3,000 SJB parishioners honor pastor at picnic

More than 3,000 people attended St. John Brebeuf's annual picnic held in Linne Woods last Sunday to say farewell to Father Edward Duggan, church pastor, who is leaving after 12 years of ministering to about 2,800 families in the parish. The highlight of the day was an escort of Niles police cars with sirens sounding followed by a 1986 Ford Taurus... a gift from the parishioners... which was presented to a surprised and overwhelmed Father Duggan in the picnic grove. During the presentation, he also received a check in the amount of $7,000. According to Andy Beierwaltes, a member of the Father

Duggan Committee, the gift from parishioners was "a tribute to a good shepherd of his flock. The money was raised within a month's time after we found out the car he was driving had an excess of 120,000 miles. We are all going to miss him." Father Duggan will leave the Continued on Page 47

22.5% budget increase approved by Board Tax hike seen for Niles parks

by Bud Besser

Back in the thirties, during my pre-teen days, we had the ice man delivering to the ice box on the back porch and the milkman left his bottled milk by the back door. The old rags and iron man came through the alleys hollering his sing-song message to let you know he was seeking any old brass or paper or rags which he would pay you for. All of them came to your house with the help of a horse and wagon.

Down the block the red and white street car screeched down the street. We called it a "dinky" since its route went from Vincennes and 73rd north and then east to 71st and Cottage Grove. It was a 20 block run and cost 7c and 3c depending upon your age.

In the beginning of the fifties, I flew my first commercial flight to California. Few people outside the military had used airlift for transportation and my flight on the prop plane presaged the age to come. Continued on Page 47

Niles Park District Commissioners formally adopted a total budget of $3,507,506 and an appropriation of $4,313,350 for the 1986-87 fiscal year at Tuesday's meeting. A small tax increase is anticipated because of the 22.5 percent increase over last year's budget figure of $2,943,806, according to Bill Hughes, park director. Hughes said a tax levy will be passed in September by the board. "At this time we don't special honor is the Wohelo Medalion. Wohelo is the call word for Camp Fire. If broken in to syllables, it stands for work, health and love.

Many years are devoted towards this project to earn this award, Christy Elmgren, a junior at Maine South High School. The leaders from Edison Park, Niles, Morton Grove, and Park Ridge all participated in the ceremony by giving out their awards for their children.

Maine Beat

by Sylvia Dalrymple

STAR-SPANGLED NILES... it was a banner day for Old Glory on July 4th featuring a big parade, clowns, floats and marching bands winding their way through flag-decorated neighborhood streets from Notre Dame High School to Grennan Heights Park.

The special birthday salute was sponsored by the Niles Park District and the Village of Niles. Crowds lined the streets to witness the parade that was as American as apple pie and displayed patriotism at its best.

Golf Mill State Bank... which was very active in raising funds for the Statue of Liberty restoration, was a prize winner with a large replica of "The Lady" standing on a red, white and blue-footeoned float. As it passed crowds of people lining the streets the cheers could have rivaled those in New York Harbor after the unveiling of Miss Liberty.

A "first" this year was the appearance of a group of Vietnam veterans with some of the marchers hailing from Chicago, Elk Grove, Downers Grove, Cicero and Alsip. One was in a wheelchair wearing a small flag on his fatigue jacket. Vietnam veterans from Niles included Armanez Passarella (who organized the group), Kenny Zrykowski, and Hal Fritz. Units in which they served during the Vietnam conflict included the 101st Airborne, 196th Light Brigade, Battalion Art Clepton and Helo (helicopter) Attack 3. According to Passarella, there are only 20 survivors in the U.S. from the Helo unit.

A mention should be made of the newly-formed Niles police Honor Guard which stepped smartly at the head of the parade...drawing cheers and whistles.

At Grennan Heights, the festivities included a circus, pony rides and entertainment. It was a fun red, white and blue day.

ALL-AMERICAN FESTIVAL... despite the rain that fell for three days, the Festival...sponsored by the Niles Events Committee...was a success, with large crowds enjoying the midway, rides, food and entertainment.

A highlight was a birthday party held by Golf Mill State Bank (a sponsor of the Festival) commemorating its 25th anniversary in Niles. 25-year employees launched hundreds of red, white and blue balloons which soared to the sky in a glittering coat of color. Topping off the festivities was a huge multi-tiered birthday cake that was served to hungry festival-goers, including Mayor Nicholas Blase of Niles and Elaine Heinen, park commissioner.

Spotted in the crowd sharing a piece of cake were Village Clerk Frank Wagner, Jr. and his wife, Charlene. Wagner's son, Frank, performed as a clown at the fest. During the five-day event, visitors stuffed themselves with hotdogs, corn on the cob from the grill, pizza and other good things. The Main Stage was a big attraction, with foot stompin' music provided by the Limelitters (straight from San Francisco), Banjo Buddies, country and Western groups, Dixieland tunes, etc. "That's Entertainment" was showcased on Sunday afternoon at Main Stage. The talented group performed at St. John Brebeuf's annual festival earlier this year.

The Children's Stage sponsored by the Niles Park District featured various entertainment such as magician, clown and juggling acts. There was also a petting zoo, organ grinder and monkey and the appearance of Garfield Goose. The park district also hosted 5K and 10K races.

According to Bernadine Reid, treasurer of the Niles Events Committee, the Budweiser Beer Garden proved to be popular with people...who enjoyed the brew watching the Niles Squares and other groups perform in the stage area.

The All-American Festival was a family-oriented affair...and hopefully, will be repeated next year.

Health & Fitness Fair at LTY

Fundraisers to be allowed for non-profit groups

Las Vegas Nights law awaits Governor's pen

District 207 approves 1986-87 budget

Maine Township High School District 207 Board of Education unanimously approved the 1986-87 budget of $50,178,278 at the July 7 meeting. According to James L. Elliott, superintendent, the budget represents an overall total increase in expenditures of 5.8%.

The $50,178,278 included approximately $50,000 in amendments to the tentative budget which had been on display since June 2. According to Donald E. Kenney, assistant superintendent for business, the largest addition was for $324,000 in the educational fund to cover the cost of utilities at Maine North High School. Originally, this expense was not budgeted because Maine North was scheduled to be sold in June. Other amendments in the educational fund included corrections for capital outlay, salaries and fringe benefits bringing the total to $474,000.

An $80,000 increase in the building fund will allow the board to relocate the Student Personnel Services Department at Maine East High School.

In one of the last legislative acts before convening for the summer, the Illinois General Assembly legalized Las Vegas Nights benefiting schools, churches and other non-profit organizations.

The measure now goes to Gov. James Thompson who is expected to sign it into law within sixty days, according to Sen. Walter Dudyecz (R-7th) co-sponsor of the bill.

Senate Bill 1552 will permit qualified charitable, religious and educational groups to conduct four casino-type fundraisers per year. Cash prizes will be allowed up to $250 per person each night. There will be no limit on non-cash prizes, Dudyecz said.

Las Vegas Nights will be licensed by the Department of Revenue and taxed at three percent of gross receipts. One-third of the tax revenue will go to local law enforcement efforts and two-thirds to the Department of Revenue, the attorney general's office and the State Plice.

According to Dudyecz, games which can be offered include roulette, blackjack, poker, slot tabs and other card games. Slot machines and some other coin-operated machines are prohibited.

Other sponsors of the bill included Senators Ted Lechowicz

(D-16th) and Bill Marovitz (D-Chgo).

"This was a good compromise bill worked out in bi-partisan efforts," Dudyecz said. "Casino nights are especially attractive fundraisers because participants are offered a chance to win something. Provisions allowing cash prizes should generate even more business."

The decision by legislators to legalize Las Vegas Nights was hailed as "good news" by Father Edward Duggan, pastor of St. John Brebeuf parish.

He explained Niles was enforcing state gambling laws until a decision was made on the issue.

"As a result, our annual festival did not include a casino room this year accounting for a loss of between $20,000 and $25,000," he said.

