

Ransom Ridge residents receive apology from Com Ed

Niles residents in the Ransom Ridge area, who have been affected by power outages over a six-week period, received a letter last week from Commonwealth Edison officials apologizing for their inconvenience in being without electrical power along with a plan of action to prevent such occurrences in the future. The Ransom Ridge area covers about five square blocks of residences and is located west of Greenwood Ave. and Normal St.

According to Joan Fredricksen, 8332 Knight, the letter said the company plans to replace deteriorating underground wires and install new ones to ensure power service. Continued on Page 42

Growing demand among businesses for parabolic dishes

Satellite Dish tax in Niles future?

by Sylvia Dalrymple

Although a satellite tax was mentioned lightly by village trustees, such a tax may be in Niles future because of the growing trend among businesses to erect satellite dishes for telecommunications purposes.

The subject came up at Tuesday's board meeting when the board approved an ordinance that allows W. W. Grainger Co., 7300 Melvina, to erect 6' and 8' satellite dishes on the roof of their building and a 20' foot dish on the ground.

According to a Grainger representative, they would be using the dishes for telecommunications purposes. Continued on Page 42

(Reprinted from September 18, 1989 issue)
It wasn't any traumatic experience...and it couldn't be considered a tear-in-the-eye moment...or a lump-in-the-throat feeling...but still, our "little girl" left the nest Sunday, and little Mother and Dad knew one era had ended and another one was starting. We had joined that ever-growing legion known as parents of a collegiate.

During the past week I had noticed Betty Coed's mother was lingering in her daughter's bedroom. She'd just sort of stand in the center of the room, and rather gloomily look about the room. She didn't say anything but I didn't tease her about her lingering.

Sunday at the noon dinner Betty Coed had her boyfriend alongside her and when her corny Dad gave a toast wishing her well during the coming years she gave me that "Did you really have to say that?" look. Since there were three other younger ones at the table who generally spill their way thru a meal, the chances for any sentimental "last meal at home" were unlikely. The only sentiment I had was, "I'll be glad when she's gone, then I won't have

No further radon testing of Niles homes

Niles village officials have decided not to conduct random radon testing of homes this year based on results from last year's testing indicating the village is virtually radon free, according to Todd Bavaro, director of housing for the village.

Although there have been reports on television and in the news media that the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has found high concentrations of the cancer-causing gas in several states, Bavaro noted Niles has been found to have

Jayne nephew pleads guilty in drug sales

Frank Jayne Jr. pleads guilty last Monday to charges that he and his wife distributed cocaine from their home and horse stable in Morton Grove.

He is the nephew of the late horseman, Silas Jayne who died last year. Silas Jayne served a prison term for conspiracy to kill his brother, George, who was shot to death in his Inverness home in 1970 by a hired gunman. He was paroled in 1979 after serving 7 years of a 6-to 20-year sentence.

As part of a plea agreement with the U.S. attorney's office, Frank Jayne and his wife, Kathy also agreed to forfeit more than $650,000 in drug sales proceeds and the sale of the stable and

A fire ripped through the rear half of a two-story building housing six businesses at 7106-08 Touhy Ave., Niles, causing damage in excess of $50,000 on Thursday, September 22.

Niles firefighters and nine suburban fire departments with emergency personnel and equipment responded to the 2-alarm fire that began shortly before 5 p.m. in the rear half of the building. The blaze raged with such intensity, it caused a section of the roof to collapse onto the second floor, which in turn crashed down to the first floor.

Decent, affordable housing is a critical problem facing both the elderly and the disabled. Creative and innovative solutions through matching adults with disabilities and other special needs in shared housing arrangements will be described by guest speaker Linda Smilgoff of the Resource Center for the Elderly (formerly the Northwest Service Coordination for the Health Impaired Elderly of Cook County). This program is a pilot project funded by the Governor's Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities in an effort to help people with disabilities combine their resources and maintain their independence. Special People and A-SCIP will present an exciting line-up of informative monthly programs throughout the year. Future programs will feature discussions of transportation, employment and other topics of interest to the disabled. Residents of Chicago and the north and northwest suburban areas are invited to attend. The meetings are held on the first Thursday, of every month at the Maine Township Town Hall, which is accessible to the handicapped. Special People will provide lift van service to the meetings on a first-come, first-serve basis with 24-hour notice. For van service call Ron Brekke at 318-0597. Freedom to Read

People who have read the book or seen the movie of Ray Bradbury's "Fahrenheit 451"...a tale of a futuristic society in which books have been banned and some of the citizens ultimately risk their lives to get access to written works...should go to the Niles library to view an exhibit of books that have been challenged and banned in this country.

In observance of National Unanned Books Week (Sept. 24-Oct. 1) the Niles Library Board hopes with the exhibit, all citizens will become aware of the threat and impact of censorship in a free society. The point is made with a collection of banned books bound in chains in glass display cases.

According to Duncan McKenzie, library administrator, when books are banned, citizens lose a precious freedom because they are denied access to ideas and information to make informed decisions.

"Who would have known about the horrors of the Holocaust if books had not been written about that sorry period of history? Because of an informed public, there is safeguard against history repeating itself," he said.

Among the books in symbolic chains are Edgar Rice Burroughs' "Tarzan" removed from the Los Angeles Public Library because Tarzan allegedly lived in sin with Jane, the "American Heritage Dictionary" banned in several school libraries because of objectionable language, and believe it or not, William Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" because of religious bias.

Another title in the display, "Elmer Gantry" by Sinclair Lewis, was banned in Boston, Camden, NJ, and in any catalog listing in the U.S. Post Office.

Challenges on children's books include Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland" on grounds that animals don't use human language and "In the Rabbit's Garden" by Leo Lionni because the story about two rabbits living in a lush garden paradise made a mockery of the Bible's tale of Adam and Eve. Unlike their story, Lionni rewards his bunnies for eating the forbidden fruit by allowing them to live happily ever after.

And how about the outrageous challenge by a Tennessee high school to ban the book "Huckleberry Finn" because of racial slurs.

Niles Fire Dept. calls

The Niles Fire Department answered 21 fire alarms and 43 ambulance calls between Sept. 16 and Sept. 23.

A smoke scare at 8500 Golf Rd. was attributed to smoldering tissue in an ash tray in a women's washroom on Sept. 16. Firemen went to 8607 National on Sept. 16, where they found a recently cleaned stove had been mistaken for smoke by the occupant. A check showed there was no hazard.

Firefighters responded to 6913 Jarvis to investigate a gas odor in the kitchen of a second floor building on Sept. 17. The gas cock on the range was shut off and the house was ventilated. The occupant was advised to notify the gas company to check the leak source.

A fire alarm at the Regency Nursing Home, 6631 Milwaukee, was maliciously activated by someone in the building on Sept. 17.

Following a public hearing, board members of East Maine Elementary School District 63 approved a 1988-89 budget of $18,414,620, an increase of $1,708,641 from last year. Action took place at a regular meeting Monday, Sept. 26.

This year's revenue is expected to be $16,025,394 which will create a negative balance of $2,389,620. Board members also authorized the administration to prepare

Sears to house postal station

The U.S. Postal Service will open small post offices inside 10 Sears, Roebuck and Co. stores that will include the facility at the Golf Mill shopping center in Niles.

On October 7, consumers will be able to buy stamps, mail parcels and send letters and packages by certified mail or Express Mail at postal counters, which will be located at the customer-service counter on the second floor of the Golf Mill store, according to a Sears spokesman.

The contract postal station, Postal Convenience Center, will be open during regular store hours, including weekends and federal holidays when regular post offices are closed. "It will be another special service provided for customers," the spokesman said.

Reportedly, the centers will be tested for a year and if they prove successful, Sears will put them in stores throughout the country.

Although the Postal Service has operated contract postal stations for many years, usually in tentative budget for the 1989-90 school year. In other business, board members consented to extend time necessary to complete life and safety work in all district schools. Work is done in three year cycles, according to Associate Superintendent Dr. Donald Stetina.

Also, stipends were approved for extra duty to be performed by the administration to prepare

Watercolor artist at Niles Art Guild

Watercolor artist, Thelma Cornell Spain, will demonstrate her technique of wet-in-wet painting at the Niles Art Guild meeting to be held in the Niles Recreation Center, 7877 Milwaukee Ave., Niles, on Wednesday, October 5, at 7:30 p.m.

Her works deal with bodies of water, sand and mountain ranges; early environments which lend to her current direction. It is in the layering of colors and in some paintings, the layering of papers and colors that she strives for those symbols and purest forms of reflected light.

After studying art in Ocean County College and Boris Blai Foundation for the Arts in New Jersey, she continued to study watercolor with several masters of the media. Thelma has won over 100 awards in numerous juried and invitational shows in Illinois and New Jersey.

Her works hang in many galleries some of which are: Countryside Art Center, Arlington Heights, IL; Art Institute of Chicago; Harper College, Palatine, IL; Quaker Oats Gallery, Chicago, IL; and Triton Gallery, in River Grove, IL.

Thelma's Public Collections include: Universal Oil Products, IL; Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, IL; Moore Business Forms, Inc., Glenview, IL; Des Plaines Public Library, Des Plaines, IL.

