O'Hare measure may find tough sledding in Illinois House

Although a bill creating a regional airport authority recently passed in the Illinois Senate it may have tough sledding getting approval in the House, according to some legislators who want to reduce noise at O'Hare Airport.

Sen. Bob Kustra (R-28) who was the main sponsor of the bill, is reportedly not optimistic in passage of the bill by the House of Representatives, where a similar bill was blocked in committee. Adversity is not new to Kustra who has been trying for three years to push O'Hare-related ills through the Illinois General Assembly.

A Regional Airport Authority (RAA) would give suburbs located near O'Hare a voice in airport operations and expansion plans. Under the Senate bill, the

Dist. 63 okays $20 million '87-88 budget

by Eileen Hirschfeld

Following a public hearing at Tuesday's board meeting, board members of East Maine Elementary School District 63 approved a budget of approximately $20 million for the fiscal year July 1, 1987 to June 30, 1988.

A committee of the whole meeting recommended April 21 that the administrator reduce by $50,000 both the education fund and operation, building and maintenance (OBM) fund because expenditures to the district will exceed revenues.

On an inside foyer wall at Stan's Restaurant is a greeting card from a M.R. Gillespie of Park Ridge with a written message which says, "You are an inspiration." Alongside the card is a blown up portrait of a handsome young naval officer decked out in his officer whites, with a long sword draped across his left hip and leg. It's the portrait of Stanley Jezior, Junior, son of the owners of Stan's Restaurant.

I think like the Gillespies many of us are inspired by the accomplishments of the young man. He travelled from Morton Grove several blocks west to Notre Dame High School for four years before moving on to the naval academy at Annapolis. In addition to his graduating he was married at Annapolis before continuing duty with the USN.

Stanley epitomizes the Class of '87. Most of us know other graduates who successfully completed the programs at their schools. We join with friends and relatives in wishing all good things to these people. As they might have said in another time and place when we were growing up, "Full speed ahead."

Senate Committee okays clean air bill

Sen. Bob Kustra's "clean air" bill to limit smoking to designated areas in restaurants, stores, office buildings and other public places has been approved by the Illinois Senate Executive Committee and now goes to the full Senate for consideration.

"This is an affordable and very workable plan that would protect the public from the dangers of 'second-hand' smoke," Kustra (R-28) said. "Enforcement would be the responsibility of the persons in charge of the establishments or buildings. The recent Surgeon General's report documents the harmful effects of second-hand smoke and it has convinced people that a state policy must be established."

The bill (SB 374) would ban smoking in any enclosed indoor public place, and allow smoking only in established and posted smoking areas. It would require that existing features of buildings be used to minimize intrusion of smoke into areas where smoking is not permitted. Owners would not be required to make expensive alterations in order to protect non-smokers, but they would be responsible for regulating smoking on their premises. Kustra pointed out that the legislation would not affect establishments whose primary business is serving alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises. Therefore, bars and taverns would not have to establish non-smoking areas.

Kustra's bill would affect any enclosed indoor area used by the public, including hospitals, retail stores and commercial establishments, offices, elevators, indoor theaters, libraries, museums, concert halls, public transportation, schools, nursing homes, auditoriums, arenas and meeting rooms. It would not apply to factories, warehouses or enclosed offices, occupied exclusively by smokers.

established by the Tribune. The calculation involves both cumulative grade point average and scores on college admissions tests. Principal Carol Grenier (l) commented, "Irene has received A's in so many accelerated and advanced placement courses and has such a high ACT score that I believe she will be a very strong candidate for selection to the All-State Team."

Maine high schools receive NCA accreditation

North Central Association accreditation for the three Maine Township High School District 207 high schools - Maine East, Maine South and Maine West - has been extended through the 1988-87 school year following the review and approval of their annual reports at the association's annual meeting recently. Accreditation is for one year at a time and must be renewed annually.

