Mortgage loan money available to Nilesites

First-time homeowners who wish to purchase a home in Niles have the opportunity to acquire loans through the Cook County single-family mortgage program.

Niles is among 104 communities participating in the program, making it eligible for the $16 million available for mortgage loans. The amount is "left-over" loan funds from the 1985 program," according to Mike Harding, Cook County assistant comptroller.

"If a town did not use all of its allocated loan funds (received last September), the balance went into a pool which can now be utilized by participants in the 1985 program," he said.

The mortgage loans have a term of 30 years at an annual interest rate of 9.99 percent with a minimum 5 percent down payment. The homes purchased

Two 2-story buildings to be erected on Waukegan Road

Zoning change approved for condominium

by Sylvia Dalrymple

A request for a zoning change from commercial to special use to construct a condominium building at 7555 Waukegan rd. was approved Monday by the Niles Zoning Board.

The petition had been continued from last month's meeting, with approval given on a revised plan. A variance of 8 percent instead of the original 9 percent was also approved.

Attorney James Flood, acting in behalf of petitioner Armand

Donian, proposed two two-story buildings each containing four two-bedroom units, with a common driveway between the two structures.

According to an architect, Robert Suenon, the design would be a townhouse concept, with a separate entry and patio. The buildings would be recessed into the ground to accommodate a garage in the lower level "or what would be the basement," he

by Bud Besser
A little fantasy music, maestro...

If the United States ever created the job of sports czar and put me in charge, I'd change the face of sports in the good old U.S. of A.

For starters I'd create year-around sports tourneys for citizens of all ages, shapes and sizes. I'd have a yearly free throw contest for anyone who cares to throw a basketball toward a backboard. I'd hope to create heroes among guys and gals who are closer to five feet tall than seven feet high. I'd create ball-throwing contests, throwing them and kicking them and bouncing them and doing everything that can be done with all sizes of round balls. I'd have running contests for old guys and young girls and have parades down Broadway for the winners. I'd have cheerleaders and bands tootin' away and cheering on the little guys, skinny ones and butterball guys. I'd make the common man (whoever he is) the hero who gets the sports pages ink and the accolades from the masses.

If they made me czar I'd change some of the rules which are now etched in tradition and boiled in history which stands still.

Since football has offensive and defensive teams which...

Niles Public Library receives state grant

The Niles Public Library was recently awarded a grant of $53,031 under the Public Library Annual Equalization Aid and Per Capita Grant Program, announced House Majority Whip Ralph C. Capparelli (D-13th).

Under the terms of the grant, the money can be used for the purchase of books, periodicals, records, microforms, computer hardware and software, films, videotapes, and shelving. Other uses may include staffing/salaries, furniture/equipment, preservation of materials, building maintenance, and office supplies.

The grant program specifies that libraries may apply for grant funds to assist themselves in meeting standards of library service for Illinois public libraries. The Secretary of State, as the State Librarian, makes these annual grants which are based upon documented report forms and applications which are sent to the Illinois State Library for review.

July 4th festivities 'bigger and better'

The Niles Park District is planning a July 4th celebration which promises to be bigger and better than previous years. The Village of Niles will once again contribute funds to help support this community-wide event, according to Steven Cross, park supervisor.

"We want people to get involved in the July 4th festivities. We had a good turnout of floats and special entries in the parade last year and hope for more participation this year," Cross said.

The post parade festivities held at Grennan Heights were enjoyed by more than 1,000 people and provided entertainment for all ages.

The 1986 activities again include a parade which will kick off at 9:30 a.m. followed by entertainment and refreshments for everyone.

Post parade entertainment includes: awards for parade entries, Bill Bailey's Banjos, Southwick and Stevenson (musical group), animal petting zoo, wagon rides, Windy City Circus Troupe and face painting.

Commitments for the parade itself includes: Spats and his Speakeasy Boys (Dixieland music), Midlothian Bagpipe Band, The Pride of Evanston Drum and Bugle Corp, Calliope, Fat Man and floats.

The park district is suggesting that businesses allow their employees to build a float to advertise their business. Civic organizations and neighbors are also requested to exhibit their patriotism.

Maine appropriation down 2.5%

The Maine Township Board Tuesday, April 22, unanimously approved an appropriation ordinance for fiscal 1986-87 totaling $52,888 from last year's budget of $54,108,700.

The budget allocates $1,324,812 in the General Town Fund, up 12 percent from last year's appropriation of $1,181,700; $366,500 in the General Assistance Fund, down 20 percent from last year's sum of $457,500; and $364,500 in the Federal Revenue Sharing Fund, down 22 percent from last year's allocation of $469,500.

Maine Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson attributed the increases in the General Town Fund largely to rising insurance costs as well as the township's participation in the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

The township allocation for liability insurance rose to $65,000 from $15,000 last year. The allocation for employees' health insurance increased $20,000. The township's participation in the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, approved by the township electorate at a public hearing last August, was budgeted at $50,000.

