High praise given park coaches

At Tuesday night's park board meeting, park district coaches and personnel were roundly praised by letter-writers and a park commissioner for their outstanding work in the district. Resident Dawn Jesse sent a letter praising Debby Hertl for a job well done working in the girls' softball leagues. Jesse wrote, prior to Hertl's involvement, the program was not too successful but since her active participation, the program has expanded and several winning teams have resulted. A second letter from John Marusek commended the outstanding jobs coach Jay Russ and Superintendent of Recreation Debby Nelson have done in their work within the district. by Bud Besser.

We saw Chicago from a different vantage point last Thursday morning. We took a ride up the north branch of the Chicago River.

The Metropolitan Sanitary District hosted the morning tour which began at the Wrigley building debarkation point.

Wending your way west and then north you see Chicago up close. The 333 Wacker building has a green glass construction which envelopes the huge front side in an almost 180 degree front facade. It's striking and you see a new perspective you don't get standing in front of the building. Across the river you pass the Merchandise Mart. It's big and impressive but very dirty.

Around the bend heading north you slide under the Kinzie bridge. Amidst the old construction is a rehab which is named the Fulton Condos. It's a downtown residence we never knew existed.

Bob Day, one of the officers running the tugboat, said the Metropolitan Sanitary District (MSD) takes periodic samplings from the river. He said industry along the river is very co-operative and the water is becoming fresher with each year. He said the water is still bad in some spots

Public Works power hitter, Terry Gendola, and policemen Bill Terpinas and John Katsoulas split seven hits among them to lead the village team to its first victory over the previously undefeated Chamber team.

Chamber pitcher Bud Besser, who was pitching a no-hitter into the middle of the first inning, decided to ease off in the second inning allowing nine runs to score. He reported someone increased the light wattage up in

Niles Art Guild meeting

To open their 1984-85 monthly meetings, the Niles Art Guild will present Shirf Smithson, a very talented artist, on Sept. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Niles Recreation Center, 7877 Milwaukee ave. in Niles. Having spent many summers during her early years near the reservations, in Wisc. and Arizona, Ms. Smithson has learned to combine her natural aptitude for figure work and landscape painting with a natural interest in the American Indian, thereby giving her the ability to paint tribal life with sensitivity.

Her formal art education came as a scholarship student during high school and later the years as a student of the "School of the Chicago Art Institute" plus the "Chicago Academy of Fine Arts" and various well known painters such as George Bueher and Boris Anisfeld.

Much of her work is sold on commission based by referral and she also has many private students. Shirf's paintings can be found and have been shown in many corporate collections and exhibits such as Walgreens, Allstate Insurance Co., Executive Plaza, Quaker Oats, Kraft Foods, Sears Tower and Merrill Lynch. Come and join us for an interesting and informative program. Coffee and refreshments will be served. The public is invited. No admission fee charged.

September NORTRAN passes now on sale

Although summer sales lagged behind, NORTRAN (North Suburban Mass Transit District) hopes to see RTA monthly pass sales boosted by riders who traditionally return in September and are recently announced RTA (Regional Transportation Authority) promotions.

Revenue from August passes sold at NORTRAN and its outlets was down slightly from last year. However, every other month in 1984 showed considerable increases over 1983. These were due in large part to NORTRAN's implementation of a Pass-By-Mail program last July.

Pass-by-mail forms and a list of locations are available from NORTRAN drivers or at the NORTRAN office, 900 E. Northwest hwy., P.O. Box 388, Des Plaines, IL, 60016. NORTRAN is an RTA funded carrier.

Former ND student injured in accident

Edison Parker Kevin Walter was seriously injured in a swimming accident in a Northbrook lake. The injuries he sustained have confined him to the Spinal Cord Unit at Northwestern Memorial Hospital on Superior Street and Fairbanks Court in Chicago. After sustaining the injury, Kevin was taken by paramedics to Glenbrook Hospital in Glenview. X-rays indicated that he needed the care afforded by the Spinal Cord Unit for his neck had been broken.

Transferred to Northwestern, he was placed at first in Intensive Care and remains in head and neck traction. It is expected that Kevin's condition will necessitate four to six weeks in this traction with a further three months in a neck brace.

Kevin, the son of Gordon and Patricia Walter, is the youngest of eleven children. He was born and raised in Edison Park. He attended Notre Dame High School when he had won the math scholarship as a student from St. John Brebeuf. At Notre Dame he also played on the Freshman Football Team. At St. John Brebeuf he was a member of the football, floor hockey and softball teams.

Often when tragedy strikes, bystanders and friends feel helpless. Since Kevin has no insurance and the costs will be astronomical, friends of the family have instituted a Kevin Walter Fund. The Bank of Commerce and Industry, 6100 N. Northwest hwy., Chicago, IL 60631 has graciously consented to administer this fund. As a result anyone who wished to express solicitude and care can send their checks to the Kevin Walter Fund at the above address, attention of Mr. Joseph Alagna.

"National studies indicate that one of every three Americans lives with moderate to severe personal stress," Dr. Barr. "People are aware of the relationship between high stress and health, 85% in one survey indicated that they would like to handle stress more effectively." He further states, "High stress impacts on a person's life in many ways. ## Responsive parenting series planned

Improving family life through positive parenting methods will be the focus of a series of discussions this fall sponsored by MaineStay Youth Services in Park Ridge. Parents from Maine Township are invited to attend the 10-week series beginning this September.

