Major renovation set for Dempster underpass

Additional improvements at the Dempster-Milwaukee intersection, including the underpass will delay construction work until at least 1989, according to Keith Peck, Niles director of public services. "The revised project design has to receive approval from the federal government," Peck said. "Improvement plans will then have to be drawn up, and bids let out for the work...so I'm anticipating that actual construction will not begin for several years." The 1984 proposal called for widening, resurfacing, channelization, traffic signal modernization and repairs to the retaining wall of the underpass. Since that time, it has been found the retaining walls have been falling and as a result, the interchange has been revised to include total structure and retaining wall

"Grannies on the Go"

"Grannies on the Go" is a new dimension to Parkside Human Services Corporation's intergenerational programming. Bringing the old and young together can be an exciting and spontaneous learning experience. Because Parkside's children's and adult day care programs are housed in the same facilities in Des Plaines and Glenview, there is an opportunity for the seniors and children to be together. "Grannies on the Go" provides the seniors a chance to visit the infants and children in their day care rooms. They can play games, sing songs, or hold and feed the babies. Pictured is Genevieve Ciske, of Park Ridge, reading a story to the toddlers and preschoolers from the day care center. For more information about "Grannies on the Go" please call Gwynne George-Chovanec at 696-5573.

Village Finance Director resigns

Niles Finance Director Jeff Bell, who has served the village for seven years, has resigned to join the Lombard-based Lexington Health Care Organization, a facility that provides housing for the elderly. The resignation will take effect on May 29. Bell started in the finance department in 1980 as assistant to Father Charles Kohlerman who left as head of the department in 1984. Bell was named director of finance by Village Manager Jack Hodge who was hired in October 1983. Bell said he was leaving Niles with mixed emotions. "I'm excited about a new challenge, but will miss the people and staff I've worked with through the years," he said. He added he has enjoyed his job as finance director and hopes he has contributed something to the village. "This is a great town and offers a lot to its residents. I have

Jeff Bell regrets leaving, but like the old saying... "nothing last forever." Mayor Nicholas Blase noted that Bell joined the finance department as a young man... "it was his first job"... and he has Continued on Page 39

Senior Defensive Driving Course

Drivers over 55 tend to have more automobile accidents per mile driven than their younger counterparts, those aged 30 to 54, according to the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Older drivers across the country are not letting these facts assist them to the passenger seat. Through an older drivers course offered through the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), they are looking their limitations straight in the eye and learning how they can overcome them.

The program is called "55 Alive/Mature Driving", the only defensive driving course designed specifically for the mature citizen. Anyone age 50 and over can attend the eight hour class (taught in two sessions) and emerge with a certificate from AARP and one from the office of the Secretary of State of Illinois. The certificate from the State entitles you to a discount on your liability insurance premium. Peanut Butter Bran Muffins Appeal To The Whole Family

The benefits of a fiber-rich diet are well known. What is not so well known is how to increase fiber consumption without drastically changing eating habits.

"We've found that including Nabisco's 100% Bran in a variety of foods not only adds fiber, it also gives a delicious, nutty taste and texture," says Faye Egan of the Nabisco test kitchens.

The all-time favorite bran creation, of course, is bran muffins. To make fiber-rich muffins that appeal to the whole family, try this recipe from the Nabisco test kitchens for Peanut Butter Bran Muffins.

Peanut Butter Bran Muffins
Makes 1 dozen

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 1/2 cups Nabisco 100% Bran | 1 tablespoon baking powder |
| 1 1/2 cups milk | 1/4 cup margarine or butter blend, melted |
| 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter | 1 egg, beaten |
| 1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour | 1/4 cup salted peanuts, chopped |
| 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar | Jelly or preserves, optional |

In medium bowl, combine bran and milk; let stand 5 minutes. Stir in peanut butter. In large bowl, combine flour, brown sugar and baking powder; stir in bran mixture, margarine and egg just until blended. Fill 12 greased 2 1/2-inch muffin-pan cups. Sprinkle with peanuts; press lightly into batter.

Bake at 400°F for 20 to 25 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Remove from pan; cool slightly. Serve muffins with jelly or preserves if desired.

If you've developed your own bran recipes, you could win the $10,000 first prize or one of three $1,000 prizes in Nabisco's 100% Bran Recipe Contest.

To enter, look for an entry form on the package at your supermarket. Or, type or print your name, address, telephone number and recipe (which must use at least 1/2 cup Nabisco 100% Bran). Indicate which category you're entering: appetizers and snacks; muffins and quick breads; main dishes; or desserts and cookies.

Send your entry along with a Nabisco 100% Bran proof-of-purchase to: Make It 100% Better Recipe Contest, P.O. Box 1830, East Hanover, N.J. 07936.

Entries must be received by June 30, 1987. Void where prohibited.

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

Here's a hard-to-believe baseball fact... The Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox and Chicago Cubs have now each played an AMAZING number of years without winning a World Series... The Red Sox haven't won the World Series since 1918; the White Sox haven't won it since 1917; and the Cubs haven't won the World Series in all the years since 1908... That seems hard to believe—but it's true.

Here's a fact that defies odds... First baseman Tony Perez had 19 homers, 32 doubles, 6 triples and 91 runs batted in as a big league baseball player in 1976—and then the next season, in 1977, he, incredibly, EXACTLY duplicated each of those totals with, again, 19 homers, 32 doubles, 6 triples and 91 runs batted in for the season... The odds on that are better than a million-to-one.

Although you always see the home team bat last in pro baseball, could a home team bat first if they wanted to?... Actually, before 1960 the home team had a choice, but now the rules say that home teams must always bat last.

... If you mention this ad after your deal is consummated (but before delivery), Jennings Chevrolet will deduct $50 from the purchase price of your new or used car. One deduction per customer. One deduction per transaction.

Interesting Facts From John Jennings

Oddly enough, the largest lake in the world is the Caspian Sea, in Asia. Experts say the Caspian Sea was mis-named. It's NOT a sea, but a lake, and is the biggest lake on earth.

When Uncle Sam was originally drawn in the early 1800s, he was pictured without a beard, and with dark hair. The beard and white hair were added in about 1870.

The U.S. Navy hymn, "Anchors Aweigh", was written by Midshipman Alfred Miles and Lt. Charles Zimmerman NOT for any event at sea, but for the Army-Navy football game of 1906.

There are approximately 50 million dogs in the U.S., or almost one dog for every 4 people.

The average life of $1 bills is only about 18 months.

And, here's another interesting fact...

Free fishing days scheduled June 5-8

Illinois will host its third annual Free Fishing Days celebration June 5-8, according to Mark Frech, Director of the Department of Conservation.

"During those four days, residents and non-residents alike will be permitted to fish throughout the state of Illinois without having a fishing license or salmon stamp," Director Frech said. "In addition, we're hopeful that communities, park districts, clubs and organizations throughout the state will sponsor special events at lakes and streams to get new anglers on the water."

The director said the Department of Conservation would lend its support to the various special events by contributing educational materials and fishing equipment being donated by manufacturers from throughout the country.

Frech said that any community or organization wishing to host a special celebration during "Free Fishing Days" should contact: Department of Conservation, Office of Public Information, Attn.: Ron Allen, 524 S. Second St., Springfield, IL 62706, telephone: (217) 782-7454.