The highlight of Sukkahfest is the debut of a one-of-a-kind, large, muralized sukkah depicting life-size scenes in Jewish history from the birth of Abraham leading up to the Jews leaving Egypt and living in sukkas for the first time, during their travels through the desert.

Refreshments will be served inside the sukkah. Holiday baking, a carnival, games and crafts will be available for the children.

For more information concerning Sukkahfest, contact the North Suburban Lubavitch Chabad office at 433-1567.

Book discussion at Niles Library

Maya Angelou is not an ordinary person. She has danced, sung, acted, produced, and directed. This alone would serve her well but she did not stop. She chose to work with words. Maya is a poet and writer.

When Angelou writes, words belong to her. They're fitted and sized and they wear the author's ways. Not surprisingly, Angelou in her childhood was the victim of a violent crime. Her ingenious response was to grow silent, to become mute. She did not part her lips with sound for a number of years. She filled her mind with ideas—ideas from books. Shakespeare was read and memorized. The plays enacted by Maya's silent self, her mind. Time did pass. When Maya returned to the world of speech, wonder of wonders, she had much to say and many ways to say it.

"I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings" is an autobiographical account of her early years. Her rendering is not easy. Her story is not light. It is an account filled with rage and resolution.

The Niles Library will discuss Angelou's work on October 3, at 2 p.m. and October 4 at 7 p.m. Angelou provides the springboard and participants will take off sharing ideas and emotions.

This session is free and open to the public. The library can assist you in obtaining a copy of the book. For additional information, contact Halina Maj or Judy Zeller at 967-8554.

Fall Sermon Series at St. John Lutheran

Have you ever wondered what the Bible has to say about the Lifestyle of the Christian? Is the way that we live even important in the Bible's (and the Lord's) eyes? For answers to these and other questions, join us at St. John Lutheran Church, 7429 Milwaukee Ave., Niles, for an 8 part Sermon Series by the Rev. Thomas K. Stoebig entitled "Lifestyles of the Rich in Spirit." Services are at 8 p.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Also: during Adult Bible Study at 9:15 a.m. on these Sundays, we will look at specific Bible Characters whose lives modeled or didn't model these traits.

Plan to attend both Bible Study and Worship on these Sundays with St. John.

The schedule is as follows:
October 2: Introduction: "The Importance of the Christian's Lifestyle" Colossians 3

October 9: "A Clean Heart" Colossians 3:5-6

October 16: "A Clean Mouth" Colossians 3:8

October 23: "A Truthful Lifestyle" Colossians 3:9-10

SEARCH Bible Study resumes

The fifth unit of the SEARCH Bible Study series will begin on Sunday, Oct. 2, at 9:45 a.m. in the Agape Room of Messiah Lutheran Church, 1605 Vernon, Park Ridge. Participants of the first four units as well as first time participants are welcome to enroll. Visitors from the community are also invited.

Deaconess Olive Hanson, who has been a small group leader in the first four units, will be the group leader of Unit 5. The eight-week unit focuses on select portions of the first 16 chapters of the book of Matthew. The theme of this four-unit series is "Journeys."

SEARCH is a method of study more than a body of material to be mastered. It assists believers to read the Scriptures with greater understanding, to reflect on their faith in light of the Biblical witness, and to reach out to others in obedience to God's directing. It is geared for the novice student of the Bible as well as the well-seasoned learner. All can benefit from the SEARCH leadership in new exploration of the Bible. Registration fee is $5 per participant.

noon services at 6:15 p.m. Candlelighting times are 6:10 p.m. on Sunday evenings, October 2 and 7:12 p.m. on Monday evening, October 3.

Shemini Atzeres and Simchas Torah, rejoicing with the Torah culminate a month filled with uplifting experiences, enriching every aspect of one's spiritual, intellectual and emotional lives. When dancing with the Torah, the holy scroll remains in its cover, for this not a time a study. The joy of Simchas Torah is greater than any joy derived from intellectual study. It is said the Torah itself rejoices when held by both scholar and novice, thus emphasizing the unity of the Jewish people.

Services are free. For more information contact the Lubavitch Chabad of Niles office, 296-1770, 262-2770.

WFYR Radiothon for St. Jude

Cancer is second only to accidents as the leading cause of death among American children. To help give children stricken with catastrophic diseases a better chance of living, radio station WFYR has teamed up with St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Together they will host a 50 1/2 hour radiothon to raise funds. The event will be broadcast live from the east lobby of the Hyatt Regency Chicago from 9:30 a.m. Monday, November 21 until noon on Wednesday, November 23.

WFYR's Radiothon will be hosted by 103.5 WFYR's Kurt Johnson, who went to Memphis to see the work of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. "It is an awesome place for life, for those kids stricken with cancer and their wonderful parents. It was just awesome and I'm excited to be a part of this project. Just when am I going to sleep?"

Drew Horowitz, WFYR's Vice President/General Manager, commented, "103.5 WFYR radio is glad to donate so much air time to this wonderful organization that works so hard for all our children, and all the Chicago and kids, too. I think this effort with St. Jude is more important to us than anything we've had a chance to do."

The WFYR Radiothon will be a major fund raising event for St. Jude, and it is appropriate that it is taking place in Chicago. Although the Hospital itself is in Memphis, it has many ties to Chicago. It was here that Danny Thomas, then a struggling young actor, made a vow to build a shrine to St. Jude if he would "show him his way in life." It was here that Samuel Cardinal Stritch helped him fulfill that vow by advising him to build a place for sick children. The seeds first planted in Chicago led to the growth of a hospital whose research and treatments give hope and life to children, not only in Memphis, but also in Chicago and throughout the world. Also, a Chicago native, Dr. Joseph Simone, has been director of St. Jude since 1983.

Currently, the Hospital is treating more than 3,200 patients, 440 of them from Illinois. Since its opening in 1962, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital has led the way in the study and treatment of childhood cancer and catastrophic disease. Patients are accepted without regard to race, creed, or the ability of the family to pay.

Anyone interested in volunteering their time at the radiothon can call the St. Jude Midwest Regional Office at: 786-0460.

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW

Open up the captain's trunk she had when she was young, the trunk with the secret drawer you heard about when you were a child. Inside are love letters, quilts or lace finely worked, bits long ago paid. And a brooch. Or necklace. A diamond bracelet. Or ring. From trunks and drawers and jewelry boxes come estate jewelry pieces, jewelry worn and loved and ready to be worn again. Estate jewelry is recycled jewelry and it gives you the chance to own jewelry unique to you.

Before we offer estate jewelry, we examine the condition of the metals, identify the gemstones, and refurbish any badly worn mountings. Our estate jewelry is something old, yes, but for you it is something new. Because we offer the best of what we find, we are sure our estate jewelry will please you.

Estate jewelry provides you an elegant, unique piece, from the dark black jewelry of the Victorian period, through the romantic and free flowing Art Nouveau themes of nature and Woman. The lacy patterns of Edwardian pieces with diamonds and pearls set in platinum will accent current classic looks, while the characteristic geometric symmetry of the Art Deco period with its strong contrasting bold colors is also the stuff of today. Estate jewelry offers quality crafting, elegant and unique design and good value. Come in today to see what's new in something old.

Police are investigating the case.

Someone stole a 1988 Ford Mustang worth $14,000 and a 1987 Chevrolet worth $9,000 at a car agency in the 9400 block of Milwaukee Ave. on September 19.

Police responded to a burglary alarm at a gas station in the 7600 block of Milwaukee Ave. on September 18.

A witness told police he observed a man break a window in the building and carry out some unknown items. He then fled toward Javell Ter.

In a search of the area, the witness who pointed him out. Police attempted to apprehend the alleged offender walking south on Milwaukee Ave., but lost him when he ran through a U-Hall lot.

Taken from the gas station were 10 cartons of cigarettes of undetermined value.

A Sears agent on September 19 spotted two janitors enter a washroom where they had hid some merchandise.

The first offender put on a T-shirt and concealed various items of lingerie down the front of his pants worth a total of $35.35. The second offender put on a T-shirt and stuffed a brassiere totaling $22.50 down the front of his pants. Both then exited the store, where they were detained by security men until police arrived.

They were released on $1,000 bond each pending an October court date.

A J.C. Penney security agent on September 17 observed two men bring various articles of clothing worth a total of $314 to the register. After the offenders indicated they did not have the money to pay for the items, the cashier rang up $47.08 and then put the merchandise into a bag.

They walked out with the items and entered a car with an Arkansas license plate and drove north on Milwaukee Ave., according to police reports.

Under questioning, the cashier stated she knew the offenders and gave their home address in Des Plaines where police located the car and apprehended the offenders.

The three offenders were released on a $3,000 personal recognizance bond each pending a September court date.

Persons unknown removed a music box worth $130 from a store in the Golf Mill shopping center on September 15.

Loss prevention personnel at T. J. Maxx, 7250 W. Dempster lived up to their name by nabbing 3 individuals attempting to rip off the store last week. Wednesday, September 21, a female security agent nabbed a 27 year old Skokie woman when she attempted to exit the store with $69 worth of brooches and earrings. She was given a November 14 court date.

On Thursday afternoon, a 38 year old Chicago woman was observed switching price tags in the dressing room and then attempted to buy 7 ladies blouses for $69 less than originally priced. Her court date is in October.

