Oakton investments unaffected by stock market

by Linda Zachow

Last week's stock market plummet had no effect on Oakton's extensive financial investments, said David E. Hilquist, treasurer, during the Oakton College Board of trustees at Tuesday's meeting. Oakton has not invested in bonds. Bonds and other interest holdings such as GNMA's comprise the bulk of Oakton's investments. "I am in the process of investigating other investment possibilities.

According to Oakton's Quarterly report on investments, Hilquist stated, "as soon as long- Continued on Page 46

Golf-Maine Park residents object to fee structure

Board policy on park fees raises issue

by Sylvia Dalrymple

About 30 residents, including board members from a neighboring park district in unincorporated Des Plaines, took issue concerning the Niles Park District policy on resident and non-resident fees at Tuesday's meeting.

According to Mary Marusek, board president, Golf Maine Park District made an agreement in 1976 to pay a $1,000 fee to participate in Niles park district programs, including use of the ice rink at the Sports Complex. "However, the park district has not made payment for several

by Bud Besser

The Chicago Tribune's Mike Royko wrote a great column Tuesday morning in response to Monday's plunge in the stock market.

He fantasized he met the ultimate MBA Yuppie stock broker on LaSalle Street heading for the Chicago River. Before he took a dive into the water he noted the ultimate Yuppie was wearing a Rolex watch which he was willing to sell at bargain price because of his Tuesday losses. The Yuppie was willing to sell his Burberry Trenchcoat which he was wearing. The young man, an MBA stock broker, also was ready to sell cheap his Mont Blanc fountain pen, his Hermes scarf, Porsche designer sunglasses, and with much sadness, his BMW. Before the Yuppie departed for the river he would sell Mike his Olin skis, Lotus Elan bike, espresso machine, his condo, his Kangaroo golf bag and all-graphite clubs, and his Prince tennis racket. Finally, he relinquished his most prized possession, his East Bank membership card. Stripped of his Yuppie possessions he wearily told Royko since Mike had most of his prized possessions he might as well have his last

Library board approves referendum in 5-2 vote

by Eileen Hirschfeld

In a vote of 5-2, board members of the Niles Public Library District approved a committee recommendation to attempt passage of a referendum in March to increase taxes the library receives. Action occurred Wednesday, October 14 at a regular board meeting.

The referendum, if passed, would increase the tax rate to .281 mils from .15 mils and would result in property owners paying 28.1 cents for each $1,000 of their equalized assessed valuation (EAV). The library now receives 2.8 percent, or $25.74, of an "average" Niles tax bill, according to library figures.

In last November's election, the library failed to pass a .25 rate.

Board Chairman Terri Carman said, "By getting the tax rate increased, we are only looking to maintain present services. If we hadn't closed the branch library

Conjuring up Halloween spirit

The Andrew Thelen home at 8151 Clifton, Niles, has attracted area children and adults to view the front lawn decorated with stuffed life-size ghosts, tombstones, skeleton in a coffin, and various other weird creatures from hobgoblin land created by Lorelei Thelen. At night, somber music greet passersby, with strobe lights casting an eerie glow on the scene, including a mausoleum-type entranceway festooned with cobwebs, plastic snakes and rubber bats swinging in the breeze. Thelen says her efforts are to create the true spirit of Halloween.

Adult Day Services Center Reopens

Parkside Human Services Corporation's Older Adult Services recently reopened its newly remodeled, adult day services center at the Avoca West School, 235 Beech Dr. in Glenview after the asbestos abatement removal project.

Adult day services provide an alternative to older adults who do not need the full-time services of a nursing home, but who, because of physical or mental impairment, cannot participate in conventional senior citizens' programs. Day services provide a setting that offers health, social, and recreational programs with an emphasis on restorative care.

Older Adult Services' professionally staffed centers offer seniors such diverse services as nursing care, medication monitoring, personal care and counseling, group exercises and recreational activities, as well as opportunities for companionship they might not have elsewhere.

Adult day services enable seniors to continue living at home with their families by providing supervision during the day. Tours of the center are available. For more information about adult day services or to schedule an appointment for a visit, please call 998-7474.

Maine Township gets sixth senior citizen grant

Maine Township Supervisor Paul K. Halverson has announced that the township has been awarded a $16,945 grant by the Suburban Cook County Area Agency on Aging to continue providing information and referral services to senior citizens.

This is the sixth grant the township has received since 1983 to partially fund the program which serves the township's 20,000 senior citizens. "The information and referral service provides a central clearing house for senior citizens and eliminates the frustration and hassle involved in attempting to locate the appropriate agencies to meet their needs," Halverson said.

By calling Gracey Duffy at the township offices, 297-2510, senior citizens can obtain information on housing, medical services, social and mental health services, nutrition, home-delivered meals, employment, energy assistance, social activities, senior discounts, and other services available to elderly Maine Township residents.

FLOODING FOLLIES...political pundits are predicting the flood control issue will be a political football for many of the candidates seeking state and county offices in next year's elections.

In the aftermath of two disastrous floods that occurred within a year, blame for lack of flood control measures has fallen on the state, counties and townships...with each passing around the hot potato.

Currently, legislation is being prepared for flood control, that has candidates jumping on the bandwagon for Campaign '88. In other action, Gov. Thompson is forming a special task force to provide broader input on the issue along with an advisory committee with representatives from each Municipal League in a goal to bring about a workable flood mitigation plan.

There have been arguments pro and con among politicians whether the deep tunnel project...never completed because of lack of funding... would have minimized flooding problems in local communities, however, there is general agreement, including Metropolitan Sanitary District bigwigs, there is an urgent need for reservoirs to capture overland water caused by overflowing sewers during heavy rains.

Flood control measures are desperately needed, but whatever form it takes...it could cost the taxpayers money. According to the news media, a flood control plan was hatched up by the Gov's aide and a legislator that includes big real estate increases which has drawn the anger of powerful real estate lobbyists and the Ill. Taxpayers Federation.

According to engineering experts and environmentalists, an old adage, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" rings true in the flooding issue. Experts say preventive measures should have

Funeral services held for 'Charlie' Zuccaro

Charles (Charlie) Zuccaro of Niles, who was honored last May by the community and village officials on his 100th birthday, died Monday at The Huntington, 9201 Maryland, where he lived for a number of years.

Mr. Zuccaro was born May 28, 1887 in Italy and came to this country with his family as a small child. Despite his failing health (with a recent bout with pneumonia at Lutheran General Hospital), the spritely centenarian was a frequent visitor at the Niles Trident Senior Center through the years socializing and playing pool with friends. An avid pool player, he was honored last year when his nameplate was placed on the cue rack at the Center.

Shrubbery fire causes $800 damage to home

The Niles Fire Department is investigating a fire involving trees and shrubs that caused an estimated $800 damage to a house at 9841 Huber Ln. on Tuesday, Oct. 13.

Firemen, who had responded to a report of a house fire, arrived on the scene about 6 p.m. to find shrubbery and trees in the rear yard on fire. The blaze was extinguished under 10 minutes, according to fire department spokesman.

Although the blaze did not extend to the house, the intense heat caused damage (paint blistering) on the aluminum siding at the rear of the house and the patio roof. In addition, a plastic garbage can melted, as well as webbing on a lawn chair.

While on the scene of the first fire, firemen also found a small smoldering fire in the exterior trim of a flower box attached to a house at 9847 Huber Ln., which was extinguished with a pump can. Damage was estimated at $25.

Because of the suspicious nature of the fires, there will be an investigation of possible arson in connection with the incidents.

Search for police chief begins soon

The process of selecting a new police chief will begin in the near future, Niles Village Manager Jack Hodge said Monday.

The management firm of Cresap, McCormack and Paget has been hired by the village to seek candidates for the position, which will become open when Police Chief Clarence Emrickson retires in May. "The search for a new chief will be on a country-wide basis via media advertising and police-related newsletters," Hodge said.

He added the village will also consider candidates from the Niles Police Department. Hodge explained the management firm will interview and screen applicants and narrow the field to about 10 persons in the selection of a new police chief. A final decision will be made by Mayor Nicholas Blass who makes such appointments.

The mayor will consult with the village board before the selection is made," Hodge said. Emrickson, whose retirement was announced in July, has served as chief of the department since 1961.

North Suburban residents will have a unique opportunity to speak to local and state elected officials about their problems at a special town meeting to be held at the Skokie Public Library on Monday, October 28th, at 7 p.m. State Representative Grace Mary Stern (D-Highland Park), Calvin Sutker (D-Skokie) and Louis Land (D-Skokie) are inviting village mayors, school district superintendents, township supervisors and residents of 15 villages and 5 townships to air local problems and discuss possible solutions.