"We're proud of the sport fisheries opportunities we have in Illinois, and this is one way we can show it off to non-anglers, persons who traditionally fish out-of-state and to non-residents," said Frech.

Tennis Camp registration

Registration begins May 15 for the 1987 Niles West Tennis Camp at the Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, and Skokie Park District offices. The program is co-sponsored by the Park Districts of Lincolnwood, Skokie, and Morton Grove, and boasts top flight professional tennis instruction at low park district rates.

The Niles West Tennis Camp offers two four week sessions of tennis instruction, June 15 to July 10, and July 13 to August 7. There are 3 day per week and 5 day per week programs available. The tennis camp is in its seventh year and is directed by U.S.P.T.A. certified tennis professional and camp founder Frank Sacks. Sacks was Head Boys Tennis Coach at Niles West from 1981 to 1986 and Head Girls Tennis Coach at Niles North from 1983 to 1985. In 1982 and 1986, Sacks' Niles West Indians won the only I.H.S.A. Sectional tennis titles in the school's history.

Many varsity and ranked tournament tennis players got their start at this camp. However, the purpose of the program according to Sacks is "to give youngsters a solid foundation and to spark a love for tennis - the sport of a lifetime." Those seeking more information may call Sacks at 929-3169. Participants may sign up at either the Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, or Skokie Park District offices.

Alcohol tax passage vital to abuse programs

Dear Editor:

As you well know, the combined efforts of the news media, community organizations, business groups and government in this city and throughout Illinois have greatly increased public awareness in the effort to combat alcoholism and other forms of drug abuse.

While the efforts are commendable, it has significantly increased the workload of many community based alcohol and drug treatment and prevention programs, like Council on Alcoholism. Funding has always been tight, but now services are stretched to the limits.

In an effort to solve this problem, the Illinois Alcoholism and Drug Dependence Association (IADDA), the state's leading treatment and prevention organization, is working for the passage of a modest increase in the state tax levied on the sale of alcoholic beverages. The increase would be phased in over a six year period and be specially earmarked for these treatment and prevention services.

Initially, the tax would mean that the price of a can of beer would go up 4 cents - a very small price to pay for a better tomorrow for our children and our families.

We urge you and your readers to support the efforts of IADDA and contact your legislators. Ask them to vote for either SB 1481, sponsored by Senator Robert Kustra or HB 2720, sponsored by Representative James Keane.

With this funding, the efforts to curb drunk driving, reduce teen drug use and continue public education can go forward.

Please help us secure this vital need for funding. It is such a small price to pay for a better tomorrow.

Sincerely,
Robert D. McGann, M.A., C.S.A.C.

Niles beautification should begin at home

Dear "Village of Niles",

What is becoming of the old "Oak School" property? When the facility was used as a school, the bushes were trimmed, the lawn was kept neat, and garbage dumpsters were never in sight. The police patrolled the area to keep cars from parking on Main st.

What have we got today? Our main problem is people parking their cars along Main st., sometimes barely leaving us enough room to back out of our driveways and blocking our view of oncoming traffic. These people leave our guests with no place to park! They stomp on our lawns and leave cigarette butts and candy and gum wrappers strewn across property. If the village couldn't provide an adequate parking lot, it shouldn't have rented the facility to organizations and a church that require numerous parking spaces.

Next, take a look at the property itself. What used to be grass is now a dandelion patch left to spread weeds to its neighboring lawns. Garbage dumpsters are in plain view on Ottawa ave. Several bushes, which once provided homes for skunks have never been replaced. The remaining bushes are overgrown. We are not asking for flowers or intricate landscaping here, but we are asking that the facility be kept neat and clean out of common courtesy for its neighbors. We've noticed that Niles pays very special attention to areas that are highly visible to the passing visitors: the police station, pool, administration building, and newly acquired land near St. Adalbert's cemetery (all which happen to be along the highly traveled Milwaukee ave.) unlike the Oak School facility.

We, therefore, suggest that the village discontinue the "home beautification contest" and use the money to upkeep its own grounds. Village of Niles, practice what you preach and don't help depreciate the value of your neighbors' homes.

State seeks names of centenarians

State Sen. Walter Dudyycz (R-Chicago) is asking 7th District residents for their help in identifying Illinoisans who are 100 years of age or older.

"The Illinois Department on Aging and the Governor's Office of Senior Involvement will be honoring the state's centenarians as part of National Centenarians Day on July 1," Dudyycz said.

"The Governor will be issuing a special proclamation and the centenarians we identify will receive certificates of recognition."

"It is estimated that more than 500 people in Illinois are 100 years of age or older," Dudyycz said. "We need to know who they are and where they live so they receive the special recognition they deserve."

Centenarians' names, addresses and dates of birth should be sent to Sen. Dudyycz's office, 5946 W. Lawrence ave., Chicago 60630 (777-0077) or to Jeanne Blackman, Office of Public Information and Advocacy, Illinois Department on Aging, Springfield 62701 (217) 785-9020.

Traffic safety hints

Motorcycle safety depends in a large part on the motorcyclist being seen by other motorists. If you ride a motorcycle, two of the best ways to help drivers see you are to ride in the center of the traffic lane and use your turn signals. Your headlight must be lighted whenever you ride the motorcycle.

Each traffic lane gives a motorcyclist three "mini-lanes" or four-foot-wide paths of travel. Although grease strips caused by droppings from other vehicles can take up two feet of the middle "mini-lane," you can ride to the left or right of the grease strip and still be within the center portion of the traffic lane.

Your two biggest dangers as a motorcycle rider are oncoming cars that turn left in front of you and cars on side streets that pull into your lane. Never count on "eye contact" as a sign that a driver has seen you and will yield the right of way. A driver can look right at you and fail to "see" you.

Turn signals not only tell others what you plan to do, but make you easier to spot. Use your turn signals whenever you turn or change lanes, even if you think no one else is around. The car you do not see is the one that will give you the most trouble.

Organ Donor Awareness Week

Help save a life by signing the organ donor card on the back of your drivers license. This is Organ Donor Awareness Week. According to the Illinois Transplant Society, there has been a dramatic increase in corneas, kidneys, bones and skin donated in 1987. Other organs and tissues now being successfully transplanted in Illinois are hearts, livers, pancreas, lungs and bone marrow.

The recent increase in organ donations is a direct result of a new law, effective Jan. 1, that requires hospital personnel to ask a deceased patient's next-of-kin to permit organ donation. The requests must be made in hospitals with 100 or more beds if the deceased has not signed an organ donor card or if there is no apparent opposition to the organ donation by the survivors.

Make your wishes known by signing a donor card, whether the one on the back of your drivers license or a separate Uniform Donor Card that is available from the Illinois Transplant Society. If you use your drivers license, simply sign on top of the laminate and indicate the organ(s) to be donated after death. Persons under age 18 must have a parent or guardian sign the donor card as one of two witnesses.

Approximately 200,000 people are waiting for some type of organ or tissue transplant in our country. Sign your organ card today and be prepared to give the gift of life.

