District 207 ACT scores above national level

Maine Township High School District 207 is not part of the national trend indicated by federal statistics released last week by Education Secretary T.H. Bell," said Superintendent John A. Murphy. "It would be a grave mistake to take the national statistics offered by Secretary Bell and apply them seriously to this district," said Murphy in response to a report that claimed that students failed to finish high school more often and scored lower on college entrance exams than they did 10 years earlier. While federal statistics showed that the national drop out rate rose from 23 percent to 28 percent between 1972 and 1982, the drop out rate in Maine Township declined from 3.1 percent to just 1.2 percent during the same period. "The decline in our drop out rate is even more impressive. Continued on Page 27.

Board studies $61,000 expenditure to update system

New computer system for District 63?

by Eileen Hirschfeld

A $61,000 IBM 36 computer will probably be bought for use in the administrative building of East Maine School District 63 in about 6 months in order to update the District's present system, an IBM 32 computer. Board members indicated approval at a regular board meeting January 10 in the Educational Service Center, 10150 Dee Rd. and asked for more information to be provided at the next regular meeting. Superintendent Donald Bond recommended a change, saying the present system is "antiquated". Information is intended to answer board members' many questions, mainly about a new computer's costs and performance. Some costs would include black and white vs. color monitors, data programming, maintenance, software, third-party leasing vs. buying and extension into Continued on Page 27.

Jaffe seeks info on privacy threat

"Big Brother won't be watching you in 1984," Rep. Aaron Jaffe, co-chairman of the Illinois Legislative Investigating Commission, said today. "Not if we can help it."

Jaffe (D-Skokie) has asked the Commission to launch an investigation into what he considers to be Illinois' "Big Brother": the threat of computerized record keeping poses to personal privacy.

"In George Orwell's novel 1984, personal privacy no longer existed," Jaffe said. "Everything was known about everyone. With today's computer revolution and the lack of laws governing computerized information, the privacy of the individual is threatened in the same way."

Jaffe said computerized records kept by all kinds of agencies, governmental and private, contain information about private citizens' health, habits, finances, and lifestyles. "Because computerized records are easy to store and easy to retrieve, there is almost no limit to the amount of personal information an agency can keep and use," he said. "Because computerized information can be shared with the touch of a button and transmitted electronically, information sharing is much less difficult and much less visible than before."

Niles Family Service celebrates 15th anniversary

January is a very special month for Niles Family Service. Mayor Nicholas Blase recently proclaimed the month of January as Niles Family Service month to recognize how "The Agency with a Heart" has served the people of Niles. It is true that the Department of Family Service has come a long way since 1969 in developing programs and services to meet the needs of people here.

We started very small. Larry Renetky, Director, was the first and only employee of the agency. His first office was at the old firehouse adjacent to the old Village Hall on Touhy and Milwaukee aves. Occasionally Larry kidded the firemen about putting out fires of a different kind. But even then, there was a growing recognition that fire and police protection were important, but more was needed to care for the families in Niles. When communication in the home broke down, there was a need for some professional help to try to put the fire out before the home was emotionally destroyed. From that beginning, Niles

Reading can be magical

Shown are Mrs. Judi Krupa and winners: front row - Grades 1 and 2 - 1st place Bill Ochab, 3rd place Crystalyn Gembala and 2nd place Marc Piskiewicz. Second row: Grades 3 and 4 - 1st place Philip Pound, 2nd place Adam Wroblewski, 3rd place Brian Healy.

Shown above are: front row: Grades 5 and 6 winner Cheryl Bronder, 2nd place Connie Catuscill and 1st place Litsa Kydis. Second row: Mrs. Krupa, grades 7 and 8 - 1st place Tom Cwikla, 2nd place Kirstin Hack and 3rd place Mike Callero.