In adopting the budget, Halverson's suggestion the board trimmed $275,000 from $375,000 item in the General Town Fund-proposed for mental health and community services. These items will be included in the Federal Revenue Sharing Fund allocations.

Halverson said, "The allocation in the General Town Fund was proposed as a possible supplement to revenue sharing funds, which are likely to be cut up to 40 percent this year and eliminated entirely next year. I felt that this proposal would initiate public discussion on continued funding of community services by the township."

Niles denies dish based on aesthetics

Satellite dish installations may lead to courts

Niles may be facing a lawsuit by U.S. Satellite Systems Inc. because of a recent board decision to deny installation of a satellite dish in the village.

Joe Deisenroth, vice president of the Wheeling-based company, said he is discussing possible legal action with a Niles resident who wanted to install a 6-foot dish in his backyard at 6947 Jarvis st. "It was a judgment call by the trustees based on aesthetics. We feel it was a cop-out not wanting these antennas in Niles," he said.

"We met the guidelines of the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) ruling on the safety and welfare aspects. The board interprets aesthetics its own way."

Deisenroth represented Richard Mariacher who was denied a special use permit to erect a satellite dish by the Niles Zoning Board in January. Two weeks ago, the village voted to deny the petition based on aesthetics and the fact that the yard was too small for such equipment.

A trustee noted the dish to be installed on a pole attached to the roof on the garage would pose a safety problem in the event of high winds which could tear the roof off.

"That's nonsense. The plan was structurally sound in line with Niles code," Deisenroth said. "If high velocity winds even hit the village, many of the homes would have roofs torn off."

Deisenroth charged Niles is playing games with its dish ordinance, noting that ham-radio antennas have a maximum height of 75 feet under special use. "I've seen two or three of these antenna towers in neighborhood, as well as solar panels in front of homes. Are these things more aesthetically pleasing?"

An FCC rule in early January states that municipalities cannot use zoning laws to ban installation of dishes in order to promote the use of cable service. "They take an ostrich-like approach to the ordinance. The main reason is the cable company pays a percentage to the village according to the number of subscribers," he said. "They don't want to lose that money."

Joe Salerno, Niles zoning director, said Cablevision of Chicago has approximately 3,000 subscribers. "We get about 5 percent from the cable company, which means the village receives about $25,000 a year in fees. I don't think Niles is concerned with that amount of money," Salerno said. "The village certainly would not go bankrupt if that source dries up."

He went on to say the zoning board looks at satellite dishes in the area of size and placement. "My responsibility is to determine whether the proposed dish is structurally sound for reasons stated on Page 22"

Fight continues for O'Hare residents

House Minority Whip Penny Pullen (R-Park Ridge) said she will continue fighting to halt O'Hare expansion and end airport pollution, in spite of the fact that Republican initiatives to solve these problems were defeated in committee this week.

"We will continue our fight to make the residents' concerns heard. Since these people are directly impacted by the airports safety, noise and pollution problems, we cannot allow the city of Chicago to walk over them in total disregard," Rep. Pullen said.

All but one of the 16 measures proposed by Republican House members were defeated in committee after Democratic committee members refused to give their support. The sole measure approved would provide a tax deduction to area residents who sound-proof their homes.

"We refuse to settle for the passage of only one measure; we will fight until we can pass legislation with some teeth in it," Rep. Pullen said. "The defeat of the O'Hare legislation is a slap in the face to residents who must live with the congestion, the noise and the fear of losing their homes through airport expansion."

One measure which died in committee would have prohibited the Department of Transportation (DOT) from adopting an alternative route for the Elgin-O'Hare Expressway.

"The original plan would put the expressway through a desolate area near O'Hare," Rep. Pullen said. "The airport wants to change the expressway route so that it is built through neighborhoods (in Bensenville) - as an excuse to clear out people and make room for airport expansion."

Rep. Pullen and Rep. Linda Williamson (R-Northlake) have already introduced a resolution calling for immediate action on the airport issue. They are asking

Local libraries receive state grants

State Senator Howard Carroll (D-1st District) today welcomed the award of state library grant funds to four public libraries serving the 1st Legislative District.

The local libraries and the grant amounts received under the state Per Capita Grant program are: Lincolnwood - $11,521; Skokie - $60,278 and Morton Grove - $23,747.

Per Capita grants are made annually to assist libraries across the state in meeting standards of library service. The grants can be used for purchase of books and other materials, computers, films, videotapes, personnel, shelving, furniture and equipment, building maintenance and office supplies.

"For the first time since the program was begun in Fiscal Year 1981, it was fully funded by the General Assembly this year to allow the grants to be awarded at the rate of $1 per capita," Carroll said.