Wall breaking burglars rob candy company

Walls were not an impediment to burglar(s) out for a night of thievery on September 21. Four adjacent locations were the target of person(s) unknown who broke through walls in a trail of vandalism.

To gain access, the perpetrator kicked in a middle garage door of 6226 Madison Court, causing $400 damage to it and two other doors. Apparently nothing was taken from that warehouse, and the offender made a 14 x 22 inch hole through a common wall and entered a warehouse at 6224 Madison Court, again, apparently taking nothing. It was on to 6222 Madison Ct., an empty warehouse, via another hole made in the wall.

The burglar(s) were now inside Terry Candy Factory at 6220 Madison Ct. where articles were stolen. Officials at the company reported that a $350 Sony tape recorder, a $180 designer buck knife, and a tin container with $30.40 worth of coins were taken. Damage to the walls was at least $200 per wall, according to police reports. The thief left by a rear door of the candy factory.

Threats/Harassment...

A woman in the 9200 block of National reported to police on 9/22 after 10 days of hang-up calls. She will follow-up with phone officials to obtain a trap.

A mother was the recipient of a threatening phone call from her daughter's ex-boyfriend on the 22nd. The man allegedly had battered her daughter in the past. He warned the woman to keep the daughter from making harassing phone calls to him.

A Morton Grove man reported a former employee called his company and, citing the well-publicized shooting incident in Chicago where 5 people were killed, threatened to do away with him also. A special watch has been placed on his home and place of employment.

A 36 year old female resident has asked police to intervene to stop her ex-boyfriend from harassing her. The man, depressed over their break-up, reported-

Criminal Damage...

On September 21 in the 9200 block of Mango, an '88 Lincoln Continental was "slimed" but no apparent damage was caused. The car's owner reported that, in the early morning, petroleum jelly was smeared on the car, and "wash me" was written on the vehicle.

Two cars were damaged on September 22 when they were parked at 8621 Lincoln. A '70 GMC truck belonging to a Morton Grove resident had two of it's tires slashed and the driver's door lock was damaged, causing $200 in damage. The '69 cougar belonging to another Morton Grove man had $250 damage to his car's vinyl roof, also slashed.

A resident of the 8300 block of Central has had his lawn damaged by a vehicle a second time. He showed police 2 sets of 3 inch ruts in his grass, caused Saturday night or early Sunday morning. In a previous incident a motorcycle ran around his yard. Damage is approximately $100.

Female employees of a ladies fashion store in the 6800 block of Dempster have furnished police with a description of a man who, for the past three weeks, watches them from the parking lot, has followed one home, and is possibly responsible for a series of obscene phone calls. In their report filed Sunday, the women gave officers the license plate of an '87 Buick driven by a blond man in his 30's with a receding hairline. Police will interview the car's owner, a Chicago resident.

Police noted that the couple, both apparently intoxicated, had broken a $100 lamp belonging to the hotel in the melee, which had made a shambles of their room. Both parties accused the other of starting the argument. Neither pressed charges.

On Saturday, someone switched the license plates belonging to an '84 Buick parked in the 9200 block of Merrill. The substituted plates had been reported stolen by a Chicago resident.

A $700 set of speakers was removed from a musician's station wagon when it was parked at the Fireside Restaurant. An unknown thief entered the '82 Chevy through the rear window on Sunday.

A resident in the 8800 block of Luna scared off 2 young men who had started a fire in his garage and were apparently trying to remove some tools. Upon hearing noises, the owner entered through a utility door and activated the garage door opener to illuminate the area. The youths fled through the opened door and headed south down the alley.

A female employee of a neighboring company phoned police when she saw two men attempting to access an auto painting garage through a side gate. The men removed hinge pins on the gate using a hammer type tool. The men were both around 17 years of age, with one having shoulder length blond hair, standing about 5'9" - 5'11" and weighing between 140 - 160 lbs. The other man was between slightly shorter and stockier, had medium brown hair and weighed 160-170 lbs. The incident occurred Sunday in the 6400 block of Main.

Someone used a pry type tool to remove a cylinder from a vending machine at 8621 Lincoln on 9/22. The coin box, with an undetermined amount of cash, was removed.

A woman shopping at Dominick's in the 6800 block of Dempster had her wallet stolen last Friday. Inside the $30 billfold, was $150 cash, i.d., and credit cards.

Thefts/Burglaries...

U Haul Truck Rental asked for police assistance in the return of one of their trucks, which was originally rented for one week on August 2. After granting an extension to 8/19, the company sent notifications as to the additional rental costs and attempted to contact the customer by phone.

The customer is either a resident of the 3300 block of Church in Skokie, or is an Evanston resident, living at 1 or 2 different addresses. In addition to the truck, the man owes U Haul $967.17 including mileage and late charges.

An '84 Toronado owned by a Morton Grove restaurateur who is also a resident, was vandalized and the customized wheel "continental kit" was removed from the vehicle. In addition to the $1100 kit, the car's plates and license plate lamp were stolen as it sat in the restaurant's parking lot at 5915 Dempster on 9/19.

In a similar incident, the $1500 Continental wheel kit of an '86 Cadillac was stolen and the possessions of its owner were taken. The car was also parked in a restaurant parking lot, at 7220 W. Dempster on 9/20 when a $450 attaché case, $280 Cross pen set, $200 Sanyo VCR and $800 golf clubs were removed. Inside the kit, the vehicle's 49 year old owner had kept a second set of keys. The thief used a saw type tool to remove the kit.

$300 damage was caused to a jamb and lock when unknown person(s) attempted to burglarize a home in the 6700 block of Church on the 19th. The incident happened in the afternoon when the 58 year old owner of the house was home.

An apparent attempt to burglarize a house on September 20 was reported by the owner but paring knife almost ends paring

A 46 year old unemployed salesman will probably start locking the bathroom door in the future, after his 51 year old wife allegedly attempted to literally sever future marital relations. The couple were having a heated argument in their temporary residence, a hotel room at 9101 Waukegan, when the man needed to answer a call of nature.

His wife followed him into the lavatory and took several swipes below his waist with a paring knife, while threatening to mutilate him sexually. She did not injure him and he managed to escape from the bathroom and run to the hotel lobby to call for help.

Police noted that the couple, both apparently intoxicated, had broken a $100 lamp belonging to the hotel in the melee, which had made a shambles of their room. Both parties accused the other of starting the argument. Neither pressed charges.

What is a friendly visitor program?

A friendly visitor program is an organized plan for volunteer service in visiting the community's lonely or shut-in persons. Volunteers for friendly visiting accept the responsibility for regular consistent visits to an individual in need of someone to take a personal interest in him.

Visits should be made at least once a week and, if both the volunteers and the older person would like, more frequently. A visitor can provide stimulation and enhance the person's interest in life and the outside world. He can aid in the reestablishing or maintaining the person's links to the community in various ways.

For the individual who, because of age, chronic illness and disability, cannot get out and make friends, the friendly visit brings relief from loneliness, isolation and fear. It can restore the give-and-take companionship of normal life, the enjoyment of being wanted and liked, the pleasure of having a friend who is

I Bet You Didn't Know

By Jim Jennings

What's the record in major-college football for team having the most winning seasons in a row? . . . 3 teams share the record—Alabama, Nebraska and Penn State. Each rolled up 26 consecutive winning seasons for the all-time record. . . . Alabama went from 1959 through 1983 with a winning season every year. . . . Penn State had winning seasons every year from 1939 through 1984. . . . And Nebraska's streak is current. . . . They've won more games than they lost every year from 1962 through 1987.

Did you know a football team can be penalized 5 yards if the referee discovers that 2 players on the same team have the same number on their uniforms? . . . It says so, right in the rule book but that's one penalty you could go a whole lifetime without ever seeing.

Of all the men who've ever played in the National Football League, which one scored the most touchdowns in a career? . . . Answer is Jim Brown who, in 9 seasons from 1957 through 1965, scored 126 touchdowns in the NFL. . . . No one else has ever matched that record.

. . . if you mention this ad after your deal is consummated (but before delivery) Jennings Chevrolet will deduct $50 from the purchase price of your new or used car. One deduction per transaction. One deduction per transaction.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Lauds actions of nuclear protesters

Dear Editor,
Longtime Morton Grove residents, Jean and Joe Gump, are at present serving prison terms for acts they carried out in hopes of shaking Americans awake to the terrible hazards of nuclear weapons. Their purpose, in deliberately wreaking minor damage on the Minuteman missiles' lids and lid tracks, was to symbolize the dismantling of these deadly weapons by the will of the people. And understandably, despite extra penalties, they refuse to pay restitution for weapons they consider to be a desecration of the earth in which the weapons lie buried.

Many people chide Jean and Joe for choosing civil disobedience as a means to reach the goal of a world free of the nuclear threat. However, many are touched by their self-sacrifice, and try to understand it. Many others, feeling as strongly as do the Gumps about the horrors of the ever-spiraling arms race and the ever-present threat of nuclear war, are inspired by the Gumps' idealism, courage, and strength.

