A library board committee last week recommended a proposed tax rate increase that should financially carry the district for the next 10 years. Proposed was a tax rate of .281 mills that would result in property owners paying 28.1 cents for each $1000 assessed valuation. The library's share of the property tax would increase from about $44 to $55 for a homeowner with property assess at $75,000, according to board members. The current rate is .15. Niles' Elaine Heinen should take an extra bow. She was the head of this year's Niles Festival which took in a whopping profit of $23,992. It was the hottest money-gathering event Niles has ever had and the lady chairman deserves hosannas from all of us. Ironically, the lady had a bad case of the worries before the numbers were substantiated. She is our candidate for Niles' Citizen of the Year.

Our mini-campaign to have Niles' new police chief come from within the police department got a guffaw from a Nilesite Monday afternoon. The guffawer said it was much ado about nothing. He said the police chief's seat is completely under the control of the Number One Man in town. It was this guffawer's opinion whoever is selected takes orders from The Man or he'll quickly become an ex-police chief. The guffawer said the trustees are completely under control of The Man as is the guy who heads the police department. The Man pulls the strings and everyone dances. If you get out of step your string is clipped. Whether the appointment is from the outside or the inside, the new chief will do the same dance

"Fire Prevention Proclamation"

Village of Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase is shown with Niles Fire Chief Harry Kinowski after signing the Fire Prevention Week Proclamation. The proclamation, in part, reads as follows:

"Losses by fire—especially those resulting from fires which could have been prevented—constitute a tragic waste of human and material resources. Much of this waste is avoidable. Fire prevention programs, effectively conducted, have contributed substantially to development by reducing the number of destructive fires. Now, therefore, I, Nicholas B. Blase, President of the Village of Niles, do hereby designate the week beginning Oct. 4, 1987, as fire prevention week. I bid all citizens to support and promote the fire prevention efforts of their fire department, and to take an active participation in year-round fire prevention programs. I also direct the appropriate village departments to assist in this effort to reduce the needless waste of life and property caused by preventable fires."

Niles nursing home under state supervision

The license of a Niles nursing home has been conditionally revoked after the facility received 46 citations for alleged inadequate patient care and filthy conditions.

The action was taken last week by the Illinois Department of Public Health against the Golf Mill Plaza I Health Care Facility, 9777 Greenwood Ave., according to Tom Schafer of the agency's public relations department.

Schafer said Monday attorneys for the facility have requested a hearing on the case within 30-60 days. "The nursing home will continue to operate under the supervision of a state employee pending the appeal," he said. The department licenses and monitors nursing homes in Illinois. Schafer explained a formal hearing on the alleged violations

Niles police officer dies at 80

Charles B. Kozak, 80, who served the Niles Police Department for 20 years before retiring in 1968, died Oct. 1 at Lutheran General Hospital.

Kozak began his law enforcement career in 1948 when the village had approximately a 2,000 population. He served as a patrolman until his promotion to sergeant in 1959. A life-long resident of Niles, he retired at age 60 and continued in the position of sergeant in the Niles Police Reserves.

Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrickson said he remembers the former policeman as a dedicated person before and after his retirement. "He kept his affiliation with the force after retirement and always did a good job," Emrickson said.

He was preceded in death by a son, Charles. Survivors include David and Carol Dempsey of 8436 Normal Ave., of Niles.

Firefighters responded to the Golf Mill shopping center on Sept. 25. Cause was traced to a faulty smoke detector in a building.

Firemen assisted parents in removing a 7-year-old boy who had been caught in a swing on Sept. 25 at Washington Terrace Park, 9000 Washington St.

A sprinkler system malfunctioned in a store at the Four Flags shopping center on Sept. 25. A check showed no hazard.

A smell of smoke was reported at Radio Shack, 7245 Dempster, on Sept. 25. Firemen checked the roof after they learned a crew was working on the roof, but found no fire hazard. Probable cause was traced to

People who have been wondering whether Niles All American Festival was a financial success can stop speculating...the fest realized a whopping $25,992.44, after expenses.

Of that amount, $4,000 was donated to the park district for installation of an electrical box in Golf Mill Park for use during the festival. It will also be available for different community functions, according to Elaine Heinen, president of the Niles Events Committee, which sponsored the festival held July 15-19.

"I think it's fantastic. The board is happy we did so well," Heinen said. Just as important is that people enjoyed themselves...adults and children alike."

The Niles Events Committee released the good news following a meeting Monday evening. The long delay in coming up with dollar figures was due to bills that had to be paid over the past two months. "We finally received the electric bill last week,"

Heinen said. "We could not give any information on proceeds because one big bill would have made a difference in the total amount."

Expenses amounted to about $86,000 for utilities, entertainment provided at the festival, rental of tents, tables and chairs and other miscellaneous items.

Incoming revenue included $8,000 from 22 restaurants participating in the "Taste of Niles" and a total of $15,000 from carnival concessions and rides. Other proceeds came from liquor and soft drink concessions and Bingo.

Heinen attributed the success of the All American Festival to the Taste of Niles and the good entertainment during the five-day event. About 100,000 people attended the second annual affair. In 1986, the festival was rained out and lost money for the committee.

"The board worked hard to make the festival a success and is encouraging them to have

Washington-Lyons sewer project

A sewer construction project is currently underway at Washington and Lyons and is expected to be completed by the end of October, according to Keith Peck, Niles director of public works.

"The storm sewer will be separated from the sanitary sewer which will alleviate flooding in the area," he explained. "With two separate sewer lines, it's expected to withstand even a hundred-year rainfall."

The village received a federal grant of $469,000 for the sewer separation, which is part of the Build Illinois Project, Peck said. Similar work was done at Church St., Davis St. and part of Cumberland.