The program is administered by the Secretary of State, as State Librarian. The grants are based upon documented report forms and applications sent to the Illinois State Library for review.

BLOOD PRESSURE AT REST
Though we are very complex animals with a great deal of individual variation, most blood pressure experts would agree that at rest, the ideal systolic pressure for persons beyond age 40 is something less than 140 (mmHg) while the diastolic pressure should not exceed 90 (mmHg). These readings would be recorded as 140/90. Though an "old wives" tale of sorts, adults who demonstrate the classic 120/80 are either lucky, have good health habits or both. If at rest the blood pressure is from 140 to 160 / 90 to 96, most physicians would consider that border line hypertension and would probably suggest plans to help reduce body weight, smoking and stress. Exercise such as walking, swimming and jogging has been shown to be beneficial in assisting the control of elevated blood pressure. The Morton Grove Village Hall Senior Center will be screening residents for hypertension from 9 to 10 a.m. on Tues. May 13.

Avoid sudden, violent action before being warmed up or well trained for such action. The overall pattern is to train moderately for a few weeks, then begin trials in olympic events on a gradually progressive basis for intensity, duration or repetition.

SENIOR CITIZENS BEWARE
Cons, swindlers, and scams who trick older people out of their life savings by posing as bank inspectors, furnace repairmen or driveway resurfacers find Chicago and its suburbs a rich field, particularly in the spring of the year. Scams come in several forms: home improvement and repair, business opportunities, "self improvements" (i.e., correspondence schools, social clubs), medical/health fraud, aeral and burial, and pigeon drops (phony bank examiners, new found money, etc.). The Morton Grove Crime Prevention Bureau is available to protect and advise residents against such experiences. Call the Bureau any time of the day at 966-7800.

Numerous charges placed against Niles resident

A Niles resident was arrested on April 30 for drunk driving, suspended driver's license, possession of cannabis and no lights. Police observed the offender driving without lights, westbound on Dempster st. She turned north into an alley where the car was stopped. Police detected a strong odor of alcohol on her breath and her speech was slurred while being questioned. She could not produce a driver's license and a check revealed there were three suspensions against her license. During an inventory of the offender's property, police found two handrolled cigarettes in a brown case containing a leafy green substance which was sent to a crime lab. She was released on $3,000 bond and assigned a June court date.

Auto break-in

A resident in the 8500 block of Milwaukee reported someone gained entry by smashing the rear window of her car and removed a cassette player causing damage to the dashboard. Damage to the window and dashboard was estimated at a total of $200.

Minor arrested after alcohol purchase

A Niles resident was arrested for purchase of alcohol by a minor on May 2. Police observed the offender coming out of a liquor store in the 7200 block of Milwaukee ave. carrying a case of beer and getting into a car. She then drove to a nearby Seven-Eleven store and met some youths standing outside the store who ran away when they spotted the police car. The manager of the liquor store was arrested for sale of alcohol to a minor and was released on $50 bond and assigned a June court date. The offender was released on the same bond amount and received a similar court date.

Thief caught with construction material

Sears security reported April 29 that a man was observed taking construction material from outside the store in the Golf Mill Shopping Center and placing the material in a van. He was arrested by police after they found a piece of aluminum construction material in the van described by the security agent. The offender was released after posting $1,000 bond pending a May court date.

Wallet stolen

A resident in the 8800 block of Wisner reported someone removed a wallet from her purse which was on the living room floor in her second floor apartment. The wallet contained $185 in currency, numerous credit cards and a driver's license.

Home break-in

A resident in the 9100 block of Courtland reported her house was broken into on April 24. According to police reports, entry was gained by force through the front door. Once inside, the offender rummaged through both bedrooms. Nothing appeared to be missing, but the victim will submit a list of any missing items, after an inventory. A special watch was requested by the resident who lives alone and is fearful of another break-in.

Speeder arrested

A Niles man was arrested for speeding and driving with a suspended license on April 24. He was released after posting $1,000 bond pending a June court date.

Boy bitten by squirrel

A four-year-old boy, who lives in the 7300 block of Nora st. was bitten by a squirrel on April 29. The victim and other children had been feeding the squirrel on a regular basis. According to police reports, the squirrel has a nest in a tree and the animal warden was notified.

Phone threat unfounded

Niles police station received a call April 27 from a man who said the automotive center at Sears was "going to blow up in 20 minutes." The unknown person then hung up. Police conducted a search of the building with negative results.