"Maine Township high schools and the communities they serve should be proud of the accreditation because it provides assurance that the schools are meeting the preconditions for effective education established by the NCA," said John S. Kemp, NCA state director at the University of Illinois. "Through this voluntary membership in the NCA, the Maine schools and the people of District 207 have committed themselves to the pursuit of quality in education."

By setting standards for basic operations of the school and by requiring a comprehensive evaluation once every seven years, the NCA stimulates the schools toward continuous improvement. NCA accreditation helps build public confidence by providing evidence that schools are meeting expectations and fulfilling not only local standards, but also those more widely accepted throughout the region and the nation.

The Readers Write

Supports home rule powers on gun ban

Dear Editor:

A recent attempt on the state level to take away Morton Grove's ability to ban handguns was defeated when house bill 1885 never made it to a third reading. The bill is now back in committee, and may have to wait until next session to be considered again.

I oppose any effort at the state level to interfere with Morton Grove's court validated power to ban handguns. A vital issue such as this should have been placed before the electorate as an advisory referendum prior to becoming law rather than leaving village trustees to rely on public hearing to take a pulse of the community. However, outside interests should never be allowed to interfere with the village's powers of community control.

Also at issue is how best to influence legislation which directly affects Morton Grove. The Illinois Municipal League is opposed to preemption of home rule powers. Morton Grove is a member of the league. But what happens when we cannot count on associations for support?

Perhaps the answer to the attempted preemption is a bill prohibiting the preemption of laws enacted under home rule powers. Perhaps the village needs a person or persons who would initiate and lobby for legislation in the best interest of Morton Grove. I plan to contact my state representative and village trustees in support of these proposals.

Sincerely,
Larry Gomberg

be the first to publicly welcome Daniel Max Shapiro into the world.

We stopped off to visit the two number two's late Saturday afternoon at a near northside Chicago hospital. When we departed we walked down north Michigan Avenue on a marvelous early summer evening. Michigan Avenue was jammed with mostly young people heading for the Blues Festival at Grant Park. It was a summer evening at its best. Most of the crowd was moving south armed with blankets and thermos jugs and sporting new sunbans which were recently seared at the afternoon beaches. It was just good to be outside and walking and enjoying the early evening breezes.

Outside street entertainment is always fun to see. Overseas the street people are strumming and singing in subways throughout Europe. In London's Hyde Park the orators are on their soap boxes all day Sunday. Here at home in San Diego jugglers and mimes and magicians are out in force in Balboa Park. But none of them were more entertaining than the seven tappers on Michigan Avenue.

There was joy in the land Saturday night. Get yourself out of the 'burbs' on coming Saturdays and stroll down North Michigan Avenue. There's a world out there many of us have forgotten.

You don't have to be a sports fan to enjoy the movie, "Hoosier", which is playing at the Morton Grove theatre. It's a great movie and for a buck and a half you'll see great entertainment.

If you want to read a very entertaining book try Paul Theroux's "The Great Railway Bazaar". It's a fascinating story about travelling across Europe and Asia by railway.

At the entrance to I. Magnin's seven black children between the ages of 5 to 15 were top dancing in front of the arched entrance to the closed store. An older man, possibly their father, donned a top hat and black tie as he led the tappers in a chorus line of syn-copated dancing. Another top hat was downsize up on the sidewalk slowly filling up with change and dollar bills. In the early evening, the six or seven minute show drawn perhaps 50 people who might have contributed $10 to the hat. When we meandered back from supper the crowd had grown to about 200 people and the top hat was filling up much faster and with many more dollar bills.

There was joy in the land Saturday night. Get yourself out of the 'burbs' on coming Saturdays and stroll down North Michigan Avenue. There's a world out there many of us have forgotten.

airport authority would have 15 members, including representatives of Chicago and suburbs, the state and other groups. The RAA would be involved in airport planning in the Chicago region and would have veto power over proposed improvements.