MYTH: A CHILL GIVES YOU A COLD
Fact: Viruses cause colds and flu, but the role of chills, drafts, and wet feet in aiding the spread of viruses is an open question. Getting cold won't make a person sick unless the virus happens to come along at the same time. One possible reason for the frequency of colds in the fall and winter is that people spend more time indoors, in close contact with others. School is also in session, and children are prime carriers of viruses. According to the Center for Disease Control, one effective defense against colds and flu is to wash the hands often. At home the best way to keep colds and flu from spreading through a family is to disinfect objects touched by the sick person. Always the sick one their own bar of soap and paper towels, and avoid physical contact with them.

FRESH VEGETABLE BAKE
Fresh vegetables are a healthy addition to any diet, but topping them with loads of butter and salt can increase both calories and saturated fat.
Fresh Vegetable Bake, combining tomatoes, zucchini and yellow squash, is as delicious to eat as it is easy to prepare. The flavorful cheese sauce is made with skim milk, Parmesan cheese and Promise* Spread, a spread with no cholesterol that is low in saturated fat. Onion and pepper spice up the tasty sauce without added salt.

Serve Fresh Vegetable Bake with grilled fish or skinless chicken for a light and easy meal that's good for your heart.
Fresh Vegetable Bake
2 medium-size tomatoes, sliced 1/4-inch thick
1 medium-size zucchini, sliced 1/4-inch thick
1 medium-size yellow squash, sliced 1/4-inch thick
4 tablespoons Promise Spread, divided
1 small onion, chopped (1/4 cup)
2 tablespoons flour
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 1/4 cups skim milk
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
3/4 cup fresh bread crumbs
1. In a shallow 1-quart baking dish arrange tomatoes, zucchini and yellow squash slices.
2. In a small saucepan melt 3 tablespoons Promise; saute onion until golden. Stir in flour and pepper; cook 1 minute. Gradually add milk; cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens. Stir in cheese; pour over vegetables.
3. Melt remaining 1 tablespoon Promise; stir in crumbs. Sprinkle over cheese sauce.
4. Bake in a preheated 350°F. oven 35 to 40 minutes, until vegetables are tender and top is lightly browned. Let stand 5 minutes before serving.
Yield: 6 servings. Approximately 140 calories, 8 grams fat, 203 milligrams sodium and 4 milligrams cholesterol per serving.

Traffic Safety Hints

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar
Most accidents could be avoided if all drivers would obey traffic safety laws. However, if you are involved in an accident, Illinois law requires you to do certain things. Following is a checklist to clip, carry and use if necessary:

1. Stop immediately in a safe place. Stay at the accident scene until you have exchanged names, addresses and license numbers with the other drivers. Obtain the names of potential witnesses and note the road and weather conditions for insurance purposes to record this information. The Rules of the Road is available at any Driver Services Facility.
2. Assist any injured person and seek medical transportation if necessary or requested by the victim. Do not attempt first aid unless you have received proper training. Do not move the victim unless there is a risk of fire or further injury. Guard against fire by turning off the ignition or disconnecting the battery cable.
3. Use your four-way emergency flashers or flares to warn approaching motorists.
4. Notify the police as quickly as possible.
5. Send an accident report to the Illinois Department of Transportation within 10 days if the accident results in death or bodily injury, or more than $250 in property damage. Accident reports can usually be obtained from police departments and insurance companies.

Niles West celebrates Homecoming

With a pep rally and a "Ticker Tape Parade," the Niles West High School Homecoming organizers hope to rally enough spirit tomorrow (Friday, Oct. 9) afternoon to "Blitz the Bulldogs" of Waukegan East on the football field that night.

Homecoming activities began earlier this week with a pep assembly and king and queen elections. Tonight (Thursday, Oct. 8) the soccer team will meet Highland Park at 7 p.m.

Friday's pep rally will begin at 1:05 p.m. in the stadium, to be followed by the parade at 1:30.

The floats will travel northeast on Gross Point Road, east on Lincoln, south on Skokie Boulevard and west on Oakton back to the school. Kick-off for the varsity football game will be at 7:30 p.m. that evening, under the lights of Basrak Field. The halftime break will feature a band and choral show, as well as the presentation of the king and queen with their court. The Homecoming dance will take place on Saturday, Oct. 10, from 8-11 p.m.

The Student Union coordinates Homecoming activities, calling upon other students groups, as well as administrators and faculty sponsors, to assist with the week-long program.

OCC's Jeff Gallagher (Maine West) was the overall winner in the four mile race with a time of 20:59. Oakton placed four runners in the top ten places with John Beatty (Conant) in sixth, Joe Renguso (Gordon Tech) in seventh, and John Paschalis (Glenbrook South) in ninth. Also scoring for OCC was George Ganas (Maine West) in twelfth, Robert Perez (So. America) in thirteenth, Eric Obenberger (Maine West) in eighteenth, and Eric Litt (Niles West) in twenty-eighth.

The Oakton women were led by Brenda O'Connor (Maine South) who placed second in the three mile race with a time of 19:39. Jenny Pollack (New Trier) placed twelfth and Bettina Adam (Niles West) placed thirteenth. Kristen Nelson (Glenbrook South) was sick and unable to compete.

The Oakton men hiked their unbeaten record to fifteen straight wins for 1987. Since 1982 Coach Savage's Running Raiders have lost only two dual meets and won fifty-seven duals. Coach Savage predicts that the runners will qualify for the National Championships and be among the top twenty teams in the USA.

Interesting Facts From John Jennings

Why does it get colder the higher up you go in the earth's atmosphere? You'd think the closer you move toward the sun, the warmer it would get. The reason is that the higher you go, the thinner the air becomes, and thin air holds less heat.

Only 3 U.S. Presidents in history were born in big cities—Teddy Roosevelt (New York), William Taft (Cincinnati) and John Kennedy (Boston).

Surprisingly, most greyhound dogs are NOT grey. They are blue, black, white, tan, red, etc., but rarely grey.

The only town in America that has the same 5 numbers repeated in all its postal zip codes is Newton Falls, Ohio, whose zip code is 44444.

