

Park studies alternatives to soaring insurance rates

by Sylvia Dalrymple

Because of the soaring costs of liability insurance, park district commissioners are considering adopting a program waiver clause for participants in recreational activities.

According to board attorney Gabriel Berrafato, the park district, like other governmental bodies, is facing a serious insurance crises. "We must find ways to cut nuisance (liability) claims because of the risk factors involved in recreational programs," he said.

If the measure is adopted, it would mean all participants in programs must sign a waiver in an activity which could result in injury. "This would give protection to the park district for any injury claim," he said.

Berrafato admitted it's not an "absolute solution" to the liability insurance problem, but it is a step in the right direction.

Programs cited which have a certain degree of risk were volleyball, softball, ice skating.

Library board reviews annexation defeat at polls

Reporting on the Nov. 5 election at the Niles Library Board Meeting, the library attorney said the annexation referendum failed in two areas to be annexed but was passed in the Niles Public Library District. By law, the referendum would have to pass in areas to be annexed as well as the District.

VOL. 29, NO. 23, THE BUGLE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1985

by Bud Besser

If "Big Daddy" Nick Blase and his village board "Little Daddies" met us on Dempster Street and asked us for directions to reach Oakton Street you can bet your old patootie they'd travel 25,999 miles in the opposite direction rather than accept The Bugle's advice.

Understanding this reverse logic we would like to suggest they do NOT appoint Carol Panek to fill the trustee vacancy on Niles village board.

Ms. Panek, who received 2,322 votes in last April's election, fell about 440 votes short of being elected. Previously, she had served 10 years as a trustee on the Niles village board and had the rather unique quality of voting independently.

Voting one's own conscience on public boards is not an unusual quality in many areas of the country. But in All America Niles, Illinois, Big Daddy runs the show. And the village board's "heart belongs to Daddy".

Ms. Panek was never touted by The Bugle as being the second coming of Joan of Arc. Nevertheless, when she took an independent stance, Blase and the other Daddies burned her at the stake. Her stance on cable television left her as the "lonely end" on the village

AIDS scare produces problems for village officials

by Richard Stemple

The fear that continues to surround AIDS is producing unexpected problems to some municipal officials who may take steps to protect the health and safety of their public safety officers.

Last week Skokie police officers said they would no longer practice mouth-to-mouth resuscitation (CPR) on mannequins, expressing concern that the mannequins could be infected with the virus believed to cause AIDS, a destructive breakdown of the immune system.

In the aftermath of the incident, Skokie Valley Hospital, which conducts an annual refresher course for the officers, temporarily cancelled its CPR classes for the public according to a hospital spokesman.

Captain Bill Terpinas of the Niles Police Department admitted some of his officers have been

Withdraws restraining order

by Sylvia Dalrymple

Attorneys for Bubbles Bistro in Niles appeared before the U.S. District Court last week to withdraw a request for a restraining order against the Niles Police Department opposing further "harassment".

Mayor's forum on DUI problem

Mayor Blase declares war against drunk drivers! Declaring that the statistics can no longer be ignored, Mayor Blase is seen here with Chief Enrikson of the Niles Police Department and Larry Renetzky, Director of Niles Family Service discussing their combined efforts to get the drunk off the streets. Mayor Blase cited these facts as reasons against Driving Under the Influence "DUI". More than eleven million Americans have seen a member of their family killed or seriously injured in the past ten years by a driver under the influence of drugs or alcohol. After midnight, it is estimated that 25% of the people behind a wheel have been drinking. Over twenty million Americans have a problem with alcohol - most of

Will the new law affect board decisions in the future regarding the state-of-the-art system? Time will tell...it's a real cliffhanger.

The new legislation recently enacted into law by President Reagan not only states that use of a public satellite system is legal for all homeowners everywhere, but also makes it almost impossible for anyone in the future to operate scramble transmissions not available to the public from a public access satellite.

Something-or-other...that Niles laws are not meant for laughs, but new legislation from Capitol Hill could give the last laugh to petitioners...who have been stymied by the village board in efforts to install satellite dishes in their backyards.

The new legislation recently enacted into law by President Reagan not only states that use of a public satellite system is legal for all homeowners everywhere, but also makes it almost impossible for anyone in the future to operate scramble transmissions not available to the public from a public access satellite.

Thursday, Nov. 21 is designated by the American Cancer Society as the day of the Great American Smokeout. Smokers and nonsmokers alike are encouraged to get involved to help curb one of the major causes of lung cancer, cigarette smoking. Smokers who wish to "kick the habit" for a day can deposit their unused cigarettes in the oversized ashtray at the Prairie View Community Center. Nonsmokers can "adopt" a smoker for the day and support them in their decision to abstain. Others can enjoy "Cold Turkey" lunch specials at participating Morton Grove restaurants. For more information call the Morton Grove Department of Health & Human Services at 965-4100, ext. 246.

Tax-Aid Counselors Needed

Additional volunteers are needed to offer their services in the Tax-Aid/Tax Counseling for senior citizens. The free tax counseling service is sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons, the nation's largest retiree group. For further information, please call the Morton Grove Senior Hotline any weekday morning at 965-4558.

