Children playing in leaf pile hit by van

Two Niles children escaped serious injury after a delivery van drove through the pile of leaves they had buried themselves in on Friday, October 28. The children, ages 9 and 10, were playing in a pile of leaves in the street at the northwest corner of Monroe and Olcott Sts.

A van described as white with side windows and flowers painted on the side apparently drove through the pile of leaves at 2:40 p.m., slightly injuring both children. The van was reportedly traveling east on Monroe St. Continued on page 30

Bugle Hot Line...

This past week we've received several inquiries from Bugle readers seeking information from their community newspaper. We pride ourselves on the fact that our readers seek our help and we do our best to investigate each and every inquiry we receive.

One lady stopped in the office not only to inform us of an accident that took place last week in Niles involving two young children, but also to ask our help in informing residents of the danger of pushing their leaves into the streets alongside the curbs.

Two children, ages 9 and 10, found a huge pile of leaves appealing and proceeded to bury themselves in the heap. A van driver also found the pile of leaves appealing and drove through the heap, not knowing the children were in the pile. He then sped away evidently, according to police, not even knowing he had run over the children. They were able to run to their homes bleeding and their parents took them to the hospital where they were treated and released.

Fortunately, this potentially disastrous incident turned out happily, but it could have easily gone the other way. Jim Schmidt of Niles Public Works told us that all Niles residents are required to bag their leaves and put them out by the curb for pickup with their garbage. Schmidt said each year Continued on page 30

Warn seniors on misrepresented insurance calls

The Niles Senior Center wants to notify all seniors in Niles that there is an insurance company calling senior citizens for appointments to sell them an insurance policy. They are stating on the phone that they represent the senior citizens of Niles. People have called the center asking if they were sent out by us. This company has no relationship to us and has not received any listings from the center. The senior center is not and never has been involved in soliciting or advertising any insurance company.

We recommend that if any seniors are approached by any insurance company, do not sign any contract or check until you have thoroughly looked over the policy and compared it to other policies available. The senior center has guidelines available of what to look for in supplemental insurance policies. For any questions regarding insurance, you may contact the Niles Senior Center, 967-6100, ext. 376.

Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrikson said on Tuesday that many of the logistical problems encountered at last year's party were overcome this year.

Additionally, Emrikson said Halloween vandalism in the area was minimal.

Brownstein charges Niles Township "victim of rip-off"

North suburban Niles Township, which earned world-wide recognition for its battle against American Nazi leader Frank Colvin's attempt to rally in Skokie, and the Morton Grove gun ordinance, first in the country, is bidding again for headlines as local citizen, Lester Brownstein, assumes the role of 'David' in a historical challenge to the Cook County tax 'Goliath'.

Brownstein, 62, an FDR Democrat in the 1940's, a Reagan Republican in the 1980's, and the Independent candidate for Niles Township Tax Collector in a special election Nov. 8, charges his community is victim of a "billion dollar tax ripoff" by the Cook County tax machine once headed by the late Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley and Niles Township Committeeman Calvin R. Sulker who is also the attorney for the Cook County Forest Preserve District.

At issue is approximately $1 billion in tax collections from Niles Township which have been held in Chicago banks for varying periods of time during the years since former Circuit Court Judge Donald J. O'Brien, a Daley law partner, issued a 1969 injunction which stopped local tax collectors from receiving and disbursing local taxes.

In the case of Peoria County, the Illinois Supreme Court held in 1981, that "the office of Township Collector is in existence de jure" and has the power to collect and disburse taxes, according to Attorney Anthony Spina, who represents suburban townships appealing Judge O'Brien's injunction.

Brownstein charges that local tax collections have been held in downtown banks, earning huge interest payments which are not coming to their rightful owners, while local units of government are forced to borrow to meet their bills.

"I have one estimate which shows we are losing $27,000 per day in interest, enough to buy a new Cadillac every day, says Brownstein. The latest

Assessor Hanrahan replies to Brownstein's remarks

Robert P. Hanrahan, Assessor of Niles Township is listing his replies to Les Brownstein's quotes in recent Niles Township publications from October 20th thru October 28th, 1983.

MR. BROWNSTEIN'S quote #1: "Niles Township has an Assessed Valuation of more than $1 Billion....Not True! Not Accurate! Niles Township has over a billion dollar Equalized Assessed Valuation." Total. Anyone interested in running for the office of Township Collector should be aware of the difference between the Assessed Valuation and the Equalized Assessed Valuation.

MR. BROWNSTEIN'S quote #2: "Niles Township pays more taxes than any other two Townships combined,....Inaccurate and untrue! We do not pay more taxes than any other two Townships combined. Furthermore, Niles Township's homeowners have the advantage of a lowered proportionate share of the tax burden because residential properties are only assessed at 16% of Market Value while Commercial/Industrial properties are assessed at 40%. Since Niles Township has a relatively high percentage of Commercial/Industrial properties the tax burden on residential property owners is greatly reduced.

MR. BROWNSTEIN'S quote #3: "Niles Township is the richest Township in America." This also is not true! Niles Township in 1982 had the highest Equalized Assessed Valuation of the thirty Townships which surround Chicago. In 1983,

NF's sponsors Parenting workshop

Please plan to attend this workshop. It just may help pull you through those difficult years. The cost of this workshop is $10 for Niles residents and $15 for non-Niles residents. However, if the fee is an obstacle, please call Dr. James Cisek for other arrangements.

Hourly wage reduction sparks walkout

350 employees strike Salerno-Megowan in Niles

On Saturday, November 5, from 2-4 p.m. at the Trident Center (8060 Oakton, Niles) the Morton Grove-Niles League of Women Voters invites you to attend the annual membership tea.