Driving costs increase

The cost of owning and operating a typical 1987 car increased 1.4 cents per mile in 1987 compared to last year, according to the AAA-Chicago Motor Club. The cost of owning and operating a car is 24.6 cents per mile; approximately $10 per day; and almost $3,690 per year based on 15,000 annual miles, according to a study of three representative vehicles conducted for AAA-CMC by Runzheimer and Company.

While finance charges decreased 8.4 percent and the cost of gasoline used to calculate operating costs dropped almost four cents per gallon in the last year, average ownership and operating costs increased compared to 1986, AAA-CMC said. The study shows that 1987 average operating costs—gasoline, oil, tires and maintenance—increased by less than a penny per mile while average annual ownership costs—financing, insurance, license, taxes, registration and depreciation—rose $154 when compared to 1986 costs, AAA-CMC reported. The estimated costs are based on a study of three 1987 models, a Chevette (four cylinders), a Celebrity (six cylinders) and a Caprice (six cylinders), assuming the car is not traded or sold until its fourth year of service. Results of the study are contained in the 1987 edition of Your Driving Costs. The brochure tells how to figure operating and ownership costs, offers tips on vacation planning and suggests options pertaining to business auto travel reimbursements.

Your Driving Costs is available free to AAA members and the general public at all AAA-CMC offices in Illinois and Northern Indiana. Or you may send a self-addressed, stamped, business-size envelope to: AAA-Chicago Motor Club, Public Affairs Department, P.O. Box 5027, Des Plaines, IL 60017-5027.

Tips for more Safety, Economy, Convenience

by Bob Miller

Steps for Better Service

Car owners! Don't wait until the last minute to find a repair facility for your car. These words of advice have come from the Detroit-based Automotive Information Council. The search for a repair facility, according to AIC, should start with research.

First, ask neighbors and friends for recommendations, just as if you were looking for a doctor. After finding out where they take their cars, visit the shops keeping a set of questions in mind:

1. Are the technicians certified by the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence (ASE)? The ASE certification for technicians is your proof you're doing business with a trained technician who's proven his worthiness to repair your car. The theory behind certification is that the term "certified mechanic" will come to stand for professionalism in automotive service work.

2. Does the facility have the proper equipment to take care of your car? The computer-controlled automobiles of today need computerized diagnostic equipment to repair your car properly the first time. Even a simple wheel alignment has changed in that most of the cars need the rear wheels aligned as well as the front. Older alignment machines only have the capabilities of aligning front tires.

3. Is the facility well-cared for? When inspecting a facility, check the condition of the equipment. Well-cared for equipment, while not necessarily a guarantee of good service, is a good sign. Neat, well organized shelves and a clean floor is a statement of pride by that business.

4. Is the shop busy? A busy shop is usually busy for a reason—it has earned a good reputation. Don't be irritated by having to wait a few days for an appointment.

5. After deciding on a shop, let the owner know you intend to be a regular customer. Take your car in regularly for service so the shop and the technicians can get to know your vehicle. One of the most difficult problems a technician faces is trying to diagnose a problem with a car that has been repaired in numerous places. If you feel pleased with the talents of a particular technician, the owner and that technician would feel honored to have you ask for him when your car needs servicing.

6. When you suspect a problem, be as precise in describing it to the technicians as possible. Demanding a certain operation to be performed on your car just because you feel it will correct a problem is the wrong approach. Let the technician know why you feel your car is not acting normally and he will let you know what he feels are the proper steps for repair.

7. Remember, when your car needs repair, always ask for a written estimate and ask to inspect all replaced parts. A professional shop will be happy to take the time to show you the replaced part and explain to you why it failed.

The use of child restraint seats has risen from 23 percent to 72 percent in the past five years, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Wouldn't it be nice to have this statistic be the first one ever to reach 100 percent?

Handicapped parking stronger under new law

Secretary of State Jim Edgar said legislation signed by Governor Thompson today will strengthen Illinois' handicapped parking law.

The measure, effective Jan. 1, 1988, will require wider parking spaces and signs reminding motorists of the $50 penalty for violation.

"This new law will direct that the spaces be wide enough to accommodate wheelchairs, lifts, crutches and walkers. It also requires all new handicapped parking signs to bear the notation '$50 Fine' beneath the international disabled symbol," Edgar said. Edgar said motorists will think twice about abusing parking privileges when reminded of the $50 fine.

The law, proposed by Edgar, is the product of a series of hearings held throughout the state to examine the effectiveness of handicapped parking laws.

The law applies to any person unable to walk at least 200 feet without aid or great difficulty due to certain impairments. Such a person qualifies for a handicapped parking card or license plates.

There are currently more than 90,000 handicapped parking cards and 30,000 handicapped license plates in use in Illinois.

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

Here's a football oddity that seems impossible—but it actually happened. A player once ran for only 5 yards and yet scored 4 touchdowns. It happened Nov. 4, 1973 when Bobby Douglass of the Chicago Bears carried the ball only 4 times—but one carry was a 2-yard touchdown run, and the other 3 were each 1-yard TD runs. His total yardage gained rushing was 5 yards, but he had scored 4 touchdowns!

Of all the coaches in major-league football history, which one had the most unbeaten-untied teams in regular season play? Answer is Bear Bryant who had 7 different teams that went unbeaten-untied in the regular season. Next come Joe Paterno and Gil Dobie, with 6 each.

Ever hear about the man who was known as the "Ironman of Football"? He was Leo Lynch who—amazingly—played EVERY minute of EVERY game for Villanova University for 4 YEARS from 1914 through 1917—never coming out for a substitute on ANY play in ANY game! That's hard to believe, but true.

