On The Other Hand

by Diane Miller

Just about the time the idea that people care only about themselves and not their fellow man becomes firmly enmeshed in your mind, you hear a story that makes you do a complete about face and renews your faith in mankind.

Such a thing happened to us last month while we were having dinner in the German village at Epcot in Florida. We were seated with a couple who appeared to be in their middle sixties and told us they were from Seattle, Washington. We discovered they were campers who were traveling across the United States enjoying their retirement years. As we talked about how long they had been traveling, they told us how their trip had been interrupted last August.

It seems they left their home in Seattle early in June, 1984 and headed across the northern United States stopping in Montana, the Dakotas and the Badlands, enjoying the leisurely travel and scenery along the way. Before they left home, they gave their children, two sons and a daughter, a basic itinerary setting up check-in points along the way in case their family wanted to get in touch with them. Two and a half months later, they arrived in Niagara Falls on August 18 and after setting up their camper in a local campground, drove to the Howard Johnson hotel which was their pre-established check-in point in that area. As they identified themselves to the clerk, the hotel

A salute to a fallen firefighter

Aerial ladders from the Niles, Park Ridge and Schaumburg fire departments formed a memorial arch to the entrance of Maryhill Cemetery last Feb. 4, in honor of fallen Chicago Firefighter Michael Forchione.

Forchione, and two other firefighters were killed in the early morning hours of Feb. 1, when a roof they were attempting to ventilate atop a TV store on Chicago's northwest side collapsed during an extra alarm fire. A fourth firefighter, who was seriously burned, remains in critical condition at the Cook County Burn Unit.

The funeral of Forchione, and the two others in other area cemeteries, followed services at Holy Name Cathedral, which was attended by over 3,000 firefighters from Chicago and cities throughout the United States and Canada.

The other two victims of the fatal fire were Capt. Daniel Nockels and Firefighter Michael Talley, all of Truck Co. 58.

CUB wants utility to pay for forecast flaws

Predicting that Illinois consumers will pay as much as $3,769/household for utilities' mistakes in predicting energy demand, the Citizens Utility Board today called for new legislation that would require utilities-not ratemakers-to pay for utility forecasting errors.

In testimony before the Joint Committee on Public Utility Regulation, Michael Cherskov, CUB Director from Palos Park, said new power plants being built by electric utilities will provide up to 46% more generating capacity than needed to serve customers. "This idle power will translate into big bucks on our annual utility bills," Cherskov said.

Citing a 1984 report from the Environmental Action Foundation, Cherskov said excess capacity costs, resulting from construction of Commonwealth Edison's Byron and Braidwood plants will add $1,250 to residential customer bills. Excess costs stemming from Illinois Power's Clinton plant will add $3,769 to residential customer bills, $19,196 to commercial bills and $4,728,963 to industrial bills over the life of the plant.

"These costs could have been avoided with better planning," testified Cherskov, "but current laws which allow utilities to charge off mistakes to customers don't provide incentives for sensible management."

CUB is advocating a cap on generating capacity at 15% over peak demand. Utilities that over-build would be barred from passing the costs of the idle plant on to customers. A 15% reserve margin is the industry standard for Midwest utilities.

Willows Mothers sponsor Tropical Luau

The unique sounds of the steel drums and the "scent" of tropical paper flowers had parents at the Willows Academy of Niles swaying to tropical breezes, instead of February freezes. Seventy-five attended The Winter Luau Parents Dinner sponsored by the Mothers Club.

Highlighted in the 7-10 p.m. get-together in a "transformed" school gym was the Clemente High School Steel Band, which provided after-dinner music to fit the Hawaiian theme. The Steel Band, the first High School band of its kind in the country, plays on instruments made from 55-gallon oil drums. The drums originated in Trinidad and are now common throughout the area of the Caribbean. The band has performed at schools, colleges, parades, conventions and many community related functions; they have also appeared on radio and television. Mrs. Bunny Hand, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee commented, "the Hawaiian theme was chosen for the parents dinner this year - complete with flowers and palm trees - in order to help us forget the sub-zero weather of February, and it is an opportunity for us to get-together and support the school."