Emergency Flashing Light

Firm and disabled Morton Grove residents will have access to a Remote Control Flashing Light System that will enable them to call for medical or emergency assistance. The system, developed by the Morton Grove Advisory Commission on Aging, is composed of a receiver transmitter, and a flashing red strobe light that is plugged into an electrical outlet. The wireless transmitter is carried by the disabled person and may be activated by pushing up on the transmitter button. Activation of the system may occur up to 500 feet away. By placing the system in a street-facing window, the flashing light will alert neighbors, cruising police cars, and other residents that the home needs emergency assistance. The strobe light brightness is intense, measuring 500,000 candlepower. Installed by volunteer members of the Advisory Commission on Aging, the cost of the system is $60. For further distribution information or to have the system explained to your group, or club, contact the Senior Hotline any weekday morning at 965-4558.

Lester Endorsed for State Central Committeeman

Bruce W. Lester, candidate for Democratic State Central Committeeman in the 6th Congressional District, has recently been endorsed by Democratic township committeemen within the 6th Congressional District. Endorsing Lester are township committeemen James Kirey of Leyden Township, Nicholas Blase of Maine Township, Robert Martwick of Norwood Park Township and John Morrissey of Schaumburg Township.

The Democratic State Central Committeeman is the congressional districts' elected representative to the State Democratic party.

"It is an honor to be endorsed by these township committeemen so early after announcing my candidacy," said Lester. "I feel the endorsements of these local leaders is in response to the need for positive and active leadership from the State Central Committeeman in our district. The State Central Committeeman must work to develop an independent identity for the suburban Democratic party and fight for issues that are important to suburban voters."

Lester, an attorney from Des Plaines, has promised to work to make the Democratic party more responsive to the middle class and independent voters.

Lab Science returns to OCC/Skokie

The laboratory science course, "Introduction to Earth Science" (NSC-103) is being offered during the spring at Oakton Community College, Skokie, at OCC/Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave. Spring classes begin the week of January 13.

"Introduction to Earth Science," which hasn't been offered at OCC/Skokie recently is scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays. The lecture portion meets from 9:30 to 10:45 a.m. A lab session is scheduled from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

"Introduction to Earth Science" is geared toward non-science majors. It includes aspects of geology, astronomy, oceanography and weather. The course fulfills four semester hours of the College math-science requirement needed for an associate degree in Liberal Arts.

Registration can be completed, from Nov. 18 through Dec. 12, on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, from 10 a.m. to noon, 2 to 4 p.m., and 5:30 to 6:30 p.m., at OCC/Skokie and OCC/Des Plaines, 1600 East Golf Rd. Part-time students can register for this course, via telephone, by calling 635-1616, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., on Nov. 20, 27, Dec. 4 and 11.

For further information, call 635-1400.

New NORTRAN bus boarding zone at Golf Mill

The progress being made on construction at Golf Mill Shopping Center, Niles, has required NORTRAN (North Suburban Mass Transit District) to relocate its bus boarding zone at Effective immediately, NORTRAN buses will enter the shopping center at the driveway just north of the Golf Mill Theaters, then turn left to load and unload passengers at the west side of Golf Mill Lanes.

Buses will proceed out of the center from this location via Church st. to Marylawn st., and back to Milwaukee ave. The only exception will be Route 241 (Park Ridge Local) which will leave the boarding zone via Church st. to Greenwood ave.

This new waiting area, the area west of Golf Mill Lanes, will be used until further notice on all NORTRAN routes serving the shopping center. They are: Rt. 208 - Evanston, Old Orchard Golf Mill; Rt. 220 - Glenview, Golf Mill, Des Plaines, O'Hare; Rt. 240 - Golf Mill, Dee rd., Cumberland CTA Station; Rt. 241 - Golf Mill, Park Ridge, Cumberland CTA Station; Rt. 270 - Golf Mill, Jefferson Park via Milwaukee.

It is likely that these arrangements may continue through the Spring of 1986 and that this may become a permanent location for bus traffic. NORTRAN buses will no longer stop at the island near Milwaukee ave. nor the curbs between Sears and J.C. Penney's department stores, as they have done in the past.

Both NORTRAN and Golf Mill management regret any inconvenience and are working together to provide rider amenities for the new waiting area.

For specific travel information to the shopping center, call the RTA (Regional Transportation Authority) Travel Information Center from the suburbs, toll-free 1-800-972-7000, or write to NORTRAN for specific bus schedules at 900 E. Northwest Hwy., P.O. Box 388, Des Plaines 60016.

Oakton Community College is offering qualified persons age 18 and over free job training in telemarketing, telesales and customer service.

The six-week program has ongoing enrollment, which interested persons can start at any time. Class sessions are conducted Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., at OCC/Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave. Telemarketing is the fastest growing industry in the country," said Program Coordinator Jan Meyer. "The newspapers contain more than 70 ads every week that our graduates are qualified to fill. This is also the only job area today that is wide open for unemployed youth, people who have been out of the job market for some time, have limited job skills or are near and over retirement age and finding it difficult to secure new jobs."

Meyer said the rapid growth of the telemarketing field makes it exciting. "There are unlimited opportunities to advance to management positions," she said. "You can choose to work part-time or full-time, and often either work at home or in an office."

For further information about how to qualify for this program, call Meyer, 635-1414. This program is funded by the Illinois State Board of Education under the aegis of the Job Training Partnership Act.

As a Holiday special, the Leaning Tower "Y" is offering a special 3-week water exercise program for adults, Dec. 16 thru Jan. 3.

EC offers travel/study to Jamaica

A 17-day travel/study tour of Jamaica will be offered by Elmhurst College during January, according to Dr. Karl A. Robert, professor of geography and environmental planning at the College, who will teach the course.