Books have taken us to a town called Camelot, and we've ridden in a tornado and landed in a place called Oz. Reading has introduced us to famous people such as King Arthur, Robin Hood, even Merlin the Magician, not to mention a variety of good and bad witches. And it was through books that we learned about unicorns, and magical animals that could talk, ones that could even write, such as Harold the dog who wrote "Bunnica". It's through the "Magic" in people's minds that bring us page after page of magical reading, and we now invite to you share with us the magic that's in your mind.

Thus began the introduction to the "Young Author's Contest" open to all students enrolled at St. John Brebeuf School and sponsored by Mrs. Judi Krupa, the librarian. The children wrote fiction stories dealing with a magical place, magical animals, or magical people. A total of 266 books were turned in and judged by an impartial judge outside the school.

Judging took place between every two grade levels, with the first place winners receiving a medal, the second and third place winners receiving ribbons. Stories from grades 1 and 2 had a minimum of 100 words, grades 3 and 4 - 300 words, grades 5 and 6 - 400 words and grades 7 and 8 - 500 words. The winners were announced at an all-school magical show on November 21.

Northwestern Stables Show

Northwestern Stables in Morton Grove hosted their annual Winter Schooling Show over the December 3-4 weekend. And, a very important figure from the professional horseman's world was the judge - none other than Rodney Jenkins, fresh in from a horseshow of his own. Mr. Jenkins holds the distinction of being the first professional to ride on the United States Equestrian Team, joining in 1974 and riding with it for six years. He won 12 jumper classes on the prestigious indoor circuit (Washington, New York and Toronto) and has ridden such legendary horses as

"Idle Dice" and "Number One Spy," a horse from the Midwest. Mr. Jenkins, now a professional trainer and coach as well as a rider, is in training now for the Florida circuit. Northwestern Stables feels quite fortunate to have his valued opinion for their two-day horse show.

The show was structured for the Riding School students to ride Saturday; boarders on Sunday. After the show, a huge feast was held, with contributions from the Stables and show participants alike and of course, every nuance of each class was reviewed in great detail!

Safe winter driving hints

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar
None of the perils of winter driving is more feared by motorists than skidding out of control on ice and snow.

Accelerating too-fast on slippery surfaces, driving at excessive speeds and sudden turning and braking can cause your tires to lose traction and throw your vehicle into a skid.

Rear wheel drive vehicles tend to swing, or "fishtail," when you accelerate quickly or go around a corner too fast.

Front wheel drive cars rarely fishtail, says the AAA-Chicago Motor Club. Rapid acceleration causes the wheels to spin and the front of the car to veer off course. Skidding when attempting to round a corner may cause the car to go in a straight line.

Getting out of a skid is basically the same for both types of cars. When you start to skid, try to generate as much traction as possible by taking your foot off the accelerator and off the brakes.

Hold the steering wheel firmly, but don't make any quick turns. Gently steer in the direction you want the front of the car to go. If you want the car to go right, steer right. If you want the car to go left, steer left.

Unless the skid is too severe, following these instructions should get you back on course.

If you have any questions about the Secretary of State's office, please feel free to use our toll-free telephone number (800-252-8980).

Christmas Open House held at Legion

Their annual holiday party for the families of legionnaires was held by the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 recently. The traditional Sunday afternoon social was hosted as is customary, by post Sr. Vice Commander Joseph Airdo.

In his role as the red suited man from the North Pole, well known localite Bob Connolly, presented each child present with a token gift. Special refreshments were served to the youngsters after they were entertained by clowns.

Meanwhile their grown up family members wished each other happy holidays and mingled while also enjoying a buffet supper. Airdo wishes to thank the ladies of the Auxiliary Unit and wives of members for their salad donations to this delicious repast.

The Legion Home was well decorated in the true holiday spirit for the occasion, as it usually is each year; and lends a festive atmosphere to the end-of-the-year holiday.

The Legion Memorial Home was and will be used during the rest of the earlier part of the holiday season by many local groups and organizations for many events. Some groups who have scheduled the use of the Home are the Historical Society, Senior Citizens, Scouting USA, Thunder Valley District and Horizon for the Handicapped.