The Mothers Club is now anticipating a record turnout for the next activity: The Luncheon and Silent Auction to be held on March 6. This is open to the public. For further details, call 692-5630. Entertainment by The Willows Choral Group will be led by Miss Lorraine Reith. The Willows Academy is a college preparatory school for girls from sixth through twelfth grades.

Women's Clubs group meeting

On Thursday, Feb. 28, the Tenth District of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its February meeting at the Woman's Club of Wilmette, 930 Greenleaf ave., Wilmette. The meeting will be called to order by District President, Mary Goodman, at 9:30 a.m. and will be followed by luncheon and min-auditions. Hostess clubs for the day will be Welles Park Woman's Club; Woman's Club of Niles; Lake Bluff Woman's Club and Ravenswood Civic League. Price for the luncheon is $8.50. For luncheon reservations and information please call 673-1393 after 4 p.m.

Welcome

A boy, Christopher Robert, 7 lbs. 3/4 oz., on January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Merkel, 602 S. School, Mount Prospect. Grandparents: Mr. August Merkel and Mr. and Mrs. Adello Bartolucci, all of Niles.

A girl, Rita Lynn, 6 lbs. 1/2 oz., on January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nesbitt, 9241 Fairway, Des Plaines. Sister: Rachel, 5.

Meatless Main Dishes Brighten Winter Menus

If you think cooking with beans only means chili, you're in for a surprise. Versatile, nutritious beans are an economical source of protein guaranteed to brighten winter menus. Served alone, beans are not a complete source of protein as meat. But they can be combined with other foods such as cheese, eggs, and wholegrain breads and cereals to create complete protein main dishes.

Bean and cheese burritos, red beans and rice and barley-kidney bean salad are just a few examples. Try topping a Mexican-style pizza with pinto beans, or serving saucy pork and beans over corn bread squares. The end results will be as good for you as they are good to eat.

Cooking with beans is easier than you may think, too. Many types of beans are available already cooked in convenient cans. They're ready to use when inspiration strikes, unlike their dried counterparts which require lengthy soaking and cooking before they can be used in favorite recipes. Team dark or light red kidney beans with wholegrain barley and colorful veggies in a satisfying main dish soup. Hearty Vegetable Soup simmers to perfection in less than an hour and needs just the simplest accompaniments. For a complete meal that's easy on the budget, serve with warm corn bread or crusty French bread, a tossed salad or winter fruits and milk.

Warm up mid-winter menus with Hearty Vegetable Soup. Protein-rich kidney beans, wholegrain barley and colorful vegetables in a savory beef broth add up to a wholesome, easy-on-the-budget main dish.

HEARTY VEGETABLE SOUP

Off the Niles Police Blotter...

Charged with slashing tires

Niles Police arrested two Northlake men on Monday, February 18 and charged them with damaging an auto parked in Niles.

Patrolling Niles Policemen first spotted the Northlake men, ages 27 and 30, at 10:30 p.m. in the parking lot of Doc Weeds restaurant, 8832 W. Dempster St.

Police reports indicated the men allegedly ran from their car to another parked car repeatedly.

When police approached the men they reportedly fled on foot from the scene. Police, however, apprehended the men behind some buildings at Dempster St. and Parkside.

At the Niles Police Department the Northlake men allegedly confessed to slashing the tires of a restaurant employee.

Police additionally report finding a hammer and razor knife in the men's possession.

A check with the restaurant employee found that his car, a 1976 Mercury, did in fact have four tires slashed.

The tires were valued at $100 each.

The Northlake men were charged with criminal damage to property.

They were assigned a March court date and released after posting bonds of $100 each.

About 3 p.m. the public works employee was directing traffic when a car, which was changing lanes, struck the employee in the left arm.

Officials of Aldi Foods, 201 Lawrencewood, told police that upon opening the store on February 18 they discovered the office ransacked.

Police speculated that the burglar apparently hid in the store until after closing.

Taking a ladder he climbed up near the locked office, broke through an air vent and entered the office.

The burglar apparently broke into a safe stealing $550 cash.

Police report the burglar cut a padlock off of a rear door and then left the building.