For example, on Aug. 15, fourteen people gathered together at dawn, determined to act out their repudiation of nuclear weapons in a slightly different manner from the Gumps' way. In this group were friends of the Gumps: Betty Lewis, a close friend and supporter from Chicago, Dorothy Eber of Villa Park, Kathy Kelly, also of Chicago and the Rev. Jerry Zawada of Milwaukee. Each of the fourteen "actors" in the little morality play they planned to enact had his/her witness. Betty Lewis was also being followed by press cars as the group left Kansas City and drove out to the missile fields of Missouri.

Alone or in pairs, the fourteen scattered to ten different missile sites and entered the missile enclosures either by scaling a fence or breaking a lock. Once inside, they hung banners (Betty Lewis's read "Because we cannot say we did not know"); they then proceeded to plant seeds, shrubs and even one little tree next to the silos. This juxtaposition of the greenness and the promise of natural growth with the strange metal monsters planted there in the cornfields, capable of producing only death, destruction, and disease was, of course, their way of saying "Let's choose life instead of death." This action they

World of Honeybees

World of Honeybees is a program designed to teach you everything you ever wanted to know about honeybees but were afraid to ask! This program is on Friday, October 7, 7:45-9:30 p.m. at Wildwood Nature Center. You'll learn how the ladies (workers) control the hive, how honey is made, how a beekeeper suits up for protection, and what happens to you when you get stung. You'll see a working observation hive. The program is for ages 8 to adult and children ages 8-12 must be accompanied by an adult. Fee for the program is $3 per individual or $5 per family. For more information, call the Park Ridge Park District at 692-5127.

Arrested after a wait of over an hour, they were given a "Ban and Bar" order by a U.S. Attorney. Thus dismissed, a number of them felt that their work was not complete. On two consecutive days, some of these stubborn people returned to perform the same little drama, were re-arrested and given the same order barring them from Whiteman Air Base property. And still, seven of them were dissatisfied that they would not have a chance to explain their action to a jury and returned in two separate groups. The upshot was that Dorothy Eber, Rev. Zawada, and Ariel Glenn of Milwaukee were charged with trespass and will be tried on Oct. 17; and Kathy Kelly, Dwayne Bean and Gail Beyer (of Madison, Wisconsin) were given the same charge and will be tried on Oct. 24. Kathy and Dwayne were so sure of a prison sentence that they have entered prison already to start to work out the expected sentence. Bonnie Urfer of Madison chose to go with a judge instead of a jury.

What can we say of these people willing to dedicate their lives to the hope of bringing about a safer, more peaceable, more beautiful world? There are many others like those mentioned above. Are they wise people or noble fools? In literature and song, it is often the fools who see most clearly. The questions are: can these people touch hearts and change minds? Can they have influence on our national life? Can they really stop the march toward ever-increasing militarization and its probably outcome of war and unparalleled destruction and death? Because we shouldn't kid ourselves. The Administration and the Pentagon have many new weapons planned, along with Star Wars (S.D.I.), which would be ruinous in its effects in increasing East-West tensions and in its fantastic financial costs. This is something these wise fools see clearly and they are calling to us to exert ourselves to change our course and simply plan for peace instead of war.

Both my heart and my mind tell me that they are right. I hope enough of us heed their message.

Sincerely,
Isabel Condit

PROGRESS

Northwestern Savings a Top 10 performer

The U.S. League of Savings Institutions recently completed an analysis of the operating performance and stability of the Billion Dollar Club, a group of the largest Savings and Loans in the United States.

Savings and Loans were evaluated for consistent performance in the four categories of operations. Northwestern Savings was in the top ten in all four categories.

S.J. Cynkar, CEO and Chairman of the Board said, "Northwestern Savings is proud to acknowledge these accomplishments that were made possible by our many good friends and customers."

The U.S. League said "In a deregulated and highly competitive environment, perhaps no measure of an institution's health is as important as its capital level. With adequate and real capital, an institution is able to absorb the many shocks that are bound to occur in the market place."

Northwestern has excelled in this category. Consistently adding to reserves that now exceed $100 million which are more than three times the federal requirement.

Northwestern Savings has assets of $1 Billion with 6 Chicagoland locations, including an office at 6333 Milwaukee Avenue.

Illinois S&L's remain healthy

By Adam A. Jahns
Chairman and President
Cragin Federal Savings

Recent news reports about troubled savings and loan associations in other parts of the country have prompted consumers throughout the nation to ask poignant questions about the security of their S&L deposits—questions to which Illinois consumers are finding all the right answers.

While it's true that energy belt S&L's, as well as those in other parts of the country with energy belt loans, have considerable problems, Illinois residents and businesses can remain confident that our own S&L system is full of vitality—and security.

The security of Illinois S&L's can be qualified by a number of indicators:

● Since 1971, when legislation allowed branching in Illinois, subsequent mergers have created fewer S&L's that are now larger and stronger.

● In 1971, Illinois' 542 S&L's had assets of $16.6 billion. By 1977, Illinois had 396 S&L's, but combined assets have grown to $34.2 billion. Last year, we had 281 S&L's in the state with total assets of $66.7 billion.

● During 1987, between 90 and 95 percent of these institutions reported a profit.

● For the first quarter of this year, the profit was $27 million—eighth highest in the nation.

● As of December 1, 1987, savings and loan members of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago had the second highest capital-to-asset ratios of all Federal Home Loan Bank districts.

More importantly, we must evaluate the performance of our S&L based on their primary function and source of income—home loans. We evaluate our success by analyzing our borrowers' ability to repay. This affects our profits and the interest income available to our customers. Here in Illinois, the figures are impressive. For the first quarter of 1988, less than 1.5 percent of all S&L loans in Illinois were between 30 and 90 days late. Less than one percent were in default. These figures are well below the national average.

No single factor is accountable for this outstanding performance and the financial peace of mind that goes with it. Rather, we must credit many: the economic fabric of our state, the quality of our customers and the strategic management of our institutions.

Unlike many of our country's southwestern states, Illinois is not dependent upon a single industry. We are not energy dependent. Illinois is the midwestern hub for transportation, manufacturing, communications, professional services, retailing and financial services industries. The diversity of our economy is such that a downfall in any one industry or company is not devastated to the economy as a whole.

Because of our strong economy and central location, many of the nation's Fortune 1000 companies are headquartered here. These companies attract many new residents with substantial disposable income, as well as new housing and financial needs. One frequently overlooked fact is that we boast one of the strongest higher education systems in the country, which further attracts new companies and keeps present firms here.

Another factor in the success of our S&L's is that Illinois has a sizeable labor pool comprised of people who believe in the midwestern work ethic. Our citizens give a day's work for a day's pay, and that's attractive to any company. With good workers and strong companies, our people remain employed, make deposits in their savings & loans, borrow from them and pay them back. It's a wonderfully healthy circle.

Illinois also now benefits from the comparatively recent influx of major national financial institutions to our market. These strong institutions have acquired weaker local associations, opened new branches and continue to broaden the variety of financial services available to our consumers.

Thus, the scenario for S&L's in Illinois is particularly heartening and, I believe, reflective of the industry in general. When the FSLIC was recapitalized in 1987, we realized that FSLIC would need additional funding because of the economic problems in the energy belt. Congress allowed us to issue bonds totaling more than $10 billion over three years, and the industry agreed to repay it through increased insurance payments. In other words, our industry chose to support itself. Beyond this, we have the full faith and credit of the U.S. government behind us.

All depositors—be they in Illinois or Texas—have the right to expect their S&L's to be rock solid. Every S&L should be subjected to close examination by potential customers. By properly evaluating the institutions they're considering, they can find several to choose from where they can feel that their money will be safe and generate a satisfactory return.

When evaluating a S&L, consumers should be aggressive and thorough. Meet the management and ask to see current financial statements. Pay special attention to the current level of reserves. An acceptable minimum of reserves is three percent; eight percent is outstanding. Ask how much property the institution has foreclosed on and still owns. Anything over two percent of total assets is worth being concerned about. Get to know the officers, ask plenty of questions and accept no less than exemplary service.

Obviously, a thorough examination of Illinois S&L's will reveal some institutions with financial troubles. Like any other business, S&L's can suffer from problems—external and internal—that cause them to lose money. That's why we have insurance through FSLIC. To date, there has never been one penny lost in an insured savings account since the FSLIC was founded in the 1930's. In several instances, FSLIC has paid for all deposits, including the uninsured portions.

Yes, the savings & loan industry is experiencing economic problems in portions of the country with problematic economies. In Illinois, however, the savings & loan industry is strong and growing stronger.

Demand for home equity loans rises in northwest suburbs

Changes in the tax law and rapidly rising home values in the northwest suburbs have caused a surge in demand for home equity loans among area consumers. Real estate values in the northwest suburbs have risen an average of 17 percent during the past 18 months according to Century 21 Real Estate of Northern Illinois. That increase is significant because a home's current market value is one of the primary factors used to determine home equity borrowing power.

At branches of Citicorp Savings located in Mount Prospect, Park Ridge, Niles, Schaumburg, Crystal Lake, McHenry, Algonquin, Wauconda, Arlington Heights and Hanover Park demand for home equity loans has

Illinois small businesses oppose constitutional convention

An overwhelming majority of Illinois small-business owners oppose the call for a constitutional convention, according to the latest survey of the state's small business community.