Edgar credits DUI law with jump in suspensions

Statistics for the first quarter of 1986 show that Illinois' new DUI law has resulted in a dramatic increase in the number of drivers license suspensions for drunk driving, according to Secretary of State Jim Edgar. "Since Jan. 1 when the new DUI law took effect, 89 percent of the first time drunk driving offenders have lost driving privileges. Under the old DUI law, only 10 percent of first offenders lost their drivers licenses." "This indicates clearly that the law is working and it has achieved my major goal from last year of swift and certain punishment for DUI offenders." The DUI law was approved last year as a result of a legislative compromise bill derived from proposals introduced by the Illinois DUI Task Force, which Edgar chaired, and lawyers associations. He said many groups could share credit for the success of the new DUI laws including police officers, circuit clerks, state's attorneys and the courts. "The success of the new law requires diligence, perseverance and extra work from many thousands of people, but that work is beginning to pay off in the form of heightened public awareness, safer roads and saved lives," Edgar said. Other data released shows that while the average blood alcohol content (BAC) of those arrested and suspended for DUI is 0.18 percent, over one-third of all DUI offenders registered a BAC of 0.20 percent or greater. The legal level of intoxication in Illinois is 0.10 percent. "This data shows that the typical person arrested is not someone who has had just one or two drinks after work. The typical drunk driving offender has had considerably more than that, and 35 percent of those arrested are at least "double drunk." The new DUI law is responsible for providing other data, never before available, which profiles the drunk driver. The average age of a DUI offender is 32. Nine percent of those arrested for DUI are under 21 years of age, while 66 percent are under 35 years old. Males made up most DUI arrests, accounting for 88 percent. First offenders account for 80 percent of DUI arrests.

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

Who have been the 5 best hitters in the history of big league baseball? ... The 5 with the highest lifetime batting averages in this century among all those who played at least 10 years are: (1) Ty Cobb, .367; (2) Rogers Hornsby, .358; (3) Shoeless Joe Jackson, .356; (4) Lefty O'Doul, .349; and (5) Tris Speaker, .345.

Here's a surprising and little-known fact about the famous Olympic champion, Mary Lou Retton. Her father, Ron Retton, once played in the Final Four of the NCAA basketball championship. He played for West Virginia in the 1959 tournament.

One of the most unusual games in big league baseball history happened Aug. 24, 1951 when the fans in the stands actually managed a team. Club owner Bill Veeck of the old St. Louis Browns of the American League gave fans behind the dugout "yes" and "no" signs which they raised when asked about what strategy St. Louis should use like bunting or pinch hitting. And the funny thing is: St. Louis won that game!

If you mention this ad after your deal is consummated (but before delivery) Jennings Chevrolet will deduct $50 from the purchase price of your new or used car. One deduction per customer. One deduction per transaction. Expires May 15, 1986. Retail customers only.

Tips for boating parents

Protect your children with properly fitted PFD's. Small children are top heavy. Most of their weight is localized in their upper body, particularly in the head. A special child-sized PFD will compensate for this. Children should sit inside the boat, never on the transom, gunwales, or bow. Properly seated, they will safely enjoy a trip on the water with you.

When you return to dock, it is important not to let children, or others, fend the boat off the dock with their hands or feet. Numerous injuries have happened from this very common practice.

You and your child can easily learn how to have safe fun on the water. Boating classes are readily available. Call Public Education Officer Michael Jacobson at 777-1063 or 1-800-336-BOAT to learn about the class near you.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Lincolnwood Health Series

"Osteoporosis: The Brittle Battle" is the title for the third program in the six-part Lincolnwood Community Health Lecture Series, co-sponsored by St. Francis Hospital and the Village of Lincolnwood. The free lecture will be held May 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lincolnwood Public Library, 4000 W. Pratt Ave.

Osteoporosis affects ten to twenty percent of American women. Eighty percent of women lack dietary calcium. Osteoporosis is a chronic disease characterized by less than normal quantities of bone. Bones in a person with advanced osteoporosis begin thin, porous and weak. Hips, the spine, and wrists break easily. Osteoporosis has been estimated to cause about one million fractures each year in persons 45 and older.

Dr. Glen W. Sizemore, endocrinologist, and chairman of the department of medicine at St. Francis Hospital, will conduct the lecture. He will discuss who are the high risk groups for osteoporosis, what methods detect the disease and how it can be treated. Dr. Sizemore is the medical director of St. Francis Hospital's new Osteoporosis and Bone Disease Center.

For more information, or to make a reservation, call St. Francis Hospital Community Relations Department, 492-6173.

Brain Tumor Support Group

A Brain Tumor Support Group has been established to help people who are affected by brain tumors. The meeting is scheduled from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, May 14, at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge.

Screening program for Tay Sachs Disease

A community-wide mass screening program for Tay Sachs Disease is being launched in the Chicago area by the National Tay Sachs and Allied Diseases Association of Chicago, Inc. on Sunday, June 1 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Bernard Horwich Jewish Community Center, 3003 W. Touhy Ave., Chicago.

Chicago's University of Illinois Hospital-Genetics Section Laboratory, headed by Dr. Reuben Matalon, will conduct the medical testing and the follow-up. Genetic counseling will be available at the Jewish Community Center on the day of the screening. A minimal fee of $10 will be charged for each person tested. This fee is far below the normal test fee at any of the qualified Chicago Tay Sachs testing laboratories.