"Study in the Caribbean: Focus on Jamaica" will provide a cross-cultural experience using the island as an in-depth case study of a developing nation. The group will meet with prominent Jamaican leaders in government, politics, business and industry. They will visit urban areas, a rainforest, schools, plantations, markets, a bauxite mine, factories and a hospital.

On-campus briefing sessions will be held Jan. 26, with on-site experiences Jan. 7-23. A variety of structured group activities, plus time for individual learning, will enable students to investigate the cultural, political, economic and physical characteristics of the emerging nation-state.

According to Dr. Robert, students will be able to develop an attitude of appreciation, understanding, tolerance and respect for a culture area other than their own. A comparative analysis will be made of Jamaica with the United States and with other Third World nations.

Interested non-students will be eligible to join the group on a space-available basis. For further information, contact Dr. Robert, no later than Dec. 2 at 190 Prospect, Elmhurst, IL 60126, (312) 279-4100.

Debbie is also a varsity cheerleader at Main East. When asked what she thought about the school's sports' program, she replied, "The school's programs are good, but the students don't have enough spirit to support them. More spirit would give the teams more push."

One of her goals is to get involved with television and radio, and currently she is a member of the WMTH-FM radio staff at Main East. She hopes to go to Columbia College of Fine Arts because of their television and radio classes, and someday Debbie dreams of being a D.J. or anchor person on the news.

Freshmen are usually picked on, but this senior has some advice. "Savor every moment of high school while you have it because someday you'll be a senior and wish you had it all back."

Aquatics water exercise at LTY

The Leaning Tower YMCA recognizes that one of the most popular active sports is exercise in the water. It is one of the best physical activities for people of all ages and for many persons who are handicapped. Vigorous water activities can make a major contribution to the flexibility, strength, and circulatory endurance of individuals. With the body submerged in water, blood circulation automatically increases to some extent; pressure of water on the body also helps promote deeper ventilation of the lungs, and with well-planned activity, both circulation and ventilation increase still more.

Increased flexibility work is performed more easily in water because of the lessening of gravitational pull. A person immersed to the neck in water experienced an apparent loss of 90% of its weight. This means that the feet and legs of a woman weighing 130 lbs. immersed in water only has to support a weight of 13 lbs. Thus, individuals and especially older people with painful joints or weak leg muscles, will usually find it possible and comfortable to move in the water. It is much easier to do leg straddle or stride stretches in water than on the floor. Many individuals jog in the water, but are unable to do so on land!

As a Holiday special, the Leaning Tower "Y" is offering a special 3-week water exercise program for adults, Dec. 16 thru Jan. 3.

For further information, call Laurie Guth, 647-8222.

Senior skater hopes to be pro

Dreamed about gliding across the ice as light as a feather? For Debbie Benjamin, this dream is a reality.

The Maine East senior from Des Plaines has been skating for nearly four years. She originally became interested in skating when she went skating with a friend. She has been skating since then, taking lessons at Rockford and Oakland.

Debbie has competed in Kenosha, Glenwood, St. Louis, and Springfield. In the St. Louis competition, she took first place in Intermediate Ladies, and in Springfield she took second. As of now, her goals with skating are to get her golds in figures and freestyles. Also, someday she'd like to teach, but for now she just wants to push herself as far as possible.

Debbie is also a varsity cheerleader at Main East. When asked what she thought about the school's sports' program, she replied, "The school's programs are good, but the students don't have enough spirit to support them. More spirit would give the teams more push."

Nilesites celebrate 35th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jane Buonincontro of Niles recently celebrated their 35th Wedding Anniversary.

After a surprise party given by family, the couple left for a Caribbean cruise aboard the Star Ship Royale.

Lioness project aids elderly

On October 27, the members of the Lioness Club of Niles provided delicious home baked goods to be sold at the Forest Villa Nursing Home Holiday Bazaar. Some of the ladies also helped display and sell the "Goodies" and spent the afternoon visiting with the residents. This is just one of the many projects taken on by the Lioness Club, as part of their services to the community.

Bazaar to benefit retarded

Santa Claus and Chicagoland artisans will all be part of the Northwest Suburban Aid for the Retarded Holiday Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 30.

Handmade and specialty gift items will be available to shoppers from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at Ruth W. Foster Industries, 1841 Busse Hwy. in Des Plaines. Foster Industries is one of two workcenters operated for the disabled workers by NSAR.

Santa Claus will make a guest appearance with treats for all the children. Ann Marie Ehrlich, NSAR development director, suggested parents bring their children to the bazaar to see Santa and avoid the long lines at the shopping malls.

The Northwest Suburban Aid for the Retarded has served the developmentally disabled for more than three decades. Today, handicapped adults benefit from the agency's vocational and residential programs. For further information about the Holiday Bazaar call 541-8250.

CREATIVE COOKING

From an old southern cookbook comes this rich, wholesome recipe for banana bread.

OLD SOUTH BANANA BREAD

3 ripe large Dole Bananas
1/2 cup butter, softened
1/2 cup packed brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1-1/4 cups all-purpose flour
2/3 cup unprocessed bran
1/2 cup whole wheat flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup chopped figs
1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Mash bananas to make 1-1/2 cups. Cream butter and sugars until light and fluffy. Beat in mashed bananas, egg and vanilla. Combine flours, bran, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Beat into banana mixture until well-blended. Pour into a well-greased 9 x 5-inch loaf pan. Bake in 350° oven 1 hour 15 minutes until bread tests done. Cool in pan 10 minutes. Turn onto wire rack to complete cooling. Makes 1 loaf.