Frequently, answers to our problems are separately attempted at state and local levels," Stern said. "We hope this meeting will be the first of many combining our efforts into an efficient, problem-solving group."

"We will analyze flood control, traffic congestion, waste disposal, and a variety of educational issues," Land explained. "We are not limiting the meeting to these subjects, but they are topics we believe must be addressed."

"State lawmakers are working hard to find solutions for flood control and other problems important to area residents," Sutker added. "In addition, we will be available to discuss

Travel industry positions abundant

There is an abundance of positions available in the travel industry ranging from counseling travel - leisure, corporate, and groups - to positions in sales, accounting, secretarial, and management and supervisory positions.

Most travel agencies offer part-time and full-time work, and a variety of travel benefits. According to Travel Weekly, an industry trade journal, a travel agent with three to five years experience is earning from $19,000 to $23,000 per year.

There is a dearth of qualified agents. In times past, agencies preferred to train their new employees. With deregulation and computerization, the business has now become very complicated and very competitive. Now, travel agencies have to utilize every minute of sales. They don't have the time to devote to training. Travel schools are they only answer for the travel agencies.

Adams Institute of Travel, located in Schaumburg near the Woodfield Mall, is approved by the Illinois State Board of Education. Adams offers a comprehensive travel training program consisting of five weeks of classroom study and seven weeks of hands-on computer training. Computer training is essential to enter the job market and Adams is equipped with the two most widely used systems - United Airlines' Apollo and American Airlines' Sable computer systems.

UNSTEADINESS AND FALLS
People over 65 have more falls that produce injury than any other age groups, and they are involved in 75 percent of all fatal falls. Anything that can be done to reduce the number of falls and injuries should be a priority for older people. The major causes of falls are unsteadiness, decreased vision, unsafe environment, and effects of certain drugs. Unsteadiness is common as people get older. It can be caused by a drop in blood pressure when standing up, decreased ability to sense position through the feet or balance in the inner ear, decreased depth perception, and weakened muscles and joints.

PRE-NEED, AT-NEED AND POST-NEED COUNSELLING

Local parishes in a process of discernment

Four of the parishes of the Niles/Park Ridge area, St. John Brebeuf, St. Isaac Jogues, Mary, Seat of Wisdom, and Our Lady of Ransom, are working together in a process of discernment.

Discernment is a decision making process which involves learning, prayer, and discussion. Although this is a common practice in daily living, it will be a new experience in parish life, which hopefully will be repeated again. The current topic in question for the four parishes is when is the best time to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation. In the United States, each diocese has developed a separate policy. Currently, about half of our American candidates are confirmed during high school. The Archdiocese of Chicago's policy is to permit the change from junior high to high school if the parishes desire to change. Parishes in Arlington Heights, Northbrook, Schaumburg, and Wheeling made the change to high school Confirmation some years ago and have found this a more effective celebration of the sacrament.

This Confirmation question was raised a year ago and has passed through several stages. 1) Each individual parish staff met to discuss their viewpoints. 2) The four parish staffs then met together with Mary Ann Clemens as a guiding facilitator. 3) These meetings resulted in moving on the next step which is to include all parishioners in the process of discernment.

The unique qualities of this effort are two - the four parishes are working together and will make the decision together, not a voting process. The process involves listening to the Spirit with openness and responding to His direction in a prayerful setting.

A series of informative meetings have been scheduled. Parishioners from all four parishes will attend these meetings so that together they may join in this process of discernment. The meetings will be held at Lutheran General Hospital Olson Auditorium, 1775 Dempster, Park Ridge. The format is as follows:

Monday, October 19, and Tuesday, October 20, at 7:30 p.m., Sr. Kieran Sawyer, author, lecturer and Director for Youth Timeout Center in Milwaukee will speak. (The same presentation will be given both evenings.)

Monday, October 26, and Wednesday, October 28, at 7:30 p.m., a presentation by persons who have experienced Confirmation in High School and parish program staff members will be given. (The same presentation will be given both evenings.)

On Wednesday, November 18 at 7:30 p.m., Our Lady of Ransom Parish, 8300 N. Greenwood, Niles will host an evening of Prayer and Discernment. In order to make a decision responsibly, a spirit of openness, participation and input by all parishioners is essential. The participation of as many people as possible will greatly enhance the discernment process.

Unique package wrapping demonstration

Judy Tyler will demonstrate unique ways of wrapping packages at the Nov. 5 meeting of Methodist Gardeners at Glenview United Methodist church, 727 Harlem Ave., beginning at 1 p.m. Guests are welcome and the $2 guest fee is payable at the door to the social hall.

Directions in Parenting Series

"If You Can't Beat 'Em, Join 'Em" is the title of the next program in the New Directions in Parenting Series presented by MaineStay Youth Services. Bill Webster, MaineStay Family Therapist will be the presenter for the program on Thursday, October 27, from 7:30-9 p.m. at the Maine Township Town Hall, 1700 Ballard Road, Park Ridge.

"Dealing with an adolescent is like dealing with someone who is an adult one moment and a two-year old the next," relates Webster. "This program takes a look at the adolescent experience from the inside out. It is designed for parents who want to learn to out-manuever their teen in positive ways," he continued.

The final New Directions in Parenting program on coping with temperamental traits in children will be held November 10. Each program is free and open to residents of Maine Township. For more information call 823-0650.

"Winter: Wonderland or Wasteland?" seminar

Lutheran General Children's Medical Center welcomes Susan Walker, assistant director of Child Care Services at Parkside Human Services, who will present a special parenting seminar entitled "Winter: Wonderland or Wasteland?", from 7-9 p.m., Tuesday, October 27, in Room 1042 West, at Lutheran General Hospital-Park Ridge, 1775 Dempster Street.

"Winter: Wonderland or Wasteland?" is designed to suggest ways parents and grandparents can enjoy the winter with their children, as well as offer advice to adults on the selection of appropriate toys. Walker's discussion will focus on the following areas:

1. Which toys may be dangerous to children.
2. Which toys are appropriate to a child's age and skill level.
3. Creative new activities parents, grandparents and children may participate in when the weather turns cold.

4. Ways to deal with your child's anxiety when he continually says he has nothing to do in the winter.

"As we move toward the holiday season all adults - parents, grandparents, uncles, friends - become aware of all of the different toys on the market, and usually become confused," explains Walker. "The seminar will answer these toy selection questions as well as common parenting concerns such as sons playing with dolls and daughters playing with trucks."

"Winter: Wonderland or Wasteland?" is the fifth in a series of parenting seminars at Lutheran General Children's Medical Center. The seminars are free and open to the public. Attendance is limited and reservations are required. For additional information, or to make reservations, call (312) 696-5183.

Chocolate Cherry-Upside Down Cake combines the great taste of chocolate with juicy ripe red cherries. To create this super-moist treat, be sure to use unsweetened cocoa, the all-natural baking ingredient that gives chocolate desserts a deep rich taste. Cocoa is easy to measure, mixes well with other dry ingredients and requires no messy pre-melting.

| 1 cup sugar | 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract |
| | Sweetened whipped cream |

Heat oven to 350°. In medium bowl combine cold water, cornstarch and almond extract, if desired. Stir in cherry pie filling, blend well. Spread evenly on bottom of ungreased square pan, 9x9x2 inches; set aside. In medium mixing bowl combine flour, sugar, cocoa, baking soda and salt. Add water, oil, vinegar and vanilla; stir or whisk until batter is smooth and well blended. Pour evenly over cherries. Bake 40 to 45 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes; invert onto serving plate. Serve warm with sweetened whipped cream. About 9 servings.

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

Which were the 5 greatest World Series games ever played? ... A national news service picks these: The 7th game of the 1960 Series when Bill Mazeroski homered in the last of the 9th to enable the Pirates to beat the Yankees 10-8. ... Don Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 Series. ... The 3rd game of the 1952 Series when Babe Ruth bled and then hit a home run to that spot in Wrigley Field, Chicago. ... The 8th game of the 1975 Series when Carlton Fisk used body English to help his game-winning homer. ... And the 6th game of the 1968 Series when the Mets, down to their last strike with 2 out, rallied to beat the Red Sox.

What was the last team to win the World Series 3 years in a row? ... Answer is the Oakland A's who won the World Series in 1972-73-74.

Can you imagine a football team playing ALL its games in a season at home and NEVER playing an away game? ... It happened in college football. ... In 1944 Yale played every game at home, and never played a road game all year. ... They went undefeated that year.

... If you mention this ad after your deal is consummated (but before delivery) Jennings Chevrolet will deduct $50 from the purchase price of your new or used car. One deduction per customer. One deduction per transaction.

