136 residents sent to other homes

Court orders Niles nursing home closed

Patients at the Sherwood of Niles nursing home, 9777 Greenwood Ave., will be moved this week following Monday's court order closing the facility. The 136 residents, 96 of whom are developmentally disabled, will be divided between two other nursing homes—the Woodbury of Niles, 8555 Maynard Rd., and the Saratoga of Evanston. The geriatric patients will be transferred to Woodbury. Niles Village Attorney Richard Troy applauded the closure. He said, "It's been a troubled home for years...it's been a long, hard task to get Sherwood closed." Troy said the village has made repeated inspections and worked for three years to get action on the home. Sherwood in 1987 was cited as "among the worst in the state" by the Illinois Department of Public Health and was fined in 1988 for filthy and unsafe conditions. Continued on Page 34

Niles worker receives medals...finally

by Sheilya Hackett with contributions
by Ellen Fumarola

Joe Leto is a man too modest to discuss his accomplishments.

The Niles resident and Public Works employee celebrated his 61st birthday recently and received the Purple Heart and other military awards 38 years after they were due.

The awards recognized Leto's service as a corporal in the U.S. Army before and during the Korean conflict.

"Leto's Second Division was right in the thick of it."

What caused the delay? A source at Fort Sheridan reflected on a possible reason. "During that time in Korea, things weren't going too well for us, and (Leto's) the Second Division was right in the thick of it...in wartime, it happens."

The source said that often awards are being processed and by the time they're approved, the person is discharged; often there's a change of address and there's no follow up.

Leto, a heavy weapons specialist, was injured while in the So-back Mountain in Korea when his group underwent enemy mortar fire in September, 1951. Following hospitalization in Pusan, Korea, for shrapnel injuries to his hands, Leto was released before receiving the Purple Heart, due to a shortage of them at the time.

Along with the trend of the times, Leto chose to be discharged as soon as possible, rather than wait for more medals to be requisitioned.

Last November, as Leto's wife, Carmella, and close relatives gathered around, Major James Fruge, U.S.A., Ret., presented Leto with the Purple Heart, the Combat Infantryman's badge, a National Defense medal, a Korean Service medal with three bronze stars; Army of Occupation of Japan medal, Presidential Unit emblem and a United Nations Service medal.

Leto has several nephews currently in the service of the United States and he won't take center stage.

The awards were long overdue.

It required the efforts of a niece, Ellen Fumarola of Elk Grove Village, to search out Leto's records and nudge the Army into action.

Fumarola said the awards "were long overdue," and began her quest to gain deserved recognition for her uncle by filling out forms for his military records with the Veterans' Administration.

Leto received a case number and the request was forwarded to the St. Louis center for Army personnel records of ARPERCEN.

In three months, many letters and phone calls later, the papers came through, but a last obstacle remained—the Purple Heart presentation required a military officer.

With the help of Illinois Senator Paul Simon's office, Fumarola got in touch with Major Fruge, at Fort Sheridan, who agreed to help.

Fruge remembers the Leto presentation on the Friday after Thanksgiving as "a high point of my lifetime. I had a wonderful time with those folks. (Leto's) a nice man with a really wonderful family."

But Leto continues self-effacing about his three and a half years in the service of his country. Mrs. Leto confides his attitude on his celebrity: "He feels he did just what anyone else would do (in wartime). We love America."

1990 Social Security earning base to increase

The annual earnings base—the maximum amount of earnings that counts for Social Security—will increase to $51,300 for 1990, up from $48,000, the 1989 base, Thomas A. Curin, Social Security Manager in Des Plaines said recently.

The increase is based on the change in average earnings levels from 1988 to 1989.

The 1990 Society Security tax rate will be 7.65 percent, up from 7.51 percent rate in 1989.

The 1990 annual exempt amount for people 65 or over will be $9,630, up from the 1989 amount of $8,880. The 1990 exempt amount for people under 65 will be $6,840, up from the 1989 amount of $6,480.

Beginning in 1990, people 65 through 69 will have their benefits reduced $1 for every $3 earned above the exempt amount. The annual earnings test does not apply once a person reaches 70.

MG approves funds for sewer rehab work

by Linda A. Burns

The Morton Grove Village Board agreed Monday to authorize a contract with RJN Environmental Associates, Inc. for an estimated $172,527 in construction engineering services for selected manhole and sewer line rehabilitation.

A portion of this cost is refundable through the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency grant program, according to Charles Scheck, director of community development.

Bids for the manhole repairs are due in by the middle of this month and RJN will take part in reviewing them, Scheck said. This sewer work is expected to be completed by July 1, 1990.

The board also agreed to authorize a contract with RJN Environmental Associates, Inc. for an estimated $172,527 in construction engineering services for selected manhole and sewer line rehabilitation.

Kentucky Fried Chicken plans move to MG

by Linda A. Burns

The Morton Grove Village Board agreed Monday to grant Kentucky Fried Chicken a special use permit for a drive-through window at the franchise's future site at 6901 Dempster St.

The new facility will be approximately one-half the size of the closed Hollywood Fred's Restaurant now on the site. The old structure will be demolished, removed and replaced with the new 2,584 square-foot facility. The front entrance of the building will face east and the drive-through will be on the south side.

Jurij Ozga, construction engineer for Kentucky Fried Chicken, said this new facility will replace the existing Kentucky Fried Chicken at 7039 Dempster St. Kentucky Fried Chicken leases the property at its current Niles location but has purchased the property for its future Morton Grove site.

Assessor Thomas Rueckert's cheerful staff helps lift the mood of those protesting property valuation increases of up to 92 percent, many of whom wait patiently for several hours before getting assistance during peak hours.

Berrigan advises people not to phone the busy office, however, saying "We cannot keep up with the calls."

