Brigante's hosts Christmas feast for 400 area needy

by Nancy Keraminas

On Christmas Eve, 1988 restaurant Paul Brigante surveyed a dinner party overflowing with gifts and rich food and told members of his family, "This is the last time we're doing this."

Des Plaines' version of Mr. Scrooge? Hardly. Brigante and his wife Sandy vowed that the next year's feast would be more appropriate for the observance of the birth of Jesus Christ. "We wanted to share our food and presents with everybody," Sandy said. The couple, along with their family and friends, began preparations for the 1989 gala, determined that the neediest from surrounding communities would have a party worthy of the wealthiest.

Last Sunday, Dec. 24, the dining rooms at Brigante's Banquets at 2648 E. Dempster St. overflowed with nearly 400 guests of the Brigante brigade and their volunteers. The owners paid their own staff members to help serve a full-course turkey dinner to those in Maine Township who otherwise could not afford a holiday dinner.

"It was the first time some of them had been to a restaurant," Sandy Brigante said. She said the 150 or more children were very well behaved and added,

Paul and Sandra Brigante add the final touches to their Christmas Eve feast as Maine Township Supervisor Joan B. Hall (right) and Administrator Meryl Rivenson (left) look on. The Brigantes made Christmas a lot brighter for nearly 400 Maine Township residents with a party at Banquets by Brigante in Des Plaines.

"People were astonished at such a high-line party."

In addition to turkey and trimmings, there was a salad and ice cream sundae bar for the families and individuals, including 55 handicapped and retarded adults, known to churches and social service agencies with the help of Maine Township officials. Invitations were sent out in early December. "The people ranged in age from three weeks to 90 years old," Sandy said. "It was a real cross section.

"We reached out to our own family and friends," the restaurateur added "and they provided 90 food baskets and 165 nice toys." Each child was also given a warm hat when Santa passed out gifts. In addition, the Des Plaines Bank donated "cuddly, little bears," according to Maine Township Chief Deputy Clerk Pam Anderson, one of many agency staffers and family

Laske named Niles Library Trustee

Eileen Hirschfeld

At a regular board meeting of the Niles Public Library last week, one trustee was sworn in to replace Charlene Wagner while another trustee, Walter Chmielowski, sent a letter of resignation.

The new trustee will be David Laske who is in charge of an anti-drug program on the northwest side of Chicago. Chmielowski said he is resigning for "personal reasons."

Board President Margaret Rajski told the Bugle she is pleased David Laske is seated. "Now, I'm hoping another very qualified trustee will replace Mr. Chmielowski. My own personal choice is Minna Scheel because she's been a member of the community for a long time and it would give the library board the input of a senior citizen," said Rajski.

Also, board members will begin to advertise and conduct an interview procedure for another administrator to replace D.J. McKenzie whose employment recently was terminated.

In other business, the library board will investigate costs and background of attorneys to replace the current one, Lawrence Weiner. In regard to current legal costs, Rajski said, "We should think of switching from Perrier to mineral water."

According to the board's five-

Bugleland leaders look to the '90s with eager anticipation

With the ringing of New Year bells and the flip of a calendar page, we move into the era of the Nineties. The BUGLE asked a sampling of area leaders to look into the future and describe the Nineties from their vantage points.

Niles Mayor

Nick Blase, Niles' eight-term mayor foresees a decade of change in the village population makeup. Noting that the median age has shifted to the upper brackets, Blase expects to lead the village's efforts to attract more young families looking for affordable housing and financially stable school districts.

In addition, Niles will likely expand its senior services, according to the Mayor. As the year 2000 nears, Blase also anticipates additional property tax revenues from projects currently helped by Tax Incre-

Niles Village Manager Abe Selman

Abe Selman, Niles' village manager says the village will be addressing issues concerning the community's aging population and housing stock. Long range plans, according to Selman, include maintaining a viable business community. "Refuse and waste are not going to go away," Selman said, indicating that trash management will be a major focus throughout the Nineties.

Dudycz to challenge Annunzio in 11th Dist.

"I am ready to campaign, I am willing to debate, and I am able to serve."

With that, State Senator Walter Dudycz today announced he is a candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in Illinois' 11th Congressional District.

Sen. Dudycz, a Republican from Chicago, said he made the decision to run because he wanted to play a leadership role for the 11th district and focus on new ideas for the problems of the '90s.

Flanked by family and friends at a Chicago news conference, Senator Dudycz said, "The 11th Congressional District, along with the rest of our nation, faces many uncertainties of the future. "We Americans have an obli-

MG Parks consider $51,000 improvements

by Linda A. Burns

The Morton Grove Park District approved preliminary designs for an estimated $51,374 in playground improvements at Arnum Park, located at Church Street and National Avenue and Sherman Park, 9500 Sherman Road, last week.

Bid specifications will be prepared and distributed for the purchase of equipment and construction of playgrounds at the two parks.

Design plans for Sherman Park include a preschool apparatus area, an intermediate play area for youngsters seven to nine years-old and new baby and adult swings. The elephant slide, presently on the playground site, will remain there at the request of resi-

Nicholas Blase

Nicholas Blase ment Financing such as Village Crossing will help ease the financial burdens for homeowners.

Morton Grove Village Manager Larry Arft

Morton Grove's Village Manager, Larry Arft, looks into the Nineties and predicts his town's economy will continue strong. Since there are very few parcels of land left for new buildings, he foresees more projects in which a buyer takes an old building, tears it down and puts up a new development.