Local bowling strikes out CF

Des Plaines and Niles are striking out cystic fibrosis in the Bowl for Breath on October 17 and 18 at River Rand Bowl in Des Plaines and the Golf Mill Lanes in Niles. Ann Nannini of Park Ridge and Frank Lovitz of Des Plaines are coordinating the bowl-a-thon fundraiser for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Cystic Fibrosis is the leading genetic killer of American youth.

Bowlers in the Bowl for Breath ask sponsors to pledge an amount per pin they score. After the event, bowlers collect the pledges and receive prizes based on the amount of money they collect.

Juvenile Diabetes charity fundraiser

Juvenile Diabetes Foundation received more than half a million dollars in 1987 from a series of celebrity golf and tennis events in the United States and Canada.

The NutraSweet Classic, a one-day charity golf and tennis event held in six North American cities this year, generated $54,700 for JDF to use for research to find a cure for diabetes.

The series of tournaments, underwritten by the NutraSweet Company in Skokie, was held in Los Angeles, Atlanta, New York, Detroit, Chicago and Toronto.

KU sororities pledges

Approximately 800 women pledged membership in 14 social sororities at the University of Kansas at the Aug. 22 close of rush, the KU Panhellenic Association has announced. Included were: Wendy Jill Brohner, 9239 Ozark, Morton Grove; Pamela E. Feldman, 5443 W. Reba, Morton Grove; Abbe Gwen Stern, 4001 W. Emerson, Skokie; Sherrie Ellen Silver, 8221 N. Karlov, Skokie.

New law gets tough on phony identification

Legislation to allow suspension or revocation of driving privileges for those using false identification has been signed by the Governor and takes effect January 1. Secretary of State Jim Edgar has announced.

HB 1869 was proposed by Edgar as a way to curb underage drinking. Secretary of State facilities in Illinois issue both drivers licenses and official ID cards for people who do not drive. Although Edgar's office can now suspend a drivers license for misuse of that document itself, it can take no action against persons who fraudulently use or obtain an official state identification card.

Now, those persons who attempt to fraudulently obtain or use official state identification cards will be subject to the suspension or revocation of driving privileges by the Office of the Secretary of State.

In addition to the loss of driving privileges, those convicted of fraudulent use of identification could face up to 30 days in jail and fines of not more than $500. But few have received these penalties.

"Until now, we have lacked the direct authority to effectively penalize those who misuse state ID's," Edgar said. "The power to revoke or suspend drivers for misuse of an Illinois ID card should help us deter such illegal action in the future."

Other provisions of the legislation extend similar penalties to those persons who use false identification to apply for a driver's license or identification card, as well as those who allow their identification to be used by others.

Edgar said today that in the past there was little risk attached to the use of false identifications.

"If we detected a fraudulent application in our driver services facility and the applicant walked out without completing the application process, he might escape any penalty," Edgar said. "HB 1869 will allow us to take action against a fraudulent applicant even if that person leaves without obtaining a license or ID card."

Edgar's office currently has the statutory authority to take action against those who fraudulently obtain or use driver's licenses. Since January 1, 1987, more than 1,000 Illinois drivers had their licenses suspended under these provisions.

Ikno Chon

Marine Pfc. Ikno Chon, son of Hoe K. and Myung J. Chon of 8328 N. Tripp, Skokie, Ill., recently reported for duty with Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, CA.

A 1986 graduate of Niles North High School, he joined the Marine Corps in January 1987.

Maine East Homecoming festivities

This year's official Homecoming theme at Maine East is "Paint the Year Blue," it could also be "Traditions Change." This is because mixed with the traditional Homecoming events (Firelight Rally Fri., Oct. 9, and Homecoming game Sat., Oct. 9, against New Trier) are several major changes.

Homecoming at Maine East officially started with the distribution of "spirit" buttons by Student Council. On Fri., Sept. 11, Council passed out buttons bearing a demon amidst a background of the Homecoming theme in blue and white. Each student received a button in homeroom to commemorate not only Homecoming, but also the first home football game of the '87 season.

Although the tradition of electing a Homecoming king and queen continued, some major changes in the voting process were instituted. Each class was able to nominate its own male and female attendants while only the seniors were able to nominate king and queen candidates. The whole school then voted for king and queen nominees plus a male and female attendant form their respective class. This allowed the seniors control over the king and queen winners while it increased other class participation in Homecoming. Voting for the candidates began Mon., Oct. 5, and the winners, as usual, will be announced at the Fri., Oct. 9, Firelight Rally in the stadium.

Demon soccer hosts St. Viator in the stadium on Fri., Oct. 9. The varsity game begins at 6:30 p.m., and after the game the Firelight Rally officially begins with the Cheerleaders, Demon Squad, and Circus and Gymnastics Club performing on the field. The football players and soccer players will also be introduced while the Marching Band performs. The new king and queen of Homecoming will be crowned along with their attendants. Finally, the "M" and "E" letters will be burned in celebration of Homecoming.

Perhaps the biggest change this year is the Maine East parade on Sat., Oct. 10. Traditionally the various participating floats and clubs walk along a street route near the school. But this year, thanks to Principal Carol Grenier, Golf Mill Shopping Center has allowed Maine East to use its parking lot for the parade. This change should increase participation and interest in the parade, with floats judged by faculty members. Last year's junior class won with the depiction of the theme "Catch the Spirit."

The big event of Homecoming is the football game. Maine East hosts the New Trier Trevars at 2 p.m. in Maine East's Memorial Stadium.

Afterwards, the traditional Homecoming dance, sponsored by the senior class, will be held in the school cafeteria from 8-11 p.m.

Innovative Moving services program launched

ERA Callero & Catino Realty has announced a trend setting new relocation service to benefit its home buying and selling customers.

The creative new program, developed in conjunction with Advanced Traffic Services, (ATS), a California based relocation management firm, is designed to eliminate the high costs and problems often associated with moving.

Studies have shown that even though more than 40 million Americans will move in 1987, moving still ranks just behind death and divorce as one of the most confusing and traumatic experiences any family faces.