He added the "casino" was popular with people, generating good income in addition to festival proceeds. "Once Gov. Thompson signs the bill, we can go ahead with plans to include the room for the 1987 festival," he said.

Father George Kahle, principal of Notre Dame High School, was unavailable for comment. The on-again Las Vegas night at the school was a major fundraising project.

Golf Mill Bank's cake-cutting

Part of the festivities at the Niles All American Festival last weekend was the birthday party held Saturday by Golf Mill State Bank commemorating its 25th anniversary in Niles.

The celebration included a huge multi-tiered birthday cake that was served to festival-goers at ter bank employees launched hundreds of balloons in the sky.

Shown cutting the cake are bank employees (1 to r) Pina Rabito, Joanne Goczkowski, Frances Clemente and Connie Aaknes. Golf Mill Bank was a sponsor of the Niles All American Festival.

Children's Day Care Center at Parkside

Full openings are available for children who will be age five by November 1, 1986, in Parkside Human Services' kindergarten located in the Shelly Nathanson School, 9375 Church st. in Des Plaines. The kindergarten, part of P.H.S.' Children's Day Care Center, is holding an open house on Wednesday, Aug. 6 at 7:30 p.m. for interested parents. Included in the one-hour program will be a slide presentation, a tour of the facility, and an overview of the curriculum.

The kindergarten class is held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. However, children may attend the kindergarten from 9 a.m. until noon only or may also be enrolled in the day-care program for working parents, which is open from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday.

P.H.S.' kindergarten emphasizes a curriculum that prepares children for first grade both socially and intellectually. Children learn basic skills in math, reading, language arts, as well as science, social studies, and health and safety. Children also learn how to operate microcomputers. The software is selected to supplement the classroom curriculum. In addition, children receive instruction in swimming.

The kindergarten teacher is state-certified. A small student-teacher ratio ensures that children receive individual attention and allows for a more personalized daily curriculum. Parent-teacher conferences are scheduled at least twice during the year to keep parents informed of their child's progress. Parents are also welcome to visit classrooms, observe activities, and speak with the teacher at all times throughout the school year.

For more information regarding the open house or the kindergarten program, please call Sue Mies at P.H.S.' Children's Day Care Center at 696-7880.

Parkside Human Services Corporation is a member of the Lutheran General Health Care System.

Vandals damage elderly woman's roof

An 88-year-old woman told police July 9 that her roof was damaged by three men after she refused a demand for money.

According to police reports, the victim had a new roof put on her home in the 6700 block of Albion. Several days later, the three offenders came to the house claiming they were employees of the company which had constructed the roof, saying more work was needed to complete the job.

After the victim refused their demand for money to do the work, the offenders climbed the roof and poured a bucket of white paint on it and then fled the area in a station wagon. Damage is undetermined.

Police will determine whether the three men did the work for the company as part of a follow-up. A special watch was requested.

Robbers caught after drug store theft

Two Chicago men and two women were arrested for robbing a hardware store on Birchwood and Milwaukee after they were stopped for speeding in the 6900 block of Howard.

After they were escorted back to the hardware store, the manager identified them. He related that one of the men had blocked his view at the front counter while a companion reached over the counter next to the store safe which was closed, but unlocked. As they exited the store, a clerk noticed the safe was open and between $1,500 and $1,600 was missing. He ran out of the store and copied the license plates of the departing car. The offenders admitted they had purchased the cocaine for $50 from a man in a restaurant parking lot.

The offenders were released after posting $3,000 each and assigned a July court date.

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

Contrary to popular opinion, the most difficult hit to achieve in baseball is NOT a home run, but a triple—and here's proof. In the entire history of big league baseball, nobody has ever hit more than 36 triples in one season while many players have hit more than 36 homers in a season. The record for triples was set by Owen Wilson who hit 36 of them in 1912—and in all the years since then, no big league has ever come close to that record.

Here's an oddity. . . Since the end of World War II, the Montreal Canadiens have won the Stanley Cup championship EVERY time the year ended in '8'. They won it in 1946, 1956, 1956, 1976 and 1986!

Did you know that a man once courageously won the U.S. Open golf championship even though he had just one good arm? . . . The winner of the 1954 U.S. Open, Ed Furgol, had his left arm permanently disabled in a childhood accident—yet he learned to play golf, and despite his disability, he triumphed over adversity and became one of the top golfers in the nation.

OCC places in marathon

Oakton Community College track coach Pat Savage couldn't be too disappointed with the Raider's fourth place finish in the June 21 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Marathon Championships in Dowagiac, Michigan.

"Considering that the heat forced several runners to drop out of the race, I'm proud that our guys were able to even finish," Savage said. "I felt coming into the race that placing in the top five would be an accomplishment. The top three teams were awfully tough, but I have to give our guys a lot of credit for hanging in to finish fourth."

Haskell Indian Junior College, of Lawrence, Kansas, won the team title, finishing with 14 points. Laredo Junior College, Laredo, Texas, was second (15) and Southwestern Michigan, of Dowagiac, placed third (19).

Oakton finished with 39 points. Jim Ruby was the leading Raider runner. The sophomore placed 13th with a time of 2:57.35. Behind him were teammates Tony Vodicka, who finished 14th (3:13.59) and Bruce Bower, who managed a 16th place finish (3:17.18). The individual winner was Laredo's Loretto Arana (2:26.19), the first-ever repeat winner in the marathon.

The weather wasn't bad when the race started just past 8 a.m., Savage said, "but by 10 o'clock it was up past 80 degrees, and it was about 90 when they finished."

For much of the race it appeared as if Vodicka would finish among the top 10 runners. He was running sixth at the 22-mile mark of the 26-mile race and was only 30 seconds behind the third place runner.

"The heat hit Tony pretty hard just past the 22-mile mark," Savage said. "He ended up walking the final three miles. It was disappointing for him, but I think the fact that he finished says a lot about him. There are many runners who would have given up at that point and not finished the race."

Interesting Facts From John Jennings

Name the only town in America where two U.S. Presidents were born. Answer: Both John Adams and John Quincy Adams were born in Quincy, Mass.

Try this teaser: Two clocks are side by side. One doesn't run at all, while the other loses one hour a day. Which will show the correct time more often? The one that doesn't run at all will show the correct time twice a day. The other will show the correct time only after it has lost 12 hours-or once every 12 days.

There was a political party in the U.S. in the 1800's that went by the odd name of the "Know Nothing Party".

Iceland gets far less ice and snow in winter than many northern U.S. states. Oddly enough, despite its name, Iceland has a relatively mild climate.

Financial situation quiz for young adults

Young adults can take a quiz in the latest issue of The Skokie Federalist to determine if they're mishandling their finances.

In the quarterly newsletter published by the $900 million savings and loan, the lead article details how many young professionals are spending too lavishly, and living above their means.

Notes John O'Connell, Chairman of the Board of Skokie Federal, "A statistic caught our attention a few weeks ago. More than half of young professionals say they would rather spend money today than save for retirement. It's not a surprising figure—in fact, it more or less reaffirms our individual observations. But it's disturbing to me as a savings and loan executive, a parent and a member of the older generation."

In The Skokie Federalist, young adults can find tips on how they can curb spending and increase savings. It's suggested that young adults establish automatic payroll deductions. This can be done through an arrangement with an employer, or an individual can contact a bank or savings and loan to deduct savings from a checking account.

For young adults, proper planning now can help insure that the good life continues. What are some of the tell-tale signs of poor money management?

In the quiz, Skokie Federal asks:

* Do you have some kind of monthly savings plan? A. no B. yes

* Do you spend more than 6% of your gross salary on vacations each year? A. yes B. no

* Do you have an IRA? A. no B. yes

* Do you make the maximum allowable annual contribution to your IRA? A. no B. yes

* Does more than 15% of your gross income go to paying debt other than mortgage payments? A. yes B. no

* Is your only tax deduction interest expense? A. yes B. no

* If you were laid-off tomorrow, could you live on savings for the next three months? A. no B. yes

Four or more A. answers mean you're in serious financial trouble. Three A. answers mean you need to change your ways. And two A. answers mean you're teetering on the edge of faulty financial practices.