The discussion will be based on the comprehensive, issue-oriented program on "Responsive Parenting," developed by Saf Lerman. Lerman is a well-known parent educator, author and syndicated columnist. The program is especially geared to parents of babies, toddlers, and young children. It also is useful for parents of older children and teenagers. "Responsive Parenting" teaches positive, creative approaches to parenting. It offers choices in methods of discipline and communication and gives parents an opportunity to clarify their own needs and feelings around a broad range of child-rearing issues.

Some of the subjects discussed are a guide to positive discipline, tools for helping parents and children see the other's point of view, and building independence and cooperation in children. Group members explore their own childhoods and family relationships and examine how these factors influence their present parenting techniques. For more information, call 623-0650.

Many people are not happy with the shape they're in. They've gotten fatter, thinner, lazier, flabbier, or even more tense than they would like to be. Yet, with the right mental attitude and even the smallest amount of effort and discipline, you can now start to look as good as nature intended you to right into your old age.

At times, it appears this country has gone mad for exercise. More people now than ever before are into the fitness craze, joining health clubs and spas, squash clubs and tennis clubs. Some have even turned a spare room in their home into a gym. Sixty-year-old men running in the 26-mile New York Marathon. Packs of joggers are trotting through the parks and around their blocks at six o'clock in the morning.

There is still a lot of controversy as to what kind of exercises are good for you and how often you should do them. Many doctors do not know how to prescribe exercise, and the only measure of how much and what kind you need seem to be the ones you take on yourself. A doctor is still the best one to advise you on what you should or should not try to attempt, depending on your health background.

Finding an exercise routine that you can enjoy and look forward to seems like a difficult task to complete. There are several exercises which, if you stick to them, will keep you looking and feeling great.

HEALTH TIP

It's better to exercise for 20-30 minutes a day than for three to four hours once a week. The thing to avoid most is overdoing any type of exercise.

PASTA PRIMAVERA

(For 6 Servings)

- 1 lb. Pasta, either Spinach or one made with Semolina Wheat, cooked al dente
  - 1 cup broccoli pieces, blanched and drained
  - 1 cup cauliflower florets, blanched and drained
  - 1 large carrot, sliced
  - 1 small zucchini, sliced
  - 1 red pepper, cut into small strips
  - 1 tomato, seeded and chopped
  - 1/4 lb. mushrooms
  - 3 Tbl. olive oil
  - 2 Tbl. Butter or margarine
  - 1/4 cup parmesan cheese
  - pepper to taste
- Heat butter and oil together in a large skillet or electric frypan. Add garlic and cook 2-3 minutes. When garlic is sauted, add the broccoli, cauliflower, and carrot. Stir fry until the carrots are tender-about 5 minutes. Next add the zucchini, red pepper, tomato and mushrooms. Cook until the tomatoes are tender. Season with the pepper, and toss in the noodles. When the noodles are warmed through, remove from heat and mix in the parmesan cheese until thoroughly combined. Can be served immediately or can be reheated.

This recipe can be made with any combination of vegetables and can be served as a main dish or as a pasta sidedish.

Walking: This is an excellent beginning exercise, which is good for the heart, lungs, and muscle tone if done briskly. Walk at a brisk pace and work up to 10 to 12 minutes. About 1 mile to exercise the heart.

Jogging: Excellent overall conditioner. This is especially good for the heart, lungs, and legs. Build up to doing long distances gradually. Wear a correct type of running shoes. Jogging can be hard on the joints and ligaments. Linger up first before you start to jog.

Running: This is an excellent advanced method of conditioning. This type of physical conditioning along with jogging, will increase the action of your heart and respiratory system. Set your goals gradually. Running in hot weather causes the body to lose water caused by sweating. Runners should make sure to replenish their bodies with water so as not to dehydrate.

Walking, jogging, and running are exercises that will trim you down rather than build up your muscles, and are considered good overall conditioners.

With the right type of exercises you can:

- Control your weight
- Control your mental and physical fatigue
- Ward off disease
- Improve your posture
- Enjoy inner organs that can function more efficiently
- Experience less nervous tension
- Improve your sex life
- Retard the aging process

If time and bad habits have taken their toll on your physical condition, reverse this process now, no matter what your age is. You deserve to have a healthy and beautiful body. Start now, and you can do it.

Weight control instruction continues at Parkside

Educated weight control instruction - teaching persons why they overeat in order to teach them how to diet - is available through outpatient nutrition services at Parkside Human Services, Park Ridge. Parkside Human Services is a member of the Lutheran General Health Care System.

The weight control sessions are offered in small, personal groups. Two ten-week classes for adults will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 18 at 10:30 a.m. and Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. for one hour every week.

Prior to the first class, a registered dietitian counsels each participant individually. Diets are geared towards the working and eating habits of the individual and the family and their amount of daily activity.

"Weight control is not as simple as saying, 'I'm going to eat less,'" says Kathy Schmid, registered dietitian in Parkside's outpatient nutrition office. "Food touches all parts of our lives - family gatherings, work, and happy or sad occasions," she adds.