Winter storm safety hints

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar

An average of five severe storms that produce either six inches of snow in 48 hours or damaging ice come to Illinois every winter, according to the Illinois State Water Survey.

Before leaving on any long distance trip this winter, check the latest weather and road conditions and plan alternate routes.

If you must drive during a storm, be prepared to turn back or seek refuge if conditions deteriorate.

The Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency recommends the following life-saving activities if you are stranded in a blizzard:

1. Don't panic and try to walk to safety. Stay in your car where you will have some shelter and are more likely to be found.

2. Avoid overexertion and exposure. Attempting to push your car out of a drift or shovel heavy snow during a severe winter storm can cause a heart attack, even for persons in apparently good physical condition.

3. Beware of carbon monoxide. Keep a down-wind window slightly open for fresh air and run the engine and heater sparingly. Make sure that snow has not blocked the exhaust pipe.

4. Exercise by clapping hands and moving arms and legs vigorously from time to time, but don't overdo it. Exercise warms you but it also increases body heat loss.

5. Take turns keeping watch. If alone, stay awake if possible.

6. Turn on the dome light at night to make your car more visible.

Oakton runners qualify for National Championships

Continuing a tradition begun in 1973 when All-American Mike Geldermann qualified for the first-ever National Junior College Indoor Track & Field Championships, four Oakton Community College athletes qualified for the National Championships which will be held at the University of Arkansas the first weekend in March.

Sophomore Patty O'Boyle from Niles West High School qualified for the second year in a row as she won both the High Jump and the Triple Jump at the combined State and Regional Championships held at the College of DuPage. Sophomore Tony Paul of Maine West had to run the race of his life to come from behind to win the Mile Run by five yards over a fast closing field. Both sophomores Dan Kuhn from Lake County and Tom Polak of Maine

East held the lead for their races from the starting gun to win. Dan Kuhn won the 1000 Meters and Tom Polak won the Three Mile Run.

Other point getters for Oakton included freshman Tony Vodicka of Morton West who placed second in the Two Mile Run and sixth in the One Mile Run and Kevin Kingston who placed fourth in the 500 Meters and missed qualifying by only one second. The Mile Relay Team of Don Hennessy, Kevin Kingston, Tony Paul, and Dan Kuhn placed third. Oakton placed third as a team in the Regional Championships and fourth as a team in the State Meet! Coach Savage was very happy with the performances of the National qualifying athletes. Oakton athletes have qualified every year since the Indoor Nationals was begun in 1973!

Phillips most valuable as OCC wrestler

Revenge was particularly sweet for Oakton Community College wrestling co-captain Bob Phillips when he defeated Waubesa's Todd Michels to win the 150-pound weight class in the Skyway Conference tournament Feb. 9 at Waubesa.

Phillips earned a 5-0 victory, avenging a loss to Michels only a week earlier, and ended up being voted by conference coaches as the tournament's Most Valuable Wrestler. This is the first time an OCC wrestler has been honored with the award.

The rest of the Oakton team wrestled well, grabbing its highest team finish ever with a second place mark. Lake County won the team championship with 63 points, followed by OCC's 58. Waubesa was third with 50 points.

"I'm very proud of our guys," said OCC wrestling coach Frank Fostino. "Four of our guys won their weight classes and that's the first time we ever did that."

Winners for Oakton included Phillips, co-captain George Weyner, by a pin, in the 126-pound weight class; Andy Rubin, by a pin, in the 167-pound championship; and 190-pounder Bret Lesser, who pinned his Lake County opponent in the first period.

Bob Phillips

OCC heavyweight Brandon Sellers placed second and Jim Kosiol placed fourth in the 177-pound weight class.

"Since we came so close to winning the tournament, the team was naturally disappointed," Fostino said, "but we have to remember that this is the first Oakton team to finish this high. I'm very proud of what we accomplished."

Traveling safety has a Banner Day

Your car breaks down on a lonely stretch of highway late at night. You need to signal for help, but like most drivers, you're not carrying emergency flairs or a CB radio. To get help, you have to leave the safety of the car.

Now a lifesaver for stranded motorists is as close as your glove compartment. It's called a Highway Emergency Banner, available from the non-profit National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW), Greater Minneapolis Section, and it helps a driver call for help.