Preventive dentistry aids seniors to maintain health

"As our general population grows older people are realizing the benefits of preventive dentistry to help maintain their overall health and appearance" states Dr. David A. Kanarek. "Patients want to look better, feel better and chew better!" Since prevention has considerably diminished not only the loss of teeth but also the repair of teeth, patients are more conscious of their appearance. The demand is high for cosmetic dentistry services such as bonded porcelain veneers or tooth colored resins to natural teeth. Research into better materials is ongoing. Just last week the National Institute for Dental Research, in conjunction with the Bureau of Standards, announced the development of a new glass-filled restorative material.

Dr. David A. Kanarek

However, despite the considerable advances in materials technology, periodontal disease, which is a gum and bone disease, is still the major cause of tooth loss in this country. According to the American Dental Association, 57% of the population over the age of 45 and 64% of those over the age of 65 have some stage of this disease process. If not detected early and treated, periodontal disease may cause the bone supporting the teeth to be destroyed and may ultimately result in the loss of teeth.

Prevention starts with good oral hygiene and regular dental checkups, which should include, in conjunction with a professional cleaning of the teeth, a thorough examination not only of the teeth but of the gums and other soft tissues of the mouth. Remember, prevention is not expensive, neglect is!

Located in the Elm Professional Building in Skokie, at 8424 Skokie Blvd., Dr. Kanarek treats children and adults in his preventive oriented family dental practice. A graduate of Loyola University Dental School in 1974, Dr. Kanarek has been practicing in Skokie for the past ten years.

Bethany Methodist provides transportation for seniors

When Agnes Nelson is scheduled to visit her doctor - Eleazor Montemayor, M.D., a physician on the staff of Chicago's Bethany Methodist Hospital - she needn't worry about transportation. Thanks to a unique new joint program - developed by Bethany Methodist Hospital, 5025 N. Paulina st., and the American Red Cross - elderly or handicapped patients are eligible for free transportation to the hospital.

"This service is especially valuable to our Home Health patients," explained Terri Keohane, R.N., director of the program. "These include homebound patients who are recovering from an illness or surgery and those who are physically disabled."

"The Bethany Methodist Home Health Care Program serves the needs of homebound patients in the security and comfort of their own homes," she explained. "Registered nurses and therapists provide treatment under the supervision of a physician."

Services provided by Home Health Care include: nursing care, physical therapy, social work services, occupational therapy, speech therapy, diabetic instruction, oncology nursing, and medical equipment instruction.

"The addition of the van to our list of comprehensive services, enables Home Health Care to truly aid people who wish to remain independent in their own homes," Ms. Keohane said.

The American Red Cross is providing the van and Bethany Methodist the driver. Door-to-door transportation services are available to patients of Bethany Methodist Home Health Care and to patients of Bethany Methodist physicians Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Agnes Nelson, a patient of the Bethany Methodist Home Health program, is escorted by employee Pedro Rivera as she leaves the special van for an appointment with her doctor.

The free transportation for Mrs. Nelson and other elderly or handicapped patients is made possible through a unique joint program developed by Bethany Methodist Hospital and the American Red Cross.

between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Patients - other than those in the Home Health program - who are eligible to take advantage of the free lift-equipped van must meet certain criteria, including:

- 1) over the age of 60, or physically handicapped.
- 2) ambulatory. The patient must be able to get to and from pick-up points without the driver's assistance.
- 3) financially unable to provide their own transportation, or unable to pay for a taxicab or medicar.
- 4) traveling to and from non-emergency medical appointments.

Bethany Methodist Health Care System has specialized in caring for the medical and social service needs of older adults for 97 years. It's long-standing mission has been service to older adults, and its goal is helping them live independently in their own homes.

Regency Nursing Center observes 10th anniversary

The Regency Nursing Center, 6631 N. Milwaukee, celebrated its 10th anniversary of current ownership on May 1.

Under the new ownership, Regency has made changes and additions. Currently it is operating under the new name Regency Healthcare Center, and is offering home care as well as nursing home care.

The new philosophy of the center is to be open to the community as much as possible, and try to meet the special medical needs of the elderly. The nursing center facility is being used for community support groups, such as Alzheimer's support group on the last Wednesday evening of each month; Osteo-Arthritis support group on Thursday evenings; blood pressure and diabetes testing is offered every Tuesday morning.

The nursing center also offers physical therapy, speech therapy, occupational therapy, a full range of activities and social services, and a family support group.

Regency has also sponsored a Little League baseball team in Norwood Park, and looks forward to some of the residents attending the games.

The center is open daily and offers tours of the facility and welcomes any questions or concerns. Call 647-7444 for further information.

For better health, try Bethesda Hospital

If you are 50 or older, Bethesda Hospital's specialized Centers and health screenings may be just what the doctor ordered. Whether you are troubled by aches and pains, have difficulty with urinary incontinence, or simply want to make certain you are free of major illness, Bethesda, at 2451 W. Howard St., has a health program designed for you.

One example is Bethesda's Arthritis and Back Pain Center. Physicians, nurses and other health care professionals structure an arthritis management program and personalized therapy regimen with which both patient and family can live. One major goal of the therapy is to improve overall body conditioning. Patients may be assigned to physical therapy and be advised to make some lifestyle changes such as switching the type of shoes they wear or losing weight. When necessary, their physician will prescribe medication. Radiologists, orthopedic surgeons, neurologists, podiatrists, nurse practitioners, physical, occupational and speech therapists, social workers, dieticians, laboratory personnel, pharmacists, visiting nurses and rheumatologists diagnose, formulate and deliver therapy working closely with the patient in all aspects of treatment.

Another Center at Bethesda concentrates on ailments that few patients care to discuss: urinary incontinence. Urinary incontinence affects 10 to 12 million people of all ages nationwide. Its social and psychological aspects often are worse than the physical concerns. Chicago's first urinary continence center opened its doors at Bethesda less than a year ago. Since then many Chicagoans and suburbanites have had their incontinence managed, controlled or cured through the efforts of the Center's health care team - urologists, gynecologists, neurologists, nurses, social workers and psychiatrists.

People who are incontinent tend to isolate themselves because of embarrassment. Incontinence is the single biggest reason people are sent to nursing homes. Yet, with an accurate diagnosis and appropriate therapy, the majority of older people with incontinence problems can be helped. Those already in nursing homes also can benefit from proper evaluation, made through physical examinations, laboratory tests, neurological evaluations and medical histories. Treatment options may include: medication, behavior management techniques such as biofeedback, exercise, surgery to provide anatomical correction when necessary, prosthetic devices surgically implanted to help muscles control the flow of urine, absorbent underclothing and other inconspicuous personal items.

For people lucky enough to have few aches and pains and no difficulty with incontinence, Bethesda offers a variety of screenings to detect and eradicate health problems while they are manageable. The hospital provides free screenings for prostate cancer every month and free colo-rectal cancer screenings on a fairly regular basis.

Last year 86,000 men in the United States developed prostate cancer. Twenty-five thousand died, needlessly. To avoid such consequences, men 40 and over are advised to have a yearly prostate cancer screening.

The second most common form of cancer in both men and women, colo-rectal cancer, often is readily preventable, treatable and curable with early detection. Hidden (occult) blood in the stool, detectable through a simple screening, may indicate an early cancer, sometimes in the form of a polyp. A non-cancerous polyp may become cancerous if not removed. Removal is fairly routine. It can be done in conjunction with a flexible or rigid sigmoidoscopic examination, a five-minute procedure that allows a physician to look into the lower third of the large bowel. After age 50, colo-rectal screenings should be done regularly.