LGH Adolescent Psychiatric Unit

Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, recently completed the construction of an Adolescent Psychiatric Unit. The new, 18-bed unit will provide care for children, ages 13 to-18, who suffer from such disorders as depression, behavior problems, learning problems, or difficulties at home, school, or with friends.

"Most adolescents resent being treated like children, yet they are not quite ready to be treated like adults," says Helen Conran, M.D., Division of Psychiatry. "They have a special developmental need, then, to be separated from the younger children."

The fact that this Unit is located within a large hospital is most advantageous. "Most facilities of this kind are free-standing," says Gail Karrels, R.N., clinical director, Psychiatric Nursing. "The medical and psychological expertise available to a patient at a large hospital such as Lutheran General are astounding."

Free Community Educational Seminar

A free educational lecture titled "Addiction: The Three-headed Dragon" will be held Thursday, May 8, at Saint Francis Hospital. The weekly program is sponsored by Saint Francis Hospital's Outpatient Addiction Treatment and Educational Services (O.A.T.E.S.). The program will be held from 6 p.m.-7:30 p.m. in the Adult and Child Guidance Center. For more information, call O.A.T.E.S., 492-6385. MAMMOGRAPHY

Don't Be Alarmed When Mammography is Recommended

A recommendation that a mammogram be performed does not necessarily mean your physician suspects you have breast cancer. On the contrary, he wants to be sure you don't have it! The value of mammography lies in its ability to detect irregularities in the breast tissue when they are very small, too small to be felt. Unfortunately, breast cancer is not an uncommon disease. However, if a woman is going to develop breast cancer, the earlier it is detected, the better. Many small lesions can be cured without mastectomy. Mammography is a fast simple, x-ray procedure which can be very reassuring.

The American Cancer Society recommends the following guidelines for mammography and examinations:

Age 20 and older - breast self-examination monthly.

Age 20-40 - a physician breast examination every three years and an initial mammogram ages 35-40.

Age 40-50 - periodic mammography every year or two as determined by your personal physician's recommendation. Also, an annual physician breast examination.

If you have breast masses or there is a history of breast cancer in your family, your physician is likely to recommend mammograms more frequently or at an earlier age. Mammography is a part of the regular annual physical exam for some women. This is because mammography is much more effective at detecting very small cancers than a physician's physical examination.

At the Chicago Medical and Dental Center, your mammogram will be scheduled through a physician's order in a pleasant out-patient surrounding with extended hours for your convenience. The mammogram is interpreted by a board certified radiologist with the result forwarded to your physician. So, don't be alarmed when mammography is recommended. Rather than be alarmed, be reassured that your physician is doing his very best for you. If you have any questions about mammography, call 774-2100

Bugle alumnus remembers Ed Hanson

Dear Diane:
 Condolences to the Bugle Bunch. We read Bud's column the week Ed died and realized, with some sorrow, the end of an era. The Left Hand was poignant. The second week it was even more touching. And so was The Other Hand. It brought back lots of memories; I could easily relate to much in the columns as those "happenings" occurred during my time at The Bugle. It makes me miss you all the more! Sad to think of Ed, but he really had family at The Bugle. You took good care of him...just like a spoiled child...a nuisance...but tolerated and even catered to in spite of it all. I can see Ed's "ghost" zooming into the parking lot and scrambling the papers on his desk for some time to come. I can still hear his cough!

 Anyway, I hope you all are flourishing, happy, prosperous and well! Thought you would enjoy the enclosed...it says it all.
"LIFE IS HARD...THEN YOU DIE"

Warmest regards,
 Grace Wielock

Remembering Hanson and his times

Newspaper ink and booze probably ran side by side in Ed Hanson. He loved life and didn't fear to walk through the valley of death. He told me the good die young and he was so bad the devil couldn't find him and death wouldn't look for him. He must have made a mistake and done a good deed lately.
 I do not write in praise of Hanson nor to bury him but rather to remember him and his times.
 Ed Hanson burst through the veil of manhood in 1931. He chose the worst year of the Great Depression like he picked race horses. Bank failures, closed factories and offices, the rise of Hitler and organized crime and sadly even housewife hookers supporting their families prevailed. There certainly wasn't two chickens in every pot as President Hoover promised in 1928. Imagine! 12.8 million unemployed Americans and those with jobs working 48 to 54 hours a week for $10.