This will be an excellent opportunity for prospective and inactive members to discover the opportunities that the League has to offer. Included in the invitations are the new village managers of Niles and Morton Grove and the new library administrator of Niles. Come and welcome these new members of our community and meet the League of Women Voters.

The LWV is a grassroots organization. When an issue is studied, a position is not taken at either state or federal levels without local leagues giving input. State and federal LWV board members are also asked to testify in congressional hearings. Make your views known: join the LWV of MG/N. Membership is open to all citizens 18 years or older. For further information call evans. 698-2536 or 967-9457.

At least eight striking employees of the Salerno-Megowan factory had been arrested by Niles police as of Tuesday.

On Monday, October 24, three employees were arrested when they attempted to prevent a truck from leaving the plant.

According to police records the three employees, which included two women ages 44 and 29 and a 57-year-old man, were arrested after attempting to stop a truck leaving the plant.

Salerno officials notified Niles police that three trucks would leave the plant at 2:30 p.m. The striking employees let two trucks through. The third truck, however, was stopped by the workers who were then arrested.

Police reports note the three workers did everything to the truck from trying to "push it back" to hitting it with an umbrella and removing the gasoline cap.

Nearly 350 employees of Salerno-Megowan, 7777 Caldwell Ave., continue their strike which began October 23. Company and union officials said on Tuesday that negotiations are deadlocked and no date has been set to resume contract talks.

The strike was apparently sparked by a company demand to reduce hourly salaries for certain categories of factory workers. The average reduction called for is between $1.53 to $2.60 an hour. Both company and union officials said this would probably bring many salaries down from near $9 per hour to $6.90 an hour.

Additionally, Salerno-Megowan has insisted on changing certain rules which currently dictate the placement of workers on cookie lines according to seniority. Company officials want a free hand in determining where their employees work.

Courtland Park clean-up crew

At the summers end, the park district show its appreciation by taking the volunteers, seen posing proudly, to Marriott's Great America for a day of fun and excitement.

The Niles Park District congratulates the Golf Mill Homeowners Association on their commitment towards beautifying their park. If any individual or organization is interested in this type of program for their neighborhood park, please contact Tom Lippert, Superintendent of Parks, at 967-5404.

New Oakton sculpture

Silver Oak, Barry Tinsley's newly-installed stainless steel sculpture, reflects natural and man-made surroundings on the Des Plaines campus of Oakton Community College.

Fusing abstract architectural forms and organic shapes, the work mirrors changes of season, light and activity on its highly polished surface. Tinsley conceived a design that would unify the landscape with the massive brick complex that includes the original college building as well as the recent addition.

"I chose stainless steel for this piece because I wanted it to reflect the natural environment - water, grass, snow and surrounding colors," Tinsley said. "An organic, visually active sculpture works well against the massive, simple architecture of the building. There is a nice compatibility between the architecture and the sculpture."

To complete the installation of the five-ton piece, the sculptor, aided by two assistants, equipped with a five-ton crane truck, plasma torch and arc welders, raised the sculpture on its concrete footings and performed the final edging, welding and polishing.

Located on the north side of the building complex, Silver Oaks measures 17 1/2 feet high, 25 feet deep and 42 feet long. A seven-foot extension of the sculpture is attached to the concrete retaining wall beside the man-made lake.

Dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning

by Sec. of State Jim Edgar

Carbon monoxide is poisonous and can cause accidental deaths. Before cold weather sets in, have your vehicle checked for a faulty muffler or leaks in the exhaust system that could allow this deadly gas to seep into your vehicle.

Warning signals of carbon monoxide poisoning are weariness, yawning, dizziness, nausea, headache and ringing in the ears. The only way to fight this gas is to stop the engine and get plenty of fresh air.

Four simple precautions will help avoid carbon monoxide poisoning:

1. Have the exhaust system checked regularly for any leakage.
  2. Leave a window partially open when starting the engine, driving the vehicle, and running the engine while parked.
  3. Do not start your vehicle or warm up the engine in a closed garage.
  4. Do not let children have access to your car keys. Their games often include imitating adults. Pretending to drive the car can have deadly results if a child accidentally turns on the ignition of a vehicle in a closed garage.

Clinics for swimming and non-swimming athletes

The Leaning Tower YMCA is proud to announce a series of clinics for swimming and non-swimming athletes. The first one will be held on Sunday, November 13 from 6:15-7:45 p.m. The purpose of this program is to provide the participants with the opportunity to experience the benefits of water exercise and swimming techniques as a first, second, or third method of continuing in an overall exercise program.

The Clinic will emphasize proper breathing techniques needed to overcome "tiredness" in the water, stretching and aerobic exercises and swimming stroke improvement. Participants will receive training and information to enhance and improve performance in a variety of athletic activities such as running, racquetball, aerobic dancing, tennis, swimming, weight lifting, triathlon, etc. Emphasis will be on the methods of increasing lung capacity to provide a better aerobic effect.

The excellent teaching staff has been coordinated by Vivian Jacobson, a seven year member of the YMCA and also a Water Safety Instructor Trainer for the American Red Cross. Vivian has had extensive experience teaching in the United States and abroad.

Because the Clinic stresses individualized training, the class enrollment will be limited. Prior registration is required at the Leaning Tower YMCA, 6300 W. Touhy, Niles.

Niles Park District's youth league hockey

The 1983/84 ice skating season is under way at the Ballard Sports Complex. With that, the hockey players for the Niles Park District are practicing their skills for the approaching season, and if you are looking for a program that doesn't necessarily accent winning or finishing first, the Youth League Hockey Program could be for you.