Arft emphasized upgrading the sewer system is a major concern, with work beginning in 1990. A part of the project includes a sewer system which separates the sanitary and storm flow and a combined relief sewer for Capullina Ave.

A large senior population will continue to live in Morton Grove, but there will be a steady turnover, bringing in young families. He sees a continued variety in population, both racially and ethnically. Arft predicts property values will continue to increase because of Morton Grove's diverse economy. He said "Barring a major, national economic calamity, I see no catastrophic change in the tax structure.

Skokie Village Manager Al Rigoni

"Economic development looks rosy" said Al Rigoni, Skokie Village Manager, as he looked to the Nineties.

He noted a Marriott Courtyard development is scheduled for the village; the Village Crossing shopping center will be completed and Old Orchard will be re-modeled. Skokie is completing downtown redevelopment plans and another Marriott development, with a facility for the elderly as its anchor, is also under consideration.

Rigoni pointed to the issue of solid waste as a problem it may take a decade to resolve, saying the topic begets side problems such as recycling, medical waste and municipal garbage. In the next four years, Skokie will proceed with its flood control project to alleviate basement flooding.

The Nineties will witness a slight rise in Skokie's population, he said, based on the fact school enrollments have gone up a bit. Rigoni praised the village's health care systems as sound and fully funded in the face of dramatically rising health care costs.

Niles Park VP Walt Beusse

Walt Beusse, Niles Park District Vice President notes that board members will be formulating a ten year plan along with its new director, Tom Lippert, who comes on board Jan. 9.

Without benefit of a crystal ball Beusse suggests, "Hopefully, we may be looking at a club house for Tam Golf Course in the distant future." For the short term Beusse says, "The top priority is getting the (Rec Center) pool in shape for spring. We're planning a number of parks, including Grennan Heights for improvements so people can enjoy them."

Good news

for mature motorists

Whether we face it or not, it is true, as the number of candles on a person's birthday cake increases, their ability to see, hear, and react diminishes.

Medications may further dull senses. Memory of safety rules learned long ago inevitably fades. These factors lead drivers over 55 to have more accidents per mile driven than their younger counterparts.

Older drivers across the country are not letting these facts assign them to the passenger seat. Through a course for mature citizens offered by American Association for Retired Persons (AARP), they are learning how to compensate for their limitations.

As a result, many of these folks are getting discounts on their auto insurance.

This program is titled '55 Alive/Mature Driving,' the one defensive driving course designed for the mature driver. Anyone age 50 and over can attend the eight-hour class (taught in two four-hour sessions) and emerge with a card from AARP and a certificate from the office of the Secretary of State.

The certificate from the state entitles you to a discount on liability insurance premium.

Pre-registration is required. The next sessions will be Jan. 6 and 13, Niles Public Library, 6960 Oakton, Niles, from 12:30-4:30 p.m.

Other locations and dates are scheduled in neighboring communities. To register or for information, call Vel Durham, 344-4172.

On December 14, a cold afternoon, our club room was jumping with our second Christmas party.

Thanks to our president, Rudy Seifert and his wife, Irene, we had a delicious lunch of ham, turkey, vegetables, mashed and baked potatoes, stuffing, coffee and cake.

Thank you all again for your efforts. In your prayers please remember all our sick and deceased members. May all of their recoveries be fast and complete.

Employment program fills needs

Mrs. Encscott needed help. she lived alone and didn't get around very well, although she was able to take care of herself.

She thought, if she could just find someone to come in once a week and clean house...someone to do the outside work, mow the grass, pull weeds...a few odd jobs around the house that never got done.

But being on a limited income, she couldn't afford to hire professional services.

Mr. Bradford needed work. A retired plumber, in his 70's, he was bored staying home. He was moping all day and driving his wife crazy. He could use a little extra money, but who would hire a man his age?

Both of these people turned to the Center of Concern's employment program.

Mrs. Encscott had received other kinds of help from the Center, so she had heard about the program. Mr. Bradford read about it in the local paper and decided to drop in.

In no time at all, Mr. Bradford was doing those handyman chores for Mrs. Encscott. At home that night, he reported his day's activities to his wife and told her the lady needed someone to pull her weeds.

You wouldn't know a weed from an orchid," said Mrs. Bradford. "I'll go pull the lady's weeds." It seems that Mrs. Bradford loves gardening, is in excellent health, and like her husband, enjoys helping people.

Bernice, a recent widow desperately in need of funds, agreed to clean house for Mrs. Encscott every week, solving yet another problem. An unemployed teenager was all too happy to take on the lawnmowing job.

Mrs. Encscott had found not only all the affordable help she needed, but made a lot of new friends.

That's what the employment program is all about—people helping people. Call 823-0453 and find out what the Center can do for you. The Center is located at 1580 N. Northwest Hwy., Suite 223, in Park Ridge.

Safety tips on medicine

Patients can avoid mistakes when taking prescription drugs if they ask the right questions of their doctor, pharmacist or other health professional, say experts.

Here's a list of questions that should be asked about any medicine prescribed. Be sure a paper and a pencil is handy to jot down the answers.

*What's the drug's name? Many drugs have a brand name and a generic name. Ask about both and write them down for record keeping.

*What exactly does the drug do? At what point should effects start, and what should be done if none is apparent?

*How much medicine should be taken and how often?

*How long should the drug be taken?

*What should the patient do if the drug is not taken at the specified time?