Taxpayers from all over Maine Township crowded township headquarters Jan. 8, seeking help in filing property evaluation appeals.

Homeowners surveyed had increased valuations ranging from 20 percent (unincorporated Glenview home) to almost 93 percent (Niles townhome near the ice rink).

A Park Ridge owner who received a 30 percent increase arrived at township headquarters at noon with two young children in tow and anticipated a two and half hour wait.

She drove around her area looking for homes similar to hers but indicated it was difficult. "I live next door to a $600,000 home near the country club. Our home is so much smaller it's unfair to compare it with the others on our block. Our taxes are extremely high."

The townhouse owner also brought her young daughter. "Our valuation nearly doubled. You think you know what all your bills are going to be and

Century 21 holds career opportunity week

Eugene P. Moats has been re-elected to a fifth term as president of Joint Council, No. 1 of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU).

The Joint Council No. 1 is comprised of 20 Locals.

Moats is also the state president and president of Local 25 of SEIU.

President Moats is a resident of Chicago's northwest side and was born and raised in the Rogers Park area.

Moats' father was a janitor and he, too, was a janitor on Chicago's north side before he went on to be president of the Union.

These offices also have brochures on careers in real estate that are free for the asking.

"There is a need for qualified real estate professionals," said Richard J. Loughlin, president and ceo of Century 21 Real Estate Corporation.

"Career Opportunity Week offers people a chance to find out how they can realize their professional, financial and personal goals in a flexible work environment."

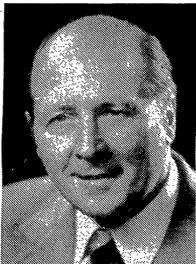

In Illinois, a real estate license from the state is one of the requirements to begin a real estate career. Local Century 21 offices can provide information about fulfilling his and other existing requirements.

Moats elected president

The 326 offices that are part of the Century 21 system in northern Illinois will participate in the national Career Opportunity Week scheduled for January 15-21.

"During this week, individuals considering a career change in the upcoming year or those just entering the work force should contact a local Century 21 office to learn more about real estate careers," said Roger Peake, regional director of Century 21 Real Estate Corporation of Northern Illinois.

According to Peake, there will be career opportunity sessions held in Century 21 offices throughout the region. A list of these sessions can be obtained by calling (708) 692-2644.

manager; Penny Anderson, branch manager; Adam Jahns, Cragin chairman of the board and president; and Al Wehlitz, Cragin vice president. Cragin Federal Bank, one of Illinois' most profitable savings institutions with assets of over $2.4 billion, operates branch offices in Chicago and the northwest and western suburbs.

Census Bureau to hire hundreds

James A. Cagney, manager of the Bureau of the Census' newly opened Des Plaines district office, 1865 Miner, Des Plaines, has announced the openings of a local recruiting campaign in preparation for 1990 decennial census activities.

According to Cagney, the Des Plaines office is responsible for all census activities in Cook County's north and northwest suburbs.

"Hundreds of census workers will be needed for a wide variety of temporary-status census related jobs," Cagney said.

Employment will be offered on a project-by-project basis and jobs can last anywhere from two to eight weeks depending on the project.

There will be a number of projects during the life of the census and, wherever possible, workers will be utilized on a continuing basis.

Pay rates range from $6.25 to $9 per hour and pre-employment testing will begin in January.

Individuals living in Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, Niles, Norridge, Park Ridge, Skokie and other suburbs within Cook County are urged to call the Des Plaines office at 708-297-4011 for more information.

The Census Bureau is an equal opportunity employer.

Peerless Federal affiliates with Republic

Peerless Federal Savings Bank has announced that it has completed its affiliation with the Republic Capital Group, Inc., a publicly-traded, multi-thrift holding company headquartered in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

As a result of this transaction, Peerless will be in compliance with all three regulatory capital requirements established by the Office of Thrift Supervision pursuant to the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989.

Peerless will retain its own identity and will continue to operate as a separate thrift institution in its local markets.

Peerless' Board of Directors will be increased to accommodate two directors from the holding company board, Eugene J. Rudnik, Jr., president and Timothy P. Sheehan. The chairman of Peerless will be added to Republic Capital's board to insure representation from the new markets to be serviced by the holding company.

Eugene J. Rudnik, Jr., president of Peerless, said, "We are extremely pleased that this affiliation has been completed. We believe that it is in the long-term best interests of Peerless, its staff and its customers, as well as that of the Republic shareholders. The public should also be pleased to know that it has been accomplished without any taxpayer assistance."

Republic President Robert Desmond reported, "With the affiliation of Peerless and Republic, following the home acquisition, our holding company has made significant progress in our stated goal of growth through affiliation. Peerless allows us the opportunity to access the sought-after Chicago market and enhances the companies earnings per share potential."

Republic Capital Group, Inc., is a multi-thrift holding company. In addition to Peerless, Republic owns Republic Capital Bank, S.B. of Milwaukee, and Home Savings Bank, S.A. of Appleton, Wisconsin. The total assets of the group are approximately $1 billion with service provided in 30 offices.

Chinese New Year at Kohl Children's Museum

The year is 4688. It is the Year of the Horse. Dragons dance in the streets and lanterns brighten the sky. This is the Chinese New Year.

"This spectacle is exhilarating and we want to make children a part of the Chinese New Year," said Jolene Gersdorf, assistant director, Kohl Children's Museum, Wilmette. "So we're offering children a chance to join in these festivities without being overwhelmed."

The Kohl Children's Museum will offer special daily activities Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 27-28, for children to celebrate the Chinese New Year.

At 10:30 a.m., children will help make a traditional Chinese dragon or lantern. They will use colorful red fabric and pink, purple and green feathers to decorate the dragon.

Brilliant colored construction paper will be used to make the lanterns. After the decorations are made, the children will march in their own Chinese New Year Parade at 11 a.m. with the decorations they created.