Bill Alston at ERA Callero & Catino, likens the ERA program to that of a major corporation's relocation department. "Now you don't have to be relocated by IBM or EXXON to enjoy the benefits of a sophisticated employee relocation program. We've made virtually the same services and discounts available to the public." The state of the art program will feature substantial interstate moving discounts and complete move arrangement services through ATS, which will utilize most of the major van lines.

This exclusive program will utilize Preferred Customer Discount Certificates which are currently available from ERA. ERA Real Estate, headquartered in Overland Park, Kansas, has 2,800 offices in the United States with offices also in Australia, Japan, and Singapore.

For more information, contact Bill Alston, at ERA Callero & Catino Realty at 967-6800 or 774-1900.

Golf Mill'ing Around The Mall

by Linda Zachow

Autumn greetings from GOLF MILL. The harvest of new stores, interesting people, and greater merchandise diversification continues. Just as the squirrels are engaged in winter preparation, so are those engaged in business preparation. New stores open and construction sounds reverberate behind walls.

Two columns ago we portrayed an old-fashioned candy store that might have been the highlight of a child's trip to town way back when in this area. Well, the ink was hardly dry when RIVERSIDE CHOCOLATE FACTORY, the "spittin' image" of the turn-of-the-century candy store, appeared in GOLF MILL. It's a sweet delight for chocolate lovers and nostalgia buffs from the old-fashioned candy to the charm of their decor.

RIVERSIDE CHOCOLATE FACTORY is owned by Bob and Diane Hunter. Bob told us, "Our goal is to offer high quality gourmet candy at half the price of the more famous brands." Bob shared the secret that keeps the store packed with customers and entrepreneurs constantly calling for franchise rights from his only-weeks-old business—"It's Diane's recipes. She's a terrific, old-fashioned cook who learned from her mom and grandma."

Passing their old English bay window chockful of mouthwatering chocolate's huge hand-dipped taffy apples, and sparkling, colorful rock candies and jellies stops you in your tracks. Put one foot inside the shop and the child in everyone is hooked. Row upon row of jars and barrels of inexpensive candies most of us haven't seen in years captivate your visual senses and taste buds.

Try resisting the aroma of freshly made chocolate waiting from the kitchen, the multitudes of unique flavored fudges, and chocolates inside dark wood and glass display cases. Stir in an antique tin ceiling, paddle fans, delicately patterned wall coverings and you're hopelessly addicted. It's a trip to another era—sights, flavors, and neighborly service. Beware, GOLF MILL shoppers—there's no escape from just plain falling in love with RIVERSIDE CHOCOLATE FACTORY.

KOENIG ART EMPORIUM, another new business, is owned by Larry Miller, a "local boy" who grew up in Morton Grove. After graduating from-Niles West High, Larry studied art and photography and worked retail for 20 years. This is Larry's first ownership venture.

KOENIG ART specializes in one of the most complete lines of professional quality art and drafting supplies in the country. One of 90 outlets of Koenig Corporation (begun in 1933), they pride themselves not only on product quality but also on quantity and availability. Scrupulous computer tracking of inventory and a catalog offering 40,000 items with fast delivery allows Koenig to sell bulk quantities to professionals and offer the amateur artist/crafts-person the assurance they never need to run out of supplies.

Although Koenig's is not a huge store, their inventory is enormous: oils, water colors, calligraphy supplies, air brushes, sculpting materials, drafting supplies and furniture. They cater to the child artist with pastel chalks, huge sets of crayons, perfumed markers, and instructional books. They also do custom framing...For all your art and drafting needs visit KOENIG ART EMPORIUM.

Another of the newer mall stores is CASEY & OSH WORLDWIDE. Worldwide describes the journeys to the European countryside and cities their buyers undertake to bring you a totally unique fashion concept.

CASEY & OSH's line runs from sweaters patterned after Bordeaux vineyard workers in France to sophisticated Eurostyle casual clothing. Europeans have discovered the secret of comfortable, casual fit and have perfected the art of blending subdued color schemes into combinations so rich in appearance, the expression "less means more" is an understatement.

Mary Dunlevy, manager, and Cathy Adams, one of the most creative and artistic super employees we've encountered at the mall, explained the CASEY AND OSH fashion line: "CASEY AND OSH clothing is designed to appeal to all ages. They use only natural fibers and carry an unusual assortment of reversible sweaters lined in cotton to cut down on irritation." Their handmade, custom designed sweaters are virtual works of art, each thread tied by hand, suitable for framing as well as wearing.

Cathy Adams performed her magic with their subdued "steel colors" transforming casual designs and accessories into breathtaking and dressy combinations. A line of sweaters with the French expression "Secunda Alite" woven into the design captures the CASEY & OSH flavor in three simple words—Second to None. Until next time see you at the mall.

DEAR EDITOR:

MG Senior Commission expresses concern over Catastrophic Health Bill

Editor's Note: The following letter was submitted to State Senator Paul Simon and also to Senator Alan Dixon by the Morton Grove Advisory Commission on Aging regarding the Catastrophic Health Bill now under discussion.

Dear Senator: The Morton Grove Advisory Commission on Aging, representing some 5,000 senior citizens, is very concerned about the new Catastrophic Health Bill that will seriously affect seniors' net Social Security income due to Medicare's increasing premium costs. There are two areas of concern as follows:

1) The proposed increases of Medicare premiums as of Jan. 1, 1988 by 38% of where they are presently, to a total of $24.80 per month, totaling $297.60 a year (for single) and $595 annually (for married seniors).

2) Now our seniors are faced with another increase in costs, further reducing their net income, should Congress enact this Catastrophic Health Bill. The House has passed Bill HR2941 and the Senate is now debating their Bill S1127. Both bills place the entire cost on the elderly, which is grossly unfair and can lead only to financial problems for seniors. Premiums would rise again.