Another life-saving screening, a low radiation dosage mammogram, can detect breast cancers as small as an eighth of an inch in diameter. Treatment and removal of these early cancers often involves far less drastic measures than those necessary for more advanced cancers. The mammogram is quick - it takes less than 30 minutes - comfortable - it is done with the patient seated in a chair - and inexpensive - a recent cost reduction has brought the price for the examination and physician's consultation to a total of $60.

For more information about the Arthritis and Pain Center, the Urinary Continence and Dysfunction Center, prostate, colo-rectal or breast cancer screenings, call 761-6000.

Physicians and other health care professionals from Bethesda also are available to address your senior citizens club, church or civic club and other groups on a variety of topics from diet and exercise to coping with aging and chemical intolerances. To request a speaker, contact the hospital's marketing department, 761-6000.

ARTHRITIS SUFFERERS SHOULD HAVE THIS SERIOUS MEDICAL INFORMATION

There are four important facts you should know:

- 1 There are very effective therapies for your arthritis, back pain and other rheumatic disorders.
- 2 The key to your successful treatment is precise diagnosis.
- 3 The best way for you to obtain an accurate diagnosis and effective treatment is with a multi-disciplinary group of health care professionals under the direction of a skilled and experienced rheumatologist.
- 4 You deserve personal, individualized care.

"... the key to successful treatment is precise diagnosis."

At Bethesda Hospital's Arthritis and Back Pain Center, two of the Chicago area's most distinguished rheumatologists, Joel M. Levin, M.D. and Scott A. Kale, M.D. personally direct the diagnosis and treatment of each patient, utilizing the medical team approach. This personalized team treatment program continues through the duration of care.

Dr. Levin, Dr. Kale and their colleagues at Bethesda Hospital's Arthritis and Back Pain Center know that a treatment and therapy program specifically adjusted for each patient can control arthritic pain and allow the arthritis sufferer to improve his or her quality of life.

The facility is equipped to treat both inpatients and outpatients.

"Bethesda Hospital's Arthritis and Back Pain Center... (uses) the medical team approach."

Bethesda Hospital, at Howard Street and Western Avenue, for more than twenty-five years has built its reputation serving Chicago's North Side and northern suburbs.

For a diagnostic appointment or further information, please call 761-6000 and ask for The Arthritis and Back Pain Center.

Home care may be the answer

When Joyce Kernan of Park Ridge founded A-Abiding Care Nurse and Healthcare Service in early 1983, she thought most of her at-home care business would come from placing registered nurses with individual patients for specific medical care.

She soon discovered a completely different situation: a year later, Kernan says 75 percent of her case list consists of older patients who need general care and companionship—far more than they need medical attention.

"I thought I would place 90 percent registered nurses and 10 percent nurses aides," or companions. It's turned out to be exactly the opposite," she said in a recent interview.

Kernan, who has been a nurse for 25 years, and began her service "because I saw a real need for good, at-home care alternatives in this community," sees at least one major reason for that pattern. Most senior citizens who require home care, she said, are lonely people who need respect, and companionship, plus a minimum of basic needs.

Older patients often live with their children, or are living alone, but being cared for by their families, according to Kernan, and it is those family members who eventually opt for professional home care.

"A working wife or husband can't stay home from work to care for their ailing spouse, for instance, or children can't take time from work to give all the care to their parents, so they come to us," she said.

A-Abiding care policies require a close match between client and care-giver, to help avoid the "29-nurses-in-20 weeks" syndrome. That doesn't help that older person get the kind of dignified care he or she deserves," Kernan said.

And dignity is an important byword for successful home care, she emphasized. Most patients who need home care, are fairly independent, at least mobile enough that they can help their aides prepare meals or clean house.

Nurses aides from A-Abiding care cost $8 and hour, $9 per hour if the aide is certified. Twenty-four-hour care by a nurses aide costs $90 per day. Kernan would not specify costs for a registered nurse, but said "it's much higher than $8 or $9 a day."

If families do decide on home care, she added, it is important for them to maintain an ongoing information relationship with the care service, "so that if things change with the patient, or if some problem develops you won't be scared to go and say 'there's a problem we need fixed.' After all, it is your relative."

For more information on A-Abiding Care, people can call 698-CARE.

More than 250 seniors enjoy the good life at the North Shore, where something exciting happens every day. Residents can choose from a book review, a sing-along, arts and crafts, aerobic classes, a concert, body dynamics, drama classes, choir practice, a travelogue, a first run movie (shown in the hotel's own movie theater with oversized screen) and a visit from a tax expert.

"Summer brings the use of the North Shore's own 'Epcot Center,'" says Social Director Mary Lou Gary. "That's what we call our landscaped garden with the heated swimming pool, umbrella tables and comfortable spots to sun."

Nutrition is carefully watched by diet experts who plan three appetizing and healthful meals a day. Meals are served in the brightest, sunniest room imaginable, every table decorated with fresh flowers.

Lawrence House offers variety of programs

Lawrence House, 1020 W. Lawrence Ave., is a senior citizen hotel with a social program which rivals a college campus!

Start with "Taste of Lawrence House", a gourmet taste and tall luncheon, go on to a Valentine's Sweetheart Party, a talent show, Easter bonnet parade, collectible exhibit, carnival, garden party, art fair, balloon lift off, Oktoberfest...and that's just a sampling of the fun that's in store for Lawrence House senior adults in 1986.

Lawrence House is a retirement facility which is home to 375 seniors. Private studio apartments with kitchens are priced modestly and include weekly maid service. Each resident has the opportunity to participate in a variety of daily programs ranging from book reviews to musical presentations to workshops on how to dress for cold weather.

"But it's the committees which are the backbone of our hotel," says Administrator Mary Lou Stenzl, geriatric specialist with degrees from Notre Dame and Bob Jones Universities. "Our residents are given the opportunity to join in the decision making regarding policy and program."

Committees such as Public Affairs, Safety Advocacy, Welcoming, Games, Medical Affairs, Friendship, House and Grounds and Resals Shop all meet regularly and plan inventive and interesting program. Residents may participate in as many committees as they choose. But there's time to relax at Lawrence House, also. A well-stocked library offers a quiet spot and, in summer, an adjacent park, built especially for residents, is landscaped, lush and lovely.

Covenant Village of Northbrook... A continuing care retirement community

One hundred years ago this spring, the Evangelical Covenant Church opened its first retirement center on Foster Avenue in Chicago, adjacent to Swedish Covenant Hospital.

Today, the Covenant Retirement Communities have grown to include 12 campuses located in California, Washington, Minnesota, Illinois, Connecticut, and Florida. The long history of experience behind this organization has contributed to the high quality of life currently enjoyed in the Covenant Retirement Communities.

One of the larger retirement communities is situated in the lovely Chicago suburb of Northbrook. The campus features beautifully landscaped grounds, offering a range of lifestyles for the senior adult.

Quad and duplex homes provide a completely independent lifestyle without the cares and worries of homes and ground maintenance. Residential apartments are available for the active senior who no longer wants the responsibility of meal preparation and enjoys sharing mealtime in a beautiful central dining room with other retirees.

Assisted living is provided for the individual who has some difficulty coping in a completely independent setting, and yet does not require any skilled nursing care.

Finally, skilled nursing care is available for temporary convalescent care or for on-going nursing needs.

This range of lifestyles all located on one campus is defined as the Continuing Care Retirement Community.

Unlike senior rental housing, the Continuing Care Retirement Community guarantees serving the present and future needs of the senior adult. In the early years of retirement community living, one enjoys a totally independent lifestyle.

However, in later retirement years as unexpected medical concerns may develop, the Continuing Care Retirement Community assures the availability of quality medical care without the fear of separation from one's spouse or close friends.

Family members or one's spouse are relieved of the burden of providing day-to-day care. When one chooses a Continuing Care Retirement Community, one has made his or her own decision as to how future care will be provided, should it be needed.

Consideration of a retirement community requires a great deal of careful thought and early planning. One important consideration is the proven financial stability of a sponsoring organization.

Covenant Village of Northbrook welcomes your inquiries and visits.