The banner is easily secured to a car rear window with pre-fitted double-faced tape. Reflective lettering makes the words CALL POLICE, printed in eight-inch fluorescent letters, visible both day and night.

Cost of the reusable banner is $3 each, which includes postage and handling. Checks or money orders should be made payable to NCJW, Banner, P.O. Box 5300, Hopkins, MN 55343. Volume discounts are available to organizations who wish to distribute the banners.

Stevenson council supports Food Pantry

Stevenson School student council members learned in January that the Maine Township Food Pantry had no supplies to distribute to needy families in the area. Reviewing the issue, Mrs. Vivian Channon, faculty advisor, Ms. Bonnie Morrison, social worker, and Mrs. Eva Perelgut, PTA president, guided the students in a campaign to correct this problem.

During the week of Jan. 21, the Student Council members conducted a food stuff drive within the building and through parents of the area. They were successful in this drive and collected more than 600 food items including canned goods, and other non-perishable foods. These supplies were forwarded to the Maine Township Food Pantry.

The Council members were pleased to take part in this drive that is one of many they conduct to help needy people. The Council recently completed a fund raising event and contributed monies to the National Red Cross African Relief Program.

Stevenson School is one of four elementary schools in East Maine District 63, Des Plaines.

"Teddy Bear Week" at Saint John Lutheran

Pre-School and Kindergarten classes at St. John Lutheran School of Niles celebrated "Teddy Bear Week" January 28 through February 1. Each student, their teacher and various staff members brought a favorite teddy bear to school every day. As a special treat, the Church secretary Mrs. Ungar brought her Samoyed to visit the children one morning as he is a large, white, fluffy dog named Theodore Pooh Bear, "Teddy" for short. The children were photographed by Mrs. Ungar with her "Teddy" and their "teddys."

Mrs. Gail Smith, the Pre-School and Kindergarten teacher, taught the students how the teddy bear got its name. Stuffed bears were popular in Germany around the turn of the century and in 1902 they were introduced in the United States. That same year, President Theodore Roosevelt was on a hunting trip in Smokey, Mississippi. He refused to shoot a bear that was brought in, especially for him. A cartoonist by the name of Clifford Berryman drew a cartoon showing President Roosevelt with a bear cub. Cartoonists liked to draw President Roosevelt with his rimless glasses, bushy mustache, prominent teeth, and jutting jaw. Roosevelt won wide popularity, and millions of Americans called him "Teddy". Soon, toy makers were producing stuffed animals that are still known as "teddy bears".

Classes are held at St. John Lutheran for children in Pre-School and Kindergarten.

Students learn to handle stress

On Thursday, Jan. 24, Ms. Carol Hoffenkamp, from the Maine Mental Health Center, spoke to the fifth grade team at Nelson School.

Ms. Hoffenkamp's presentation dealt with peer pressure and stress, which she presented in a most unusual way. One student was chosen to stand in the middle of the classroom, while other students representing different forms of anxiety and stress formed a circle around him. Together all of the students pulled and tugged at the center child, creating the way in which one feels in a stressful situation. After the center child related to the class how he felt, a discussion was lead by Ms. Hoffenkamp.

This program was arranged by Karen Hillman, the Volunteer Coordinator for Nelson School, which is located at 8901 N. Ozanam ave., in Niles, and is one of four elementary schools in East Maine School District #63.

Kustra reappointed to Education and Appropriations Committees

State Sen. Bob Kustra was reappointed to the Senate Elementary and Secondary Education Committee where he has served since being elected to the Senate. In addition, Kustra will serve on the Appropriations Committee, which will decide funding for schools and other social services.

The appointments were announced by Senate Republican Leader James "Pate" Philip. "Bob Kustra's experience in education and public finance will strengthen the State's role in providing a decent level of educational services to the school children of Illinois. He also has a reputation of reflecting and representing the constituents of his district which is sorely needed as we see too many suburban-generated revenues shift to other parts of the State."