When possible use a reliable gauge of your own to check your tires for proper inflation. Due to lack of delicate calibration maintenance, many service station air towers are not accurate.

Frigid December makes impact on gas bills

Frigid December tem- peratures had an impact on natural gas home heating bills. The month was 32.9 percent colder than normal, and 71.1 percent colder than 1982. Nine sub-zero days helped make Decem-ber the coldest on record.
In the three days beginning noon December 22 and ending noon December 23, natural gas sendout was about 10.6 billion cubic feet (Bcf). The same period in 1982 saw 2.9 Bcf in sendout.
NI-Gas charts weather trends by "degree days." The term represents the number of degrees by which a day's mean tem- perature (average of day's high and low temperatures) falls below 65 degrees Fahrenheit. Decem-ber 1983 recorded 1487 degree days, compared to 869 degree days for December 1982. The most degree days accumulated in one month in last year's heating season was 1141 in January.
Higher heating bills this season will be mainly the result of colder weather, not a rate increase. The company's last residential rate increase, only the third since 1954, was granted in July 1982 when the company was allowed an average 6.5 percent increase by the Illinois Commerce Com-mission. Gas costs from NI-Gas' pipeline suppliers are also relatively stable.
Since its establishment 30 years ago, NI-Gas has kept its commitment to customers in providing continuous, depend-able service. NI-Gas' under-ground aquifer storage system enables the company to meet all its demands. During the coldest weather storage provides half or more of all gas delivered.
No matter what the weather, homes, businesses and industry in northern Illinois can be assured NI-Gas will continue to deliver natural gas energy needed in its service territory.

Introducing the Cragin Federal Tax Saver CD, the tax-deferred account that could mean $900 tax-free interest to you

Who qualifies for tax exemption?

Qualification for full tax exemption depends largely on how you handle your finances in 1985. But like millions upon millions of other Americans, you are likely to qualify for part, if not the full, exemption—$900 for families filing joint returns, $450 for single taxpayers.

How the Tax Saver Account works

The Cragin Federal Tax Saver Account is a special, federally insured, one-year certificate of deposit paying 10%. The interest you deposit earns will be credited to your account on the last day of its term—intentionally in 1985. This lets you take advantage of the $450 or $900 interest exclusion when it is first available.
In short, you can make a shrewd financial move right now that will avoid federal income taxes in 1984 and most likely save you tax dollars in 1985.*

Take advantage of tax deferral alone

Don't think of the tax-free feature as the only benefit of this CD. It could very well serve your interest to deposit more, as much as you can afford. Why? Because the more you deposit, the more interest you'll put off to 1985. The longer you defer income, the later you'll have to account to Uncle Sam for it. In this case, not until April 15, 1986! So, whether you qualify for the tax-free exemption or exceed the interest income needed for your maximum, you'll certainly benefit from simple tax deferral.

The qualification standards are not stringent at all, and are formulated to encourage saving, rather than buying on credit. If the interest you earn from sav-ings is greater than your interest expense (excluding mortgage and business inter-est), then you qualify for a tax exemption. The more your interest from savings ex-cceeds your interest expense (this includes expenses such as credit card interest, auto loan interest, etc.), the larger your tax-free exclusion. The exclusion is based on 15% of your net interest income (inter-est income less interest expense). In other words, a single taxpayer would merely have to earn $3,000 in 1985 net interest income to qualify for the maximum exemption: joint-return taxpayers, $6,000 in net interest income.

If you have your money in a money market fund, your dividends do not qualify for an exemption in 1985. Why not move your money to a Cragin Tax Saver CD.

You can qualify for the 1985 interest tax exemption whether you use the reg-ular 1040 long form or the short form.

