills Training. St. Isaac Jogues School also looks forward to presenting "Finding Solutions" to the Junior High Students.

For further information, call the Office of Community Outreach, at 635-1977.

OCC offers SAT tests in talent search

Approximately 600 area sixth graders will take the Standard Aptitude Tests administered at Oakton Community College on March 12 and 13 in the annual Region I North Talent Search, according to Thomas Zimanzl, dean of OCC Learning Cluster V. This year's testing will cover mathematics, verbal and standard written English, Zimanzl noted, a departure from the past emphasis on mathematics.

Oakton is one of three community colleges offering the tests to over 1700 students in a replication of the Johns Hopkins program that is now part of the Illinois Talent Search, explained Sandy Schmulbach, director of the Area Service Center.

Edgar seeks mandatory liability insurance

Sec. of State Jim Edgar announced Tuesday that legislation requiring all Illinois motorists have liability insurance or face mandatory fines and the loss of driving privileges has been introduced in the House.

Edgar said his mandatory insurance program is workable and affordable and "responsibly balances the need to remove the more than one million uninsured vehicles from our roads with the need to judiciously monitor the cost of any new state programs proposed this year."

Edgar said that his approach is similar to that being used in Oregon, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and other states. Following the enactment of Oregon's mandatory insurance law, he said, the number of uninsured vehicles in the state dropped from 14 percent to five percent. That was accomplished without creating a bureaucratic nightmare that cost millions of dollars to administer.

Edgar said his mandatory insurance program, introduced as House Bill 636, is sponsored by Reps. Roger McAuliffe (R-Chicago) and Jim Reilly (R-Jacksonville).

"I look forward to working with members of the legislature to ensure a workable, affordable mandatory insurance program is adopted," Edgar said. "With millions of uninsured motorists on our highways, and the personal injury and property damages running into the tens of millions of dollars, I think this is far too critical an issue to be considered on a partisan basis."

The major points of Edgar's mandatory insurance proposal are:

- Automobile owners would be required to include the name of their insurance company and policy number on their vehicle registration application;

- The Secretary of State's office would have the authority to monitor compliance with the law by verifying a random sample of the policies listed on those applications;
- Failure to comply with the new law would result in a $250 fine and a three-month suspension of driving privileges for the first conviction, $500 fine and a six-month suspension of driving privileges for second and subsequent convictions;
- To reapply for reinstatement following a suspension, the driver must file and maintain proof of insurance.

- Police officers would be authorized to check for proof of coverage any time a vehicle is stopped for a traffic violation. A ticket would be written if no proof is shown;
- Failure to comply with the new law would result in a $250 fine and a three-month suspension of driving privileges for the first conviction, $500 fine and a six-month suspension of driving privileges for second and subsequent convictions;
- To reapply for reinstatement following a suspension, the driver must file and maintain proof of insurance.

Park Commissioners said "they'd been had." Commissioner Jim Pierski said the park district had a deal with Notre Dame's Business Manager Burke when he walked out of the Feb. 28 meeting. "We've been held up," said Pierski, "and he did not act in good faith. We've been had."

Commissioner Dan Kosiba was even more blunt. He said the property was being held for ransom. He noted Niles park district has been "more than generous" in working with Notre Dame. He noted Niles Park taxpayers spent $8,000 for a backstop for Notre Dame. The weight room facilities have been offered to Notre Dame students for a renewed $5 fee which is $10 less than residents pay. And the tennis courts and Oak School field, which have been used by Notre Dame for soccer practice, is for their use at no charge.

Kosiba's expression Niles has been more than generous is indeed modest. The park district has provided a water faucet fountain at Notre Dame and has installed bleachers there.

It's a small matter in this big world of ours but the use of taxpayers' dollars to upgrade a private school comes into question.

The park district felt an obligation to Notre Dame for using their fields. But now since the demands seemed so unreasonable, they've withdrawn their $8,300 worth of help and said the baseball leagues would have to go to the high school for the use of the fields.

Notre Dame had a good thing going. While they got these thousands of dollars of help, they were using Niles park district facilities at no cost to the school. Their tennis players could use the Niles park facilities and their soccer team was able to practice at the Oak School field without paying. The fitness rooms at Grennan Heights, which now cost residents $15 a year, were offered to Notre Dame students for only $5.

Business manager Burke told The Bugle Tuesday the school wants to continue to co-operate with the park district. We don't blame them. Such co-operation has saved the school many thousands of dollars through the years which were paid for by Niles residents' tax dollars.