Oakton Golfer medalist in Conference

Oakton Community College golf coach Rich Symonds says he's never seen a golfer as dedicated toward bettering himself as Kurt Witek.

"His work ethic is incredible," Symonds says. "I saw him out on the range four to five hours a day during the summer working to get better. He's a self-made player."

Witek has made himself a winner, too. The 79 he shot during last Friday's Skyway Conference meet in Waukegan put in him a first place tie, making the second time in two tries he's been medalist for the Raiders.

That 79 turned in by Witek along with a third place round of 80 by Tom Joseph led a Raider round of 334, which was good enough for second behind College of Lake County's 331.

Thillens ends 49th season

Located at Devon and Ketzle Aves. in Chicago, Thillens Stadium has been a northside landmark for youth baseball for nearly half a century. Their 1987 season came to a record breaking close, and plans for 1988 are already underway.

During 1987, Thillens scheduled 720 ball games on 2 fields in 122 playing dates. Nearly 200 different non-profit organizations used the facilities free of charge, and raised over $200,000 in gate receipts for their own worthy cause.

"We donate the entire facilities to groups like Little Leagues, grammar schools and other charitable organizations," says Stadium Manager Mel Thillens, Jr. "They get 2 well groomed fields, 2,200 seats, lights for night play and electric scoreboards. They organize their own event, charge admission and keep all the money. We do it strictly as a public service," he added.

Tentative requests for the 1988 summer season are already being accepted by calling 538-4444. Because of the rent-free policy, interested groups are encouraged to call as soon as possible while dates are still available.

Interesting Facts From John Jennings

One man in American history—amazingly—was U.S. President, U.S. Senator, and a member of the U.S. House of Representatives all at the same time! The day James Garfield was elected President, he was also a member of the House and had been named by the Ohio legislature to fill an unexpired U.S. Senate seat.

The only nation in the world that covers an entire continent is Australia.

One of the best-known ragtime songs of all time, Irving Berlin's "Alexander's Ragtime Band", actually didn't have a ragtime beat at all.

It seems hard to believe, but the borough of Brooklyn, N.Y., has more population than 19 U.S. states. Brooklyn has a population of over 2-million.

State gives traffic rules

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar

Rapid temperature changes in Illinois this time of year can result in fog, which reduces visibility and makes driving hazardous.

The best safety rule for motorists is to avoid driving in fog whenever possible. However, if you must drive, take the following safety precautions and drive defensively:

1. Always dim your headlights. Low beams direct light onto the road ahead and help you see more clearly. Light from high beams hits the fog and is reflected off it. Never drive in fog with parking lights only.

2. Reduce your driving speed sharply. Reduce speed even more if you see headlights or taillights in front of you. Headlights may be on a vehicle coming down the center of the road. Taillights can indicate a stopped vehicle or one that is barely moving.

3. Stay within the limits of your vision and be prepared to stop in an emergency. If the fog becomes so dense that you can barely see, pull off the road cautiously and stop. Do not drive on a highway at five or 10 miles per hour.

Driving safely in fog requires concentration and patience. Remember to dim your headlights, reduce your speed and be prepared for any emergency.

Traffic Safety hints

A car that malfunctions or stalls in traffic, while a nuisance in good weather, becomes a genuine safety hazard on ice and snow when sudden stops and turns cause many accidents. Recent vehicle inspections arranged by the AAA-Chicago Motor Club indicated that one out of every three vehicles had faulty cooling systems, batteries, fan belts or other problems that might cause a car to stall.

October is National Car Care Month. A number of mechanical things that affect traffic safety should be included when you have your vehicle "winterized." Make sure your windshield wipers are working properly, the wiper blades are in good condition and the washer fluid level is high. Your defroster fan should also be working properly. Never start driving in winter until all of the windows are clear, both inside and out.

Being able to see and be seen is critically important. Therefore, a winter checkup should include headlights and taillights. Burned out lights create an additional hazard on snow-covered streets when visibility is poor. The power steering belt, tires and brakes should be in top condition for winter. The ability to control your vehicle on ice and snow depends on well functioning parts as well as driving skill.

Other major mechanical components, such as the battery, carburetor, electrical system and cooling system, should be fine-tuned for winter to guard against a breakdown that could cause an accident. A breakdown is frustrating for the driver and is hazardous for other motorists.

Fire Prevention Institutional Day

City of Chicago Fire Commissioner Louis T. Galante welcomed community leaders and local residents gathered at Edgewater Hospital during the annual observation of Fire Prevention Institutional Day. His remarks stressed the importance of setting stringent fire safety standards. Alderman Patrick O'Connor, representing the Mayor, also spoke on the City's efforts to inform citizens on fire safety. The afternoon program focused on proper fire fighting and life-saving techniques. A specially constructed simulated hospital room was set ablaze and the roaring flames extinguished by Fire Company 22 in a matter of minutes. Twenty Edgewater Hospital employees, trained by the Fire Department, demonstrated proper evacuation and rescue methods.

Despite the chilly temperatures, St. Gregory's Grade School sent their first and second graders to witness a fire safety puppet show, complete with talking robots. Ms. Kathy Stonemark, Youth Outreach Coordinator for the Edgewater

Louis T. Galante

Community Council helped arrange for the children's participation.

Hypertension study volunteers needed

Kenneth Miller, M.D. and Harold Bregman, M.D., members of Health Care Medical Foundation, a 90-member multi-specialty physician group affiliated with Lutheran General Hospital are looking for volunteers with mild to moderate hypertension to participate in a drug study. This study will test the effectiveness of a new medication. This product belongs to a new class of drugs called the angiotensin converting enzyme inhibitors which are safe, relatively free of side effects, and need only be taken once a day.

For this study, mild to moderate hypertension is defined as a diastolic reading between 95 and 115. Two numbers make up a blood pressure reading. These numbers refer to the pressure during two phases of the heart cycle. The first number (systolic pressure) is the pressure during the brief period when the heart is contracting (the beat) thus forcing blood into the arteries at a temporarily increased pressure. The second number (diastolic pressure) is the lower pressure during the resting phase between the heart's contractions.

Persons must be 18 years of age or older to participate in the study. Volunteers are welcome who are diagnosed as hypertensive or those who are presently on medication for high blood pressure and are experiencing unpleasant side effects.

For more information or to volunteer, please contact Barb Atkin, R.N., nurse coordinator of the program, at 696-7694.

Lung Association offers flu information

Influenza afflicts people with chronic lung problems more adversely than any other group, so prevention and treatment is a deep concern of Chicago Lung Association. Individuals suffering from a chronic illness and people over the age of 65 run the risk of serious complications, including pneumonia and even death if they get the flu.

"For protection during the flu season high-risk individuals should consult their physicians and receive vaccinations in the fall, before the end of November," advises Tami Houston, associate director of patient and professional education.

Individual flu and pneumonia brochures are available for distribution to patients as an educational service of the Chicago Lung Association.

For further information on how you can obtain the flu and pneumonia pamphlet, call Tami Houston, Chicago Lung Association, 245-2000.

Golf Mill'ing Around The Mall

by Linda Zachow

Anniversary greetings from GOLF MILL. Throughout the weekend of October 9-11 the mall celebrated the first anniversary of its remodeling with a Grand Fan Fare celebration.

Like the fairy tale frog changed into the handsome prince it's hard to remember what the old GOLF MILL, an innovator in its time, was like. Memories of the old GOLF MILL fade as we've become accustomed to the beauty, comfort, and variety. As GOLF MILL continues to expand, we say "Spoil us more!"

With all the hoopla centered around the new, let's recognize and old friend, Nick Zervas, owner of NICK'S PLACE. For 10 years NICK'S PLACE has been one of those off-the-beaten-path eateries where some of the best burgers and Greek-style fast food has been served. Patrons and workers in the mall traditionally head for NICK'S PLACE on lunch hours and breaks not only for food but also to partake of the side orders of friendly Greek hospitality Nick and family serve up.

Nick immigrated to this country in 1969 with dreams of going into the restaurant business. Ten years later his first dream was realized. Nick is still dreaming, not a man to remain content long with the status quo. He hopes someday to open a large sit-down restaurant and with his drive, he probably will...For great fast food come on over to NICK'S PLACE and we guarantee you'll leave yelling OPA!

Speaking of dreams, one of the newest businesses in the mall is ARCTIC DREAM, managed by Rosa Glammona with assistant Betsy Mayhall. ARCTIC DREAM is a new concept in the marketing and sales of furs. Their formula is meant to be the opposite of the sometimes intimidating salon approach. ARCTIC DREAM is an informal relaxed place to shop, browse, or dream about the fur you've always wanted.

Don't let the outward informality fool you when it comes to expertise. Rosa and Betsy received a year of rigorous training from the parent company. These two ladies are experts in the characteristics of each type of fur and the necessary steps for proper maintenance.