Spring driving traffic safety hints

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar
Early spring showers can be hazardous for motorists who may not be aware that roads are most dangerous at the start of a rain. Surface oil and grease for a slick film that is not washed away until after 20 or 30 minutes of hard rain. Leaves also make roads slippery when it rains.

Hydroplaning, which can be caused by speeding and too little tire tread or pressure, occurs at about 35 miles per hour when tires begin to lose contact with the road surface. At speeds up to 35 mph, most tires "wipe" the road like a windshield wiper. However, as the speed increases, tires actually ride up on a thin layer of water like a set of water skis.

Partial hydroplaning begins on most automobiles at about 35 mph and increases with speed to about 55 mph when the tires may be completely up on water. If you start to skid at speeds less than 55 mph, you should be able to regain control by taking your foot off the accelerator and letting the car slow down. Steer in the direction you want the front of the car to go.

In a severe rainstorm, tires lose all contact with the road at 55 mph. As a result, no friction is available to brake, accelerate or corner, and a gust of wind, curve in the road or slight turn can throw your car into an uncontrollable skid. If this occurs, release the accelerator and ride out the skid.

Air Conditioning Season

We've only had a few days so far when there was a need to turn on our car air conditioners, but the hot summer is just around the corner. Most of us have at least tried the air conditioning, keeping our fingers crossed for cold air out of the vents. Surprise!! You've just felt air hotter than what's outside.

The air conditioning systems in the newer cars are as complex as the rest of the vehicle. Numerous changes have been made in their designs just to achieve the same results. The days of just adding a little freon are now a thing of the past.

One major change that has taken place is there is no longer a sight glass in the system. This was the little round glass window you checked to see if there were any air bubbles in the system. Adding freon until the bubbles disappeared was an easy operation.

Today's cars have what is known as a "critical charge" system. This means they were built to operate at a very specific amount of freon. If the system loses approximately one third of its freon, power is turned off to the compressor. In order to properly fill this type of system, all the freon remaining has to be discharged. Then a vacuum is formed throughout the entire system to disperse any condensation that may have formed. Last, but not least, the system is filled with a proper amount of freon for that vehicle.

A common cause of air conditioning failure is a build up of bugs and leaves on the condenser. The condenser is the large rectangular part behind the grill that looks like a radiator. Once a month while washing your car it's a good idea to use the garden hose on the condenser to clean it off. Never use a tool to pick off anything stuck to the condenser because it is very easy to puncture. The condenser needs to have air flow through it freely to perform its job. The less the air flow, the warmer the air you feel in the car.

Trying to fill the air conditioning system of your car yourself is one of the most dangerous things you can do. Some states have already outlawed the sale of small cans of freon in auto parts stores. The reason for this is there are two separate sets of air conditioning hoses and steel lines in the engine compartment. One section is known as the low side or suction side of the system. The other is the high side or discharge side. The hotter the temperature outside, the more pressure build-up there is on the high side. If freon was to be added to the high side, this high pressure would back up into the small can you are holding and the can would explode like a stick of dynamite. Many reports have been made of people losing fingers and possibly worse by trying to service their own air conditioning systems. Please leave this procedure to a trained professional.

A helpful hint we can pass along to those who have received their state emission testing papers is that the Skokie test center usually has a 1 1/2 to 2 hour wait, while the Prairie View test center is virtually empty. An added plus is that the short ride out to the Prairie View center just past the Marriott Lincolnshire is more than enough to warm up your engine sufficiently to help insure passing the test.

Yielding on road can prevent accidents

Defensive driving means not only watching for other vehicles but looking out for pedestrians in many situations. Even if you think you have the right-of-way, be prepared to yield to avoid an accident. Illinois traffic laws require drivers to yield:

1. When pedestrians are in a marked or unmarked crosswalk on the drivers' side of the road, and there are no traffic control signals. Slow down and stop, if necessary, before proceeding.
2. When making a right or left turn at an intersection, and when making a right or left turn on red after a complete stop.
3. After coming to a complete stop at a stop sign or flashing red signal at an intersection.
4. At traffic signals, even when the light is green, if pedestrians entered the crosswalk before the light changed.
5. When leaving or entering a street or highway from an alley, building, private road or driveway.
6. When approaching any blind, hearing impaired or physically handicapped person carrying a clearly visible white cane or accompanied by a support or guide dog. Persons operating motorized wheelchairs on a sidewalk or road are granted all rights of pedestrians.
7. When approaching vehicles or persons working in a clearly marked highway construction or maintenance area.

GREEN - THE FASHION COLOR FOR SPRING
 Thinking spring? Think green - fresh green grass, the crystal green in a tumbling tropical wave. Some of the world's most beautiful gemstones are aluring shades of green.
 The first green gemstone that may come to mind is the emerald. Most often seen in a rectangular step-cut, the emerald is used in a wide range of jewelry styles. Emeralds are most popular as center stones in rings, earrings and pendants and are especially beautiful when offset with diamonds.
 Another popular green gemstone is tourmaline. A relatively young stone in the history of gemology, tourmaline occurs in many shades of green from a pale lime green to a dark teal. Tourmaline is often faceted, dome-shaped, carved or made into beads. Because tourmaline is moderately priced, it has become one of today's more important fashion gemstones.
 Peridot, another green gem, ranges in color from yellow-green to the intense bright green of new grass to olive. Whether step-cut or fashioned as brilliant, peridots show off best in earrings, pins, necklaces or bracelets. Make a bold fashion statement by wearing a large carat peridot dangling from a heavy gold chain.
 So gear up for spring. Come in and see for yourself our refreshing selection of springtime gemstones. You'll know why green is one of this year's fashion colors of choice.

Shapely silhouettes news for fall brides

All-over lace, interesting details and more shapely silhouettes are just a small portion of the fashion news for fall brides, according to the National Bridal Market Fashion Show held at the Chicago Apparel Center, recently.

"As is often the case, the bridal industry reflects the trends in the ready-to-wear market," said Chicago Apparel Center Fashion Director Susan Glick. "For fall we'll see more of the hourglass silhouette and more shapely looks."

"There will be more of the princess-line gown too this year. And the narrow look is still with us but now the mermaid dress gets a pleum or overskirt," Glick said.

Other over-all trends, found in every segment of the show, include a great deal of focus on the hip. Sometimes it will be accented through draping, ruching or shirring. Other important details seen will be sequin and pearl appliques, cut-outs in the gowns and on the trains and back interest in the form of bows and deep V's. Although lace has always been a staple in the bridal industry, this fall entire gowns will be made of lace instead of using it primarily as an accent.

Other trends of particular interest seen at the fashion show were:

COLOR—The use of color for formal wedding gowns is becoming increasingly popular. Mint green, peach and pink are some of the colors being incorporated. "We're going to see more blushing pink brides," Glick said.

INFORMAL—This is a very growing area. The slightly older, more sophisticated woman getting married is looking for a more bridal-inspired, trendsetting dress. Just that was seen in tea-length, asymmetrical flounces, illusion necklines, side draping and drop waists.

VICTORIAN—The Victorian bride will always be with us. It is a more covered-up look with high necklines and long sleeves. The details come through the use of illusion necklines.