Glen Oaks resident artists will display paintings, drawings, ceramics, furniture and jewelry on July 25.

This event is hosted by Ruth Cross, graduate certificate in art therapy with a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts from the Art Institute in Chicago. She has studied with one of the country's leading art therapists, Don Seiden, at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center. Ruth's therapeutic assessments of each individual's problem helps release anxieties and regenerate their personalities.

Mildred Worr, 82, is one of the many resident artists who derive great satisfaction and a sense of pride in the creation and display of her "art imagery."

Hors d'oeuvres and wine will be served.

Exhibit hours are from 5 to 8 p.m. Families, friends, and the surrounding community are invited to attend.

Seniors can find friends, services at Maine Township senior walking course

Maine Township offers a wide variety of services to senior citizens with programs ranging from a senior citizens social group to an information and referral service.

Nearly 20,000 senior citizens live in Maine Township - one of the largest senior citizen populations in suburban Cook County.

Maine Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson said, "Senior citizens are a valued part of our community, and we attempt to provide a wide variety of services to meet their needs. We are constantly reassessing those needs so that we can better serve them."

The Maine Township Seniors provides fun and companionship to senior citizens who are township residents. The group sponsors free monthly bingo games. It also offers frequent day trips, theater outings and monthly luncheons at moderate rates. New this year will be two mini-vacations - a river boat cruise along the Mississippi in July and a fall colors trip to Door County, Wisconsin, in September.

To receive a membership application and obtain reservation information, contact Sue Neuschel, director of senior services, at 297-2510.

Another key program provided by Maine Township is an information and referral clearinghouse to help seniors obtain information on housing, medical services, social and mental health services, nutrition, home-delivered meals, employment, energy assistance, social activities and a variety of other services. Senior citizens can obtain information through this service by calling Grayce Duffy at the Maine Township Town Hall, 297-2510.

Maine Township senior citizens also can add to their buying power through a senior citizen discount program initiated by the township in cooperation with the Des Plaines, Morton Grove and Park Ridge Chamber of Commerce. For information on obtaining cards, call the township offices at 297-2510.

Medical program for seniors

Swedish Covenant Hospital, 5145 N. California Ave., is offering Medcall, a new service to the elderly and others with serious health problems who live alone.

"Medcall allows people to call for help in a medical emergency even when they can't get to a telephone," according to Barbara Goode, ACSW, Swedish Covenant Hospital manager of the elderly and others with serious health problems who live alone.

"The service enables many older persons to keep living independently and eases the worries of those who care about them. Convalescents can also use the program as long as they need it."

The Medcall user wears a small pendant-style transmitter and simply pushes a button in case of trouble. A trained operator immediately calls family members, friends, or the emergency medical service the user has designated to come and render aid.

For information or to order Medcall, contact Barbara Goode, 878-8200, ext. 5284.

Parkside Human Services Corporation recently dedicated a walking course for senior citizens at Centennial Park, 100 S. Western in Park Ridge. Pictured are Mary Hester-Tone, president, Board of Commissioners, Park Ridge Park District; Theresa Grodsky, director, Senior Center; Ellen Browne, director, Older Adult Community Services; Mae Becker, participant, Park Ridge; Tom Higgins, director, Parkside Sport and Fitness; Sports Medicine Centers; and Steve Meyer, director, Parks and Recreation, Park Ridge Park District.

The walking course has seven warm-up breathing, stretching, and flexibility exercises preparing participants for "The Walk." The Walk emphasizes the key requirement for fitness: walking at a pace vigorous enough to improve and maintain cardiovascular conditioning. After The Walk, participants take their pulse and evaluate their condition. They then proceed to cool-down phase, to prepare them for normal activity.

All of the exercises are explained on multi-colored game signs, and seniors can exercise alone or in a group.

Parkside Human Services Corporation is a member of the Lutheran General Health Care System.

Legal Aid program will be held on Thursday, July 17 beginning at 10 a.m. One half hour individual appointments are available. Reservations are necessary and can be made by calling 967-6100, ext. 376.

New publication for adults with aging parents

As technology helps more Americans live into their 80's, the problem of their healthcare assumes increasing urgency. At this very moment, in every corner of the country, nearly 80% of all care given to the elderly comes from family members.

A recent study of 739 employees at the Travelers Corp. in Hartford, Conn. revealed that 28% spent an average of 10.2 hours a week caring for elderly relatives and friends. Eight percent devoted 35 hours a week to such care, and some spent as much as 80 hours a week. Although the study focused only on the corporation's employees, the results were consistent with those of previous studies.

Despite this growing involvement of family members in caring for aging parents, scant advice and support exists for this group of people referred to as "caregivers."

To remedy this, the Bethany Methodist Health Care System of Chicago recently launched a newsletter called ADVICE for Adults with Aging Parents or a Dependent Spouse which contains articles by prominent physicians, social workers, and others who specialize in family studies and gerontology. It is published every other month, six times a year.

An example of the material in ADVICE is the article in the current issue titled Caregivers and Care Managers: A Helpful Partnership by Lorraine Lidoff and Brina B. Melemed. It points out that the caregiver often does not realize that negative or mixed feelings are normal and even justified by the situation.

Sometimes caregivers even feel guilty about having such feelings. The authors describe how a sensitive care manager - a professional, such as a social worker or nurse can help caregivers accept their negative feelings, while at the same time, help alleviate the stress and reinforce what is positive in the caregiving experience.

To introduce ADVICE, Bethany Methodist Health Care System will mail an introductory issue free. A regular annual subscription to ADVICE costs $3 (Call the Advice Subscription Center, 271-4800, or write to ADVICE, Bethany Methodist Health Care System, 5025 N. Paulina st., Chicago 60640.)

Bethany Methodist Health Care System has specialized in caring for the medical and social service needs of older adults for 37 years. The organization's long-standing mission has been service to older adults, and its goal is helping them live independently in their own homes.

Bethany Methodist Health Care System includes Bethany Methodist Hospital, a 220-bed community hospital at 5025 N. Paulina st., Chicago; Bethany Methodist Home, a 269-room retirement complex at 4950 N. Ashland, Chicago; and Bethany Methodist Terrace, a 265-bed skilled and intermediate long term health care facility in Morton Grove.

Oakton automotive program

Automotive service training is available at Oakton Community College for students starting at the ground level, those with some experience in the field and for mechanics who wish to upgrade their skills.

The Automotive Service Technology curriculum was started last fall as a complete in-house training program of intensive study and skill development in preparation for employment in the automotive field.

Students from the Automotive Service Technology program often find employment at dealers, repair shops, tire stores and department store service centers, Shinsako said.

The Automotive Service Excellence curriculum provides a means whereby automobile mechanics working in the trade can upgrade their skills while preparing for certification examinations offered by the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence. This curriculum awards a certificate of proficiency upon successful completion of the four courses ("Engine Repair and Tune-up," "Transmissions," "Brakes and Front Suspension" and "Electrical Systems and Air Conditioning").

Food fit for a king at King Richard's Faire

King Richard and Queen Katherine reign over a theatrical reenactment of village life in 16th Century Europe at King Richard's Faire.

The art of cooking has never been more revered than it was in 16th Century Europe.

The Renaissance kitchen was an artist's studio where experimentation and self-expression reigned. Fanciful feasts flourished. Renaissance tables overflowed with hearty fare like venison, capon, oysters and veal.

For those with a "hunger" for the past, the gastronomical splendors of the Renaissance are re-created for seven weekends each summer at King Richard's Faire in Bristol, Wisconsin. Opening July 4 through August 17, the Faire flourishes with Renaissance fare to whet any appetite - from the robust to the refined.

Whether munching on a barbequed turkey leg while cheering for mounted knights engaged in a feverish joust, sipping sassafras as a soothsayer tells your fortune, or devouring a delicious chocolate-dipped strawberry before joining in a reeling romp with a band of gypsies, feasting on fanciful food is a fun part of re-living the Renaissance.