Teams are being formed for players aged seven thru seventeen. They will participate in a league from surrounding park districts, which include Park Ridge, Glenview, Northbrook and Skokie. The program runs thru the course of the entire season, from October to March, 1984.

The program offers approximately 25 hours of organized activity with uniforms, coaches and referees for a cost only slightly more than a general admission to our public skating session. The consensus among the coaches is, "We're here to help the players learn the skills and have a good time playing the game. Equal ice time and a chance to play."

This particular program is ideal for new players who have never experienced ice hockey before, or players who have played with the kids outside and have never experienced an organized program. The Niles Park District already has players aged 11-17 who have caught the hockey bug and have come inside to try this program.

Also, if you live in Des Plaines or Morton Grove you can participate as in-district residents for the same price as Niles residents. For more information contact the Ballard Sports Complex at 297-8011.

OCC Harriers win Skokie Spirit Run

Skokie Valley Hospital sponsored its annual 5 Kilometer and 10 kilometer Runs last Sunday under cloudy skies with temperatures in the low 50's. The poor weather and the wet streets couldn't stop the Oakton Harriers from romping the competition in the 5 Kilometer Run.

The overall winner was OCC's sophomore co-captain Jesse De La Fuente who ran with his teammates for the first half of the race and then pulled away to win by six seconds over his freshman teammate Jim Rubey. Another few seconds back were freshmen Tom Polak and Sophomore Chuck Weidenbach. Sophomore co-captain Chris Walsh barely missed placing fifth and ended up in sixth place. Both sophomore Dave Hubbard and freshman Craig Holloway finished among the top twenty finishers.

Freshman Sue Rosenblum finished among the top thirty runners to win her division. This was Rosenblum's second win in three days as she was the top runner in the Skyway Conference on the previous Friday. Fresh Anita Patterson placed third.

St. John Brebeuf Soccer

A outstanding second half of goal keeping by Jonathan Frawley along with Steven Kuhl playing another outstanding game on defense. Also playing well on defense were Danny Michaels and Rick Sheridan.

Illinois Bell bills contain new info page

Illinois Bell customers will see the first effects of Illinois Bell's January first divestiture from American Telephone and Telegraph Co. when they receive their bills dated Oct. 22 and after.

For the next two months, most customers will receive a new billing page with a listing of Illinois Bell numbers to call when they have questions or need service. Information on the new page will replace the two Illinois Bell office numbers previously printed at the top of the bill's first page.

The new Illinois Bell office numbers have been going into effect immediately because many of Illinois Bell's departments have been operating as if the divestiture from AT&T already had taken place. The "practice" period will allow for a smooth transition to a divested operation in January.

For example, during the practice period, customers will call one office to order local service—the telephone line, phone numbers or Custom Calling features. This office will handle the part of the business Illinois Bell will retain.

Customers will call another office about their existing telephone sets and other in-place equipment they now obtain from Illinois Bell on a monthly basis.

This office will handle a side of the business AT&T will have after divestiture.

Others numbers listed on the bills will direct customers to the proper departments for questions on message units, long distance, and other billing and credit matters.

Calls to numbers on the new page will be answered by specialists in basic service, sets and equipment, long distance and other matters. The new page in the bills will help customers quickly locate the office they need to do business with Illinois Bell.

The bills also list the special "Let's Talk" number—1 800-555-5000—for general questions about dealing with the company and other changes caused by Illinois Bell's divestiture AT&T.

Mid-Citco reports record earnings

Mid-Citco Incorporated, which owns The Mid-City National Bank of Chicago and the First National Bank of Morton Grove, reported record earnings for the third quarter and first nine months of 1983, according to Kenneth A. Skopec, president.

Nine months' earnings before security transactions for the period ended September 30, were $987,519—27 percent more than the same period of 1982.

Net earnings after security transactions for the third quarter were $297,519—27 percent more than the same period of 1982.

Mid-Citco Incorporated's assets now exceed $352,974,000, Skopec reported.

W.R. Grace acquires 50% interest in Warehouse Club

W.R. Grace and company, today announced the acquisition of a 50% interest in the Warehouse Club Inc., a privately owned Chicago based company. Terms of the deal were not disclosed. Warehouse Club is a wholesale cash and carry warehouse selling more than 3000 national brands of merchandise from candies to appliances, tires to food items, sporting goods to office supplies and many more categories.

The Warehouse Club was founded by Walter Teninga, formerly vice-chairman and chief financial officer of K-Mart. He will continue to serve as president and chief executive officer.

The Grace interest in the Warehouse Club will be represented by David L. Yunick, presently a director of and consultant to W.R. Grace and Company. He spent 36 years with R.H. Macy and Co. and, at the time of his retirement, was vice chairman of the Board. Mr. Yunick says, Warehouse Club is patterned after a brand new concept in mass merchandising that has emerged in recent years. It has been called the latest and most efficient concept in merchandise distribution by embodying a no-frills, low cost, and low margin operation.

There are two categories of members of the Warehouse Club: wholesale members consisting primarily of small business and professional offices, and group members. Wholesale members can save up to 50% on merchandise after paying a modest membership fee. Group members pay no membership fee and purchase at 5% above posted wholesale prices. Group members qualify if they are employees of utilities, realtors, government agencies, hospitals, financial institutions, public transportation companies and agencies, schools, fire and police departments. Also all retirees of the above.

Warehouse Club presently operates one 100,000 sq. ft. warehouse in the metropolitan Chicago. There are plans currently in the works for three new warehouse operations to be opened within the next year in the initial phase of expansion.

In commenting on Grace's acquisition, Walter Teninga says, "We are happy with the confidence Grace has shown by its investment and plan to use the strength of the new affiliation for more aggressive growth in the future."