Ms. Schmid believes that eating patterns, which are established in childhood, need to be relearned in order to diet successfully and maintain that new weight. She explains that Parkside's weight control

Flynn ready to defend Niles against 'red celosia' invasion

Dear Editor: I should not have won the Village Beautification Contest. I try, with great success, not to cut my grass. My dutiful and obedient son and daughter perform that tedious task. My two younger daughters will take over when their older brother and sister refuse to help their poor old father.

I plant no trees, spread no fertilizer, water no bushes and joggers do not stop to admire my wonderful landscape. I wouldn't walk across the street to look at a plant. I know no one who would. Only in California would someone drive 2,500 miles to look at grass.

However, I wish to assure my neighbors that I am ready to defend our block. If any San Jose Poodles, three tier Junipers, fiery red crimson celosias, spreading contonasters, cut leaf sumacs, winter creepers or mugho pines invade our turf I will meet them with a shotgun and shoot to kill. I will especially get the red crimson celosia. No red commie is going to take over our block.

I will watch football games this winter and not plan a vibrant and multicolored attack of plant creatures on nature's back yard. I will pray the one tree on the parkway will not fall down on my wonderful car and curse the per-

H & R Block Special Tax School To Start September 5th

Did you know that you probably worked the first four months of this year to pay your taxes? Studies show that the average taxpayer had to work until May 1 just to pay his total tax bill. It takes the first two and a half hours of each workday just to pay the average person's combined federal, state, and local taxes. You could save a great deal of money on your tax bill by learning more about all the tax benefits that you are entitled to.

H&R Block, the nation's largest tax preparation firm, offers a tax course that will not only help you save money on your own taxes but will prepare you to earn a second income preparing taxes professionally. The comprehensive 14-week course covers all aspects of individual income tax returns. Classes include income averaging to save taxes; all special tax credits such as the earned income credit, energy credits, and all available deductions and adjustments to your income such as the moving expense adjustment, travel expenses to a second job, travel expenses for charitable volunteer work, and educational expenses.

Students come from all walks of life—housewives wanting to get son who planted it over thirty years ago if it does. I will continue to be the typical homeowner who marvels at the work of others and spends all the money he saves on the State Electronic Video Lottery Games. The 100,000 to 1 odds are better than the odds I will turn over a new leaf.

Sincerely,
Tom Flynn

Nilesite disagrees with 'prepay your mortgage' advice

Dear Editor: Last week you printed an article, in which the author says, "It makes sense to prepay your mortgage." I hope none of your readers fell for this advice, for they would have become victims of just another swindle of the bankers. It takes but a pocket calculator and a little common sense to recognize the con game. The author gives an example of prepaying a $60,000 mortgage by adding only $50 more to the monthly payments. He says one could save $38,000 and reduce the 29 year pay plan to 20 years. Sounds good if you just sit up and don't question his figuring. What he fails to say is this: (1) By taking the $50 extra per month and investing it in a tax deferred annuity for 29 years, one would accumulate $81,184 (at 9%), or $98,096 (at 10%) and $118,812 (at 11%); (2) Prepayments reduce your tax deductions. So, which would you prefer to have: his advance which saves you $38,000 or your own program wherein you have accumulated double or triple that amount? You listen to him and you lose thousands of dollars.

Friday August 3, we cut & edged the grass & then came Saturday, August 4, the big day. Our home looked beautiful. The judges went by the home & soon the judging was over and the waiting began.

Contest loser asks, 'Where's the house?'

My family & I have lived in Niles for 30 years & took pride in keeping up our home. We would be proud when people we didn't know would stop to tell us how beautiful our lawn & flowers were. So when Niles trustee Peter Pesole announced the beautification contest, I entered. The rules were what people could see as they drove by your house on the sides & the front. They would also be judged on beauty, originality & general appearance of the property.

Friday August 3, we cut & edged the grass & then came Saturday, August 4, the big day. Our home looked beautiful. The judges went by the home & soon the judging was over and the waiting began.

I then called the Village Hall & was given the 3 top winners. Feeling someone must have a beautiful home my son & I got into our car to see the winners. 9204 Ashland is hard to find, in fact we went right by the house. We went back & there behind a 6 foot hedge fence was a 7 foot opening. Inside was the 1st place house. Flowers, not many, 1 small pot I could see. Grass wasn't even cut. Everyone must be as old as the retired persons wanting to start a second career or to keep active; college students seeking supplemental business education or extra income to pay school expenses; working men and women desiring to save money on their own taxes or to earn extra income to meet the family budget. You need no special educational background to successfully complete the course—just desire and a willingness to learn taxes.

Because completion of this course will teach you to prepare nearly any type of personal tax return, H&R Block uses this course to recruit tax preparers needed for the coming tax season. Qualified course graduates may be offered job interviews for positions with H&R Block. However, Block is under no obligation to offer employment, nor are graduates under any obligation to accept employment with H&R Block.

For more information on how you can learn to save money on your own return or earn money preparing other people's taxes, readers should contact H&R Block at 1191 Elmhurst Rd., Des Plaines. Telephone 981-9360.

'Rock bottom' morale over beautification contest

Dear Editor: I write this with regret to the Home Beautification Contest. My husband & I put in hours of time plenty of effort, money & thought into our home & won nothing. I spent $250 alone just on white rock along side my home to say nothing of the roses, flowers, statues, painting trimming and wooden beams along the rock in front.