Sign up now—for maximum 1984 tax savings

The sooner you open your Cragin Tax Saver Account this year, the more taxes on interest you can defer. For example, if you had put $20,000 in a Tax Saver Account at the beginning of this year, you'd have defer-red paying taxes on $2,000 in interest until taxable year 1985. Let's say, for purposes of comparison, you wait until July 1 to open your account with a $20,000 deposit. Then you'd only be able to defer taxes on $1,000 in interest. Thus losing the benefit of avoiding paying taxes on $1,000. So, the longer you wait to open your account, the more of your earned interest will be taxable in 1984.
And remember, the more you put in a Tax Saver Account now, the more taxes on interest you can defer until 1985.

Free tax guide plus a gift

Open a Cragin Federal Tax Saver CD now and receive absolutely free your copy of "1984 Personal Income Tax Guide," a 54-page book published by Prentice-Hall and packed with valuable information which specifically ad-dresses the 1983 tax laws. You'll also get your choice of 31 gifts, either free or at substantial savings.

Let your Cragin counselor help you

A message from Adam A. Jahns,
Chairman of the Board and President

Our Cragin 1-Year Tax Saver Account is the most convenient way to defer as much savings interest to the time when it can do you the most good—to when the tax laws work in your favor. Naturally, you'll have questions about this simple and innovative plan. We invite you to drop into any Cragin Financial Center to sit down with a Cragin counselor, and discuss all aspects of the Tax Saver Account.

I urge you to act on this remarkable pro-gram, in the same way smart savers joined our All Savers program in 1981. And, as in the case of All Savers, the earlier you act, the more you benefit.

*The Tax-Free exclusion is based on current federal tax laws.

Annunzio announces academy nominations

Congressman Frank Annunzio (11th Dist-III) announced the names of the young people from the 11th District he has nominated to compete for appointments to the Military Academy, the Naval Academy, the Air Force Academy, and the Merchant Marine Academy, for the classes beginning in July 1984.

Annunzio explained that there are three methods of making appointments to the Service Academies: (1) naming one principal and nine designated alternates, (2) naming one principal and nine competing alternates, and (3) naming ten equal-rank nominees and letting the academy choose the best qualified.

"My policy has been to use method (3)," said the 11th District Congressman, "because it takes the appointments totally out of politics, eliminates favoritism, and puts the appointments directly on the basis of merit."

The local nominee for two vacancies to the Air Force Academy includes: Eric Glenn Schmidt, 7348 W. Lill st., Niles.

The nominees for one vacancy to the Military Academy include Patrick William Chester, 7760 Nordica, Niles.

The nominees for two vacancies to the Naval Academy include Madal Adele Frey, 4901 Jarvis, Skokie, and Eric Glenn Schmidt, 7348 W. Lill st., Niles.

Annunzio said he hoped that 11th District residents interested in nominations for the academy classes beginning in 1985 would contact him as soon as possible so that early consideration could be extended. The Congressman can be reached at the following addresses: 2303 Rayburn Building, Washington, D.C. 20515; Room 201, 4747 W. Peterson ave., Chicago 60646; and Room 3616, 239 S. Dearborn st., Chicago 60604.

Nimrod questions Kustra's change of address

Inga Nimrod, Republican Candidate of Glenview, for the Illinois Senate 28th District is questioning the illegality of Bob Kustras' petitions as to why they list an address other than his residence in Glenview?

"Look, I don't understand all these things," said Mrs. Nimrod "but this business of his address is very confusing. My June '83 Glenview telephone book lists him at one address and his petitions list him at an apartment of Golf Rd." continued Nimrod. She was seeking legal advice to see if his petitions should be challenged.

The area of petitions was an

Washington School gets a surprise

Reading a biography is always an enjoyable experience and for several students in Mrs. Solomon's class this experience has become very exciting with some unexpected surprises.

After reading a selection from their new Macmillan book about Lillian Der from her book, "Chinatown Sunday" by Carol Ann Bales, the students prepared interview questions to ask Miss Moy, our third grade teacher. Since Miss Moy is also a Chinese-American, they wanted to find out if she also had similar experiences and feelings as Lillian did when she was growing up.