Grace's retail interests include Bernans The Leather Experts store; J.B. Robinson Jeweler; Sheplers Western Wear; Herman World of Sporting Goods; The Home Centers Division which includes Angels, Casaway, Chamell, Handy City, Handi Dan, House Works and Orchard Supply Hardware.

Last month, on September 15, Grace announced it was considering the public sale of up to 40% of Herman's World of Sporting goods.

Commonwealth Edison's Consumer Participation Fund

Commonwealth Edison's Consumer Participation Fund, which will pay up $100 toward the electricity bills of customers who qualify, began operating November 2, the company announced.

A basic fund of $250,000 has been set up by Edison to be administered by the Salvation Army throughout the company's northern Illinois service territory.

In addition, monthly electricity bills issued through December 2 will inform customers of the program and ask them to "check a vote for generosity" by casting a special box on the bill. For each customer who checks the box, Edison will add another dollar to the fund—at no direct cost to the customer.

The Salvation Army expects to begin reviewing applications for assistance in mid-November.

"If most of our three million customers signal their approval, the Consumer Participation Fund could be the largest utility-sponsored assistance program in the country," according to Edison Chairman and President James J. O'Connor. "However, the only opportunity to participate is by marking the bills issued between November 2 and December 2." O'Connor cautioned.

A customer is eligible for assistance if he or she... 1. Is a residential customer of Commonwealth Edison. 2. Have an outstanding electricity bill. 3. Have not received funds for paying an electric bill from the Illinois Home Energy Assistance Program (IHEAP) during the past 12 months. 4. Have not received funds from the Consumer Participation Fund during the past 12 months. 5. Do not have income level that exceeds the federally determined poverty level.

The Salvation Army will accept and review applications on a first-come, first-served basis. The program will continue as long as funds are available.

"The Consumer Participation Fund is not a long-term solution," O'Connor pointed out. "We have been urging the Illinois General Assembly to enact a permanent program, perhaps using utility taxes, to help those in need."

Hospital Board elects officers

All officers of the Board serving with Mr. Sommer have also been re-elected for a one-year term. They include: Norman H. Dahl, Downers Grove, executive administrator of the Lions of Illinois Foundation, 1st vice president; Frederick A. Luecker, Evanston, a retired Illinois Bell executive, 2nd vice president; Vaino E. Laine, Northbrook, partner, Laine, Eichelberg & Co., certified public accountants in Evanston, treasurer; Edward A. Gulliksen, Park Ridge, president of Thomas Organ Studios in Niles, assistant treasurer; Elmer E. Abrahamson, a Chicago attorney, secretary and counsel.

Centel launches repair offer on telephones customers own

Telephone customers who own their own phones, regardless of where the equipment was purchased, may now take advantage of a new repair option announced today by Central Telephone Company of Illinois (Centel).

"To provide new service for the residential and single-line business customers who are purchasing telephones they have been leasing from us, we are introducing a dependable, affordable repair program to cover many of the phones our customers own," said Monique Diso, assistant manager of customer services for Centel in Des Plaines.

"For each phone covered under this new program, we now will provide repair service for a flat monthly charge of only 50 cents," she explained. "Our customers are receiving a detailed explanation of how this program works, along with a sign-up card, in the telephone bills they will be receiving in October and November."

"Basically, there are four categories of phones that can be covered under this offer. In addition, for those who sign up for coverage by Dec. 31, we will waive a $15 sign-up charge."

The elements of the new optional plan from Centel include the following details: Touch-Call and rotary dial phones purchased from Centel, as well as from other sources, may be covered under the plan if they are desk or wall models that fall into one of four categories: 1) standard sets, 2) Contempra phones, 3) 2-line simple phones and 4) Trendline instruments.

The 50-cent monthly charge per phone covers service-affecting repairs, such as no dial tone, static and "Can't dial out" conditions. Customers can avoid paying a $15 sign-up charge by applying for coverage under the new repair program on or before Dec. 31. The low flat monthly rate for this service is based on customers returning phones that need repair (and which are covered under the program) to any of Centel's Pick-a-Phone or other drop-off locations. If requested, Centel will dispatch a repairperson to a customer's premises, but a charge of up to $20 will be made for the person's service call. Cosmetic or non-service-affecting repairs are not covered by Centel's new monthly flat-rate repair program. However, such repairs are available at Pick-a-Phone Center locations for charges based on the time and material for completing the particular repair work required.

Diso noted that even when customers do not sign up to cover the phones that qualify for coverage under the program, Centel will repair the equipment for charges based on the time and material needed to complete the repair work required. She added that when possible, the company also will repair equipment not eligible for coverage under the new program, on the same kind of time and material basis.

The Centel locations where phones can be returned for repair include the following: in Des Plaines, 767 Pearson St., 204 Miner St., and 301 W. Oakton St.; in Park Ridge, the rear of the building at 36 S. Fairview ave. These locations include drop-off provisions so that forms can be filled out and dropped off with phones outside of regular Centel business hours.

Diso added that as of the end of Sept., nearly 70 percent of eligible Centel customers in Illinois had responded to the company's Customer Ownership Program. In that response, more than 85 percent of the telephones those customers were leasing from Centel had been purchased.

SCHOOL NEWS

SIJ students programmed for success

St. Isaac Jogues Catholic School in Niles provides its students with an unusual opportunity in computer technology. As of this September, children from first through eighth grades are learning about and working with computers as an integral part of the school curriculum.

First to third grade pupils will use available programs to assist them in spelling and other traditional subjects. Fourth graders will do the same and, in addition, use typewriters to familiarize themselves with the computer keyboard. Fifth and sixth graders will learn computer language and get practical experience in operating a computer while using pre-programmed software. Junior high students will learn how to create their own programs and will be encouraged to compose tutorials, learning games, and other instructive materials for the primary grades.