*What foods, drinks or activities and what other medicines should be avoided while on the drug?

*What are the common side effects and how should they be handled? Which ones are severe enough to warrant consulting the doctor?

*Are there effective alternatives to treatment with drugs? Some conditions can be helped by changes in diet, for example, or exercise. Explore those options first.

An informative prescription drug book has been published with expert information on the safe, effective use of medications most frequently prescribed for persons 50 and over. The book, from the American Association of Retirees, titled "AARP Pharmacy Service Prescription Drug Handbook" is available in bookstores for $13.95 or, order by calling 1-800-627-6565, or by writing to: AARP Books/Scott, Foresman and Company, 1865 Miner St., Dept. ### A Christmas Carol for the homebound

On Thursday, Dec. 21, several of the nurses from the Visiting Nurses Association North song the joys of Christmas to elderly homebound patients in the northwest suburbs.

The patients are those chosen by the nurses who visit them by day to tend to various needs ranging from insulin injections to instructing them on their medications.

The first patient to be visited was Vera Kanoy whose home is located in Glenview.

The need to go caroling came about when several nurses discussed what more they could do for their patients besides their daily care giving.

Since the holidays are a time for giving, caroling, seeming to be an action that everyone could appreciate. Certain patients were chosen after lengthy discussions as to who would likely be home alone for the holidays.

A total of five patients were visited.

Visiting Nurses Association North is a nonprofit organization headquartered at 2008 Dempster, in Evanston. For over 90 years, the VNA has provided care for people in trying times.

For more information about caroling for the homebound, contact Nancy Ballard RN at 708/724-5177.

S.S. checks have 1-year limit

The checks people receive now from Social Security will be void if they are not cashed within one year, Thomas A. Curin, Social Security manager in Des Plaines, said recently.

A change in the federal banking laws which went into effect Oct. 1 set the one-year limit on cashing checks. All checks issued by the U.S. Government, including Social Security and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) checks, are affected, Curin said.

The new checks have the notation "Void after one year" printed on the front. People have until September 30, 1990, to cash existing U.S. Government checks.

Most people will not be affected by this change because they cash their checks right away, Curin said. People who are inclined to misplace checks or to forget about cashing them should consider switching to direct deposit, Curin said.

For information about Social Security and SSI checks or direct deposit, call Social Security at 1-(800)234-55A.

HYPOTHERMIA

Hypothermia is a condition marked by an abnormally low internal body temperature, typically 95 F or below. A simple drop in skin temperature is not hypothermia. While hypothermia can sometimes develop slowly, it usually occurs fairly quickly, over a period of a few days. With advancing age, many people become less able to resist and recover from stresses such as prolonged exposure to cold. Senior citizens often may not sense that they are becoming cold as readily as younger people, and their bodies may not adjust to changes in temperature as well. Specific measures to be taken that will prevent accidental hypothermia include: heating living and sleeping areas, to 65 F, dressing warmly during the day and during sleep, eating enough food, staying active during winter months, and avoiding cigarette smoking.

ENERGY COST ASSISTANCE

The Residential Energy Assistance Partnership Program (formerly IHEAP) is now available for eligible Maine and Niles Township residents. The program offers assistance in paying heating bills or if the heat is included in the rent. Interested people in Maine Township should call 297-2510, and in Niles Township, 328-5166.

SNOW REMOVAL

Teen and young adult snow shovelers and plowers are available to meet the snow removal needs of neighboring senior citizens this winter. Those seniors needing a winter-time worker can call the Village of Morton Grove at 965-4100, ext. 254.

DIABETES SCREENING

Morton Grove residents can take advantage of free and simple Accu-Check blood sugar screenings from 9 to 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 2 in the Flickinger Senior Center. People coming in for the screening should not be known diabetics and should fast from the evening meal of the night before.

HOME EMERGENCIES

Homebound Morton Grove residents can now purchase a remote controlled flashing light system called the emergency flashing light, that will enable them to call for medical or emergency assistance if they should experience difficulty or life threatening situations at home. The cost of the system is $25. For more information, call the Morton Grove Senior Hot Line at 470-5223.

COLORECTAL TEST KITS

A colorectal screening is a simple, convenient and private method for individuals to test themselves for diseases of the colon. The test will detect blood in the stool before it can be seen and is very helpful in identifying the onset of colon cancer. Kits and instruction for usage are available at the Morton Grove Department of Health and Human Services in the Flickinger Municipal Center, 6101 Capulina Ave. Kits and test evaluations are free of charge to Morton Grove residents.

TAX-AID VOLUNTEERS

Each year hundreds of Morton Grove seniors take advantage of free and expert assistance in filing income tax forms through the Volunteer Income Tax Aid program sponsored by the IRS, AARP, the Village of Morton Grove and the Morton Grove Park District. A few more volunteers will be needed as counselors for this year. People who have tax knowledge and are willing to be trained in a five-day IRS tax course held at the Flickinger Senior Center may qualify as tax counselors. For more information call the Morton Grove Senior Hot Line at 470-5223.

BECOME A MEMBER

The Prairie View Community Center's Morton Grove Senior Citizens Club (Monday) and the Golden Senior Citizens Club (Wednesday) have openings for new members interested in trips, cards, parties, good fun and companionship. Call Ronee Bremner, Senior Adult Supervisor at the Park District, for more information at 965-7447.

