New handicapped parking law takes effect

Legislation cracking down on able-bodied persons who park their vehicles in parking spaces reserved for the handicapped becomes Illinois law next Tuesday, Jan. 1, Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan pointed out today.

The measure, authored by Hartigan's Disabled Persons Advocacy Division, establishes a standard statewide fine of $50 for illegally parking in spaces designated for the handicapped. The new law also exempts the handicapped from most parking meter fees, and adopts the standard handicapped parking sign recommended by the U.S. Department of Transportation.

"For thousands of disabled persons throughout Illinois, finding convenient and accessible parking is a tremendous problem," Hartigan commented. "Mobile individuals who are insensitive to this problem create a severe hardship for the handicapped."

Seek candidates from unincorporated area

Larry Gomberg, Campaign Chairman of the Citizen's Action Committee recently announced that the CAC is conducting a search for candidates to run in various non-partisan races in unincorporated Maine Township in April 1985. Among those positions open in April will be seats on the Golf-Maine Park Board and Niles Library Board.

"The Niles Library Board seats are particularly important to us. There are no unincorporated area residents currently sitting on this board, while the board attempts to annex more of the unincorporated area. I would call this situation annexation without representation. If electing unincorporated area

Candidates sought for Niles library

The Board of Trustees of the Niles Public Library District has announced that an election of Board Members will be held on Tuesday, April 2. At this election seats will be open for two six-year terms. The Secretary of the Board of Trustees, Irene Costello will serve as clerk of the elections.

The Library Board invites all interested citizens of the District to present nomination petitions to run for election to this office.

"Any citizen of the United States over eighteen years of age who has resided in Illinois for one year, in Cook County for ninety days and in the Library District for thirty days is eligible for the Trusteeship.

The members of the Board of Trustees are expected to attend Board meetings on the second Wednesday of each month, their decisions on the policies and regulations for library operation

TIP Collector candidate replaced by brother

James A. Mahoney, Jr., Township Improvement Party candidate for Supervisor, today announced that James Etchingham, the Park Ridge candidate for Township Collector has unfortunately been forced to withdraw from the ticket. Even though Etchingham has had many years of residency in Maine Township, his last year of residency was interrupted for a period of time when he lived outside the Township. He, therefore, could not qualify under the one-year residency requirement that is now a State law for Township Officials.

The Township Improvement

Party is proud to announce that Etchingham's brother, Robert K. Etchingham will replace him on the ticket as Township Collector Candidate. This will continue the Etchingham family involvement with the Township Improvement Party.

Robert Etchingham is a graduate of Illinois State University where he was awarded a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. He was a 1978 graduate of Maine Township East High School. He presently is employed in the area as a Customer Service Representative with a large corporation where his responsibilities include maintenance of large accounts for an international business machine corporation. He has, in the past, been very active in Maine Township while attending Maine Township East High School. Most recently he was in-

Adoption registry established under new state law

Adopted children and their natural parents who want to meet one another will have an easier time doing so under a new state law, according to state Rep. Penny Pullen (R-54th), Minority Whip.

The new law, effective Jan. 1, establishes a registry within the Department of Public Health that allows mutually consenting adoptees and their natural parents to exchange information about each others' identity and location.

Under the measure, natural parents and adoptees over 21 may file disclosure consent forms with the department, as can 18-20-year-old adoptees who have the permission of their adoptive parents. No information, however, will be forwarded by the department unless both parties have agreed to the exchange.

Under the previous law, mutually consenting adults who could not justify their reasons for wanting to explore their roots were sometimes denied their request to meet or exchange information, Rep. Pullen said.

The new law allows those who want to meet the opportunity to do so, said Rep. Pullen, while it ensures that no one's privacy is invaded. In addition, both the adopted child and his natural parent can change their minds and either remove or reinstate their consent forms.

Parents and children can contact the department to see if a consent form has been filed by the other party. Under the new law, the department charges a $40 fee to each registrant. There is no charge for the withdrawal of a consent form.

"Spirit of Love" award

Calvin Suter, State of Illinois Democratic Chairman (r), watches the proceedings as Louis Black, Clerk of Niles Township (l-r) and his wife Mildred, are honored for their outstanding service and dedication to Little City for mentally retarded children. Bernard Saltzberg, Director of Community Relations (2nd-left), presented Little City's "Spirit of Love" award to the Blacks at the last monthly Niles Township Democratic Committee meeting.

The Louis Blacks, are two most deserving recipients of the Little City "Spirit of Love" award.

Jonathan Baldwin Turner Scholar

Julian R. Czerwicz (r) of 8417 Shermer rd., Niles, was one of 72 outstanding students honored by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture on December 7 as a 1984 Jonathan Baldwin Turner (JBT) Merit Scholar. She received a $2,500 scholarship award and certificate of recognition at the sixth annual JBT recognition banquet in Urbana.

Shown congratulating the new JBT scholar is Kenneth Rinkenberger, representing CIBA-GEIGY Corporation, scholarship donor.

Plan ahead for Social Security

A little advance planning could cut as much as 20 days from the time it takes to get your first Social Security check, Marilyn Robertson, manager of the Des Plaines Social Security Office, said recently.

The normal procedures for processing most claims for Social Security call for the claim to be filed, the record of earnings to be requested, the needed proofs gathered and then the claim is certified for payment. "Normally," Robertson said, "this takes about 20 to 25 days. There is a way that the process can move more quickly—and the claimant is the key factor." The quicker way is called the "Accelerated Process."

The way it works is very simple. First, call ahead and find out exactly what you will need to support your claim. (Usually the list includes birth certificates for anyone to receive benefits, marriage certificates, death certificates, and W-2 forms or tax returns for the last 3 years). Next, with the needed proofs at hand, contact your nearest Social Security office to file your claim. (This can usually be done by telephone thus saving even more time.)

"If we have the claim and all the proofs we need right at the start we can ask the computer to figure the benefit amount and certify, it for payment all in one step. This can mean a time saving of as much as 20 days for the claimant. In many cases we can use the special accelerated process if the claimant can get the needed proofs to us in 2 or 3 days," Robertson suggested that our readers call the special telesevice number, 823-0815. At the same time that you are finding out what you will need you can indicate that you are interested in filing a claim. In this way your nearest Social Security office will call you and help you fill out the necessary forms right over the phone.

For more information about the accelerated process call 823-0815.

M-NASR seeks Special Olympics volunteers

Area 21 Special Olympics was formed in September of 1983 to help promote and expand Special Olympics competition to local mentally retarded individuals. Currently, the area offers a number of local athletic meets where athletes compete to qualify for state, national and international competition. Over 21 teams from 38 suburbs are participating. However, many volunteers are needed to help with local meets as well as to work on committees to provide manpower and expertise in the areas of fundraising, public relations, athlete training, games organization, volunteer coordination and medical review.

No experience is necessary, most important is a willingness to get out and help. Currently, a major fundraiser supported by Procter & Gamble could raise a great deal of money for our local area. However, manpower is needed to visit stores, help with promotion, and write letters. Anyone interested in working on any committee can call either Kathy Torrey, Area Coordinator or Lynn Parfitt, Fundraising Chairman at 966-5522.

PR-VFW Auxiliary presents flag

A large number of the 120 residents of the Summit Square Retirement Hotel in Park Ridge were assembled for the presentation of a 3' by 5' American flag by President Dee Gjersten and Americanism Chairman Mary Barry of the Park Ridge Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3579 Ladies Auxiliary.

Accepting the flag with thanks were Social Director Jimmy Thomson, owner and manager Audrey Iohan, Welcome Hostess Marguerite Satz, and Melville Guthrie, a World War I veteran and hotel resident.

MG Art Guild

The Morton Grove Art Guild will hold its monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 9th, at Mansfield Park Fieldhouse, 5830 Church St., Morton Grove.

The evening will feature a Critique in Art. All members will participate in bringing a work of art—all medium welcome—oil, pastel, watercolor, etc., proving to be quite an informative evening in the world of Art.

All members will also participate in discussion of the work being viewed.

All are welcome—refreshments will be served. Non-members are asked for $1 donation.

"Operation Santa" cheers Niles kids

On Christmas Eve members of the Niles Police Department and some of their families were out driving Santa Claus around town to visit residents who requested them. According to Sgt. John Katsoulas and Detective Dennis McEnerney, the snow hampered them alittle, but they were able to visit over 120 homes using two Santas. Even though we were on the go constantly from 5 p.m. till almost midnight we still had fun and we all enjoyed doing it. It's become a part of our Christmas, giving a little joy to children and their families.