Contest loser asks, 'Where's the house?'

Today's dishonest money system of paper notes and credit is at cause over our bankruptcies, business collapses, foreclosures, and depressed economy. Instead of money which has solid backing of gold and silver (intrinsic value) which America used for 150 years and which made us powerful and strong, today we have funny paper which is robbing the people of their wealth. People can't see it because the bankers have purposely used deception and power. Federal Statute mandates our money to be gold and silver, but the FED has cleverly circumvented the law and goes about its fleecing of American undisturbed. It's time for Americans to wake up and recognize the con game of the banking empire, and also that the Constitution and Federal Statute are on our side. We can win the game if we try.

Charles Benedetti
Niles, Ill.

I would like you, the people of Niles who worked so hard over the years to keep your homes beautiful & lost like I did take a good look at the houses that won & please voice your opinion like I did. Like Clara Peller said, "Where's the house?"

GOP Assembly sponsors Cong. Weber visit

The Republican Candidate for the U.S. Congress from Clark st. to O'Hare Airport today announced that a coalition of influential businessmen and established Republican party leaders will be the core of his strong campaign to unseat a long time machine Democrat Frank Annunzio.

Charles J. Theusch observed, "This coalition is being spearheaded by Tom Roesser of the Republican Assembly of Illinois." "Congressman Vin Weber will be our featured speaker at our Friday forum," said Chairman Tom Roesser of the Republican Assembly, "and we're inviting all people to come and hear the political voices that are shaping America's future."

The site on Friday, Aug. 24, for the Congressional Reception, at 11:30 a.m., and Luncheon Forum, at 12 p.m., will be the Chicago Marriot O'Hare Hotel. Admission to this 11th District event is only ten dollars, and can be paid at the door. The Marriot O'Hare is located at 8835 W. Higgins rd., just a block west of the Cumberland ave. exit off of Interstate 90 (the Kennedy exp.).

Admission is free and visitors are encouraged to try the equipment, tour the facilities, and participate in MDA's Aerobic Marathon. Many exciting prizes will be available. For further details call Darrel at 792-3113 or stop by and pick up a schedule.

Can't park to buy flowers!

Dear Editor: I live in Chicago and have been coming out to Niles for years to go to the cemetery and always make a stop for flowers at Del-Ann's Florist 6645 Milwaukee ave. But to my surprise I find a curb and two no parking signs have been put up in front of the store. What gives? What is Niles trying to pull now? Where & how are we to get flowers when there's no parking? My daughter who is living in Niles said, do like they do at St. John Brebeuf church when they have doings. Take a brown paper bag and cover the no parking sign & park. Same with White Eagle Restaurant when they have meeting. The cars are parked at anywhere & everywhere on Milwaukee Ave. and the Niles Police look the other way. So I guess they can make exception when we park to shop for our flowers too. How about it Niles we really don't need those no parking signs, but we do need Del-Ann's for flowers.

Editor's Note: The State of Illinois, not the Village of Niles, installed the "No Parking" signs in front of Del Ann's Florist. The State did this after the street was improved and the curbs added in that stretch along Milwaukee Ave. Previously, when no curbs existed in front of the florist, vehicles stopping there could pull up off the street on the area in front of the florist. They are no longer able to do this.

North pom pons are top team at summer skills camp

Although most eyes were focused on the Olympic Games a half a continent away, the Niles North High School pom pon squad, The Vickettes, were performing beautifully at the annual Badgerette Pom Pon Camp, held in Rockford Illinois, August 4-7. In fact, the team captured first place overall, defeating 14 other high school squads.

"They were everything you could want in a group of young women - enthusiastic, well-mannered, hard working and talented," said North Booster Club

President, Chuck Pos, who accompanied the girls. "I'm very proud of the Vickettes," added their coach, Mary Maday Vernon, who explained that they had spent long days rehearsing through the spring and summer months.

In addition to the top award, the Vickettes took first place in every nightly rating each of the four days they were in camp, second place for originality, a first place for their skills, a first place in senior kick line, and the coveted "Spirit Award" the first night there. The latter was given to a total of three teams during the session. Individually, Robin Peller was one of the top three finalists for Miss Badgerette, and Debbie Cohn was one of the four girls chosen for the "All Star" award based on her ability, attitude and enthusiasm.

Stephanie Berman and Chris Pardell are the Vickette co-captains, and team members include Stacey Gordon, Stephanie Berman, Chris Pardell, Carine McCall, Robin Peller, Debbie Cohn, Dianne Skoczek, Sheryl Friedman, Laura Cohn, Illyce Alvin, Mindy Bulmash, Laura Zranksy, Natalie DiNicola, Leslie Krugel, Marissa DeLeon, Heather Carlson, Lisa Aaron, Arlene Roman, Julie Suski, Vickie Singer, Cheryl Cohn, Bari Tessler, Arlene Bae, Susan Lipka, Paulette Malits, and Cindy Bangart.

The squad qualified for the midwest competition in August.