According to Kustra, "These two assignments work in tandem for my district. Serving on the Education Committee will enable me to represent my district's schools on issues such as merit pay, teacher and administrator competency, mandates, tuition tax credits, and other key issues. My Appropriations assignment will help me guide school dollars, especially in the categorical programs, back to my district where so much of our State's revenue is raised."

Sen. Kustra was also appointed to the Senate Finance and Credit, Regulations Committee and the Executive Committee. Commenting on his appointment to the Finance Committee, Kustra said, "there is a revolution underway in the banking and savings and loan areas. As we rewrite the State's banking laws to allow more competition and to allow banks to engage in interstate banking, it is imperative that the consumer not be forgotten in the process. I expect to look after middle-class savers and borrowers who deserve access to credit markets and a safe return on their investment."

Sen. Kustra has served the 28th District in the State Senate since 1983 and was re-elected for a four-year term in November.

Sutker appointed

Illinois House Speaker Michael J. Madigan, has appointed State Representative Calvin R. Sutker (D-Niles) to the House Committees on Judiciary I, Labor & Commerce and Cities & Villages.

Sutker said the Judiciary I Committee encompasses a broad range of topics dealing with civil law, including real property, domestic relations, divorce, product liability, probate and legal practice and procedure.

"The Labor & Commerce Committee has primary jurisdiction over areas of management and labor laws," Sutker added, "including workers compensation, unemployment insurance, collective bargaining, minimum wage and fair employment practices."

The Committee on Cities & Villages handles legislation affecting the more than 1,270 municipalities within the state, including special districts and such units of local government as park, library, sanitary, and fire protection districts.

"My committee appointments present an important challenge and a keen opportunity to have a positive and effective voice for the 56th District in several critical areas," Sutker said.

"Committees are one of the most crucial steps in the legislative process," he added. "They are the primary forum for private input and the only opportunity in the process which enables citizens to appear and give testimony."

Library candidate seeks better communication

Marjorie "Maggie" Kohls, candidate for Niles Public Library District Trustee, announced today that, if elected, one of her main goals would be to increase communications between the library and its patrons. "A library," said Kohls, "more than any other public service, must be tailored to the particular needs of the community. Sewers and roads function much the same way no matter what the interests of the community are, but each library is unique."

"Communication," Kohls commented, "has to be two-way."

The library has to know what its patrons want, and potential patrons have to know what the library has to offer. Kohls noted that over 50% of the Niles District residents do not have library cards and said she believed that many of the non-users do not realize what resources the library has. "People should know that in addition to books and magazines, the Niles Library has videotapes, tax forms, maps, computers and software to use at the Library, computers to take home, free Friday night movies, Braille books, audio book tapes, book clubs, children's services, and much more. Libraries are a part of the current boom in communication technology."

Kohls advocated a weekly events column in all the local newspapers to increase community awareness of library services. She also suggested taking advantage of free Public Service Announcements on the cable-television Bulletin Board. She suggested use of free public access cable TV programs highlighting library services and stressed, "We are fortunate to have an administrator with enthusiasm and extensive experience to producing such shows." Kohls believes similar programs would be appealing to Niles residents and would be important in bringing the Library to the community.

Kohls stressed that she believes that community residents must let the Library know what their interests are. Residents should know who their trustees are and feel free to talk to them about their library needs. Community participation in open library board meetings should be welcomed, not discouraged.

Kohls said one of her interests as a trustee would be to encourage development of the Friends of the Library into an active community voice. "The fast pace of our society," Kohls commented, "demands increased communication between the Library and the community it serves."

Panek Re-election Committee named

Carol E. Panek, Niles Village trustee, announces formation of her "Committee for Re-election as Trustee to the Niles Village Board" at a grand opening of her campaign headquarters at 7600 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles.

An opening was celebrated Friday and Saturday, Feb. 22-23. Committee member for Re-Election are: co-campaign managers; Rose Marie Ginocchio and Nancy Glon; business manager, Milly Calabrese; and scheduling coordinator, June Annas.

Numerous friends and neighbors of Panek arrived at the opening in a show of support toward her independent candidacy for re-election as trustee to the Niles Village Board.

Trustee Panek thanked those persons coming to her headquarters to wish her well. Also, she said she will be available at headquarters to discuss any of her positions on important issues facing Niles residents. Anyone is welcome to come and discuss those issues with her, she said.