Finding out that both participated in similar customs was exciting. However, can you imagine the surprise when Miss Moy told them that she knew the author, Carol Bales! Carol worked in District 63 in the late 60's as the District's public information person.

Without much prompting Miss Moy will invite Miss Bales to come to Washington School after the students write a letter of invitation.

St. Paul reports $6 million earnings

St. Paul Federal today reported year-end 1983 earnings of $6,150,000 compared with a loss of $6,700,000 in 1982.

Joseph C. Scully, president and chief executive officer, attributed St. Paul Federal's successful turnaround, which began in the second half of 1982, to lower interest rates that resulted in a positive spread of 1.2 percent between the cost of money and investment yields. "This represents the largest investment spread since 1978," said Mr. Scully.

Contributing to 1983's profitability was the extremely successful introduction of Money Market and Super Checking accounts, the American Dream Mortgage and the Cash Bonus Certificate Program. "During the first month of 1983 we realized net deposits of over $56 million," Mr. Scully noted, "the highest one-month total in our 94-year history. Total deposits increased by $247 million in 1983."

The Association's lending programs contributed greatly to the year end results. Total lending volume in 1983 was $336 million of which over $261 million was in adjustable rate loans. "The successful introduction of adjustable rate loans allowed us to make significant progress in getting a closer match between assets and liabilities. When we introduced the American Dream Mortgage last May, we were amazed by the results, taking $100 million in loan applications in the first seven weeks," Mr. Scully noted. The American Dream Mortgage is an affordable adjustable rate mortgage which includes some of the benefits of a fixed rate mortgage for the home buyer.

In April, St. Paul Federal acquired branches in Buffalo Grove and Oak Creek, Ill. in Chicago from Manning Savings and Loan. In addition, new offices were opened in Harwood Heights and Carol Stream. The Association now has 23 offices throughout the Chicago metropolitan area.

According to Mr. Scully, "The continuing expansion of electronic banking has also helped us reduce operating costs and at the same time, provide more convenience to our customers." In 1983, St. Paul Federal installed new Cash Station automated teller machines in the Franklin Park, Rolling Meadows, Hanover Park, Harwood Heights, and Carol Stream branch locations. "Customers with St. Paul Express Cards can make deposits and withdraw cash at these facilities and other Cash Stations 24 hours a day, as well as during business hours at more than 200 Jewel Food Stores," Mr. Scully said.

Felician College registration

Felician College will open the spring semester in January with new computer education facilities and courses for both daytime and evening students.

Felician is an accredited two-year liberal arts college at 3800 W. Peterson ave. The new semester starts Jan. 16 for day classes. Evening classes begin meeting during the week of Jan. 23.

Registration for regular day programs will be held Jan. 10 and 11, from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. On-campus registration for evening classes is scheduled for Jan. 17 and 18, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. All registrations for evening courses will be accepted through Jan. 18, and late registrations until classes begin, if still open, according to the registrar, Sister Mary Regina Machiewicz.

The new Computer Education Center at the college provides classroom space and personal computers in separate compartments where students can learn and practice computer skills individually.

Computer courses for the spring semester include: "Introduction to Computer Science," designed either for those who only seek a working knowledge or students who plan to advance in the computer field. This course will be offered both to regular daytime students and adult evening students. A more advanced course on computer programming will be open to day students only. A noncredit course, "Computer Literacy," will be available only in the evening.

The college's academic dean, Sister Mary A. Stephanette Kolanowski, said the computer literacy course "is for those of us who were educated 'B.C.' - before computers." It will assist basic concepts, terminology, how computers work, and the characteristics of personal computers on the market today.

Credit evening courses cover general education subjects, general business, business administration, and secretarial science. In addition, the college will again sponsor evening training courses on drug and alcohol addiction counseling, in cooperation with the Central States Institute of Addiction. The courses are approved by the Illinois Alcoholism Counseling

Niles West Mathletes are on their way

A recent win in a preliminary round placed the Niles West High School Mathletes fifth overall among the 25 high school teams competing in the North Suburban Math League Contest. Four preliminary meets among five or six of the participating schools, plus a conference meet between all 25, comprise the league competition beginning in October and ending in February. Both oral and written work is tested.