Mayor Nicholas Blase of Niles, a member of the Suburban O'Hare Commission, said he was pleased the bill passed in the Senate, but feels there will be opposition to the measure in the House.

The measure passed the Senate in a 33-22 vote after five Democrats voted in favor of the Republican-sponsored bill. Opposing the measure was Senate Pres. Philip Rock (D-8th) Oak Park, and by Chicago officials, the airlines and Chicago business groups.

Blase noted the SOC will change its "thrust" from fighting with Chicago and the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and will focus on the airlines to alleviate noise pollution.

"We have gotten nowhere with the city or the FAA. It's time to let major airlines...like United...listen to suburban problems concerning jet noise at the airport," Blase said.

He acknowledged the airlines operating at O'Hare could turn a deaf ear to suburban complaints because of concern over loss of revenue in modifying their operations. "They should realize it's a service business for the communities. It would be good public relations if the airlines began working with the towns to resolve noise problems, Blase said.

In latest developments, Park Ridge Mayor Martin Butler, chairman of the Suburban O'Hare Commission, has directed Joan Mitnick, executive director of the O'Hare Citizens Coalition to organize an O'Hare rally for sometime in June. Although the date has not been finalized, the rally is expected to be held in the new United Airlines terminal.

former School District 63 which closed in 1978 because of declining enrollment. The village intends to turn over the building to the Niles Park District for recreation programs and other various park district activities.

Niles purchased Ballard and an adjacent parcel of land for $180,000 in March. Attorneys on both sides are in the process of completing legal papers linked to the transfer of property, including the contract and quit claim deed, according to Marcheschi.

means of transportation.

Fares have already been raised in Glenview, Northbrook and Wilmette and are pending in Skokie. The rate increase amounts to 30 cents for a one mile ride, 70 cents for a three mile ride, and $1.10 for a five mile ride. No residents appeared to voice their opposition. The trustees seemed inclined to approve the rate increase that it be tabled until June 22.

In other business, July 4th chairman Jeff Fougerousse presented a certificate to the board designating Morton Grove as a Bicentennial Community. Morton Grove is one of only 650 communities to receive this designation.

Lee Brandama of Haulaway, appeared before the Board to seek approval for a change in the garbage collection schedule. He explained Haulaway will now be servicing Lincolnwood as well as Niles and Morton Grove, and wants to streamline their pick-up schedules changing their present days of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to Tuesday and Wednesday.

The board gave their approval with Village trustee Richard Hobs voicing his concern that the quality of service remain the same. Brandama gave his assurance that the present standard of quality would remain unchanged. There will be a 2% week grace period until residents get used to the new schedule. The changeover will begin July 6.

Leonard Bloomfield, plan commission chairman, asked for and received a request for a three-lot single-family residential subdivision for the Glenn E. Davis Construction, Inc., in the area commonly known as the southwest corner of Natchez and Albert avenues. An alley and part of Church St. will have to be vacated. Larry Arlt will call in an appraiser to decide market value. Approval is tentative to the above vacating condition being met.

Mayor Richard Flickinger received approval for his nominee for Finance Director Spiro Hountales. He is a C.P.A. and has been the controller for the Aurora Sanitary District the last six years. The mayor also received approval for a carnival to be held July 1 thru July 5, in conjunction with the July 4 celebration.

Corporation Counsel Martin Astman received approval for including village volunteers and commission members to be included in a risk pool for insurance purposes, related to village business. There is no extra cost involved to the village. He also received approval for Home Savings of America to construct a drive-in banking facility at the southeast corner of the intersection of Waukegan and Dempster.

Ashman also received approval to pay the village share of the court costs for the attempt to make Chicago rescind its rate increase for the water it sends to surrounding suburbs. Morton Grove's share of the bill comes to $8,311. The attorneys wish to appeal and will do so with no fee except for 7 percent of the amount recovered should they be successful.