You survived, you existed and sometimes you died. Ed Hanson was a survivor. He was a stringer for several Chicago newspapers. He hung around police stations late at night looking for a story to sell. Sometimes he made a buck by not writing a story.
 Ed would go to a police station after a big bookie raid. He made a few bucks by leaving the names of important arrestees out of the story. He made a few dollars more after a brothel raid by losing the names of married men who were arrested. He then got a bail bondsman for the hookers and got a commission for the business. Remember, it was all legal.
 Ed Hanson earned the nickname "Front Page" the hard way. He learned one day from a pioneer sex therapist that an FBI client told her the Feds were going to arrest Roger Touby for kidnapping Jake the Barber. He sold the story but the paper used its ace crime reporter for the byline. Ed Hanson was not mentioned. He covered the murder scene of "Cherry Nose" Chikini and got the byline because the ace reporter was threatened and warned not to write the story. Ed was expendable.
 Ed spent the war years working for the OAS, the fore-

Thanks to Holy Family benefactors

Dear Editor:
 I would like to take this opportunity during National Hospital Week (May 11-17), and our 25th Anniversary year to thank our community for their support of Holy Family Hospital.
 Since our doors first opened in 1961, Holy Family Hospital has provided quality, professional healthcare to the residents in our neighborhood, including Des Plaines, Wheeling, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Park Ridge, Niles and other nearby communities.
 However, we would not have been able to provide needed healthcare services without the caring or commitment from our community. For example, many of you are generous contributors to our Capital Campaign, which financially supports our current Modernization Program. We have just completed Phase I, our new Riverside Building. Many more of you donate your time and effort as volunteers at the reception desk, wheelchair transportation, gift shop, and more.
 We appreciate your generosity, and we are here to help you in return - offering quality healthcare, community education programs and information on health-related questions and issues. For example, May is High Blood Pressure Month. You can get a free blood pressure test any Wednesday from 1:30-3 p.m. at Holy Family Hospital, Health Center or Ambulatory Care Center. In addition, you are invited to join us July 13 for tours and entertainment during the Riverside Building Grand Opening, so mark your calendar now.
 This year our theme is "Hospitals Make Healthy Neighbors." Holy Family Hospital has been your neighbor for 25 years and looks forward to many more years of serving you.
 Sincerely,
 Frank Buccitelli
 Director, Public Relations

runner of the CIA, by writing reports and editing reports of agents. He then took his work directly to Washington. He wasn't an agent and didn't do anything dangerous but you wouldn't know that from listening to him tell the story. However, he did bump a few VIPs off planes and trains getting his work to D.C.
 Ed Hanson lived a charmed life and he didn't give a damn about anything or anyone. His white hat was a symbol because he was truly a good guy. He never made it big in the newspaper business in spite of his substantial vocabulary and unique writing vernacular. Unfortunately, he combined them to infuriate editors. However, he was one of the best read men you will ever meet. He was proof of the failures of today's educators.
 It really isn't important how many people come to your wake. The quality of those that do is what is important. Bud Besser and the Bugle family are real quality. They were all that was necessary to say good bye to Front Page Hanson. Ed Hanson and all the others his age left a rich legacy to us. A free and prosperous country.
 Goodbye Ed! May the Lord have read the Bugle story on your passing an hour before the devil. Otherwise you would be busy talking to your friends down there instead of reading this letter upstairs.

Thomas Flynn

Editor's Note: Even after death, ole Hanson is still pulling his con. During World War II Ed worked for Gretchen Tool & Die Company, not the OAS. If he told you otherwise you were being Flynn-Flammed.

Res travelers return

Thirty one students from Resurrection High School, 7500 W. Talcott Ave., spent their spring vacations in England to enrich their study of English Literature. Head teacher Norcen Maluchnik arranged the trip for the students and held 20 pre-trip classes for them, so they could relate the places they were to visit with the works they were studying.

Highlights of the trip include visits to Stonehenge, Westminster Abbey and the Royal Shakespearean Theatre.

A side trip to Paris and Versailles completed the 12-day adventure.

Balloon launch at Niles Elementary

The sky was clear, the wind was balmy, perfect weather for the annual Arbor Day balloon launch held by the Niles District 71 P.T.A. for the students. The students at the South School, grades Kindergarten through fourth, were each given a helium-filled balloon with an attached card stating their name and the school address for return from whomever found the balloon. It was a colorful sight as the students gathered in the field across from the school to release their balloons.

During the days following the launch, a map at the school is marked with the names of students whose balloons have been found in distant places.

NORTRAN detours construction

NORTRAN (North Suburban Mass Transit District) wants its riders to be aware of the fact that there may be detours and delays due to the extensive road construction just underway in the downtown Des Plaines area.

As a result of work now being done on River Rd., effective immediately, NORTRAN's Des Plaines Local Routes 230 to the River Rd. CTA Station, 232 to the West Side and 233 to the southwest portion of town, will detour from their boarding area at Pearson and Ellinwood by taking a right on Ellinwood, then a right into the alley/driveway near the Centel Building, another right on to Prairie, left on Pearson to Thacker, from which point buses will proceed along their regular routing. This detour will be used until further notice.