Besides reasonable prices, ARCTIC DREAM has a knockout collection of fashion forward styles and an enormous showcase of accessories. Colorful sheared rabbit jackets trimmed with wavy strands of Tibetan lamb are real eye-catchers. So are the complementing knit hats with lamb trim. There is nothing more stunning than classic white leather with white lamb trim.

Besides beautiful leather coats, ARCTIC DREAM also has a wide selection of mink, red fox, and numerous other full-length styles in many different fur varieties. Some of their accessories include leather and mink bows, mink headbands, fox cuffs, leather gloves lined with cashmere or rabbit in a rainbow of colors, and boas.

Rosa smiled as she told us one of her favorite experiences is witnessing women who are browsing try on a mink coat for the first time. For a few glorious moments they are instantly transported to a dream world of glamour. Their eyes light up, their bearing becomes regal, and whether they buy or not, they felt like a princess for the moment. If you've always dreamed of fur, let ARCTIC DREAM fulfill your fantasy.

Halloween is almost here. It's one of the few days of the year children and grown-up children get the opportunity to pretend without being labeled "misunderstood". SPENCERS, managed by Audrey Clements, specializes in some of the wackiest, zaniest costumes around. Audrey and staff are experts in the art of having fun. By the time you read this, they will have dressed for Halloween at least three weekends already.

SPENCERS is not for the faint-hearted. Be forewarned—a life-size six foot inflatable Frankenstein is acting as official greeter at the door this year. He's really no more threatening than some of the masks like the Freddy Krueger hands and feet from the movie, Nightmare on Elm Street. Scores of the most wretched, vile-looking goblin masks (a plus at Halloween) are waiting for you at SPENCERS.

For laughs, SPENCERS has a plastic life-like replica of a man's torso, chest hair and all. Create Your Own Baby complete with adult-size diaper, pacifier, and bib, Chicken Man suits, and Barbarian Women with animal skin tunics and leg guards plus horned head-piece are equally hysterical. For that special mask or costume, from the funny to the frightening, check out SPENCERS. Happy birthday Golf Mill! Until next time, see you at the mall.

Illinois Bell distributes $2 million in customer refunds

About one out of every two Illinois Bell customers will see a one-time $1.37 credit on their October telephone bills. The credits, totaling $2.25 million, are part of a 1986 out-of-court settlement that ended a lawsuit challenging the manner in which customers were enrolled in Illinois Bell's inside wire maintenance plan. Customers will receive the credit if they paid for inside wire maintenance after Aug. 16, 1982 without requesting the service and if they did not choose earlier settlement options. This part of the settlement will affect about 1.6 million of the company's 3.6 million customers.

The credit will be listed as the "inside wire maintenance residual fund" on the page of the telephone bill that lists other charges and credits. The monthly inside wire maintenance plan will continue uninterrupted.

One of the earlier settlement choices included discounts of up to 40¢ when customers chose to upgrade existing telephone service with Touch-Tone, Line-Backer or Custom Calling features. Under the second option, eligible customers received a one-time refund of $5.29 and their monthly wire maintenance service was discontinued.

Under the monthly inside wire maintenance plan, Illinois Bell repairs and maintains telephone wiring inside customers' premises without an additional charge per visit. The monthly charge is 39 cents for residence customers and 44 cents for small business customers.

Illinois Bell began offering this service in 1982, following an Illinois Commerce Commission order allowing Illinois Bell customers the option of installing their own inside wiring. The cost of maintaining inside wire was included in overall service rates as part of the monthly phone bill.

Two class action suits were filed late in 1982 challenging the method by which the company introduced the plan. Telephone customers had been notified through several messages in their bills that their inside wire maintenance would continue under the company's new plan.

The class action suits contended that the monthly wire maintenance charge should not have been automatic. The effect, they argued, was to force some consumers into inadvertent contracts for service which they did not necessarily want.

In May 1983, the Circuit Court of Cook County ruled against Illinois Bell. The company agreed to the decision, but agreed in 1986 to an out-of-court settlement.

First Colonial posts 11 percent increase
First Colonial Bankshares Corporation, Chicago (NASDAQ/FCOLA) reported record earnings for the third quarter and the first nine months of 1987.

According to C. Paul Johnson, chairman and chief executive officer, net income for the third quarter increased to $2,542,000, an 11 percent increase over the third quarter of 1986. Net income per share increased 10 percent to $3.30 from $2.97 earned one year earlier.

The third quarter performance brings net income for the first nine months to $7,254,600, a 32 percent increase over the comparable 1986 period, or $3.83 per share vs $2.92 in 1986.

In commenting on First Colonial's performance, Johnson cited the company's net interest margin stability, the continued low level of loan losses and strong noninterest income as especially pleasing. He noted the third quarter featured the acquisition of Mid-States Financial Corporation, a commercial leasing company located in Schaumburg, that Johnson said, "will make significant and immediate earnings contributions."

First Colonial owns nine banks with 12 locations in Chicago and the surrounding suburbs. It also operates several non-bank subsidiaries in addition to Mid-States Financial Corporation, including First Colonial Mortgage Corporation, and BankersTech, Inc., First Colonial's operations company.

GOP hopeful seeks balanced budget

Elias R. Zenkich, a Republican candidate for Congress from the 11th District, said that a balanced-budget amendment to the United States Constitution "is imperative," particularly in light of the recent hike in the United States debt ceiling by Congress to $2.8 trillion.

"Under Gram-Rudman, Congress was supposed to balance the budget by 1991," said Zenkich. "However, Congress, on Sept. 26, voted to delay until 1993 a balanced-budget, and also to increase the debt ceiling from $2.3 trillion to $2.8 trillion." The Republican candidate noted that his opponent, Frank Annunzio, voted for both the increase in the debt ceiling and for the delay in the Gram-Rudman Act.

Dudycz seeks override elder abuse bill veto

State Sen. Walter Dudycz (R-7th, Chicago) says he will ask his legislative colleagues to override the Governor's Sept. 11 veto of legislation he co-sponsored to better protect Illinois' older citizens from abuse and neglect.

"I plan to do everything I can to convince my fellow legislators to override the Governor's action on Senate Bill 1228," Dudycz said. "While I agree that he needs to veto some proposals to hold the line on spending, he has overestimated the real cost of this program. Weighed against the benefits, it should provide a very cost-effective way of handling a disturbing problem facing Illinois' older residents."

"Recent studies have revealed some rather troubling data about the number of our senior citizens being abused, neglected or exploited," Dudycz said. "They show that a statewide program could expect to process more than 2,500 reports of abuse and neglect in just one year. Too many of our older citizens are spending their retirement years alone and afraid."

Senate Bill 1228 directs the Department on Aging to design and maintain a statewide program to assess alleged or suspected abuse or neglect of people 60 or older and provide necessary services. The first-year cost is estimated at $12 million.

"Cuts of this nature would not have been necessary if our Democratic colleagues had supported the Senate Republican's '502 Plan,' which redirected the state's budget priorities to basic programs for senior citizens, education, mental health and other social services," Dudycz said.

Tuition payback has second hearing

Chicago - Further debate into the question of reimbursement for tuition paid to private and parochial schools will take place in hearing No. 2 of State Senator Walter Dudycz's (R-7, Chicago) special task force Monday, October 26, 10:00 a.m., State of Illinois Center, 16th floor, room 504.

On September 22, Dudycz conducted a hearing into the matter at Resurrection High School on Chicago's Northwest Side. That hearing focused on testimony from representatives of the parochial school community. They spoke in strong support of a reimbursement plan.

The October 26th hearing is expected to include witnesses representing public school PTA's, The Chicago Board of Education as well as spokesmen from private and parochial schools.

FADA President should resign

"Federal Asset Disposition Association (FADA) President Rosalyn B. Payne should resign," Representative Frank Annunzio (D-Ill.) told the House Financial Institutions Subcommittee at oversight hearings on FADA operations today. FADA is a corporation owned by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC) to liquidate assets from failed savings and loan associations.

"Ms. Payne was hired because of her expertise and background in the real estate field. Her expertise did not come cheap. Her salary is $250,000; $50,000 more than the President of the United States," said Annunzio. "Ms. Payne has not lived up to her advanced billings. She has not even lived up to her own predictions."

"Upon her appointment in February 1986, she stated that the aim of FADA 'will be to break even.' Rather than breaking even, FADA had a net operating loss of $3.5 million in 1986."

"Ms. Payne envisioned 'a small core group of very smart real estate people' for her staff. At the end of March, FADA had a staff of 209 employees. Now FADA has 350 employees and expects its staff to grow to 400 by year end."