For more information about these senior services and recreation programs, call the Morton Grove Senior Hot Line at 470-5223, or the Prairie View Community Center at 965-7447. To receive the "Seniors in Morton Grove" newsletter, send $2.50 to the Morton Grove Park District, 6834 Dempster St., Morton Grove, IL 60053.

Letters To The Editor

Pet owners should clean up after pets

Dear Editor:
Why do law enforcement people allow the law to be broken?

I live in a high tax area of Niles that happens to lie in the path of the Maryhill Dog Dump. Signs are posted "No Pets Allowed", but this law is never enforced or obeyed by pet owners. Pet owners walk their dog to the "Dog Dump" and pass my property and all too often leave dog duty on my lawn.

My question is, when will I be relieved of pet clean-up? And when will pet owners be forced to obey the law by not walking their dog along the fence line of Maryhill Cemetery. Don't they have their own yards?

As I write this letter I observed the police driving down Cumberland past a dog owner with 2 dogs dumping!

John Laurie,
Niles, IL

Memorial fund to honor William Bowes

The Maine Center for Mental Health, which serves residents of Maine Township, announces the establishment of a memorial fund to honor the memory of Des Plaines resident William Bowes, who passed away last month.

Maine Center acknowledges with the fund Bowes' outstanding life service to community mental health.

Over the years, he served as board member, secretary, vice president, president and director emeritus. Bowes also served as president of the Northwest Suburban Mental Health Consortium, an organization that secured grants for mental health programs throughout several townships.

John Hoffmann, Maine Center executive director, remarked, "William Bowes was a very special person and an exceptionally dedicated volunteer. During 14 years of service, he provided critical leadership and support to the development and expansion of community mental health service."

Contributions to the fund in honor of Bowes are welcome. They can be sent to the William Bowes Memorial Fund, Maine Center for Mental Health, 832 Busse Highway, Park Ridge, Illinois 60068.

The funds will be used to support the center's new Computer program, a program that matches trained volunteers with mental health clients in one-to-one friendship relationships as a supplement to therapy. In addition to his extensive work as a volunteer, Bowes was an attorney.

Chicago Lung Association to help smokers quit

The Chicago Lung Association is helping smokers ring in the New Year by helping those that want to quit get the assistance they need.

The association is conducting a smoking cessation program at Mary Seat of Wisdom Church, Clark Ministry Center, 1352 S. Cumberland, in Park Ridge.

The six-session program begins on Jan. 8 and continues on Jan. 15, 22, 29 and Feb. 5. All sessions are from 7-8:30 p.m.

Participants are expected to attend all six sessions. The cost including support materials is $50.

The six-part smoking cessation program, "Freedom From Smoking," is geared toward helping people understand their addiction to cigarettes and learn the importance of a healthier lifestyle. Each participant is provided with supportive educational materials to improve their chances of quitting.

The Freedom From Smoking clinic is based on behavior modification. In addition to the chemical addiction to nicotine, smoking is also an automatic response. Individuals must consciously alter the automatic behavior of smoking and substitute new, healthy alternatives.

Because the majority of smokers want to quit, they also need a supportive atmosphere which the six-session program provides.

Since the Chicago Lung Association began its smoking cessation clinics in 1979, thousands of Cook County residents have quit smoking with its program.

Throughout the program, participants receive the necessary encouragement, enthusiasm, empathy and skills to help them build toward a smoke-free life.

For more information or to register, call the Chicago Lung Association at (312) 243-2000.

Smokers Anonymous take it day at time

John Kurcz of Des Plaines and Molly Makda of Glenview, both Oakton Community College nursing students, have one thing in common: they both have smoked for more than 20 years. But on the "great American smoke out day," they made a commitment to kick the habit.

Although Makda has unsuccessfully tried three times to quit smoking, this time, she said, she is determined. "Being a nursing student, I have seen many patients in hospitals and nursing homes with smoking-related diseases. I don't want to end up that way."

Kurcz has given up twice only to start again. His goal is to quit permanently. One way of doing it, according to Kurcz, is to take one day at a time. "I have been thinking about doing it for some time. Today seems like a good day to start."

Symptoms of apnea include extremely loud snoring accompanied by pauses in breathing during sleep, restlessness and excessive daytime sleepiness or cardiovascular complications, such as high blood pressure or hypertension.

Home care is growing industry

Home health care will grow by over 12 percent annually over the next five years, making it the fastest growing area in the entire health care industry, an industry expert has predicted.

Charles Laverty, president of Curaflex Health Services, said the growth in home health care is due to its unique ability to provide quality professional care at an affordable price and in an environment that promotes the patient's recovery.

It's probably the only area of modern health care in which the insurance company, the physician, the hospital and the patient, all come out winners," he said.

Laverty said insurance companies should be backing home health care "100 percent," because it gets patients out of the hospitals and into a professional, quality health care environment that costs from 30 to 70 percent less than hospital care.

The Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), which oversees health care costs for the U.S. Government, estimates that nearly one-third of hospital patients could use home care instead.

"Hospital beds are freed up faster, and the patient goes back home to an environment in which he's far more apt to be happier and recuperate faster," Laverty said.

The physician continues to supervise the patient's care because the home health care provider must keep doctors up-to-date on each patient's progress in a timely and thorough manner."

Get up to $50<sup>00</sup> trade in for your HO Train Set

There was a time when a Lionel train was the ONLY train a child would ask for at Christmas. We know there are companies that would have you think that their HO train sets are what your child really wants. We want to set you straight on this point.