The above pictures shows some of the people involved helping to get Santa around town. Katsoulas and McEnerney drive the police squad, the Santas are Reserve Officer Pat Byrne and Dispatcher Gary Amato. Santas helpers are Reserve Officer Kim Kollath, Joanne Katsoulas, AnnMarie, Diane and Nicholas Katsoulas.

Plans are already starting for next year. We've agreed that a third santa will be added to handle all the requests. This has become a tradition, but we must increase our help to equal the increase in demand.

We wish everyone a happy and safe holiday...

Assessor's forms in the mail

A new procedure is being used by the Cook County Assessor's Office regarding Tax Exempt properties. New forms will be mailed directly to all registered Tax Exempt property owners. If your organization is eligible for such an exemption and does not receive a form within the next 10 days, or if you need help in processing or notarizing or transmitting these forms contact the Niles Township Assessor's Office immediately. For further information call the Niles Township Assessor's Office at 673-9300.

MG Park District party rentals

Through the Morton Grove Park District party rental program you and your group can reserve all nine courts at Prairie View Community Center for racquetball, handball or wallyball, or enjoy a sauna and whirlpool. Refreshments (with the exception of alcoholic beverages) may be brought in or catered.

The Prairie View facility is perfect for parties for clubs, organizations, employee parties, youth groups, church and synagogue groups or fraternities. The total cost is $200, with 50 percent required at the time the reservation is made. Nursery service, racquetball instructor and special tournaments and trophies are available at additional cost.

The Morton Grove Park District brochure contains a $25 discount coupon which may be applied towards a party rental. For additional information, call 965-7554 or visit the registration desk on the first floor of Prairie View Community Center, 6834 Dempster, Morton Grove.

Sheldon Marcus and Karen Honig were elected president and secretary respectively of the Niles Township High School (District 219) Board of Education at the Board's annual organizational meeting last month. Marcus has been a Board member since 1982, and Honig was elected to the seven member Board in 1983.

Prior to joining the District 219 Board, Marcus was a District 67 Board of Education member for eight years. During that period, he served a two-year term as president of the Niles Township Council of School Boards. A charter member of the Niles Township Legislative Coalition, he was the organization's Legislative Liaison Committee chairman.

Marcus also belongs to the boards of directors of the Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce and of the Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation. He and his wife Carole, have two children, both college students and graduates of District 219 high schools. Professionally, Marcus is president of Original Concepts, Inc., a Morton Grove marketing firm, and vice-president of its subsidiary, Meetings International, a management consulting firm.

Honig, who taught English in Baltimore and Chicago schools, also brings a wealth of board experience to her new position. A member of the District 73 and one half Board for six years, she served as both the group's secretary and president. She has also belonged to the Board of Trustees of Temple Beth Israel and currently sits on the Temple's Youth Committee.

Family Ski Trips

The Niles Park District has planned the following one day ski trips. Register at the park district office, 7877 Milwaukee ave. Non-resident fees are higher than those stated.

Jan. 23-American Ski Resort 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m. $13 with rental ($10 with own equipment). For high school through adults.

Jan. 27-American Ski Resort 7:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. $22 with rental ($15.50 with your own equipment). For ages 10 to adult.

Feb. 9-Majestic Mountain 2:30-11:30 p.m. $17 with rental ($12 with your own equipment). For ages 10 to adult.

All trips depart and return to the Rec. Center on Milwaukee Ave. Fees stated include transportation, lesson, lift tickets and optional equipment rental. Call the park district office at 967-6633 for more information.

Sullivan Kidney Fund benefit

Mayor Nicholas Blase of Niles (l) purchases first ticket to the benefit party to help raise money for the Kevin Sullivan Kidney Fund from Frank Lemanski, co-chairman. The benefit party will be held on Saturday, Jan. 12, in Flanagan Hall of St. John Brebeuf Parish, 8301 N. Harlem, Niles.

The fund-raising party will begin at 7 p.m. and end at midnight. A $5 donation at the door entitles you to an evening of finger sandwiches, snacks, cake and coffee while being entertained by a choral group and an excellent dance band. A cash bar will be open.

Kevin Sullivan is a Notre Dame High School graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sullivan, formerly of Niles. Kevin now resides in Baltimore with his wife, Mary, and two-year-old Theresa. Last summer he suffered complete kidney failure. Recently, he underwent a kidney transplant and the prognosis is very good for his recovery.

"However," Lemanski pointed out, "they will need financial help to meet the exorbitant costs of everyday living expenses, utility bills and mortgage payments." Since Kevin will be unable to work for a full year after the operation, the fund was established at the Bank of Niles.

During the benefit party held for a variety of fine gifts. At the end of the evening a major raffle for a 19 inch color TV and seven comparable prizes will be conducted. For raffle books or more details on the party, call 647-9458 or 631-8964.

Social Security deductions set to increase

The Social Security (FICA) deduction from employees' paychecks increases in 1985. The 1985 Social Security tax rate is 7.05 percent. The 1984 rate was 6.7 percent.

Also, the maximum earnings on which Social Security tax is paid rises to $39,600 in 1985. The 1984 earnings base was $37,800.

Workers paying into the Social Security system are building lifetime protection for themselves and their families. In addition to retirement benefits, Social Security provides disability and survivors insurance for workers and their families throughout their working years. Social Security deductions also support Medicare hospital insurance for workers and their spouses when they reach age 65.

For more information, call the Social Security office at 823-0815.

Small-Business Workshop

How one succeeds with a small business in these rugged economic times is the focal point of the one-day Small-Business Workshop to be given Thursday, Jan. 10 (8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.), at the Dirksen Federal Building, 219 S. Dearborn st., Chicago.

Co-sponsored by SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) and the U.S. Small Business Administration, the Workshop will offer advice on matters relating to the start-up of a new business. Call 353-7723.

Maine Township Senior luncheon

Nearly 1,000 members of Maine Township Senior Citizens attended the organization's annual Christmas luncheon on December 16, at Brigante's Banquet Hall, Dempster and Potter rd., Des Plaines. Magician Lee Levin of Chicago, an independent TV producer, entertained the large gathering, involving several people from the audience in performing his magic act. Dolly Weaver and Roy Hammerl of Des Plaines helped show off Levin's expertise with metal rings, while Ed Wisner (l) and Paul Greco (r) of Niles were assistants for his rope trick, and Greco nearly lost his head during the guillotine illusion.

Honored as the December Anniversary couple married the longest were Julius and Rose Elenbogen of Des Plaines, who were married 65 years ago on December 4, 1921, and received a box of fruit at the Maine Township Senior Citizens annual Christmas luncheon.

January registration set at OCC

Persons interested in attending spring semester classes at Oakton Community college will have several opportunities to register.

Final registration for spring classes will be conducted Jan. 7 and 8, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Late registration will be accepted Jan. 14 through 17, from 1 to 2 p.m. and 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. A $10 late charge will be required to sign up for classes during late registration. Spring classes begin Jan. 14.

Final and late registration will be conducted at both OCC Des Plaines, 1600 E. Golf rd., and OCC Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln ave. Registration can be completed at either campus, regardless of where the desired class is scheduled to meet.

For further information, call the OCC Office of Admissions, 635-1700 (Des Plaines) or 635-1400 (Skokie).

NOHA meeting

On Jan. 9, NOHA will present its monthly meeting at the Winnetka Woman's Club, 485 Maple st., Winnetka, at 9:30 a.m. Dr. Janet Cudahy and Sally Rynne R.N. will speak on "Osteoporosis: From Passive Acceptance to Aggressive Attack".

TAXABLE SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

Starting with 1984, if you have substantial income in addition to your Social Security benefits, up to half of your annual benefits may be subject to Federal income tax. The amount of your benefits subject to tax will be the smaller of:

- One-half of your benefits, or
- One-half of the amount by which your adjusted gross income, plus tax-exempt interest, plus one-half of your Social Security benefits exceeds the following base amounts:
 - a. $25,000 if you file as a single taxpayer;
 - b. $32,000 if you are married and you file a joint return; or
 - c. $0 if you are married, live with your spouse at any time during the year, and file separate returns.

Most people will not have to pay any tax on their Social Security benefits. To determine if you will have to, see which of the three base dollar amounts applies to you. If your total income does not exceed that amount, your Social Security benefits are not taxable. If you and your spouse are filing a joint return, be sure to remember to include the benefits payable to both when figuring your total income.