Trustees Neil Cashman announced there was a total of 75 construction permits bringing in $3,659.30 with a total construction value of $255,943.

Trustee Robert Leavitt announced that the Traffic Safety Commission will sponsor an upcoming meeting to discuss the parking problems of China Chef in the Mason-Lincoln area.

A resident, Fern Katz, spoke on behalf of the Niles West Marching Band. They have been invited to participate in the Dec. 31 Fiesta Bowl parade in Phoenix, Arizona. The cost will be approximately $600 per student. The villages of Niles, Lincolnwood and Skokie (pending) have voted to donate 10 percent of the cost for each of their village participants if Morton Grove will also donate. There are 30 students from Morton Grove which would amount to a total donation of $1,800. This was tabled until the next meeting in order to give the trustees time to study the request.

as the Palatine village hall."

The conference, however, would have to pay for refurbishing costs at the village hall to meet NWMC needs. A decision is expected to be made this week, she said.

A proposed plan to construct a 7,800 square foot building is under way by both the OCC board and the NWMC board. Recommendations are expected to be made to the Oakton board at a June 23 committee meeting.

Athas noted that a facility on the Oakton campus would be compatible with the college in working out training programs with OCC. In addition, the site provides a central location for the NWMC members.

Training programs are geared to municipal employees in the area of public works, building inspection, police and fire programs, etc.

She explained the cost of the building, plans and terms of the lease are among the items being discussed by both parties. The conference would probably lease the building from Oakton with the fees going to retire the debt for the building. "Our figures show the space could be leased for $5 to $7 per square foot."

The NWMC (organized in 1958) has been located at the Mount Prospect Library for four years and presently has 11 staff members and a research library.

The conference provides information research, intergovernmental Risk Management (pool insurance) planning and legislative information and lobbying efforts for member communities.

Lincolnwood for pre-readers.

The kids become travelers beginning June 22, the start-up time for the program. When they register for the clubs the fun begins with good books, maps, passports and paper airplanes or cars.

Circle the Globe features a giant map of the world with twenty destinations. Youngsters registering for this program receive a passport in which to log the books they read and a plane to pin to the map. Each time they finish a book, their passport is stamped and they fly on to a new place.

They select their own route, set their schedules and pick the books they would most enjoy reading. Participants who read a minimum of eight books will receive a certificate of merit and a prize when the program ends with a party Thursday evening, Aug. 6.

Ring Around Lincolnwood is for two to five year olds. They'll receive their own map to color for display in the library, a passport for their pretend trip through the village. For every book read to them, they will have their passport stamped and they'll col-

Including the deductions, money budgeted for specific funds is: education, $11,506,511; tort and liability, $243,695; operation, building and maintenance, $2,195,193; special education building fund, $404,005; bond and interest, $1,571,480; transportation, $736,000; Illinois Municipal Retirement/Social Security, $309,137 and site and construction/life safety, $2,724,200. About $430,000 will be in the working cash fund as a transfer of interest earned to the education fund.

A $50,000 deduction from the education fund was to be spent on student and teacher desks, art stools, filing and storage cabinets, copy machine, microcomputers and computer tables and chairs.

About $50,000 was deducted from the OBM fund for three public announcement systems, repair and repainting of Stevenson school facia and exterior repair and maintenance at Gemini Junior High School.

A teacher at East Maine Elementary School District for 13 years, Jay Alan Smith was appointed Tuesday as assistant principal of the district's Gemini Junior High School in Niles. The appointment was approved Tuesday, June 9 at a school board meeting.

Smith will replace Ray Kuper who recently was appointed principal of Mark Twain School, 9401 N. Hamlin ave., Des Plaines.

Smith, 35, is a resident of Wheeling. During his stay in the district, he taught at Washington, Mark Twain and Stevenson schools and now sold Wilson School. He was also let go and rehired by the district three times in efforts to reduce teaching staff on a par with declining student enrollment.