The Computer Learning Center, when in full operation, will have ten or more Atari 400 and 800 computers, color monitors, and disk and cassette storage units. One mathematics class per week is devoted entirely to computer training. Outside supervised lab time for individual practice is also available.

Fire Prevention Week assemblies

Mark Twain School, in conjunction with the North Maine Fire Department, conducted Fire Prevention Week assemblies on October 6th and 7th.

Lieutenant Farberman and firefighters Spunk presented a series of grade level programs for the children of the school. The primary grades (K-3) viewed the film entitled "A View of Prevention" and then had a chance to both answer and ask questions of the firemen. The intermediate grades (4-6) saw the film "Learn not to burn" and an animated film entitled "Hot Stuff" which emphasized that fire must be controlled, as well as having the opportunity to ask questions.

The teachers and students of Mark Twain School express their gratitude to the North Maine Fire Department for the excellent presentations on fire prevention and safety.

Fire safety at Melzer School

The Melzer School Kindergarten class and the Mopet I classes emphasized Fire Prevention Week by inviting Lt. Hildebrandt of the Morton Grove Fire Department to their classroom. Lt. Hildebrandt discussed with the children safety measures they can take in their homes. The fire department also sent a fire truck to the school which the students were able to see first hand.

The children received fire prevention coloring books and other literature to share with their families at home. During the week, the class also practiced the "Drop and Roll" safety procedure and made fireman's hats.

Arrangements for this activity were made by Kathleen Landin, the kindergarten teacher.

Melzer School is located at 9400 N. Oriole ave., Morton Grove and is one of the five elementary schools in East Maine School District 63.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Nilesite patiently waiting for Cablevision

Dear Editor:

Mr. Jan Paulis' complaints about Cablevision in the October 20 Bugle are further proof that village officials perpetrated a giant fiasco when they chose to ignore our cable committee's recommendation to sign with Cablenet in favor of grabbing Cablevision's flashing greenbacks.

At least Mr. Paulis has the choice to take cable or leave it. There still are plenty of us in Niles who don't have access; nor does it seem likely we will have access for many months to come.

What we do have is a lot of empty promises, alibis and some hilarious stories to share about this languid outfit.

For instance, there is the time last spring Cablevision sent out a mailing urging us to call now and get free installation. So, many of us did. And you know what happened?

At first, the people who answered the number we were instructed to call didn't know what we were talking about. Then when the installer came to our homes, all he could do is tell us what we already knew...he couldn't install cable because the main truck line hadn't been installed.

We asked when that will happen. "It looks like a long way off," the installer said. "Not so," said Cablevision officials. "Not so," said Angelo Marcheschi. "Niles will be wired by June 1," said another Cablevision official.

In July the official said it would be sometime in August. In October they said it will be November 1. We said it won't happen until next spring or summer. "Not so," said the cable official. "Not so," said Mr. Marcheschi, "I won't let it drag on that long."

In the meantime, November 1 will have come and gone by the time this letter is considered for publishing and nothing has happened. A Cablevision employee told me just two weeks ago that our neighborhood has a long time to wait. Officials blame the delay on getting easement rights from Krillich, MGM and individual homeowners. Yet, we know of no one who has ever been contacted for permission to install wires.

Call Cablevision 20 times and I will bet you will get 20 different answers to the same question.

Cablevision said November 1. But they didn't say what year.

Backroom offers a $2.95 daily dinner special

by Ed Hanson

As an anniversary sale special, the Backroom, of the Hi-Way Club, 7620 N. Milwaukee, (across from the Niles Village Hall) is featuring dinner specials each night seven nights per week that will consist of the following: Chicken, Hungarian goulash, liver and onions, meat loaf, perch, turkey, spaghetti.

These dinner prices include soup or salad and bread and butter. Because of these super low prices, there will be no carryouts.

Each night, Nilesites and area folks can order one of the aforementioned dinner specials, which will be listed on their menu for only $2.95, at the well-known Backroom of the Hi-Way Club.

In case you'd like to know which special $2.95 dinner is featured on the night you and your family would like to dine out just call 965-9810. They will inform you what specific dinner special is available on that particular night.

If you can get a better special elsewhere, at a better price, I suggest you go there. Where "There" would be, I haven't the foggiest idea. For nowhere, quality and price being equal, can you or anyone else discover a place where you can better this deal.

For The Backroom, and the lady who runs the place wouldn't offer any foods to you that she wouldn't serve in her own home. And, this same lady, I might add, has been the guest of two Presidents of the United States, (both Ford and Carter) at the White House, and she knows gourmet foods just as well as those high priced executive chefs who prepare the finest of cuisine for the Presidents and their families as well as dignitaries and heads of State from many foreign nations. (I have the pictures to prove it.)

"Cinderella" magic sparkles on Marillac stage

The "Once upon a..." Marillac High School stage will come alive in a mythical kingdom waded over by fairy wands as "Cinderella," the sooty faced about-to-become Princess does kitchen chores the weekend of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 18, 19 and 20 in her "stepmother's" Northfield home. The musical begins at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday 2 p.m., Sunday.

Marillac's rendition of "Cinderella" is double-casted with Cinderella played by Betsyanne Rossa and Lizette White, both of Northbrook and the prince, played by Notre Dame High School's Colin Quinn, Glenview and Loyola Academy's Ed O'Malley, Chicago. They sing the duet, "Do I Love You Because You're Beautiful?"

The two stepmother uglies who sing "Step-sister Lament" are: Lynee Alves, Mt. Prospect; Laurie Wozny, Northbrook; Maureen Durava, Niles and Julie Notaro, Niles.