The Niles West mathletes' standing thus far is the result of good work from all team members, and perfect papers written in the first meet by freshman Tanya Lee and Fred Delphin, and sophomore Kim Liu, with senior David Glassner providing a second place in the oral portion. More points toward the 5th place were added during the second meet, held at Niles West, by perfect papers from junior Joe Myers and Glassner, who also took first place in the oral portion in that round. "The whole team is terrific to work with," says Stan Weittenfeld, the new faculty sponsor of the school mathletes program. He is assisted by mathematics teachers Bob Murphy and Don Field.

Altogether, the Niles West mathletes participate in 7 different local, state, national and international mathematics competitions throughout the school year.

National College series on adolescents

North Shore parents, school faculty members and human services professionals may attend a free seminar series, "Endangered Species: The Adolescent," at National College of Education. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. on Jan. 18, Jan. 25 and Feb. 1 at the college's Evanston campus, 2840 Sheridan Rd.

National College faculty member Shirley Hurst, of Glenco, will discuss "Adolescent Sexuality and Stress Management" Jan. 18, "Adolescents and Mortality" Jan. 25, and "Adolescent Self-Esteem and Substance Abuse" Feb. 1.

Hurst holds the Master of Education degree in guidance and counseling from Towson State College in Towson, Md. Her specializations include widowhood, divorce, adolescent grief, single parenting, child abuse and domestic violence. She teaches in National College's human services program, which prepares students for counseling careers in the social services.

OCC cheerleaders dedicated to team spirit

It was a typically nice gesture of the Oakton Community College cheerleaders when they recently surprised basketball player Brian McAdams with a birthday cake after a game.

That's just the way these six young women are. Being a cheerleader at Oakton isn't like being one in high school, where the position usually brings positive social status and recognition. And it's especially not like high school where the stands are more often than not filled with enthusiastic students.

Typically, at the community college level, players and cheerleaders work up a sweat only for themselves and their teams. The fanfare that usually accompanies high school basketball dissipates by the time it gets to a community college.

The lack of fan support, though, hasn't discouraged the half-dozen cheerleaders at OCC. To the contrary, it's made them cheer that much harder and that much louder.

"Someone's got to support the team," is the way cheerleader Colleen Dohr assessed the situation. "We're mainly here for the team - to give them some support."

All of the Oakton cheerleaders said they enjoy what they do. And after only a few moments of watching them, it's obvious that they mean it.

Only cheerleader captain Jill Lebovitz is a veteran from last year's squad and a former high school wrestling cheerleader. The rest - Dohr, Flora Babilla, Sharon Nowak, Kim Rickett and Jackie Sime - have never been in the limelight as a cheerleader.

"I guess I always was interested, but I never cheered in high school," said Babilla. I got involved at Oakton because I wanted to be more involved in school activities. I really am enjoying it, too."

Lebovitz said being a cheerleader at OCC has allowed her the opportunity to meet many people and make new friends.

"That's probably the best part of it," she said. "The other girls we have this year are all nice and we get a chance to become friends with the guys on the team, too. These are all people you'd otherwise never meet."

Becoming an Oakton cheerleader requires a strong commitment to the cause. In addition to pre-season practice of four hours a week, the cheerleaders attend home and away basketball games. They also arrive early to home games for practice.

"They're out there because they enjoy it," said Cynthia Doubek, a former OCC cheerleader who now is Oakton's athletic secretary and cheerleading advisor. "All of the girls have jobs and school, along

Von Steuben reunion party

Employees will donate between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Teletype, 555 W. Touhy, Skokie. The blood drive is hosted by the Teletype Club. Karen Wielgoz, the blood drive chairperson, encourages all staff to donate and help avert a January blood shortage.

OCC final registration nears

Time is running out for persons wanting to register for spring classes at Oakton Community College. Spring classes begin January 16.