FANTASY—Fantasy becomes the news of the season with whimsical creations. Fabrics used include chiffon and organza with rhinestones and butterfly motifs as accents. Special treatments along with interesting details make this grouping particularly newsworthy as evidenced by the silk organza gown with a shirred long torso, embroidered fan appliques and detachable net skirt.

MEDIAVAL/RENAISSANCE—In the category of what to look for in the future, make a mental note of the Medieval/Renaissance influence. Some of this grouping's characteristics are: scalloped hemlines, Sabina necklines, basque bodices, embroidery and Elizabethan sleeves.

The National Bridal Market is held biannually at the Chicago Apparel Center and houses the largest concentration of bridal and related lines outside of New York City.

How to plan the perfect honeymoon

When planning your trip, start with a good travel agent. She can be a big help by arranging ground transportation, sightseeing tours, theater tickets and providing information about currency, passports, good restaurants and points of interest.

Whether you'll be enjoying country comforts or big city living, there are many considerations when choosing a place to stay.

- How far from the airport is it and how will you get there?
- Does the place you've chosen offer any special honeymoon packages?
- Are there sports facilities available that coincide with your interests?
- Be aware of what papers may be needed (passport, visa). Are immunizations needed?

Questions brides ask most

- Q. Who gives the clergyman his fee?
 A. The groom pays, but best man hands it over in plain white envelope before or after the ceremony.
- Q. May a house wedding be just as formal as a church wedding?
 A. Yes, although there are never as many attendants.
- Q. How can wedding gifts be displayed if a home reception isn't being held?
 A. Close friends may be invited to a tea or cocktail party several days before the wedding.
- Q. Are checks displayed with wedding presents?
 A. No, but they may be noted on a card.
- Q. Is it correct to use "and family" on invitation envelopes?
 A. No. Send separate invitations to adult sons and daughters. For small children address the outside envelope to their parents, write their first names on the inner envelope under their parents' names.
- Q. How should invitation be inserted in envelope?
 A. Invitation is folded with the wording outside and put in the inner envelope (which has no gum on flap) with the folded edge down. The inner envelope is then placed in the outer one facing the flap.
- Q. Are reception cards enclosed with invitations?
 A. Yes, and so are the reply cards and reply envelopes. The home address would be printed on reply envelopes.
- Q. Are identifying cards put with the presents on display?
 A. Not these days.
- Q. Are gifts ever brought to the reception?
 A: No.
- Q. Do ushers and best man stand in receiving line?
 A. No.
- Q. May guests be invited to a reception and not the wedding itself?
 A. Yes, when the ceremony is attended only by relatives and close friends.
- Q. Must invitations be engraved?
 A. They can be. However, simulated engraving is less expensive and just as satisfactory.

Bouquet And Boutonnieres

Early bridesmaids' bouquets were made of pungent herbs like thyme and garlic—not flowers. The smell was supposed to scare away any bad fairies eyeing the bridal party. Even the groom wore a few sprigs. Your groom, though, will sport white stephanotis in his lapel, or a flower from your bouquet. And you will carry the traditional flowers. Why not adopt another old idea? Tuck one non-flowering thing in your bridal bouquet to plant—maybe some myrtle or ivy.

PR resident receives makeup certification

Joy Rathe of Wheeling (who works in Park Ridge as Administrator of the Park Ridge Healthcare Center) has completed a training program in "Professional Makeup Techniques" developed by famed Hollywood makeup artist Michael Maron. This advanced-level program is offered exclusively by Shaklee Corporation.

Seminar participants receive training in analyzing face shapes and features, highlighting, contouring and color blending to enhance the natural beauty of every face. Graduates of the program employ techniques developed by Michael Maron and used with famous Hollywood celebrities including Carol Burnett and Lynn Redgrave. Michael Maron shows many of these celebrity makeovers on his best-selling gold videotape "Makeover Magic" and demonstrates how others can also learn these skills on a new videotape, "Professional Makeup Techniques," available only to seminar graduates.

Launched nationally in January of 1987, this sophisticated training seminar qualifies Ms. Rathe as a Professional Beauty Advisor certified by Michael Maron.

"It's exciting to see Beauty Advisors in all parts of the country learn to use my professional makeup techniques and pass them on to their customers," said Michael.

For information about a personal makeover or the training program in this area contact Joy Rathe at 537-5713 (evenings).

Men's bracelets more popular

Bracelets were once an indispensable part of every well-dressed man's attire, worn by everyone from King Tutankhamun to Shakespeare. Now that men are rediscovering their jewelry heritage, bracelets are back in a big way. Wrist chains with bold, interesting links are among the most popular styles. The identification bracelet, introduced by World War II G.I.s, continues in popularity. A modern variation is the heavy chain linked to equally bold letters spelling out a man's name or initials. New kinds of wrist action for men include cuff and bangle bracelets in shiny or textured finishes, as well as wire and clamp-on styles.

Father of the Bride

As they stroll proudly down the aisle his mind races to earlier years.

When she used to skirt her knees and he wiped away the tears.

Where did those tender days go, is she ready for a new stage of life?

And what about that cavalier young man, is he ready for a wife?

This time he'll give her up for good, not just a Saturday night.

He hopes that all her needs are met and that this bond of love is right.

There's so much that she'll have to learn when the ups and downs get rough.

Like patience and forgiveness and he hopes she'll have enough.

They're almost at the end of the aisle, it went by much too fast.

He needed hours more than this to fondly remember the past.

She's letting go of his arm now and the feeling tugs at his heart.

But he knows that even a husband's love will never replace his part.

He's done his best to let her grow and played the role of guide.

She'll be his daughter forever so today she can be the bride.

Helpful Hints for Brides-to-be Best wishes! Wedding days can bring happy memories that you may want to keep alive forever with photographs. How to choose the best photographer for your wedding? How should you prepare for a formal bridal portrait photo session? Here are some tips and suggestions from the experts that may help you look your very best in your wedding photographs, while saving you trouble and money.

- Proper planning is important, so get in touch with your prospective photographer, as soon as you have set your wedding date to discuss your wedding photographic coverage, both formal and informal. Make an appointment to visit his studio to see samples of his work and discuss the number of photographs, sizes of prints and other aspects which will determine the final cost.

- Schedule your formal bridal portrait as early as possible before your wedding. Your schedule will be less hectic then, so you will be more relaxed and able to look your best. It will be one less thing to worry about later.

- If you come to the studio for your bridal portrait, bring the same underclothes you will wear on your wedding day, as well as the shoes, gloves, necklace, earrings, etc.

- If friends or relatives recommend someone who has pleased them, and this person displays the seal of the Professional Photographers of America, you have double assurance. The symbol means that this photographer subscribes to the Code of Ethics for Wedding Photography. It designates a professional who will be sensitive to your needs and wishes and dedicated to pleasing you with the quality of his work.

- Your hairstyle should complement your wedding gown and headpiece. It should never be extreme or fussy. An extreme or elaborate hair style will draw attention away from your face and will date your portrait.

- No amount of makeup will substitute for plenty of rest. However, do make yourself up several times until you achieve the natural look you want in your color portrait. Eye makeup is a must when you sit for your portrait because eyes without it all but vanish.