North Stars finish 4th great season

The North Stars ended their 1984 baseball season on a high note with a record of 41 and 9. They finished with a strong 13 game winning streak to win 3 consecutive tournaments: Norwood Park, Harwood Heights, and Wheeling. The North Stars also had a 2nd place in the Northwest All Star Tourney, and finished 5th out of 104 teams in the La Crosse, WI. Tournament, which hosted teams from 7 states.

Most valuable player in the LaCrosse Tourney was Chuck Pemberton. Most Valuable Player for the season was, again, Chuck Pemberton, hitting an amazing 514. John Calarco finished with a 401 with 7 homers and 57 RBI's. Jose Gilhang lead the team in homers with 12 and averaged 393. Craig Niedermaier averaged 364 and finished with a 6 and 0 record in the pitching department. Rob DeVincent, our best defensive player at 3rd base, hit 357. Steve Riley, our only 1st basemen since he was 10 years old, hit 301 and made only 4 errors out of 50 games played. Dave Malin, some special pitcher, won 10 games and hit 281 with 9 homers. Dave Geeve pitched as if he had ice in his veins. He won 7 games and hit 271. Tim Smith hit 392. He was out with an injury for 2 weeks, but never quit. Eric Ruedel pitched well and hit 275. Guy Gianni hit 478 with 6 homers and 20 RBI's with only 46 at bats. Last, but not least, Aaron Feinberg, who hit 285. He had the highest percentage of extra base hits per times at bat; 3 doubles, 2 triples out of 8 hits. Aaron injured himself, but came to the game when he could hardly walk.

GARY M. LaMANTIA, D.D.S.

It is routine for dentists to require that patients provide medical information about their current health. Such information is important because some medical conditions and certain medications can affect the patient's dental treatment.

For example, it is important for dentist to know if a patient has any allergies in the event that any medications need to be prescribed. Also, patients who have heart murmurs or other heart conditions must sometimes be given antibiotics while undergoing dental treatment to prevent the possibility of serious infection.

Bleeding problems and high blood pressure can also affect the course of dental treatment. For this reason, an accurate blood pressure screening is considered to be standard procedure during a dental exam.

Suzuki-Orff music classes coming to Felician

Suzuki and Orff music education for children, beginning at age four, will be offered in the fall at Felician College, the college has announced.

Classes, which start in the week of September 10, will be held weekly for 15 weeks at Felician, 3800 W. Peterson ave., under the direction of the college's department of music.

This will be the only combined Suzuki-Orff program in the northwest Chicago metropolitan area, according to the head of the music department, Sister Mary Alphonsetta Haneman.

"Suzuki," she said, "is the well-known, highly effective method of teaching children to play musical instruments at very young ages, while Orff is a natural approach to music education which supplements Suzuki training and broadens the child's musical experience. Direct parental involvement is required."

Sister Alphonsetta also said the college plans to add Suzuki violin classes as soon as public demand can be determined. She urged all parents interested in considering Suzuki-Orff education for their children to call the college at 539-1919 for further information on the program, or to register before classes for the fall are filled.

Mary Walden, a Chicago pianist with some 20 years of music teaching experience, received her music education at Indiana and De Paul universities. She studied the Suzuki method at De Paul and has taught in several Suzuki programs. Ms. Walden also plays with a chamber music ensemble and serves as a church music director.

Sister Gracilia is a member of the Felician Sisters community, and has taught in parish schools for many years. She studied at De Paul University and has been actively involved in Orff teaching since 1971. She completed the teacher's Orff course at Memphis State University, is an active member of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association (AOSA) and has been a church organist for 22 years.

The Suzuki method was the inspiration of a Japanese violinist, Shinichi Suzuki. Widely adopted throughout the United States and Europe, it is based on the concept that children are born with natural musical abilities and feelings. They learn to play musical instruments through imitation and practice in the same way they learn their native language. A parent, usually the mother, must assume an important role in the process, learning along with the child.

Orff is based on similar concepts introduced in the 1930's by the distinguished German composer, Carl Orff. Widely accepted by U.S. educators, it introduces the child to music naturally with simple percussion instruments, ensemble playing, games, exercises, and other activities with children of the same age. Note reading and more advanced aspects of music are learned in the process.

Both methods allow children to learn at their own pace, without forced discipline.

Niles Senior Center offers dancing classes

This fall the Niles Senior Center, 8060 Oakton in Niles is offering two dancing classes at the senior center. Both classes have been offered at the senior center and have developed a strong following in the past.

Previous students of Ms. Quetschke's from the senior center have participated in recitals at Triton College, as well as performing at the senior center and elsewhere through the Niles Senior Center Choral Group. Previous tap dancing experience is necessary. Anyone interested in this course who does not have previous tap dancing experience may direct their inquiries toward Karen Hansen, program coordinator at the senior center: 967-6100, ext. 376. Advance enrollment is necessary for the course. The first class will begin September 11.

Square Dancing is offered on Tuesdays from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. at the senior center. Don Stace is the caller. There is no tuition fee. Advance enrollment is not necessary for square dancing. After a brief summer vacation, square dancing will resume at the senior center on September 4.

Ann Butler, Treasurer, of Chicago and Betty Feirbank, Recording Secretary of Arlington Heights.

Tempo Players plan "The Mousetrap"

The Tempo Players have started rehearsing for their upcoming production, "The Mousetrap."