The activity will be repeated at 2:30 p.m. followed by a parade at 3 p.m.

Gersdorf noted, "Dragons can be scary, but if children are the ones being scary - it becomes fun. By actually creating the decorations, they will feel in control and the situation will not be intimidating."

The Kohl Children's Museum is located at 165 Green Bay Rd., Wilmette. Hours are Tuesday-Saturday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.; Sunday, noon-4 p.m. Admission is $2.50; children under two years of age are free.

Ladies Theology, Park Ridge to celebrate 25th anniversary

For almost 25 years, Dorothy Spellman has attended and helped plan the theology-based, ecumenical lecture/discussion series known as Ladies Theology of Park Ridge.

Since its first meeting in 1966, the format has remained much the same—an expert in religious faith, practice, or experience gives a presentation for about an hour, followed by 20-30 minutes of small-group table discussion (enhanced by coffee and rolls), with a question and answer session at the end.

Founded by Park Ridge theologian Mary Jule Durkin, the group was an attempt to share some of the ideas to which she was exposed in her first year of study at the University of Chicago Divinity School.

"Many friends had expressed the desire to do something similar, but they were unable to join me in formal course work," Durkin said.

"The logical response was to bring the teachers to them at a convenient time and place, while providing a baby-sitting service." Fortunately, Durkin didn't listen to her pastor at the group's first home—Mary, Seat of Wisdom Church. Father Edward Dowling said at the time, "Well, you can do it, but it's never going to last."

A steering committee, including Dorothy Spellman, was formed to suggest topics, engage speakers, conduct their meetings, and to serve as discussion leaders for the small groups.

Current coordinators, Pat Heidkamp and Linda Korn, have the task of planning the 1991 25th anniversary celebration. They must also address the biggest challenge Ladies Theology faces in the future—recruiting younger women.

By increasing publicity, engaging speakers of special and current interest, and continuing to

As Spellman puts it, "I suspect that the knowledge the speakers have shared would earn us degrees in sociology, psychology, and theology. But it is more important to me that this knowledge that my heart embraced long before my mind did, has given me a feeling of affirmation, self-worth, and deep humility."

In addition to its years at Mary, Seat of Wisdom, Ladies Theology has been held at the West Park Fieldhouse, South Park Community Church, Park Ridge Community Church, St. Paul of the Cross Church, and is now warmly welcomed by Pastor Troy Hedrick at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in up-town Park Ridge.

Hedrick says about its ecumenical setting, "Diversity is welcomed, not shunned. Despite differences—sometimes because of them—we can continue to grow in faith."

Many of its participants credit Ladies Theology with inspiring them to go on with their life's work.

According to Lutheran General Hospital Chaplain Flo Smith, "The women of Ladies Theology provided a unique environment where I was able to discover parts of my spiritual and emotional life that were undeveloped. My role as 'minister' within the Church was born as a response to this expanded self-understanding."

Pat Heidkamp and Linda Korn, have the task of planning the 1991 25th anniversary celebration. They must also address the biggest challenge Ladies Theology faces in the future—recruiting younger women.

By increasing publicity, engaging speakers of special and current interest, and continuing to provide free baby-sitting for children of all ages, they hope to reach the shrinking number of women available for Wednesday morning meetings.

Charter member Dorothy Spellman is sure that the effort is worthwhile. "For me, at least, Ladies Theology has been—and I hope will continue to be—an experience of God."

Legion Auxiliary helps vets select gifts

A Christmas gift shop was recently held at the various VA hospitals at which times the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary assisted as part of their special veterans rehabilitation program. The Morton Grove American Legion Auxiliary, No. 134 group, were led by their co-chairmen Mrs. Alyce Campanella of Morton Grove and Mrs. Josephine Lange of Skokie. Both hospital chairladies are past presidents of the Morton Grove Unit, and Mrs. Lange is also a former past leader of the 7th Dist., American Legion Auxiliary.

With their group of volunteer members, the women set up tables of gifts. Each veteran was then escorted throughout the auditorium and was able to choose without charge a gift for each child in his family in addition to his spouse.

The women then gaily wrapped the gifts in preparation for the servicemen's presentation to his family. In the case where the family resided out of state or out of town, the items were mailed.

Mrs. Lange and Mrs. Campanella are hospital chairmen at the Hines VA Hospital at Hines, near Maywood. They said that the thanks received by this program from those confined to the hospital made the work most rewarding.

This is an annual program which is conducted each year in December.

A 53-year-old Chicago man was arrested Jan. 2 in the 8600 block of Milwaukee Avenue after a Niles officer observed him driving northbound in an erratic manner and intermittently "parking" the car in the roadway.

The officer found two open bottles of whiskey inside the car. The driver refused a breath test and was charged with DUI. He will have a Jan. 26 court date.

Another driver, a 44-year-old Jefferson Park man, was also charged with DUI Jan. 2 after a Niles officer noted his car crossing lanes as it proceeded south in the 7700 block of Milwaukee Avenue.

The man's breath test showed a blood alcohol concentration of 2.5 times above the legal presumption on incapacitation.

A Feb. 7 court appearance was scheduled.

Arrested on warrant

Police arrested a 35-year-old Niles woman shortly after midnight Jan. 7 at her home in connection with a March 30, 1989, battery incident.

She was given a $50,000 bond and a Jan. 23 court date.

Theft

The afternoon of Jan. 2, as a Glenview woman, 68, filled out a sweepstakes ticket in a food store in the 5700 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, persons unknown took her black leather purse from her shopping cart. She estimated the loss of the purse, her wallet, cash and credit cards at $227.

A gold hood emblem was taken from a 1987 Cadillac Brougham as it was parked in the rear of the 6100 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, Jan. 2, the car owner, a Skokie resident, valued the emblem at $100.

