The new station will replace the bay area with a 700 square foot mini-mart food store which will serve and sell pop, milk, bread

by Bud Besser

One of the major diseases endemic to reporters and fellow scribblers is one called cynicism. It's a particularly virulent disease because once it attacks it can put your judgment gland on "tilt".

The illness usually begins early in a reporter's lifetime. He meets a political type, generally some guy or gal running for office, who makes a lot of promises. The political type usually means what he says when he begins his long list of resolutions. But not too long after gaining office he begins to fudge a bit. What he said ain't what he meant. Or what he meant ain't what he said. And once the political type begins fudging and getting away with it, he increases his fudging quotient until it becomes a way of life. And the naive reporter who wrote down the pre-election drivel begins developing a paranoia which creates a blanket indictment of everyone who becomes a political type. Everyone who becomes a part of the political process is subject to query, wondering if his motives are the same as the previous fudgers.

The above preamble is meant to set the mood which we were in when we got a

Mrs. Santa serves Christmas dinner

Jerry Harmon, long affiliated with The Center of Concern as Board Member and volunteer, will don her Mrs. Santa suit again on Dec. 20 to host a Christmas party for her fellow seniors and for other lonely and isolated people in the area. The party will begin at 1:30 p.m. at Tunney's Restaurant in Summit Square (formerly Park Ridge Inn) and will feature a complete turkey dinner and gifts for all. Harmon, a retired registered nurse and winner of the prestigious Jefferson Award, conceived the idea last year of providing Christmas dinner with all the trimmings for other seniors and those who would otherwise be alone. Twenty-three people took advantage of Jerry's generosity, and she is prepared for an even larger crowd this year. Park Ridge residents and those living in the surrounding unincorporated area of Maine Twp. have only to call The Center of Concern, 823-9453, to make a reservation. Transportation, if needed, will be provided by The Center. The Center is located in Suite 4 of the 1580 North Northwest Highway Building, Park Ridge, Ill. It is a telephone and walk-in social service agency that really cares about people.

Club marks celebration with dinner

Niles Art Guild marks 20th anniversary

Center on Deafness anniversary

The Center on Deafness is celebrating its 10th anniversary and annual appreciation day Sunday, Dec. 11 at 2 p.m. The festivities will be held at their location, 10100 Dec rd. in Des Plaines.

The Center on Deafness is a not for profit organization which provides services to the community such as sign language classes, a theatrical troupe for the hearing impaired, the only national creative arts festival for hearing impaired children and adults, a dance training program as well as the only therapeutic educational facility exclusively for hearing impaired adolescents and a residential and day training program for adults.

All are invited to help celebrate this special occasion. The celebration will include entertainment by their theatrical troupe, awards, Christmas bazaar and refreshments.

If you would like to attend just call 297-1022 and let us know you are interested in attending.

Two decades - 1/5 of a century - twenty years (20) since the Niles Art Guild was formed, and on October 9, the event was celebrated with a dinner at the "Chambers" restaurant in Niles. Attending were all (except one) the past presidents, present (and many former) officers and board members, and honorary member, Mayor Nicholas Blase. Highlight of the affair was the presentation of a plaque to Marge Beries, co-founder of the Niles Art Guild, past president, and on the board of directors in every capacity for the last twenty years. Mayor Blase made the presentation and the usually glib Marge was at a loss for words. Dinner music was provided by John Arty who set the mood for the nostalgic get-together of old friends with a common interest. A few picture albums were circulated throughout the evening of days gone by, and smiling faces dotted the room as recollections of the old days somehow seem amusing, as they are wont to do. Scores of prizes were distributed during music breaks, and everyone received a memento of the occasion. And when too early, it came time to part, the wistful expressions told the story only to well - "let's do it again soon", - and we will.

Drunk driving discussion

The topic, "Drunk in court...what's wrong with the system?" will be explored by a panel composed of a judge, a prosecutor and a police officer at a public forum at 8 p.m. Dec. 14 at Lutheran General Hospital. Sponsored by the Chicago Alliance Against Intoxicated Motorists (AAIM), the meeting is being presented in cooperation with the Lutheran Center for Substance Abuse, a member of the Lutheran General Medical Center. Following the panel discussion, a question and answer period will be held. The meeting, open to the public, will be in Johnson Auditorium, Parkside Center at Lutheran General Hospital, 1875 Dempster St., Park Ridge.

Nilesite honored for life saving

A 21-year-old Niles resident was recently decorated, by order of President Reagan, with the American Red Cross Certificate of Merit, for saving the life of an accident victim by using cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

He is Alan Wilczewski, of 7130 Keeney st. The Certificate of Merit is the highest citation awarded a person who saves or sustains a life using skills and knowledge learned in a Red Cross volunteer program.

Wilczewski's training as a volunteer First Aid and CPR instructor paid off on a cold winter night, last February, when he witnessed an auto accident near suburban Streamwood. He stopped his car and on examination found that one of the victims was unconscious with neither pulse nor respiration. He began CPR until the arrival of an ambulance.