Another objectionable feature is the mandatory rule for belonging. Elderly should have the option of joining or continuing with private insurance which might possibly be cheaper.

We also object to the allowable maximum deductible of $1,043. This seems too small, as Medicare reimbursements are based on paying only on the "reasonable rate," which is much less than actual doctors' fees and Medicare payout is always billed to the patient's account, another unreimbursed cost. Doctors and Medicare continue to be at odds as to realistic charges for medical care.

As we understand the Social Security concept, the original intent was basically to help the elderly. Since then Congress has added a myriad of other beneficiaries, many of whom do not contribute any money for services received. This is the major drain on Social Security funds.

In closing, we wish to make an appeal to you who make the laws, please use a little compassion

Roses to Niles "outstanding paramedics"

Dear Editor: The slogan "Where People Count" is so true in the Village of Niles-I would like to tell you why.

On the 28th of September my wife was taken to Holy Family Hospital by the Niles Paramedics. I learned that their names were Marty Feld and Steve Borkowski. The care, attention, and medical service they performed causes me to write this letter. They are truly professional, courteous, and the type of personnel that anyone can be proud of.

I can't find the words to express my feelings, and how great they really are. From my entire family, we sincerely thank the Village of Niles, the Fire Department and especially these two outstanding paramedics.

Sincerely,
Gene Till Family
Niles, Illinois

when passing legislation that will affect seniors' income, which continues to be eroded by new taxes. These citizens, as a whole, have been on a fixed income since retirement with no way of being able to fund these continuing increases. Their money supply continues to dwindle, and in time will be exhausted to the point whereby they can not continue to purchase the necessities for daily living. Then what happens to them?

Yours truly,
Chris F. Seyer, Commissioner
Morton Grove Advisory Commission on Aging

Veterans Memorial for Niles

Time is running out for the Village of Niles, as a Bicentennial Community, to dedicate a site for a Veterans Memorial for those who served and for those who made the Supreme Sacrifice.

Veterans Day would be a great day to do it, i.e. the 11th month, 11th day, 11th minute, etc.

'Brilliant' move by Bugle

Dear Editor: All the local papers are covering the Niles video porn controversy, of course. Your front page article juxtaposed with a picture of Mayor Blase signing a Constitution Week proclamation; however, was brilliant. Congratulations!

Red Cross grateful for flood assistance

Dear Editor: Reminiscent of last fall's flooding, August's record rainfall again mobilized Red Cross volunteers and community agencies to provide emergency relief to those displaced from their homes due to the rising waters. We would like to take this opportunity to thank and give credit to all the communities, agencies and caring individuals who worked with the American Red Cross to provide this assistance to the flood victims.

A special thanks to the staff of Rolling Meadows High School who provided the location for an emergency shelter; Maryville Academy, Wheeling High School, the City of Des Plaines, and the Village of Hanover Park for donating space for use as registration centers; Glenview Naval Air Station for donating the use of their kitchen facilities and staff during our initial mass feeding operation; Township District #214 for donating space at Forest View Education Center for administrative functions;

Sincerely,
Michael Weidemann

Cancer benefit a great success

Dear Editor: This is to thank you for your coverage of our Jail and Bail fund raiser on September 17-18th at the Prairie View Shopping Center. We had fun and have raised over $6,000 so far and will still accept donations. Local merchants and business people really helped with their donations-William Riecks, Chuck Rowell, Ruth Clark, Lottie Zaber, Joe Alessi, Mitch Sturgill, Ken Martell, and Dan Staackmann, Dodee Connelly, Frank Tennant, and Bob Connelly.

The fight against cancer is a worthwhile cause and we of the Morton Grove Unit appreciate the support from the community and local businessmen.

Yours truly,
Dodee Connelly
Morton Grove Unit Chairman

Halverson honored by National Township

Maine Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson was among four township supervisors from across the country honored Sept. 9 for leadership and community service at the National Association of Towns and Townships Annual Conference in Washington, D.C.

Halverson was one of the top finalists selected from nominees for the prestigious Senator Dave Durenberger Grassroots Government Leadership Award to pay tribute to local officials whose community service exhibits the highest standards of dedication, ability and service.

Nominations were reviewed by a panel including a member of the National Association of Development Commissions, a representative of the U.S. Agriculture Service, and a professor of public administration at the University of California.

Halverson took second-place honors at the awards. First place went to Mary Jo Brown, supervisor of Cross Creek, Pennsylvania, who, with the help of a state grant, set up a woolen mill to spur development in her economically depressed township.

Winners were awarded plaques by Sen. Durenberger of Minnesota for whom the award is named in recognition of his strong interest in local government.

Jeffrey Schiff, executive director of the National Association of Towns and Townships, said, "This was the most qualified group of applicants we have had since we established the award five years ago."

Halverson was nominated for the award by Maine Township Trustee Mark Thompson who cited his role as an innovator in implementing and coordinating community social services.

Thompson said, "He has initiated programs to expand township services to the handicapped, the elderly and the needy and has worked closely with local social service agencies to coordinate services and avoid duplication. Under his leadership, the township annually conducts an Agency Day seminar attended by more than 100 area social service representatives and sponsors an annual flea market to help the agencies raise funds for their programs."

Halverson is a co-founder and past president of the Maine Township Council on Alcoholism and earned that organization's John D. Callaghan Award in 1984 for his dedicated service.

Thompson also cited Halverson's major role in initiating programs to combat teenage substance abuse such as Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) and Operation Snowball.

Halverson also served as chairman of the Maine Township Bicentennial Commission this year and worked actively to promote a number of community events celebrating the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution.