A "boonable" Stepmother, played by Donna McCune, Arlington Heights and Kathy O'Donnell, Glenview is offset by the sweetly senile Godmother played by Liz Sculer, Glenview and Rachel Durkin, Niles.

The King roles, played by Loyola Academy's Brendon Cullinan, Glenview and Notre Dame's Mike McVilly, Niles are supported by additional male cast members from Notre Dame: Dave McCune, Arlington Heights; Tim Yehl, Des Plaines; Louis Martinez, Morton Grove; and from Loyola Academy: Dave Johnson, Glenview; Steve Johnson, Northbrook; Doug Stone, Lincolnshire and Mark Pasquesi, Glenview. The Queen is played by Christina Trainer, Morton Grove and Patricia Gould, Northbrook. Tickets at $4 are available through Marillac by visiting the school or calling 446-9106.

BEARS ARE UNBEARABLE

Last Sunday's game against the Detroit Lions was a replay of their first game two weeks ago in Detroit. Two weeks ago the score in Detroit was: Lions 31, Bears 17. At Payton Place, last Sunday the score, Lions 38, Bears 17.

No wonder that sly fox, a guy called "Sy" at Go-To-Blases bar, offered to bet me 50 bucks even which I took because the Bears were 3 point favorites.

Ditka was supposed to make the Bears rise from obscurity, instead, he's got 'em headed for oblivion. The Bears not only make the same mistakes each week—they also discover new mistakes to make each week. The Bears are even giving failure a bad name. In fact, for years, the Bears have been unknown failures—NOW they're known failures.

The Bears have developed the "knack" of starting each season at the bottom, and this season of staying there!

The only way Ditka can make more money with the Bears is by selling advertising messages on the back of their jerseys.

From now on I'll "Say never ever again" when it comes to bettin' on the Bears. I wouldn't even bet 'em with 'Sy's' money or YOURS.

Northwest Art Guilds group formed

A need for unity among the art leagues and guilds of the northwest suburban area has finally been met. The Association of Northwest Art Guilds was formed a year ago. The purpose of this group is to further the appreciation of the fine arts being produced in our area and to promote unity among the individual art guilds. This is the brain child of Judy Quinn of Elk Grove, who first put her inspiration into action.

The recently chartered group meets monthly and has among its ambitious plans an annual art exhibition of the finest works of the northwestern suburban artists. The show will be limited to painting and drawing and is not to be construed as an art fair. This will be a juried show. The date and location to be decided later. Regular art fairs are also being considered along with scholarships that will be available to aspiring students. The group meetings are held on the 2nd Monday of each month. Visitors are most welcome.

Among the guilds who already are members are: Addison, Arlington Heights, Bensenville, Des Plaines, Elk Grove, Glenview, Morton Grove, Mt. Prospect, Niles/Park Ridge, and Skokie.

For additional information, calls are being taken by George De Fotis, 956-0876, and Shirley Smithson, 823-5384.

Going to Miami? Here's a few good tips!

The area you select in Miami Beach can make a big difference in your vacation. For example, an Oceanside Resort with a big beautiful beach could cost you the same as one without. And even some of these are in better areas than others...places where there is a lot of nearby activity, and more to see and do—Good Shows...Fine Restaurants...Great Shopping, etc. In addition, some luxury Resorts have more reasonable rates plus many extras...such as Free Tennis...Free Golf...Round-the-Clock Entertainment...Fishing and Boating and there's lots more. Two of these better oceanfront resorts in Miami Beach are the Beach Village and the Sahara. For information and brochures on these vacation values,

School history unfolds at Melzer School

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the enactment of Illinois School attendance laws in 1883 and a century of progress in education. There is a four-month celebration whose theme is "Education is Everyone's Future."

Melzer School held its first activity on Friday, Oct. 7. Two teachers, Mrs. Bernice DuMez and Mrs. Viola Stanton spoke to the students at this Morton Grove School.

Mrs. DuMez recalled her early years as a young child attending a one room school. This school was in rural Montana near the Canadian border. Children traveled several miles to school and the use of horses was still common then. Mrs. DuMez pointed out that there was a barn on the school grounds where the students kept their horses. There were also two outhouses on the grounds for use by 25 students in grades one through eight. They were taught all subjects by one teacher who used the older children to help the younger ones. All students ate lunch in school.

The sack lunches from home were supplemented by some kind of hot dish brought by various families. After lunch the children would go outside and play just as they do today.

Mrs. Stanton told the children of her early years as a teacher in District #63. It was September of 1955 when the superintendent Emma S. Melzer hired Viola Stanton as a teacher. At this time the district had two operating schools, Oak and Ballard. Melzer school, still unnamed, was under construction and the district was renting space in an unused school on the grounds of a children's home. Mrs. Stanton's first assignment was at the children's home which was called the "branch" by district personnel. Two years later Mrs. Stanton moved to the classroom she now uses at Melzer School. These were the days of growth; growth so rapid that the district was building and opening one school per year. Melzer and the other schools were also growing, and the district purchased several mobile classrooms for the various elementary schools. Mrs. Stanton told the children that at one time Melzer had nearly 900 students.

SIJ students take awards in Res Math contest

Nineteen schools participated in the Math Contest sponsored by the Math Club of Resurrection High School on Saturday Oct. 22. St. Isaac Jogues' eighth graders took first place in the team score with 198 of a possible 225 points. Students from Our Lady of Ransom took second place with 192 points and St. Robert Bellarmine students took third place with 191 points. Trophies were awarded to the students of the three schools.