Wilczewski said that he felt "it was my duty...no one else was stopping. A lot of people don't give a darn..." Last year five people in the Chicago area were awarded the Certificate of Merit, Mayor Nicholas Blase. "I was authorized by the Mayor to let the public know how proud we are to have someone like Alan living in Niles," Lt. Radway said.

Extended Coverage

By Eileen Berner
C.I.C.

Perhaps the most valuable protection offered by your homeowner's insurance is coverage for "personal liability." This pays for bodily injury to others or damage to their property for which you may be liable.

This is third-party coverage; it insures against damage to others, not to you or your family. However, on tenant policies, it does not cover damage inflicted on the rented premises.

Most liability coverage will not only pay damages resulting from an incident for which you may be legally liable, but it will pay legal costs if necessary.

How much coverage is enough? The amount stated on your homeowner's policy may not be sufficient to protect your assets. It's wise to beef up liability coverage with umbrella insurance.

Crown of Life Wheat Ridge Seals Campaign

Crown of Life welcomes Don and Lois Sobkowiak on Sunday, Dec. 11. Crown of Life, a Spirit-filled Lutheran church, meets weekly at 10 a.m. in the lower level of the Niles Recreation Center, 7877 Milwaukee Ave.

Mr. Sobkowiak founded and directs SAND, Inc., Social, Agricultural, Welfare Development. This ministry in northern India will establish small institutes throughout the whole country which will gather small groups of committed Christians for training in the basics of the Christian faith. Mr. Sobkowiak stated, "We plan to employ the pattern of training that Jesus used in New Testament times as the model for SAND, Inc. If Christians are to win India for Christ, it will happen through people going forth in the power of the Holy Spirit with signs and wonders."

Mr. & Mrs. Sobkowiak will leave for India in early spring to establish the first institute.

Crown of Life's home fellowships have begun to study what the Bible teaches on healing. They welcome all who would like to learn more about this timely subject. Call 635-9407 for the meeting places.

at St. John Lutheran

The Congregation of St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church and Christian Day School (Missouri Synod) announces that the 1983 Wheat Ridge Christmas Seals Campaign is officially underway. St. John is located at 7429 N. Milwaukee Ave. (near Harlem) in Niles.

Theme of the 1983 Seals is "O Dearest Jesus, Holy Child," taken from Luther's famous Christmas hymn, "From Heaven Above." The theme seal, showing Mary and the baby Jesus, alternates around the border with a Christmas seal commemorating Martin Luther's 500th birthday—a special keepsake in this Lutheran anniversary year.

Beginning as a Lutheran TB Sanatorium in Wheat Ridge, Colorado, in 1905, the Wheat Ridge Foundation today provides

Befriender Program grows

at Messiah Lutheran

Last spring Messiah Lutheran Church, 1605 Vernon Ave., Park Ridge, dedicated itself to participation in the Befriender program, a care-giving ministry to those in need. In July, the church presented certificates to the first group of thirteen who successfully completed the training program.

They are: Martha and Lytle Thompson, Suzie and Tom Beyer, Lillian and Arthur Larson, and Ella Osterbur, all of Park Ridge; Lucille and Webster Nelson of Niles; Lester Herak of Chicago; and Betty Oswald of Des Plaines. Lynne Huedepohl of Park Ridge will serve as coordinator for this group. Claire Rodin of Des Plaines was the trainer.

Since 1910, Wheat Ridge has relied on an annual Christmas Seals Campaign to support its work. The seals are not "purchased" but a contribution is given to make possible new health and service ministries to people in need around the world; so that people of all ages and races and tongues might come to know and serve Christ. Gifts to Wheat Ridge enables faithful servants of Christ in over 60 projects around the globe—pastors, teachers, nurses, social workers, chaplains, counselors, lay volunteers, doctors—to reach out and touch the sick and broken and hopeless.

New arrival

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Art E. Orsini of Park Ridge on November 8 at Skokie Valley Community Hospital. The baby's name is Nicole Marie. She weighed 7 lbs. 2 oz. Her sister is Rebecca Anne, 2 1/2. The baby's grandparents are: Mrs. Joseph Sarno of Niles and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Orsini of Franklin Park.

In celebration of the 80th anniversary of the birth of the teddy bear, his descendants are crowding the shelves of toy stores, peeking out from magazines and newspapers, and appearing in republished editions of the original teddy bear adventure books for children. A cuddly teddy bear is said to be the most popular toy of all time. Although not a census item, it seems likely a large percentage of the population of the western world can lay claim to a beloved teddy bear, past or present, which continues to represent comfort and love and security. Ferocious-looking mechanical bears were popular in the mid-1880's. An artist named Palmer Cox drew caricatures of bears for children's stories and used his drawings to advertise Tarrant's Seltzer in 1887. In 1902, President Roosevelt traveled to Mississippi to help deal with a boundary dispute between that state and Louisiana. While there, the famous huntsman indulged in 10 days of the sport without tracking down a single bear. As he was preparing to leave, he heard shouts of "Bear!" He ran outside his tent to find a cub tethered by a rope. Ordering the small creature taken away, Roosevelt said, "I draw the line here. If I shot that little fellow, I couldn't look my own boys in the face again." Reportedly, the friendly upright little bear was dubbed "teddy" after two cubs were exhibited in Madison Square Garden in New York where Roosevelt saw the pair and purchased them for his children. When they became too large for pets, he presented them to the New York City zoo, where they became a major attraction for the visitors who knew them as "Teddy's bears."