HO trains must be mounted on a rigid board or they wobble and fall off the track, so you can forget about running an HO set under the Christmas tree. HO trains love to fall off tracks that are not perfectly level and if that isn't enough, think of your children calling you to find out why the train isn't running.

The SuperStore has THE ORIGINAL ITEM: Lionel trains that put smiles on children's faces.

Because buying a Lionel train set buys you a lot more than rolling stock and locomotives.

It buys you time. That brief span of time you're given with your children during which they will listen and share and absorb. And come to understand what it is you value.

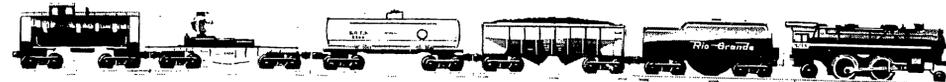

We know something about spending time with children. Because for more than 80 years Lionel has concentrated on making quality trains. Unlike any other toy you've seen, Lionel trains can be the mortar of a rare parent-child relationship.

There's nothing very outer space or "innovative" about them. They don't glow in the dark. Children still find them easy to set up and operate.

If you come in now, we'll give you up to $50 dollars for your HO set*, good towards the purchase of a Lionel set. Lionel, a tradition in the American home: die-cast engine, puffing smoke, the rugged construction that can take the real-world abuse of real children.

If you'd like to take over a REAL Lionel train this year, stop in and see us. Our phone number is 470-9500. You'll get up to fifty dollars for your HO set*, we'll answer all your questions, and you can see one of the Midwest's largest display of Lionel stock (post and pre-war).

You can still make your child happy. You still have time.

Because no childhood should be without a train.

Sports

Maine East girls' varsity basketball

The girls' varsity basketball team hosts the annual Maine East Cage Classic Dec. 27-28. Last year, the Demons finished fourth with Warren High School taking home first. Warren will compete again this year along with returning schools Zion-Benton, Glenbard South, Highland Park, and Prospect. Team members are:

Pee Wee Rangers

In a contest that could be described as two different games in one, the two Ranger Pee Wee teams battled to a 2 to 2 tie.

The first half of the game belonged to the Pee Wee White Rangers, as Matt Strong scored the game's first goal on an assist from Ross Hamburger. Joe Musso then made it 2 to 0 when he converted on a Tom Kobylanski pass.

The second period was scoreless as goalies Adam Lovekamp and Mike Duran both placed exceptionally well. Duran was tested severely near the end of period two, however, and his ability to make the big saves seemed to ignite the Pee Wee Blue Rangers.

Lambros Tragos scored the first of two outstanding third period Ranger Blue goals as he raced nearly end to end to cut the lead in half.

Then, at the 4:21 mark, Anthony Colletta took a pass from Ken Cicolotta as his own blue line broke free of his check, skated around the defense with a burst of speed, and fired home the game's tying goal.

Blues beat Hawks

The Blues stormed out to a three-goal first period lead and never looked back as they cruised to a 5 to 1 victory over the Hawks in Mite House League action.

The Hawks got on the board at the 1:24 mark of the second period when Gino Ori took a beautiful pass from Derek Cwik and fired home the lone goal of the contest for his team. The Blues came back with a second period goal of their own and added an insurance goal in period three.

Maine Township Republicans file

Maine Township Committeeman Phil Raffe and secretary of the Republican organization, Rosemary DiPrima, prepare to file thousands of signatures collected for the Republican party. Raffe said, "I look forward to electing Republicans to key offices in county and state government next year." Petitions were submitted Dec. 11 for the Republican slate of candidates including Jim Edgar for governor, James Ryan for secretary of state, Jim O'Grady for sheriff, as well as Phil Raffe for re-election as Maine Township committeeman. Raffe said, "I look forward to having the opportunity to serve another term as committeeman of Maine Township."

Cosentino calls for change in emissions penalty

Jerry Cosentino, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, today proposed repeal of an Illinois law which he said unfairly punishes motorists whose vehicles fail emission standards tests.

Under current law, a motorist faces suspension of his drivers license if a vehicle he owns fails the emissions standards test. Cosentino said current law is unfair to motorists who are otherwise good drivers and who drive other vehicles for a living.

Cosentino proposed legislation that repeals the drivers license suspension provision and which would instead result in suspension of the vehicle's registration if the vehicle fails the emission standards test.

"The statute now on the books calls for punishments which I believe is not only excessive but also misdirected," Cosentino said. "When a motorist's vehicle is unable to pass emission standard tests, he is not guilty of a moving violation.

"People who drive company cars, delivery vehicles and trucks should not be deprived of their livelihood simply because their personal vehicle cannot pass the emissions standards test.

"It makes no sense whatsoever to suspend his driving privileges. The vehicle should be the target of correction, not the driver. Therefore, I propose the suspension of the vehicle registration rather than a motorist's driving privileges."

Cosentino said he has prepared legislation correcting the current statute and will introduce the measure when the General Assembly reconvenes next spring.

Under Illinois law, motorists living in Chicago and East St. Louis metropolitan areas must submit their vehicles for emissions testing. The tests are not administered to vehicles registered outside those two metropolitan areas.

Current law calls for immediate suspension of a motorist's drivers license with a provision for suspension of the vehicle's registration in 60 days if the vehicle still has not complied with emissions standards.

Joanne Alter announces for county clerk

Currently, a commissioner of the Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago, Alter has been a top Democratic vote getter in Cook County, consistently bringing in totals in the one million range.