This school district Reduction in Force (RIF) affects teachers according to their amount of tenure in the district. Gemini principal Donald Huebner said he had input into the appointment of Smith and is delighted to have Smith join his administrative staff. "I was very much part of the decision," said Huebner.

In a general shakeup of the central office for East Maine Elementary School District 63, board members neglected to approve the appointment of coordinator of special services who would coordinate special education at Tuesday's board meeting.

Supt. Dr. Eldon Gleichman acknowledged the appointment was to be made Tuesday, June 9 but he did not complete interviews by that time.

At a former meeting, appointments were approved for director of finance Robert Cripe and data processing director Francis Zelek. Cripe will replace business manager James Bowen and assistant business manager Patricia Kolvek. No former job existed for a director of data processing.

In other action, board members approved two applications for per capita funding of materials, an application under Chapter 2 will be for $22,558 and an application under Title II will be for $1,733.

Albion Tall aluminum-type signs inscribed "Village of Niles" will be placed in the park-like setting, with trees, bushes and flowering plants.

The beautification project was part of the village's three-year plan to upgrade the southern limits of the town. Funding for the renovation plan was derived from Cook County Community Development Block Grants. A portion of the funds were used to purchase the former Cook Robin ice cream store at 6600 Milwaukee, in 1984. The property was acquired for $128,000. The village later purchased (through block grant funds) the Ridgewood Center Gardens, 6541 Milwaukee, a greenhouse across the street from Cook Robin, and a greenhouse adjacent to Ridgewood. Purchase price is unknown. The properties were torn down to develop the landscaped areas to create an esthetic entranceway to Niles.

In the past, village officials have promoted Niles not only as a place to live, but also as a community which is constantly preserving its best and projecting a renewed image.

In order to bridge this gap, 22 employees from all three shifts and many departments, including nursing, physical therapy, respiratory therapy, social services, nuclear medicine and patient services, have learned to communicate more effectively with hearing-impaired patients by taking classes in sign language. Sign language for the hearing-impaired can be compared to ramps for the physically disabled; it even things up. The hearing-impaired have to deal with difficulties that the hearing might never think of. People often make the mistake of thinking that if they write something down, a hearing-impaired person will be able to understand it. Not police. Police first noticed Sullivan's jeep in the 8300 block of Harlem traveling at a speed of 60 miles an hour, and after the squad car activated its emergency lights, the jeep increased its speed north on Harlem through Dempster. The driver was observed weaving from lane to lane into southbound lanes to pass northbound cars.

With sirens activated, police pursued the jeep which turned east on Suffield driving up onto the curb and proceeding down several side streets with speed in excess of 60 mph.

According to police, the driver ignored several stop signs continuing north on Washington, where a red light was ignored at Golf Road. Police then followed the alleged offender through a field and through the parking lot at Tallman shopping center, then north on Washington, east on Central and was curbed in a driveway in the 2700 block of Central in Glenview.

As police approached the jeep, the alleged offender attempted to flee, but was tackled by a police officer. He was taken to the police station and subsequently transported to Lutheran General Hospital for a cut lip received during the arrest. A passenger in the jeep was released without charge.

The alleged offender was assigned a July court date.

Hospital employees learn sign language

More than 2.1 million cases of hearing impairment are reported annually in the United States. May is Better Hearing and Speech Month and national attention is focused on the special problems of this group.

There is a gap of silence between the hearing-impaired and the hearing. Much of what makes life worthwhile can be missed unless both the hearing-impaired and the hearing make efforts to bridge the silence.

Other efforts to meet the hearing-impaired patient's needs include an in-hospital TDD (phone signaling device) which allows messages to be typed through telephone wires and to be read on tape or on a screen, and a telecaption decoder for television, which allows patients to read the dialogue of programs in progress.

Misconceptions about medical treatment can be a serious matter. A hearing-impaired person can be endangered by not understanding a physician's instructions for medication.