A jewel-encrusted gold necklace was taken from the unlocked locker of a Skokie woman, 25, in the health spa in the 5800 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, the evening of Jan. 3. The woman valued the necklace at $200.

A Northbrook woman, 46, left her 1984 Toyota pickup truck in the lot in the 6800 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, Jan. 6 for her daughter to pick up the next day. She left a spare key under the truck floor mat and the vehicle title in a glove compartment. The next day the truck valued at $2,000 was missing, along with a portable camping stove valued at $60 and a two-man tent valued at $100.

A female employee of a fast food restaurant in the 6300 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, told police someone took $100 from her purse in an unlocked locker as she worked Jan. 6. The employee is a Morton Grove resident, 16.

AB Dick burglary

Burglars broke into AB Dick at 5700 W. Touhy Ave., Jan. 1, leaving a trail of smashed windows in their wake.

Several vending machines, including two currency-changing machines in the lunchroom were

The afternoon of Jan. 6, a clerk in the grocery store in the 6900 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, was attempting to steer a column of shopping carts to the store when the column veered

Repair efforts seen as cause of house fire

Efforts of home repairmen are cited as the probable cause of a Jan. 2 fire that seriously damaged the M. Sohn home at 7800 Church St., Morton Grove. Jeff Adams, Morton Grove fire investigator, estimated the fire damage at approximately $50,000.

Repairmen had been working in the Sohn home after the homeowners had returned from vacation to find that the furnace had gone out in their absence. Water pipes had frozen in the extreme cold temperatures of mid-December then burst, with resultant extensive water damage.

The morning of the fire, Ms. Sohn was evacuated and a fireman-paramedic suffered a minor injury.

Four charged for harassing shoppers

Four loud, boisterous young men who reportedly deliberately bothered shoppers at Golf Mill mall were charged with disorderly conduct after they threatened security officers who asked them to leave the mall Jan. 5.

The 17, 18 and 19-year-olds came from Elgin, Addison, and Streamwood.

Tires slashed

Two warehouse supervisors employed at Schwartz Paper, 6900 Austin Ave., found all the tires of their cars slashed Jan. 4.

A 1988 Ford Tempo and a 1986 Ford Mustang were vandalized by persons unknown. The cars were not parked near each other and other nearby cars were not damaged.

Miscellaneous jewelry and a credit card were among the items missing when the burglary was discovered.

The owner had recently disconnected an alarm system and left the house in the care of a house sitter, but the sitter had also left town.

and struck a vehicle. The vehicle owner a Morton Grove man, estimated the damage to his 1989 Chevrolet Caprice at $100.

The resident of an apartment in the 6200 block of Lincoln Avenue, Morton Grove, was awakened by the sound of a window breaking the night of Jan. 7. Investigation revealed that a rear, ground level window leading to the basement was broken. The damage was estimated at $80.

Burglary

In the early morning hours of Dec. 30, a passerby in the 5900 block of Lincoln Avenue, Morton Grove, spotted a man banging on the two front windows of a food store. While the witness notified police from a nearby news agency, the burglar entered the food store through the broken windows and left with 45 cartons of cigarettes.

Morton Grove police gave chase and observed a red car obeying a red light at Lincoln and Austin avenues.

Arresting officers determined the car driver, a Morton Grove man, 43, had a suspended driver's license. Police traced the car's tracks in the newly fallen snow to a site 50 feet from the burglarized food store.

After a check of the man's car uncovered numerous cigarette cartons, the car driver was charged with burglary and criminal damage to property. His bond was set at $3,000 and he was given a Feb. 8 court date.

The cigarettes were valued at $720; the broken windows at $300.

Burglars entered the offices of a restaurant in the 9100 block of Waukegan Road, Morton Grove, the night of Jan. 1 and pried open two cash boxes.

They took about $2,000 in cash and an additional amount in receipts. The restaurant owner surmised a butter knife was used to pry open both the office door and the cash boxes.

Damage to the office door frame was estimated at $20; the cash boxes were valued at $40 each.

It is believed that accumulated mail and newspapers alerted burglars and a homeowner's absence, and they broke into his house in the 9300 block of Neehan Ave., Morton Grove, between Dec. 26-Jan. 3.

Miscellaneous jewelry and a credit card were among the items missing when the burglary was discovered.

The owner had recently disconnected an alarm system and left the house in the care of a house sitter, but the sitter had also left town.

The BUGLE BRIDAL GUIDE

Steps to organizing your wedding

Three to six months before the wedding (or as soon as you decide to marry)

1. Decide how you want your wedding to be. Discuss with each other factors such as: time of year, time of day, site of ceremony and reception, style and degree of formality, number of guests for both ceremony and reception, type of ceremony, and preliminary parties.
2. Tell your parents. Tell your good news to both sets of parents as soon as possible.
3. Budget. Work out the basic budget. Unless you are paying all wedding expenses yourselves, discuss a wedding budget with those who will foot the bill. Be receptive to their suggestions, but don't let yourself be talked into a different sort of wedding from what you really want. (Following Step 1 carefully will help you present a united front.)
4. Determine who will perform the ceremony. Visit the clergy member who you want to officiate at your wedding. (In some denominations, premarital counseling is required.) If both your reception and ceremony will be at the church or temple, choose a final date; if not, ask the clergy member to reserve two or three tentative dates.

5. Select the site. Confirm a specific date with officiating clergy and reception site.

6. Choose a caterer and other suppliers. If the reception site has no food service, choose a wedding consultant or caterer and coordinate the date with site and clergy. Also select and confirm musicians and florist.

7. Rehearsal dinner and bachelor party. Follow steps 5 and 6 for these prewedding parties.

8. Wedding party. Choose your bridesmaids, groomsmen, flower girl, ring bearer. Confirm that they can be present. You will need one groomsmen and a corresponding bridesmaid for each 50 guests.