Make arrangements for flowers for bridal bouquet, going away corsage, boutonnières for best man and ushers, and mothers' corsages. Pick up wedding rings, check engraving. Arrange lodging for out-of-town relatives and ushers.

Select bridal gift and gifts for attendants. Get legal, medical and religious documents for the wedding in order. Check that ushers have ordered their attire.

Two Weeks Before

Go with fiancée to get marriage license. Organize bachelor dinner with best man. Double check honeymoon reservations. Make sure to arrange transportation from the reception to wherever you are planning to leave on your honeymoon. Move belongings to new home.

AT&T's Skokie facility for sale

American Telephone & Telegraph Company is selling its 1,300,000 square foot headquarters and manufacturing facility at 5555 Touhy Avenue in Skokie, Illinois, according to Howard G. "Blackie" Krafsur, Principal of Bennett & Kahnweiler Incorporated, which has been named exclusive marketing agent for the property.

Krafsur, who heads up the Bennett & Kahnweiler sales team, noted that the property is highly suitable for redevelopment as offices, retailing, or a combination of the two. "The location," he said, "is on 62 acres of prime real estate, offering highly visible frontage on Touhy Avenue. It is a half-mile west of the Edens Expressway. Approximately two-thirds of the property is in Skokie with the western one-third section in Niles.

Kevin Kete, Senior Associate at Bennett & Kahnweiler and sales team member, said, "We've had interest from some developers who would raze the entire property and do some kind of commercial construction, while others have seen residual value in the existing bricks and mortar and want to demolish only part of the building and retrofit the remainder. A few have proposed redeveloping the plant as a multi-tenant industrial complex, but frankly, the highest and best use of the property at this time does not appear to be solely industrial."

of the Bennett & Kahnweiler team, said, "The building, constructed in phases from 1958 through 1961, also offers a medical department with an operating room, a 200-seat auditorium, and cafeterias with a total seating capacity of nearly 600. Although it's 1960's construction, the building is a marvel in terms of its structural integrity and maintenance, with amenities that probably cannot be reproduced today because of the cost."

Golf Mill'ing Around The Mall

by Linda Zachow

Greetings from GOLF MILL, a place for the practical and the fun! April's Home Improvement Show emphasized the practical and for the do-it-yourselfers and home improvement buffs, it would have been fun if the size of the crowd was any indication.

SHOPSMITH, INC. put on an amazing demonstration of their MARK V System, an economical and space-saving piece of wood-working equipment that performs five basic functions from which you can make anything from toys to furniture. Computerized sewing machines, fireplaces that can be installed anywhere, closet organizers, and glass patio rooms were only a few of the many products and services displayed.

GOLF MILL is a place where the vendors' desire is to emphasize the enjoyable aspects of shopping. It is also a place where many stores carry products solely dedicated to the lighter side of life.

A new store that embodies this philosophy is CANARY AND THE ELEPHANT (quite an unusual name). Victoria Perakis, manager, and Julie Emerson, district superintendent, were on hand to explain their name, coined by the founder, who observed people always like to buy big things for little prices.

CANARY AND THE ELEPHANT is a newcomer to the mall and their enthusiasm is at high pitch. The store is a joyous profusion of inexpensive, cute, decorative, and colorful baubles, trinkets, toys, and knickknacks. Julie Emerson told me, "We want people to come in and have a good time looking, touching, and playing with the merchandise." This is one place you'll never feel like a bull in a china closet. Julie pointed out the adorable collection of little wind-up toys in the front (including miniature chattering false teeth) and shared some comical anecdotes about groups of adults who spend a long time playing with these toys. For that inexpensive treat for your child or the child in you, visit CANARY AND THE ELEPHANT.

Inside THIS LITTLE PIGGY, owned by Joellen Schiller and Gail Weirbhemer, is a sea of socks, and not just any socks - these are podiatric works of art! Joellen and Gail go to New York six or seven times a year on buying excursions, pound the pavement, and bring back the most unique, eye-catching, and stylish footwear to be found anywhere on this planet.

Their appliqued socks are beautiful enough for framing with scenes of lions under palm trees, ballerinas in lace tutus, ducks, and cats. There's glitter and glamor, sequin and rhinestone socks, lace trimmed sweat socks for the fancy sports enthusiast, and darling watermelon and strawberry print styles.

THIS LITTLE PIGGY also features brand name collections of colored textured nylons by Evan Picone and Ann Klein casual socks. When you're looking for something special to complement your shoes and outfit, don't miss this shop. But beware! Your socks may end up being the real focal point of your wardrobe.

If you're looking for lingerie that's daring, playful, frilly, satiny, silky, and fun, FREDERICK'S OF HOLLYWOOD is the place to shop or browse. I spoke with Joy Jacobs, manager, who defines FREDERICK'S apparel in two words - "femininity personified."

Joy has been involved with fashion for a long time as a model, dancer, retail apparel representative, and personal shopping coordinator. Both Joy and Paula Taylor, super employee, want their customers to feel comfortable browsing and leave feeling beautiful. Paula told me, "It's nice to deal with women who walk in with low self-esteem, feeling dowdy, and watch them walk out with a smile on their face."

Besides frilly nightwear, FREDERICK'S features a variety of unusual and humorous items that make great gifts for the bride and groom, that special person in your life, or yourself. They also carry fine quality foundations and undergarments.

Til next time - see you at the mall.

Free allergy program at Holy Family

If springtime heralds the beginning of your annual ritual of sneezing, wheezing and coughing because of allergies, make plans to attend "Ease Your Allergies," a free program sponsored by Holy Family Hospital. The program will be held on Thursday, May 21 from 7:30-9 p.m. at the hospital, located at the corner of Golf and River rds. in Des Plaines.

Allergist Sueilyn Rossman, M.D., a member of Holy Family Hospital's Medical/Dental Staff and President of the Illinois Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology, will present information on the symptoms, causes, testing, and treatments for allergies. She will also discuss a variety of ways that allergy sufferers can control their environment.

Although we commonly think of allergies in the springtime because of the airborne pollen from trees, allergies are also common at other times of the year. "In late spring and early summer, pollinating grasses cause the trouble, and in late summer and fall, over 14 million people are affected by ragweed pollen, the cause of hayfever," said Dr. Rossman. In the late fall, the most common allergy villain is mold. "Although mold can be found in moist areas, it is common everywhere, even in hot, dry climates. There seems to be more people with allergy problems related to mold recently because of the flooding in our community last fall," she said.

Food allergies also affect many people. "Symptoms of food allergies may include stomach pains, gastroenteritis and diarrhea, but may also include skin rashes and respiratory problems," explained Dr. Rossman.

Our average patient loses over 85 pounds.

200,000 people have participated in The OPTIFAST® Program of weight loss. Studies have shown that up to 80% of OPTIFAST® treated patients may lose a minimum of 40 pounds. In patients who lose more than this amount, the average loss is 85 pounds.*

But even more encouraging is the fact that in some people, long-term weight maintenance - the most important part of obesity treatment - is accomplished in The OPTIFAST Program.

By comparison, 5-10% of those who undertake conventional diets lose 40 pounds. And, with few exceptions, they regain the weight they have lost.

Why is The OPTIFAST Program different? The doctors who administer the program realize that obesity is a disease. They have developed a four-stage supplemented fasting program.