Pierski: Park Residents' Diversity a Challenge

The significant variation in needs and interests among residents of the Niles Park District represents a true challenge to the Park Board in trying to meet those needs and address those interests, according to Vice-President James L. Pierski. Pierski is a candidate for re-election to the Board of Commissioners, with the election scheduled for April 2.

"With services aimed at every age group from pre-schoolers to senior citizens, and with interests ranging from the recreational and social to cultural and international, the Board always has its hands full deciding what areas to address in what order," Pierski commented recently. "Pierski believes that one of the strengths he brings to the Board is his personal involvement with and appreciation of the variety of age groups and interests... parents and parents-in-law who are residents of the district and active in senior citizens activity; children, nephews and nieces ranging from 5 to 20 in age; and his work with a number of groups outside the Park Board also trying to meet needs... Niles Baseball League, Niles Niles Baseball League, Niles Niles Committee, Scouting groups, and Church activity at St. John Brebeuf.

Jim Pierski is interested in the concerns of Park District residents and encourages them to make them known to the Commissioners. One method of speaking out is the use of the voting privilege, which he urges all to exercise on April 2. Pierski is General Manager of the Swap-O-Rama Flea Market chain, which is located in Niles.

Kustra named Legislator of the Year

State Senator Bob Kustra (R-Des Plaines) received the 1984 "Legislator of the Year" award from the Glenkirk Association of Retarded Citizens at their "Community Support Reception" held this month. The award is presented annually to the legislator who has made the greatest effort to further the cause of the developmentally disabled citizens of Glenkirk.

In announcing the award, Alan G. Spector, Executive Director of Glenkirk, said, "I want to thank you for the support which led to your receiving this award. It is only with the contribution of time, love and expertise by people such as you, Senator Kustra, that enables Glenkirk to provide the excellent care we do."

Kustra expressed his appreciation saying, "The honor bestowed on me by Glenkirk is one that I will always cherish. No group of people deserve our complete and full support more than the developmentally disabled citizens of Glenkirk. Those who cannot fend for themselves in the budget battles for scarce resources in state government must have the full benefit of our time and effort. I will continue to fight on their behalf."

Wagner seeks increase in book collection

Charlene R. Wagner

"Let's Fill The Library With Books" is the campaign slogan for the Niles Library trustee candidate, Charlene R. Wagner. Mrs. Wagner is a strong believer in what books can do and how they can make our lives more fulfilled, both for enjoyment and for learning. Mrs. Wagner, the mother of seven children and fifteen grandchildren, knows from personal experience that good books can be the building blocks for our children. If elected Niles Library trustee, Mrs. Wagner wants to add additional books to our present library collection and wants to make the Niles Library interesting enough for our children and young adults to visit more frequently by fostering a strong children and youth program.

Mrs. Wagner stated, "In addition to our children and young adults, I would like to see our present library enlarge our reference and research book collection for students in elementary, high school and college levels. Even books that are read for pleasure can be a tremendous learning tool and can take us to many lands and cultures; to places we might never have the opportunity to visit in person."

The election for library trustee is on Tuesday, April 2 and Charlene R. Wagner is seeking your support in filling our Library with books.

Energy Assistance Applications

Maine Township residents on fixed incomes who are having difficulty paying their utility bills may apply for Illinois Home Energy Assistance subsidies through Maine Township, according to Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson.

The subsidies are available to persons whose utility service has been disconnected, senior citizens, the disabled and other residents who meet income eligibility requirements.

An appointment is necessary. For information on income eligibility or an appointment to file an application, contact Meryl Rivenson or Gracy Duffy at 297-2510.

The energy subsidies are provided through a federal grant administered locally by CEDA (Community and Economic Development Association of Cook County). Maine Township is one of several designated application sites in Cook County and is one of only three intake centers able to make an immediate eligibility determination and allocate funds, thus eliminating long delays in restoring service.

Halverson said, "We do not want any resident to go without heat and urge those who qualify for these subsidies to contact the township offices."

