

Niles residents unhappy over double taxation, sewer services

by Sylvia Dalrymple

Residents of a portion of Niles annexed since 1970 are still paying a sewer tax to the Glenview-based Domestic Utilities Service Company (DUSCO), raising the ire of a Carol St. resident.

Chester Goldberg said that homeowners are paying an average of $10 every three months for sewer service. "If there is a sewer problem, DUSCO comes out here and not Niles. I feel these payments amount to double taxation," he said. Goldberg explained that DUSCO owned both the "sewer and water lines" in the then unincorporated area. "Niles purchased the water mains from the Zoners deny request for multiple

by Sylvia Dalrymple

A request for a zoning change from residential to multiple family use to allow construction of a three-story apartment building at 9200 Courtland was turned down Monday by the Niles Zoning Board.

It is not compatible with the residential area in continuity or aesthetically," he said. "I don't like the spot zoning aspects of the plan." Petitioner Nicholas Laris said he had an option to buy the property subject to approval of the board. He estimated the cost of the project in the neighborhood of $380,000. "I intend to live in one

In January we ran a story in which Niles Library District may have a shortfall in cash which may curtail or cut services at the branch library. The story noted the branch library costs may amount to $120,000 which accounts for about 27% of the total budget.

According to the story the Niles branch library ranks 14th in volume-turnover for the 43 libraries and 4 branch libraries in the Northwest Suburban Library System. Niles main library ranks 31st in volume-turnover.

As we all know numbers and statistics can be used in many ways. The volume-turnover at the branch may not be significant since the book collection is limited. A smaller book collection is likely to have books which are most in demand resulting in the increased volume-turnover. The main library with a much broader collection, including less-used specialized books, would not have the same turnover as the much smaller collection.

In Evanston there is a controversy over keeping the bookmobile service activated. Figures there show bookmobile costs are $2.20 per book, compared to $1.47 per book costs at the south branch and 63 cents at the north branch.

"Bubbles" floats out of Niles quietly

The closing of Bubbles Bistro in Niles last week may have lifted the spirits of village officials, but the owner of the gay bar still intends to press the civil suit filed against the village last August.

The suit is currently in the discovery process in the U.S. Federal District Court, with a status hearing scheduled for May, according to Abe Brustein, attorney for Bubbles' owner, Malcolm Silverman.

"The closing of the bar's operation will not change plans to go ahead with the suit," he said.

Maine Paratransit services expanded

Paratransit services for Maine Township residents who are disabled or elderly without access to public transportation have been expanded to include travel to areas five miles north and five miles east of the township's boundaries, according to Maine Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson.

"The means that township residents now can use the special transportation services to travel to places like Skokie Valley and Glenbrook Hospitals as well as the Glenview Senior Center," said Halverson, who serves as chairman of the executive committee of the Paratransit Resource Center.

Until now, special transportation services had been limited to travel within the six northwest suburban townships that participate in funding the program along with PACE, the suburban bus division of the Regional Transportation Authority.

Halverson said he began negotiating with PACE to expand its service area after Maine Township residents indicated that there was a demand for service to these destinations.

"Maine Township has been a major supporter of the Paratransit program since 1982, and I have worked diligently to accommodate the needs of the township residents who must use this service," Halverson said. The township has subsidized the program through allocations of revenue sharing funds.

Paratransit provides door-to-door transportation services by cab or specially equipped vans on a reduced-rate basis to eligible residents of Maine, Elk Grove, Palatine, Barrington, Schaumburg and Wheeling Townships.

To be eligible to participate in the Paratransit program, residents must be disabled or 65 years or older with no access to public transportation.

Persons who would like to apply for inclusion in the program should contact paratransit 255-3456 or call Donna Anderson, Maine Township Handicap Services Coordinator, at 297-2510.

Maine Township budget available

After completing the proposed Maine Township Budget and Appropriation Ordinance for fiscal 1986-87, Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson said that drafting this year's budget was one of the most arduous tasks he has performed in his five years as supervisor.

"We have tried to hold the line on increases in all budgeted categories including salaries while faced with an astronomical 300 percent increase in insurance as well as the uncertainty surrounding continued revenue sharing funding."

"Under the circumstances, I consider it a small miracle that we have been able to come up with a budget reflecting only a 10.5 percent increase over last year," Halverson said.

Maine Township residents may inspect the proposed budget beginning Monday, March 10, at the Maine Township Town Hall, 1700 Ballard Road, Park Ridge.

The proposed budget appropriates a combined total of $2,330,812 for the General Town Fund, the General Assistance Fund and the Federal Revenue Sharing Fund. It will be available for inspection until April 8 when the Town Board will hold a public hearing on the budget to be followed immediately by the Annual Town Meeting.

A separate public hearing on the Road and Bridge Fund Budget and Appropriation Ordinance for fiscal 1986-87, totaling $1,048,980, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 25. That budget, up $205,480 from last year's appropriation ordinance, also is available for inspection at the Maine Township Town Hall.

District 63 adopts school calendar

A school calendar beginning with an Institute Day, August 25, 1986 and ending with dismissal of classes June 19, 1987 was adopted by board members of East Maine School District 63 at a February board meeting.

Dr. Donald Stetina, associate superintendent, said the calendar should represent not only the thinking of the staff but also an attempt at coordination with the high school and other Maine Township schools.

Winter vacation will be from December 22 through January 3 and spring break will be the week of April 6 through April 10.

In other action, board members approved awarding a contract for $754,000 for life safety work. Work would include recessed lighting at Melzer school and emergency generators in all District schools.

Steve Blonz, a representative from Ray Green & Assoc., gave board members an update on progress of other life safety work including removal of asbestos, exterior work and energy conservation in all District schools.

Blonz said asbestos removal for Stevenson, Washington and Nelson schools is scheduled to be done this summer. All life safety work is scheduled to be completed by the summer of 1988.

In other matters, board members approved holding back a check from Green & Assoc. to verify that the proper amount was issued.

"I really hate to leave Niles, but I've always had a calling to the ministry with and impetus on counseling," he said. "Since Amarillo is situated in the Panhandle, we will serve the needs of people from a five-state area, including New Mexico and Colorado."

Renetzky was a minister and pastor for 16 years before coming to Niles to head the mental health agency. "The churches were located in Riverside, (IL) and in Springfield where I was involved in counseling and social work," he said.

He holds degrees from Washington University, George Brown School of Social Work, McCormick Theological Seminary and Illinois College.

Mayor Nicholas Blase said Renetzky would be hard to replace. "We will miss him. He well in his new venture. The fledgling agency opened its doors in the firehouse station on Jan. 9, 1969 with Renetzky as full time director and a secretary. More part-time clinicians were added to the staff after the men-cy (Niles Family Service). Other towns eventually adopted our concept," he said. "We wish him well in his new venture."