A random sample of National Federation of Independent Business/Illinois members indicated that 75 percent opposed the statewide referendum which will appear on the ballot in November. Sixteen percent favored convening the conference while eight percent were undecided.

Under the current Illinois Constitution state residents must be given an opportunity every 20 years to decide if a convention should be held. "NFIB/Illinois is urging its approximately 15,000 members to be sure to vote on the convention issue come November," said John R. Davis, State Director for NFIB/Illinois. "One of the reasons NFIB/Illinois members oppose a convention is the cost. Nearly $14 million was spent of the 1970 Constitutional Convention and the cost of a new convention is estimated at $30 million. Considering the budget battles of the last two years, the statewide small business community has indicated funding should not be allocated for this issue."

Davis also refutes a contention made by those in favor of a new convention that the current document is not responsive to the needs of civic groups and grassroots organizations.

"A provision for change already in the present constitution and the modification desired by proponents can be made through those means," he said. "Since 1970, nine constitutional amendments have been proposed by the General Assembly, five of which have been approved by the voters. The framers of our current document took great care in composing a remarkable foundation for guaranteeing basic rights and freedoms for Illinois citizens. The constitution is a dynamic document that has served the citizens well and should not be revised whenever a new issue arises."

The NFIB/Illinois is the state's largest business organization with 15,000 members.

tripled during the past year, according to Al Lietz, northwest city area director of the savings and loan.

Two recent changes in the tax law have encouraged increased consumer interest in home equity loans: the gradual elimination of the income tax deduction for personal credit and new tax laws that allow consumers to deduct interest paid on home equity loans of up to $100,000 regardless of how the funds are used.

The most sought after loan at Citicorp's northwest suburban branches is the Equity Source Account which enables homeowners to establish a large line of credit—$25,000 to $500,000. Consumers use these loans to finance down payments on second homes, home improvements and other initiatives.

Two other kinds of home equity loans are also popular among area residents. The first, Preferred Line, is a revolving line of credit for which homeowners may be eligible even if they have recently purchased a home. Residents might use these funds for educational expenses, automobile financing and landscaping or furnishing new homes. The second, is the Fixed Home Equity loan which provides a single lump sum at fixed monthly payments.

With few tax restrictions on the use of home equity funds, consumers are being creative. Some are financing cars, putting children through school and landscaping or furnishing new homes.

Homeowners who are considering applying for a home equity loan should understand that there are various kinds of loans that differ in eligibility requirements, application fees, interest charged and credit limits. Smart consumers will put the same energy into shopping for a loan as they will into shopping for the things the loan will buy.

Callero & Catino raises MDA funds

ERA Callero & Catino Realty has raised $1,544 this year for the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) as part of a nationwide fund raising effort by ERA Real Estate, said Bill Alston, sales manager of the local firm.

Nationally, ERA Real Estate Brokers raised $1,000,000, and will present a check for that amount to Jerry Lewis during the annual Labor Day Telethon, September 5 in Las Vegas.

ERA Real Estate became the sole corporate sponsor for the MDA from the real estate industry in 1977. Since then, the franchise has raised nearly $9 million to help fight neuromuscular diseases, Alston said.

Every year, we try to exceed our fund raising goals for MDA, because we are so enthusiastic about our chance to help fight the disease and in some way help the community that we live and work in, said Alston.

The local firm's fund raising activities this year included canister collections, sale of House Hunt books, and participation in the MDA cruise on Lake Michigan.

Lindquist hits Pullen on high utility rates

Bonnie Lindquist, candidate for state representative in the 55th District which includes Maine Township, recently attacked incumbent Penny Pullen for her position on increasing utility rates.

"Penny Pullen has consistently voted in favor of utility companies and against consumers. When people in our community get socked by high energy bills, they should realize that their current representative, Penny Pullen, actively works against their interest," said Lindquist.

As an example of Pullen's anti-consumer position, Lindquist pointed out Pullen's record against the Citizens Utility Board, C.U.B. "From its inception, Penny Pullen has attempted to torpedo C.U.B. and its fight against utility rate hikes. C.U.B. is a voluntary consumers organization that does not cost taxpayers one cent! Recently, she has attempted to keep information about C.U.B. away from utility customers by her vote against House Bill 401," said Lindquist.

Lindquist stressed that high utility bills affect everyone. "High energy bills not only hurt people on fixed incomes like senior citizens and families with small children but also the average taxpayer and small businesses as well. Penny Pullen's record as a cheerleader for the utility companies should be remembered by all voters on election day," said Lindquist.

Lindquist is a longtime resident of Des Plaines.

Pullen criticized on flood relief

Bonnie Lindquist, candidate for state representative from the 55th district, which includes Maine Township, recently criticized incumbent Penny Pullen for voting against legislation designed to provide financial assistance to victims of last year's flooding in Des Plaines, Park Ridge and Niles.

"Penny Pullen's vote against House Bill 2276, which could have provided financial grants and low interest loans to victims of flooding in our area, is a slap in the face to the people of our community," stated Lindquist.

Lindquist also contends that Pullen has lost touch with the needs of her constituents. "Many households in our community suffered serious losses during last year's floods," said Lindquist.

Lindquist and her family are longtime residents of Des Plaines.

Pucinski hosts miniature golf outing

Aurelia Pucinski, Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court said Wednesday that her miniature golf event contrasted favorably with her opponent's annual golf outing.

"We held our 1st Annual Miniature Golf Outing to have a fun day and also to distinguish between the two campaigns. Ed Vrdolyak has talked about every issue under the sun except what pertains to the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court," Pucinski said.

She pointed out that on the same day that she released her 40-point plan to improve the office, Vrdolyak held a press conference attacking one of Pucinski's runningmates on an issue unrelated to the Clerk's office.

Seymour Simon to head Pucinski campaign

Aurelia Pucinski, Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court, has announced that her campaign will be chaired by former Illinois Supreme Court Justice Seymour Simon.

"I am honored that Seymour Simon, a distinguished legal scholar and expert on the court system, will serve in this key role in our campaign," Pucinski said. Simon was elected to the Illinois Supreme Court in 1980 and held that position until he retired in February of this year.

Simon was first elected to the Illinois Appellate Court in 1974. Previously, he had served 14 years as alderman of Chicago's 40th ward, as well as President of the Cook County Board of Commissioners from 1962 until 1966. He holds B.S. and J.D. degrees from Northwestern University and is partner in the law firm of

Dudycz helps save heart attack victim

State Sen. Walter Dudycz (R-7th, Chicago) saved the life of an Elmwood Park woman Sunday using cardiopulmonary resuscitation techniques (CPR) he learned but never had to use during his 13 years as a Chicago police detective.

Dudycz and a Norridge paramedic, Earl Field, helped revive 57-year-old Barbara Zimmerman, who suffered a heart attack at the Ridgewood High School Adult Recreation Center about 2 p.m., Sunday. Dudycz was speaking at an open house at the center.

"I am very happy I was there and knew what to do to help," Dudycz said. "I learned CPR as a Chicago policeman, but never had to use it. Since being elected to the State Senate, I have used it in two different situations." Two years ago, the 7th District Senator administered CPR to Robert Kuncel, who suffered a heart attack on Oct. 25, 1986, in a hot dog stand in the 4200 block of North Milwaukee Ave. in Chicago. Dudycz, who was campaigning with Gov. James Thompson, walked into the hot dog stand to buy refreshments for a group of children who had helped. When he saw Mr. Kuncel lying on the floor of the hot dog stand, Dudycz immediately started CPR techniques.

Dudycz was honored just two weeks ago with a special lifesaving certificate from the American Red Cross for the first incident. He also received a Lifesaving Award in May 1988 from the Illinois State Police and was honored by his Senate colleagues in November 1986 for helping Mr. Kuncel.

Gottlieb condemns Annunzio about O'Hare Noise Map filing

"The O'Hare Noise Map was filed in late August while the congressman did nothing to stop it," George Gottlieb said. "He (Frank Annunzio) has refused to intervene on the behalf of the homeowners surrounding O'Hare. He has refused to reveal his position in the filing of the Noise Map. I don't know if he is even aware that this is a big problem in his District."

Gottlieb, Republican candidate for Congress in the 11th District, announced that he has received no response from his opponent in Gottlieb's petition to the congressman to reveal his position in the filing of the O'Hare Noise Map. The Map was filed by City of Chicago Aviation Commissioner, Howard Stanback with the Federal Aviation Administration in Washington.

"Another disturbing aspect of the Port 150 Study is the self-protecting clauses," Gottlieb said. "No part of the Map that was filed with the FAA can be admitted as evidence in any suit concerning the noise that results from the airport. In other words, a study prepared by one government agency for another government agency at taxpayer's expense cannot be used by those same taxpayers to present their case in a court of law."

"They want it both ways," continued Gottlieb. "They want the map filed because they say that the information in it is still accurate. But they insert a section which precludes the map from being used as evidence if a homeowner attempts legal recourse. It makes one wonder, whom do they serve?"

Dollhouse Museum opens on Touhy Avenue

This dollhouse museum contains the collection of over fifteen years of work by the owner, Pat Lo Henry. Working with a different monthly theme she assembled and furnished twelve dollhouses—one for each month.

