Wags gets nod from Niles Zoners

By Bob Busker

The Niles Zoning Board, presided over by Mr. Abe Setman, had an interesting meeting last week where the board members talked about a proposed plan to add new buildings to the area. The plan included the addition of a new building on the corner of Main and Main Street.

After much discussion, the board members voted to approve the plan, subject to certain conditions. The plan would require the developer to provide parking for their new building and to comply with local zoning laws.

The new building would house a restaurant and a small retail store. The restaurant would serve breakfast, lunch, and dinner and would be open seven days a week. The retail store would sell household items and groceries.

The board members were pleased with the plan and indicated that they would be happy to approve the plan if the developer met the conditions outlined in the meeting.

The next meeting of the Niles Zoning Board is scheduled for next month and will include a discussion of the proposed plan.

Many people don’t know there are different Visa and MasterCards. Skokie Federal wants you to take a close look at your “brand” and compare it with ours. You’ll see there is a difference. You’ll probably pay lower interest rates over the long run, and get higher lines of credit and higher travel benefits. A Skokie Federal card allows you to District 207 Core program helps students develop skills

Three students have been selected to attend the District 207 Core program. This is a program designed to remediate deficient students. These students have been identified as needing academic support. The students selected are:

1. John Doe, age 15, attending Oak Park Junior High School
2. Jane Smith, age 14, attending Forest Park Middle School
3. Mike Johnson, age 16, attending Webster Groves High School

The students were selected based on their performance in the classroom and their academic needs. The program will provide them with additional support in their learning. They will receive instruction from special education teachers and will be integrated into the regular classroom setting.

Legal Notice

The Board of Education of District 207 has adopted a policy regarding the use of school buildings for religious activities. The policy applies to all schools within the district. The policy states that school buildings may be used for religious activities if:

- The activity is approved by the principal and the superintendent of schools.
- The activity is held during non-instructional hours.
- The activity does not disrupt the educational process.

Any questions regarding the policy should be directed to the Superintendent of Schools.

IRA's...Do you
"throw money away?"

By Timothy F. Shook, Chairman
Peotoves Federal Savings

During the years of the "Great Depression" of the 1930's, which were marked by frequent lapses of interest rates, few financial institutions could withstand the severe competition and losses that ensued. But, in the years following 1933, fundamental changes were made in Federal Savings and Loan Legislation that provided for a "stabilized" Federal Savings and Loan System.

Its history reads like a series of "firsts." The first to offer a 1 year money market certificate in the financial world. The first to insist that "rates and fees, as charged for services, must be clearly and conspicuously displayed to customers." The first to set the highest standards for management, operations, and service of any organization in the world.

To "throw money away" is to fail to realize the benefit that comes from the compounding of interest. The longer you keep your money in a savings account, the greater the benefit due to the compounding of interest. Why not make your IRA contribution as early as possible. The sooner you do, the greater the benefit to you and your investors.

Tornado preparedness instructions

The Federal Emergency Management Agency has published a national campaign to educate and prepare Americans for the possibility of tornadoes. Here are some important steps you can take to prepare your home and family for a tornado:

1. Identify safe rooms or areas in your home that can protect you from flying debris. These areas are typically basement closets or interior walls with no windows.
2. If you are outdoors, go to the nearest building or lie down in a ditch away from trees and power lines.
3. Stay informed by monitoring local news and weather reports. The National Weather Service provides up-to-date information on tornadoes.
4. Practice your emergency plan with your family and follow the instructions provided by your local authorities.

The residents expressed their concern regarding the zoning board members' statement that the restaurant would not cause flooding. However, they believed that any construction at this location might cause a dam effect, inching the required 143 feet for the 150-costumer restaurant. The officials agreed that this could lead to parking and traffic issues, especially since the parking lot is often a barrier not for pedestrians but for developers. The historic film of the Legion Home would be presented, and refreshments would be served on Sunday, April 9 from 2 to 5 pm.

The clinic is open to persons of all ages. Because class size is changing, there is absolutely no ticket sales. Patients must purchase their own medication and have written prescriptions from their own physicians. The meeting will be held at the hospital auditorium, 8700 W. Ridge Road, on April 10 at 7:30 pm. The meeting is open to all levels of musicians. Founded in 1980, The Society is a group that presents a variety of music, including concerts from Vivaldi to Scott- Whyte. The clinic is conducted and refreshments will be served at 6:30 pm.

The residents also said that they had been experiencing noise problems at the Burger King, with King employees making noises and blaring music with their speakers. The Burger King's object is to reproduce as limited, but at the Burger King, they started in 1996, and the Burger King is the King of Kings, known as the Rifle Squad, a part of the Legion Home.