In figuring total Social Security benefits, you must include all benefits you receive. This includes:

- Any Medicare medical insurance premiums that have been deducted from your check.
- Any overpayments to the extent they were not repaid in the year you get them.
- Any lump-sum payment of monthly benefits you get. A lump sum that includes payment for periods in earlier tax years may be prorated to the year for which it is paid. Any prorated amounts will be taxable in the year you get them only if they would have been taxable in the earlier tax year if they had been paid in that year. Any amounts prorated to tax years before 1984 are not taxable and need not be reported.
- Any worker's compensation benefits which cause a reduction in your Social Security disability check.

Before the end of January 1985, you will get a form called the "Social Security Benefit Statement" (Form SSA-1099). A worksheet, the IRS Notice 703, will be enclosed with the form to help you figure whether any of your Social Security benefits may be subject to tax.

If your total taxes show an increase for 1984 due to inclusion of Social Security Benefits, you should check your quarterly 1984 Estimated Tax payments to be sure your total taxes prepaid (or withheld) equal 80 percent of your total taxes due for 1984. If not, adjustments should be made on your final or quarterly Estimated Tax payment due January 16. Taxing of part of Social Security benefits in 1984 applies to Federal Tax return only. Social Security benefits and non-taxable interest are not taxable by the State of Illinois, do not include as taxable income for 1984.

For further information about Taxable Social Security Benefits, call the Social Security Administration at 729-9600. Or for a personal appointment with Morton Grove's "Volunteer Income Tax Aide" program, call the Senior Hot-Line any weekday morning from 9 a.m. to noon at 965-4656.

Lutheran Church of the Resurrection Annual Meeting

The big event in January for the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, 8450 Sherman rd. in Niles, is the Annual Congregational Meeting, which will be held on Sunday, Jan. 27 at 9:15 a.m. At the Annual Meeting, the congregation adopts the budget for the coming year, elects new deacons to the church council, elects the Nominating committee for 1986, studies the Annual Report and brings up any ideas or recommendations for discussion. All congregational members are encouraged to attend this very important meeting.

The committee chairpersons for the standing committees of the church are to have their reports turned into Karen Anderson as soon after the first of the year as possible so they can be included in the Annual Report. These reports should include all the events that occurred within the Committee during the previous year and any recommendations for future challenges for that particular committee.

A Lutheran Church Women (LCW) meeting will take place on Tuesday, Jan. 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the church. A "Feast of Lights" in celebration of Epiphany will be presented. Also Ann Adoms, a member of the LSSI Day Care Program, will be on hand to tell us about the importance of the Day Care Centers that LSSI sponsors. This is the program that the LCW contributed to as part of their Out Reach Program this year. All women in the congregation are invited to attend this meeting because we will decide on the programs for the coming year, plus consider what projects within our church to sponsor.

Washington School Gift Shop

The Washington School Gift Shop was a huge success for the upcoming holidays of Hanukkah and Christmas. Items sold from $6 to $6 for all types of presents for people of all ages. The gift shop was sponsored by the Washington School PTA. There were a lot of wonderful people who volunteered of their time to help with the setting up of the gift shop and the selling of the items. It was a very big success. Washington School is located at 2710 Golf rd., Glenview.

Skokie Trust helps United Way

LeRoy J. Plazlak, President of Skokie Trust & Savings Bank (l) presents a corporate check of $1,450 to John R. O'Connell, Jr., Chairman of the Trades Division of the 1984 Skokie Valley United Way Crusade of Mercy Campaign (r). This check puts the Trades Division, which includes financial institutions, automobile dealerships and real estate companies over their goal.

In addition, the employees of Skokie Trust raised $3,416 through pledges and donations, which exceeded the amount raised last year by over $800.

Skokie Trust & Savings Bank is a member of the Cole-Taylor Financial Group, Inc., a multi-bank holding company. Other members include Drovers Bank of Chicago, Main Bank (Wheeling & Chicago), Bank of Yorktown (Lombard) and Ford City Bank & Trust Co. (Chicago).

Messiah Boy Scout Troop honored

In the latest issue of Scouting Update, a publication of the Northwest Suburban Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Scout Troop #105, chartered by Messiah Lutheran Church, 1605 Vernon ave., Park Ridge, has been featured.

The troop is in its 28th year of serving youth and the community. Among their recent projects was the cleaning up a stretch of road by Maine East High School, and stuffing campaign materials for the Park Ridge United Way.

The seventeen scouts registered in the troop continue to distinguish themselves through advancement. At the fall court of honor, 31 merit badges were presented.

Among the summer activities were a 37 mile hike completed in six days at the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico. The highlight of the trip was rock climbing a 35 foot sheer rock face. Several scouts also hiked the Lincoln Trail near Springfield, qualifying for the Lincoln Trail Award.

Curt Edlund, scoutmaster, believes in an active outdoors program, having at least one week-end campaign trip a month, except in December. The troop committee consists of nine adults who are actively involved.

Films on Israeli musicians

Two films about Israeli musicians, "Zubin Mehta and The Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra" and "Ilona Feher: Teacher of Genius" will be shown at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 12 and at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 13 at the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, 5050 W. Church Street, Skokie.

Both films exude warmth and feeling. Mehta's genius and rapport with the IPO is inspiring. Interviews with Yezhak Pearlman, Leonard Bernstein, Isaac Stern and others are interspersed with glorious music.

The career of Ilona Feher, a promising young violinist in Hungary, is disrupted by World War II. Surviving the Holocaust, she immigrated to Israel where she teaches music. Her penchant for musical perfection, the memories of the Holocaust and her desire to create new generations of Israeli musicians are the driving forces in Ilona's work.

Both films are in English. Admission is $2.50 for members, $3 for non-members and $2.75 for students and Senior Adult non-members. For group rates and other information call Adult Services Department, 675-2200.

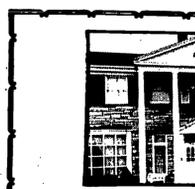

Student Recognition Sunday at Messiah Church

Sunday, Dec. 30 has been designated by the American Lutheran Church, as Student Recognition Sunday. Across the nation, the students home for the holidays, will take over the Worship Services, serving as ushers, lecturers, and will also give the sermon.

Terry Nelson, in her last year at the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, will give the sermon. Among others who will be participating will be Desiree Eckert, Lisa Downie, and Linda Holzer, pianist.

The purpose of Student Recognition Sunday, is to make the congregation aware of our many students, and also to let the students feel that they are still a part of the congregation, though away at school.

All area residents are invited to worship with us at 8:30, and 11 a.m. We are located two blocks south of Lutheran General Hospital at 1605 Vernon ave., Park Ridge. The Rev. Gaylen Gilbertson is our Pastor.

Elmhurst College sets Spring term deadlines

January deadlines for new students seeking admission to Elmhurst College for the spring semester have been announced by Michael E. Dessimoz, director of admissions and financial aid. New students planning to attend during the day must apply for admission no later than Monday, Jan. 14, while evening students have until Friday, Jan. 25, to make application. Former Elmhurst students, who did not attend the College during the Fall of 1984, must apply for readmission by these dates. Classes begin Friday, Feb. 1, for evening students, and Monday, Feb. 4, for daytime students.

During the fall semester just ended, Elmhurst College served 1,851 students during the day and 1,705 in evening classes and continuing education programs. Evening classes are offered at five Chicago area locations: at Glenbard North High School in Carol Stream, New Trier West High School in Northfield, Rolling Meadows High School at Evangelical School of Nursing, Christ

Hospital in Oak Lawn, and on the campus at 190 Prospect, Elmhurst.

Elmhurst College, a comprehensive, undergraduate liberal arts college, offers more than 50 majors in the humanities, natural and social sciences, education, business administration and baccalaureate nursing. Twenty-three of these majors may be completed in the evening within the Elmhurst College liberal arts tradition. Pre-professional studies in dentistry, medicine, law, engineering, theology and library science are available.

Now in its sixth year, the Elmhurst Management Program is an accelerated business major for adults, designed for professionals with business experience who have completed 48 semester hours of transferable college credit. EMP classes meet at sites convenient to students, once a week, in the evening or on Saturday.

For further information, call 279-4100, ext. 486.

Registration for Spring semester at Felician College

Spring semester registration for daytime classes at Felician College will be held at the college on Tuesday, Jan. 8, and Wednesday, Jan. 9. On-campus registration for evening adult programs will be Jan. 15 and 16, the college announced.

Daytime classes begin Monday Jan. 14. Evening classes start meeting during the week of Jan. 21.

Felician is an accredited two-year liberal arts college for men and women, offering a variety of academic and career-oriented programs leading to the Associate in Arts Degree. Credits are transferable to Bachelor's Degree programs at four-year institutions. Financial assistance is offered. The college is conducted by the Felician Sisters at 3800 W. Peterson Ave., in northwest Chicago.