"I'm enthusiastic about being a candidate for an office so vital to the people of Cook County," Alter said. "There is an immediate need for improvement and change in the Clerk's office, and I'm eager to spearhead the turnaround."

Among other duties, the County Clerk's office is responsible for processing legal notices and county leases; handling annual sales of delinquent property taxes; issuing marriage licenses; maintaining ethics and financial disclosure information; keeping map records; preserving nearly 120 years of the records of Cook County births, marriages, and deaths; and conducting elections in suburban Cook County.

Register to vote for primary

Charles Levy, clerk of Niles Township, announces that his office is available for voter registration.

Any U.S. citizen at least 18 years of age who has lived at their current address for 30 days or more may register to vote in the clerk's office at, 5255 Maine St., Skokie, between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, or Saturday, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Feb. 20 is the last date for voter registration for the March 20 primary.

Capparelli slated for re-election

State Rep. Ralph C. Capparelli, in a unanimous show of support, was re-slotted for re-election to his current office by members of the 13th State Representative District Committee as the official Democratic Party nominee.

Committee members were: 41st Ward Democratic Committeeman Roman C. Pucinski; 45th Ward Democratic Committeeman Thomas Lyons; Maine Township Democratic Committeeman Nicholas Blase; and Niles Township Democratic Committeeman Calvin Sutker.

Capparelli is seeking his 11th term in the Illinois House of Representatives, and is currently serving as House Democratic Whip in the Party leadership. During his many terms in office, he has opposed increases in real estate and many other taxes and has consistently introduced his own form of tax reform legislation. Capparelli also supports government living within its means instead of increasing funding of programs that create the need for tax increases. In the community, his efforts have resulted in numerous public works and community improvements both for Chicago and the suburbs.

Capparelli was the only candidate to appear before the local slatemaking committee which was chaired by Pucinski, despite announcements in the local media that candidates were invited to present their credentials.

Capparelli has always been accessible to his voters through his district office at 6702 Northwest Hwy., Edison Park. His office hours are 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 9:30 a.m. to noon, Saturday. Appointments can be arranged by calling 775-5775.

Oakton Community College President Dr. Thomas Ten Hoeve

The school board, administrators, staff and faculty of Oakton Community College (OCC) will meet in March to specifically plan for the Nineties, according to Dr. Thomas Ten Hoeve, President. But OCC's Year 2000 Committee has already established goals for the period. Some of the goals include a continued commitment to quality education, with specific concern for more fully pronounced lifelong learning for all ages and all walks of life, Ten Hoeve said. The school will internationalize all phases of the curriculum in order to foster global understanding, and it plans to continue to serve business and industrial needs in retraining.

Ten Hoeve observed that the school will be doing space needs analyses for the future for the OCC Des Plaines campus. The recent acquisition of the former Niles East High School has probably satisfied space needs in the eastern section of the school boundaries, he said, but not in Des Plaines, where he described the space situation as "desperate."

Des Plaines City Manager Larry Asaro

Larry Asaro, Des Plaines City Manager, looks into his crystal ball and sees his city's downtown becoming more vibrant in the Nineties, with an economy spurred by more residents.

He notes a general aging of the community and smaller family sizes, but more choices in housing to accommodate different life styles.

The City is still concerned about O'Hare noise, but Asaro noted the airlines are moving to refit their fleets with quieter engines.

To avert flooding, Des Plaines has embarked on a 20 year, $54 million storm sewer and other flood control projects are planned, but need government funding.

MG Park District

Manager Gary Balling Administrative Manager of the Morton Grove Park District sees the Nineties as a period of continued revitalization of Village parks without raising the Park District tax rate. He expects to continue the park planting program which results in the planting of 50 trees a year.

The District is slating new playgrounds for Arnum, Sherman, Palma Lane, Overhill, Austin, Oketo, Prairie View and National parks in the upcoming years. Park basketball courts will be resurfaced and improvements in the district's athletic fields, pools and fieldhouses are in the planning stages.

Lutheran General Hospital President Roger Hunt

Roger Hunt, President of Lutheran General Hospital, looks at the hospital's new affiliation with the University of Chicago and sees it as a stepping stone for progress in the Nineties. He believes the hospital will enter into joint research projects with the university and thus bring new technology to Lutheran General sooner.

In the beginning of the decade, the hospital will expand its women's services and Hunt sees this involvement with obstetrics establishing Lutheran General as a center for high risk mothers. The children's medical center will be consolidated and include a newborn intensive care unit.

He expects the hospital to work with community businesses in dealing with the costs of medical care and perhaps use the hospital's expertise in accident and illness prevention and early intervention programs for employees with heart disease and drug or alcohol problems.

The hospital will reach out to religious congregations and establish a network of parish nurses to assist pastors in promoting the health of their congregations.

Park Ridge City Manager Gerald Hagman

In the Nineties, Park Ridge will experience "More of the same, but better," according to City Manager Gerald Hagman. Park Ridge schools are showing an increase in student enrollment, but Hagman expects some reduction in the city's overall population in line with the regional graying of the population.

The city will keep on with its Vision 2000 plan which reflects a general leaning toward people-related services in the town. This can be accomplished by coordinating the work of established agencies which help people who need it. Park Ridge's plan for the future also focuses on the needs of city youth through the use of city and park services and the providing of facilities that are attractive to a large group of kids.

Concern for the city's aging infrastructure will continue, as evidenced by Park Ridge's annual commitment of millions of dollars toward the replacement of streets, sewers, sidewalks and all public facilities showing signs of aging.