"Employees close to Ms. Payne have done well financially. In 1986, the top 17 officers of FADA were paid a total of $2.1 million in salary. These 17 employees received two-thirds of the total payroll paid to FADA employees in 1986."

"No one would begrudge these employees a cent of their wages if FADA was performing as intended. Unfortunately, it hasn't. As of June 30, FADA had sold only 45 assets valued at a mere $89 million. This represents only three percent of the $3 billion in assets placed in its control."

"FADA apparently has no marketing strategy for selling its properties. Its marketing efforts consist of a few mimeographed sheets of property listings in contrast to the FSLIC itself, which has slick color brochures and videotaped tours of the property available under its liquidation program. As a result of Glasnost, it's easier to get information out of the Kremlin than out of FADA," Annunzio charged.

"Difficulties in potential bidders contacting FADA have discouraged likely purchasers. Purchasers have a better chance of contacting Greta Garbo than Rosalyn Payne."

"Ms. Payne has not brought strong management to FADA. The corporation has been racked by charges of favoritism toward certain contractors; allegations of bribery; lack of responsiveness to prospective bidders; and foot dragging in response to cooperation with the Subcommittee investigation. Two weeks ago, Ms. Payne refused to answer further questions and stomped out of an interview with a television reporter."

"Ms. Payne may run, but she can't hide from the facts. Under her management FADA operations have been a fiasco. Rather than increasing FSLIC liquidity, it has drained money from FSLIC. Rather than disposing of properties more efficiently than FSLIC, it has been inefficient. Rather than streamline the disposition process and cut red tape, it has discouraged purchasers," said Annunzio.

Annunzio concluded his remarks to the Subcommittee stating, "the best managerial move Ms. Payne could do now is to resign. She should resign, and if she doesn't resign, she should be removed."

NI-Gas meter readers put pencils back in pockets

When your Northern Illinois Gas (NI-Gas) meter reader stops next time, you will see one of the company's latest technological applications in action. Meter readers no longer carry pencils and notebooks because they now take readings with electronic, hand-held computers.

NI-Gas' approximately 120 meter readers are keying readings directly into the new units, rather than recording them with paper and pencil—a technique hampered by harsh weather conditions.

The basic system was developed by ITRON in Spokane, Washington. Functions tailored to NI-Gas' specifications were designed into the system, based on input from the company's meter reading personnel.

One major revision was accommodation of same-day billing. "Many utilities will not bill customers until the route is complete," said Jim Stansbury, NI-Gas' general coordinator of automated business systems. "It is NI-Gas' policy to bill whatever accounts are read each day. This enables our customers to receive their bills on a regular basis."

Each two-pound unit is the size of a walkie-talkie and is operated by a battery pack carried by the meter reader. The packs, recharged overnight, can function 12 to 14 hours. Information for up to 1,241 accounts, such as customer's name, address, meter number and location, is loaded nightly into each device via a telecommunications process.

At each customer's residence, the meter reader records the reading through the customized keyboard of four rows, 16 characters each. The unit will audibly and visually alert NI-Gas employees to special instructions and conditions.

"If there's a dog to be avoided or if someone needs a little more time to answer the door," Stansbury explained, "the device lets our readers know before they arrive." The meter reader can also record new information that might be helpful the next time the meter is read.

When finishing with a day's route, the meter reader returns to the office where each device is placed in a small microprocessing unit. From there, recorded data is transmitted through telephone lines to NI-Gas' main computer for billing. The process is repeated daily.

Although fully operational only since April, the system has allowed NI-Gas to achieve increased customer and employee satisfaction; its top two priorities.

Willows Academy in session

Classes have been in session at Willows Academy for one month with 45 minute class periods scheduled daily between 8:35 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Student orientation half days and Welcome Day for the entire school on the first week helped begin the new school year. The following week was filled with Big Sister/Little Sister meetings, clubs began to organize their activities, and tryouts for the junior high and varsity volleyball teams took place. Students met their new teachers, began to study subjects together with reviews of last year's material.

What is the reaction to everything going on from new students? Here are some of their comments:

Meaghan Dempsey, a 6th grader from Wilmette, has a sister who graduated from The Willows two years ago and feels right at home in the Willows family environment. "Everyone is so friendly here and all of us study and work together." Maria Helminak, from West Chicago, also likes the atmosphere of friendliness. "I like the Big Sister/Little Sister program and the advisory program..." Susanna Pinto of Park Ridge, says, "The teachers take the time to know each girl." Katie Baca in the 9th grade, Brookfield, added, "The teachers are always willing to help." Kathy Roche, a freshman from Park Ridge, describes the comfortable atmosphere that she finds in The Willows. "Even if you don't know everyone you still feel at home." Roche has joined the ProLife and Yearbook clubs. Nora Byrne, Dean of Admissions, taking the administration view says, "The new students that have come to The Willows are spirited and have high objectives for the future. They have character and high standards and consequently they will give much to our student life."

If you are interested in visiting The Willows there are Morning and Evening Open Houses and Visiting Days offered. Beyond the initial physical impression, visiting the school will involve discussions with students, faculty and administration staff.

The next morning open house will be December 1, 9:30-10:30; Visiting Days are offered most Tuesdays or Thursdays and an Evening Open House will take place Friday, Oct. 23, 7:30-9:30. Come and see for yourself!

Fall Salute to Excellence

"The main purpose of the Salute to Excellence program is to reward students who achieve a good level of academic performance and to encourage other students at Maine East to do the same," remarked Assistant Principal Kenneth Faulhaber.

The fall program at Maine East will be held Thursday, Oct. 22, during homeroom, first, and second period. Although there have been four spring salutes, the fall salute was started just last year. The spring salute to excellence could only honor Gold Card recipients, students of the month, and students on the high honor roll during the first semester. Students who received such honors during the second semester were not recognized.

All Maine schools recognize academic accomplishment in some way, but programs vary from school to school. Maine East's guest speakers will be Mrs. Ann Sostin, president of the District 207 Board of Education; District 207 Superintendent James Elliott; and Assistant Superintendent John Benka.

Entertainment will be provided by Jake Jerger, a music professor at Oakton Community College. He and several of his students will perform on percussion.

Refreshments will be served for award recipients and their parents in the student cafeteria following the program.

The planning committee consists of class sponsors; Mr. David Jeffers, fine arts department chairman; fine arts teacher Roger Kleinfeld; and Mr. Faulhaber.

Gemini Open House

Donald G. Huebner, Principal, and Jay Alan Smith, Assistant Principal of Gemini Junior High School, 8955 N. Greenwood, Niles, East Maine School District 63, held their annual Open House on Sept. 30.

The 7:30 meeting was held in the Gemini Cafeteria. Following a short PTSA meeting, parents "walked through" their child's schedule and had an opportunity to meet their child's teachers and learn about the various programs in which he/she is enrolled.

Everyone at Gemini enjoyed meeting the parents and hoped the parents gained insight into their child's school and educational process.

Repeat drunk driving bill signed into law

Secretary of State Jim Edgar Thursday praised Governor Thompson for signing legislation to increase penalties for repeat drunk drivers.

"It is not fair that those convicted of endangering human lives by driving drunk again and again should face the same penalties as a first offender," Edgar said. "This new law will rectify that injustice by providing a harsher penalty for the more serious offense of repeat drunk driving."

The measure, which was proposed by Edgar, will increase the minimum penalty for a second drunk driving conviction from a one year to a three year drivers license revocation if the offenses were committed within a 20 year period.

Three time offenders will lose their drivers licenses for at least six years and will be subject to Class 4 felony penalties of 1-3 years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

"I commend the bipartisan sponsors of this bill for passing it and Governor Thompson for signing it. These new tougher penalties for those repeatedly convicted of drunk driving, coupled with our already strong deterrent for first offenders, will contribute to keep Illinois in the national forefront on this important highway safety issue," Edgar said.

There are presently 27,000 Illinois drivers with two DUI's on their records and 9,000 with three or more DUI convictions.

Edgar also commended Thompson for approving other legislation aimed at deterring teen drinking and driving. The law will ban fake identification cards designed to resemble Illinois drivers licenses.

"One of my priorities during the coming year is to reduce teenage highway deaths," Edgar said. "This new law will help work toward that goal by making it harder for young people to obtain false identifications."

The law bans ID cards which copy the size, color or photograph location of a real drivers license, use such words as "official," "state" or "Illinois," or show a map of Illinois. Such cards will also be required to carry a disclaimer in black, 12-point type.

Violation of the statute is a Class A misdemeanor, punishable by a maximum one year jail sentence and $1,000 fine.

The legislation approved by Thompson becomes effective Jan. 1, 1988.