Throughout the program, you receive unequalled personal support. Perhaps more importantly, you receive unequalled medical support. If you are more than 30% or 50 pounds overweight, please call 761-6000 and receive details about The OPTIFAST Program.

Three generations of women visit Las Vegas

by Rochelle M. Baum

Three generations of women in my family, my 76 year old mother, Jean; my college age daughter, Michelle; and I went to Las Vegas for four days this month. I was reluctant at first because I love natural scenery and thought Las Vegas had none. But Michelle kept prodding me. My mother had been to Las Vegas three times before and longed to go back. The prospect of three generations of women doing our thing together was the deciding factor.

After researching the best buys in accommodations, we picked the Tropicana Hotel, which recently underwent a $70 million dollar renovation. It's now called the "Island of Las Vegas", with a tropical setting. For $25 I joined the Trop One Club. The club provides a badge guaranteeing no waits in any lines in the hotel; a coupon book with discounts for buffet meals, the Follies, gambling, drinks, golf and many other amenities, including a gift of a carry-on suitcase. In addition, the Trop One staff will make reservations for you at other shows on the Strip. Best of all, there are special room rates for Trop One members. It's a great incentive for frequent visitors and all for a call to the Tropicana requesting an application form that must be returned before you arrive.

We had a beautifully furnished room in the new tower with a great view of the Strip, and we liked being on a non-smoking floor. There is a lot of walking even within the hotels, and the staff was very accommodating, providing us with a wheel chair for my mother and giving immediate attention to any request.

For entertainment, we enjoyed the world famous Follies Bergere in Tropicana's Tiffany Theater, a great show for $12.95 plus tax per person. The price includes two drinks. And as Trop One club members, we bought one Follies ticket and got one free.

On another night, we went to the Riviera Hotel's La Cage starring Frank Marino. The female impersonators are a laugh a minute. Marino, impersonating Joan Rivers, is the MC and his cohorts parody Liza Minnelli, Judy Garland, Barbra Streisand, Donna Summer, Tina Turner, and many other superstars, performing so realistically you think those stars are there in person. This show is an unbelievable value at $9.50 per person, with two drinks. My mother, Michelle, and I loved the show.

If you come only to gamble, there's no need to rent a car. We were surprised and delighted by the wonderful scenery that is so close to Las Vegas and within such an easy drive. We rented a four door Pontiac Sunbird from Holiday Payless, again looking for the best value, for $23 a day with unlimited mileage (we used a coupon in the Las Vegas visitor), and in three days drove 450 miles enjoying the sights.

The Valley of Fire on State Route 169 is a spectacular state park that takes its name from the red sandstone that appears to be set on fire by the sun's rays. Many of the cliffs are covered with petroglyphs that predate the birth of Christ. We were so excited to see clearly the writing of another civilization.

The drive to Hoover Dam is also pleasant and provides an interesting view of the Mojave Desert. Hoover Dam is a tribute to man's capabilities to adopt nature to useful enterprises.

You will never go hungry in Las Vegas. On the contrary, be prepared to gain a few pounds. The Sunday brunch at Caesars Palace was $9 and a gourmet's delight. We also had a $9 quality dinner buffet at Caesars and felt it was a better buy than some of the so called bagain meals for $4 or $5 which provide quantity only.

The Tropicana has a swim-up blackjack table in the indoor pool which was great fun because the blackjack moved at a more leisurely pace, giving us the opportunity to learn the game. This is helpful for most of us who are not professional gamblers. We concluded after four days that for us the slot machines were a waste of money. Most professional gamblers agree that in blackjack, there is some strategy involved, giving you at least some chance of winning.

After visiting many hotels on the Strip, we found the Tropicana's casino better lighted and ventilated than any other and not claustrophobic.

The tropical island pool was beautiful and we even found some time to relax in the sun. Waterfalls and flamingos add to the island spirit. We were lucky to have 70° weather. One morning we used a Trop One two-for-one coupon for a pleasant breakfast at the Tropicana Golf Course club house across the street from the hotel.

Just before we left for the airport, we drove to the Ethel M Chocolate factory, a fun place to visit and try out free samples. The factory grounds have a beautiful cactus garden which is open free to the public and features over 350 species of cactus, succulents and Strip and a nice diversion. Michelle bought a small cactus for $3.50 which they packaged for travel.

It was a relaxing, fun filled four days for three generations of women in our family, and we'll always remember this time together. In fact, we're talking about a return visit!

The drive to Hoover Dam is also pleasant and provides an interesting view of the Mojave Desert. Hoover Dam is a tribute to man's capabilities to adopt nature to useful enterprises.

You will never go hungry in Las Vegas. On the contrary, be prepared to gain a few pounds. The Sunday brunch at Caesars Palace was $9 and a gourmet's delight. We also had a $9 quality dinner buffet at Caesars and felt it was a better buy than some of the so called bagain meals for $4 or $5 which provide quantity only.

The Tropicana has a swim-up blackjack table in the indoor pool which was great fun because the blackjack moved at a more leisurely pace, giving us the opportunity to learn the game. This is helpful for most of us who are not professional gamblers. We concluded after four days that for us the slot machines were a waste of money. Most professional gamblers agree that in blackjack, there is some strategy involved, giving you at least some chance of winning.

After visiting many hotels on the Strip, we found the Tropicana's casino better lighted and ventilated than any other and not claustrophobic.

The tropical island pool was beautiful and we even found some time to relax in the sun. Waterfalls and flamingos add to the island spirit. We were lucky to have 70° weather. One morning we used a Trop One two-for-one coupon for a pleasant breakfast at the Tropicana Golf Course club house across the street from the hotel.

Just before we left for the airport, we drove to the Ethel M Chocolate factory, a fun place to visit and try out free samples. The factory grounds have a beautiful cactus garden which is open free to the public and features over 350 species of cactus, succulents and Strip and a nice diversion. Michelle bought a small cactus for $3.50 which they packaged for travel.

It was a relaxing, fun filled four days for three generations of women in our family, and we'll always remember this time together. In fact, we're talking about a return visit!

Corporate Cookies: The perfect solution

As all marketing directors and sales managers know, today's promotional market is glutted with an endless stream of products and services to help sales people acquire and maintain customers. The challenge in selecting promotions is not only to find an item that works, but to make sure that customers feel "special" for receiving a gift, without being made uncomfortable or obligated by too much attention.

Corporate Cookies are the perfect solution. They provide a personalized, unique way to say "thank-you" to customers, without having to wait for the traditional Christmas "blitz" to acknowledge customers' continued support.

The Corporate Cookies programs are flexible and inexpensive. Each box of Corporate Cookies contains a sealed tray of attractively displayed gourmet cookies that change with each month. The boxes are sturdy, self-mailers containing die cuts for a sales person's own business card or any other additional material you wish to include.

Corporate Cookies are baked at the Lamb's Farm, a residential facility for developmentally disabled adults. The Lamb's Farm is famous for its restaurant, bakery, pet shop and other specialty stores.