Park Ridge Mayor Martin Butler

Park Ridge Mayor Martin Butler is upbeat about the future. Noting that the city has just completed its Vision 2000 plan, he said Park Ridgians will see very little change in the city in the '90s.

"Clearly, residents want to maintain our excellent schools, parks and city services and our residential quality of life. Changes will be judged first on whether or not each will help to make Park Ridge a better place to own a home and raise a family" he said.

Dr. Jim Eliot District 207 Superintendent

In the education arena, Maine township High School District 207 Superintendent, Dr. Jim Eliot, anticipates future student enrollment in district high schools will level off at about 6000, up from its present 5500. An expanding use of technology in the Nineties will aid the district's goal of improving writing and reading skills for pupils of all levels.

Computerized reading-writing labs and tutorial centers are now in place, and he expects the concept of computer-oriented instruction to extend further into the social and physical sciences. Future students will benefit from electronically simulated laboratory experiments. The district will work to increase student achievement levels as measured by standardized test scores and the district's own criteria. Teacher training will emphasize improvement of teaching skills. Dr. Eliot expects the district's low drop-out rate to continue through the Nineties, a situation he attributes to the community's high expectations for students.

will not have the same disciplinary control with respect to personnel. Chulay counters that the village will have an easier time firing someone who "doesn't fit the pattern" because it won't have to conduct a civil service hearing.

A Chicago battalion chief who was Lincolnwood's fire inspector for three years predicts a higher turnover from emergency personnel, whose salary and benefits are substantially less than their public counterparts. PSI contractors are not covered by state-mandated municipal fire pension programs and whose annual salary after five years employment is more than $8,000 below that of neighboring firefighters.

Battalion Chief Ron DiRenzo, one of the candidates hoping to start up a municipal department for the village warned that the new arrangement could result in a "revolving-door fire department". PSI provides its employees with a profit-sharing plan that potentially provides a lump-sum payment of up to $46,000 after 20 years with the company. Beginning PSI firefighters start at $24,000 annually, versus Morton Grove's $26,600 entry level salary.

and jogging trails and a new basketball court.

In other business, Gary Balling, administrative manager of the park district and one of seven members of the recently formed feasibility study task force, reported the task force committee would meet for the third time on Jan. 15 to discuss the possible development of a questionnaire to assess whether there is a need for recreational space in Morton Grove and to estimate the parking needs of a facility and the additional traffic which a facility would bring to an area. The committee will also discuss whether other groups such as the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation would be interested in renting an available facility which the park did not need.

The task force was formed to review and come to a consensus on the need for additional indoor recreation space and open space in the village and determine the ability of the park district to finance any needs the committee recognizes.

"Once the group identifies if there is a need, we'll get more specific as to where the facility will be," Balling said.

The task force is expected to come to a final consensus and make a recommendation to the park district's Administration and Finance Committee in March, according to Balling. The Administration and Finance Committee will make a recommendation to the park board who will make the final decision on the task force recommendations.

Park board members Andrew Demonte and Doug Steinman, park district staff members Balling and Ken Swan, superintendent of finance, and residents Jacki Decwicki, Karen Gubbins and June Gordon were named to the task force last month.

In other matters, the board approved an agreement with Charles H. Schrader & Associates, for their services as a grant consultant. The fee for the firm's service is $10,000 per year and will be paid in quarterly installments.

The board approved a $13,653 bid from Latot Chevrolet Inc. in Arlington Heights for a pick-up truck.

The board also voted to install new chlorine feeders at Oriole, 9200 Oriole Ave. and Harer Park pools at a cost of $8,850.

Approved a sponsorship agreement with the Morton Grove Baseball Association.

Ying Quartet at Skokie Library

The Ying Quartet will perform at 3 p.m. Jan. 7 in the Skokie Public Library's Young Steinway Concert Series. Formed in 1988, the Ying Quartet (Timothy and Janet, violin; Phillip, viola; and David, cello), is the winner of the 1989 Cleveland Quartet Competition. As part of the award, the Quartet is currently in residence at the Eastman School of Music to pursue studies with the Cleveland Quartet.

Last summer the Quartet was in Germany performing in the Heidelberg Castle Festival and recording for the South German Radio. The Yings have recently returned from Taipei, Taiwan, where they performed at the National Concert Hall. The Ying Quartet participated in the 1988 Center for Advanced Quartet Studies at the Aspen Music Festival. At Aspen, the Quartet studied with the Emerson, Cleveland, and American String Quartets. The Yings have also been coached by various members of the Fine Arts and Chicago Symphony Suring Quartets, as well as with members of the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center.

The Quartet members, aged 19 to 27, have also distinguished themselves individually. They have been soloists with such orchestras as the Chicago Symphony, Chicago Civic, and Rochester Philharmonic and have been prizewinners in major events such as the Naumburg and Washington International Competitions, as well as the Coleman Chamber Music Competition.

Phillip and Janet Ying are previous Steinway participants. The Young Steinway Concert Series, a performing series for young musicians, is now in its eighth season, and is supported by Savings of America.

Two new plays at Jewish Nat. Theater

Charlotte Newberger, chairman of the board of directors of National Jewish Theater, announces exciting changes in the 1990 season. "First is Supper" by Shelley Berman will have its world premiere on April 23. Ira Levin's "Cantorial" will follow on June 25.