Parents of teens support group

Improving relationships between parents and teenagers will be the focus of a series of ten discussions on Thursdays from 7-8:30 p.m. beginning March 13 at Far Northwest Counseling Center (FNCC), 8229 Northwest Highway, in Chicago.

The discussions, led by Michael Hugo, C.S.W., will be based on the Systematic Training for Effective Parenting of Teens (STEP/Teen) program. The program encourages mutual respect between parents and teens. It also leads to increased cooperation, more effective communication, and a more responsible, self-reliant attitude among teenagers.

Parents who have participated in past STEP groups have said they find the program beneficial for many reasons, one of which is the opportunity the group presents for parents to share experiences and learn from one another.

The cost for the entire 10-session program is $50, plus an additional $7 for a parents' manual. To register or for further information, contact Michael Hugo at 774-7555.

AQUAMARINE

The only stone cut with facets by the Romans, the Aquamarine combines such cool distinctive color qualities that historians have aptly likened it to a thousand leagues of sunlit sea imprisoned in a cup. Prized in Egypt for its power to invoke cunning water spirits or the aid of mighty heroes. The Aquamarine offered equal protection in courts of law or on the battlefields. It also quickened intellect and its wearer grew fearless, amiable and relaxed.

Aquamarines together with Emerald and Beryl belong to the Beryl Group, it is so named water of the sea. Aquamarine is also a Talisman of Sailors.

The most important deposits of Aquamarine are in Brazil, yet they are found in all continents.

Aquamarine is the birthstone for the month of March. Significance of the birthstone is courage.

MENTAL CHALLENGES

Although many bodily functions slow down with advanced age, intellectual development can remain sharp if individuals continue a pattern of challenging their mind with mental exercise. Although wisdom is one of the few positive attributes associated with aging, even grandparent's counsel is being questioned in the age of technological advancement. Research studies continue to show that senior citizens can sharpen their wits and reverse deterioration of mental skills by taking continuing education courses, regularly doing crossword puzzles, playing board games, or participating in other mentally challenging activities.

SALTY HUMOR

"For people with severe high blood pressure, even driving with salt on the road can be hazardous." No appointments are necessary.

Circuit Breaker applications

Applications for the Illinois Circuit Breaker Program are available in Sen. Walter Dudyecz's district office, 5946 W. Lawrence ave., Chicago 60630 (777-0077).

The program reimburses qualified senior citizens or disabled citizens for a portion of 1984 property and other taxes they paid during 1985.

Applications are due Dec. 31, 1986.

Two grants are provided under the program, Dudyecz said. One is a rebate for property taxes and pays a maximum of $700, minus 4.5 percent of the household income.

The second grant, known as the "additional grant," pays $80 to all qualified applicants, he explained.

To qualify for one or both of the grants, a person must:

- Be 65 or older during 1986 or at least 18 and completely disabled.
- Have a 1985 household income of less than $14,000.
- Be an Illinois resident at the time the claim is filed.

Girl Scouts celebrate "Salmagundi" at Harlem Irving

Harlem Irving Plaza proudly hosts the 5th annual "Salmagundi", a celebration of Girl Scout Week 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday, March 9. Girl Scout troops from 12 surrounding service units of the north division are joining together at the center located at Harlem ave., Irving Park, and Forest Preserve dr., to share some of their scouting ideas, skills, and projects.

"Salmagundi", meaning any mixture or medley, represents the myriad of scouting displays that the girls will present. "There's a lot more to girl scouting than selling cookies and going camping", commented Pat Walenga, Girl Scout service unit-40 coordinator. "Thru girl scouting, we're helping to build independent women for tomorrow's world", continued Walenga. "Thru Salmagundi at Harlem Irving Plaza, the girls have the opportunity to display and explain the kinds of projects, skills, and crafts with which they're involved," concluded Walenga. Various community service projects, proficiency badge requirements, arts and crafts, camp skills, and theatricals are all part of this year's displays. All seven variations of Girl Scout cookies will also be available.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor:

The coming judicial primary election will be more confusing than most judicial elections. The suburban papers can be of great help to their readers if they can find the time to make a knowledgeable judgment on the various candidates. Those who are running for the Appellate Court vacancy in which I am seeking your support are as follows: Anthony M. Barrett, Charles E. Freeman, Harold W. Sullivan, and Stanley R. Kaminski.

They will be appearing on the ballot in that order.

As you can see from my atached vita, I have been a

Appellate Court Candidacy

6. Northwest Suburban Bar Association Seminar on Civil Procedures.
Finally, I must state my position that District Two has processed more litigation with greater efficiency and a higher quality of justice and all with less judges than any other segment of the Circuit Court of Cook County. Certainly, many others had a good deal to do with this, but so does Ditka have help.
First, I would say that before becoming presiding judge, I never had a course in business administration. The accomplishments were really my response to the challenges of my own particular circumstances. Further, I would like to point out that there is no way you can train completely for the Appellate Court. What made John Starnos so qualified for the Appellate Court because he spent a lifetime in trying and administering the criminal law? Why is Justice John Sullivan who was a great personal injury lawyer qualified to do criminal work in the Appellate Court? Why is Eugene Pincham considered well qualified when his only experience was criminal defense work? The answer is that these men did well in the jobs they were supposed to do. Likewise, I have excelled in my position.
I think my broad experience in the courts has given me the wide outlook that is necessary to do an excellent job on the Appellate Court.

Hedrick worthy of NTRRO office

Dear Editor,
To all Republican voters in Niles Township I say that Joseph R. Hedrick must be our next Republican Committeeman.
Hedrick is committed to all the things that the Republican Party of Niles Township needs for its rebirth.
Hedrick, by our present Committeeman's own admission, is the only one of the candidates who supports Republicans for local office. He is the candidate who looks to the future in contrast to the present Committeeman who does nothing but talk viciously of past administrations. Hedrick is the only one of the two who recognizes the need to reunite the Party and make all Republicans welcome, the few that now remain in the organization and those who left the Niles Township Regular Republican Organization (NTRRO) either because of the purge instituted by the present Committeeman or in protest to the way she and her husband mutilated NTRRO.
Joseph R. Hedrick is a Republican, is dedicated to the Republican Party and the pledge he has made to rebuild NTRRO. Joseph R. Hedrick keeps his promises.
Hedrick is the only one of the two candidates who is worthy of the office of Niles Township Republican Committeeman. He must be our next Republican Committeeman if NTRRO is to survive.