For more terrific banana recipes, write to Dole Bananas, Dept. B5, P.O. Box 7758, San Francisco, CA 94120.

These Peppers Have a Healthful Secret

Here's a new way to make a delicious old favorite, stuffed peppers with rice. Nutritious and easy to prepare, this fuss-free recipe uses Hain Vegetable Chicken Soup which means there are no preservatives, additives or artificial coloring, only the ingredients put there by nature. The chicken and vegetables from the soup plus Cheddar cheese are used to stuff the peppers and the soup's liquid cooks the rice. Only one casserole dish is required which makes for easy clean-up. Bake for 30 to 35 minutes and the entire is ready to serve.

EASY STUFFED PEPPERS AND RICE
2 medium-sized green peppers
1 can (19 oz.) Hain Vegetable Chicken Soup
1/2 cup rice (uncooked)
1/4 cup shredded Cheddar cheese, divided

Preheat oven to 400° F. Slice off tops from peppers; remove seeds and white portion; set peppers aside. Skim broth from top of soup; add to rice. Add rice to soup; mix well. Combine vegetable-chicken mixture with 1/4 cup of the cheese. Spoon an equal amount into each pepper. Sprinkle with remaining 1/4 cup cheese. Place peppers in casserole. Cover and bake until rice absorbs liquid, 30 to 35 minutes. YIELD: 2 portions

'Popcorn lover' nailed for bogus $100 bill

by Richard Stemple

You could tell he was a high roller. Just by the way he sauntered up to the popcorn counter and plunked the C-note on the glass counter top. He had that panache, that cavalier manner big spenders often affect. No mere order of a box of Dots and a small Coke for this guy. "Eleven boxes of popcorn and don't go easy on the butter," he ordered with an insouciance that compelled the immediate attention of even the jaded counter girls.

What does one do with eleven boxes of popcorn, even if they are at the movies? Nobody consumes that much popcorn, even if you can afford to pay for it with a hundred dollar bill and taped them onto one a dollar bill.

The manager called the police.

The boy said he was "just showing off" and had no intention of really trying to pass a bogus bill. The police collected the fake C-note and sent the boy home.

The Treasury people were called because it was a case of "counterfeiting". The boy was out a buck, eleven boxes of popcorn, and didn't even get to be confused about the accident.

Wait a minute! You may not need a Harvard MBA to sell popcorn at the Golf Glen Movie Theater but something wasn't right. One of the girls said, "We don't have change for that big a bill." Another said, "I better get the manager." Meanwhile, our high roller starts to squirm with impatience.

Maybe it was the tape at the corners of the bill. Maybe it was the decidedly un-prepossessing look of the high roller. Maybe, just maybe, it was because George Washington looks out from the face of a one dollar bill, not a hundred. That distinction belongs to Benjamin Franklin. This is all just conjecture, however. The fact is our "big spender" had cut the corners off of even the jaded counter girls.

Drunk driver arrested after accident

A 19-year-old Skokie man was charged with drunken driving and failure to reduce speed after striking a parked car Nov. 12.

The resident, who lives in the 8400 block of Terrace st., told police someone entered the house by using a pry-type tool and a brick from a neighbor's yard to break the window lock at the rear of the house.

Once inside, the person(s) unknown removed a diamond (weight undetermined) and a gold and diamond ring from an upstairs bedroom, along with a Sony television. Also taken were two video recorders in the den and a television in the kitchen.

Total loss was estimated at $3,000. Damage to the window frame and rear door (which the culprit(s) first tried to enter) was $400.

This year the Niles Public Library invited the schools to send projects from academic areas about which they're learning, to be displayed in the Library. During the month of October, Mrs. Lake's eighth grade social studies class has some of their mobiles, posters, and other projects concerning the United States' flag displayed. Those who had their work displayed were: Jennifer Adamczyk, Stephanie Cesna, Darren Demming, Jill Derbes, Annmarie Dulen, Craig Kampner, Steven Lee, Tracy McCarthy, Bill Mosier, Jeff Orloff, Jane Park, Diane Wagrowski and Katina Woods.

Class sessions before going to New York will consist of preparatory lectures.

Seminars for aerobic instructors

Designed to provide basics for a safe, fun aerobics program, the seminar is open to aerobic instructors, physical education

By Jim Jennings

Here's one that may surprise you... Of all the pro and college football teams in America, which one do you think has won the most total games in history? It's not any of the big powers you might think of like Yale... Yale has won 200 games. That's right, Yale has more wins than any other team-college or pro-leagues to that figure.

Only one National Football League team has a picture of a football on their helmets... Which team is that? Answer is the New England Patriots... The emblem shows a man carrying a football.

Believe it or not, a famous college in America named itself after its football coach... Sam Colgate was football coach of Madison College in Hamilton, N.Y. In the 1800s, Sam Colgate and his wife made a large donation to the college and the name of the school was changed from Madison to Colgate... So, today, Colgate University is named after its former football coach.

Nesset Center Mammography Screening Unit opened

The Nesset Health Center recently announced the opening of a Mammography Screening Unit. The center is located at 1775 Ballard rd., Park Ridge. The technically advanced equipment used in the screening can detect breast cancer in its earliest stage. Early detection of the disease is the only preventive approach available at this time. This can be accomplished through the mammogram and yearly physician examination. The mammogram is a special low-dose x-ray. It has life saving potential for women who have no symptoms of breast cancer. Traditionally, it has been used to help diagnose breast lumps which have already been detected, but its greatest benefit is in screening women who have no symptoms to find unsuspected cases of very early breast cancer.