He's one of Chicago's own," says Ms. Newberger when she speaks of the decision to produce Shelley Berman's "First is Supper." "First is Supper" is set on the west side of Chicago in the summer of 1919. It's the story of a family's love during a time of vibrant Jewish culture. In the summer of 1919, a close family was a necessity and not an option.

National Jewish Theater will close its 1989-90 season with Ira Levin's "Cantorial." Author of "Rosemary's Baby" and "The Boys from Brazil," Ira Levin is a nationally famous novelist and playwright.

In the tradition of his previous works, "Cantorial" is a humorous story of the supernatural. A young couple moves into a former synagogue and starts to "rehab" when they are haunted by the singing of a long deceased cantor. The cantor seems to have an important message for them.

Charlotte Newberger predicts that both shows will be "exciting and successful." National Jewish Theater's new chairman assumes this position with an admirable history of support for professional theater in Chicago. One of the founding board members of National Jewish Theater, Newberger's love and dedication to the art have made her an influential leader in the off-hour theater movement since its inception.

Currently a vice-president of Steppenwolf Theatre, Ms. Newberger began her service to the theater community as a founding board member of St. Nicholas Theater. In addition, she is a member of the board of directors of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago. National Jewish Theater's next year plan, the bookmobile is scheduled to be replaced next year. However, Dan Macken, acting administrator, said it will be six to eight months before a bus is delivered and action should be taken now. Macken also is head of operations for the library.

The present bookmobile has been stricken with numerous mechanical difficulties. Board members warned that residents should phone the library before waiting for the bookmobile in inclement weather. They agreed a warning to that effect will be placed in each book lent from the bookmobile.

In a move to honor an unusually active member of the "Friends of the Niles Library," board members agreed that Frank Biga, Sr. should have a book dedicated in his name. The book will either reflect his job interests or love of reading, said Rajski.

Board members also consented to purchase 21 feet of shelving in a high visibility area for the children's room. Book titles will be displayed for youngsters with covers facing outward, similar to those in a bookstore.

Board member Irene Costello reported a "Friends" book sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, January 26 and Saturday, January 27.

members who helped. Ever mindful of the feelings of the guests, the Brigante's decided to distribute the ham and pasta-filled baskets by conducting a raffle rather than just handing them out. Each family was given a ticket and eventually, each ticketholder claimed a basket.

"It was very well planned," Brigante noted, commending the volunteerism of Maine Township employees and their family members, who entertained as clowns, jugglers and of course Santa and Mrs. Claus. Anderson led songs and credited Sue Neuschel, township senior services director, with the lion's share of the work of making up a guest list and printing up programs and invitations.

Krissi, one of three of Anderson's children who volunteered was apprehensive when she found out the family would be going to Brigante's instead of a relative's home. "I didn't know what to expect. I didn't want people to think I was pitying them." The 13 year old dressed up as a clown, ("Krissi's not usually the type who'd do that ordinarily", confides Mom) and passed out door prizes to the winners.

Krissi and her siblings want to do it again, as do the dozens of volunteers and Brigante sisters, mothers, in-laws and cousins of relatives who donated time, money and gifts. "People were very, very happy and Santa got a lot of hugs," said Pam Anderson.

As for the host and hostess, Sandy Brigante concurs that the family made the right decision when they promised not to repeat the previous years' Christmas Eve celebrations. "The family helped a miracle happen for hundreds of residents. The volunteers thanked us for allowing them to see the joy that was spread about," she said. "There were lots of tears of joy."

Retail theft...

A Morton Grove Police officer, responding to an activated burglar alarm in the leather shop in the 5700 block of Dempster St., Dec. 20, found rocks had been thrown through four shop windows. It is believed thieves reached in and took store goods on display, but a loss and damage estimate is not yet available.

December 22, unknown suspects used a blunt wood object to break a 4' x 6' south front window in the same leather shop. They were selective in their theft, taking mostly expensive, full length men's coats. Footprints in the snow indicate at least two suspects fled towards the alley. The window loss was estimated at $300, but the merchandise loss is under study.

A Skokie housewife told police someone took her wallet from her purse in her car as she shopped in the food store in the 5700 block of Dempster St., Morton Grove Dec. 20. She lost $300 in currency, an endorsed check for $78, credit cards, identification and a wallet valued at $20.

Morton Grove Police, alerted to a theft in the clothing store in the 6800 block of Dempster St., apprehended the thief running through the parking lot Dec. 23. The offender was seen placing bottles of men's cologne in his pockets, then leaving the store without paying. He is a Chicago man, 18, and he has a court date Jan. 12. The cologne was valued at $150.

December 24, about noon, a man entered a shoe store in the 7900 block of Golf Rd., Morton Grove and tried on a pair of hiking boots. Leaving his own shoes behind, the man walked quickly from the store without paying, entered a Toyota camper and drove away, heading west on Golf. The boots were valued at $99.95.

Theft...

Between Dec. 16-24, several visitors lost possessions from their lockers in the health club in the 6800 block of Dempster St., Morton Grove. The afternoon of Dec. 16, a thief left behind credit cards but took $350 in currency, a chronograph watch valued at $225 and a designer wallet valued at $100 from the locker of a Northbrook man. Dec. 20, a Lincolnwood resident reported $16 and two credit cards taken from his locker. He complained the thief has charged large amounts on his credit cards. Christmas Eve, a Buffalo Grove man lost a brown leather jacket left in his unlocked locker. He valued the garment at $300.