Scoring the highest on the test was Joy Vallestro of St. Isaac Jogues School. Joy received a $75 scholarship to Resurrection High School. Mollie Dajani, also from St. Isaac Jogues, took second place and received a $50 scholarship. Third place went to Laura Donzelli from Our Lady of Ransom. Laura received a $25 scholarship to Resurrection.

Children's Book Week 1983

The Children's Book Council and the Niles Public Library District think that National Children's Book Week, November 14-20 is a perfect time for a family trip to the library. Children and their parents can celebrate 1983 Children's Book Week, when you "Get into Books" at your local library.

Family fun begins at the Main Library, Wednesday evening, November 16 at 7 p.m. with Mary Lou and her Giant Talking Song Book. Mary Lou will delight you with the folk lore, music and instruments of Pioneer America.

The Battle of the Books, a reading competition for children in grades 4-8 begins during Children's Book Week with the Children's Book Week and their parents at the Academy, 1100 N. Laramie, Wilmette, on Thursday evening, Nov. 10, at 7 p.m.

Rev. Lawrence Reuter, president and Dr. Bernard Bouillette, headmaster will welcome prospective students and their parents.

Academy students will lead tours in all academic departments. They will also demonstrate the equipment in the Computer Center, science labs, and the audio-visual department. Information on athletic programs and non-athletic extracurricular activities will be available from the faculty and staff.

Further information may be obtained by calling 256-1100.

Other Hand...

Residents who push their leaves into the street cost the village thousands of dollars by taking Public Works crews off other projects and forcing them to pick up the leaves piled by curbsides. The sewers get clogged and the wet leaves blow into the street causing hazardous driving situations for vehicles. The attraction of the piles to neighborhood children adds one more problem to the situation.

A resident of St. Andrew's Home for the Aged in Niles contacted The Bugle seeking information on a rumor they had heard about the closing of the Social Security branch office in Des Plaines. The lady told us she was now able to take the bus to the Des Plaines office to get help with their Social Security and Medicare bills, but if the office moves to Mt. Prospect as rumored, they don't have cars and bus transportation is not available. Jim Shaffer of the Social Security office told us that a letter was sent to all village mayors and presidents and congressmen in the north-west area served by the Des Plaines office just to get feedback from them on the importance of the Social Security branch office in Des Plaines. Shaffer reiterated that "nothing firm" was being decided at this time and the study was initiated because of the economy and also because of the use of Social Security's teleservice center when people do have inquiries. Shaffer said more people use the telephone to get their questions answered than go into the branch offices and the government is looking into the overall operating cost of keeping these small branch offices open. Again, he said, nothing will be done without taking in all of the positive aspects of having a branch office in this area and if you have any feelings,

BEST FOOT FORWARD
By Dr. Leonard Pook
OVERWEIGHT AND YOUR FEET

About 120 percent of your body weight is transmitted through your heel each time it hits the ground. Overweight adds to this foot abuse, and may cause painful foot problems. You may walk unsteadily or unevenly. Muscles become fatigued. Bones change shape and joints may be thrown out of kilter. This may lead to "wear-and-tear" arthritis, often one of the problems of overweight.

Discuss any foot problems or postural defects with your podiatrist. Often an orthotic device (foot appliance, shoe insert, plate, mold or even arch support) prescribed and designed especially for your feet after a thorough biomechanical exam, will provide normal function for your feet and legs to help maintain the anatomical angular relationships between segments of each foot and leg, and distribute weight more evenly.

The Bugle reported a house fire in Niles last week in which 3 persons were able to escape with their lives because one of them awakened during the blaze and alerted the others so they could escape the inferno. While these people did have a smoke detector in the house, the battery had been removed from the device. Had the device been functional, they would have been alerted as soon as the smoke thickened. Fortunately, this story also ended without the loss of lives, but had the one young man not awakened, there would have been three fatalities. Get smoke detectors for your home! They are available at the Niles Village Hall and the Niles Fire Department for $9 each. The Morton Grove Fire Department also has Code One smoke detectors for $10 each. If you already have detectors in your homes, replace the batteries immediately as soon as they begin beeping. One night's delay may be too much. If you care about your families and your homes, the fire departments can't do enough to emphasize the importance of these devices.

Bill Hughes, Niles Park District Director, told us that Congressman Sid Yates' office has announced the Corps of Engineers will begin cleaning up the North Branch of the Chicago River where it flows through the Tam golf course area between Howard Street and Caldwell Avenue in Niles. There has been a great deal of bank erosion and flooding caused by obstructions in the river and it is hoped this cleanup will prevent the golf course from becoming "Lake Tam" every time we have a heavy rain.

Another Bugle reader appealed to us to inform motorcycle riders to wear helmets for safety. She noted two teens were involved in a motorcycle accident on Olcott in Niles two weeks ago and neither was wearing a helmet. Both young people were injured, one severely. While we explained to the caller that Illinois state law only requires that cycle riders wear protective eyeglasses and keep their headlights on, we agree that helmets are most imperative to prevent head injuries which are the main cause of death in motorcycle accidents. And while there is no compulsory law requiring cyclists to wear helmets, there is no substitute for common sense, both in the use of helmets and in the use of smoke detectors in homes.

however the figures just received from the Cook County Clerk's office indicate that Niles Township is now second to Elk Grove Village, N.B. 1982 Equalized Assessed Valuation is reported in 1983. These figures were obtained this week from the Cook County Clerk's office. It is surely inaccurate to say that Niles Township is the highest in the County, let alone in the Country.

Salerno arrests... Salerno negotiations...

All three employees were charged with disorderly conduct and released after posting bond. A December court date was set for each of them.

In a second incident on Thursday, October 27, Niles police arrested two Salerno employees who were seen damaging a fence around the company property.