The mammography screening is done by appointment. Appointments are scheduled through physician referral only. If you do not have a regular physician, one will be referred to you at the Nesset Health Center. Following the mammogram, you will be instructed in the specific skills of breast self-examination.

For more information about Mammography Screening, call 696-7635.

The Nesset Health Center is part of Parkside Human Services Corporation which is a member of the Lutheran General Health Care System.

LGH Brain Tumor Support Group

A Brain Tumor Support Group has been established to help people who are affected by brain tumors. The meeting is scheduled from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, December 11, at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge.

According to the group's organizers, it is the only support group of this type in the metropolitan Chicago area. Some 30,000 people are diagnosed each year as having brain tumors.

The American Cancer Society recommends that all women between 35 and 40 have a baseline or initial screening to serve as a basis for future comparisons.

Women age 40 to 50 should have a mammogram every year or two depending upon their risk factors. Women who are over 50 should have a mammogram every year. It is important to note that women with symptoms or family history of breast cancer may require more frequent examinations.

In a recent screening project conducted by the American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute on 280,000 women between the ages of 35 and 74, mammography detected nearly 90 percent of the 3,357 cancers uncovered. Furthermore, the cancers detected by mammography were in a very early stage, curable in a majority of Sometimes, the most obvious answer to a problem is totally overlooked. In an incredibly complicated world, we often look for complex solutions rather than trusting the simple, elementary answers right before our eyes.

When it comes to health, we clutter our medicine cabinets on the spinal column, to which every organ in the body is connected through a network of nerves. If the nervous system is functioning normally, good health will usually be the result. Diet, environment and lifestyle all contribute to the way we feel, and doctors of chiropractic weigh all these factors before treatment. The disease process begins with the body's inability to deal with different forms of stress.

With the proliferation of HMO's "health maintenance" may seem like a new, exclusive term. Maintaining the body's integrity is the fundamental concept of chiropractic. But instead of just reaching for a pill or bottle, doctors of chiropractic first look within the body for solutions. Chiropractors stress the advantages of correcting the cause as opposed to simply treating the symptoms.

Dr. James Walsh has twelve years of college education, a Doctorate in Chiropractic Medicine, Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy and Human Anatomy. Dr. Robert Peck has nine years of college education with a Doctorate in Chiropractic Medicine, and a Bachelor of Science in Biology. Both doctors are well-versed on all aspects of its use, and are available to discuss the practical benefits of Chiropractic on your show.

Happy marriages are the key to health

For decades we have known that married people live longer than single. Their heart disease, cancer, stroke or even accidents are more likely to hit single people, especially the widowed or divorced. Now a 38-state study by Drs. John Giudibaldi and Helen Clemenshaw indicates that divorce may also harm children's physical health. The changes in family structure, roles and resources leaves the single parents overwhelmed by "role overload."

Unfortunately, divorce has become so widespread that many consider it to be of epidemic proportions. More than half of all marriages end in divorce. There are many reasons for marital failure, but one stands out above the rest: a lack of commitment towards solving the everyday problems of marriage. It seems easier to call a divorce lawyer. This trend is destroying the very fabric of our society. Formerly loving couples turn into hostile, aggressive adversaries. The children tend to become fearful, guilt-ridden, full of pain, anger and confusion.

Family and friends want to help but are often ineffective. Divorce is an "everybody loses situation" - there are no winners. Although this sounds hopeless, there are alternatives. The Entry Center, a non-profit agency serving families torn apart by marital discord or in midst of the painful process of divorce or separation has expanded its program of Marriage and Family Counseling. Other services provided are: individual therapy, group counseling, and support groups for newly single. Detailed information is available upon request by calling Mike Rosenzweig, Ph.D. at 251-9320.

Maine East senior breaks 'Tiny Bubble'

Everyone has to break out of their self-conscious 'bubble' at some time, and for Jeff Gail what better time to do this than his senior year at Maine East.

Along with thirteen other seniors and one junior, Jeff assembled an act for the recent V-Show at Maine East. This was not your ordinary act, for the guys, including Jeff, dressed as Hawaiian hula girls, singing and dancing. "The best part about it is that there is no talent involved. We just went out and had a good time." The group called itself "Don Hock and the Bubble."

Everyone has to break out of their self-conscious 'bubble' at some time, and for Jeff Gail what better time to do this than his senior year at Maine East.

Lucky for this senior from Morton Grove, his involvement in V-Show didn't interfere with his part-time job. For four years now Jeff has been selling T-shirts at college football games. In fact, he probably travels more for his part-time job than any other student at Maine East. The company he works for concentrates on Northwestern and University of Wisconsin home games so he is busy most Saturdays during the football season.

For Wisconsin games the day's work begins around 5 a.m., and Jeff usually gets home around 10 o'clock. It sounds like a long day's work, but Jeff says it's kind of nice; he can get a glimpse of college life and make some money at the same time.

Jeff says he would like to continue his part-time job, but it would be difficult since he's going to Illinois State next year studying pre-business/accounting. "That's why most of my money goes into the bank. I want to have enough spending money at college."