Chief sponsors of the repeat DUI law are Representatives Thomas McCracken (R-Westmont), John Cullerton (D-Chicago), John Countryman (D-DeKalb), Roger McAuliffe (R-Chicago) and Alfred Roman (D-Chicago); and Senators David Barkhausen (R-Lake Forest), Carl Hawkinson (R-Galesburg), Timothy Degan (D-Chicago), and William Marovitz (D-Chicago).

Chief sponsors for the fake identification card laws are Representatives Countryman, McCracken, Cullerton, John O'Connell (D-Western Springs), John Matijevich (D-Waukegan) and John McNamara (D-Oak Lawn); and Senators Barkhausen, Marovitz, Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion) and Virginia Macdonald (R-Arlington Heights).

Truck safety measure signed into law

Legislation creating tough new standards for drivers of heavy trucks is now law, Secretary of State Jim Edgar announced Monday.

HB 2208, proposed by Edgar and signed by Governor Thompson, is intended to improve highway safety by establishing uniform licensing requirements for commercial motor vehicle operators and removing bad drivers from the road.

"A person who drives 80,000 pounds of steel and cargo down a highway should be held to a high standard of competence," Edgar said. "Not only does a tractor trailer operator need greater skills, he needs a greater measure of accountability because of the potential for death and injury in the event of a serious accident."

Under the new truck safety law:

- 1) No person who operates a commercial motor vehicle may have more than one drivers license;
- 2) Illinois truckers who receive tickets, either in-state or out-of-state, must report the convictions to the Secretary of State within 30 days;
- 3) Operators must notify employers of any license revocation, suspension or cancellation within 30 days;
- 4) No employer shall knowingly allow an employee to operate a commercial motor vehicle if that person's license is revoked, suspended or cancelled;
- 5) Drivers must provide a 10-year employment history to future potential employers.

In February of this year, the U.S. Department of Transportation designated Edgar's office to be the lead agency among the 50 states to develop minimum national standards for training and testing truck drivers.

"Although Illinois already has stringent licensing requirements and the vast majority of drivers are safe drivers—some states have lax standards," Edgar said.

"We believe this new law will play a role in improving highway safety, particularly for out-of-state truckers who travel through Illinois."

Studies have shown that one in five drivers hold more than one license. Multiple licenses are used to hide bad driving records or to enable those with revoked or suspended licenses to continue driving. The new truck safety law specifically outlaws the practice of holding more than one drivers license.

HB 2208 was sponsored by Reps. Roger McAuliffe (R-Chicago), Alfred Roman (D-Chicago), James Stang (R-Oak Brook), John O'Connell (D-Western Springs), and Terry Parke (R-Schaumburg); Sens. Frank Watson (R-Carlyle), and Timothy Degan (D-Chicago).

The law, which takes effect immediately, is the product of a Task Force on Truck Safety created by Edgar in 1986.

Currently, 528,620 Illinois drivers are licensed to operate vehicles weighing over 26,000 pounds.

Car Care

Tips for more Safety, Economy, Convenience

by Bob Miller

"Cooling System Tips"

Some car manufacturers now recommend lighter-weight oils, which can break down faster under heating extremes. The results can be overheated vehicles and unhappy motorists.

There's a simple way to keep your car going through summer and winter, and that's to take care of its cooling system parts. Heat will do more damage to a car than any other single problem.

The first thing all drivers should do is practice simple maintenance. Checking belts and hoses and topping these fluids, (such as antifreeze/coolant and oil) as needed is something everyone should do.

That means watching after the cooling system, which is like the blood circulation system in the human body, carefully. You can do this without any special tools or mechanical knowledge. When the engine is cool (never touch a hot engine or a running engine), see that the rubber seal in the radiator cap is still flexible; that the hoses aren't too loose; and that there are no visible leaks in the cooling system. If you do find any problems, the bad belt or hose should be replaced immediately.

Just checking the cooling system will do the trick to make sure the system is operating as it should, but you may also want to consider replacing certain original equipment parts with technologically advanced parts that will prolong your cooling system's life, while adding performance and economy.

For one thing, you can replace your conventional radiator fan with a flexible or variable pitch fan and save as much as ten horsepower. These fans have blades that change their angle as more air passes by them because of increased speed. The result is that they need less power at higher speeds while still passing the required amount of air into the engine compartment.

Another way is through the use of thermal clutches. These cut out at highway speeds and when they're not needed. Since the clutches keep the fan from turning on until the engine is warmed up, warm-up time can be cut as much as 50%.

Owners of older vehicles that have fans that run constantly, drawing on the engine's horsepower and actually creating extra under-hood heat, should consider installing an electric fan which kicks on only when needed. These are more efficient since they automatically shut off when not needed, such as at high speeds or in very cold weather. Consider this: when you start the car on a cold day, the engine is working to warm up while the fan is working to cool it off. An electric fan eliminates this problem. These fans can be used with a temperature sensor inserted in the cooling system that shuts off the fan whenever the temperature drops below a certain predetermined temperature (typically between 190 and 210 degrees), depending on the cooling system and capacity.

These fans can improve mileage and horsepower, help with faster warmups, aid fuel economy, reduce water pump bearing wear, cut noise, and cool engines better at low speeds or when idling.

One manufacturer reports electric fans are generally sold to replace the old, pulley driven fan, to serve as an auxiliary fan, or to replace the original equipment electric fan.

Many drivers don't know about electric cooling fans. Next time you're in your favorite repair shop, ask your mechanic if he or she feels an electric fan would be an advantage for you.

State gives traffic rules

During the fall harvest season, motorists traveling on county roads and two-lane highways must share the road with slow-moving farm vehicles. Be prepared to slow down quickly if farm machinery suddenly appears on your side of the highway.

Farm tractors and implements not only move slowly but usually are wider and longer than other vehicles. Do not pass farm machinery unless you can do so safely while staying on the road. Watch for machinery that may not be properly secured for towing.

Some farmers show courtesy and concern for traffic safety by pulling over to the right to allow more room for other motorists to pass. However, implements being driven on the edge of the road may be driven onto the road occasionally because of a bridge or culvert. Be alert to this possibility.

Farm tractors, implements of husbandry and animal-drawn vehicles can be identified by a slow-moving vehicle emblem mounted on the rear unit.

All vehicles displaying a slow-moving vehicle emblem are required to display at least one flashing amber signal light after dark or when visibility is poor. The light should be mounted as high as possible and visible to the rear for at least 500 feet in normal sunlight.

Maggie Kuhn, founder of the Gray Panthers, will be honored at Oakton Community College (1600 E. Golf Rd., Des Plaines) on Sun., Oct. 25 when the College hosts "Women's Day." Kuhn will be presented with Gladys G. Shute Achievement Award, from 12:45 to 1:45 p.m., honoring her outstanding contributions to the advancement of women.

Kuhn has been called a radical and a revolutionary. At age 65 in 1970, Kuhn was forced to retire. The result was the establishment of the Gray Panthers, an intergenerational movement of young and old working together to eliminate ageism, and fight for peace and social justice. Through this national organization, Kuhn rose to international prominence, serving as a role model for older Americans showing that what is possible in old age.

Kuhn's achievement list is as lively and colorful as the person herself. She was the subject of two documentary films, one as a panel member in "Aging in America" and the other as herself in "Maggie Kuhn: Wrinkled Radical." She is a prolific author, and a former editor of Social Progress, now the Journal of Church and Society. She is often quoted in books, magazines and newspapers.

Among the many awards presented to Kuhn include the Humanist of the Year by the

the Presidential Citation of the American Public Health Association in 1982; and the 1977 Peacemaker Award of the United Presbyterian Peace Fellowship. Kuhn has served on President Carter's Commission on Mental Health from 1978 to 80; the National Advisory Board on Health Policy; and the National Senior Citizens Law Center in Washington, D.C. She was among the national leaders selected to visit the People's Republic of China in 1976. She was a delegate observer at the United Nations Forum on Aging, in Vienna, Austria in 1982. In 1983, she led a Gray Panther delegation to the World Assembly for Peace and Life, Against Nuclear War, in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The 1978 World Almanac named Kuhn one of the 25 most influential women in America for her unique combination of humanitarianism, social criticism and leadership. The Ladies Home Journal named her one of America's 100 most important women in its Oct. 1983 issue.

During the week of September 21st, Mrs. Miriam Hirsch's Fourth Grade Science class have been conducting experiments on volcanoes. Each child made their own project using clay or mixture of flour and water. This hands on experiment gives students a better idea of how and why volcanoes erupt.

There was power in numbers last Saturday for the Oakton Community College men's cross country team, which won the 14th annual Raider Invitational at Niles West in Skokie. It took a good effort by the entire Oakton team to thwart Skyway Conference nemesis Wright College, which took the top two spots and three of the first six, but still had to settle for second (62 points) place behind Oakton (37).