Corporate Cookies are an easy promotional tool to use because of the distribution options available. Companies may also provide Corporate Cookies with a list of customers' and business cards to be enclosed in the boxes. Corporate Cookies will then prepare the boxes, print mailing labels and ship the cookies via UPS. As an alternative, quantities of cookie boxes can be provided to the company to handle distribution through its own sales people.

Corporate Cookies promotional programs are now commencing for 1987. For more information call (312) C-O-O-K-I-E-S.

Regina spring concert

The Chamber Singers and Swing Chorale will be featured. Acting students will pantomime "Peter and the Wolf," which will be played by Regina's Orchestra. Admission is free.

Variety Club Celebrity Ball

The 20th Annual Variety Club Celebrity Ball pulled out all the stops at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, to rival as Chicago's top social event of the season for opulence, attendance and class. The star-studded, glamorous society soiree netted more than $150,000 for the Variety Club-Karyn Kupcinet Center at Little City. The 800 guests, at $500 a couple, black-tie gala, were treated to a celebrity procession that boasted more than 50 local TV, radio and newspaper notables led by the King and Queen of Hearts—marketing genius Lee Flaherty and actress Emma Samms, Fallon on the TV series, "The Colbys". Sharing the spotlight with the royal couple were Shirley Jones, who sang medleys from her hit movies, including "Carousel" and "Oklahoma"; comedian Marty Ingels and Chicago's favorite Jimmy Damon and dancing to the music of Stanley Paul and his orchestra.

Israeli singing star to perform

Israeli singing star Ruthi Navon will perform in Chicago on June 10 at 7:45 p.m. at Pick-Steiger Concert Hall, Northwestern University, 1977 Sheridan rd. in Evanston. This unforgettable evening of entertainment for women and girls is sponsored by Shifra and Puah and N'Shei Chabad. Ruthi Navon began her career in the Israel Army Entertainment Troupe where she quickly became one of Israel's top young singing stars. She has performed around the world in musicals, concerts and on television. The daughter of an Israeli diplomat, Navon performs in English, French, Italian and Spanish as well as in Hebrew. Her profoundly expressive voice and improvisatory technique make Ruthi Navon one of the top female singers working today.

Tickets may be purchased from Shifra and Puah c/o Bracha Rivkin, 6326 N. Richmond, Chicago 60659 - 743-0197 or at these stores: Selig's Kosher Delicatessen, 209 Skokie Valley rd., Highland Park; Rosenblum's Hebrew Book Store, 2906 W. Devon, Chicago; or Chicago Hebrew Bookstore, 2942 W. Devon, Chicago.

General admission is $10 in advance, $5 for students and senior citizens. All contributions are tax deductible. Shifra and Puah assists new mothers and their families during the joyous, but sometimes difficult days right after delivery. Only a phone call away, its services include preparing Kosher weekday and Shabbos meals, baby furniture to loan and baby clothes to give, preparing brisim (circumcision ceremonies), mothers' discussion groups, and a hotline. All of Shifra and Puah's services are available free of charge to all Jewish mothers.

Rhododendron and azalea exhibit

The Midwest Chapter of the American Rhododendron Society will hold its annual show on Saturday, May 23 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the East Greenhouse Gallery at the Chicago Botanic Garden.

Cut flowers: trusses of rhododendrons and azaleas, which have been grown by chapter members in the northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin area, will be displayed.

Rhododendrons and azaleas are considered difficult to grow in the Chicago area because of the extreme weather and unfavorable soil conditions. New cultivars suitable to this area will be exhibited and members will be available to provide information about optimum placement and soil preparation for home gardens.

The Chicago Botanic Garden is located on Lake-Cook rd., one-half mile east of the Edens expwy.

Briar Street Theatre 'Beehive'

LaNitta Swanson, Greta Pope and Paula Newsome bring back hit songs of the Supremes in "Beehive", the nostalgic tribute to the girl groups and great female vocalists of the '60's. The Chicago production of the hit Off-Broadway revue is playing Tuesday through Sunday at the Briar Street Theatre, 3133 N. Halsted in Chicago. Directed by Larry Gallagher. Photograph by Jennifer Girard. Box Office: 348-4000.

Variety Club sponsors theater drive

Help provide a future of hope to children with chronic diseases by volunteering for the 1987 Variety Club Theater Drive. Beginning June 19, movie theaters in the greater Chicago area will sponsor collections to benefit the young people who receive treatment at La Rabida Children's Hospital and research Center. Volunteers can help raise funds by donating an afternoon or evening at a neighborhood theater during the drive. The volunteer hotline number is 855-0885.

With the help of hundreds of volunteers, the Variety Club and La Rabida Children's Hospital hope to top last year's record-breaking contributions. Volunteers will collect donations after a short film about children treated at La Rabida is shown. This year's film is narrated by television personality Monty Hall.

La Rabida Children's Hospital specializes in the treatment of children who suffer from chronic diseases and physical disabilities. Medical problems treated at La Rabida include asthma, cerebral palsy, diabetes, orthopedic conditions, rheumatoid diseases and sickle-cell disease. La Rabida also conducts a comprehensive program for abused and neglected children.

Paul Silk is the 1987 Chairman of the Drive.

La Rabida Children's Hospital is located at East 68th st. and Lake Michigan in Chicago. To help at a theater near you, call 855-0885 or 274-1413 during the evening.

The model boat races, sponsored by the Minute Breakers Radio Control Model Boat Club, are free to the public. Between races, spectators can visit The Lamb's country shops which include the Persimmon Tree Card and Gift Shop, a pet shop, Children's Farmyard and Petting Zoo, The Lamb's End Thrift Shop, The Country Inn Restaurant, and Sweet Street, an old-fashioned ice cream parlour and pastry shop. petitioned school board members to retain as principal Walter Sikierski, a 22-year employee of the district and 15-year principal. Addressing School Superintendent Dr. Eldon Gleichman and the board, teacher Miriam Hirsch stated Mark Twain instructors "deeply regret the decision."

Hirsch described Sikierski's relationship with teachers, students and parents as one of "mutual respect and support" with a "positive and humane attitude about his leadership role." Kuper served the district 11 years, four years as a principal. He also taught in Chicago five years. Gleichman described Kuper's appointment as "exciting" and said, "Ray has done an outstanding job where he has been."

The job of associate principal at Gemini will be posted to give notice to qualified candidates. According to one source, about four persons are interested in applying for the position. East Maine School District 63

Board members approved a change order from $120,000 to $104,000, or about $16,000 less, for life safety, energy conservation and accessibility at closed Apollo and Oak Schools. The work is part of a $6,000,000 project that is scheduled to be completed by September, 1988. A major portion of the work includes asbestos removal.

Next year's Student Accident Insurance will cost $6 during the school day and $44.50 for 24-hour coverage, according to a newly-approved district contract with American Youth, a Hartford Insurance Plan.

Also, towel service for junior high school students next year will cost $0.75 per person, as approved in another contract. Board members also approved about $10,000 expenditures for art supplies for the elementary schools and Gemini Junior High School.

Almost $2,000 was awarded for physical education supplies. A contract for office paper was awarded in the amount of almost $27,000.

East Maine Elementary School District 63 serves Morton Grove, Niles, Des Plaines and unincorporated Maine Township.