This Agatha Christie mystery takes place at a boarding house in England where a group of strangers are stranded during a snow storm—one of whom is a murderer. Is it the spinster? Could it be the Army Major? Or, maybe it's the architect.

Directed by Leo Harmon of River Forest, "The Mousetrap" is the longest running show in England—going for 32 years, and still running.

"The Mousetrap" will be performed at the Oakbrook Terrace Park District Joan B. Ardmore Center, located at 15325 Ardmore in Oakbrook Terr. Performances will be on Friday, September 14; Saturday, September 15; Friday, September 21; Saturday, September 22; Friday, September 28, and Saturday, September 29 at 8 p.m. There are also three Sunday Matinee performances—September 16, 23, and 30 at 2:30 p.m. Tickets for "The Mousetrap" are $5 for Adults, $4 for Senior Citizens & Students; and $3 for Children. Group rates are also available. Seating is reserved. To order tickets call Tempo Players at 345-0987, or write the Ticket Chairman at P.O. Box 6093, Broadview, IL 60153.

'Cool' family outing found at World Alive!

Looking for a cool outing on a hot August day?

Consider air-conditioned World Alive! In nearby Techny.

A multi-media exhibition about the peoples and cultures of the world, World Alive! is ideal for parents seeking an entertaining yet thought-provoking experience for their family.

Housed in the extensive complex of the Divine Word Missionaries, a Catholic missionary order, World Alive! is deliberately non-denominational in approach and is intended as an educational, ecumenical experience in universal understanding.

The self-guided tour takes about an hour. It leads through 11 chambers and galleries which use light, slides, film, sound, music and animation to explore the richness of the human family.

The exhibit also examines the concerns and problems of the modern world, and raises questions about opportunities for progressive change and individual action.

Dancing Under The Stars

Dance under the stars to the music of the Emil Monti Band at 8 p.m. Tuesday, August 21 in the Wilmette Park District's Starlight Theatre at the Wallace Bowl in Gillson Park.

Whether it's a touch of nostalgia with the big band sounds of Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey or the familiar music of Kenny Rodgers and Lionel Richie, Monti promises music guaranteed to make everybody want to get up and dance.

"Whatever the guests want, we play," says the band leader. The Monti band was heard for five years over radio KWFC, Hot Springs, Ark. Monti, a saxophonist, played with many big-band era greats including Lionel Hampton and Ed Farmer.

The evening of free dancing and music in the lakefront amphitheatre has become an annual event since it began four years ago. Dancing takes place on the recently enlarged Wallace Bowl stage. Stone bleacher seating is available. Anyone wanting to sit closer to the dance floor may do so by bringing lawn chairs and/or blankets and sitting on the grass area in front of the stage.

dinators, an average of $29,000 each and aides, an average of $9,500.

In a lengthy discussion, board members brought up questions concerning funds budgeted for Life Safety work as well as means for replenishing the fund which may be done only through taxes or sale of bonds.

Costs for Life Safety work, as included in the agenda, amounted to $160,016. They included a Life Safety survey of all District buildings, $2,536; the Gemini flood protection program, $143,000; and a balance due Gupta Assc., $14,480.

Not approved was a $2,536 contract for installation of additional security devices in Ballard, Nelson, Mark Twain and Washington schools.

Board members expressed concerns regarding necessity and efficiency of increased security. Referring to a branch of the Niles Library located in Ballard school, board members questioned if increased security for one tenant would be offered to all leases.

The branch library was recently a victim of three burglaries. Taken was cash, an Apple computer and a 16 mm.

In other action, board members authorized removal of two walls in remodeling done by Parkside Human Services Corp., a tenant in Nathanson school.

Parkside is affiliated with Lutheran General Hospital.

Developers of an apartment complex designed for Ballard and Greenwood, Niles, will be appealing their case to the Niles Village Board. A member of District 63 administration has been authorized to appear at the discussion in order to stress the District's concerns for safety and encouragement of residents bringing more children into the District.

Both Gemini and Ballard schools are located near the proposed development.

According to board action, a child from another suburb whose parent works in a District 63 school, will be allowed to attend District 63 with payment of tuition.

In regard to meals during the school year, free and reduced price meals as well as free milk will be supplied to youngsters qualifying for the program. Costs of a Type A school lunch at Gemini will be increased from $1.10 to $1.15 due to increased salary and food costs.

Also, board members resolved to implement a Chapter I project for disadvantaged youngsters. About $74,000 in grant funds will be necessary to implement the program.

In a report to board members, the director of curriculum reported on summer school and tests of incoming freshmen to Maine East high school.

Influenza immunization at Niles Senior Center

The Niles Senior Center, 8060 Oakton, will be sponsoring an influenza (flu) immunization clinic on Wednesday, September 19, and Wednesday, September 26, from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Niles residents 65 years of age or older can call 967-6100 ext. 375 to register. There will be 200 shots available on a first come, first served basis, and an appointment is required. Appointments will be taken starting August 27. There will be a $5 fee for the flu shot. Anyone interested in receiving a flu shot at the Niles Senior Center is encouraged to discuss this with their private physician.

A flu vaccination is one of the best protections against the flu, a viral infection affecting the respiratory system. The flu shot is composed of killed viruses, and works by building up immunity against the flu viruses. This year's flu shot contains the strains A/Chile, A/Philippines, and B/Ussr.