Safety tips for driving in heavy fog

1. Frequent and rapid temperature changes this time of year can lead to foggy conditions and reduced visibility which make driving dangerous.
2. Do not drive in fog unless absolutely necessary. If you must drive under these conditions, take the following safety precautions and you may be able to avoid an accident:
3. Sharply reduce your normal driving speed.
4. Reduce speed even more if you see headlights or taillights. Headlights may be on a vehicle coming down the center of the road, while taillights can indicate a stopped vehicle or one that is barely moving.
5. Keep within the limits of your vision and be prepared to stop in an emergency. If the fog becomes so dense that you can barely see, pull off the road cautiously and stop. Do not creep along at 5 or 10 mph.
6. Dimming your headlights will help you see more clearly. Certain types of fog lights are helpful.

Remember, driving safely in heavy fog requires concentration and patience.

Alexian Brothers celebrates Home Care Week

"In the northwestern suburbs, eight agencies provide skilled home care services to area residents. These services range from daily skilled nursing care, physical or occupational therapy to nutrition and IV therapy, to pain management to nonmedical services to keep the patient's environment safe and healthy," explained Elaine Brueckner, Director of Home Health services at Alexian Brothers Medical Center, Elk Grove Village.

"As one of these agencies, the philosophy of Alexian Brothers' Home Health Services Department is consistent with the theme for National Home Care Week, Nov. 27 through Dec. 3, which is 'There's No Place Like Home,'" continued Brueckner.

"National Home Care Week was established to honor the thousands of dedicated individuals throughout America whose efforts allow more than two million elderly, infirm disabled or dying to receive the health and social services they need in the comfort and privacy of their own homes. During this past week at Alexian Brothers, we planned activities to build awareness of home care and its services," said Brueckner.

Reliable Child Care offers a low cost, reliable service

At last, a break for the hard working mother! Reliable Child Care is a unique membership matching service started by two Chicago physicians who recognize the long-standing problem that parents have in finding low cost, reliable child care when it is needed. The concept of the service is that matches be made within the immediate area, preferably on the same street or block. This gives parents the opportunity to hire a child sitter from their neighborhood, adding the elements of familiarity, safety, and trust. Reliable Child Care will bring these people together!

Local employment and productivity will be increased as a result of this service, because we are providing an opportunity for homemakers, senior citizens, and other responsible persons to supplement their income. Terms are negotiated solely between the parents and the sitters.

Parents and eligible sitters are invited to apply for membership at the cost of $35 for six months. The cost includes: unlimited use of the matching service for 6 mos. Parents needing sitters will call Reliable Child Care, and the closest available sitter(s) will be promptly contacted. All further arrangements will be made between the two concerned parties.

$15 health maintenance and school physical exams for all infants and children. This added feature alone will pay for membership after two visits to the doctor!

Plans are in the making for a Reliable Child Care discount card which will provide substantial savings on goods and services at local retailers. This is dependent on local response, since volume is needed for greater discount potential.

This service has received a fantastic response in other communities. We are looking forward to serving the greater Chicago area, and invite applications from parents and sitters at this time. This is a service that's made for the 80's!

Write Reliable Child Care, P.O. Box 408637 (sitters) Chicago, 60640 for further information and applications. Please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Mark Twain students in Fingerprinting program

About 80 percent of the students at Mark Twain School had "inky" fingers with the full cooperation of parents and teachers. They were given permission by their parents to be fingerprinted by the Community Relations Department of the Cook County Sheriff's Police.

The prints were taken by Sergeant Brown and Officers Gadulo and Mognason of the Sheriff's Police with the assistance of Law Enforcement Explorer Parcell and members of the Mark Twain PTA Board.

The completed fingerprint cards will be presented to the parents on conference days. Parents are requested to safety file these cards so that they are available for identification purposes in case of an emergency.

Mark Twain School is located at 9401 Hamlin, Des Plaines, IL and is one of five elementary schools in East Maine School District 63.

Maine East Debate team

Debate team members at Maine East compete in tournaments almost every Friday and Saturday, from the start of the season in October to the end of the season in March.

In each tournament there are four to six rounds, which last an hour and a half each. In each round there are four debaters, two affirmatives and two negatives. The affirmative argues to change the present system, and the negative argues to leave things as they are.

The team is coached by Michael and Jeffrey Ginsburg, two former Maine East graduates. As debaters, they both placed in the state tournament their senior years.

The team has been a tradition since 1968. Since then Maine East finished first in state three times, which is more than any other Illinois high school debate team.