YOUR REAL ESTATE QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Andy Tarczynski
Million Dollar Salesman

QUESTION: In doing my income taxes, I find that I have to pay a lot of taxes on the income from my apartment building. Where is the supposed tax shelter on investment property you talk about?
ANSWER: You have probably owned the building too long. After about six to seven years, increased rental income usually cancels out the depreciation (tax shelter) deduction you get. The best way of reducing income taxes and increasing long term profit is to sell or trade your present apartment building for a larger one.
For a personal analysis of your investment property, call me at 967-6800.

Time for new faces

Dear Editor:
There is an important Primary coming up on March 18th - important because this will give the residents of Skokie, Morton Grove, Lincolnwood, Niles and Glenview a chance to cast their votes for three men who are challenging Cal Sutker: Fred Hossfeld for Democratic Committeeman of Niles Township, Louis Black for State Representative of the 56th District and Jeff Smith for Committeeman of the 9th Congressional District.
These three posts are currently being held by one man - Cal Sutker.
As I am for the democratic system, I heartily agree that it's time for new faces on the political horizon - so I'll punch 246 for Fred Hossfeld, 60 for Louis Black and 48 for Jeff Smith.
Yours democratically,
Anthony P. Parcell

Sincerely,
Harold W. Sullivan

The goal is to surpass last year's record bond sales of $505 Million in which the Rabbinic Division played a major role. The record sales were achieved at Israel carried forward austerity measures which have successfully reduced inflation and stabilized the economy.

A special conference session was devoted to a Bond effort to encourage tourism to Israel as an

My health is too important to take for granted.

Like most women, I know my health is too important to leave to chance. So, once a year, I have a mammogram at The Diagnostic Breast Care Center. It's safe, painless, and it can detect a lump as small as 1/8 of an inch. That's too small for me or even my physician to notice.

Every 15 minutes a woman dies of breast cancer. Our best protection is early diagnosis through a baseline mammogram, and The Diagnostic Breast Care Center provides the earliest detection possible.

If you're over 35, ask your physician to schedule a mammogram for you. If you don't have a physician, just fill out and return the coupon.

Send me more information on The Diagnostic Breast Care Center.

I'd like a recommendation for a personal physician.

Police investigate flasher reported in school areas

An employee of a child care center in the 8200 block of Greendale reported Feb. 27 that a man exposed himself on the school grounds as she and two teachers walked by.

According to police reports, the offender entered the school where he followed a teacher and children down the hallway to the washroom. A teacher saw him spitting tobacco on the floor and asked him to leave the premises.

The offender returned a few minutes later and using foul language asked her how he was "going to get over the fence." An employee escorted him to the gate and told the offender to climb over it, which he did fleeing.

School vandalized

An official of Mark Twain School reported someone used spray paint to damage the outside of the building and several windows on the first and second floor, including the chimney. Damage is undetermined.

Auto break-in

A resident in the 8400 block of Amelia reported Feb. 26 that someone entered his locked car parked in the driveway and removed a radio valued at $400.

Roof caves in on tenant

A resident in the 8200 block of Dempster told police Feb. 25 that her ceiling caved in damaging the glass top cocktail table valued at $125 and various items on the table. The sofa and rug were also damaged by the debris. She said the ceiling had begun leaking three years ago and a complaint to the landlord last month brought no response.

Follow-up will be conducted by the village housing inspectors, who will ask the landlord to make repairs because of a potential health hazard.

Flasher in dress shop

An employee of a dress shop in the 8400 block of Dempster told police that a man exposed himself when he was leaving the store on Feb. 24.

The victim said the offender entered the store and went directly to the rear of the store. The offender went to the front of the store where she was standing and exposed himself and then fled the store going eastbound toward another store.

Questioning by police of employees in the nearby store elicited the information that he had entered the shop, but was fully clothed.

The victim wishes to sign a complaint if the offender is apprehended.

Brouhaha ends with 2 arrests

A Highland Park man was charged with battery and disorderly conduct and a female companion charged with battery Feb. 26 after creating a disturbance at a restaurant in the Dempster Plaza shopping center.

According to police reports, the man jumped over a railing separating the dining area from the lounge. When the manager asked for an I.D., the offender became loud and disorderly directing foul language toward employees.

When security agents attempted to escort him out the door, they became involved in a pushing match and subsequently wrestled him to the floor to restrain him. The female companion intervened by grabbing one of the agents by his tie and stepping on his chest demanding him to "let go" of the offender.

Both were released after posting $1,000 bond each and assigned a March court date.

Aggressive shoplifter

A Niles man was arrested for retail theft and battery on Feb. 25.

A Sportmart security agent observed the offender remove a pair of gloves worth $41.96 and walk past the register and out of the door. When the security man attempted to stop him, the offender put a headlock on the victim and threw him to the ground. Other employees called to the scene restrained the man until arrival of police.

He was released after posting $1,000 bond and assigned a March court date.

Gas station burglarized

A gas station in the 8000 block of Oakton st. was broken into on Feb. 27.

A check of the premises showed the alarm was deactivated and the front door unlocked when the owner arrived to open the business.

Taken were $82 in rolled change and 50 $1 bills from a security box with the padlock missing and about $50 in change from a register.

Jewelry stolen from Niles home

A home was broken in the 8300 block of Oriole on Feb. 27.

The offender gained entry by breaking the window of the kitchen door and then reached inside to unlock it.

Taken was a jewelry box containing a diamond cocktail ring, man's diamond ring, a gold wristwatch and other miscellaneous jewelry.

The value of the jewelry is undetermined and an inventory will be made of the missing items. Damage to the door was estimated at $50.

Driving safety hints

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar

No one knows for sure how many accidents are caused by motorists who barrel into a curve at excessive speeds. However, persons can reduce the possibility of losing control of their vehicle on a curve by using the following safety procedures:

1. Slow down quickly when driving into a curve, and brake in a straight line before you reach the curve. Never accelerate into a curve.
2. Release the brakes, hold the accelerator in a steady position, and turn the wheel smoothly into the curve.
3. At the mid-point of the curve, begin to unwind the wheel and gently accelerate as you straighten out.
4. Be careful when approaching any curve in the road, and practice the above procedures until you do them automatically.

Remember, your vehicle speed should be its slowest before you enter a curve. Good drivers turn corners so smoothly that they make curves appear straighter than they are.

Some curves are on road surfaces that are especially slippery when wet. Therefore, slow down even more when approaching a curve in rain or snow.

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

Here's an oddity. . . Although the Kansas City Royals won the World Series in 1985, there were FIVE other teams in the major leagues that had better regular season records during the regular season than Kansas City. . . The Cardinals, Mets, Dodgers, Blue Jays and Yankees all had better 1985 season records—but Kansas City was the champion.