No other NORTRAN routes operating in the downtown Des Plaines area are effected at this time. However, buses may be experiencing some minor delays due to traffic congestion.

NORTRAN representatives are working closely with local officials to monitor the traffic patterns on a daily basis. Every effort will be made to avoid confusion by notifying riders as quickly as possible about any additional service changes that may be required.

Public transportation may still be the best way to approach the area. For more detailed information about NORTRAN service, call the RTA Travel Information Center from the suburbs, toll-free, at 1-800-972-7000; or write to NORTRAN, P.O. Box 388, Des Plaines, IL 60016-0388.

display the best talent in each phase of the game, I'd do the same for baseball. Let the best defensive players go onto the field and let the best hitters come to bat. Just because Abner Doubleday proscribed one way the game should be played doesn't mean it can't be changed. Why should we have to spend money watching a 220 hitter peck at the ball when a 330 hitter could send it down the lines or into the stands? And who wants to spend a Sunday afternoon watching Carlton Fisk lose the ball in the sun because he is less than the best player at playing left field? Let the best hitters bat and the best fielders field.

to finance sports stadia. Why should the working guy who toils all week long have to subsidize a ballpark with his tax dollars? If the free enterprise owners want fancy stadiums to help make them money, let them pay for them out of their own pockets.

If I ran the sports show, I'd eliminate inter-collegiate sports programs and replace them with extensive, intramural programs. Instead of touting a few six-foot-nine-inch athletes I'd focus attention on anyone who wants to participate in sports. Let each college have broad intramural sports programs and the winners of each school could then compete against neighboring schools' champions. At the end of the season let the intra-mural champions play for the national titles and hear their successes as we now do for paid-for-play boys and girls. It would eliminate the corruption which is rampant in the college game and bring a more sane perspective to activities which are named "Sports". In other words, put the "sport" back into sports.

of safety." "The FCC rule stipulates the village does not impose unreasonable limits or excessive costs to the applicants to discourage petitioners," Salerno said. "We charge $100 for filing an application and Chicago, I understand, charges in the neighborhood of $500."

Salerno added Deisenroth may not agree with the board decision on the "aesthetic" question. "What is pleasing to him may not necessarily please the village. It's all in the eyes of the beholder."

According to Angelo Marcheschi, chairman of the cable committee, the board is not arbitrarily selective in its decisions concerning antennas. "The board always takes into consideration not only the interests of the petitioner, but also the residents," he said, adding the courts have upheld the right of villages to make decisions based on aesthetics.

Deisenroth said his company is about to make a decision on whether to join a suit against Skokie by another satellite company, claiming that village has also been denying petitions concerning the dishes. "Legal action will finally settle the question of aesthetics," he said.

civic officials, customers, and guests, Messrs. Carlson and Keenan reaffirmed the bank's history of commitment to the Skokie Community. The continuation of this type of commitment on the part not only of the First National Bank of Skokie but all other USAmeribancs as well, was also made clear in the remarks of Mr. Harrison Stearns, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of USAmeribancs.

The Honorable Al Smith, Mayor of the Village of Skokie, applauded the bank's efforts and commented that this program was a welcome addition to the already announced plans of the Village to begin efforts to renovate businesses and improve parking in the downtown area.

The details of the First National Bank of Skokie's $1,000,000 program are: 1. Maximum loan per applicant - $100,000 with total loan representing at most, 75% of the project cost; 2. Repayment terms - only 5% per annum, simple interest for five years, amortized over 15 years; 3. At least one-half of funds borrowed to be used for front and side exterior renovations; 4. Credit terms subject to the bank's standard requirements; 5. To apply, simply contact any commercial banking officer at 673-2500. The Downtown Skokie business area defined by the bank is on Oakton between Skokie Blvd. and Floral and on Lincoln between Main st. and Mulford.

USAmeribancs is a six bank holding company with resources of $1.7 billion serving Chicago and the north and northwest suburbs. Member banks, in addition to First National Bank of Skokie, are: Citizens Bank and Trust Co., Park Ridge; First National Bank of Highland Park; USAmeribanc - Chicago (formerly Marina Bank); USAmeribanc - Elk Grove (formerly Bank of Elk Grove); and USAmeribanc - Woodfield (formerly Woodfield Bank, Schaumburg).

"We have timed the construction project during the summer to give our fitness-conscious patrons alternatives for exercising outdoors," Levenberg explained. "While there is never a perfect time to limit access due to construction, this schedule will allow members to return to a substantially improved health club this fall when indoor facilities are imperative."

Levenberg noted that fee adjustments to compensate for the four-month closing of the health club and lockers are planned.

Health club members will be offered a credit for four months for the difference between a general member rate and the higher health club rate.

In addition to fee adjustments, health club members will have the option of using facilities at the Horwich site, 3003 W. Touhy, Chicago.