In other actions Morton Grove resident Carol Gail was sworn in Tuesday as a board member of East Maine Elementary School District 63 to fill the unexpired term of Mel Cohen.

Cohen announced last November he would move from the district in May.

In further action, Associate Superintendent Dr. Donald Stetina presented board members with a certificate of merit for the district's program to aid educationally disadvantaged youngsters under a Chapter 1 grant from the government.

Stetina said less than one percent of school districts taking part in the program received a certificate, or 88 of about 14,000 districts. He recently represented the district and received the certificate in Anaheim, California. The program was initiated in 1976, said Stetina.

In regard to other grants, the board authorized preparation of a 1987-1988 proposal to the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) for $75,774, also under Chapter 1.

An application for a math and science grant to ISBE was also approved in the amount of $21,948.

In an unusual move, board members approved a 1986-1987 position for a teacher aide to one child enrolled in a special education class. Stetina said the Library plans...

"We can probably squeeze by from year to year but we will have to be vigilant. This plan sets our direction on expenditures," he said.

In addition, the plan will force library staff to plan ahead for services, add the board in following library goals, and enable the board to set aside funds for major purchases, said McKenzie. He said the plan has been prepared in time for the board to consider next year's budget.

McKenzie acknowledged the plan "is not engraved in stone" and yearly reviews will take place.

Committee members suggested several additions or changes to the plan. Probably, the most costly addition will be a $100,000 resurfacing of a lot adjacent to the library, suggested as a two-phase project.

The lot was purchased last year by the library to provide additional parking space and the Village of Niles donated about half the $250,000 price.

Three other tentative additions include hiring a part-time clerk in technical services, painting the library van and hiring a public relations expert. The first two additions and phase one of lot reconstruction probably would be budgeted for this coming fiscal year.

According to Wagner, a public relations expert may be necessary in the future if the library intends to present voters with another referendum for a tax increase. A recent referendum was defeated at the polls.

New furnishings for adult services should be budgeted for this year, not the fifth year of the plan, said Committee Member Terri Carman. She said the shabby furniture is probably depressing to library staff and patrons. No cost was provided.

Costly modifications to the library's physical plant will be phased throughout the five-year plan. They include replacement of the roof over the adult section at about $85,000, repair of the library courtyard, replacement of the library van at about $10,000, replacement of the bookmobile at about $25,000, replacement of the roof over the meeting room in the new addition and replacement of the air conditioning unit in the older part of the building. Costs for some items have not been researched at this time.

Nine of the 69 original goals are tentatively scheduled to be continued all five years.

They are materials: continued development and expansion of the young adult collection; continued purchasing of missing standard and classic titles; special emphasis to ten specific subject areas for collection development in adult services and monitored results of surveys conducted in connection with library output measures (state requirement).

Others are: programming, to sponsor informal sessions with local library affiliates; office equipment, purchase of two microcomputers; a year to upgrade and replace machines in both the public access computer lab and staff work areas at about $10,000 a year; administrative programs, to conduct various output measure surveys, to review and recommend modifications to personal policies and to monitor and report progress, review and recommend modifications to the long range plan of service.

The committee also discussed tentative personnel policies but reached no decision on recommendations to the board.

Committee member Terri Carman said the issue first came to the board's attention last year and Board Attorney Lawrence Weiner said district policy was lawful. Board members were not made aware of more recent changes in the law, said Carman.

Also scheduled to be discussed by the full board are hiring practices and extension of probation.

In a policy battle about six months earlier, board members effected a change that relatives of library staff, with the exception of those already employed by the district, could not be hired.

At Friday's meeting, Library Administrator D.J. McKenzie said he does not disapprove of hiring relatives except when they are family of board members or the library's administrative staff.

In reference to the initial change, Policy Committee chairman Charlene Wagner told committee members, "We fought hard to get that passed. I would not like to see it discontinued."

Also, under present policy, new library employees receive probationary status for six months during which time they must be evaluated before attaining non-probationary status.

During the six months, they may be fired without cause. Non-probationary employees may appeal dismissal to the board.

McKenzie said he agrees with former legal opinions that six months is long enough to evaluate employees but asked that probation be extended by three months, at the discretion of the administrator.

He reasoned a library crisis, may cause him to be unaware that the six months probation was ended.

Board member Irene Costello said McKenzie is "businesslike" and she was sure no abuse could occur if present policy was changed.

Also, McKenzie asked he be able to hire or fire staff members without board approval. In regard to hiring, he said he would not exceed the needs of the library or the budget. Dismissal would take place only following consultation with the board; attorney, said McKenzie.

At present, he is able to hire employees subject to board approval. Wagner stated McKenzie, and not board members, must be able to work with the staff.

McKenzie agreed with Carman that hiring practices should include controls such as personnel reports to the board.

(approximately) purchase price would not be acceptable.

The Chicago-based law firm of Ryan and Burke will represent the village in negotiations to purchase the property. "We expect to contact Krilich this week," said attorney William Ryan.

In the event Krilich refuses to negotiate and brings the matter to court, the village under Illinois law can file condemnation proceedings to acquire the property, Ryan said.

"The judge would decide whether the village is right in its action and then it would be up to a jury to decide on a fair and equitable purchase price for the portion the village wants," he explained.

He added Niles has "firm grounds" on which to argue its case in court.

According to a board member, the village made the move because of failure by Lawrencewood owners to upgrade the deteriorating shopping center. "A lot of promises have been made, but nothing has been done to revitalize the shopping center," he stated.

Krilich, in turn, argues that a $10 million project is being planned for the center and that agreements or letters of intent from prospective tenants have been received to occupy Lawrencewood.

The Legion is preparing for their annual Memorial Day Parade in addition. Slater has appointed Earl Christensen of Chicago, chairman; and past commander Bob Penzho, also of Chicago co-chairman of the Sunday, May 31, event. Step off time will be 1 p.m. from the Legion Home.

Groups wishing to participate may phone their indication to one of the co-chairmen at 752-2868 or 778-8907. The Navy Band is to participate.

In other board actions, the public works department was authorized to purchase an emission analyzer for emission testing for village vehicles at a cost of $8,000. The equipment will save the village money because employees will not have to wait in line at area emission testing centers, according to Wilma Went, village clerk.

According to Charles Scheck, community development director, the Plan Commission will meet Monday, May 18 to consider the Golf-Washington development plan.

The revised plan calls for the Highland Store to be moved 10 feet from the east side of the proposed shopping center to the west. There will be a fence to separate the center and residential area with landscaping and berming, with the fence sitting on top of the berm.

In line with requests from residents on Palma Ln. (adjacent to the site) two water retention areas will be located in the development (east of Washington) and will have oversized sewers with restrictors to accommodate water run-off in the parking areas, Scheck said.

According to Peck, some of the changes include widening of the overpass on Dempster to include an additional 11-foot lane and construction of a new pump station to replace the old one to carry off storm water run-off.

A 4-foot median strip will replace the existing one on Dempster St.

In addition, Elmore St. will be restricted to right turn only movements and a barrier median will be carried through this intersection to prohibit left turn maneuvers. "It was always a restricted right turn, but people sometimes attempt a left turn posing safety problems," he said.

The project is expected to cost between $6.5 to $7 million (using federal funds) according to Peck.