The odds are that the Chicago Bears and New England Patriots will NOT play in next year's Super Bowl because—surprisingly—in the entire history of the Super Bowl, the same 2 teams have NEVER appeared in consecutive years.

Only one athlete in history ever achieved this unusual double distinction. . . He played in the NCAA tournament for the national championship of college basketball just 3 months after winning the Heisman Trophy as the best player in college football. . . Quarterback Terry Baker of Oregon State won the Heisman Trophy in December, 1962. . . Then Baker joined the Oregon State basketball team. . . He played in the NCAA tournament in March, 1963—and reached the Final Four.

Nelson School celebrates Silver Anniversary

East Maine School District #63's Viola H. Nelson School will celebrate its Twenty-Fifth Anniversary on Sunday, March 23, during an Open House being held by the PTA from 1-3 p.m. at the school.

The school, named after long-time teacher Viola H. Nelson, is located at 8901 N. Ozanam in Niles. It opened in March, 1961, under Joseph Beja, its first principal. When first built, it was one long, narrow building. Three additions have been added.

Present student, faculty and parents are involved in planning the festivities. As part of the celebration, former students, former faculty and parents, and anyone who had contact with Nelson School are invited to attend this open house.

Former Nelson "people" are asked to share information about the Nelson Silver Anniversary celebration on March 23 with their friends and others who were associated with the school.

Additional information about the celebration is available by calling the school at 965-0050.

Roycemore honor students

Roycemore School has announced its first quarter honors for the 1985-86 academic year. Seniors Suzi Huber and Suzy Friedman of Lincolnwood each earned a higher than "B" average and were named to the Honor Roll. Megan Ryan, Seventh Grade, of Park Ridge, was awarded the Middle School Shield in recognition of such positive characteristics as leadership, honesty, punctuality, respect for property, reliability, and friendliness. It is necessary that one receive recommendation by a majority of the faculty before one can be awarded the Shield.

Roycemore School is an independent, coeducational, college preparatory day school serving students in Pre-Kinderergarten through Grade 12. Roycemore is located at 640 Lincoln Street in Evanston, adjacent to Northwestern University.

Simplicity is key to success in reading

Most teachers know how to teach the reading child to read better; but the non-reading child is a different matter. In an attempt to understand why a child does not read, we look at certain factors. First, there is the IQ test; if this score is within the "normal" range, we look for "emotional" problems. Another question we raise about the non-reader is motivation. But what is the most important reason that children fail to read in the primary grades, if there is one most important reason. The answer may be found in looking at the child's performance in tasks involving sequential memory.

There is a strong correlation between poor reading and spelling and weak sequential memory. More and more evidence suggests that the reading disabled child labors under the handicap of poor memory.

There are at least two critical stages in learning to read, according to Mrs. McAvoy, reading Coordinator at Nelson School in Niles. These two stages have different goals and require different emphasis in instruction. The 1st stage involves the acquisition of the mechanics of reading. This means learning to decode. The child learns the alphabetic principle. Letters represent sounds, and these sounds, when blended together, form words that are already in the child's speaking vocabulary.

The second stage is what the reading experts recognize as real reading, that is, reading for meaning. However, no one can function at the 2nd stage without first acquiring the skills of the first stage. One concept that lends itself to the "learning" of the words is through the use of Big Books, a relatively new teaching aid, which helps children make the transition from oral to written language using repetitive language patterns. The books are deceptively simple-looking; over-sized laminated pages bound with notebook rings. The subjects of the books vary from stories with minimal dialogue and a few repetitive words to those dealing with number or color words.

Another program emphasizing memory is being done with the primary children in the Reading Center. This involves the use of nursery rhymes. These can also be printed in Big Books. The children are required to memorize a nursery rhyme weekly. These are recited on Friday and stars are placed on a chart indicating mastery. At the end of the month, the children must recite the four that have been emphasized during the past four weeks. Motivation and interest, again a key to the reward system, encourages the child to memorize.

ND Melodons present concerts in Arizona

The Melodons, jazz band of Notre Dame High School for Boys, Niles, traveled to Phoenix, Arizona Feb. 26 to present seven concerts. The band was a guest of Bourgade Catholic High School, operated by the Holy Cross Fathers of Notre Dame, Indiana.

The band presented seven concerts in five days in Arizona. They were presented at St. Mary's High School, Gerard Catholic High School, Beardsey Park in Sun City, Po' Folks Restaurant, Valley West Mall, Christown Mall and Bourgade Catholic High School.

The Melodons are continuing the jazz tradition set up by Rev. George Wiskirchen during his long tenure at N.D.H.S. (1955-1972). Since the "Padre" left for Notre Dame University, the Melodons pride and excellence has been kept alive by directors Nick Tolorico, Dave Creighton, William Alles, and currently Kevin Korschgen. The band fares very well in statewide contests and festivals, and is quite active playing for special events concerts in and around Notre-Dame and the community.

The Melodons began the year Aug. 24, appearing as the opening act for "The Jump in the Saddle Band" at the St. Zachary three day summerfest. Over Labor Day they represented the Rib Exchange Restaurant in the Schaumburg Summerfest. Here, they performed for literally thousands of people.

To date the band has participated in the Columbia College Jazz Festival, Jazz in the Meadows festival, the Northshore Jazz Festival, and the Western Illinois University Jazz Festival. In each of the first three competitions the band received near perfect superior ratings, as well as, winning each first place trophy. At WIU 4A superior rating placed them in second place behind East St. Louis Lincoln. Still to come are the Elmhurst College and Oak Lawn Festivals.

The Melodons will also appear in concert Sunday, April 9 at Marillac High School Theatre at 3 p.m. Special guests will be the Notre Dame University Jazz Ensemble with Rev. George Wiskirchen, C.S.C., director.

Confirmation youth plan field trip

The seventh and eighth grade confirmation classes of Lutheran Church of the Resurrection will participate in a service day and field trip on March 15. Service project will be the decorating and filling of Easter baskets to be taken to the residents of St. Matthew Lutheran Home, Park Ridge. The service portion of the day is to help the youth understand their ministry as adult Christians to others who are in need.

Following the visit to St. Matthew Home, the youth will go to Word Alive in Northbrook to view the work of Christian missions around the world.

The Lutheran Church of the Resurrection is located at 8450 N. Sherman rd., Niles. SCS begins at 9 a.m. on Sunday morning and is followed with congregational worship at 10:30 a.m. All members of the community are invited to participate in the life of the congregation.