The Raider depth was the difference, as only 37 seconds separated Oakton's top finisher, John Beatty, who placed third (21:02), and its fifth man, Mark Wold, who was 11th (21:39) in the 49-man competition. "You have a good chance to win a meet when you're able to pack up as well as we did," said Oakton coach Pat Savage. "It's encouraging to see this kind of effort from our entire team, and we couldn't have won the meet without everyone contributing." Jeff Gallagher (5th, 21:17) was the next Raider to cross the finish line of the four-mile race after Beatty. Joe Renguso (8th, 21:25), John Paschalis (10th, 21:33) also contributed to Oakton's scoring.

Oakton returns to action at 4:30 p.m. Friday when it takes part in the eight-team Waubesa Community College Chiefs Invitational. Other competing teams are Northeastern Illinois, Aurora University, Thornton, Moraine Valley, Trinity, Judson and Waubesa.

Robbins joined MainStreet in August 1984 as assistant store manager of MainStreet's Burbank store and was soon promoted to human resources/operations manager. He was promoted to store manager in May, 1985. Prior to joining MainStreet, Robbins held management positions with department stores in Pennsylvania. He received a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Pittsburgh.

MainStreet specializes in apparel and home textiles for the moderate income family and features popularly-priced national brands and private label merchandise. Twelve Chicago area stores are located in Burbank, Chicago Ridge, Woodridge, Blommingdale, Downers Grove, Aurora, West Dundee, Arlington Heights, Vernon Hills, Orland Park, Calumet City and Niles. In addition to Norridge, two new MainStreet stores are scheduled to open in 1987 in Mt. Prospect, Illinois and Westland, Michigan. With the addition of the Norridge and Mt. Prospect stores, MainStreet will have created 3,000 new jobs in Illinois.

Robbins is the first Annual Meeting of the North Suburban Coalition of the North Suburban Coalition. Interested persons are invited to join the group formed last fall to address some of the major problems facing handicapped people. The Coalition is studying housing, transportation, accessibility standards, employment, legislation and other issues that impact the lives of the disabled.

The North Suburban Chapter currently is gathering data on affordable housing for the disabled and would welcome assistance from interested people in developing a plan for the north and northwest suburbs.

ENTERTAINMENT GUIDE

'Halloweeners' at Fluky's

Black cats, witches, ghosts, and goblins are just a few of the bewitching sights lurking within Fluky's restaurants beginning the weekend of Oct. 7 through Oct. 31 for a scary-but-delicious Halloween! Fluky's, home of the original Chicago style hot dog for nearly 60 years, also has achieved popularity for their unique and elaborate displays of intricately animated seasonal characters which decorate all three Fluky's locations. These special three-dimensional characters create the most exciting animated scene for Halloween of any restaurant in Chicago!

An enormous raven perches on the arm of a life-size scarecrow show head lights up each time the bird looks its way, while corn stalks and jack-o-lanterns blink in the Chicago Fluky's. Vampires lie stiffly in caskets while an animated rat with beguiling fluorescent eyes creeps through the Northbrook restaurant. Three coffins situated at the new Niles location provide an intriguing scene as hands reach out from under the lids in a desperate attempt to escape!

These innovative decorations take an entire day to arrange and set at each location. "We do it for the kids," says David Bekowsky, manager at the Chicago Fluky's. "People call to see when the decorations are up so they can bring their children—they just love the moving figures."

Fluky's, famous for hot dogs and the chilling Halloween decorations can be discovered at their three locations - 6821 N. Western Ave. in Chicago, 2061 Dundee Road in Northbrook and 9645 N. Milwaukee Ave. in Niles.

As Mike approaches Mr. MidAmerica he needs to ask him if the guy's a trader or a broker. He's neither. He works for a living. When Royko would ask the Suburbanite what kind of a watch he wears he might roll up his sleeve and clip the questioner. Or he might show him the Timex he's wearing. Even Royko wears Timexes. If Royko offered a few greenbacks for some of the guy's possessions Royko would likely return them and give the guy a few dollars to boot. It's likely his Burberry coat comes from Sears and the Mont Blanc pens in his pocket are called Bics. The Hermes scarf our man is wearing came from his wife's knitting needles. And the car he's driving is five years old, four cylinders and is paid for. Our suburbanite likely never has been on skis, has an old Schwinn bike in his garage which dates back to his kid's younger days 30 years ago. And his Kangaroo golf bag is made out of plastic and the all-graphite golf clubs are 30 years old and are filed next to the 30 year old bike. His tennis racket, not quite a Prince, has Jack Kramer's picture on it, has a busted gut right in the center of it and has spider webs and dust camouflaging it in the same file as the tennis racket and the golf clubs.

When Mike asks our man about his East Bank membership he may pull out his Y card from the Leaning Tower or else his $98 special card from the Prairie View rec center on Dempster Street.

And when asking him about giving up his condo which overlooks the lake replete with a $100,000 mortgage, Mr. Suburbanite would think Royko belongs in the looney bin. Our Sears' buyer, with the five year old car, would tell him the mortgage was paid off five years ago and he's headin' home to the old lady, to a six pack and tonight's World Series game.

And when the game is over he'll go to bed and sleep eight or nine hours of continuous shut-eye. And believe it or not he'll do all these good things without ever having gone to college and acquiring an MBA.

fire department, and was president when the department disbanded in 1965.

Hohs services to the village include the following:

...He has been a member of the American Legion since 1946. He was a member of the first file squad and now works and still is active as a volunteer at the Legion's fish fry.

...He worked on the village's 75th Diamond Jubilee Anniversary.

...He helped restore the Haupt-Yeh House and was a member of the steering committee.

...He served on the Morton Grove Days Committee and currently sits on the Morton Grove

Fourth of July committee.

Hohs is currently employed as maintenance supervisor at the Morton Grove Park District.

Hohs and his wife, Alice, have eight children and 19 grandchildren. They have lived at the same house for 32 years.

The VIP dinner to be held in his honor will be Wednesday, Nov. 11 at the Fireside Inn, 9101 Waukegan Rd., Morton Grove. Tickets are $24 per person. Reservations are required. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Deadline for reservations is Wednesday, Nov. 4. Call the Chamber office at 965-0330 for more information.

Four candidate...

Weiner, of Morton Grove, is a business man. Minkus, who lives in Skokie, is an attorney.

Skokie's Florence Sutker, another candidate, served on the board from 1980 to 1983, and was responsible in forming the Niles Township Legislative Coalition during her board term. Sutker is an interior decorator.

Newcomer John Lartz of Skokie is seeking an available seat on the board. An attorney, Lartz serves on the Skokie Zoning Board of Appeals.

Board members Sheldon Marcus of Morton Grove and Martin Tierski of Lincolnwood decided not to seek another term.

Library Referendum...

(at Ballard School) we would have had to cut main library services."

Board member Robert Quatrochi said, "Without the referendum, we will have to cut hours (of service) and buy less books."

Disagreeing with the majority of board members were Margaret Rajski and Walter Chmelowski.

"I think the library should prioritize matters. The economy is not in the best state," according to Rajski.

Rajski believes the library should trim services "especially computer lab services" and put a hold on employee salaries. Chmelowski argued that persons in the unincorporated area would ask for a branch if the referendum is passed.

Library Administrator D.J. McKenzie informed board members that, under the current tax system, the library could not receive extra taxes for about two years even if the referendum should be passed.

The Niles Library serves patrons in Niles and unincorporated Maine Township.

At an initial cost of $60 and $45 per month, the board approved ridding the library of a situation that's been "bugging" its employees for several weeks. Action took place at a regular meeting Wednesday, October 14.

An exterminator will be hired to rid the building of insects, in accordance with a recommendation by Library Administrator D.J. McKenzie.

Board member Irene Costello said "We aren't sure what kind of bugs they are but Mr. McKenzie said employees have complained of bug bites on their legs."

In other board matters, the library board agreed to set aside reference books that would be needed by students in School District 71. In citing this service to students, McKenzie said, "I hope other school districts follow suit."

Due to the library's increased inventory videotapes, library policy will be changed so patrons now may borrow three instead of two, according to board action.

In other policy changes, board members agreed to make book loans to organizations and to increase payment from 17 to 22 cents per mile for travel under 50 miles.

On a first reading of amendments to the bylaws, board members agreed to raise the administrator's spending limit from $250 to $500 and place items on bid costing $5,000 instead of the present $2,500. These items must be read a second time at a regular board meeting before the board can effect any changes.

According to a report by McKenzie, the North Suburban Library System (NSLS) will now allow private libraries such as those located in hospitals or schools to become full members which may dilute NSLS services, he said.