The Horwich facility offers lockers, steam room, sauna, massage and men's and women's lounges in the health club and pool and gym open to general members.

General members will continue to have both sites available to them throughout the construction period.

Fitness and health club facilities at the Horwich site are scheduled for renovation beginning in October, 1986.

For further information about the JCC health and fitness program, call Jay Levenberg or Vincent Finerman at 675-2200.

and a meeting to be arranged between an EPA representative, Graham, Bobowski and Joe Salerno (Niles zoning enforcement director) to determine whether the existing vapor system is acceptable to the EPA. "This information must be submitted to the village board before final approval," said Trustee Angelo Troiani.

In other actions, the board approved a special use request by David Hessing for outside storage of automobiles and towing service at 6200 Gross Point rd.

Hessing said he was leasing space from the owner of a landscape business on the one-acre property and would provide towing services for car dealers and insurance companies.

The board expressed concern over trailers parked in front of a fenced-in area owned by the landscape business. Approval was subject to cleaning up the area and keeping trailers and equipment behind the fence.

...approved a petition by the Village of Niles requesting a variation of 4 percent of required lot area from 6,250 square feet to 6,014 square feet at 8229 Waukegan rd.

Salerno, who made the presentation, said the property owned by the village was a dedicated street that had never been developed. "The village wants to sell the property through bid process to allow construction of a single-family home," he said.

Gary Grendel withdrew his petition to construct an additional bay for an oil change facility at 8657 Milwaukee ave.

A revised plan concerning location of the addition...at the south end of the building with a small office in the rear of the structure...had been approved by the zoning board. However, Grendel dropped the request because the plan was not economically feasible, according to Salerno.

said. A parking plan showed six parking spaces in front of the building facing Waukegan rd. and two on Howard st. An access driveway would be on Waukegan.

The original plan called for one building housing eight two-bedroom units and 17 outside parking spaces. The board objected to the plan saying, it was too tight for the lot.

In other business, the board approved a special use request that would allow construction of a canopy over the gasoline pumps at 8120 Oakton st.

Petitioner Eugene Graham said he also plans to reconstruct two gas islands which have two pumps. "I'm planning to add two more on each island for a total of eight."

He noted the improvement of a canopy and expansion of the gas island was to accommodate customers, adding that 81 percent of his business is self-service, and 19 percent full-service.

Roy Bobowski, who lives behind the gas station, expressed concern that the additional gas pumps would pose a problem of gas fumes drifting toward the residential area behind the gas station. "The fumes come out of storage pipes when they are being filled with fuel. The odor is obnoxious and we have to shut our windows," he said. "There is also the question of litter from mechanical work at the rear of the property near my backyard."

Graham said the situation had improved with the installation of a vapor system to check the fumes. "However, I contacted the Cook County Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), which said it was a stop-go measure," he said. "I would like to know if the EPA could suggest a better system to control the fumes."

The original plan called for one building housing eight two-bedroom units and 17 outside parking spaces. The board objected to the plan saying, it was too tight for the lot.

In other business, the board approved a special use request that would allow construction of a canopy over the gasoline pumps at 8120 Oakton st.

Petitioner Eugene Graham said he also plans to reconstruct two gas islands which have two pumps. "I'm planning to add two more on each island for a total of eight."

He noted the improvement of a canopy and expansion of the gas island was to accommodate customers, adding that 81 percent of his business is self-service, and 19 percent full-service.

Roy Bobowski, who lives behind the gas station, expressed concern that the additional gas pumps would pose a problem of gas fumes drifting toward the residential area behind the gas station. "The fumes come out of storage pipes when they are being filled with fuel. The odor is obnoxious and we have to shut our windows," he said. "There is also the question of litter from mechanical work at the rear of the property near my backyard."

Graham said the situation had improved with the installation of a vapor system to check the fumes. "However, I contacted the Cook County Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), which said it was a stop-go measure," he said. "I would like to know if the EPA could suggest a better system to control the fumes."

Nelson students attend opera

The children in grades 3, 4, 5, and 6 of Nelson School recently attended the opera "Gianni Schicchi" by Puccini. The Lyric Opera of Chicago presented the children's performances on April 15 and 16.

Class preparation was directed by Mary Tito, music teacher. The students dramatized the various parts of the libretto using props. When a child was a certain character, he or she wore the name of that character fastened with a string and cardboard around the neck. After the opera, many students wanted to continue the acting in the classroom.

Some third grade students followed the activity by writing stories and drawing pictures. It was an interesting experience for the children and gave them exposure to a different style of music.

Nelson School is located at 8901 N. Ozanam Ave., in Niles, and is one of four elementary schools in East Maine School District #63.

It seems hard to believe, but a man

AFTER being indicted for murder. He was Aaron Burr, V.P. under Thomas Jefferson. Burr was indicted for killing Alexander Hamilton in a duel, but remained Vice-President.