Weatherman at Mark Twain

The fourth grade classes at Mark Twain school study a science unit which deals extensively with weather. Clouds and cloud formations, forms of precipitation and the water cycle are covered in depth. To further expand the children's knowledge of the topic, Harry Volkman, meteorologist for Channel 2 in Chicago, visited the school and talked with the students for about one hour on Feb. 3.

The children enjoyed Volkman's presentation and answers to their many questions. His visit to the school was arranged by the Volunteer Talent Pool Bureau which operates in School District 63.

Mark Twain School is located at 9401 Hamlin, Des Plaines, and is one of five elementary schools in East Maine School District 63.

Debate Competition

Maine East debaters competed at the recent Niles West Invitational Debate tournament, and the junior varsity teams of Don Froelich of Park Ridge/Dave Cohen of Morton Grove and Dave Goldstein of Des Plaines/Rory Taradash of Des Plaines both advanced to the semi-finals. Nelson PTA Book Fair

On Feb. 3, 4, 5, the students at Nelson School had the opportunity to participate in a School Book Fair sponsored by the PTA.

A wide variety of books were on display for children of all ages and reading levels. The enthusiasm that met this Book Fair relayed to everyone involved that our children perceive reading to be fun and entertaining as well as educational.

Total sales from the Book Fair were $2,187.48 on which the PTA made $546.87, which will go to finance other projects as well as to help pay for the recently installed playground. A total of $358 in free books was made available to the teachers for use in their classrooms.

Volunteers needed for cardiac research studies

Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, has embarked upon two cardiac research projects. Volunteers are being sought to participate in the studies. "We are looking for people diagnosed as having mild congestive heart failure or who have a history of angina, which is chest pain caused by coronary artery disease, to participate in these new drug studies," says Richard Sorkin, M.D., director, Cardiology, Lutheran General Hospital. The first project will test the efficacy and side effects of ibopromine, a drug which may aid in the treatment of mild congestive heart failure by increasing the strength of the heart's contraction. Ibopromine is taken orally and, if proven effective, may be more convenient and more effective than previously used congestive heart failure remedies. "We're trying to find a potent and safe drug that people with heart trouble can take at home. By doing so, these people can lead more normal lives," says Dr. Sorkin. The second research project is in response to the Food and Drug Administration's demand for efficacy data on commonly used nitroglycerine patches. These patches are used by patients with anginal chest pains or heart failure due to any cause. The patches are placed on the chest and slowly, throughout the day, nitroglycerine leaks into the circulatory system. Higher levels of the drug ease the strain on the heart, thus relieving chest pain or shortness of breath. The issue questioned by the F.D.A. is whether or not patients develop a tolerance for them and become unresponsive to their effects. Any person who is interested in participating in these important drug studies is asked to call Teri Youne, R.N., at 696-7655 or 696-7650.

Forest Hospital offers support group

Forest Hospital is offering a support group for women who were physically or sexually abused as children. Under the direction of Barbara Ward, a certified social worker, the group is scheduled to begin meeting in mid-March. Group sessions will deal with the issues of trust, intimacy and self-determination, among others. The group will meet Monday evenings from 6:30 to 8 p.m., at Forest Hospital's Seven Springs Health Resource Center, out-patient office, 1717 Rand Road, Des Plaines, Ill. According to recent studies, Ward said, "seven out of ten women seeking out-patient therapy has been a victim of sexual abuse. If we included those who have been victims of domestic violence and physical abuse, the statistics would be even higher. This history of abuse plays a tremendous role in a woman's sense of self worth, and is often the root cause for a host of problems, including depression, eating disorders and chemical dependency." Women interested in enrolling in the support group should call Seven Springs at 635-4224 or 25 to set up a screening interview. There is a fee of $50 for the one-hour screening, and $20 for each hour-and-a-half session.

MAMMOGRAPHY

Don't Be Alarmed When Mammography is Recommended

A recommendation that a mammogram be performed does not necessarily mean your physician suspects you have breast cancer. On the contrary, he wants to be sure you don't have it! The value of mammography lies in its ability to detect irregularities in the breast tissue when they are very small, too small to be felt. Unfortunately, breast cancer is not an uncommon disease. However, if a woman is going to develop breast cancer, the earlier it is detected, the better. Many small lesions can be cured without mastectomy. Mammography is a fast, simple, x-ray procedure which can be very reassuring.

The American Cancer Society recommends the following guidelines for mammography and examinations:
Age 20 and older - breast self-examination monthly;
Age 20-40 - a physician breast examination every three years and an initial mammogram between ages 35-40;
Age 40-50 - periodic mammography every year or two as determined by your personal physician's recommendation. Also, an annual physician breast examination.

If you have breast masses or there is a history of breast cancer in your family, your physician is likely to recommend mammograms more frequently or at an earlier age. Mammography is a part of the regular annual physical exam for some women. This is because mammography is much more effective at detecting very small cancers than a physician's physical examination.

At the Chicago Medical and Dental Center, your mammogram will be scheduled through a physician's order in a pleasant out-patient surrounding with extended hours for your convenience. The mammogram is interpreted by a board certified radiologist with the result forwarded to your physician. So, don't be alarmed when mammography is recommended. Rather than be alarmed, be reassured that your physician is doing his very best for you. If you have any questions about mammography, call 774-2100.

Notre Dame Melodons in concert Sunday

Notre Dame High School for Boys, Niles, will proudly present the Melodons in concert Sunday, March 9 at 3 p.m. at Matilliac High School Theatre, 315 Waukegan rd., Northfield.

Special guests will be the Notre Dame University Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Rev. George Wiskirchen, C.S.C.

Current members of the University of Notre Dame Jazz Band include former Melodon members and Notre Dame High School alumni: Robert Ginocchio, Niles, saxophone; Kevin Quinn, Glenview, trombone; and Brian Burke, Morton Grove, bass.

Other area members include: Michael Myers, Great Lakes; Brian DiBona, Marengo; James Harrington, Winnetka; and Mark Van Elten, Country Club Hills.

The University of Notre Dame Jazz Band came into existence in 1972 when Father George Wiskirchen, C.S.C. moved to the university from his work with the Music Department and the jazz bands at Notre Dame High School for Boys, Niles.

Composed largely of non-music majors, the Jazz Band program at Notre Dame has grown both in size and in comprehensive ability since its establishment. The musicians come from every college and major concentration at the university and the past 14 years they have studied and performed all styles of jazz music ranging from the mainstream swing of Count Basie and Woody Herman to the big band bop of Thad Jones, Phil Woods and Toshiko Akiyoshi to the current fusion of jazz and rock.

The Jazz Program at Notre Dame currently consists of two big bands, three small combos and an improvisational music along with the chance to experience the excitement of jazz performances in all of its varying configurations.