Evening students may also register by mail, from Jan. 3 through 11, and late registrations will be accepted until the first meeting of evening classes, unless the class is filled. For complete information on all Felician programs, admission requirements and financial aid, call 539-1919.

OCC final registration nears

Time is running out for persons wanting to register for spring classes at Oakton Community College. Spring classes begin January 14.

Final registration is scheduled for January 7 and 8, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Students may register at either OCC/Des Plaines, 1600 East Golf Rd., or OCC/Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave.

John Gaglin, OCC director of admissions and records, noted that the College offers a wide variety of classes and programs scheduled for days, evenings and weekends in order to meet the needs of the community.

"There are a lot of opportunities here, for both the young student coming out of high school and for the older student," he said. "For the younger student, you can come here for the first two years and then transfer those credits earned at OCC to a four-year school. We also have a number of vocational programs."

For the student who has been out of high school for a while, Oakton offers the chance to improve current job skills or learn new ones, Gaglin said.

"Things are changing so fast that a person who is employed might want to upgrade their skills," he said. "Some people might just want to try another career altogether. At Oakton, you can learn new skills whether you're employed or not."

In addition, tuition at OCC is within the financial reach of nearly every district resident. Financial aid is available for those who meet the requirements. Students who have questions should contact the financial aid office.

In-district students pay only $17 per credit hour for Oakton courses, and financial aid is available to qualified students enrolled at least half-time in Oakton degree of certificate programs.

For further information about registration, call OCC/Des Plaines, 635-1700 or OCC/Skokie, 635-1400.

Chicago Northside Diabetes Center opens at Bethesda Hospital

Chicago Northside Diabetes Center, a complete health resource for the diabetic, will open at Bethesda Hospital, 2451 W. Howard St. on Jan. 2.

"This is an encouraging time in the treatment of diabetes," according to Charles H. Schikman, M.D., an endocrinologist and Medical Director of the Diabetes Center. "Tremendous advances have been made during the past five years in understanding and treating this common illness. New insulins, better oral medications, convenient home monitoring, new methods for diagnosing and treating complications and physiological and exercise programs have increased community awareness."

Chicago Northside Diabetes Center will incorporate these rapidly changing concepts into thorough, effective diabetes management programs carefully adapted to individual needs. Diabetes nurse specialists, pharmacists, exercise therapists, social workers and registered dietitians will coordinate, under the supervision of an endocrinologist, with each patient's personal physician to provide comprehensive care for the diabetic. Doctors who specialize in diabetes will be on duty or on call 24 hours a day.

The Diabetes Center will offer self-management teaching programs for the diabetic patient. The sessions for Type I diabetics will be five-day, Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., programs and those for Type II diabetic patients will be three-day, Tuesday through Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., programs. The cost for the programs will be $300 for Type I and $150 for Type II; however, during January the five-day program will cost $150 and the three-day, $75. A Type I program is scheduled for the week of January 21 and a Type II program for the week of January 28.

The teaching programs will include physician consultations, multiple blood glucose tests and meals at the Diabetes Center. Patients will also be given thorough instruction in such subjects as the administration of insulin and oral medication, blood glucose monitoring, diet and nutrition, foot care and effective exercise programs.

Once the patient completes the program, his or her medical records will be sent to the personal physician, who will continue the patient's ongoing care.

Other activities of the Diabetes Center will include a quarterly newsletter to inform diabetic patients of new treatments of the disease; community education programs and physician seminars conducted by nationally recognized experts in the field of diabetes research and treatment to inform doctors from throughout the Chicago metropolitan area about the latest developments in the field.

For additional information about any aspect of the Center or to obtain a free brochure, call the Chicago Northside Diabetes Center, 761-6690.

Shrimp crepes

An elegant dinner idea that is easy-to-do, make-ahead shrimp crepes. Simply accompanied by a crusty French bread, fruit and a glass of white wine, these elegant crepes should prove to be a company favorite.

Serving Up Food & Fitness by Mark Krajecki & Cheri Wilcox

Crepes...
3/4 cup & 2 tablespoons milk
3/4 cup flour
2 eggs
1 tablespoon melted butter
1 teaspoon salt

Filling and Sauce...
1 cup & 2 teaspoons white wine (like a Pinot), divided
1/2 cup water
1 bay leaf
1/8 teaspoon thyme
1-1/2 pound small shrimp, peeled and cleaned
2 cups sliced mushrooms (about 1/2 pound)
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
2/3 cup & 1 tablespoon heavy cream, divided
1 cup grated Swiss cheese
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper

To prepare crepes: In a medium bowl, beat together milk, flour, eggs, butter and salt until mixture is smooth. Set aside 30 minutes. Heat a 7-inch omelette pan over medium heat until a drop of water will sizzle when dropped onto pan. Brush lightly with oil. Pour a scant 1/4 cup batter into pan, swirling pan as batter is poured, until batter has formed an even layer over bottom of pan.

Cook 1 to 2 minutes or until bottom is lightly browned. Turn and cook other side 1 minute longer. Remove from pan and stick crepes between pieces of wax paper. Makes 8.

To prepare filling and sauce: In a medium saucepot bring 1 cup of the wine, water, bay leaf and thyme to a boil over medium heat. Add shrimp and mushrooms and simmer about 5 minutes or until shrimp turn pink and are cooked through. Remove shrimp and mushrooms from poaching broth; set aside. Reserve 1 cup of poaching broth; set aside. Melt butter in a medium saucepot, over medium heat. Add flour, stirring until mixture is smooth. Add reserved poaching broth and 2/3 cup of heavy cream.

Cook, stirring, until mixture comes to a boil. Add cheese, parsley, salt and pepper, stirring until cheese is melted. Remove from heat. Stir in reserved shrimp and mushrooms.

To assemble: Place 1/3 cup shrimp mixture down middle of crepe and roll. Place on oven proof platter; repeat with remaining crepes. Stir remaining 1 tablespoon cream and 2 teaspoons wine into remaining shrimp mixture. Spoon over crepes.

Place in 350 degree oven, heat 10 minutes. Serves 4.

Stevenson students entertain senior citizens

The Stevenson School Swing Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Robert Jares, music teacher, has recently appeared at a number of local homes for the aged. The children have prepared a program of selections celebrating Christmas and Chanukah that included various carols, and other holiday songs.

The Swing Ensemble is a select group of students who practice with Mr. Jares during their lunch periods and before and after school. They are introduced to not only vocal training, but learn about dance steps and other theatrical skills. The group for 1984/85 is made up of: Pavel Altman, Katja Bornost, Alicia Chen, Amy DeGusto, Heidi Deibler, Susy Dimitric, Anne Dix, Jeff Dubin, Chrystyne Eliashevsky,

The Swing Ensemble appeared at the following homes for the aged: Bethany Terrace, St. Maltheu, Oakton Pavilion, Ballard Nursing Home, Lee Manor, and Resurrection Pavilion.

Stevenson School is one of four elementary schools in East Maine District 63.

Transitional Nursery School Class

Are you a parent of a 2 1/2 or almost 3 year old who wants something more than a Mom/Tot class. If so, then the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, 5050 W. Church st., Skokie Transitional Nursery School Class which meets twice a week beginning in mid-January (Tuesday and Thursday) might be just for you.

The goal of the class is to help mothers and children separate in a positive manner. Through free play, creative rhythms, arts and crafts and physical activities, the children gain confidence in themselves, trust in their nursery school environment, and a love of learning without the anxiety of separating from mommy. For further information about this unique program call Joy Eckerling, Director of Early Childhood Services at the Mayer Kaplan JCC at 675-2200.

Washington School events

Washington School held a Dessert Sale that was sponsored by the Student Council. It was a very big success.

Washington School PTA also held their Holiday Gift Shop. It was very successful.

There was an assembly of cultural arts of The Jesse White Break Dancers. There were two assemblies held in the afternoon on Thursday, Dec. 5. The school really enjoyed this assembly.

Patt and Strazzante At Top of Maine East Gymnastics

PSAT is not only a college entrance exam; it also represents the dynamic duo of Pratt and Strazzante at the top of every event in almost every meet for the Maine East Girls' Gymnastics team. Maine East met conference opponent Glenbrook North on Dec. 20, losing 129.8 to 125.5. Coach Betty Axelsson attributes the loss to a very poor night on the balance beam, with the team having to count a 6.7 and 5.2 in the 4 scores for that event. "We had a pretty good night on the other 3 events, but when you bomb on beam that badly, you can't expect to beat a team that you are pretty close to in skill." The one exception at the Glenbrook North meet was freshman star Felicia Patt, who had her best All Around performance of the season. Patt hit all 4 events—a 9.05 in Vault, 8.65 on bars, 9.1 on beam, and 9.15 on floor ex, giving her a 35.95 total and 8.98 All Around average. Coach Axelsson was extremely pleased with Patt's routines, especially on the balance beam. "Felicia didn't have a real good warm up on her mount on beam, but she had the determination to not just throw it but to also stick it. She could have just tried, and if she missed, blame it on a bad warm up. But instead, she gutted it out and fought to stick that mount. That's what separates the competitors and the champions," commented Axelsson.