9. Plan your honeymoon. Decide dates, locations, accommodations. Make reservations.

10. Gowns. Choose or begin sewing bridal gown and attendants' dresses.

11. Shoes. Purchase shoes for yourself and alert your attendants to do the same before you have dress fittings; hemline depends on the height of your heels. Obtain all attendants shoes and have them dyed at the same time for best color match.

12. Wedding registry. Visit a local department or specialty store together to register your preferences for china, glassware, silver, appliances, linens and other gifts.

13. Guest list. You have already decided roughly how many guests you will have. Now, in consultation with both sets of parents, begin drawing up your guest list.

Two or three months before the wedding

1. Invitations. Determine the style and wording. Order them, along with announcements, thank-you notes, at-home cards, and personalized stationery. Invitations take at least two to three weeks to arrive.

2. Gifts. These begin to trickle in even before the invitations are mailed. Purchase a gift record book and list every gift and its giver the day it arrives.

3. Thank-you notes. Write thank-you notes immediately so the job doesn't become unmanageable. Remember: nowhere is it written that the groom cannot write thank-yous--after all, it's his wedding, too.

4. Rings. Select wedding rings.

5. Your own gifts. Select the gifts you will give each other. Purchase the gifts for members of the wedding party.

6. Men's dress. Select and reserve formalwear for the grooms and the men of the wedding party. Make appointments for fittings.

7. Invitations. Mail them six weeks before the wedding if you are enclosing RSVP cards. Address announcements, which will be mailed the day after the wedding.

8. Gown fittings. Have final fitting for bridal gown.

9. Portrait. Have a pre-wedding studio portrait made, in black and white or color.

10. Arrange appointments with your doctor and your beautician.

11. Out-of-towners. Arrange lodging for out-of-town guests.

12. Our new home. Finalize arrangements for your new house or apartment.

13. Insurance. Make necessary changes in insurance coverage.

14. Moving. Arrange for transportation of your possessions to your new home.

More important: Save some time to spend with each other and with your family. After all, isn't that what weddings are all about?

15. Photography. Have final consultation with photographer; provide a list of people or events you particularly wish to be photographed.

16. Flowers. Have final consultation with florist.

17. Honeymoon. Confirm reservations for honeymoon transportation and accommodations.

18. Transportation. Arrange transportation for members of the wedding party.

19. Parking. Hire one or more parking attendants for a large wedding if none will be provided by the reception facility.

20. Bridesmaids' lunch and bachelor party. Give attendants their gifts at these events.

The BUGLE BRIDAL GUIDE

Wedding invitations

Choosing the right invitation style for your wedding is among the most important tasks a couple must undertake before their wedding.

Order invitations three months before your wedding day to allow time for printing, addressing, and mailing. Visit your department store, local printer, jeweler or bridal salon to order them. Be sure to request a sample to check for mistakes before your order is printed.

Inviting your favorite people to celebrate your wedding is a big part of the day's fun. If you're having a larger wedding (100 or more guests) you'll want to send formal wedding invitations.

Word formal invitations the traditional way. And do write out what you want before you order. Or ask your printer to show you personalized versions. If all your guests are being invited to both ceremony and reception, consider the "combination" invitation, below:

Mr. and Mrs. John Sampson request the honor of your presence at the Marriage of their Daughter Teresa Dawn

Mr. Darrell Charles Tucker on Saturday, the Fourth of August at Four O'Clock
St. James Church
Mt. Prospect, Illinois and Afterwards
at Old Orchard Country Club Request replies with an

R.S.V.P., Kindly Respond, or Please Respond in the lower left corner, and make it easy for guests to mail them. Printed reply cards do make it easy for guests. But traditionally, they're reserved for business functions only. If you use cards, why not "code" the envelope with different stamps for your guests and his. It'll make it easier to give an accurate head count to the caterer.

Spell everything on formal invitation - the wedding date, time and all numerals, and names. No abbreviations, initials or nicknames are used - except Mr., Ms., Mrs., and Jr. Traditionally, only the bride's first and middle names are printed. But if you're a doctor or military officer, you can add your title and full name below the phrase, "their daughter." You may or may not want to add Mr. before your fiancée's name.

Begin your invitations with the name of the person(s) sponsoring the wedding. The name at the top of an invitation is not supposed to tell your guests who's paying the bills, so whether you live at home or not, your parents' names should head the invitations. You might also include the groom's parents name below his on the invitation... John North Flemingson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming... If your parents are deceased, your guardian, a relative, or a friend can host the wedding. Or you two can be your own sponsors. If your parents are divorced, the parent who raised you usually does the inviting. If that's your mother, and she's remarried, she uses your stepfather's name, inserts the phrase at the marriage of their daughter..., then adds your full name. Divorced but friendly parents can issue a joint invitation.

Have your formal invitations printed in black script on the top page of a double sheet of paper in pale ivory or white. It can be paneled or plain. The most popular size 4 1/4" x 5 3/4" fits into an envelope without folding. A larger size 5 1/4" x 7 1/4" is folded once for mailing. It's for very formal weddings.

Add more "personality" to your invitations by choosing a translucent (parchment perhaps) or shiny paper in a pretty pastel or an earthy tone. Use colorful ink, or even a photograph of the two of you.

How to plan the perfect honeymoon

When planning your trip, start with a good travel agent. She can be a big help by arranging ground transportation, sightseeing tours, theater tickets and providing information about currency, passports, good restaurants and points of interest.

Whether you'll be enjoying country comforts or big city living, there are many considerations when choosing a place to stay.

- How far from the airport is it and how will you get there?
- Does the place you've chosen offer any special honeymoon packages?
- Are there sports facilities available that coincide with your interests?
- Be aware of what papers may be needed (passport, visa). Are immunizations needed?