Final registration is scheduled for January 9 and 10, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Students may register at either OCC/Des Plaines, 1600 E. Golf rd., or OCC/Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave.

John Gaglin, OCC director of admissions and records, noted that the College offers a wide variety of classes and programs that are scheduled for days, evenings and weekends in order to meet the needs of the community.

"There are a lot of opportunities here for both the young student coming out of high school and for the older student," he said. "For the younger student, you can come here for the first two years and then transfer those credits earned at OCC to a four-year school. We also have a number of vocational programs."

For the student who has been out of high school for a while, Oakton offers the chance to improve current job skills or learn new ones, Gaglin said.

"Things are changing so fast that a person who's employed might want to upgrade their skills," he said. "Some people might just want to try another career altogether. At Oakton, you can learn new skills whether you're employed or not."

In addition, tuition at OCC is within the financial reach of nearly every district resident. Financial aid is available for those who meet the requirements. Students who have questions should contact the financial aid office.

In-district students pay only $16 per credit hour for Oakton courses, and financial aid is available to qualified students enrolled at least half-time in Oakton degree of certificate programs.

For further information about registration, call OCC/Des Plaines, 635-1700 or OCC/Skokie, 635-1400.

Jerry Guth, the prime C.P.R. instructor, will be conducting cardiopulmonary resuscitation classes on February 15 and 22 from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. and also on April 18 and 25. Additional courses can be arranged for special interest groups, such as businesses, churches, clubs, etc.

Just for fun, the 4th Annual Family Splash Party will be held on Friday, Feb. 3 from 7-9 p.m. Each year the variety of water activities are enjoyed by people of all ages and the traditional old fashioned Hot Dawg sale will be held in the North Lobby. Registration is not necessary for the Family Splash Party, all are welcome to an evening of fun. The Life Guard, First Aid and C.P.R. classes require prior registration. For additional information, call Laurie Guth at 647-8222.

Some things have changed with the times. We are seeing the traditional family structure undergoing tremendous stress. There has been a dramatic increase in single parent families. Women are working more, and the number of children coming home to an empty house has also dramatically increased. In fact, the percentage of mothers who stay home while the husbands work is estimated to be around 10%-20% of the families in this area!

The people in this area are more likely to get divorced if the marriage is unhappy than to "stick it out for the kids." We have witnessed an increase in teenage rebellion, confusion and a loss of direction. The statistics on teenage drug/alcohol abuse have tripled since 1969. This area is of great concern to parents and the public as well. Of course, alcoholism and addiction in an adult population has also increased greatly. It's important to remember that drug/alcohol abuse is not just a teenage problem, it's society's problem.

Niles Family Service has also changed to meet these challenges. We have sponsored special programs for the single parent each year, recognizing the special psychological needs they have. Parent education has become more important to the community as the problems have become more complex and confusing. We are also co-operating with special "phone-free" programs that a youngster can call and reach a specially trained volunteer if the child is alone. This volunteer can reassure them, answer questions, or get help if it is needed.

Niles Family Service recognizes the importance of prevention. Under Larry Renetzky's direction, Dr. James Cisek has developed the School/Community Outreach for Preventive Education (SCOPE) program which has spread nationwide. This program can provide students with an opportunity to learn life skills-the skills needed to meet life's psychological challenges.

Some things have not changed, however. Niles Family Service has a commitment to serve the community. No one is denied service because of an inability to pay. There is not a waiting list and callers are usually seen within a week, or in an emergency even the same day.

Larry Renetzky has been the Director dating from the one room in the old fire house in January of 1969, providing the services that can turn a house into a home. Next week we will discuss the other parts of Niles Family Service. If you have any questions, or if we can help you or your family, please call us at 692-3396, or feel free to come in and have a cup of coffee and become better acquainted with how your Family Service department is serving the people of Niles and how it may serve you.

the computer has incorrect information. If the computer contains a wrong number or name, you could be wrongly denied a mortgage, a loan, or a job - without even knowing why."