Quail on a stick, char-grilled rabbit, fish chowder and funnel cakes are ready and waiting for the adventuresome. More familiar fare like cornish hen, tempura, ribs, baked potatoes, cheese balls and chicken wings add to the bounty of tempting tidbits. And any sweet tooth can be satisfied with a delectable selection of popovers, cookies, trifles and cakes.

The culinary creations of King Richard's Faire strike a delicious compromise between adhering to the character of Renaissance cookery and pampering the modern-day palate. Game, fowl and fish, roasted or grilled, are staples of the Faire menu as they were in the Renaissance. But at King Richard's Faire, guests can also enjoy their veal, venison, beef, port, quail or rabbit tempered with cheese and aromatic spices inside a flaky pastry - a bit of a departure from the boiled mutton pie of the 16th Century kitchen.

The Faire's confectionary chefs take full advantage of some of the fruits first cultivated in England during the Renaissance. Strawberries, for instance, find their way into crepes, cakes and chocolate-covered delicacies. Historically, a long list of fruits and vegetables including apricots, raspberries, carrots, lettuce and cucumbers, were first introduced to Europe by 16th Century seafarers. Tea, coffee and tobacco were also introduced during the period.

Utensils were a rarity in the Renaissance. Forks did not come into use until early in the 17th Century. And diners carried their own knives, rather than relying on the host to provide one. But guests to King Richard's Faire need not worry, most of the culinary delights are designed to be eaten with the hands.

Modern-day guests can get a "taste" of the Renaissance every weekend from July 4 through August 17. Located just west of I-94 near the Illinois/Wisconsin state line, Faire hours are from 10:30 a.m. through 7 p.m. Full admission is $9.25. Tickets for children two through twelve are $4.

Niles school enjoys picnic

The Niles Elementary South School student body, faculty, staff, parent volunteers and many parents with toddlers in tow came to enjoy the annual school picnic Wednesday, June 4. The day full of festivities, games and food started at 10 a.m. with the picnic participants walking from the school to the Bunker Hill picnic area in the Cook County Forest Preserve.

Mr. Gates, the district's P.E. instructor, planned and directed the morning team games. In the afternoon, the students tested their skills in a variety of physical prowess events which were supervised by teachers and parents. One of the most popular events of the afternoon was the dunk tank, in which several teachers and parents agreed to "sit" while students threw balls to hit the target and drench the biter.

Activities were interspersed with snacktimes, lunch and a watermelon break. The school cooks, under the direction of Mrs. LoVerde, cafeteria manager, prepared the snacks, salads and treats. The main course at lunch was hamburgers purchased from McDonald's, delivered by Mrs. Lyons, McDonald's manager and a Niles parent.

As a memento of the day, each student received an originally designed button with the student's school picture and "Murphic 86" on it. The annual picnic has been named the "Murphic" in honor of Mr. George Murphy, former principal, who began the traditional outing for the Niles South School.

The Niles PTA contributed funds and time to help the teachers, staff and students to make this a marvelous picnic day.

"Fight O'Hare Noise" Kustra bills'

Marcus criticizes incumbent for "No" liquor vote

Sheldon Marcus, a candidate for the Illinois House of Representatives, today criticized state Rep. Cal Sutker (D-56) for voting against measures that would discourage teenage drinking.

"Rep. Sutker clearly doesn't have the best interests of our young people at heart," Marcus said. "Anyone can rent a hotel or motel room, let minors drink there and then be legally blameless if those kids kill, or are killed, in a car accident. The bills he voted against would remedy this. Fortunately, the other legislators realized this."

SB1576 and 1577, sponsored by Sen. Bob Kustra (R-28) and Rep. Margaret Parcels (R-37) hold anyone over 21 liable if they knowingly rent a hotel or motel room so minors can drink. SB 1577 makes this a class C misdemeanor, punishable by up to 30 days in jail and/or a $500 fine. The House overwhelmingly

Kustra bills' curb teen drinking parties

Two bills sponsored by Sen. Bob Kustra (R-28) to curb teen drinking parties have been assigned to a House committee for study after receiving approval of the Illinois Senate.

Aimed at discouraging adults from renting hotel or motel rooms for teenagers' beer bashes and other drinking parties, the bills (SB 1576-77) would make the adults liable for damages done by young people attending the parties and for their injuries or deaths if they are involved in vehicle accidents.

"Motel drinking parties have become very popular with high school students, and they contribute to the high rate of alcoholism and to alcohol-related traffic accidents and highway deaths of teenagers," Kustra said. "Unfortunately, parents who are trying to shift responsibility by setting up these parties outside their homes are adding to the problem."

Kustra said his legislation would close a loophole in present dram shop laws, which make it illegal to allow a person below age 18 to leave a liquor-serving establishment intoxicated but do not cover persons gathering in private rooms of hotels and motels.

In addition, it would increase penalties for adults who allow home drinking parties for minors or rent rooms for them. Violators would be punishable by jail sentence of up to 30 days and fines of up to $500.

"It is sad that we need legislation to force parents to halt 'keggers' and other drinking parties, when they are the ones who ought to be the most concerned about young people who endanger their health and their lives when they participate," Kustra said.

Fundraiser to honor Marcus

A fundraiser reception honoring Sheldon Marcus, Republican candidate for state representative, is set for Thursday, July 24, at the Fireside Inn, 9101 N. Waukegan rd., Morton Grove, from 6-8:30 p.m. according to Raymond Fleischer, Finance Chairman, Citizens for Marcus Committee. Tickets are $50 per person.

The reception is being chaired by Senator Bob Kustra and Representative Penny Pullen.

For ticket reservations people are being asked to call 966-7671 or write Citizens for Marcus, P.O. Box 1986, Morton Grove 60053.

Marcus is challenging Cal Sutker for the 56th District Illinois House seat in November.

O'Grady challenges Elrod to public debates

Former Chicago Police Superintendent Jim O'Grady today urged Sheriff Richard Elrod to "stop hiding from the facts," as O'Grady challenged Elrod to a series of public debates.

"The people of Cook County will not be fooled by Elrod's attempts to wallpaper over his mistakes," O'Grady said. "The voters deserve a thorough presentation of the facts through a series of public debates."

O'Grady, who is placing his 32-year career in professional law enforcement before Cook County voters, explained he is proposing a series of debates because of the complexity of the Sheriff's office.

"The public deserves to know why Cook County is the only county in Illinois that does not have a disaster plan, even though Mr. Elrod was charged with responsibility for creating a plan six years ago."

Gottlieb criticizes slash defense spending

Republican Congressional candidate George Gottlieb, 11th district, today sharply criticized the liberal House leadership for proposing a budget package that would slash defense spending below the current level, saying it would threaten the United States' national defense security.

Gottlieb said, "The Democrats controlling the House are proposing an irresponsible and unrealistic defense budget. Their plan would cut our support for defense from what we're now providing by $15 billion after accounting for inflation."

"Compared with what we provided for defense in fiscal year 1985, this plan slashes our

Capparelli supports tighter horse racing laws

The Illinois House has voted overwhelmingly in support of strong measures designed to ensure the honesty and integrity of the horse racing industry.

House Bill 3518, supported by State Representative Ralph Capparelli (D-Chicago) would enact a number of tough new laws designed to end alleged illegal drug use and corruption within the horse racing arena.

"Today the Illinois House has stood strongly in favor of horse racing reform," said Capparelli. "By a vote of 106 to 3 we have stated our desire to restore the integrity of this multi-million dollar industry and to let citizens know that horse racing in Illinois will be clean, honest and above board."

The legislation approved today was introduced as a result of the Illinois House Special Horse Racing Investigative Committee. "The current problems go far beyond drug abuse. Not only have illegal drugs been discovered in horses, but pari-mutual clerks have been found deliberately underpaying winnings, stealing money from race tracks, swi-

ON PEAK ALERT DAYS, IT PAYS TO USE LESS.

On Peak Alert days the extra-high demand for electricity tests our ability to provide all the power you need.