Father of the Bride

As they stroll proudly down the aisle his mind races to earlier years,

When she used to skin her knees and he wiped away the tears.

Where did those tender days go, is she ready for a new stage of life?

And what about that cavalier young man, is he ready for a wife?

This time he'll give her up for good, not just a Saturday night.

He hopes that all her needs are met and that this bond of love is right.

There's so much that she'll have to learn when the ups and downs get rough.

Like patience and forgiveness and he hopes she'll have enough.

They're almost at the end of the aisle, it went by much too fast.

He needed hours more than this to fondly remember the past.

She's letting go of his arm now and the feeling tugs at this heart.

But he knows that even a husband's love will never replace his part.

He's done his best to let her grow and played the role of guide.

She'll be his daughter forever so today she can be the bride.

The BUGLE BRIDAL GUIDE

Don't turn reception into 'Wedding War'

SHE GLIDED down the aisle, a vision in white silk and lace. Father smiled. Mother cried. The groom looked smashing in his tux.

No doubt about it, marriage is back in vogue. In the Chicagoland area alone, more than 20,000 couples tied the knot last year.

What's more, the traditional wedding is increasingly popular. Even if the bride and groom are young professionals, even if they've lived together for the past three years, they want a wedding that exudes innocence and love. Romance is back!

BUT A beautiful wedding just doesn't happen. It takes planning, work and compromise.

Alas, there's nothing romantic about planning a wedding. Few social events equal a wedding for generating stress.

The cost alone causes migraines. According to a Skokie-based wedding consultant, many weddings cost $10,000. "And couples will pinch pennies to keep the wedding at $10,000," he said.

Money isn't the problem. Each family has a separate guest list, and guests often range in age from children to great-grandparents. How do you seat them? What type of food appeals to everyone? What kind of music is acceptable?

BEFORE MAKING the arrangements, the bride, groom and their families should sit down and discuss what kind of wedding they want. If the bride and groom want a small wedding and the parents want the big, splashy wedding they themselves never had, make the compromises before making the arrangements. Otherwise, every decision will be the latest battle in 'Wedding Wars.'

If talking doesn't resolve the differences, writing may. The couple and the family can make lists of "must have" and "negotiable" items. Looking at a written list usually helps to find where there's room for compromise.

Book the room, arrange for a clergyman, and get the dresses first. The size and color of the reception room help determine the size of the wedding and the color scheme of the gowns and flowers. Then arrange for musicians, a photographer, a florist, make the guest list, and order invitations.

IF JUST the thought of making all the arrangements leaves your family cold, think about hiring a consultant.

According to the director of catering at a Lincolnwood hotel, many consultants charge a percentage of the cost of the items. "The nice thing about the consultant is

The bride & groom exchange gifts

On their wedding day, the groom gifts his bride with a very special present that tells her of his love and his joy that she has consented to become his wife. The gift she usually wears to the altar.

The bride may choose to give her groom a wedding day memento also. Her gift is entirely optional but most brides do take this opportunity to convey their love in this way.

The custom of a gift exchange between the bride and groom traditionally centers around gifts of jewelry. Jewelry is appropriately significant and properly sentimental for commemorating the wonderful day of their wedding. The jeweler has many win-some treasures that are exactly right as timeless keepsakes for both the bride and groom.

that they'll organize the lives of the people," he said. "They work with the hotel and take care of all the details."

But if the thought of looking at multiple menu selections doesn't send shivers up your spine, try working on the arrangements yourself. Responsibilities can be divided between family members.

MOST HOTELS suggest booking the reception a year in advance. But it's possible to book dates three months in advance.

Hotels generally offer wedding "packages." One package includes two dressing rooms for the bride and groom, a junior suite for the night, a bottle of champagne for the bride and groom, a four-hour open bar, champagne for the toast, that they'll organize the lives of the people," he said. "They work with the hotel and take care of all the details."

ETHNIC AND religious restrictions don't pose problems for most hotels.

Both of the spokespersons for a Northbrook hotel and a Lincolnwood hotel, suggested allowing 60 to 66 percent of the wedding party budget for the reception and 33 to 40 percent for the florists, bands, photographers etc.

No package is set in stone. Most hotels, if requested, will replace the open bar with wine served at the table. Liquor usually accounts for 15 to 25 percent of the bill. BY THE time the wedding date draws near, the catering consultant may seem like a member of the family. One consultant at (a hotel in) Itasca, referred to the brides as "all my children." She once cancelled a vacation to work with a bride whose wedding date was moved up.

Many families want to trim costs. Director of catering at the hotel in Itasca will also suggest ways for cutting costs. For example, candles can be substituted for floral displays.

But for some families the sky's the limit. The Itasca director of catering recalls weddings with indoor fireworks and laser shows. Wedding decorations included ice sculptures of castles, swans and even people riding bicycles.

EVANSTON

On their wedding day, the groom gifts his bride with a very special present that tells her of his love and his joy that she has consented to become his wife. The gift she usually wears to the altar.

The bride may choose to give her groom a wedding day memento also. Her gift is entirely optional but most brides do take this opportunity to convey their love in this way.

The custom of a gift exchange between the bride and groom traditionally centers around gifts of jewelry. Jewelry is appropriately significant and properly sentimental for commemorating the wonderful day of their wedding. The jeweler has many win-some treasures that are exactly right as timeless keepsakes for both the bride and groom.

Romance Workshops

Is your life as romantic as you would like? If not, know that you can make it more romantic.

That's the message that romance consultant Linda Frost will share during her romance workshops, "Romance Your Love This Valentine's Day...and Throughout the Year."

"Almost everyone would like more romance in their lives," says Frost, "but they're waiting for someone to first be romantic toward them."

My workshop encourages people to take the initiative and begin to express more of their romantic attitude. The risk is small, and the potential payoff is great."