District 207 committee on teen suicide

"The high divorce rate, easier access to alcohol and drugs, and other social pressures have all combined to increase stress on young people today leading to higher suicide rates among adolescents," said Dr. George Krueger, chief psychologist for Maine Township High School District 207.

That alarming trend reached District 207 in 1984 when two Maine students became suicide victims. At the recommendation of Dr. John T. Benka, assistant superintendent for general administration and personnel, and Krueger, Maine established a committee on adolescent suicide last fall. Since then, the committee has been seeking ways to increase awareness of suicidal signs and promote intervention strategies to stop suicides before they happen, according to Krueger.

In May, the committee sponsored workshops on adolescent suicide for faculty members. Reverend Dan Stauffacher, an expert on adolescent suicide and cohost of Channel 2's Saturday morning program "Different Drummers," talked to teachers about watching for the signs that may indicate suicide.

Crisis teams were established in each building to work with students who might be at risk.

Although the growing number of suicide prevention programs worry some people who believe it is a subject that should not be discussed, Krueger disagrees.

"All literature and research shows that getting the topic out in the open reduces the number of suicides," he said. "We have been lucky because we have had no suicides since the two in 1984. We hope these workshops prevent anymore."

The Student Services Center at Oakton Community College/Skokie, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave., offers on-going free job-finding assistance for area residents.

"Career Corner," a comprehensive listing of jobs with selected employers in the north suburban area, is published bi-weekly at the College and is distributed in the Student Services Center. New job listings are posted daily on a bulletin board. The College also receives job listings each week from the Illinois Job Service.

"There's a wealth of information available here that can help people who are seeking jobs," said Kathleen Lee, manager of Student Services at OCC/Skokie. "We have many helpful publications, including the Occupational Outlook Handbook, which is an annual publication that tells the expected demand for various occupations throughout the nation."

Crack down takes its toll
The crack down on toll cheats by the Illinois State Police has had an impact on the compliance rate at the toll plazas.

The State Police began to work both covert and overt toll evasion details at the unmanned plazas back in April of this year. As a result, the compliance rate jumped from 88% to 91.3%.

Captain George P. Hornyan, Commander of District 15 State Police in Oak Brook commented, "Of the twelve unmanned toll plazas, five of them have shown a 2% increase while the Spring Road Plaza in Oak Brook had a 4% increase. The Farnsworth Avenue Plaza in Aurora had a 5% increase; and the Hal Day Road Plaza in Deerfield showed a 7% increase in toll payment."

"These figures are significant," continued Captain Hornyan, "in that they indicate that our selective enforcement does impact targeted areas. Our troopers are doing an outstanding job and will continue to work the toll evasion details in the near future."

If a motorist is caught and convicted for toll evasion, the fine could range from $50 to $100 plus court costs.

Volunteer coaches needed

Volunteer coaches are needed for the Morton Grove Park District Youth Basketball program which begins in December. This program is an instructional-based program geared towards boys and girls in grades three through eight. Experience is not necessary, just a concern for the youth in the community.

Interested coaches should contact Bob O'Shaughnessy, Athletic Supervisor, at 965-7447.

Residents concerned over Salvadoran bombings

Residents of the North Suburban and far Northwest Chicago parts of the 11th Congressional District visited the district office of Congressman Frank Annunzio on Tuesday afternoon November 5. They expressed their concern that the Salvadoran armed forces are engaged in the bombing of civilian populations and presented documentation of the bombings from the human rights organization, Americas Watch.

The delegation asked that Annunzio oppose U.S. military aid to El Salvador, that he co-sponsor the Conyers Resolution which condemns the indiscriminate bombing of civilians, and that he come in person to a public meeting with members of the 11th District "Stop the Bombing Campaign." They also presented petitions against military aid collected from various parts of the district.

Congressman Annunzio's aid Jim Parker told the group that he did not expect that Annunzio would agree to their request to vote against military aid. He suggested that the group make a formal written request for a public meeting.

Delegation member Carmen Pappas of Lincolnwood commented, "We told Annunzio's aide that it is our tax dollars that, in most part, have financed the blood bath that is currently going on in El Salvador. We said that we need to understand that we are meddling in a civil war. But I don't know whether we had an impact."

board. She relinquished her chairmanship on the cable committee after Big Daddy and the little Daddies reversed her committee's recommendation for a cable company. The committee had concurred with the recommendations of a joint 18-suburban community committee, which Niles was part of, but they were vetoed by the big and little Daddies of Niles.

At election time The Daddies had a full ticket including a new Momma, Ms. Panek, who had been a part of the Blase tickets in past years, decided she would prefer to run as an independent, which would leave her beholden to no Daddies, big or small. In other words, "her heart didn't belong to Daddy."

Blase and the Daddies, who had workers in every nook and corner of Niles, still were running scared. Just before deadline Blase's party put up an independent Momma candidate, who is a friend and longtime party member. Since she is a Momma and running as an alleged independent, it was conceived she would drain off enough votes from Panek to assure the Daddy Party's election. She collected 934 votes. Panek lost by 449 votes.

In past years' Big Daddy Blase had appointed Bart Murphy and Abe Selman to the village board. Subsequently, they have been elected at the following elections. The new appointee will be Blase's third selector who was not first elected to the present board.

If they refuse to place their mouths on the dummies as part of the CPR session, we have to respect their rights. But they would do their duty in an emergency situation.

Terpinas noted the disease has been around for a long time. "They just did not put a name to it. When Rock Hudson died from AIDS, the fear of contracting the disease spread all over the country. There is general misconception about transmitting the virus; that is the big problem," he said.