A total of 108 rooms, these houses tell a story. They are in the scale of 1 inch to a foot and all have landscaping and outside activities. Food has been prepared for the New Year's celebration, the rabbits are having a party for Easter, the June wedding is in the garden, September has a homecoming theme with a parade float in the making. Trick and treaters are at the door for Halloween and Santa Claus has arrived and is unloading his sack of toys in the living room while the children are in bed dreaming of sugar plums over their heads in the clouds.

All of the houses have electricity. Some have working fountains in the yards. Expensive collectible miniatures make up some of the furnishings but many of the rooms contain furniture that Pat made herself along with all of the window curtains and drapes. Floors are covered with hardwoods, some walls have been covered with fabric to match the furniture. Mirrors have been used to add dimension to many of the rooms.

The miniature shop is stocked with both finished miniatures and do-it-yourself supplies. Classes are being planned so that everyone can learn to do their own creation using the museum rooms as an example of what can be done.

National Dollhouse Miniature Week is being sponsored by the Miniature Industry of America for the week of October 9 to 15. This museum and shop should be a must on everyone's list of things to see in Chicago.

Hours are Monday and Thursday from 1 to 5; Tuesday, Friday and Saturday from 10 to 6, Wednesday from 10 to 5 and Sunday from 1 to 5. There is an admission of $1 to the museum, 50 cents for children and senior citizens.

Chicago Brass Quintet at Maine East Upstage/Downstage children's theater auditions

The Community Concert Association of Maine Township will present the first concert of the 1988-89 series, The Chicago Brass Quintet, on Sunday, Oct. 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Maine East High School Auditorium, Dempster and Potter.

Formed in 1963 to promote the appreciation and enjoyment of brass chamber music, this is Chicago's original brass quintet, five brilliant musicians who not only possess a technical mastery of their instruments, but also a remarkable talent for performing. Their energy, the variety in choice of music, their uncanny ability to reach out and touch their audiences puts them in a class of their own.

From its inception, the Quintet presented numerous performances throughout the Midwest and played an active role in children's concerts in the Chicago area. Today, they continue to perform for the Chicago school district, Young Audiences at the Art Institute and Ravinia youth programs. This season, their touring took them to the International Trumpet Guild in London, the Kennedy Center for a debut performance, and a two-week residency in Hawaii for performances and clinics in schools and concert halls. The Quintet tours extensively in the midwest, with a concentration on Illinois.

The Community Concerts play makes possible an annual membership fee at a level rarely possible elsewhere. Families and singles of all ages experience the satisfaction and joy of live, meaningful musical and dance entertainment. Young people and students can expand their musical horizons.

Northbrook Symphony Season Announced

The Northbrook Symphony Orchestra announces an extraordinary 1988-89 season. The NSO, under the leadership of Music Director and Conductor Samuel Magad, has expanded to five concerts for its ninth season in response to audience request and thirteenth year's sold-out concerts. Reserved seating on a limited basis is another first for the coming season! Again, in response to audience request, a number of reserved seats will be available to series ticket purchasers on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost will be $55 for five concerts. General admission prices are $45 ($40 for seniors and students).

Once again, outstanding international soloists will perform with the Orchestra. Conductor Samuel Magad talked about the selection process: "When choosing a soloist, I think of several categories: world-famous artist, major competition winners, youthful new-to-the scene performers and general entertainment... Next season we will present our five-concert series with a balance of exciting programs and soloists. Having traveled throughout much of the world, and Australia just last March with the Chicago Symphony, I realize that people are the same everywhere and enjoy the same kinds of music. The architecture of the famous Sydney Opera House with its soaring bird-like wings high above the water, inspired me to think of the enormous freedom of choice there is in choosing the great music of the world. As the wings of the Sydney Opera House soar, our aim is also to soar to new heights with each performance."

Maestro Magad has arranged for the following soloists, who promise an exciting season, Violinist Kyoko Takezawa will open the season on October 23. She is termed "one of the brightest and fastest-rising stars of today's music scene." Born in Japan, she began her violin studies at the age of 3 and was touring by the time she was 7. Now 21, she has won many awards.

Cellist Zara Nelsova charmed NSO audiences at her first appearance in March of 1984 and will be the soloist for the Nov. 27 concert. Called "one of the finest cellists in the world," she has appeared with virtually every major orchestra in North America and with many distinguished European orchestras.

Joseph Kalichstein, piano soloist for the Jan. 22, 1989 concert, has been engaged, and often re-engaged, by almost every major European and American orchestra in the course of his career.

A portion of the Mar. 9, 1989 concert program will be the choral work "Carmine Burana" performed with the district chorus from the Glenbrook High Schools and featured soloists.

Korean-born Young Uk Kim will be the violin soloist for the May 20, 1989 concert. This year marks the 25 anniversary of his 1963 professional debut with Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra. Since then he has had a full schedule of performances with many of the world's leading orchestras and conductors, playing in almost all 50 states and in an equal number of cities in Europe.

Series tickets for the NSO's ninth season are now being sold. Only a very few reserved seats remain, and general admission is going fast. Please call 272-0755 for further information.

District 71 PTAB hosts open meeting

How much homework should your child receive? How often? What part should parents play in their child's homework?

These are the kinds of questions that will be discussed when Niles Elementary Schools District 71 sponsors this school year's first Parents-Teachers-Administrators Board (PTAB) open meeting. This meeting will take place on Tuesday, October 4, at 7:30 p.m. at Culver Elementary School, 6921 W. Oakton Street, Niles.

The purpose of PTAB is to increase the communication among all persons who are vitally involved with the education of each child. The general goal is "to upgrade the curriculum and to improve the quality of education in District 71."

This concept had its beginning in 1984 when members of the Board of Education expressed a desire to form a dialogue group consisting of two Board members, the administrators, and all interested teachers. An average of three meetings have been held each year. In 1987 these dialogue meetings were extended to include parents and were held in the evenings.

Other PTAB meetings are scheduled for Wednesday, October 26, Tuesday, January 31, 1989, and Tuesday, April 11, 1989.

SJB student council installation

On Sept. 8 the twelve members of the Student Council were installed during a ceremony at which Mayor Nicholas Blase gave a talk on leadership and handed the gavel to Michelle Vencl, Commissioner General.

Elections were held in school last spring, to give the newly elected members an opportunity to observe the members conduct meetings and to learn from them. This time line also enables the Student Council to begin activities earlier in the fall.

The goals of St. John's Student Council are: (1) To work to develop leadership techniques among student leaders. (2) To provide opportunities for teachers to be effective educators of leadership. (3) To instill an awareness that God must be a part of leadership. (4) To train young people to be the responsible leaders of today and tomorrow.

"Service" and "Spirit" are stressed as the Student Council members work together on many projects during the year. From money collected from aluminum cans, the Council just donated $200 to the "Dick Fauchier Fund." Dick is a teacher, who is #2 in line for a heart transplant and in great need of funds.

Hebrew Theological College studies

An innovative program of Torah studies for adult men has been announced by Rabbi Yosef Polstein of the Hebrew Theological College, the Jewish Studies Program for Adults (JSPA). The Fall term will begin the week of Oct. 9, and will offer evening and Sunday morning classes in Talmud, Hebrew, Bible, Halakha, Jewish history and Jewish philosophy.

According to Rabbi Yosef Polstein, Director of JSPA, the contribution of JSPA to adult Jewish education in Chicago is its skill-based and developmental approach to Torah study. "With the proliferation of literature on Jewish religious practices and translations of classical texts, it is possible today to acquire a broad knowledge of Judaism but still remain unable to open a Hebrew bible or Talmud and study independently, or to enter a synagogue and participate fully in the service. That is our goal. We want Jews to be equipped with the skills necessary to study authentic Jewish teachings from their sources and not have to rely on the interpretation of others for what the Torah teaches. Only then does one experience the great joy of Torah study."

Students may earn credit for their study, and credit may be applied to degree programs at the Hebrew Theological College or transferred to local universities. All courses will be offered at the Hebrew Theological College campus in Skokie.

For a brochure describing the program contact Rabbi Yosef Polstein, Director, JSPA, 7135 N. Carpenter Rd., Skokie, IL 60077, or call 267-9800.

Tips on choosing the right sunglasses

Choosing the right sunglasses is a little like choosing the proper sunblock protection for your skin.

With several different types of glasses on the market, it can be confusing. One of the biggest issues is why bother wearing sunglasses? Here's why.

Recent studies have shown continued exposure to ultraviolet (UV) rays, found in sunlight, can damage the lens and may lead to cataracts. In other studies, UV rays have been indicated as causing damage to the cornea and retina.

"Of the million cataracts removed each year in the United States, it is estimated that up to 100,000 may be sun-related and may have been preventable," said Robert M. Stein, M.D., an ophthalmologist at Northshore Eye Center. In addition to UV rays, blue-violet light rays also contained in sunlight may cause macular degeneration (the area of the retina with the greatest acuity).

Choosing the right sunglasses to protect from UV and blue light rays is especially important if you:

- spend much of your time outdoors, especially where the sun's rays are most intense - at high altitudes or where the sun reflects off water, sand or snow.
- are fair-skinned and blue-eyed.
- have had cataract surgery, which removes the eye's UV-absorbing lens and haven't had a lens implanted which protects your eye from UV rays.
- have a history of macular degeneration.