If we announce a Peak Alert, it means our thrifty coal and nuclear generators can't do the job alone. We have to use less efficient generators, too. And all of us pay that extra expense on our electric bills.

You can lower your energy bills this summer. Every summer day, and especially when we've issued a Peak Alert, adopt some of these energy-saving, money-saving habits:

If you stay indoors:

- Set your air conditioner at 78° or higher.
- Keep your curtains closed so the sun's hot rays will stay outside.
- Wash your clothes and run your dishwasher on a cool day.
- Use all large appliances before 9 AM or after 10 PM.
- Open your refrigerator only when necessary.

Switch to outdoor activities:

- Head to the beach or find a refreshing pool.
- Dry your clothes outdoors.
- Cook on charcoal instead of the stove. Or don't cook at all—try a light sandwich or salads.

Ask for our free Waste Watcher's Guide. It lists 101 things you can do to save energy every day. For your copy, write: Energy Information, P.O. Box 767, Chicago, IL 60690. And in the meantime, remember that when there's a Peak Alert, it pays to use less.

Hospital volunteers know no age barrier

At 88, Ida Sider is a three-time great-grandmother, maintains her own Rogers Park apartment and checks up on the well being of her "elderly" neighbor. After a lifetime of raising a family, working at various jobs and doing for others, Sider craves more of the same. She volunteers every Tuesday at Bethesda Hospital, 2451 W. Howard in Chicago.

Allen Zendel (pictured), 71, retired several years ago because of a severe heart condition. The Northtown resident now volunteers "24 hours a day, seven days a week," for the Holocaust Memorial Foundation of Illinois, 4255 Main St. in Skokie. On Thursdays, he helps with bookkeeping at Bethesda Hospital.

Lee Bobren (pictured), worked as deputy village clerk of Skokie before retiring. Mother of two adult children and grandmother of two, she still has time to travel, play and volunteer. She and a group of women who call themselves "The Tuesday Girls," spend one morning a week helping out at Bethesda Hospital.

Bethesda's director of volunteers, Judith Shunick, (pictured), coordinates, trains and oversees the 25 women and five men, all of retirement age, who do clerical or patient contact work at least four hours weekly at the hospital. The volunteers gave 5000 hours of their time to Bethesda last year. Some have been coming to the hospital regularly for nearly 20 years.

Sider comes to Bethesda, she explains, because "I had time on my hands. Why waste it? I wanted to help people, and they tell me I'm doing a very good job, so I'm happy. Patients seem to like me; they say prayers for me and bless me."

"When I was very young, I wanted to be a nurse," said Sider. "But I had to change my plans. My mother was only 45 years old when she became ill with cancer. I was a teenager. For a whole year I took care of her. When she died, I raised my three-year-old brother.

"At Bethesda, I finally have a chance to work with nurses and patients. I get to the hospital in time to feed the patients breakfast. Sometimes they won't eat for anyone else. I'll try to pacify them, especially the older ones who don't speak much English."

"I had a patient who was dehydrated and hysterical. I calmed her down, spoke to her in Jewish, and managed to get 27 ounces into her for lunch. The nurses couldn't do that in a whole week."

"Last week I fed a male patient who was so pleased, he sang me a Jewish song. When a patient tells me I'm one of the most beautiful things that comes into his room, I feel good. I know I've accomplished something."

Sider enjoys talking about her family at least as much as she likes volunteering. Her son, Will Sider, 65, a medical officer in the United States Coast Guard during World War II, own Carter Jewelers on State and Madison in Chicago. One grandson, a radiologist at Northwestern Memorial Hospital, has realized the family's medical ambitions. He calls his grandmother an inspiration and holds her responsible for the family's closeness and success.

Sider's devotion to volunteering inspired her children who worked with blind students after high school hours. Sider became involved in helping blind girls learn the rudiments of childcare and blind boys learn the basics of working with tools.

At Christmas, Sider helped feed hungry Chicagoans with contributions from the South Water Street Market. She tagged on Poppy Day, fought leukemia by canning, and during World War II worked diligently three times a week for three years with the Anshe Shalom Women's Red Cross Unit. After the war, as chair of the Anshe Shalom Women's Service Group, she collected enough funds to furnish a solarium and purchase a roll away piano for the Vaughan General Hospital in Hines, Illinois.

"Volunteering and good deeds. Maybe that's why God is good to me and has let me live so long," says Sider.

Allen Zendel, like Sider, has devoted a lifetime to volunteer work. He has been a volunteer at the Ark on Lawrence Avenue in Chicago, Edgewater and Bethesda Hospitals. He calls himself "liaison and ambassador" of the Holocaust Memorial Foundation.

He is a "survivor of the final solution," and explains, "Dante's Inferno is a comedy compared to the Holocaust."

Born in Sosnowiec, Poland, Zendel attended an agricultural college in Israel after graduating high school in Europe. He was summoned back by family to Poland in 1938 when his mother had a heart attack. "Happily she died," he said, "otherwise the Nazis would have murdered her."

Zendel lived through Auschwitz. After the war he worked with various refugee resettlement organizations and committed himself to keeping alive the memory of those who went up in the gray smoke of the camp incinerators. "For them, for posterity, I'm working," he stresses. His Chicago Foundation is dedicated to educating the public on what he describes as the true historical events of the Holocaust. Its fundamental premise—there are lessons to be learned of universal importance, lessons from the Holocaust for all people. He invites the public to

Finance Committee Chairman, Frank Biga made a motion to publish a notice that a tentative budget be available for inspection July 17 through August 16. A hearing would be held August 16th at the main library at 9 a.m. Although the document can be altered during this time, Vice President Dimand voted no. The motion carried 5 to 1.

Dimand feels although the budget is well balanced there is not enough money to operate. Biga added, "we do not have enough money to do what we wish could be done."

Dimand stated the library has advanced in terms of books and technology. "We have made some tremendous steps," Dimand said. But "if you don't have the staff all else is nothing."

Dimand stressed the importance of having a place in the budget to hire the qualified people needed to keep Niles Library first rate. Biga agreed the increase in staff is something that needs to be worked on but when looking at a budget you have to make sure that if you hire people one year, you can keep them the next year. Biga said, "You can always cut back on book purchases," but with staff, "we need to be sure we have the money to keep the people we hire."

President Harry Prestine commented, "We need to find a balance between books and salary."

The library received a $250 grant from Northern Illinois Gas Company. The money will be used to purchase books on energy and other natural resources. The Friends of the Library have had an extra $141 from their continuing book sale.

MG Park... According to Park Director Dave Huber, the district would need to levy $267,500 in order to cover present expenses. If this levy passes, the tax payers will pay an additional $14.98 with the higher tax base.

Huber explained the referendum is necessary for the survival of the park district and to properly run and maintain its programs and facilities. In reaching the necessary $267,500, Huber broke down the expenses as follows: $100,000 for the Community Center; $22,000 for the pool; $15,000 for new and/or repaired playground equipment; $20,000 for vehicles; $30,000 for additional staff; and $80,500 in capital improvements. If this procedure is followed, stated Huber, additional fees would not have to be charged.

According to President Nick Bozmos, the amount of money which is to be levied is up to the board to decide. The board felt that $267,500 is all that is needed to keep the district running effectively. However, if the occasion does arise that more money is needed, the alternatives offer visit the museum, library and special exhibits, or to volunteer their time by calling 677-4040.

Bobren, more typical of the Bethesda volunteers, explains how and why she chose the hospital. "I wanted to give my services. But I don't drive. Coming to Bethesda from Skokie is very convenient. I take one bus."

"After I retired, I thought I never wanted to do office work again. But now I'm doing that, along with everything else. Working here is very cozy. The people are like family."

"The key thing is to keep busy, whether it's taking a one-day know what the assessed valuation is for the district and the equalizer figure has not been determined by the state. This will determine the levy."