The Notre Dame Jazz Groups perform frequently on campus in the NAZZ (a campus coffee house) and for other specialized events such as the President's Dinner, Junior Parents Weekend, Mardi Gras and other convention convocations. In addition to presenting their own formal concerts each year, they have played concerts in Chicago, Michigan, Indiana, and Illinois, in South Bend's Century Center and at other area schools. Each year the band also participates in Notre Dame's collegiate Jazz Festival, the oldest and most famous of the college jazz festivals in the country.

The Notre Dame Jazz Band attempts to communicate some understanding of the history of jazz through the programs it presents each year. This year the program is called "Bop and Beyond" and pays tribute to some of the great jazz innovators of the 1950's and beyond.

The band will be performing stylistic tributes to the musical memory of bop founder Charlie Parker along with bassist Oscar Pettiford. Music by Dizzy Gillespie, Miles Davis and Charlie Mingus will also be included. Jazz of the present time will be represented by music of Chick Corea and Bob Florence and a big band version of a new piece from Jack DeJohnette's "Album Album" called the "New Orleans Strut" arranged by Kevin Quinn, Glenview.

Featured soloists on the program will include: Kevin Quinn, Glenview on trombone and Brian Burke, Morton Grove on bass. Also performing during the concert will be vocalist Lori Carter and the small combo of Kevin Quinn, Glenview, Brian Burke, Morton Grove, Randy O'Keefe, Peter Weis, and Mark Van Elten.

"The Sunshine Singers," an offshoot of the Lake Forest Newcomers Club, will entertain at the North Shore Hotel, 1611 Chicago ave., on Wednesday, March 12 at 2:30 p.m.

"We entertain at all kinds of functions," said Deerfield resident Dorothy Campbell, one of the group's singers and its booking agent. "But we prefer to perform for senior citizens."

The Sunshine Singers do barber shop harmony, Broadway show tunes, popular music and golden oldies.

For reservations, please call UN4-6400.

Loyola Academy presents "Pippin"

Production of the Tony winning musical Pippin is a unique theatrical experience for Loyola Academy. The company format is structured after the Greek model in which there are essentially no leads and the whole cast conveys and extends the themes set out. Pippin, the younger son of Holy Roman Emperor, Charlemagne, lives in the Middle Ages, but faces the same coming of age problems with generation gaps, rebellion, and self-fulfillment that trouble today's youth. Looking like a medieval band of players with modern musical savvy, Loyola's company presents a dancing, singing, rocking, action-packed version of Pippin. A multi-leveled set, period costumes, rock-style music and an old-time minstrel show flavor combine to give this production a wide range of appeal. The company of players includes: Loyola students, Tim Abrams, Del Boue, Bob Byron, John Cashman, Stan Crossland, Joe Dix, Mike Dolan, Brad Fiorito, Paul Gleixner (Leading Player), Sean Hackett (Pippin), pictured John Hebart, Kevin Kelly, Mike McDonald, Mark Maran, Dan Noonan (Charlemagne), Rich O'Dwyer (Lew), Mike O'Keefe, John O'Laughlin, Jim Ostry, and Brian McCormack; Marillac students, Amy DeLorenzo, Maureen Durava (Catherine), pictured Lisa Harvey, Amy Hemenen, Amy Lutz, Bridget McCarthy, and Beth Tisa (Pastrada);

Regina students, Julie Busch, Katie Colbert, Stacy Gilchrist, Margo Ramos (Berthe), and Michelle Unger. Spenser Rogers of SS Faith, Hope and Charity plays the part of Theo. Directors, Jim Kucienski and Fr. Larry Reuter, SJ are assisted by Ken Bartosz and Fr. John Ferone, SJ, music; Petty Reynolds, choreography; Sharon Moran, costumes; and Bob Hedberg, scenic design. Pippin evening performances March 6-8 at 8 p.m., matinee March 9 at 3 p.m. Admission $4 per person. Call 256-1100 for ticket information.

Maine East dance concert

This year's Orchestis dance concert, Footnotes, will be held March 7 and 8 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Tickets will be sold during the lunch periods in the cafe starting Monday, March 3. The price is $2.50 for students /$3.00 for adults.

This year's performance has sixteen acts and is under the direction of Mrs. Betty Fisher. These acts range from jazz to ballet to modern.

"Go West" is one of those exciting acts, a jazz number choreographed by Sheila Simon. Members of Senior Orchestis will participate in this jazz dance.

"The Star" is another number performed by Junior Orchestis and choreographed by Ms. Chris Chrzczon, a member of the Chitown Jazz Company.

"Fast Forward," from the movie of the same name, is choreographed by Stacy Provisor.

"Hey, There, Good Times" is a co-ed dance featuring two couples, Rick Martel and Julie Distenfield and Joe Ramos and Nina Manalo. It is a character dance, choreographed by the four dancers.

The term "novel" best describes a routine by Kermit the Frog and his friends so if you want to see America's most famous frog, don't miss this number.

Then, from the film "St. Elmo's Fire," a modern ballet number has been choreographed by Maggie Demel.

Another modern ballet number, "Have I Stayed Too Long at the Fair," features Julie Distenfield, Orchestis members, and soloist singer Kate Zorn. This number is choreographed by Julie Distenfield and accompanied by the Maine East Jazz Band under the direction of Mr. Ken Gelz providing music.

A modern dance called "This Is A Test..." is a bizarre number performed and choreographed by Nina Manalo.

Other acts in Footnotes include: a character dance titled "Can-Can," featuring Senior Orchestis members; Junior Orchestis members in "Snowflakes;" "Skeleton Dance," utilizing black light for effect and choreographed by Anita Anle; a Korean fan dance, presented by girls in the Korean Club; the Senior Orchestis number "Conga," choreographed by Cindy Tricarico and Nina Manalo; tap dancers Ann Holzer, Leslie Fredricksen, and Julie Falk in "Chinatown;" and the finale, choreographed by Julie Falk, titled "America."

Orchestis sponsor Betty Fisher commented that "the students are extremely skilled, dedicated, and serious about learning so it should be a great show."

Former Niles trustee seeks 13th District seat

Carol Panek, former Village of Niles Trustee, is the endorsed Republican candidate for the 13th Representative District of the State of Illinois. She will take part in the Primary Election March 18.

Panek has had extensive experience in governmental work serving as Trustee for 10 years and the first woman trustee in Village history.

Panek's experience and integrity have won her endorsements of every Regular Republican Organization in the 13th District: 41st Ward, 45th Ward, Maine and Niles Townships.

Panek said, "When voting in a primary, voters need to know which candidate is the most electable in the November election. Authentic criteria are experience and involvement in community affairs."