Influenza is a mild disease in healthy children, young adults, and middle-aged people, but in older people or in those of any age who have a chronic illness, flu can be life threatening. By lowering a person's resistance, flu can develop into more serious infections such as pneumonia. People at greatest risk for serious complications from the flu include: anyone with chronic bronchitis, asthma or emphysema; anyone with heart disease or kidney problems; anyone with diabetes or severe anemia; anyone who smokes; anyone 65 years or older.

Anyone who is at high risk for complications from influenza should discuss getting a flu shot with their doctor. Most people have no side effects from recent flu vaccines. Flu shots are given by injection into a muscle of the upper arm. This may cause soreness for a day or two at the injection site and occasionally a fever or muscle aches for a day or two.

People who should not get a flu shot include anyone who is allergic to eggs, chicken, or chicken feathers, or anyone who has been paralyzed with Guillain Barre Syndrome. Anyone who is ill, or who has a fever should put off getting a flu shot until the fever or other symptoms are gone.

but in others, it's clean enough to fish in.

He said the MSD protects 96 miles of river extending from the Northern Willmette locks southwest to Lockport.

In upgrading the riverfront area he said there is already a condominium built at Taylor Street on the near southside and two or three marina river restaurants are now operating.

Bill Eyre, chief engineer for the district, pointed to the scrap heaps alongside the river noting the companies now keep the scrap inside their yards. In past years much of the scrap would slide down into the water.

Bill noted the District has a major project improving the North Avenue turning base. The area is used for boats turning back south on the river. He said an observation deck would be built at North Avenue where observers can view downtown Chicago from an excellent vantage point.

The deck would face southeast pointing to the downtown skyscrapers. The turning base, once an eyesore, would have landscaping added there. A railroad alongside the waterway would also spruce up its area and the total cost for the North Avenue improvement would be about $250,000 of which $96,000 would be MSD funds. The purpose of the improvements would be to upgrade the industrial waterway and include it as a recreation waterway as well.

Eyre noted a Chicago Central Area Committee would be working to improve Wolf Point. He noted the Joseph Kennedy family are part owners and implied they would take part in any improvement there.

Eyre told us the MSD has 2,400 employees. He said the independent district was formed in 1989. Since sewage and drinking water were alongside each other in Lake Michigan, havoc was created after a storm during that period. The churning of the lake resulted in the sewage being mixed with the drinking water which cause a typhoid epidemic. The state legislature passed laws creating the independent Sanitary district. It now oversees three major treatment centers in the Chicago area and is responsible for the biological treatment of the drinking water of Chicagoans and their neighbors.

As we headed north Eyre told us the Deep Tunnel, which is 300 feet underground, is half finished at a cost of about $2.2 billion. Storm and sewer water will go into more than 128 drop shafts which will transport the water into the tunnel alleviating flooding which still exists because of inadequate sewer and basin facilities. When a sudden storm water hits the area, the river rises quickly and sewers back-up. The 4 billion dollar Deep Tunnel project hopefully will alleviate the flooding conditions.

As we moved into the North Shore channel at California Avenue, we were told the waterway north of here was man-made. There is an additional branch of the river known as the north branch which goes alongside the TAM golf course in Niles.

District officials pointed to the Main to Dempster street area on the North Shore channel. They said plans for a marina there will be considered with it extending 150 feet north to Dempster Street.

We debarked at the locks at the Wilmette end of the river. As much as 250 cubic feet of water per second can be sent from the lake into the river. The locks control the disparate heights of the river and lake. The lake has as much as a four foot elevation above the river which is about one and a half feet above the average for this season of the year.

theaters. Other outside supervised recreational activities include nature walks, boating, fishing, and picnics. Games, modified sports, and community programs further complement GO activities. These activities stimulate, reinvigorate, and provide reality orientation and socialization opportunities in a structured environment directed by a caring, professional and volunteer staff. GO has been providing this stimulating and protective program since 1978.

A year after GO opened its doors, Martha Cheney came to help. She had received a degree in education from Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio, and a master's in education and social studies from Case-Western Reserve in Cleveland. Widowed at 50, she had raised three children and saw to it that they were given the opportunities for excellent education. Retired at 65, she moved to the Evanston-Skokie area after a stroke, to be near her daughter.

Martha Cheney has been an indispensable volunteer ever since, specializing in the teaching of ceramics. She is a born teacher, but more than that, she truly loves to teach. She teaches not only ceramics, one of the outstanding programs, but also teaches weaving and does a special exercise program with stroke victims. "We don't want our fingers to get stiff so we can't do things," she tells her exercise group while exhorting them to do their hand stretches.

"The early and sizeable response to CUB's membership campaign is remarkable," said Larry Kamer, CUB Campaign Director. "It tells us that consumers who feel the pressure of ever-increasing utility bills see CUB as a way of fighting back." Kamer explained that the Congressional District designation is significant, because twenty-two people, one from each such district, are to be elected to CUB's Board of Directors by the organization's members. The first such election will be held on December 22. CUB is currently governed by an appointed board.

He added that CUB is moving according to schedule toward its goal of 100,000 members within one year of the start of its membership campaign.

Membership information is available from CUB, 59 E. Van Buren, Suite 801, Chicago (60605).