Last year Peter Blumberg of Park Ridge and Debbie Green of Morton Grove finished second in state on the novice level.

This year the novice team includes Sandy Abraham of Glenview, Yuri Birg of Des Plaines, Cara Blonz of Morton Grove, Linda Cecchin of Niles, Eytan Fozaloff of Morton Grove, Fay Gelfond of Des Plaines, Tina Harris of Niles, Mark Hollander of Niles, Sherri Silver of Morton Grove, Cosmos Stratigos of Niles, Doug Urban of Niles, and Paul Welch of Des Plaines.

District 207 Homestead Program

To the students in the Homestead program, the beginning of the holiday season provided a special time to learn about the skills that are necessary from home life as they planned, prepared, and served a complete Thanksgiving dinner to district administrators, parents and community residents on Fri., Nov. 18. Homestead is a program for special education students in Maine Township High School District 207 that provides hands-on experience in home life and related maintenance.

The preparation of a Thanksgiving dinner provides many learning experiences according to Chuck Fabian, Homestead coordinator. When they shop, students learn consumer information such as getting the best price and how much to buy. In academic areas, students learn about measurements and proportions as they adjust recipes to the size of the guest list.

Time management becomes an important consideration as students clean the house, set the table and make other necessary preparations for their guests. When they decide who will cook and who will serve, students are learning organization. And as they take orders from their

According to Robert Jacobsen, director of special services for District 207, about 60 to 70 studen-

for accreditation

Illinois Technical College, an institution specializing in High Tech Electronics Education, which is located at 506 S. Wabash in Chicago has been granted Candidate for Accreditation Status by the Commissions on Institution of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The North Central Commission of Higher Education is listed by the U.S. Office of Education and the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation as the official regional accrediting agency for colleges and universities in nineteen states. This initial step in the accrediting process shows that the North Central Association has designated Illinois Technical College as an institution with the potential to become regionally accredited. To satisfactorily fulfill North Central's objective criteria for accreditation Illinois Technical College has undergone a detailed self study and was visited by an evaluation team of qualified professionals. Among the factors examined were the school's integrity of operation, its ability to deliver viable education, its faculty, admissions practices, placement record, and its ability to continue future operation.

Dr. Harold Rabin, President of Illinois Technical College, said he was "very pleased" with the commission's action and the entire process of accreditation.

"Accreditation assures student professional or occupational competence" said Dr. Rabin. "The entire process of self study and evaluation makes the school a better institution, which in turn, benefits the students, the graduates, the employers, and in the final analysis, society itself."

Rush University prepares students for Health Care

Rush University is offering a full-time two-year program designed to prepare people for leadership positions in the Health Care Systems.

This program is different from Hospital Administration Programs because they train managers for hospitals and alternative health care delivery systems, such as HMO's (Health Maintenance Organizations), free standing ambulatory care centers, surgi-centers, emergency and traditional health clinics and consulting firms.

Rush University has a commitment to patient care, education and research and follows the model of teacher as practitioner. This means that all faculty teaching in Rush are practicing health care professionals. The faculty in the Health Systems Management holds administrative positions throughout Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center, major consulting firms in the Chicago area, other medical centers and national organizations. The faculty, as practitioner model, brings to the program an applied focus and students are exposed to current concepts and trends in the health care industry.

Additionally, students have the opportunity to apply learning in practical situations through part time jobs, internships, and practicing in the Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke Medical Center.

When our students graduate they have a degree plus experience which gives them an edge in the job market, as evidenced by our excellent placement record.

Willows Academy celebrates tenth anniversary

The "new" girls school on Chicago's northwest corner isn't so new after all.

The Willows Academy, a fully accredited independent school for girls in grades 6-12 celebrates its 10th Anniversary this year.

Established in 1974 by parents and educators in Glenview, The Willows Academy moved to Niles in 1982. The move was welcomed by its students who are mainly from the northwestern suburbs and northwest side of Chicago. Many families, however, still commute from as far away as Lake Zurich, Glenview and River Forest.

Although the Willows Academy has yet to become a household name in the area, it is apparently held in high regard by colleges and universities across the nation. With the school's total enrollment of just over 100, at least 25 college representatives visit The Willows each year to recruit its high school students.

The Willows offers a solid college preparatory curriculum from the sixth grade through high school. This program is complemented by its many extracurricular activities such as photography, drama, yearbook, calligraphy and sports. Its volleyball team is especially noted for having placed first for two years in the Independent School League against such competitors as the Latin School, North Shore Country Day and Lake Forest Academy.

An annual tradition at the school has been its celebrated spring play. This year's production of ANNIE to open in March is already buzzing through the school with the scenery construction and costume making already underway.

Mrs. Marie Keenley, involved with the school since its inception, and now the Director of The Willows, thinks the school has a great deal to celebrate. "This anniversary year celebrating our first decade is a very exciting one for all of us. It is marked in a special way by the addition of computers to our classroom teaching. Professor A.J. Weinzwieg of the University of Illinois at Chicago, an expert in both computers and learning theory, is heading our computer project. Working closely with our teachers, Professor Weinzwieg is making software specifically for The Willows so that the computers will be a useful teaching aid in each department."