Bob Ralston at the Patio Theatre

Bob Ralston

Once more the dulcet tones of the 3/17 Barton pipe organ at the newly refurbished and restored Patio Theater, Irving Park at Austin Blvd., Chicago, will be heard when CATOE (The Chicago Area Theatre Organ Enthusiasts) proudly present the internationally acclaimed organist Bob Ralston in his premiere CATOE performance on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1, at 2:30 p.m. Bob Ralston was a member of Freddy Martin's Band from 1959 to 1962, but it was his 20 years with Lawrence Welk that skyrocketed him to fame. Bob's organ and piano solos were regular features on Welk's weekly TV programs, and Bob also worked out many of the show's orchestrations. Viewers also caught a glimpse of Bob as a singer, dancer and comedian on the program's many skits. He has 21 hit record albums on the market, has played for several national ATOS conventions, and currently tours the country giving pipe and electronic organ presentations. For CATOE's 25th anniversary program, Bob will be playing all-time musical favorites, your personal requests, an incomparable sing-along, and accompany a hilarious Laurel & Hardy short comedy classic. And he and MC Jack Moelmann will play a brilliant organ and piano duet.

On this outstanding program, Col. Jack Moelmann, third-term President of the American Theatre Organ Society, will act as Master of Ceremonies. Originally from Oak Park, Jack is now stationed at Scott Air Force Base near St. Louis. An accomplished organist in his own right, Jack has given concerts in such diverse places as Birmingham, Alabama, Omaha, Nebraska, Trenton, New Jersey, and the famed Carnegie Hall Cinema Theatre in New York. He has also made an appearance on ABC TV's "Good Morning, America" program. In addition to his musical accomplishments, Jack's sparkling wit and comic spontaneity have made him much sought after as a Master of Ceremonies.

Tickets for Bob Ralston At The Patio are priced at $6 (advance sale) and may be obtained by writing to CATOE, 703 E. 194th St., Glenwood, Illinois 60425, (please include stamped, self-addressed envelope), or in person at 6244 W. Eddy St., Chicago. Tickets at the door on Nov. 1 are $8. For information call 282-0037.

"Nobody asked me but I wonder how many of you believe Mario Cuomo will not be the Democratic candidate for president in 1988? He didn't go to Moscow recently to discuss business matters for the state of New York. He is slowly positioning his way into the candidacy without having to get involved in the pre-election campaigning. He is able to avoid the scrutiny of the press and the public during these months and he doesn't have to get involved in the task of seeking money for the 1988 run. And while you're still not asking, I wonder how many of you understand the announced Democratic candidates are really running for Vice President?"

"We spoke to a lady Monday who knows the family of Bob Woodward, the author of the controversial book about CIA Director Bill Casey. They live in the Chicago area in a western suburb. Woodward's father is a judge and the lady told us Mrs. Woodward emphasizes she brought her son up to always tell the truth. Our lady reporter said the Woodward family are very religious Methodists implying the Woodward environment has very strict, ethical standards.

While the Woodward book is presently stepped in controversy over Bill Casey's knowledge of the Iran-Contra money divergence, it has been reviewed as having much empathy for Casey. The overall picture of Casey is very positive, a patriot and a man of much substance.

The Center's Traveling Hands Theatrical Troupe counts Best Actress Academy Award winner Marlee Matlin and Chicago Emmy winner Liz Tannenbaum among its alumni.

"We are thrilled at the prospect of using the electronic copyboard," said Dr. Patricia Scherer, president of The Center On Deafness. "There are so many applications for a center such as this that we can't wait to get started."

Dr. Scherer added that the electronic copyboard is expected to be used in classroom situations as well as in planning meetings of the management committee.

The copyboard is the result of a joint venture between Quartet Manufacturing, a manufacturer of visual communication products for the office, and Onvics Imaging Systems (OIS), a research and development firm. Quartet Manufacturing and Quartet Onvics are headquartered at 5700 Old Orchard Rd. in Skokie.

She noted the referendum is needed to raise salaries of employees which have been substandard for many years. "It's hard to keep employees when they can find better paying jobs elsewhere. When we get new ones, it's expensive to train them."

The money from the referendum will also financially maintain services to residents. Since the last tax rate increase 10 years ago, costs have doubled and tripled in the area of utilities, cost of books, library programs, etc., Costello said.

"The board has been put into a position of making every nickel work twice to maintain services," Costello said. "However, you can only stretch things so far."

She noted the referendum campaign will be geared to getting the word to residents, clubs, and civic organizations in an effort to get "yes" votes. "We are going to have literature spelling out the needs of the district, and hopefully, it will be a successful referendum."

Reportedly, several committee members at last week's meeting suggested a 30 tax rate increase to prevent the board coming back to ask for more money in a few years.

Trustee Charlene Wagner said she was among those asking for a higher rate for that reason. "However, I changed my mind after library administrator Duncan McKenzie said the 28 rate would carry us down the road financially for many years."

Wagner said if the proposed referendum fails at the polls next March, services will have to be cut. "With more revenue we could possibly improve the Outreach Program which delivers books to nursing homes and shut-ins. Movies are no longer shown at the Huntington which provided entertainment to seniors there. We have had to tighten our belts and focus on other areas of service to residents," Wagner said.

County denies Golf-Greenwood shopping strip

The Cook County Board of Commissioners denied a petition by developer Sam Callas to construct a small shopping strip in the 1.4 acres of land located across the street from the Golf Mill shopping center.

The Village of Niles had objected to the proposal. Because the village border lies within one and one-half miles of the site, a three-fourths vote was required from commissioners to deny the project.

Change of Ownership Cards

Robert P. Hanrahan, Assessor of Niles Township, wishes to inform all new real estate property owners in our Township that Change of Ownership Cards must or should be completed. The procedure is very simple. However not sending in this card can be an expensive omission and prove a great inconvenience for new home owners.

Through the cooperation of the Cook County Collector's Office these cards may be obtained at the Niles Township Assessor's Office, 5255 W. Main St., Skokie 60077.

The Niles Township Assessor's Office will help to make sure that the card is properly filled out and transfer it to the Cook County Collector's Office.

Cooperation in this task will help keep your assessment records accurate and save new purchasers future tax bill confusion. Please call 679-9300 for additional information.