Two workshops are offered for women: Thursday, Feb. 1, 7-9 p.m., and Sunday, Feb. 4, 2-4 p.m.

For men, the workshops are offered Friday, Feb. 2, 7-9 p.m., and Saturday, Feb. 3, 2-4 p.m.

All the workshops are offered at a location on the North Shore.

Participants will learn how to plan and enjoy romantic experiences and events personalized for their partner and themselves, to create a romantic atmosphere, to express their romantic attitude, and to select, give, and receive gifts.

Linda Frost is president of Romantic Notions, which offers personalized creative and planning services for romantics and would-be romantics.

Cost of the workshop is $50, and advance reservations are required.

For details, call Linda Frost at (708) 328-6139.

Bouquet And Boutonnieres

Early bridesmaids' bouquets were made of pungent herbs like thyme and garlic—not flowers. The smell was supposed to scare away any bad fairies eyeing the bridal party. Even the groom wore a few sprigs. Your groom, though, will sport white stephanotis in his lapel, or a flower from your bouquet. And you will carry the traditional flowers. Why not adopt another old idea? Tuck one non-flowering thing in your bridal bouquet to plant—maybe some myrtle or ivy.

The Bride's Handkerchief

Early farmers thought a bride's wedding day tears were lucky and brought rain for their crops. Later, a crying bride meant that she'd never shed another tear about her marriage. Why not start your own bridal tradition. Embroider your initials and wedding date on a hanky, then give it to the next woman in your family to marry; she can do the same for another bride. Or maybe even do two hankies—one for your mother, another for his...wedding day keepsakes for their tears of joy.

The Bridal Shower

At one time, marriage was a business proposition between parents of the bride and groom. Love was not important. What was? The price the groom's family paid for the bride. And the size of the bride's dowry. The first shower? A poor dutch miller fell in love with a maiden whose father forbade the match and refused to provide a dowry. The miller's friends came to the rescue and showered the bride-to-be with enough gifts to start housekeeping.

Prices begin at $33. Special group rates are available. For tickets, call (708) 584-6300.

David Koschitzky

Lincolnwood resident David Koschitzky has been named a co-chairman of the Jewish United Fund of Metropolitan Chicago, the city-wide phonathon that launches the public phase of the 1990 Jewish United Fund campaign.

Goal for the phonathon, to be January 21-25, is $2.25 million.

"Increased giving by past contributors and gifts from new donors are essential if JUF is to be able to continue its essential programs for the elderly, the ailing and the needy, while resettling more than 30,000 Soviet Jews in Chicago and Israel this year," Koschitzky said.

Skokie-Lincolnwood residents serving as committee members are Larry Friedman, Jay Leberman, Elliot Robinson and Stanley Swig.

Calling sites will be located at 10 Chicago and suburban locations, including Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, 5050

Church St., Skokie, and Custom Accessories, 3700 W. Pratt, Lincolnwood.

Volunteers are needed to make calls. Training will be given. Refreshments will be provided. To volunteer, call Marjorie Goldich at 444-2888.

Funds released for Chicago-Read project

State Sen. Walter Dudydz (R-7th) has announced the release of nearly $1.5 million for a capital improvement project at Chicago-Read Mental Health Center.

"These funds were previously appropriated by the General Assembly and will be used to rehabilitate the heating, ventilation and air-conditioning systems," Dudydz said. The project will include balancing air and water systems and upgrading the building's automation system on the Center's East Campus. The work also includes replacing deteriorated tubes and other parts of the West Campus' air-conditioning system.

our communities have with auto-train accidents was highlighted by a recent news story. Last year Illinois had the highest rate of car deaths caused by train collisions of any state in the country. Cook County had 11 deaths during the 1988 year.

The new year, 1990, brings some interesting local facts to the fore. Niles village president, Nick Blase, will be serving continuously in office into his fourth decade. Blase first was elected in 1961. Niles' previous village president, Frank Stankowicz, served from 1941 to 1961, which covered parts of three decades. Blase has one other record to match. Niles' first Mayor, John Huntington, served from 1899 until 1901. He was our only two-century Mayor. Blase must serve ten more years to match the Mayor whose name is used on the Niles Senior Citizen building.

The Bugle Newspapers entered its fifth decade of publishing in Niles. Birth date was June 26, 1957. The Life, The News and Spectator newspapers were already distributed here when The Bugle first came onto the scene. The News was published by Bob Moore who sold the paper to Hubert Messe many years ago. The paper ceased publication about five years ago. The Spectator was owned by Bill Carroll, Time magazine, Marshall Field and now the Sun-Times interests. The Life was owned by the Lerner family who sold the paper a few years ago to the Pulitzer publisher in St. Louis. It has been reported the paper is up for sale again.

With that brief history of local community newspapers, The Bugle lays claim to the longest running newspaper show in our area, owned by the same family. That'll get you an extra free question on the next trivia contest you undertake.

CTA petitioned not to cut service

Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) commissioners will soon receive hundreds of petition signatures from Skokie Swift riders, Skokie residents, and businesses anxious to defeat a CTA proposal to dramatically reduce Skokie Swift service.

The petition drive is being spear-headed by Democratic House candidate Jeffrey Schoenberg (56th Dist.). Schoenberg said that "the petition drive is necessary to wake up CTA officials who are unresponsive to the needs of Swift commuters." More than 3,000 daily and 1,000 Saturday riders use the rapid transit service.

Schoenberg criticized CTA commissioners for their failure to attend a recent public hearing held by the transit authority. In his testimony at the Jan. 2 hearing, Schoenberg criticized CTA board members for not bothering to attend the meeting which drew 500 area residents.

"When I'm in the state representative from this district and the CTA board comes to Springfield to find out where I am on the state's CTA appropriation, I'll

The new decade is likely to see Niles have a new village president. Nick Blase will be in his seventies by the year 2,000. Among the present public officials we would guess new trustee Andy Przybylo might be a contender. We think former park board member Mary Marusek would make a great Mayor. It would be good to see a woman in Niles gain this stature.