When asked what has been most rewarding during the school's first ten years Mrs. Keenley said, "Without question it is seeing our graduates as they come back to visit us, some already established in their careers such as accounting, nursing, finance, some with their husbands and children, some still in college. Seeing them happy is the greatest reward."

More information can be obtained from Jane Hawes, Administrative Assistant, Health Systems Management, at 942-5402.

IU student learns in classroom

Allan T. Slagel of Niles is an Indiana University junior who does more than go to classes. He is vice president of the Indiana University Student Association (IUSA), the student government body.

Slagel is responsible for managing almost 200 student volunteers at IUSA.

Slagel, who is studying management and administration at the IU School of Business, thinks his IUSA experience will have practical benefits in later life.

One of IUSA's functions is to convey student attitudes to the university administration.

"The president of the university calls upon IUSA to find out student views on different issues," Slagel said.

Slagel himself has been involved in student government since high school and joined IUSA last year as the services director. Since then he also has served as academic director and as a dorm senator.

As vice president of IUSA, Slagel is also a voting member of the Bloomington Faculty Council, reports student views to the Trustees of Indiana University and is a member of the University Faculty Council and the Educational Policies Commission.

After graduation, Slagel wants to attend law school or work toward an upper level management position in a large corporation.

Have you considered a career in nursing? We'd like to help you explore this possibility...

At Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing, we develop the total nurse who applies a network of knowledge and skills to the practice of nursing a whole patient — an emotional, spiritual, intellectual, physical, and social being. Our philosophy of care is expressed through our commitment to Human Ecology — the understanding and care of human beings as whole persons in light of their relationships to God, themselves, their families, and the society in which they live.

The profession of nursing responds to the personal desire to keep people healthy; to create a healthful environment; to provide comfort, care, and assurance to those who are ill; and to return individuals to the best possible state of healthy functioning. If you have such a desire, if you seek to transmit your wisdom through your heart, perhaps you should consider Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing for your education.

Registration for Barat College Spring classes

Spring term classes at Barat College in Lake Forest will start on January 25. New students applications are being accepted now with registration dates set for January 23 and 24.

Barat's admissions office will expedite the applications of mid-year high school graduates who wish to begin college classes immediately. Flexible arrangements can be made for those students whose graduation dates are a week or two later than the starting date of Barat's spring term.

For adults considering college, special student status permits registration for a maximum of eight credit hours per semester without going through the formal admission procedure. Prof of high school graduation is required, and an admissions interview is recommended.

Formerly an all-women's college, Barat now admits men as degree-seeking students. Residence facilities are available for both men and women, and space is available in on-campus housing for students entering mid-year. About half of Barat's 735 students live on-campus and half commute to classes.

Adults make up a high percentage of Barat's full-time and part-time student population. Evening, as well as daytime, classes provide flexible scheduling to accommodate

Landsat 4 at Northeastern

Tom Gladan (l) of Rogers Park, a senior majoring in Earth Science at Northeastern Illinois University, and Randy Biang of Des Plaines, an Earth Science graduate student, use a computer to study data generated by Landsat 4, an Earth satellite, in a course at Northeastern entitled "Geologic Remote Sensing."

A dozen young men and women are gathered around a computer screen image of an oddly colored map in a class entitled "Geologic Remote Sensing" at Northeastern Illinois University.

"Tell me what we have here," says Professor Albert Forslev. Senior Tom Gladan steps up to the screen and explains, "This black area is part of a lake, all of this red area is trees and this pink line is part of an interstate highway."

"That's right," says Forslev. The students have been perusing a map of an area near Hartford, Connecticut, that is unlike the maps most people have studied in geography classes. It depicts information gathered by Landsat 4, a spacecraft that has been recording detailed pictures of Earth from its 438-mile-high orbit since it was launched in July of last year. The map colors are false, created by computer to enhance different details of the Earth's surface.

Gladan, who is majoring in Earth Science, said, "I am fascinated with the computer applications of the satellite data. Anyone who deals with the environment in any way can benefit from the information being gathered by Landsat 4. Using the computer gives you the opportunity to focus on many different aspects of the same area."

"Data from Landsat 4, like that generated by the three Earth resource satellites that preceded it, may be used for many purposes," according to Forslev, who is chairman of the Department of Earth Science at Northeastern.

"The information may be used to search for mineral and petroleum deposits, to monitor the health and types of crops being raised around the world, and to assess water pollution.

Introducing the Cragin Federal Tax Saver CD, the tax-deferred account that could mean $900 tax-free interest to you

Those of you who opened an All Savers account back in October of 1981 remember it as one of the wisest investments you ever made. After all, it earned up to $2,000 tax-free interest at remarkably high tax-free rates.

The Economic Recovery Act of 1981 contains another very special tax break for Americans. It will provide up to $900 tax-free interest to families filing joint tax returns ($450 for single returns) for the year 1985.