Lt. Marty Stankowicz agreed police officers would perform their duty in life-saving situations, such as administering CPR. "However, the officers are not involved that much because paramedics are called to the scene in emergencies," he said. "I really feel we don't have a problem in the department concerning AIDS."

Fire Chief Harry Kinowski said Monday that paramedics use air bags in performing CPR which have a greater exchange of oxygenated air. "It's a manual resuscitation device and not a mouth-to-mouth concept with very little danger of contracting AIDS," he explained.

Kinowski noted no one in his department has indicated they would not do CPR on the mannequin called "Recorda Annie," which is used in the individual fire stations for CPR recertification purposes. "We use alcohol-soaked swabs to clean the doll after each person uses it," he said.

Restraining order...

tion (under Chapter 11) on July 25, but had failed to get permission from bankruptcy court to pursue his suit against the village.

"We found out about it when he (Silverman) and his attorneys failed to show up for a deposition at my office and we did some investigating," Troy said. Further investigation revealed Silverman failed to exercise his option to renew the lease on Bubbles last April.

A. L. Zimmer, attorney for Silverman, confirmed the filing for bankruptcy protection and the court must approve consent to any form of litigation. "I'm sure we will receive that approval and go on with our suit against Niles," he said.

According to Zimmer, Chapter 11 protection will give Bubbles protection from creditors and allow it to remain in business while reorganizing to become profitable.

A decision has been made not to seek another restraining order after the legal technicality is corrected. "We feel the damage has already been done (loss of revenue at Bubbles) and it would not be prudent."

The controversy began when Silverman filed a civil rights suit in federal court to stop constant police checks (for underage drinking) via the injunction and to seek damages for loss of revenue...estimated at 50 percent...because of alleged police harassment.

Troy said Bubbles' suit is "frivolous" and is based "on the wrong reasons. He claims the bar has suffered financially because of police harassment and contends the stepped-up patrols began in early July after the village found out it was a gay bar," he said.

Blase said he did "nothing wrong" in not accepting the order because it was too late for Silverman to appeal to the state commission. "The office would have been closed before he got there," he said, adding he had been assured by a commissioner everything was legally done.

Referring to the decision to drop the injunction against the police, Silverman said he and his attorneys would get rid of police harassment "some other way," but would not elaborate on what course of action would be taken.

"Blase won the battle...but he will lose the war," he said.

said, adding that AIDS virus can only be transmitted by direct contact with the victim "by blood or semen."

In light of the Skokie police incident, Kinowski said he will consider whether better equipment is available for CPR training and expressed interest in a new type of mannequin to be used by Skokie Valley Hospital.

The Skokie hospital has put its CPR training on hold until it receives a new type of mannequin called "Chris Clean" that has a disposable face. According to a spokesman from the Northbrook-based Armstrong Industries Inc., which manufactures the doll, each student is given his own mask to place on the dummy making it unnecessary to clean between students.

The mannequin's "lungs" also are cleaned after each use to prevent the spread of airborne germs, the spokesman said. The basic "Chris Clean" cost $400 and a deluxe model more than $1,000, a price Kinowski termed as "relatively cheap."

"We have not received any warning from the fire department's project hospital St. Francis (a resource center for the department) about using Annie, but I would like to obtain more information on the new doll that has been put on the market," he said.

The public needs to be properly informed about contracting the virus. "People should be educated and then be allowed to form their own conclusions based on sound information," Marcotte said.

Mary Anne Marcotte, emergency medical service coordinator for St. Francis Hospital in Evanston, oversaw the doll after each person used it," he said.

become a $1 million operation."

He explained the lease on Bubbles was not renewed because the wording in the language was not clear. We are in the process of negotiating with the landlord to renew.

Silverman added he has received threatening phone calls to the past several weeks.

Adding to his woes, Silverman recently received a 48-hour suspension of his liquor license after two minors were arrested for drinking in the bar.

Noting Bubbles' employees have been vigilant in checking patrons' IDs because of the every other night police checks, Silverman said the two minors apparently gave forged IDs to the bartender. "They just got rid of them when they were taken to the police station. Forged IDs are so sophisticated now...you can't tell them from the real thing."

In discussing the 48-hour suspension, Silverman said Mayor Nicholas Basa (liquor commissioner) ignored a "stay order" from the Illinois Liquor Commission, which would have stalled the local penalty. "The state group would have had priority in hearing the case. Blase was given the document, but would not accept it. That's an abridgement of rights. It's like being in Nazi Germany...get out of my town, or else," he said.

Blase said he did "nothing wrong" in not accepting the order because it was too late for Silverman to appeal to the state commission. "The office would have been closed before he got there," he said, adding he had been assured by a commissioner everything was legally done.

Referring to the decision to drop the injunction against the police, Silverman said he and his attorneys would get rid of police harassment "some other way," but would not elaborate on what course of action would be taken.

Again, we humbly suggest (as only we can do) Big Daddy NOT appoint independent-minded Carol Panek. Only 2,383 Nilesites thought she should be elected. That's just one vote short of the Bid Daddy vote in Niles.

Like that old Mary Martin 1940 song, Carol Panek "likes a game of golf...and I'm sure she 'likes to dine on fin and haddle'. But unlike the song, 'her heart doesn't belong to Daddy'.

Blase won the battle...but he will lose the war," he said.

on the referendum remains Glenview residents who oppose annexation to the District. She said, "Do vote NO."