Jaffe said the fourth kind of danger comes from unauthorized access to computer files - or computer break-ins. "There have been several recent cases of computer 'break-ins,'" he said. "High school kids in Milwaukee and Los Angeles broke into computers in hospitals, schools, and banks. Imagine what kind of personal information is stored in those systems. We need to find out what can be done to protect people from these kinds of privacy invasions via computers."

Jaffe said he has asked the Commission to find out which Illinois agencies keep computerized records on specific persons and what kind of information those records contain. He wants to know how agencies verify that information, if the information is relevant to the purposes of the agency that collects it, and whether it is collected with the knowledge and consent of the individual.

when you stop to realize that our enrollment is decreasing," said Murphy.

"Collectively, societal changes resulted in our having in the schools, large numbers of students who were less concerned about school than their predecessors. The pendulum is apparently swinging back toward more traditional values. With that return, we are experiencing an improvement in test scores in District 207," said Murphy.

While the national report showed that average college entrance exams fell, in Maine Township ACT (American College Test) scores are above the level they were at in 1974 and scores are improving according to Murphy. "Since almost 50 percent of our juniors and seniors participate in ACT testing, this means that we do not restrict the taking of that test to only our best students," said Murphy.

In other business, Village Planner Charles Scheck presented, and the board approved by a 5 to 0 vote, with Trustee Richard Hols absent, the awarding of a $29,144 low bid contract to H and H Electric Co., for the maintenance of streets and traffic control lighting through 1984.

Scheck said this figure represented "a 2 or 3 thousand dollar price increase over last years contract" with H and H Electric.

Scheck also presented, and the board approved by a 5 to 0 vote, a resolution authorizing payment of $24,000 to the engineering firm Ciorba Group, Inc., for additional work on the Beckwith Road Improvement Project.

The firm in now charged with resolving the drainage problems that have been found along Hays Ave., between Sherman and Dempster.

Lastly, Trustee Greenberg presented, and the board approved a resolution increasing the salary of Larry Art, Village Administrator, from $38,500 to $43,500 yearly. Said Greenberg, "We told whoever we hired that on January 1st, we would review their performance, and if their work was satisfactory, we would pay them the salary of the last administrator. We are very, very happy with Mr. Art."

District 207 joined "Micro-Hans" for the 1983-84 school year. This membership affords the school district the opportunity to obtain software for preview, receive software evaluation information, purchase Minnesota Education Computer Consortium (MECC) software at a reduced cost, and participate in special seminars and workshops according to Morris. In addition, teachers will be able to enroll in courses offered jointly by Micro-Ideas and the National College of Education.

The Technical Processing Center at Maine East has been given the responsibility to catalog and distribute all computer software, according to Morris. "A partial listing of computer software owned by District 207 has already been prepared and further updates are planned throughout the 1983-84 year," he said.

"A district instructional computer users group will be meeting on a monthly basis to explore various activities which would be implemented. Composed of representatives from a wide range of disciplines, these staff members will also be working on a building level to distribute information and to seek staff input," said Morris. These programs will help Maine Township ensure that the District makes the best possible use of computers and the new technology according to Morris.

In 1894 the parsonage was erected at a cost of $1,500. This parsonage still stands and is used today. The land for it was donated by brewery-owner, Mr. William Hill.

During the early years, people came to Niles for worship at St. John Lutheran from far and wide: Wilmette, Wheeling, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and Chicago. Three daughter congregations were founded by members of St. John Lutheran-St. Matthew in 1898, The first of four centennial services was held on January 11, 1959, commemorating 100 years of Divine Grace, Guidance and Faithfulness. However, one week later, on the following Sunday morning, January 18, 1959, the church was severely damaged by a fire which destroyed the interior of the 57-year-old suburban landmark. The fire was first noticed by Niles policemen riding on Waukegan Rd. They observed smoke pouring from the steeple and immediately summoned the