When we told Burke park officials pointed to the no charge services the park district offers the school, he cited the use of the stadium and the track there as being available to the park people. It has been used rarely.

In the world of important matters this little imbroglio seems like a small matter. But using public park tax dollars for a private school is not a small matter. And bringing this subject out into a public forum means any future dealings in this area will be much more closely scrutinized.

After talking to both Burke and park officials, we received the impression Burke, representing his school's interests, was out to get as good a deal as possible. On the other side of the coin, this park board is very possessive about protecting park interests. It is one public board which seems to have its citizens' best interests at the forefront at all times. They're as protective of its park district as they would be of their own families.

Before somebody might contend there is an anti-Notre Dame bias to the park board's action, all 5 park board members are very active at St. John Brebeuf. Commissioner Kosiba, for one, and sons of the park board members, have been students at Notre Dame. And because of this, their strong feeling "they've been had" seems significant.

We're not trying to make Burke the "heavy" in this matter. But in his desire to get the most for his school, he may have been just a bit too shrewd. Park board members want to take away their $12,000 bleachers and withdraw their annual $8,300 stipend.

Commissioner Elaine Heinen's final salvo Monday night may well sum up the feeling of the entire park board. "Too bad", said Heinen, "we can't take back our $8,000 backstop."

YMCA had grown to a membership of 23,000 with an annual operating budget in excess of 2.4 million dollars...making it the largest single unit YMCA in the world.

Four major additions were constructed since the Y opened, including a second swimming pool, showers, locker rooms, whirlpool, a 160 car parking lot, land for a new proposed fieldhouse and a new entrance/lobby at the north end of the building. Another addition, the largest so far, is expected to get under way this year. It will consist of a fieldhouse with an indoor running track, a second gymnasium, a Cardiovascular Evaluation and Rehabilitation Center, four additional racquetball courts, additional locker rooms and showers, and other facilities.

"I am proud of the progress we have made in providing a major recreational, cultural, and activity center for the community," Lotz said. "I am even more proud of what the future holds as a result of the base that has been created here." The Board of Directors, staff, and the many members who have worked for the success of Leaning Tower YMCA, all share in the excellent position it holds in the community today!"

In addition to his duties as Executive Director of Leaning Tower YMCA, Mary Lotz is District Director for four other north side units, including Lincoln Belmont YMCA, High Ridge YMCA, Park Ridge YMCA and Camp Ravenswood, located near Lake Villa.

A retirement party will be held at the Tower Garden Restaurant, 9925 Gross Point rd., Skokie, on March 24 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are available at Leaning Tower YMCA or by calling 647-8222. The public is invited.

Niles Federal Savings reports record deposits in February

Niles Federal Savings and Loan Association reported $2.5 million deposited in new Money Market accounts during the first three weeks in February, the highest deposit period in its history, according to Aaron R. Deemar, executive vice-president.

22% was "new" money, transferred to Niles Federal from money market funds and other banks and thrifts. Customers have deposited more than $11.4

million since the association's Money Market Association became available on December 14.

Deemar feels that this frequent deposit activity to Niles Federal Savings and other institutions will enhance the availability of funds to Chicago's consumers. Deemar credits the large influx of money to Niles high money market rates and their continued personal service to its customers.

Edison fuel adjustment credits longest since 1969

Commonwealth Edison Company has announced that its customers will again see a fuel adjustment credit on their March bills. This marks the longest continuous fuel adjustment credits the company has realized since early 1969.

This credit, which has occurred for the past six months, will bring the total six-month savings of a typical residential customer using 500 kilowatt-hours to $4.41 in Chicago and $4.23 outside Chicago.

Edison officials attribute the credits to reduced fuel costs made possible by the extensive use of low-cost nuclear fuel.

Coal, which is the company's next most economical fuel, is four to five times as expensive as nuclear fuel, and oil is about 10 times as expensive.

Bank will match customer Easter Seal donations

Customers of the First National Bank of Morton Grove can make their Easter Seal donations go twice as far this year.

The bank will match the pledge of any bank customer who calls Ken Skopec, chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Morton Grove, during the annual Easter Seal telethon on WGN-TV, Channel 9, Sunday, March 27, from 4-5 p.m. at 664-3639.

Skopec, who is serving as president of the Easter Seal Society for 1983, will be accepting calls on the air during that one hour period.

Donations to the Easter Seals will help Chicago-area handicapped children and adults. The Easter Seal rehabilitation projects do not receive any financial support from other charitable organizations or from local agencies or the federal government. The Society depends solely on private contributions from concerned individuals.