Arrested were two men, ages 27 and 42, who were observed bending a 15 to 18 foot section of fence.

At the Niles Police Department one of the men was charged with criminal damage to property and the other with disorderly conduct. They were assigned December court dates and released after posting bond.

Additionally, police cars from Niles, Morton Grove and the Cook County Sheriff were called to the factory on Monday, October 31, where about fifty employees and employees leaving the factory.

Niles police officials said the show of force by police calmed the crowd which then allowed the trucks to pass.

The strike follows six weeks of sporadic negotiations.

Officials claim the cookie company is in "serious" financial trouble and they have tried to make union officials understand this is the reason for the proposed pay reductions.

"We have been very open and very honest with the union in regard to the financial situation of the company," said Salerno president Arthur Murray on Tuesday. "We've opened the books (to the union) to convince them of our very serious problems."

Max Hill, president of the striking Bakery and Confectionary Workers local said on Tuesday that the company demands are impossible for the union to accept. Hill said it is "almost impossible to get any workers in their right mind" to accept this pay cut. "The people are fighting for their jobs," insisted Hill.

Since the onset of the strike, teamster truck drivers have not honored the picket lines set up outside the factory. However, Hill said, he expects a decision by the Teamsters by Friday, which he hopes will prevent deliveries to the company.

In the meantime, the company is still operating using administrative and clerical workers to work on the cookie lines to assure continued production.

Salerno president Murray also noted that a prolonged strike could bring about the closing of the Niles plant which is the only Salerno factory in the country.

While admitting that the permanent closing of the plant is "a very real possibility," Murray added, "I would hope that nothing like that would happen."

Commenting on the possibility of the local factory closing, Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase said that threat may well be a negotiating tool.

Blase added that the impact on Niles of such a closing would be minimal since "the industrial base of this community is so spread out."

purifiers, health education programs, preventive and cosmetic dentistry, structural body work, natural yogurt, aerobics, fashions by Fantasy Island, Aloe Vera products, nutritional weight loss products and many many more. Also presented were Seminars and Lectures all offered free to the public.

Volunteers from community organizations, such as the American Legion, Lincolnwood Men's Club, Lincolnwood Senior Citizens Club and other non-profit groups assisted the Chamber in the registration, making this Fair another successful endeavor.

Diabetes...

many people are not yet aware of it. Diabetes can be an underlying factor in heart disease, kidney disease and blindness, but when detected early and controlled, diabetes can lead long and normal lives.

Diabetes occurs most often (but not only) in these groups: people with diabetic blood relatives; people over 45 years of age; and people who are overweight.

Although symptoms may not be present in the early stages of diabetes, one or more of these symptoms may suggest the need for a blood sugar test: frequent urination, excessive thirst, extreme hunger, rapid weight loss, drowsiness, easy tiring, general weakness, blurred vision or change in vision, skin infections or slow healing of cuts and scratches.

Known diabetics should not take the screening test for no new information will be forthcoming. However, the Skokie Health Department has 3 free books for diabetics which will be informative about their condition: "Don't Be Afraid of Diabetes" and "Understanding Your Diabetes".

There is also "Meal Planning with Exchange Lists" for those preparing meals for a diabetic. Public Health nurses are also able to teach new diabetics how to give themselves insulin if that is the method recommended.

Brownstein...

newspaper stories by County Treasurer Edward Rosewell about a new computer system is just another alibi for the County's hand in our pocket."

The office Brownstein seeks has been described as a "non-office" a term he calls "solvent," "smokescreen to obscure the staggering losses we are suffering every year on account of Judge O'Brien's ruling."

He says the attempt by the local Democrat machine to install school Board, PTA leader Betty Petrocki without an election, "is nothing more than an attempt to hide the importance of this office behind a facade of 'respectability', while continuing to bilk the community of millions of dollars in interest which is rightfully due it."

Niles is the richest township in America, with an assessed valuation of more than one billion dollars, said Brownstein, and we pay more taxes than any other two townships combined." He pointed out that the total assessment of the County, according to Tax Board Commissioner Patrick Quinn, is $18.6 billion, of which $7.9 billion is in the City of Chicago and $10.7 billion is in the suburbs.

"Prior to Judge O'Brien's 1969 ruling, the local tax collector received payments at the Niles Township Administration building, deposited the money in local banks and made disbursements to local taxing bodies within days," Brownstein said.

"Under Judge O'Brien's ruling, this year alone, more than $90 million in local taxes was drained out of the township, and local taxing bodies are still trying to get much of their money."

"Local banks are being deprived of the tax deposits, but are still expected to come up with the cash for Tax Anticipation Warrants which local bodies use just to stay solvent," Brownstein added.

Brownstein charged the O'Brien appeal has been "kicked around in Cook County courts for years" to prevent it coming before the Illinois Supreme Court, which he says "will dissolve the injunction and return the power to collect local taxes to local officials where it belongs."

Children hit...

when it turned north onto Olcott St. striking the children who were buried in leaves.

Police officials speculated on Tuesday that the driver of the van may not have been aware that he had struck the children.

The children, who live in the 8300 block of Olcott St., ran home and their parents took them to local hospitals. No fire department paramedics were called.

Police officials said the children were treated and released from the hospitals the same day.

Niles Police later brought the children to different local florist shops, however, the children were unable to identify the van which struck them.

Niles Police Lt. Ray Giovannelli, chief of detectives, said on Tuesday that first time offenders convicted of felony theft are usually placed on an extended period of probation and often a court-ordered restitution program is worked out.

Giovannelli said anyone convicted of felony theft more than once could face a jail sentence. The Niles Park District carries insurance to cover mysterious disappearance of funds and all employees are bonded.