Commissioner Mary Marusek noted tax bills will not be mailed out by the county until mid-August. "This poses a problem. We are spending money for park operations and we don't know how much tax revenue the park district will receive," she said.

"Revenue won't start coming in until September."

In other business, Hughes reported that Park District Risk Management Association (PDRMA) will require waivers on high risk programs starting Jan. 1.

High risk activities would include softball, hockey, soccer, football and other sports that could cause possible injuries, he said.

Commissioner Dan Kosiba asked whether signing waivers would "stand up in court" in the event of liability claim.

Board attorney Gabriel Berrafato explained the courts had upheld waivers in several cases. "However, if negligence on the part of the park district is involved, the liability burden would fall on us," he said. "On the positive side...waivers could reduce nuisance claims."

Hughes said there was no choice but to adopt a waiver ordinance before the requirement goes into effect in January. "It's either that or withdraw our membership in PDRMA."

In other reports and action, Park Board president Jim Pieriski reported there will be recognition of 5-10 year part-time employees at the August board meeting.

During a plea to accept the proposed referendum, Huber explained if the referendum fails, the following programs will have to be cut back or eliminated: close one pool, operate the community center only during evening hours, triple the action center fees, or eliminate the program.

He said if additional staff is cut to balance the budget, special events, such as the Fourth of July festivities, the Halloween Parade and celebration, the Fall Festival and other programs, will have to be eliminated.

Finally, if additional maintenance personnel are cut, Huber stressed the joint cooperation with school District 67 and 70 would be discontinued on maintaining the grounds. Also, senior citizens set up and clean up would be eliminated and the cost for senior transportation would triple.

With the acceptance of the referendum, according to Huber, all of these programs would not have to be cut or fees tripled.

outing, going on a Caribbean cruise or volunteering at Bethesda. It's important to do things for others, not only for yourself."

"Most of our volunteers say, 'It's important for me to get out, to be around people.' It's a smart approach to retirement," explains Shunick. "The volunteers are tremendously loyal, come even in terrible weather. I'm convinced they would rise out of a grave to come. If they say they'll do something, they do it. They always are on time and tend to be really nice people. It's not the idle rich kind of thing," Shunick adds.

In the fifties my kids were among the first to be immunized from polio and before the end of the decade we were talking about "Sputnik" and space flight and landing on the moon which came during the next ten years.

It is difficult to sense the changes surrounding you when you're living through an era.

Back in the thirties, television was being displayed at the 1939 New York World's Fair. And radio waves were first used during the beginning of World War II to detect objects which were a distance away. It enhanced the British and American fleets' successes in their early submarine battles with the Germans. Today, "Radar" is just another technical part of our everyday vocabulary.

Scientists tell us the speed of change today is many-fold what it had been in the past.

The computer age seems to have been created just when the need to record this knowledge explosion began to overwhelm us. It might be said this need may have resulted in the speeding up of the computer age.

In the past fifty years we've traveled from horse-drawn milk wagons and ten-mile-an-hour streetcars to the jet age. Flyers have already exceeded twice the speed of sound. No longer does your family doctor make housecalls and the corner grocer no longer delivers your groceries. Instead, your family doctor's son is now destroying kidney stones at Lutheran General Hospital with sonar waves which prevent the need of an operation. Your family grocer has now automated and computerized his business to give you more, quicker, more efficient service and hopefully better products which should enhance your well-being.

This hyped-up, souped-up era we're living in is the most fantastic in history. Because we're here, and not yet reading about it in the history books, we find it difficult to understand its significance. On the other hand, this same statement can be made for every era. But the acceleration of the pace is what is significant. Yet, today's rapid advances into the future may seem like yesterday's horse-drawn era when 21st century historians look back upon our times.

Some scientists believe the unraveling of the secrets to the genetic code may enable researchers to produce genetic information about fetuses in the womb. By constructing a sort of a gene map, the future child's career choice, diet, lifestyle and even spouses choice might be foretold.

Scientists believe these DNA breakthroughs may be of Overlook Road and would receive $4.6 million in tax revenue. District 34 (which currently has the area) would get the portion north of Overlook and would receive $1.5 million in tax revenue, according to a spokesman from the District 67 office.

The decision is subject to approval by both districts and public hearings will be conducted by the committee on the issues, the spokesman said.

A public hearing is scheduled at District 34 on July 29 and one on August 19 at District 67, probably at Golf Jr. High School.

District 67 parents were protesting the reopening of the hearing after the Committee on May 20 closed the issue at a public hearing, saying the action deprived the people of Morton Grove and Niles the right to vote on the issue of property detachment (only Glenview residents have the right to vote under current interpretation of state regulations).

Protesters also claimed it deprived citizens the right of free speech because of the committee's decision not to hear any speakers after they heard District 34. Another complaint was the opportunity of some families to leave the district and take millions of tax dollars at the educational expense of the remaining 550 District 67 students.

The North Cook Reorganization Committee on May 20 voted to no longer consider the issue of detachment of territory from District 67. The loss of this territory could severely damage the quality of the current educational program in District 67 and disenfranchise 5,000 voters in Morton Grove and Niles, according to school officials.

However, at the request of School District 34, the Committee voted to again consider the issue after a just and legal decision had been rendered.

Three options were under consideration by the Committee: (1) Calling for a trade of territories between Districts 34 and 67, in which the latter would lose a residential area north of Golf Rd. and gain a commercial area formerly within the district, but gained by District 64 over the objections of the Cook County Regional Board of Trustees; (2) Loss of a residential area with no reciprocity by District 34. The cost to District 67 would be approximately $5,800,000 in EAV and 45 students; (3) District 67 would lose $25,000,000 of EAV and 45 students which was recognized as unfair and unjust by both school boards.

All these options were opposed by the people of District 67 because Morton Grove and Niles could not vote on the issue. District 67 would be faced with a loss of property which would be detrimental to the children's education; the possibility of higher taxes and a disenfranchisement of their right to voice their opinion in the ballot box.

In introducing Mayor Smith, Harold Binstein, chairman of the dinner and Skokie business man, described Skokie as one of the finest integrated villages in the United States. It has assimilated people of many different backgrounds, he added. He credited Smith with standing up for the people of Skokie, particularly for the 7000 Holocaust survivors who live there, when the Nazis threatened to march on the village in 1978.

Erna Gans, Foundation officer, described Smith as a man who "has deep roots, steeped in justice. When the stormy winds came and blew, they could not uproot him." She added that remembrance was the foundation of her group's existence. "We remember in order to preserve history, to protect our common humanity. By recalling our suffering, we strive to end interference. We meet together, work together, plan together for a better future for everyone."

Albert J. Smith, a Skokie resident for 30 years, and now serving his sixth term as Mayor of the Village of Skokie, also emphasized the value of remembering. "The Holocaust is what can happen when people let hate, bigotry and prejudice take over. At Yad Vashem (the Israeli Holocaust Memorial and Museum) my wife, Angie, and I saw a photograph of a Jewish man, imprisoned in a concentration camp, lice-ridden, filthy, dejected. What did the picture mean? To Angie it said: 'There is a whole world made up of millions of people. Doesn't anybody care?' To me it said: 'Oh, dear God, let there be a witness. That's why we are here.'"

"The Foundation helps others learn what happened to people a few short years ago. The foundation tells us, 'Yes, you are your brother's keeper, responsible for what happens to your fellow man.'"

Allen Zendel, Northtown resident, survivor of Auschwitz and vice president of the Foundation elaborated: "The Foundation is dedicated to educating, recording and remembering. We educate through universities, colleges, public and private schools, and teach educators how to teach about the Holocaust. We record testimony of survivors and soldiers who liberated the camps to fill the gaps that exist in the historical records of the Holocaust. We seek to continue to grow through our museum exhibits and archives, and to provide a service throughout the Midwest. We want to make certain that a tragedy such as the Holocaust can never, never happen again."

Dr. Leonard Kramish, master of ceremonies at the dinner, and development director of the City of Hope, also received an award for his many hours of volunteer work for the Foundation.