Toll-free tax assistance number

J. R. Starkey, Internal Revenue Service District Director for the Chicago District, today reminded Illinois residents that the IRS has a new toll-free taxpayer assistance telephone number. Illinois taxpayers living outside the city of Chicago should now call 1-800-424-1040. Chicago residents should continue to call 435-1040.

The new number will be the same nationwide; however, Illinois calls will continue to be answered out of the Chicago office. Other states will also continue to answer calls on a local level.

Tax assistants will be available to answer questions regarding the filing of Federal tax returns, take forms orders, and handle account related inquiries. Assistance will be available from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Starkey encouraged taxpayers to call during non-peak hours - either early in the morning or during the latter part of the week.

Automobile buyers are now looking to First Federal of Chicago for auto loans since the giant S & L lowered its rates last week on new and used car loans by as much as 30%.

misioners that the proposed business would be expected to take in $28 million during its first year and $35 million during the second.

Walter Teninga, President of Warehouse Club, Inc., said there are a number of similar operations on the west coast. Teninga said all area businesses could become members for $25 per year which would entitle them to purchase goods "cheaper than at K-Mart or Venture."

Additionally, Teninga said individual residents who are government employees or members of credit unions would also qualify for membership. There would be no membership charge for individual residents.

Teninga said it is expected that 60 per cent of the business done at the Niles location would be with small businesses and 40 per cent with individual residents.

Also, Teninga said many purchases small businesses make at the discount warehouse would be tax-free.

Teninga said Niles was chosen as the site for the warehouse because of the large number of small businesses in Niles and surrounding communities.

The 100,000 square foot warehouse would require 549 parking spaces and would eventually employ up to 130 people.

1. We expanded paramedic response services to cover the entire village. Our highly acclaimed professional paramedic teams now continue to be able to bring almost instant help to citizens in crisis, wherever they live in Morton Grove. No longer do people die waiting for rescue because a paramedic ambulance has to wait at the tracks for a train to pass.

2. An exciting new program scheduled to begin April 1 for residents who have specific medical problems, was developed jointly by our Health and Police departments and is being funded completely by a private contribution. This program will involve the distribution of free identification bracelets to all Morton Grove residents who request them. The bracelets will have etched on it the identification number of the resident and the telephone number of the police department. On file at the police department and immediately available 24 hours of every day of the year for use of those who are called upon to deal with medical emergencies will be vital medical information concerning the wearer of the bracelet. Conditions such as heart disease, diabetes, and allergies can be listed to alert medical personnel, particularly when the patient may not be able to offer this information personally.

3. Our blood replacement program assures that Morton Grove residents need not worry about having vital blood supplies always available for them or their families.

4. The new Morton Grove "sniff" ordinance provides penalties for shoppers who tamper with food in our local stores.

Youstra concluded, "My colleagues on the Village Board and on the Action Party ballot, Lew Greenberg and Dick Hohns, are prepared to assure Morton Grove more of the same in our next term in office."

restaurant. Zoning Commissioners urged Walgreens officials to bring such a document, called an easement, to the next zoning meeting planned for April 4.

Walgreens officials, who said the property was purchased "last week" said there would be no problem getting the written authorization in time for the next meeting.

Prior to the Monday night meeting Niles Director of Building and Zoning, Joe Salerno, along with Niles village department heads, had met with Walgreens officials to discuss the proposed restaurant.

Walgreens officials said by the end of the summer there will be 15 Wags Restaurants in the Chicago area.

The proposed Niles restaurant is expected to open by Spring of 1984. Walgreens officials said they expect the restaurant to gross $1 million annually.

In other business the Niles Zoning Board unanimously approved a request by Fred Reichert, 8138 Prospect Ave. to build an open back porch onto the rear of his house.

While Niles zoning codes do not allow buildings to be constructed within forty feet of a rear property line, the zoning board is allowed to approve a ten percent, or four foot, variance.

The commissioners agreed to allow the porch to be built to 36 feet of the rear property line on the condition that the porch never be closed in. Reichert agreed to the Zoning Board's requirements.

Lastly, the Zoning Board agreed to extend until April 4 a zoning petition by George Vergos of Park Ridge to construct a funeral home at 7225 Caldwell Ave.

The Illinois State Scholarship Commission bases its selections on the student's American College Test (ACT) subscores, high school rank at the end of six semesters and good moral character as determined by the high school. Each scholar receives a certificate and the opportunity to apply for the monetary award scholarship at any one of the 200 approved public or private institutions in Illinois.