Those in attendance will be free to ask any questions they have about mental illness. Demetrius A. Trakas, M.D., and Jeffrey M. Filkin, M.D., psychiatrists on the staff at Swedish Covenant, and representatives of Mental Health Associates will be available to answer any queries. Coffee and cookies will be served.

Mental illness discussion

The Swedish Covenant Hospital Department of Psychiatry cordially invites the community to an informal discussion on mental illness on Wednesday, Oct. 5, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Anderson Pavilion physician's lounge, 2751 W. Winona.

The event is being sponsored in observance of Mental Illness Awareness Week, Oct. 2 through 8. For further information, contact the Swedish Covenant Hospital, Public Relations Office, 989-3812. There is no charge to attend the discussion.

Local residents recognized during the ceremony were: Evanston residents Dorothy Boyd, Delores Dunbar, Sharlee Gordon, Tajudeen Kadiri, Arnetta and Tamara Marquez, Coral Miller, Semon Nicholas, Gwendolyn and Sonia Robinson, and Debbie Williams; Des Plaines resident Sung Lee; and Marton Grove resident Suja Kizhakkattu.

Weiss Hospital sponsors rape victim workshop

The community is invited to attend a special Rape Victim Advocacy Workshop at Louis A. Weiss Memorial Hospital, an Affiliate of The University of Chicago Hospitals, 4645 N. Marine Dr., on Mon., Oct. 17, from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. The workshop will be held in Conference Room 3, on the 8th Floor at the hospital, and is open to the public, as well as healthcare professionals and social service representatives.

Just as everyone should wear a sunscreen whenever in the sun, wearing UV-absorbing sunglasses is increasingly important. Protect your eyes from harmful invisible UV rays and visible blue-violet light especially if you spend long hours outdoors.

Northshore Eye Center and Surgicenter, 3034 W. Peterson Ave. in Chicago (973-3223) is a Medicare-approved facility and accepts Medicare assignment.

Nurse Assistant Training Program graduates

Thirteen students who completed the 10-week Basic Nurse Assistant Training (BNAT) program at Oakton Community College were honored at a graduation ceremony at the College's campus in Skokie.

Local residents recognized during the ceremony were:

The BNAT program, a human resource investment program, authorized by the Northern Cook County Private Industry Council (NCCPIC), prepares students for employment in nursing homes, hospitals and other health care agencies. The next session will begin Tues., Oct. 11. Registration is in progress now.

Tuition is free to Northern Cook County suburban residents who meet the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) requirements.

and blue light you need to look carefully at the rating tag when choosing.

"Some brands state they block up to 90% of the visible light. If the tag doesn't indicate a 'transmission factor,' try on the glasses. If you can't see your eyes when you look in the mirror, they are dark enough," explained Dr. Stein.

Do they fit properly? Make sure the frames are large enough to protect against light entering from the sides, top and bottom. Wraparound sunglasses are particularly effective.

"Sunglasses shouldn't slip down your nose. Research has shown that even a quarter inch slippage allows 20% more UV rays to enter your eye," said Dr. Stein.

What about color? Experts believe the two most effective colors are gray and green. They do not distort colors as much and still prevent harmful rays from entering the eye. Brown and amber glasses are gaining in popularity, especially in the field of sports. Purple lenses greatly distort colors, so check for color accuracy by looking outdoors.

By asking questions and reading the labels, you can't but protective sunglasses at retail outlets or where you purchase your everyday glasses. Northshore Eye Center can provide you with a list of the most protective sunglasses, complete with sources and prices.

For information and registration, call Kathleen Ahern-Gray, program coordinator, 674-5960.

Volunteer training announced

Rainbow Hospice, Inc. has announced plans for volunteer classes to be held at Resurrection Hospital Oct. 1, 5, 12, 19, 26, and November 2, from 9 a.m. to noon. The October 1 session is open to anyone interested in learning more about Hospice as well as for those planning on attending the rest of the training program.

Rainbow Hospice Inc., a non-profit community based organization affiliated with Holy Family, Lutheran General and Resurrection hospitals, serves the northwest area of Chicago and suburbs. The hospice program provides a coordinated effort of health care professionals and volunteers concerned with the comfort and support of terminally ill patients and their families. The hospice team addresses the physical, emotional, spiritual and social needs of patients and their families.

Volunteers are a vital part of the hospice program, explains Margaret Murtha-Krizka, Volunteer Coordinator. As a volunteer, you might be asked to do any of the following: being a friend and companion to the patient and family; relieving the primary caregiver for a short period of time; running errands; observing and reporting to other hospice members; and being bereavement follow up. While volunteers do specific tasks, their greatest asset to patients and families is their ability to listen. Just their presence makes the road less lonely. Volunteers can also choose to help out in other areas such as: office clerical tasks and fund-raising activities.

There is a great need for persons who have a few daytime hours available, but anyone interested in becoming a volunteer is asked to call the Rainbow Hospice, Inc. office at 774-2480 for further information and to schedule an interview.

Capparelli to address Health Fair '88

Forest Villa Nursing Center and Resurrection Hospital are cosponsoring Health Fair '88 on Saturday, October 1, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The Fair will be held at Forest Villa Nursing Center located at 6940 W. Touhy Ave. (one block east of Milwaukee) in Niles Illinois.

State Representative Ralph Capparelli will address the issues of senior health care for 1988 and beyond. "Health Fair '88 is going to give hundreds of people the opportunity to practice preventive health care at a price you can't beat - its free!" said Capparelli. The Representative said Forest Villa Nursing Center and Resurrection Hospital are two fine health care organizations that are committed to community participation and the well being of the citizens of the Northwest suburbs.

The event is open to the public and free cholesterol testing, blood pressure readings and pulmonary exams and spinal/posture analyses are given. There will be plenty of entertainment, including bingo, raffles and music. A free buffet and Health Fair '88 t-shirts will be provided.

CHIROPRACTIC HEALTH VIEWS by Dr. Bernard A. Shindler

"SERVING THE HEALTH NEEDS OF THE COMMUNITY"

Dr. Shindler is a specialist in the diagnosis and treatment of automobile accident injuries and work-related injuries as well as back and muscle disorders. The Chiropractor is recognized and accepted as a vital member of the health care system that includes referral to providing you with total health care.

STEP ONE Consultation. At this time the patient and Dr. Shindler sit down in a relaxed atmosphere to discuss the ailment. As the patient reveals the history of the condition, Dr. Shindler will ask questions to formulate his approach in diagnosis.

STEP TWO Neurologic-Orthopedic and Chiropractic Examinations. These examinations, coupled with the X-ray findings and laboratory work, if needed, will give Dr. Shindler the total picture of your problem. These exams provide an assessment of the extent of damage.

STEP THREE X-ray Examination. X-rays are essential for accuracy. Without them your care is being left to educated guesswork. We don't want to guess about your health. Spinal curvature or worn out spinal discs must be seen to be properly corrected.

STEP FOUR Report of Findings. Dr. Shindler will sit down with you (and your spouse) to explain the findings of your tests and X-rays. A thorough explanation of why you have pain and it's origination is essential to your recovery.

STEP FIVE Insurance Assignment Accepted. Your insurance company at your request may pay directly to the doctor, this reduces overall health costs to you personally. This will allow you to proceed and receive Chiropractic treatment under Dr. Shindler.

to look at this boyfriend 6 times a day."

Surprisingly, packing all her gear in the car took only a short time and the ride up to school was equally fast. Carrying her brown cardboard box luggage into the new dorm was done amidst much huffing and puffing. And while the huffing and puffing was natural for me, when I came upon the hordes of young people who seemed to be coming from all directions, I vowed I'd begin getting into condition at the "Y" beginning Monday.

Eleven floors up is her bedroom, a 12 by 20 room which seemed too small for all her brown boxes. When I saw her roommate had an equal amount of the same kind of luggage it seemed impossible 2 teen girls would be able to live in that cubicle.

The hordes of young people who were downstairs were figuratively matched by the throngs who were on floor 11.

Amidst the brown boxes, the 2 teens and the little Mother and Father, an endless stream of Betty Coeds began squeezing into the room, laughing, gripping about the food, shaking hands, squealing and just being friendly. They were from Edwardsville and Bensenville and "she worked at Lyttons" and "I remember you from orientation" and "boy, was the food bad...I was sick for 3 days with the flu...and I'm sure it was from the food". It was an endless stream of people, all young and full of talk.

It was supertime and the number 1 daughter had very little for lunch so Little Mother said we'd take her out for a bite...but naturally, she wasn't hungry, and I gave Little Mother the "Let's get out of here and leave her alone" look. She kissed us goodbye and Mother remembered she needed a few dollars cash. She kissed us again and I even counted a 3rd time, which was some sort of a record. It must have been that good clean corn-bearing DeKalb air.

As we left I borrowed an old standard bromide from a friend by telling the girls, "Have a good time and be good girls...but not necessarily in that order." They all laughed and then they all told me what their old Dads said and I realized all old Dads are much the same...pretty corny.

As we started the drive home we mulled over whether the school was too large. "Maybe we should've considered a smaller school." Little Mother worried because she missed supper and she wouldn't have anything to eat. "The least I could have done was left her some fruit," she worried and soon Mother was dozing as we headed for the tollway.