Callas, a Lincolnwood developer, had proposed a shopping strip containing eight stores on the 1.4 acres of land located across the street from the Golf Mill shopping center.

The Village of Niles had objected to the proposal. Because the village border lies within one and one-half miles of the site, a three-fourths vote was required from commissioners to deny the project.

The property is located in a sub-division of homes called Golf-Greenwood Gardens. The majority of homeowners objected to flooding, traffic congestion and intrusion of commercial into a residential area. The village filed similar protests.

Homeowners defended a suit filed by another developer regarding a commercial project on the three-lot parcel of land, which they lost in the circuit court. They appealed to the Illinois Appellate Court which overturned the decision of the lower court.

Callas, who was present at the board meeting Monday, indicated he would file suit following the denial of his petition.

enrolling each week. In other business, District 207 has been trying unsuccessfully to sell the Maine North property for some time. The present real estate broker, Sheldon F. Good, has been given a 30-day extension to represent the District by a motion passed by the Board. The matter of the Board's retention of Sheldon F. Good and other details surrounding the sale of the property will be further investigated in future committee meetings.

According to Superintendent Dr. James Elliott, "District 207 has been investigating ways to save money on natural gas for some time." The Board passed a motion to purchase natural gas from a supplier other than Northern Illinois Gas Company that would yield a savings of approximately $300,000. The switch to another supplier is a cooperative venture with other elementary schools in the district.

In other news, a motion was passed to allow the use of athletic facilities at Maine East High School to host the 1988 Youth Maccabi Games International Youth Athletic Competition in August, 1988 with fees to be established by the administrative staff. The request was submitted by the Jewish Community Centers of Chicago, an affiliate of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago. Maine East will be one of five host schools to competing teams from Australia, New Zealand, South America, and Israel for the Maccabi Games. Ages of the contestants will range from 9-16 years.

As a last order of business, the Board endorsed a resolution to be presented to the Illinois General Assembly castigating the Assembly for not supplying sufficient funding for programs mandated in the 1980 Reform Act. The resolution will be presented to the assembly by the Illinois School Board Association.

Niles Department of Code Enforcement explained why the program is so important: "Carbon monoxide is a poisonous gas that is odorless, colorless and tasteless. Some of the symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning include headaches, dizziness, skin discoloration, rashes and nausea. There is no method for detecting carbon monoxide poisoning other than through a special piece of equipment. The equipment is a small electronic device, held by hand near the furnace. The whole test takes just a few minutes. Our inspectors are in brown Niles code enforcement uniforms and carry photo identification badges."

Townhouses...

According to Joe Salerno, director of code enforcement, the new petition is expected to come before the board at the December meeting.

Proposed by petitioner Allan Schmidt was construction of 36-unit (reduced from the original 42) townhouses contained in six buildings on a 2.24 acre site. The existing Forest Flame Restaurant and a single-family residence would be torn down to make way for the project.

Salerno said, in a pre-conference with the petitioner, he had advised a PUD request that would allow for variations regarding lot lines. "They said it would be considered, but evidently did not follow through," he said.

After conferring with the petitioner, Palmisano said he would withdraw the petition and re-apply for PUD. After the meeting was adjourned, Kevin Krickeberg, a Madison St. resident, told the board the petitioner should submit an environmental impact report, along with other PUD criteria required by the board. "Area residents are concerned about flooding, and parking on their streets from this project," he said.

Weiner's wife was also arrested after she allegedly sold small amounts of cocaine to Niles police at the couple's home in the absence of her husband.

All three suspects are out on bond. William Weiner, 26, 8006 Oakton St., Niles, and Phillip Jager, 28, 1239 Harding St., Des Plaines, were both charged with delivery of a controlled substance after they sold nine ounces of cocaine worth approximately $75,000 to undercover police from the suburban Metropolitan Drug Enforcement Group (MEG) on Aug. 26. The delivery charge for both men was a Class X felony, which means they could spend between 6 and 30 years in prison without probation, according to a MEG spokesman.

The men were arrested in a parking lot in Hoffman Estates where they had agreed to sell the drugs to Niles police who served as a backup during the MEG arrest.

The organization is composed of 18 local civic organizations. Proceeds from the festival will be distributed to member groups for their projects. Points are earned for the amount of hours worked, not only at the festival but other events sponsored during the year.

Heinen noted the events include a dinner dance in April, a flea market in September and an auction that will be held 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 10 in the Niles Recreation Center, 7877 Milwaukee Ave.

The proceeds to be divided among member groups from all four events will be announced at the committee's November meeting, she said.

will be conducted by a hearing officer and a director from the IDPH at the State of Illinois Building in Chicago. The hearing board makes the decision on the revocation of a nursing home's license," he said.

Although Schafer declined to give details on the numerous violations, they include inadequate patient care, lack of attention to residents' needs and filthy conditions which were discovered during an annual inspection of the home last June.

"Since then, a state monitor has been conducting routine inspections there to make sure residents are properly cared for," he said. "However, a recent report revealed little or no improvements...precipitating the agency's action."

According to Schafer, the state inspector has observed wheelchair patients without slippers or socks pushing their wheelchairs with bare feet in hallways and other areas in the home. "Other problems concern personal cleanliness and other violations of health standards that I cannot discuss at this time," he said.

Attorney Albert Milstein, representing the nursing home, confirmed an administrative hearing would be held within the next two months and declined to comment on the alleged violations because of the pending hearing. "I can only say the action taken by the state is unjustified, and we will be contesting the matter."

Milstein said in the event the administrative hearing results in a negative decision for Golf Mill, the nursing home has the recourse to bring its case to the Cook County Circuit Court.

Bonnie Burnett, a health inspector for the Village of Niles, stated she makes monthly inspections of nursing homes in the village. After Golf Mill Plaza I was charged with the violations, inspections were made on a bi-monthly basis.