Stress Workshop...

Psychologist Barr describes the workshop as an introduction to simple, powerful skills which can naturally quiet tension without medication, put the body back into a healthy balance, and help manage stress effectively. It is designed for individuals ready to take a serious look at stress in their lives and investigate approaches useful in managing stress. The workshop is based on a program model recommended by the American Heart Association Conference on Prevention.

The workshop presents a specific program to meet individual interests. Current levels of stress will be assessed and personal symptoms of high stress identified. The course focuses on practical solutions to real problems and illustrates powerful techniques for your future self management. Deep relaxation exercises are introduced and practiced by workshop participants. A cassette tape of strategies and assorted handouts are included in the workshop materials.

"With practice, these stress management techniques can be more beneficial in 'quieting' the body than deep sleep. They can help return the body back to its natural balance and compliment the body's potential to regulate and heal itself," Dr. Barr explains.

The Stress and Health Workshop will be limited to 24 participants. For registration and fee information, phone the Outpatient Stress Clinic of Parkside Human Services at 696-5885.

commissioner Dan Kosiba spoke about the usefulness and the "instrumental part" Marusek has played in his coaching efforts within the district. Kosiba, who has coached many St. John Brebeuf and park teams through the years, said he thought Marusek was the best coach he has seen in his 20 years in and around local recreation activities. Marusek, who is the husband of park president Mary Marusek, was not present. She thanked Kosiba but added she was glad her husband was not present to hear the praise as he would be embarrassed by such plaudits.

In other actions Marusek read a letter citing the need for additional donors for the Niles blood program.

A public hearing on the tax levy will take place September 10 at the recreation center when it will be adopted.

Director William Hughes announced the Army Corps of Engineers verbally committed dredging the river next to TAM will take place about October 1. Darryl Vargas reported drainage installation at the 8th green of the golf course is 90% complete and the 7th green drainage will begin shortly. Also announced greens are in pretty good shape. Commissioner Walt Beusse disagreed saying there was a need for more watering and the grass should not be cut so short on the course.

Commissioner Elaine Heinen reported $54,165 of the tax levy will be allotted for Niles Special Recreation Tax. She reported the M-NASR program had a great summer. She said there were two more softball teams for the retarded and 4 members qualified for gold medals in the Special Olympics bowling. They will compete downstate in future competition. She also announced the new $23,000 van has been received and Nick Blase (the village) and Niles Township contributed $5,000 and $3,000 respectively for the new van for the special recreation program. The $20,000 balance for the van will hopefully be made up by a dinner-dance and/or raffle. She also reported Niles teenager Scott Reisinger, who was injured in an auto accident last year, has joined the program. Upon his arrival he announced, "the star has arrived". She said the name he gave himself will apply in future activities.

Summer programs were a great success, according to Heinen citing the Diaper Derby, Family Frolics, the Big Wheels Rally and the Penny Carnival as examples. She noted more people than ever before are participating in park programs. Swimming pool revenues increased from 1983's $52,868.51 to 1984's $65,825.78. Heinen attributed the increase to the addition of the water slide. Pre-School registration will be at the Rec Center from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. August 29. There will be two 15 week sessions with classes beginning September 10. Three-day sessions will cost $60, two-day sessions, $40, and non-residents will pay double the amounts. Marusek announced computer bids should be out by October. Director Hughes said he will review Schaumburg and Park Ridge's computer set-ups in the immediate future. Slim Trim program begins September 10 with "Margie", with sessions at 9 a.m. Monday and Wednesdays and 5 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Over-30 softball for men and women begins the week of August

Huber, Director of Parks and Recreation, explained that incorporating a fitness center club into the Prairie View Community Center "is an effort to respond to the growing interest in fitness in an economical, convenient manner through optimum use of our existing facility." Accommodating the fitness center into the Dempster street facility was accomplished without sacrificing any of the existing programs or activities, Huber pointed out. "We continually assess the recreational needs of the community and then adapt our programs and facilities to changes. The new Fitness Center Club concept is a response to the changing needs and desires of the public we serve."

Village-Chamber softball...

The light towers which temporarily blinded him during the second inning, Nick Blase, the first pitcher for the village, was blowing smoke during the first two innings. After swallowing his cigar he began tossing lollypops at the Chamber batsmen which brought Todd Bavaro in to relieve him. Backed by the running of Village All-Stars Keith Peck and Larry Renetsky, the game would have had to be called because of sunlight, had the Chamber not mercifully ended the game. Chamber heavy hitters Irv Coates, of Wells LaMont and Tom Romano of Golf Mill Bank both smashed towering home runs to close the gap between the two teams. Led by the Prince of conviviality, Chamber director Curt Hockett, the Chamber team decided to end the game so they could retreat to the local watering hole.

The Niles Village team received the first annual trophy which was symbolic of the Chamber's regard for the Village team. Enscenced in the center of the trophy was the back end of a donkey which the Chamber players felt best described the village team without its three ringers.

team finished the season with a 12-0 record. Over the past three seasons Niles has won 34 in a row. Over five years Niles has posted 54 wins and six losses. The annual travelling trophy has not moved during the five seasons, remaining in Niles hands during this period. The Niles team was sponsored by the Di Paola Construction Company.