Naturally, you're saying, "It's still 1983. What does this have to do with me right now?" Cragin's answer: Plenty! You see, Cragin Federal has come up with a very special savings plan which defers all your interest to taxable year 1985—the first year in which you and millions of Americans can qualify for tax-free interest on your savings.

How the Tax Saver Account works

The Cragin Federal Tax Saver Account is a special, federally insured, one-year certificate of deposit paying at least 10%* The interest your account earns will be credited to your account on the last day of its term—intentionally in 1985.

This lets you take advantage of the $450 or $900 interest exclusion when it is first available.

In short, you can make a shrewd financial move right now that will avoid federal income taxes in 1984 and most likely save you tax dollars in 1985.

Take advantage of tax deferral alone

Don't think of this CD. It could very well serve your interest to deposit more, as much as you can afford. Why? Because the more you deposit, the more interest you'll put off to 1985. The longer you defer income, the later you'll have to account to Uncle Sam for it.

In this case, not until April 15, 1986! So, whether you qualify for the tax-free exemption or exceed the interest income needed for your maximum, you'll certainly benefit from simple tax deferral.

Who qualifies for tax exemption?

Qualification for full tax exemption depends largely on how you handle your finances in 1985. But like millions upon millions of other Americans, you are likely to qualify for part, if not the full, exemption—$900 for families filing joint returns, $450 for single taxpayers. The qualification standards are not stringent at all, and are formulated to encourage interest you earn from savings or other qualified investments is greater than your interest expense (excluding mortgage and business interest), then you qualify for some tax exemption.

If you have your money in a money market fund, your dividends do not qualify for an exemption in 1985. Why not move your money to a Cragin Tax Saver C.D. You can qualify for the 1985 interest tax exemption whether you use the regular 1040 long form or the short form.

Free tax guide plus a gift

Open a Cragin Federal Tax Saver CD now and receive absolutely free your copy of "1984 Personal Income Tax Guide," a 54-page book published by Prentice-Hall and packed with valuable information which specifically addresses the 1983 tax laws. You'll also get your choice of 31 gifts, either free or at substantial savings.

*You're guaranteed to earn at least this rate. If on January 2, Cragin Federal's quoted one-year CD rate is higher, you'll earn the higher rate. The Tax-Free exclusion is based on current federal tax laws.

Sign up now for your Tax Saver CD and earn 15% in the meantime

You can set up your Cragin Tax Saver Account right now.

With as little as $5,000, we'll deposit your funds in an Insured Money Market Account paying 15% interest through January 2, 1984. Then on January 2, your principal and interest earned will be transferred automatically into a one-year Tax Saver Account paying at least 10%*.

Your account will mature on January 2, 1985 and have the full annual interest credited on that date.

Sign up now. You'll avoid the crowds in early January and know that your savings interest will be deferred for the entire year of 1984.

There you have it! A simple, effective way to earn top interest and have your account begin at the earliest possible date.

Let your Cragin counselor help you

A message from Adam A. Jahns,
Chairman of the Board and President

Our Cragin 1-Year Tax Saver Account is the most convenient way to defer as much savings interest to the time when it can do you the most good—to when the tax laws work in your favor.

Naturally, you'll have questions about this simple and innovative plan. We invite you to drop into any Cragin Financial Center to sit down with a Cragin counselor, and discuss all aspects of the Tax Saver Account.

I urge you to act on this remarkable program, in the same way smart savers joined our All Savers program in 1981. And, as in the case of All Savers, the earlier you act, the more you benefit.

*You're guaranteed to earn at least this rate. If on January 2, Cragin Federal's quoted one-year CD rate is higher, you'll earn the higher rate. The Tax-Free exclusion is based on current federal tax laws.

Niles West athletes are named all-conference

Three sophomores and a freshman from Niles West High School have been selected as all-conference athletes this fall, an honor most often reserved for seniors. The sophomores are Kathy Sokoalski, selected for volleyball, Felicia Bakshy for cross country and Karina Doyle for diving, and the freshman is Kathy Campbell also for cross country. Doyle has the additional honor of being the first all-conference swimmer/diver that the school has ever had. Eight seniors were also designated all-conference athletes by their respective league coaches. They are Barry Margolin, Sesun Yoo, Bob Straub and Bill Numrich for soccer, and John Koudounis, Ramsey Rodgers, Roger Chams, and Tony Tripicchio for football. Margolin also received all-state and all-midwest honors.

"We're very proud of each all-conference athlete, and look forward to the future as these excellent underclass athletes mature," says Jerry Turry, the Niles West athletic director. "We hope that the young athletes will continue to enjoy participating in their sports during the rest of their high school years," Turry adds.

The all-conference designation also entitles the athletes to have their photographs placed on the school's "Wall of Fame."