Of course, Patt was not the only one with outstanding routines; teammate and co-Captain Lisa Strazzante also contributed to the team score with a beautiful floor ex routine which earned her an 8.7, along with a 7.95 on vault, and 7.4 on beam. Captain Maggie Sarmiento hit her best bars set of the season with an 8.05, along with a 7.9 on vault and Floor ex. And Jr. Marsha Gershfield hit an 8.1 vault, in addition to Laree Toorner's 7.7 in that event. Soph. Laura Kuehn is also improving for the Demons and scored a 7.2 on floor ex.

Maine East hosted their annual Christmas meet against Palatine on Dec. 22 and did not expect to win, but rather gain more experience and try a few new tricks. Maine East lost 139.4 to 128.2, however coach Axelsson was not concerned by the score, but rather by balance beam again. "This time we had a home meet and our kids should have been more relaxed-but again we had to count 2 low scores, a 5.8 and 6.0 in the event total, so it's obvious that this is definitely our problem event, lamented the Demon coach. "We have to improve drastically over vacation practice on beam if we want to accomplish our team goal of 2nd in the conference. We still have 4 more conference meets to go, and beam is going to determine where we finish." However, Axelsson.

Axelsson was very excited about soph. Strazzante's routines in the Palatine meet. "Lisa did the best floor routine ever and scored a 9.1—that score alone made up for losing the meet; because Lisa is such a hard worker, I was elated that she was finally rewarded for her ability and dedication." Strazzante also hit a beam set for an 8.3, along with bars at 8.1 and vault for a 7.9. Captain Sarmiento also continued her consistency on bars and floor ex with an 8.0 and a 7.7 on vault, along with teammate Laree Toorner who scored an 8.0 in vault and 7.0 in floor ex. Soph. Laura Kuehn kept up her improvement on FX with a 7.5, and Marsha Gershfield had a 7.7 on vault. One other standout of the meet was Fr. Darlene Conidi, who competed for the first time in Optional FX and Beam. Her scores of 6.1 and 6.8 respectively were not as important as the "unbelievable talent, guts, hard work and fantastic attitude" that this gymnast demonstrates, explains the Maine East coach. "Darlene has had no prior training and picks up skills so quickly. The team was as excited for her as when Felicia hit her vault solid and her beam mount that day."

Maine host conference rival Maine West on Jan. 8 and Evanston Jan. 10, both at 5:30 p.m. and then travels on Jan. 12 to the Evanston Invitational at 6 p.m.

Nelson wins Soccer Championship

The Nelson Teams have done it again. They have captured the Soccer Championship from the Niles Park District competition.

The Falcons, consisting of 3rd and 4th grade boys, had a most successful season with the ample coaching of Brad Fleck. It was a season of only giving up one goal to the opposition. The boys on this team were: Albi Boehm, Gregg Brand, Dan Burg, Hernan Campuzano, Brian Fiala, Mike Hernandez, John Mesoloras, Jim Ojeda, Sushal Patel, Robbie Sadlowski, Kevin Schmidt, Ryan Schultes, John Touzious and Brian Wielgus.

The Eagles, I, a 5th and 6th grade team along with their coaches Brian Murphy and Mike Schoos captured first place for their level. The team members were: Scott Bloomberg, Keith Brand, Isaac Curiel, David Halley, Lyle Katzman, Jason Lerner, Varghese Mammen, Paul Markiewicz, Don McIntyre, Brian Patterson, Frank Rivenson, Rick Stone, David Swanson, Kevin Wielgus and Alex Zachow.

Last but not least we have the Eagles II, another 5th and 6th grade team, along with their coach Mr. Matan received the runner up trophy for their grade level. Team members were: John Brens, Steve Brens, Sal Di Franco, Allen Festenstein, James Henzi, Tim Holland, Carl Johnson, Carl Kahlfeldt, Dan Matan, Mike Odishoo, Jimmy Papagiamis, Jason Pestine, Parag Patel, Brian Sampson and Tom Smith.

Congratulations to all for another fine season on the Soccer Field. The Trophies are proudly displayed in the trophy show cases at Nelson School.

Nelson School is located at 8901 N. Ozanam ave., in Niles, and is one of four elementary schools in East Maine School District #63.

OCC nursing students train at Ballard

Ballard Nursing Center, in cooperation with Oakton Community College, is delighted to offer clinical experience to Associate Degree Nursing Students.

On September 19, student nurses began one to one contact with Ballard Nursing Center Medicare Certified Geriatric patients. Currently, Oakton Community College nursing students are participating in the development of care plans for patients. Student nurses are encouraged to attend in-services to further integrate their education in the field of intensive care within the Geriatric population.

Mr. Eli Pick, Assistant Administrator of Ballard Nursing Center and Ms. Wendy Moberg, Coordinator of the Associate Degree Nursing Program at Oakton Community College, are pleased with the positive response to this program and are looking forward to the upcoming year.

Retired taxpayers can avoid estimated tax payments

Federal income tax will now generally be withheld from pension and annuity payments, freeing many retirees from having to make estimated tax payments, according to J.R. Starkey, IRS District Director for northern Illinois.

The tax withheld from periodic pension or annuity payments is based on marital status and the number of withholding allowances claimed on the withholding certificate - Form W-4-P, or a similar form - provided by the payer. If a retiree does not give the payer a withholding certificate, the tax withheld will be determined by treating the retiree as a married person claiming three withholding allowances. If enough tax is not withheld, retirees may be subject to a penalty for underpayment of estimated tax.

Retirees may choose to have no income tax withheld from any distribution received. The payer will tell the retiree how to make the choice. If a retiree chooses not to have federal income tax withheld from the pension or annuity, the retiree may have to pay estimated tax if enough tax is not withheld from other income subject to withholding.

Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax," available at IRS, lists the requirements and gives more information on estimated tax.

Retirees should be aware that a part of their social security and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits may be taxable. Income tax is not withheld from these benefits. Therefore, retirees may need to make estimated tax payments, cautioned Starkey.

Generally, your benefits will not be taxable unless your income plus one-half of your net benefits plus any tax-exempt interest and certain other tax-free income you receive is more than: 1. $25,000 if you are single; 2. $25,000 if you are married, do not file a joint return and you did not live with your spouse at any time during 1984; 3. $32,000 if you are married and file a joint return; or 4. Zero if you are married, lived with your spouse at any time during 1984 and file a separate return.

Retirees should also be aware that the Tax Reform Act of 1984 provides that the penalty for underpayment of estimated taxes may be waived for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1983, if the underpayment is due to casualty, disaster, or other unusual circumstance and the imposition of the penalty would be inequitable and against good conscience. The penalty may also be waived for reasonable cause when the taxpayer retired at age 62 or later, or became disabled in the taxable year for which estimated tax payments were required, or in the preceding taxable year.

For additional information, call the IRS toll-free line weekdays between 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Chicago taxpayers should call 435-1040. All other Illinois taxpayers should call 1-800-424-1040 toll free. Taxpayers are advised to call during non-peak hours - early in the morning or late in the afternoon and during the latter part of the week.

"Good Foot Care for Older Persons," a short lecture and film presentation, is the topic of this free lecture on Friday, Jan. 11 at 10:45 a.m. at Bethany Methodist Terrace, 8425 N. Waukegan rd., Morton Grove. Dr. C. William Schmidt of the Terrace's Medical Staff will discuss the special problems of the elderly in maintaining good health for the feet. Call Julie Davidson, Inservice Director, for more information, at 965-0700, Ext. 58.

ND National Merit semi-finalists

Four seniors from Notre Dame High School for Boys, Niles, have been named semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program. They are: Ronald Glane, Skokie, Mike Kinnavy, Chicago; (on stairs) Darius Ostrowski, Chicago; Greg Vydra, Chicago. These students are among 742 seniors who have been honored in the state of Illinois.

Who are we?

From their beginning in France in 1837, the Holy Cross Fathers were involved in education by forming the mind and heart of youth in Universities, Colleges, High Schools, and Seminaries throughout the world. In June of 1955 the Holy Cross Fathers from their center at Notre Dame University opened a high school in Niles, Illinois.