Northeastern Physical Education Complex

"The time has come for Northeastern Illinois University to be told that more than $9 million has been released," Governor James R. Thompson announced Feb. 13 at an afternoon press conference.

Most of the money will be used to build a long-awaited $10 million Physical Education Complex that will replace the university's currently inadequate facility, one that forced students to use hallways for locker rooms and required the building to be used 14 hours a day to meet the demand for classroom and community services.

More than $8.9 million of the released funds will be used to construct the multi-purpose physical education building that is designed and ready to be bid. Student athletic fee revenue will pay the balance of construction costs.

Included in the $9 million the Governor released Wednesday was $309,700 that will fund the demolition of Northeastern's residential school building, sidewalk restoration, campus lighting and modifications of the boiler house.

Major features of the new Physical Education Complex are a main gymnasium with a seating capacity of 2,000 (compared to the current gym's capacity of 400), an auxiliary gymnasium, a suspended jogging track on the periphery of the gymnasiums, six handball/racquetball courts, a 60 x 120-foot swimming pool, a human performance laboratory, a weight training room, a sports medicine and training room, and a movement analysis laboratory.

Dominick J. Bufalino of Rosemont (r), a member of the Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities, was on hand when Governor James R. Thompson announced at Northeastern Illinois University in Chicago that he has released more than $9 million, most of which will be used to build a long-awaited Physical Education Complex at the university. Bufalino is shown with Northeastern President Ronald Williams (l) and State Senator Howard W. Carroll (D-1). "The new Physical Education Complex will be a welcome relief at Northeastern," Bufalino noted. "The current facilities were designed in the early 60's for 2,400 students. Northeastern is currently serving more than 10,000 students."

OCC/Skokie Library services

The best kept secret in the Skokie area may well be the Learning Resource Center at Oakton Community College/Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln Avenue.

"We may not look very large to some people, but they don't realize that we have ready access to the resources of more than 2500 libraries across the country," said librarian Sandra Wittman.

Wittman said that Oakton's library is a part of a computerized, inter-library loan system that can quickly determine which other libraries carry a specific book as well as whether or not it is currently available for loan.

Many books not currently on OCC/Skokie's library shelves can be easily made available. "All people need is a little patience," the Skokie librarian explained. According to Wittman, any book in the OCC/Des Plaines library usually can be obtained within one day of the request. If the book is not available through Oakton's library, the next step is to try-through the inter-library loan system-the colleges and public libraries in the north suburban areas. If the book has still not been located, then the computer system searches for the book in the states closest to Illinois, which can take up to two weeks from the initial request to actually receiving the publication.

"It's usually best if people request books early so that they allow enough time for us to get the materials for them," Wittman advised.

Because the OCC/Skokie library is small in size, staff members are able to offer individualized attention and often are willing to call local libraries to help locate a particular book.

The OCC/Skokie library staff consists of professional librarians and trained personnel.

Any resident of the community college district is welcome to use the library and to check out materials. However, people should keep in mind that most of the material supports Oakton's curriculum.

The library at OCC/Skokie is located in Room 260 in the west wing and is open to the public from 7:30 a.m. until 10 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays; and from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Fridays. For more information, call 635-1432.

manager stepped out of his office and told them they had been waiting for them to arrive. There had been an emergency call from their home in Seattle. He told them to call their daughter from the private phone in his office since he was aware of the devastating news they were about to hear.

They soon found out their 31 year old son, who was engaged to be married, had been killed in a construction accident. He backed the crane he was operating into some high tension lines and was electrocuted. Being 2,000 miles from home and beside themselves with grief, they told us they didn't know what to do first. And that's where their caring fellow man, in the form of the Howard Johnson manager, stepped in.

He insisted they stay at the hotel that evening and not go back to the campground in case their family wanted to reach them. He refused to accept payment for the room and sent his van out to the airport to pick up plane tickets for their return flight home. He sent one of the hotel personnel with them to the campground to help them hook up their trailer and bring it to the hotel heliport area where he told them they could keep the vehicles parked as long as they wished. He told them the area was patrolled and they could rest assured the car and camper would be safe there. They left their car keys with the manager which he put in an envelope in his hotel safe. The next morning they again insisted on paying for their room before they left the hotel, but the manager refused their offer and offered his condolences and prayers for them and their family. The hotel van driver took them to the airport and saw to it they were boarded on their flight before he left.