Named to the squad were Jason Borkowicz, Tony Divito, Brad Eshoo, Herman Jao, Steve Mamio, Arthur Naumowicz, Brian O'Grady and Ricky Sheridan. Coach Ed Eshoo and Coach Ron Rzeplera return again to coach this year's 5th graders. Coach Eshoo stated, "We began practice around Nov. 1. After two weeks of hard practices we realize that this team has speed, talent and intelligence. We hope to establish a fast break offense to compensate for our lack of height and to take advantage of our speed."

telephone call from Niles park officials a couple of weeks ago inviting us to lunch. Niles park president Elaine Heinen told us the park board was refinancing their outstanding park bonds which would result in a savings to taxpayers of almost $600,000 during the next eight years. Elaine said the park attorney would be present during the lunch.

When we hung up the phone, the old cynicism began to take hold. Why do they want a private audience over such a matter? My first thoughts concluded they must have something up their collective sleeves. Maybe they goofed up. Perhaps they passed a resolution or an ordinance which might have been illegal. They might have approved the bonds at a private meeting held at a local bistro. Or maybe the scheduled time for passing the agreement was not sufficient. Or perhaps they violated the open meetings act. They might not have notified the media as state law requires. All these are thoughts of a reporter whose skepticism sometimes puts him off-center.

The park president told us other park commissioners would be at the lunch. But when she said their lawyer would be there, those old cynical hackles really stood up. Your civics book might have told you when you think of American law, you picture the figure of Justice balancing the scales equally. Well, the old cynic has a different image. When he thinks of lawyers, he pictures a guy with a Brook Brothers suit holding out his hand, palm up. His eyeballs have $$$ signs. And his glib mouth speaks only in one Latin phrase, "Money begets money." And his hearing tunes to one pitch only...the one in the key of jingle.

With all of these prejudgments, we arrived at the park board administration office on Milwaukee Avenue. And the presentation that followed was on the up and up. The 5-3/4% bonds to be retired in 1993 would be retired by buying new bonds which then would be re-invested at about a 9.3% average. Combining the tax money which now pays Resumes will be received at Suite 103, 2510 Dempster st., Des Plaines 60016, until December 12, according to Supervisor Paul K. Halverson. The Town Board will hold a special meeting for the purpose of interviewing candidates on December 20, and expect to make a decision regarding Koehler's successor by January 10, says Halverson. Halverson, Stephen J. Stolton, Maine Township Clerk, and Trustee Dee Conroy will serve as a committee to review all resumes received and recommend a minimum of three candidates to the Town Board for consideration at the special meeting on December 20.

Mary has renewed our faith again in public officials. Just in time for the holidays. That old dread cynicism has evaporated and all is well in the world again. Well, almost. The park attorney, indeed a good guy personally, is nevertheless, an attorney. And while I'm sure his enthusiasm was genuine when he presented the plan, he will be getting a cool $10,000 for his efforts. That's enough greenbacks to make even the most trusting reporter become a cynic again.

Gault to pick YMCA's Olympic Torch winner

Coming this December 13 at 7:30 p.m., Willie Gault of the Chicago Bears, will be on hand at the Park Ridge YMCA to pick the winner of the YMCA's Olympic Torch Kilometer.

The Park Ridge Y, at 1515 W. Touhy, will be sponsoring one kilometer of the route from New York to Los Angeles which the torch will cover to open the 23rd Olympiad. The carrying of the Olympic Torch across the U.S. next summer will be the longest torch run in the history of the olympics.

According to Jeff Jones, Executive Director of the Y, "The appearance of Willie Gault and his opportunity to share his feelings about youth sports will be a real asset to this youth sports fund raising event. The evening will allow Mr. Gault to share some of his personal experiences as he developed into a world class and professional athlete as well as a short question and answer session. Also a possible autograph session may follow."

Information on how you may have a chance to carry the Olympic Torch as it passes through Chicago is available at: Marty's Bike Shop, 623 Devon ave.; Sebastian Realty, 601 Devon; Parson's of Park Ridge, 155 S. Prospect ave.; Ridgewood Camera, 139 Vine ave.; Scharringhausen Pharmacy, 110 Main st.; and Norman Printing, 112 Higgins, all in Park Ridge, or call the Park Ridge YMCA at 825-2171.

Edgar announces new license revocation policy

Persons arrested for serious driving offenses who have caused accidents resulting in death or major injury would have their drivers licenses revoked quickly under a new policy announced by Sec. of State Jim Edgar.

Edgar said he will ask all 102 Illinois state's attorneys to provide his office on a regular and timely basis with arrest records, coroner's reports and all appropriate evidence in such cases.

Currently, licenses are revoked only after the driver has been convicted in court of a serious driving offense, such as drunk driving, reckless homicide, drag racing or leaving the scene of an accident which resulted in death or injury. License revocations are for at least one year, after which the Secretary of State has discretion to reinstate driving privileges.

Under the new policy, once Edgar's office has received information from a state's attorney, the driver's license will be revoked within seven days. Persons whose licenses are revoked can appeal by requesting an administrative hearing.

"Those persons arrested for a serious driving offense like drunk driving which result in death or injury should be taken off the road as soon as possible," Edgar said.

"They should not be allowed to drive for months and months and possibly jeopardize the lives of others in the time it takes the case to come to court."