In its annual meeting with an auditor, the board clarified fiscal policies which placed some doubt on whether a private organization may sell anything on library property. Last year, a private party rented space from the library on the northeast corner of Oakton and Waukegan in order to sell Christmas trees.

As part of the Board's regular agenda, reports are given at each meeting on the progress of self-education-related, examination and curriculum review. Associate Professor of English, Sylvia Stathakis, gave a presentation on the work she is engaged in—refining faculty teaching skills. Many of Oakton's faculty have been working with Ms. Stathakis reviewing and correcting their approach to classroom presentations through video tapes, discussion, and instruction. It is hoped that even long-time faculty will strengthen their instructional capabilities through this program.

The next board meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 19, instead of the usual third Thursday of the month due to the Illinois Park and Recreation Conference, Nov. 19-22, at which the board and staff will be attending.

improvements for the park will be held.

Balling also mentioned that a tour of the Morton Grove parks will be conducted on Sunday, Oct. 25, beginning at 9 a.m., and lasting approximately two hours.

The tour will leave from the park's garage.

The new Oriole Park playground will be dedicated at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 31. Park Commissioner Eileen Coursey will be joined by former commissioner Dodee Connelly as she cuts the ribbon during opening ceremonies. According to Balling, the Morton Grove Clubs, businesses, and individuals who donated money towards the playground equipment will be recognized with certificates of appreciation.

The board approved several committee recommendations during the meeting. Recommendations approved included the purchase of the "Strata Se" telephone system, the adoption of a policy to cancel any checks issued by the district and presented to the parties in payment once they have reached one year from the date of issuance, and the acceptance of the personal practices manual.

The next board meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 19, instead of the usual third Thursday of the month due to the Illinois Park and Recreation Conference, Nov. 19-22, at which the board and staff will be attending.

Under the terms of his contract the district will pay him the equivalent of one year's salary of $91,500 when he leaves Dec. 1.

In recent years, two other superintendents, Wesley Gibbs and James Erickson, left the district after a period of strained relations with the board.

In his Financial Statement of September 30, Hilquist reported, "Actual cash receipts for the month, primarily from tax collections were sufficient to meet operating expenditures and to transfer $2,792,000 to investments...Revenue is slightly in excess of prorata budget due primarily to interest on investments, tuition, and Summer Chargebacks. All categories of expenditures are within the budget except rent and insurance."

The Board approved expenditures for September payment of bills in the amount of $2,235,088.35.

Larry Sullivan of the auditing firm of Coopers & Lybrand was present and stated, "There is no material weakness in internal accounting control." Reports on audits to be done in October and November will be presented at future meetings.

Oakton College is two years ahead of schedule in recording depreciation figures required of all non-profit organizations, Hilquist also announced to the Board in his report.

been taken years ago via comprehensive land planning during the building boom in the 1960's and '70s. Over the years, they say, open green space has been covered with concrete in the overbuilding of large building complexes and parking lots.

Engineering experts point out heavy rains causes water to take the line of least resistance and goes to the first point of retention. With sewers filled to capacity, overlaid water eventually finds relief at nearby rivers resulting in disastrous flooding problems in the area.

A case in point regarding preventive measures was the heavy flooding that occurred last August in the unincorporated area of Des Plaines. Residents who were hardest hit vented their anger at Maine Township officials, who in turn said that Cook County had never followed through on requests to implement flood control measures in the area.

"The burden of 'mea culpa' can be targeted to county zoners, who with a little foresight could have alleviated flooding problems with orderly development of the area in the 1960's-'70s. Often called the architects of poor land planning, county zoners gave tacit approval over the years to developers to cover open land with ribbons of concrete under "highest and best use of the land."

The big question is...how come they never thought of best use for the people?

INTO THE ARTS... Terry Killips, former Notre Dame student and winner of a fellowship from the School of the Art Institute will have an exhibit of his abstract paintings at the State of Illinois Building at one Illinois Center (111 Wacker Dr.) from Oct. 16 through Dec. 10. FLYING HIGH... people who were around Golf-Glen shopping center last week were startled to see a helicopter flying low around the center. It was revealed the plane was delivering air conditioning units to the top of apartment buildings in the Terrace Square condo complex adjacent to the shopping center.

ON THE BOARDS... Maine East High School staged its fall play "Arsenic and Old Lace" last weekend in a unique three-quarter round set design. Leading ladies were Kathleen Christianson and Bozena Szneider of Niles. Other cast members included Jonathan Richman and Alan Berks of Morton Grove; George Farsalas and Nick Allard of Park Ridge.

According to a park district spokesman, the roof which had been ventilated by firemen is currently being repaired. Once completed, work will start on the interior.

Although the worst of the fire was contained to just one of the three rooms, the building suffered smoke and water damage. Economy Building Maintenance of Chicago is handling the repairs. Park programs have continued at the recreation center during repairs, the spokesman said.

years," she said. "When we contacted officials on the matter, the response by letter was they could no longer pay the fee. People then must now pay non-resident fees."

Marusek noted that at a meeting in September, a board committee had adopted a policy regarding fees for persons residing within the borders of the Niles Park District. The committee also approved non-resident rates of $7 over and above resident fees for park programs.

"We don't want to lose your participation, but we have an obligation to the taxpayers in our district," she said.

A Golf-Maine resident said her children has been involved in ice skating classes and ice skating competitions at the Sports Complex and cannot afford to pay $800 in non-resident fees. "We give our services in competition representing 300... but we are not considered residents," she said. "We would go somewhere else and pay a cheaper fee," she said.

Niles resident and S.P.I.N. member Jan Gerber read a letter by the organization's president Midge Di Nicola, which said 18 Golf-Maine families are S.P.I.N. members. The letter warned the park district could lose volunteer workers who spend time and effort in putting on S.P.I.N. and Open Sweetheart competitions that produces revenue for the park district.

"If they are forced to pay non-resident fees, they would go elsewhere," Gerber said.

Dave Avadek, president of the Golf-Maine Park District board argued the Niles park brochure indicated resident fees also apply to children attending schools which serves Niles residents. That would include three District 63 schools and Maine East High School which serves Niles and unincorporated Des Plaines, he said.

Marusek replied that applies to recreational programs, and does not include the Sports Complex or Tam golf course, revenue-producing facilities. "I think you misinterpreted the brochure and a phone call would have cleared up any misunderstanding," she said.

Avadek noted S.P.I.N. are allowed resident fees and asked "why not us?"

Following a discussion, the board agreed to hold a committee meeting on Oct. 27, to discuss the matter.

In other business, the board discussed the feasibility of obtaining the caboose from the Victoria Station property. According to Bill Hughes, park director, the new owners of the property had offered the caboose at no cost, with the exception of moving costs to a new location.

Hughes said the location could be Tam golf course, where the caboose could serve as a concession facility. The owners also offered to donate several coolers, a sink, wooden chairs and lamp posts, which Hughes said could be used at the miniature golf course. "I would get a cost estimate in moving the caboose to Tam for consideration by the board."

Commissioners discussed the pro and cons of the gift and asked Hughes to provide information on moving costs, and possible remodeling of the structure to arrive at a board decision.

In other board actions, Marusek reported the Donate-A-Tree Program has been a success. Initiated in 1984, residents and organizations have donated a total of 33 trees as of last week.

...Commissioner Elaine Heinen noted the park district has to pay a municipal tax on utility bills and suggested the village be approached on the possibility of dropping the tax. She noted it was a financial burden on the district.

...Commissioner Dan Kosiba reported the park district will hold a Halloween Party on Oct. 31 following a parade around the Oak School area.

...A grant by the Federal Emergency Management Assn. will cover 75 percent of the damage at Tam golf course as a result of flooding last August.

...The board approved a reduction of green fees by $1 across the boards beginning Nov. 1 to the end of the season. Commissioner Walter Buesse said that golfers have to play on temporary greens (as a result of the flooding) and the reduced rate may bring more people to Tam to increase revenue for the park district.

districts to offer drivers training for persons 55 years of age and older in certain cases," Sutker explained. "Another measure requires grocery stores to clearly mark prices of electronically coded items on their shelves. Still another bill would allow certain seniors to earn up to $16,000 a year and still qualify for the Circuit Breaker and Pharmaceutical Assistance Programs."

These and many other neighborhood topics will be addressed in what may be one of series of township meetings. "We hope we will have a good attendance showing us that local officials and resident of the north suburbs are clearly interested in improving the quality of life for themselves and their families," Lang said. "We are very optimistic that residents will want to come and let us know what is on their minds."

The entire class is given a free pizza party if all the children in the class reach their reading goal in any four of the five program months.