Their car and camper stayed in the Howard Johnson parking lot for four and a half months until their return on January 3, 1985. They notified the manager of their impending arrival by train and when they arrived, he had the battery charged and ready for them to begin their travel again.

As they related their story to us, they had tears in their eyes, evident of the terrible tragedy they had suffered, the loss of a child. But, on the other hand, they found people who cared and sympathized with them and as they told us, "It renewed our faith in the human race."

streets should be applauded for the wonderful job they performed under the worst of weather conditions. Even our alleys are cleared of snow to make access to garages much easier.

Oakton Street Resident
February 3, 1985... I have been given a false sense of security when traveling from Morton Grove to other surrounding cities and towns. Our streets are clean and snowed. I assumed the other towns would be too. This is definitely not the case.

Oak Park Avenue Resident
January 20, 1985... As in the past, Morton Grove ranks #1 in snow removal. People from work drive through Glenview, Skokie, Niles, Des Plaines and Park Ridge, yet they always know when they reach Morton Grove because of the fine condition of the roads.

Main Street Resident
January 2, 1985... The streets in our northern suburbs are in horrible condition. It seems like everyone else was occupied with ushering in the New Year, while you and your crews were busy cleaning the streets.

requirements.

As for the board's concern as to whether the slide can be erected by June 15, it has a couple of options. One is to install a penalty clause in the contract with the slide manufacturer. This would mean a fee would be paid to the park district by the slide manufacturer for every day past the target date of delivery. However, the slide manufacturer would be able to cast a new bid.

The second option, and most appealing to the board, is a contract with a penalty/bonus clause. The manufacturer would receive a bonus for each day the slide arrives before the target date, and would pay for every day after. The penalty/bonus fee would be around $200.

In other park board news... Usage of the racquetball courts at the Prairie View Community Center is down. Profits, however, are about the same. Memberships are up by about 400... Park board Director Dave Huber said he expects a balanced budget for 1985... Sunbed usage at Prairie View is up 21%, thanks to the 12,719 people who used it in December... Plans are being made for the Fourth of July celebration in Morton Grove. Six bands are expected to perform, two of which are the Palatine Concert Band, and Blast From the Past.

solutions to their special transportation needs.
"Paratransit has begun meeting those needs, but there is room for improvement. The purpose of this new executive committee will be to make reservations for improved transportation service within the seven-township area," Halverson said.

as a Certified City.
Des Plaines and another downstate Illinois municipality have also been designated as Certified Cities.

In other business, the Niles Village Board took steps to prevent the owners of Foremost Liquors, 9012 W. Golf Rd., from selling their liquor license.

This follows the suspension of Foremost's liquor license following arrests made by local police of people selling marijuana in the liquor store, according to Niles officials.

The owners appealed the suspension of their license to the State Liquor Commission, which upheld the suspension.

The Village Board action reduced the number of liquor licenses available in Niles by one resulting in the Foremost license becoming non-existent.

Trustee Carol Panek obtained from voting on the license reduction saying she had not been informed this was to be voted on and did not know all of the ramifications of reducing the liquor licenses.

Also, the Niles Village Board approved the rezoning and sale of the vacant Wilson School, 8257 Harrison St., to a Chicago Korean Church.

The Lake View Korean Presbyterian Church, 716 W. Addison St. in Chicago, requested the zoning change to allow a church and religious school to be operated at the site.

Church officials told the Village Board that the school would be used for Sunday worship as well as Saturday bible classes and Wednesday prayer meetings.

The church membership includes 150 adults and 100 children.

The Korean Church purchased the school and property from East Maine School District 63 for $500,000.

Trustees also unanimously approved special use zoning which will allow the St. Benedict Home for the Aged, 6930 Touhy Ave., to construct a two story addition.

Lastly, the Village Board approved the use of $211,685 in motor fuel tax funds for the improvement of Milwaukee Ave. from Main St. north to Golf Rd. excluding the intersection of Dempster St. and Milwaukee Ave.