"In trying to find a solution to prevent the kind of tragedy that recently occurred in Harvey, my legal staff found the law can be interpreted to take this kind of action," Edgar said.

"While the law in 14 other states gives the appropriate licensing authority the ability to revoke drivers licenses in such cases, as far as we know Illinois will become the first state to routinely revoke licenses for these offenses," he said.

Debbie Temps to host holiday employee parties

Debbie Temps, with temporary help services offices in five north and northwest suburban locations, is wishing its employees a happy holiday season with three separate parties.

The first, scheduled for Dec. 13 at the 7900 N. Milwaukee, Niles, corporate headquarters, is for employees of the Niles and Skokie offices.

The Wheeling and Libertyville groups will gather the following afternoon at the 307 S. Milwaukee, Wheeling, office. The Schaumburg office at 1622 E. Algonquin will be the scene of that area's celebration on Dec. 15.

Refreshments and gifts will be part of the annual proceedings, according to Debbie Temps president Helene J. Kenyon.

Employees also will be encouraged to bring donations to the annual Debbie Temps drive to collect and distribute canned food to needy families for the holidays.

Anyone wishing to contribute canned goods and other non-perishable foods can drop them off at either the Niles, Wheeling or Schaumburg offices before Dec. 20, said Ms. Kenyon.

The Northwest Suburban Chapter of Independent Accountants Association of Illinois will present their monthly program at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 15. The program will be held at Christy's Restaurant, 1432 Waukegan Rd. in Glenview, Ill.

Guest speaker will be Mr. Terry Ronczykowski of Pension Administrators, Inc. in Arlington Heights, Illinois. The topic will be "New Rules for Profit Sharing and Pension Plans".

Interested parties are welcome to attend, but reservations should be made by calling Mr. Ritter at 420-1520 by Tuesday, Dec. 13. Cost for the 7 p.m. dinner and program is $12, or the cost for the 8 p.m. program is only $5.

In addition to a multitude of individual honors, the Niles West soccer program received the Miro Rys Sportsmanship Award this year. According to head coach Joe Brennan, the Illinois High School Soccer Coaches Association presents this award to the school exhibiting the best attitude and team spirit in the state.

Several players also received honors for individual performances. Co-captain Barry Margolin, voted most valuable player by his teammates, received All-Conference, All-State, and All-Midwest honors. In addition, he broke the Niles West record for goals scored with 25 for the season.

Co-captain Seesun Yoo was elected to the All-Conference and All-Sectional state team. In addition, Bill and Bob Strub were both named All-Conference players. The school's Fred Zedek Award for sportsmanship and excellence in soccer was given to Rich Meyer.

"West's 1983 soccer team is one of the finest we have ever fielded in terms of individual performances," comments Brennan.

Drunk driver...

With police chasing her she went through red lights on Touhy ave. and at Harts rd.

South of Harts rd. she repeatedly crossed into oncoming traffic causing three cars to drive off the roadway to avoid colliding with her.

Police managed to stop the car in the 6700 block of Milwaukee ave. The woman reportedly needed help walking from her car because she was highly intoxicated.

At the Niles Police Department she was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol as well as five other related offenses.

Additionally, police records indicated she had to be restrained when she attempted to attack the arresting officer at the police station.

The Prospect Heights woman was assigned a December court date and released after posting a $100 bond.

and other demand products. Zoning Board member Ginger Troiani insisted the company create a retaining wall to prevent water from flooding backyards which presently occurs. The board also insisted the wooden walls in the building be replaced by masonry or concrete walls.

An engineer for the company, Mr. Ridgeway, became a bit testy at the board's request and said, "If you're going to make lots of requests (for changes), we'll drop the project." Troiani thought Ridgeway was threatening the board and took umbrage at Ridgeway's remarks. The engineer quickly backtracked and became much more amenable to zoning board suggestions after the exchange.

Because Niles building code requires three parking spaces for each island of pumps, and the company may have three islands, it would require 9 parking spaces be created. Additionally, 8 more parking spaces would be required for the 700 square foot store.

Board member Louella Preston insisted bumper guards be installed alongside a 5 or 6 foot fence which would also be required.

Union official Gilbert said three 12,000 gallon fiberglass storage drums would replace the steel ones now there. They would be more fire-safe, according to Gilbert.

Board president Jack Frick said he wasn't too comfortable with this new concept combining a gas station and a food mart and felt before a decision could be reached, more research and legal answers would be required by the board.

In a second action the board approved a rear lot variation for a room addition for a home at 8353 Milwaukee Avenue. Resident Myrna Breitzman sought a 10% reduction in the variation to enable her to build a two-room addition which would go back to within 38 feet of her rear lot line. The code allows 10% variation of the normal 40 feet requirement. The Breitzman lot is pie-shaped in the rear and by drawing a line 10 feet wide parallel to the front street, Milwaukee Avenue, determined the length of the distance to the rear of the proposed addition. Mrs. Breitzman said she planned on building a 16 by 20 foot bedroom, which will be used by her mother, plus a 14 by 14 foot family room.