That beginning in 1955 of 500 freshmen and 60 sophomores has borne much fruit. The school has produced over 7,000 alumni and almost 91% of them have gone on to college. Over 500 alumni of the high school have become alumni of the University of Notre Dame. Notre Dame graduates occupy key positions in all walks of life: Medicine, Law, Business, Industry, and the Church. All have taken their place in society, many in the surrounding local communities, where they have become active citizens. Many also are now sending their sons to Notre Dame.

There have been many changes at Notre Dame since the school opened. However, some things remain the same. Most importantly, a dedicated lay and religious faculty who are determined to provide a well-structured and disciplined atmosphere in which a young man can develop his God-given talents and abilities. The faculty of Notre Dame consists of 16 Holy Cross priests and brothers and 53 men and women. 60% hold their Masters degrees.

What kind of educational programs are offered?

Our curriculum is primarily college prep. We do have a Basic Skills Program for freshmen and sophomore students who are achieving below grade average. We have an Honors program for students of exceptional ability.

The recent completion of a Computer Center with 35 IBM-PC computers along with elective courses in computers and the enhancement of foreign language study through four year programs in five languages indicates the school's continuing commitment to a traditional college preparatory program that will help students meet future needs.

What about athletics?

Notre Dame offers 11 inter-scholastic athletic programs. The sports program includes baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, hockey, soccer, swimming, tennis, track, and wrestling. Notre Dame is a member of the East Suburban Catholic Conference which includes Carmel, Holy Cross, St. Viator, St. Patrick, St. Joseph, Marist, and Joliet Catholic.

NOTRE DAME has grown with the surrounding area. It has been a kind of beacon aiding in the development of Niles and remains today the only high school in the village.

"Adopted Grandfather" finds joy at OCC

When Irv Peck walks in the room, the girls are not only excited to see him; they actually fight with each other to see who's going to get the closest.

Maybe Peck isn't ready to be the subject of a pin-up poster, but he sure seems to tickle the fancy of the 3, 4 and 5 year-olds at the Oakton Community College Child Development Center in Skokie, where Peck spends his Friday mornings as part of the College's "Grandparents Unlimited" program. And while the boys in the group sometimes aren't quite as quick to show their feelings, it's obvious that they, too, have a lot of love for their "adopted grandfather."

This is Peck's second year in the "Grandparents Unlimited" program. Recently, though, he missed five weeks because of surgery.

"It was late one day when I was in the hospital," he recalled. "They brought some mail to me and the children had all drawn pictures for me and sent me a get well card. I started to cry."

The Skokie resident's tears were from happiness, but the children who were accustomed to seeing him on Friday mornings weren't happy about Peck not being there. All that changed, though, when Irv returned on December 7.

"I'm sure happy he came back," said Sebastian Andino, 5, of Skokie. "Irv was sick and I missed him a lot."

Sebastian's sentiments were shared by 4-year-old Cristen Wetherbee, also of Skokie. "Um, well, he's nice to me and everything. We talk about a lot of things. We talk about animals and shadows and birds. When Irv came back, I told him I loved him very much."

The children's love for Peck can be seen instantly when he enters the Skokie Child Development room on Friday mornings. Assistant teacher Audree Nicholls said that Irv has become Irv Peck sure has a way with kids. The Skokie resident is part of the Oakton Community College "Grandparents Unlimited" program that provides the opportunity for older adults to volunteer their time to spend with children in pre-schools, day care centers, nurseries and child care facilities. Peck is pictured with some of the children who attend the OCC-Skokie Child Development Center (l-r): Oriana Oppice, 3, of Lincolnwood; Emily Glenn, 3, of Evanston; Cristen Wetherbee, 4, of Skokie; Peck; Jennifer Weinberg, 4, of Skokie; and Adrienne Del Genio, 4, of Skokie. For further information about the "Grandparent Unlimited" program, call 635-1410.

"The children are very receptive toward him," she said. "He's very enthusiastic. He'll get down and really play with them, and he's not afraid to be silly with them. Some of the children don't have a grandfather and he has sort of taken that role for them."

Peck said he's quite happy about how he spends his Friday mornings. "I retired from Illinois Bell and I read about this (Grandparents Unlimited) program," he said. "My wife goes to a seniors' program on Friday mornings, so I thought I'd try this."

The only regret Peck has is that there aren't more seniors taking advantage of the program. "I only wish that some other senior citizens, particularly men, would come and let themselves get the joy here," he said. "The rewards here can't be counted."

Maybe some of the senior men are afraid to show their feelings toward children. I'll tell you, though, when you start getting those squeezes and hugs - there's nothing that can beat that."

"Grandparents Unlimited" is seeking volunteers to talk to and enjoy children in day care centers, nurseries, pre-school and child care settings. In this way, substitute grandparents can love, share experiences and enjoy the children. In return, the children get to know and feel close to an older adult. For further information about the program, call 635-1410.

and the Division of Services for Crippled Children, a computer was recommended. The portable Epson HX20 acquired from Don Johnston Developmental Equipment Company was selected from numerous augmentive alternative communication aids because it was suitable for Brad's abilities.

Although Brad is unable to control movements of his hands and fingers, he is capable of typing with a special pointer attached to a headband. To overcome his difficulty of speaking, he types word codes into his computer which translates the codes to speech. His classroom teacher, Toni Armstrong, and the classroom aide, Barbara Molitoris, worked with Brad to classify his expressions which he wanted and to develop the coding system. Brad then typed the program into the system.

Barbara Hahn, Brad's Speech therapist, has been a speech and language therapist at Maine East for 15 years. Regarding the computer she commented, "such augmentive/alternative aids provide non-oral handicapped persons, such as Brad, a means of communicating, furthering education, gaining employment, and controlling their environment."

As for Brad, the future looks positive. Thanks to the marvels of science.

Loyola students collect food for needy

Loyola Academy students extend the message of peace and love at Christmas by sharing and giving to the most needy Chicagoans as well as to the poor of India and Peru.

During the month of December the Social Studies Freshman classes of Msrs. Barry, Deger, Kupczyk, and Dr. Aiello, collected 27,058 cans of food while the Academy's Torch Club, a service organization at Loyola, and the Freshman Integrated Science classes and Sophomore Physical Education classes boosted the total to 34,000. The 'Loyola Academy goal of 30,000 cans of food for 1984 surpassed the 1983 totals by 10,000 cans.

Students delivered the food to emergency food pantries at: The Howard Area Community Center, Ingatjan Services, St. Mary Center of the Lake, Haitian Catholic Center, Visitation Parish, St. Vincent DePaul Society for St. Francis DeSales and St. George parishes, and Holy Family

Parish.

In addition to the successful food drive students gave approximately $3,500 in December during weekly missions held each Wednesday. The monies collected during these collections were sent in part to Wally Phillips, WGN Radio, to be used for the Needy Childrens Christmas Fund, and to Jesuit missions in Peru and India. These weekly mission collections are a part of the annual spirit of generosity among the students at the Academy and total about $20,000 throughout the school year which is sent to missions in foreign lands and those in need in our own community. Each Wednesday there is a Homeroom winner announced for those who contributed the most for the week. A monthly and annual Homeroom winner keeps students interested in competing to give.

Finally, Father Ignatius Burrill, S.J., counsellor and mission director at the Academy, 1100 N. Laramie, Wilmette, announced that in addition to the food drive and the weekly mission collections, his candy sales held during regular lunch periods and after school exceeded 1983 totals to date by $1,000 which allowed him to send $4,000 to Jesuit missions in India and Peru at Thanksgiving and another $4,000 at Christmastime.

Maine East Math League competition

One of Maine East's most competitive teams is Math League, and on Dec. 4, 221 students participated in a 30 minute Illinois Math League Test. Top Maine East students were senior Rochelle Cohen of Niles, junior Martin Lee of Morton Grove, senior Roberto Ramirez of Morton Grove, freshman Gary Abramson of Glenview, senior Joshua Sostrin of Morton Grove, senior George Chacko of Morton Grove, senior Chris Krubert of Morton Grove, senior Mitch Weinstein of Des Plaines, and freshman Steve Sax of Morton Grove.

Twenty-nine students competed in the Dec. 5 North Suburban Math League test, and a perfect score went to Maine East freshman Gilbert Yu of Morton Grove. Calculus students, numbering 57 participants, took the Dec. 6 Continental Math League test, and the top six at Maine East were senior Renee Minkley of Morton Grove, senior Mitch Weinstein of Des Plaines, senior Dawn Minkley of Morton Grove, junior Martin Lee of Morton Grove, senior Lily Wang of Des Plaines, and senior Howard Liberson of Morton Grove.

