Maine Township eyes takeover of Ballard school

Maine Township officials last week began a search for an expert to study the financial impact of taking over the old Ballard High School for the $1.1-million price offered by Illinois State University. Other offers have been made by a Naperville School official and the village of Niles, which has move-in dates for the new school. A final decision will be made by the Naperville Board of Education and the Village of Niles Board of Trustees.

But Maine Township's search for a consultant may be short-lived. A minority of Naperville Township officials are reportedly opposed to a move that would require a major commitment of funds. The consultant's role would be to determine the feasibility of the plan and to recommend a strategy for proceeding.

Your Kids Have Friends In High Places.

When kids are away at school and check no one around, there ought to be someone nearby who cares. We do, we care. And we’re nearby.

Sheehy, 14, and her friend Ramon Martinez, 13, are among the many children who have been involved in the community's efforts to establish more neighborhood clubs. They have been active members of the local Boys and Girls Club, the YMCA, and several scouts organizations.

However, despite the efforts of the club, many children still feel isolated and unconnected to their community. This can lead to feelings of anxiety and depression. It is important for parents and guardians to be involved in their child’s life and to provide them with a safe and supportive environment. We encourage parents to take an active role in their child’s life and to make sure they are involved in the community.

We believe that by providing children with a sense of belonging and a sense of purpose, we can help them develop into healthy, well-adjusted adults.