Born Carol Calabrese, Panek was raised on the City's northwest side where she graduated from Queen of All Saints grammar school and St. Scholastica Academy. Panek also graduated from Mundelein College, Chicago, with a bachelor's degree in chemistry.

Currently she serves on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce where she held the position of vice chairman of commerce for two years. Panek is also on the board of directors at the Leaning Tower YMCA which for the first time has appointed women.

While serving as a trustee, Panek worked with the Senior Citizens Commission, the Northwest Municipal Conference and the National League of Cities.

As a delegate from Maine Township, Panek attended the 1985 Cook County Republican Convention where she participated in selecting Cook County candidates for County offices. Recently, she attended a seminar in Springfield for Republican candidates. While at Springfield she met with Republican minority leader Lee Daniels and his staff and minority whip Penny Pullen, state representative.

Speaking about the visit to the State Capital, Panek said "I received excellent preparation for my campaign from the House Republican Campaign Committee Staff."

Panek's other civic and community activities included serving as an affiliate to Oakton Community College, membership coordinator to Illinois Women in Government for the 11th Congressional District and as a former president to the League of Women Voters where she has been a member for 20 years.

Panek reminds voters that each vote makes a difference and asks you to punch #6 in the Primary Election. Voting is from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. March 18.

Marcus receives 100% endorsement

Sheldon Marcus, Republican candidate for state representative 6th has received 100% endorsement of every Republican ownership organization in the district. Pat Handzel, Republican committeeman of the Niles ownership Republican organization, Phil Raffae, Republican committeeman of the Aime Township Organization, Jave Brown, Republican committeeman of the New Trier Republican Organization, and Richard Siebel, Republican committeeman of the Northfield Republican Organization, have all endorsed Shel Marcus in the Republican primary election on March 18.

Senator Bob Kustra, chairman of the Citizens for Marcus Committee, believes Shel Marcus is the right candidate at the right time, and his background of public service, both in the fields of education, serving on Boards of Education at both the elementary and high school levels, as well as many years of commitment as a Board Member of the Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce, as well as being president of his own marketing firm in Morton Grove, will bring an invaluable insight to the needs and concerns of the 56th District.

For information concerning his candidacy citizens are urged to write Citizens for Marcus, P.O. Box 1986, Morton Grove, IL 60053.

McNeal piles up more endorsements

John E. McNeal, Republican State Central Committeeman (9th District), seeking re-election to a 3rd term today announced he received the endorsement of the New Trier Republican Organization. McNeal received over 75% of the vote. "I am especially pleased with this endorsement since my opponent and I both addressed the organization and then stood side by side answering questions asked by the New Trier precinct captains," McNeal said. He added, "This endorsement gives me a good feeling about the election particularly since it comes so close after winning the unanimous endorsement of the Maine Township Republican Organization. Both are excellent groups and turn out high numbers of Republican voters."

Earlier in the week McNeal won the endorsement of the New Trier Republican Women's Club after, and his opponent, J. Robert Barr, the ousted chairman of the Cook County Republican Central Committee, appeared before a session of their endorsement committee to speak and answer questions.

McNeal now has the endorsement of the four Chicago wards in the district who have already voted an endorsement in the race and said he feels confident of getting at least one of the two wards that have not yet voted.

Senate Bill 1495 gives local municipalities rule-making and licensing powers over the events. Licenses may only be offered to eligible educational, charitable, religious, fraternal and veterans groups, the 7th District Senator said.

While statistics can be used to prove many sides to a problem, the per book cost is an interesting statistic we'd like to see used in Niles.

In past years library employees have been grossly underpaid. And the lack of books in the system have begged the question whether the priorities of past library boards have really filled the needs of the community.

The present board has been building and buying land and now is faced with a cash shortfall. They've also been trying to annex additional areas which we assume would add much-needed revenue to the district.

From this typewriter's vantage point the priorities and the interest of the boards have not been focused where they should be. We read where the taxes paid into this district are among the lowest of any of the neighboring districts. If this is true the board should sit down and decide if increased tax money will upgrade the district. Public officials are not given high marks for holding down taxes if the services they are in charge of are not adequate. All public officials like to brag about the low taxes in their districts. But if low taxes are hindering the welfare of the people they are representing, then they must show a little guts and get the needed money from these same people.

Building additions and buying land for future use is certainly an important function necessary in any progressive community. But if the public district's primary function is not being adequately served, then priorities must be rearranged.

We've always been concerned people who serve on library boards may not have a genuine love of books. If they themselves are not readers, we wonder why they would serve on library boards. We would not like to see people not interested in recreation serving on park boards. And it follows people who do not genuinely care about books and reading do not belong on library boards.

of the apartment units and wanted to build something I could be proud of," he said.

According to an architect, Emil Sorenson, the building would be recessed in the ground to lower the height of the building and give it a more residential appearance.

The first level would have two one-bedroom garden apartments. The upper two floors would contain four three-bedroom units. "The owner would live in the larger unit and have a two-car garage for his own use," he said.

A driveway would be located on Courtland and on Church St. "The building will only take up 20 percent of the property with landscaping amenities and parking at the rear of the building."

Area residents objected to the plan saying that the surrounding area was established as a single-family residential area and the proposed use "was out of character with the neighborhood."

Joe Celvetors of 8125 Church St. presented a petition to the board with signatures of 37 area residents who opposed the project. "We want the R-2 (residential) zoning status retained," he said.

In other business, the board approved a request to construct an additional bay for an oil change facility at 8657 Milwaukee Ave.

The petitioner and owner of the building, Garry Grendel, dropped a request for a variation of 20 feet to 10 feet after he worked out a compromise with area residents to revise the plan on location of the addition.

Grendel proposed constructing the addition... a 28 by 13-foot bay at the south end of the building with a small office in the rear of the structure.

He said he would eliminate the existing gas pumps and resurface the parking area. "We now have two bays and would like a third to expand my business," he said.

The owner of an apartment building adjacent to the site on the south boundary objected to the plan saying there would only be an eight-foot clearance between the addition and his tal health center moved to three small rooms and a waiting room in the Lawrencewood shopping center in May, 1969.

The center moved again to the Trident Center (former Jewel store) at 8000 Oakton St. in 1974, and was housed in six rooms and a waiting room.

The center was purchased by the village to house the Niles Family Service and senior citizens' center, as well as a youth center. The youth center has since closed down.

The agency is divided into three divisions: clinical, community outreach, and business and industry.

The emphasis in the community was to help people help themselves. I'm proud that my staff believed as I did... dedicated to the concept of an "Agency With A Heart" in which people count," he said.