District president visits her unit

Mrs. Phyllis Rieck, of Morton Grove, recently paid her "official" visit to the Morton Grove American Legion Auxiliary #134. She is a past president of the local unit.

Mrs. Rieck is serving as Seventh District president this year. In turn, the district president traditionally visits each unit in the district throughout the year, outlining the programs and year's plans.

The 7th Dist. is composed of ten Auxiliary units who are located in the northern portion of Chicago and the north suburban area such as Wilmette, Northbrook, Skokie, Morton Grove, Niles, Glenview, etc.

COME JOIN THIS TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE
 EDUCATING LEADERS FOR THE 1990'S AND BEYOND

Loyola Academy, presently celebrating 75 years of service to Chicago and the suburbs, is located at Lake Avenue and Edens Expressway (I-94). The Academy is comprised of an outstanding faculty of 110 persons, and a diverse student body of 1,690 young men. About one-third of the students are from within the city of Chicago, another third from far outlying suburbs, and the final third from nearby suburbs. Loyola can be conveniently reached by public transportation (RTA elevated and bus direct to the campus) or by car.

The academic program offers a strong Jesuit college preparatory education in the liberal arts. In addition, courses are also available in computer science, fine arts, and the area of technical design. Each year 96-98% of the Academy graduates continue in higher education at outstanding colleges and universities around the country.

In addition to the superb academic program, Loyola offers an active religious formation program featuring academic classes, liturgies, retreats, and social service opportunities. The extracurricular program features 30 diverse after-school activities, as well as 33 inter-scholastic teams in 12 different sports areas.

SOME SPECIAL FACTS ABOUT LOYOLA INCLUDE:

- Alumnus recently named as a Rhodes Scholar
- New Computer Center featuring the state of the art IBM mainframe as well as Apple software
- Recently added library and student center
- Special program for the learning disabled
- Guidance department open 12 months of the year
- 13 National Merit Semifinalists, 21 National Merit Commended Students, 122 Illinois State Scholars

Skokie Federal lowers money market minimum

Effective January 1 Skokie Federal Savings lowered the minimum balance requirement to $1,000 for deposits in its money market deposit account.

Funds in the popular high-yield account earn daily interest and may be withdrawn by check, in person or through the association's electronic transfer system.

"We're delighted that the federal government now permits S&Ls to offer this high-rate instrument to smaller balance savers," said Skokie Federal President James W. Peters. "For many savers it's the preferred alternative to the bank passbook and the uninsured money market fund."

The $780 million savings association has also reduced the minimum on its Super NOW account from $2,500 to $1,000. The Super NOW allows unlimited checkwriting privileges.

Current Skokie Federal interest rates are available by calling the association's 24-hour interest rate line 674-3610.

Newly enacted regulatory guidelines permit all bank and savings institutions to reduce the minimum balance on the money market deposit and Super NOW accounts from $2,500 to $1,000. A majority of institutions are not expected to reduce their individual requirements.

Skokie Federal Savings also has offices in Barrington, Chicago, Glenco, Kenilworth, Round Lake and Woodstock.

Computer graphics offered at Ray College of Design

An introductory course in computer graphics will be offered at Ray College of Design, 664 N. Michigan ave., Chicago 60611. Classes start the week of Feb. 4 and meet Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 8:30 or Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 Noon.

This introductory course involves experimenting with fundamental methods of creating and manipulating images and text with a computer as an aid to understanding and developing basic skills in computer aided design and imaging. This studio course will consist of lecture and demonstration, as well as hands-on experience with a computer graphics system.

The lecture/demonstration segment of the class will discuss the various technical aspects of the computer as well as the unique capabilities and characteristics of computer generated imagery. In the Lab or hands-on segment, the students will become familiar with methods of creating and displaying computer graphics utilizing sketching and painting software, text systems and various output devices such as film recorders and ink jet printers.

Applications for registration can be obtained by calling Ray College of Design and 280-3500.

Challenges Halverson to debate

Dear Editor:

Ever since I announced my candidacy for Maine Township Supervisor I have become more disgusted and upset with the reaction of my opponent, Paul Halverson. I have consistently tried to raise issues such as the incredible waste of over $1,000,000 of taxpayers money on a monstrosity of a Township Hall on Ballard Rd. which was bought only to glorify Paul Halverson, his cohorts and lackeys. I cannot believe that elected Public Officials would allow our tax dollars to be spent for a building that is so large that the vast majority of the time the space is vacant. Or, that this money could be spent by a virtual secret vote for our Township Officials.

Yet, when I raise this issue in the papers and ask Paul Halverson for an answer, he does not respond. When I ask to meet him in a public forum to answer these charges, he does not respond. When I challenge him to debate me, he does not respond. All Paul Halverson can do is to invent phony charges against the newly formed Township Improvement Party and again go into hiding. Paul Halverson obviously has something to hide. Why else would he refuse to respond to my questions? Public Officials such as Paul Halverson don't deserve to hold public office. Paul Halverson lacks both courage and integrity. He has absolutely no respect for the citizens who elected him to office or for our American system of government. I again challenge Paul Halverson to meet with me in public debate to discuss his misuse of our tax money and his abuse of power.

Comments generous residents

Dear Editor:

On behalf of my staff and the Maine Township Board of Trustees, I would like to thank the many hundreds of people who live and work in Maine Township for their generosity to these less fortunate than they during this holiday season.

Maine Township collected and distributed thousands of dollars worth of donated food, including turkeys and hams, for Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets and more than 300 new toys for needy children.

During the past few years, we provided some holiday baskets, but our efforts were limited by space restrictions. This year, due to larger quarters and adequate storage space, we were able to really reach out to the community for help. Many of our donors learned about these needy families from the media, without whose cooperation our drive could never have been so successful.

We have never seen a greater outpouring of care and feeling for those in need. We hope to continue this practice on an annual basis, knowing that we can count on the generosity of so many Maine Township residents.

Paul K. Halverson
Maine Township Supervisor

Make an auto winter survival kit

With another winter just ahead of us, the Illinois State Police suggest that you consider an automobile winter survival kit; a collection of useful items that you can package in an empty three pound coffee can.

Captain Hugh S. McGinley, Commander of District 15 State Police in Oak Brook, advises that most of the items needed for the kit can either be purchased for a reasonable price or perhaps even found in the home. Among the items you may choose to place in the kit, you might consider:

- A flashlight, spare batteries, candle and matches.
- Bright red or orange cloth and string which can be used for a signal banner, face mask, or for first aid purposes.
- A small sharp knife, can opener, safety pins and a spoon.
- Facial tissue, aspirin, canned food or fuel tablets, and a small compass.
- High calorie food such as chocolate, raisins, honey or candy bars.
- A small can which will serve as a cooking container can be carried inside of the larger coffee can. A tea bag, instant coffee, small packets of instant soup or stew may easily be made in an emergency by melting snow inside the smaller can. By punching two holes around the edge and inserting a wire handle, you can hang the small can from the rear view mirror or ash tray of the auto and place the candle or heat table beneath it. By turning the large coffee can upside down, you can use it as a base for the candle or fuel tablets.
- Two quarters taped to the cover of the kit will ensure that a stranded driver will always have change to make a phone call from an isolated booth.
- Finally, you may want to tie a pair of mittens or gloves, a woolen scarf or stocking cap around the outside of the can.

The coffee can survival kit should be kept in the passenger compartment of the car to ensure that it is accessible should the trunk be jammed by collision or buried under snow. Other items such as a first aid kit, fire extinguisher, flares, battery booster cables, shovel, tow cable, blanket or heavy clothing, and

Nelson staff receives safety training

Eight Nelson School staff members participated in a cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and Heimlich maneuver training class on Nov. 28, at the Maine Township Hall.

Principal Robert Jablon, and luncheon supervisors Sherry Harris, Josephine Kern, Kathy Sampson, Clara Talkowsky, Patricia Tarpey, Julene Valle, and Sharon Vitale received the specialized training in mouth-to-mouth breathing, chest compression procedures, and the Heimlich maneuver, which are used to give first aid in the event that a person's breathing or heart functions have stopped. Causes of respiratory failure include heart disease, stroke, drowning, choking, blocked air way passage, and smoke inhalation.

The class was co-sponsored by the American Red Cross, North Maine Fire Protection District, and the Maine Township government. After passing both the written test and giving a satisfactory demonstration of the CPR procedures and Heimlich maneuver, the Nelson staff members received Red Cross certification.