Some board members, in opposition to Rajski, branded her actions with strong words such as "malicious" and "destructive."

Terri Carmen, Board member, said decisions are made by the whole Board and "we have to remain a Board." Carmen said the public is "confused" by someone signing his or her name as a Niles Library Trustee.

Costello said, "I don't know how those (Rajski's) actions can be construed as being loyal to the Niles Library."

Charlene Wagner said all Board members could not pull in one directions with another Board member pulling in another.

In her defense, Rajski said "It seems to be that just because one takes issue with what has transpired does not constitute a misdemeanor." She said she would not resign from the Board.

Observing the meeting and protesting the Board's actions was a representative of the Westfield Homeowner's Assn. in unincorporated Glenview. Westfield is in a parcel of land the library is attempting to annex.

Board Attorney Lawrence Weintraub said the District is entitled, by Library Law, to expand funds for annexation.

Rajski asked Duncan McKenzie, Board Administrator, if Library staff had phoned anyone regarding annexation. McKenzie did not answer.

for an injunction was withdrawn at a court hearing last Wednesday because of a steady stream of police visits and ID checks had eroded business to the point a simple injunction would make little difference in the financial health of the bar.

"We are going to a status conference on December 18 at which time we will clarify our case for damages against the village," Zimmer said. He affirmed his client's intent to seek damages from the Village of Niles, Mayor Nicholas Blase, Police Chief Clarence Emrikson and Deputy Liquor Commissioner Santo Niles at that hearing.

Malcolm Silverman, the owner of Bubbles, Niles' only avowedly gay bar, has claimed a conspiracy on the part of village authorities to drive him out of business because his establishment openly caters to the suburban homosexual crowd. Silverman maintains he was warned not to convert the failing hamburger restaurant into a gay hangout because "he (Blase) isn't going to like a gay bar in his town."

Scott Van Berschot, manager of Bubbles, says police visited the pink and black disco 91 consecutive evenings, "waving flashlights and checking ID's as they moved through the bar."

Berschot emphasized, "You have to understand, most guys just want to come here quietly and have a good time. It's a social club. When the police come through here, though, everybody just clears out. This is the way to crush a bar."

Zimmer said the status conference slated for December 18 will give all parties to the lawsuit a chance to see the evidence and, while his client is "not seeking an out-of-court settlement, he wouldn't discourage one, either."

Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrikson indicated he was not too worried about the lawsuit. Emrikson said, "I've been sued before. I don't get too worried about these things."

opposed to the library annexation. He said, "You, as an individual, saw fit to write letters to an editor against Board policy."

Rajski countered that she was thinking of residents within the Niles Public Library District as well as those within the areas to be annexed.

According to Board members, Rajski could not have considered the "people" in this District because those residents voted "overwhelmingly" for annexation, at least 3-1 in favor of annexation.

Myles Dimand said "As far as I was concerned this Board was totally non-partisan. None of us was tied into a political campaign."

The District did distribute flyers in unincorporated areas campaigning for a "yes" vote on the referendum. Flyers were sent with "Project Plus" bulletins. "Project Plus" funds were received from the State to serve areas not included in either a Municipal or District Library system.

Board Attorney Lawrence Weintraub said the District is entitled, by Library Law, to expand funds for annexation.

Rajski asked Duncan McKenzie, Board Administrator, if Library staff had phoned anyone regarding annexation. McKenzie did not answer.

At one point in the meeting, Rajski, visibly upset, briefly left the Board room.

suspected or face an automatic suspension of his/her license.

Police Chief Emrikson has announced that Niles Police will be extra alert for the signs of a driver under the influence. The enforcement of the new laws will be stepped up and the police have been instructed to administer the breathalyzer test whenever there is good reason to suspect a driver is under the influence. He stated that every drunk driver behind the wheel of a car weighing 3,000 pounds or more is a potential killer and the Niles police will do their best to protect the families of Niles as well as other motorists.

In other business, the board approved a $100 donation to the Wilmette Park District which is in litigation with the Village of Wilmette over a zoning matter.

According to Berrafato the park district went to court when the village prevented the installation of lights for a baseball field. "The park district held that it was a governmental entity and did not have to obtain a permit from the village. The village contends it had superior rights," he said.

In other matters, board members approved a $2,500 lease for one month use of a vacant lot adjacent to the Library. The area recently purchased by the Library is the site of a gas station.

According to Pestine, the area will be celebrating its 25th anniversary the week of December 2 through 7. Cake and coffee will be served daily and a drawing will be held on December 7 for a 45" Zenith Color TV, 2-13" Color Portable TVs, a Sony Beta Movie preferential parking as much as possible people do, but did not have a solution.

Although Bozinos said he understood there is a need for additional handicapped parking at the center, he said there should be spots available close to the building for people conducting official park business.

"For staff members who are in and out every day, they should have easy access," said Bozinos. "It costs the taxpayers money if they waste time walking around."

Said Weidinger: "They should walk."

Commissioner Dodge Connolly felt that she came up with a solution to the parking problem. She said seniors should utilize the free park district bus which would provide them with door-to-door service. However, Weidinger said, "We have people who can't get in and out of the bus."

The ultimate solution came from Bozinos: "We need a new parking lot."

Park district notes:
-A new pick-up truck will be purchased from Jerry Gleason Ford in Niles, at a cost of $7,382. Only two area car dealerships offered the board bids.
