O'Hare measure may find tough sledding in Illinois House

Although the bill creating a regional airport and extending runways at O'Hare International Airport has the support of 95 of the state's 110 House members, it still faces a tough challenge in the Illinois Senate, where the majority leader has indicated it is not likely to be considered. The Senate also is facing a tight budget crunch and the bill's author, Sen. Mark Wysession, D-Mundelein, said he believes it is too soon to introduce legislation on the airport. However, some lawmakers say they will continue to push for the measure, and the Senate will vote on it at some point this year.

Taxi fare hike...

Taxis in Baltimore have been hit with a fare hike. Baltimore City Councilwoman Elizabeth A. Herring, who represents the 9th Ward, has sponsored a bill that would raise the fare for taxi rides in the city by 25 percent. The bill was introduced last week and is expected to be discussed by the council next month. Herring said the fare increase would help offset rising fuel costs and improve the city's public transit system. She also cited the need for additional funding for the Baltimore Metropolitan Transportation Authority (BMTA) to keep up with demand.

The current fare for a taxi ride in Baltimore is $2.50 for the first mile and $1.50 for each additional mile. Under the proposed bill, the fare for the first mile would increase to $3.125 and the fare for each additional mile would increase to $2.375. The bill would also create a new fare structure for airport service, with fares starting at $4.00 for the first mile and $2.75 for each additional mile.

Taste of Niles...

The first Taste of Niles festival was held last weekend in Baltimore. The event featured a variety of local restaurants and attractions, including live music, arts and crafts, and food vendors. Organizers estimated that over 10,000 people attended the festival, which lasted for three days. The event was hosted by the Niles Community Improvement Committee and sponsored by Baltimore's Department of Recreation and Parks. The festival was a success, and organizers are already planning for next year's event.

Summer reading...

The Baltimore City Public Library has announced its summer reading program for the year. The program, which runs from June to August, is designed to encourage reading and learning during the summer months. It includes a variety of book clubs, workshops, and events for all ages. The program is open to the public and is free of charge.

The library will host a number of book clubs, including one for young adult fiction and another for non-fiction. There will also be workshops on topics such as writing and research. The library will also host a variety of events, including movie nights and storytimes for children.

For more information, visit the library’s website or call 410-396-7900.