Nelson School is located at 8901 N. Ozanam ave., in Niles, and is one of four elementary schools in East Maine School District No. 63.

"With this new law, Illinois law enforcement officials will have the authority to ticket violators," Hartigan added. "This should provide an effective deterrent for a problem that has existed in this state for many years."

The legislation, introduced for Hartigan by Rep. Richard Mulcahey, was prepared by Hartigan's office upon the recommendation of his two citizen advisory councils on problems affecting the disabled. It received widespread editorial support across the state and was adopted overwhelmingly by the General Assembly.

The new law gives police the authority to regulate public parking spaces as well as off-street parking at facilities such as restaurants and shopping centers.

In the past, enforcement has been spotty, due in part to confusing language in the old statute and a provision for a maximum fine of $5 for violators in shopping centers and other privately owned but publicly used parking areas.

"Because many areas of the state do not have public transportation that can be used by the disabled, they must rely on their own transportation," Hartigan noted. "This makes accessibility to parking essential for many disabled persons who work and can perform other activities such as shopping or running errands," he concluded.

Very truly yours,

Nelson students see "Winnie the Pooh"

The First grade children from Nelson School accompanied by their teachers: Joan Butzen, Ruth Ford, Barbara Levine, Toni Scanlan and Cindy Snyder had an opportunity to see Winnie-the-Pooh, Piglet and all the friends of A.A. Milne, come alive on the stage of Niles West High School on Friday, Dec. 14.

After the children saw a delightful performance, they were escorted to their buses by the very characters they had just met in the play!

It was an exciting and enriching experience for all the first graders.

Nelson School is located at 8901 N. Ozanam ave., in Niles, and is one of four elementary schools in East Maine School District #63.

Loyola sponsors holidays Rome, Paris and Ireland

Holidays in Rome, Paris and Ireland are being offered through Loyola University of Chicago's Office of Continuing Education.

The 1985 tours include transportation, faculty guides, scheduled events highlighting the cultural aspects of each visited city, several meals and a round-trip flight from Chicago.

Loyola's Roman Holiday IX will begin on May 25. Travelers will return to Chicago on June 10 after visiting the Vatican, St. Peter's Basilica and the Sistine Chapel in Rome.

Optional tours to Venice, Florence, Assisi, Pompeii, Sorrento and Capri will be available. Daily American breakfasts, Italian dinners and accommodations at the Loyola Rome center will be provided. The $1,345 cost covers the 16-day Roman holiday, double occupancy.

Loyola will sponsor a 15-day trip through Ireland beginning July 20. Father John

Cablenet interns complete program

Seven area college students have successfully completed their fall internships with Cablenet, Inc. The ten week, content-intensive program is one of three internship programs offered annually by Cablenet. Students receive academic credit for their participation in the program.

The program is designed to give students professional, hands-on experience in fields related to their majors such as television production, graphic arts, computer programming and public relations. The interns worked 20-25 non-paid hours per week on various Programming Department functions including cablecasting, computer-video graphics, and program production. They participated in many community productions such as "Community Speakout" and "High School Football".

As part of their final project the fall interns produced and directed a program entitled "CityLimits" with host Janet Mayer of Park Ridge. Segments of "CityLimits" include "Model Railroads", "Dog Training", "Pizza Making", and "Culinary Art".

Cablenet, Inc. congratulates Mary Foster of Mt. Prospect, Lynn Gaynor of Arlington Heights, Mark Kernes of Des Plaines, Amy Pedraja of Northbrook, Scott Petersen of Park Ridge, Scott Sackett of Streamwood and Rob Summerville of Northbrook for their achievements in the internship program. The cable TV system has scheduled an expanded thirteen week internship program for spring. Interested students should contact Peggy Busch at 698-4490 to arrange for an interview, which will be conducted after the first of the year.

Exerdance for ages 5-10

The Niles Park District will be holding Exerdance classes for ages 5-10 years. Through dancing, marching, stretching and bending exercises, fine and gross motor skills will be enhanced.

Exerdance will be instructed on Tuesdays from 3:45-4:15 (ages 5, 6, & 7) and from 4:15 to 4:45 p.m. (ages 8-10 years) beginning Tuesday, Jan. 8. The 6 week class fee is $7 per resident (non-resident fee is double). Register at the Rec. Center, 7877 Milwaukee ave.

Indian Art ID Day at Kendall College

The Mitchell Indian Museum will hold an "American Indian Art Identification Day" benefit from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 16.

At that time American Indian art expert Martha Laman Cusick will be at the museum to identify items brought in by the public. Donation is $5 for the first item and $2 for each additional item. Proceeds go to the museum, which is supported almost entirely by private funds.

Identifications will be verbal only. There will be no appraisals, and no dollar values will be placed on objects.

Ms. Cusick's areas of expertise include all Southwest Indian art, plus textiles, baskets, pottery, jewelry, wood objects, beadwork and carvings from there and other areas of the United States. She will not identify stoneware, such as arrowheads.

For more information, call 866-1395.

The Mitchell Indian Museum is at Kendall College, 2408 Orrington ave., Evanston. Regular museum hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday. There is no admission charge, but donations are welcome.

In the museum's permanent collection are nearly 3,000 items from Indian cultures of the Southwest, Plaines, Woodlands, and Northwest Coast, among others.

Children's Concert Mini-Series

The Creative Children's Academy of Mount Prospect proudly presents the first of its Concert Mini-Series. The Chicago Baroque Ensemble, under the direction of Victor Hildner, will perform at the 1st Congregational United Church of Christ, 766 Graceland Avenue, Des Plaines on Saturday, Feb. 2nd at 7:30 p.m.

Enjoy the ensemble's mastery of Baroque performance practice and authenticity of style.

The concert will also feature the Academy Children's Choir from the Creative Children's Academy. Paul Lindblad, Musical Director. Proceeds from the concert will go towards the Academy's scholarship fund to benefit intellectually gifted and artistically talented students. The cost is $9 for Adults; $8 for Senior Citizens; Children under 6 years old may attend free of charge.

For more information, call the Creative Children's Academy at 577-5864.

Children's Theatre auditions

The Wilmette Children's Theatre will hold auditions for its spring musical, "The Invisible People," at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 8-9, at Highcrest Theatre, Illinois and Hunter Rds., Wilmette.

Molly Grabeman is the director and invites youngsters in grades 4-8 to audition.

Maine East's Bourbon Street Six

Does "Clarinet Marmalade," "Livery Stable Blues," or "Basin Street Blues" sound familiar to you? Well, to the Bourbon Street Six, a New Orleans style jazz group at Maine East, these are among their favorite songs.

The group formed last year to play in Maine East's V-Show and now performs at most fine arts activities. They also perform at the foreign language international breakfast, pep assemblies, and basketball games to help promote school spirit through Dixieland music.

The leader of the group, Mike Goldstein of Des Plaines, made the IMEA District Concert Band on trombone. Dave Ruth on trumpet and Greg Fishman on clarinet, both of Morton Grove, were both first chair at the IMEA District Jazz Band Festival, and they made the state band, too. Bridgette Branch of Des Plaines, a bass player, joined this year to replace the tuba player who graduated. Bridgette, along with Mike Stutzman of Park Ridge on piano and Azam Nizamuddin of Niles on drums, "form a solid rhythm section," said Goldstein.

The group practices two mornings a week at 7:30, filling the Maine East band area with Dixieland music. With the help of Mr. Ken Gelz, director of the Maine East Concert Band, the group gets a variety of tunes together, trying to give everyone a solo.

The Bourbon Street Six will disband after this year because all of the members except two are seniors.

Open House held for EMME parents

On Thursday, Nov. 15, the East Maine Multicultural English Program (EMME) held an open house for the parents of students enrolled at Melzer School, 9400 Oriole, Morton Grove.

The children, who come from fourteen countries, shared with their parents a typical day in the classroom.

Each of the teachers gave a short presentation explaining what the children do each day, and an overview of the entire program along with the types of materials presented to the students.

Most of the parents were accompanied by their children, who enjoyed showing their work and their classrooms to their parents. After the presentations, refreshments were served and everyone had an opportunity to spend some time visiting.

The staff involved with the EMME Program are classroom teachers H. Dunitz, R. Levin, and S. Reed. The teacher aides are J. Flynn, R. Kaufman and C. Para. N. Schacht is the speech/language pathologist.

Eric B. Rooth

Pvt. Eric B. Rooth, son of Donald M. and Estelle Rooth of 4833 Sherwin ave., Lincolnwood, has completed a Chaparral crewman course under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at the U.S. Army Air Defense School, Fort Bliss, Texas.

OSUT combines basic training and advanced individual training.