Exiting at Dempster st. I told Little Mother, "Look at it this way...you didn't lose a daughter, you gained a car." I thought it was kind of funny but she ignored the little morale booster.

When we arrived home the younger brigade questioned me about "her school" and then reviewed "her sprinkling fight they'd had, and lapsed into a finger-pointing battle over who did what to whom.

There's now one less finger-pointer at home...and we're going to miss her. But I realized as we sat down to dinner, it's only a matter of minutes before someone spills something. And I was right...and suddenly had a lump in my throat.

No one was injured in the fire. The occupants ran out of the building after being alerted of a fire in progress. A Niles fireman who suffered a bruised rib while carrying fire equipment was taken to Lutheran General Hospital and subsequently released.

According to Niles Fire Chief Harry Kinowski, the rear half of the building was totally involved in fire when firemen arrived on the scene. "It took three hours to extinguish the blaze and overhauling by our department was completed at midnight," he said.

Kinowski explained a brick wall divides the front and rear portion of the building. "We would have had a worse fire, if the wall had not been there," he said. "Firemen used in excess of 500 gallons of water a minute directly on the blaze to keep it from the wall, and managed to save the balance of the building," he said.

There are doors in the brick wall leading to businesses at the rear of the building, such as machine shops, tool shops, etc. The front part of the building suffered smoke and water damage as well as broken windows and doors during the process of fighting the blaze.

Kinowski noted the damage estimate in the neighborhood of $50,000 is a preliminary one, because investigation of the fire is still in progress. "The blaze went quickly from the floor to the roof venting itself, which limited the damage," he said.

Although the fire is under investigation, the fire chief said information received so far indicates the cause was probably improper transfer of a flammable product, Acetone, a cleaning solvent used in the machine shop located in the rear of the building.

Occupants of the building are J.S. Tool Co., Andy's Custom Woodworking, Ball Tool Company, Hollywood Rebuilders, Palmatics Inc. and Wunderlich Diamond Tool.

According to a Wunderlich employee, Allen Woody, an addition was built to the existing building 12 or 15 years ago. The addition utilized the existing rear wall of the structure. "That possibly saved the rest of the building," he said.

Niles police closed traffic on Touhy Ave., between Milwaukee and Harlem while the fire was being brought under control.

Trustees advised petitioners that trees and shrubbery must be installed along Harlem Ave. and to consider a lot line setback from the original 11 feet to 20 feet.

An ordinance was passed allowing Lakewiew Korean United Presbyterian Church, 8247 Harrison, to build an addition for a church and a fellowship hall.

Trustees also passed an ordinance concerning increment bonds (TIF) for Lawrencewood shopping center.

According to village attorney Richard Troy, the ordinance fulfills a commitment the board made for redevelopment of Lawrencewood with the village acquiring a portion of the property and the rest to be developed by developer Jerry Biehl. Biehl plans to apply for a permit on October 12 to begin demolition work, Troy said.

In other business, trustee Angelo Marcheschi reported discussions with Maryhill Cemetery officials concerning flooding problems on Cumberland Ave. have been resolved.

Maryhill plans to enlarge the original water retention basin that should take care of a "500-year rain" with the project to be completed in spring, Marcheschi said.

In other matters, the top 10 winners of the Niles Beautification Contest were presented with a $100 check and a $100 gift certificate for Amling's Flowerland in Niles.

"We were glad to finally get some information regarding plans to rectify the situation. However, nothing was said about the cable being repaired," she said.

Residents were angered by the lack of communication from Commonwealth Edison and the slow response to the problem despite repeated complaint calls to the company.

The letter also assured residents there would be another source of electricity (above ground) to give more flexibility in switching loads on the system. "This will provide shorter duration of any future outages," the letter said.

"That could mean four hours of being in the dark instead of seven minutes," she said.

Kathy Jayne also pleaded guilty in front of U.S. District Judge William Hart.

The Jaynes were charged with supervising the distribution of cocaine from their former home in the north suburbs and from Northwestern Sables, 950 N. Austin Ave., in Morton Grove.

The Jaynes pleaded guilty to selling 4 ounces of cocaine to Michael Hunter, a former employee in October 1984, with knowledge the cocaine might be distributed further at the stable.

Jayne also admitted selling Hunter a quarter ounce of cocaine on July 18, 1985 at the Jaynes' Morton Grove home at 9345 N. Normandy Ave.

Kathy Jayne pleaded guilty to selling Donna Rose, a former employee, a quarter ounce of cocaine in July, 1985. Rose and Hunter are awaiting sentencing, according to a spokesman from the U.S. attorney's office.

As part of the agreement worked out with the U.S. attorney's office, the government will receive $50,000 in proceeds from the alleged drug sales, $235,000 from the sale of the Jayne home and the monthly payments being paid to the couple from the sale of the stable in January, 1985.

Federal authorities last January charged the Jaynes had used the stables to sell cocaine since 1984. The complaint said the stables were used for intended to be used by the Jaynes and the two employees for distribution or possession of cocaine.

A federal agent purchased cocaine at the stables on numerous occasions from July, 1984 to February, 1985, while posing as a drug dealer.

school on L. Frank Baum's "Wizard of Oz" because students were indoctrinated in secular humanistic beliefs.

According to McKenzie, a resident some years ago wanted all Judy Blume books (geared to adolescents) removed from the library because they are "sexually offensive." "The board reviewed the matter and allowed the books to remain," he said.

SUB CELEBRATION...more than 450 people attended the recent 35th Jubilee Anniversary party celebrating the founding of St. John Brebeur parish, with everyone enjoying a dinner served under a huge tent.

Frank Morvay of Niles, who made the arrangements for the celebration, said a chef was hired to grill the steaks that were accompanied by baked potatoes and other good things. Larry Skaja, a parishioner and owner of Windjammer Travel, was kept busy overlooking the cooking and seeing that activities in the kitchen ran smoothly.

The Rev. Robert Banzin played host at the event and was seen greeting former pastors Fr. Edward Duggan and Msgr. John Flanagan, founder of the parish.

Talking over old times with parishioners were former priests who served the parish...the Reverends Anthony Chen, Donald Hughes, William Veith, Mike Sollazzo and Lawrence Springer.

Morvay said it was a very nice affair and parishioners had a good time renewing acquaintances and exchanging nostalgic bits about the parish.

Pat Daly, representing the developer and the company's attorney, Robert Kenny both argued in favor of the amendment and promised that any tenancy the company would consider, would not be considered a nuisance by nearby residents.

Mrs. Robin Kaplan, a neighbor to the project, summarized citizen's concerns about sanitation, hours of operation, and traffic. The request for a text amendment had been unanimously approved to be presented to the Board by the Plan Commission on August 23, citing a need to clarify special uses originally permitted.

Trustee Snieder voted to reject the drafting of a text amendment. He held the Board he wished to be consistent with his promise to area residents that no food establishments would be permitted there.

If approved, Highland Square management will first have to obtain the approval of the Village Board, in a regular public meeting where residents would have the opportunity to speak out against a proposed tenant.

In other business the MG Village Board unanimously approved a resolution allowing Morton Grove Post 134 of the American Legion to hold a Veterans Day Parade on Sunday, November 6 at 1 p.m. The parade route will be along Dempster between Austin and Georgiana Streets.

Scout Leaders: Male and female leaders needed to share and teach skills and hobbies. Bilingual volunteers are also needed to lead troops or to act as interpreters. Training is provided. Time is flexible.

Drivers: Many cancer patients in our area need transportation to and from local hospitals where they receive treatment. Volunteer drivers are desperately needed and may arrange their own schedules and fill in as time allows. Helping patients who have no other means of transportation is a rewarding experience.

Nursing Homes: Several not-for-profit suburban nursing homes need volunteers for friendly visits, assisting with crafts, games, hobbies and current events discussions or just pushing wheelchairs or taking residents for walks. Days can be very long for those who are confined. A friendly, caring face can bring a ray of sunshine into their lives.

Meals for the Homebound: Drivers needed to deliver "Meals on Wheels" in teams of two. Routes are usually finished in one to one-and-one-half hours. This service makes it possible for seniors and recently hospitalized persons to enjoy hot meals and remain at home. Can you help?

The agreement calls for each nation to appoint an author team to initiate and develop the program. Patis has announced that the American team will be headed by Dr. Dan Davidson of Bryn Mawr College (PA). Davidson is also president of the American Council of Teachers of Russian.

Michael N. Ross, senior foreign language editor of National Textbook Co., will supervise the project.

"We have come to an agreement which will be signed on October 1 in Moscow," states Patis. "The signing will occur concurrently with the signing of the high school student exchange program between the United States and the Soviet Union that was first proposed earlier this year by President Reagan when he addressed Soviet students at Moscow State University."

With the goal of establishing future generational ties between the young people of the United States and the U.S.S.R., the program provides for an annual exchange of 1000 high school students between the two countries.

President Reagan has charged Charles Z. Wick, director of the United States Information Agency (USIA), with working out the details of the program.

Patis, who will be a member of the United States Information Agency delegation when it visits Moscow next week for the U.S.-U.S.S.R. Bilateral Information Talks, has been invited by Dr. Nazarov to witness the signing of the high school exchange program.