According to Renetzky, the Community Outreach Program began in 1970 as a "street work" program, to provide counseling for teenagers on an informal basis. The SCOPE (School Community Outreach for Preventive Education) program began a short time later in local school districts to help pre-teens and teenagers learn social skills, anger management, etc.

The Community Outreach Program also provides seminars and education on topics of interest to the single parent, retirees, adolescents and parents. The Employees Assistance Program works with companies based in Niles, helping employees identify troubled workers and providing counseling. Renetzky said the staff has grown to 10 full-time therapists and 8 part-time during his tenure.

The majority of the full-time clinicians have been with me for 10 years which helps in the credibility and accountability of the agency in their relationship with clients," he said, adding the agency serves an average of more than 250 people a month.

He added the clinical division handles cases of individual, marital, family and group counseling.

Asked about his accomplishments, Renetzky stated that development of the agency into a viable entity was done through "team efforts" and not by one individual. "Nothing could have been done without the support, cooperation and encouragement of Mayor Blase, the village department heads, the Chamber of Commerce and my family. I have high praise for the excellent staff. They all made it possible to develop an All American family service that exemplifies the village's motto "Where People Count," he said.

Renetzky went on to say that Niles is "super progressive and provides more services to people than any other town in the country. "I'm thankful for being a small part of it and I leave with mixed emotions," he said. "I think I've been preparing for this new challenge all my life and will probably remain in ministerial work there (Amarillo) until I retire."

Renetzky, 52, has a wife, Carol, and three children, ranging from 7 to 22 years of age.

company so residents could be supplied with Lake Michigan water. However, nothing was done about taking over the sewer system for some reason or other," he said.

The village annexed three portions of unincorporated Des Plaines in 1970, including the Dempster Plaza shopping center and a parcel of residential land at the southeast corner of Dempster St. and Greenwood Ave. The four-block area consisted of Courtland Ave., Roseview, Crain and Carol Sts.

According to Niles Village Attorney Richard Troy, the village proceeded with "Condemnation action" against DUSCO to obtain its water system shortly after the annexation. "A study showed it would be necessary to maintaining the water pressure on the water lines or lose the quality of water in the community," he said, adding that the village purchased the water mains and renovated the system.

He explained that taking over the DUSCO sewer system would present problems to Niles. "It would be necessary to maintain the water pressure on the water lines or lose the quality of water in the community," he said, adding that the village purchased the water mains and renovated the system.

Troy said it was not unusual for private utility companies to continue to serve an area after annexation by a municipality. "It depends on what a municipality can or cannot do with services in light of potential problems."

Homeowners in the same residential area filed a class action suit in 1980 against the North Maine Fire Protection District in unincorporated Des Plaines. The suit claimed they should not have to pay double fire protection taxes to both Niles and North Maine, after their properties were annexed.

Residents were successful in getting the real estate assessments of North Maine fire district roll. However, the court ruled the homeowners would have to pay for the retirement of bonds, which reportedly will occur at the end of this year.

The suit was part of the litigation between Niles and North Maine in which the latter challenged and Illinois statute that disconnects an annexed territory from its original fire district. The district contended it could not render sufficient fire protection in the rest of its jurisdiction.

During the almost 10-year litigation, North Maine was allowed to collect tax revenue while litigation took place over disconnection of property and its right to retain its taxing powers. North Maine lost the suit when the Supreme Court refused to hear the case.

The controversial gay bar at 9940 Golf Rd. quietly closed its doors on Feb. 18, apparently because of financial trouble.

According to Niles Village Attorney Richard Troy, Silverman filed for bankruptcy last summer. "A trustee in the bankruptcy proceedings has four months to decide whether the existing lease on the establishment can go on or be terminated. This could have a bearing on the closing of the bar," he said.

Troy explained that Silverman did not exercise his option to renew the lease and was probably paying monthly rental fees to the landlord. The bar had a five-year option and the lease had to be renewed by April 30, 1986. "He did not renew and would have had to be out of there by the end of this April," he said.

Silverman was unavailable for comment. Bubbles began as a hamburger gourmet restaurant, but ran into problems when village officials discovered last July that it had become a gay bar.

Silverman eventually filed a civil rights suit claiming the village was sending the police every night to check for minors and the continual harassment was driving his customers away.

Niles officials denied the allegation, saying that Bubbles was getting the same attention as any other large bar in Niles that caters to a young crowd.

Silverman is seeking monetary damages to retrieve some of the revenue he claims he lost because of the alleged harassment.

Bubbles' woes included having its liquor license suspended for 48 hours by the village liquor commission. The action came after police charged four persons in the bar on Oct. 31 with underage drinking. The bar's doorman and manager were charged with allowing possession of alcohol by a minor.

In a later development, a Chicago based gay community attempted to gather support for Bubbles' last December by planning a gay march in front of Niles village hall. The march failed to materialize.

Maine budget...

Halverson said the skyrocketing cost of insurance, particularly liability coverage, was a major factor in the budget increases.

Maine Township Road Commissioner Bill Fraser said the road budget is used for maintenance of 32 miles of roadway in unincorporated Maine Township.

Fraser emphasized, however, that he must budget and levy for more than the highway department needs because, by law, 50 percent of the township road fund monies are allocated to other municipalities in the township.

"The liability insurance issue is a salient example of the kind of problem we face when drawing up a budget. This year our liability insurance increased by 50 percent, and we have been warned that it will not be available at all when the policy expires in August. Under those circumstances, it is very difficult to ascertain how much money we will need for this item," Halverson said.

The board agreed to raise the fees, hoping that this would only be a temporary solution to the budget problems. Huber explained, however, that if the tax base does not change, the fees and charges for the pools and other Morton Grove facilities will have to keep going up in future years.

The fees and charges will go into effect this season. Both pools will remain open day and evenings. A complete list of fees and charges are contained in the Morton Grove Park District summer brochure which will be available soon.

In addition to the pool budget, the police and museum budgets were also discussed.

Ken Swan explained this is the first fiscal year for the newly formed police budget. Swan said that with this increase in revenue, the parks will have increased security during times of heavy use.

Swan stated that $45,000 is in the budget and is supported by Morton Grove taxes. Expected expenses are $51,100, leaving a deficit of $6,100. However, a surplus of $11,169 is carried over from last year which will be used to help cover this deficit.

In the museum fund, which is also supported by taxes, $50,000 is expected in revenue. Expenses for the museum are estimated at $39,150, leaving a surplus of $10,850. Swan explained this surplus will help offset the $8,000 deficit from last year. The museum will open in mid-Spring.

Lastly, bids for bathroom room improvements at Harter Park were recently taken. With total base bids ranging from $69,992 to $94,400, the board rejected the bids on the basis the district can not afford the work this year.
