Village of Niles transit coaches

The Village of Niles has recently purchased nine new transit coaches to replace its aging fleet. The new coaches are expected to improve service and reduce maintenance costs.

Builder vetos lot agreement

The village of Niles has recently vetoed an agreement that would have allowed a builder to develop a lot in the village. The builder had initially presented plans for a new building, but the village council felt that the proposed structure was not in line with the village's overall development plan.