We expect the 1990's will see the village create some type of a memorial for the many Nilesites who have contributed to the village. Hopefully, it would be some type of living memorial which would have more utilitarian use than a stone or statue which would have little meaning to the coming generations. The recent deaths of Ang Marcheschi, Pete Pesole and Tony Smigiel should spur residents to activate some permanent memory of these good people.

As you enter the Scheel Administration Building in Niles, the plaque on the outside wall names the officials in office when the building was dedicated in 1969. Niles public officials at the village hall included Berkowsky, Blase, Gruenwald, Harczak, Peck, Marcheschi, Pesole and Wagner. Only Blase is still in office.

We received a phone call from a reader last month suggesting we were incorrect in reporting assessments for the new tax bills would be available around February 1. In Maine township they arrived last week. In Niles Township they are expected to arrive by the end of the month. Since we have some pretty good proof readers out there, we expect a few of them will remind us the year 1990 is the end of the decade, not the beginning of a new decade. If they should call we'll tell them they're absolutely correct. And we'll go right on calling 1990 the beginning of the new decade.

CTA petitioned not to cut service

ask where they were the night that 500 CTA riders attended a public hearing to oppose proposed service cuts," Schoenberg said.

Proposed cuts in Swift service could have dramatic negative implications for Skokie businesses as well as riders, Schoenberg added.

"Skokie has spent a lot of money to upgrade Dempster street. Cutting back on Swift service could significantly decrease the number of commuters who take advantage of near-by shopping opportunities along Dempster and those who transfer from the Swift to local buses to go on to Old Orchard Shopping Center," Schoenberg said.

As recently as last fall, Troy and Mayor Nicholas Blase urged Attorney General Neill Hartigan to appoint a receiver. The current court-appointed receiver at Sherwood, the latest in a series, is Woodstock Associates, with a phone listing in Harvard, IL.

The three homes—the Sherwood, the Woodbury, and the Saratoga—are all in receivership and face being sold Jan. 26 at a sheriff's foreclosure sale. Troy noted that Woodbury also has deficiencies but is far superior to the Sherwood. He said Cook County Circuit Court Judge Sklodowski mandated the mortgage holder, the Home Savings bank of Kansas City, to make up for any deficiencies there. The Woodbury is undergoing intense State inspection to forestall any repetition of the Sherwood situation.

Speaking of the Sherwood home, Troy said the sprinkling system is totally blocked, and he estimated the cost of a new system at a million dollars. He noted the building also needs a new roof, windows and sump pumps.

As for the future of the Sherwood structure, he emphasized, "Under no circumstances would we re-license that facility the way it is."

Records in the Niles Fire department indicate that firefighters responded to calls at the Sherwood as recently as Dec. 18. Two alarms came in on that date, both for small fires, one in a storage room under a stairwell, the other in a supply room.

According to a fire department source, occasional calls result from sprinkler pipes freezing.

Judge Sklodowski ordered the patient transfer completed this week and indicated he would oversee the move.

Gleichman noted that the district is "fortunate" in employing very few smokers.

The highest bid received was $5.75 million, according to attorney Bruce Dopke, who pursued over 600 exhibits relative to the litigation. A judge's decision relative to ownership is pending.

"We know the property is worth more and we know we'll get it," promised Alexander Knopfler, the court-appointed trustee named to preserve Schreiber's assets in order to pay his debts. Knopfler indicated he has received a number of phone calls since the Jan. 8 auction.

"We have a number of interested parties," Knopfler said, adding, "We will now engage in direct negotiations with them."

Declining to go into specifics, Knopfler indicated some of the would-be owners lived in the area. He also expressed the viewpoint that the ownership dispute did not discourage interested bidders.

Knopfler would not predict when an Oak Mill sale might be effected.

Equipment damaged at MG park

A piece of playground equipment at Oriole Park, 9200 Oriole, was vandalized Monday night causing an estimated $800 worth of damage.

According to Gary Balling, Morton Grove Park District administrative manager, it appears an ax or chisel may have been used to chop through steps on the apparatus and to knock holes in the equipment's poles.

Skokie Water Supt. Frank Didier is cautioning home and business owners in Skokie to be on the lookout for frozen water lines in the village.

While repairing water leaks last week, water department crews found that the frost line in Skokie is now roughly 3-1/2 to 4 feet deep and that water lines at, or slightly below, those levels are in danger of freezing.

The combination of record-breaking low temperatures in December and a lack of snow cover have caused the deep frost line.

"We'd like to caution people in the village of the potential for frozen water lines even though temperatures have moderated somewhat," Didier said.

"Many people think that the fairly moderate temperatures we've had over the past week mean that frozen water lines are no longer a possibility, but that's not true. It will take a period of approximately two or three weeks of above freezing temperatures to thaw out the ground," continued Didier.

"Until we get that thawing period, people who have had problems with frozen water lines should let some water run slowly from a faucet in their house or business in order to avoid problems."

Residents with questions about frozen water lines should call Public Works at 673-0500, ext. 277.

According to reports, Arthur bludgeoned the man repeatedly on the head with an unknown object. He then forced the Des Plaines woman to tie her boyfriend's hands with a cord he supplied.

Arthur then reportedly took the woman to his own room, two doors away.

The male victim was able to free himself and ran outside the motel where a Morton Grove officer spotted him.

Notified, Niles police went to Arthur's room after the night clerk indicated the description of the offender matched that of the maintenance man. Arthur admitted police and they entered the closed bathroom after hearing a noise.

The female victim, hands bound by a brown cord, was found huddling in the bathroom doorway.

Arthur was taken into custody by police who also confiscated cocaine found in his room.

An ice pick and bludgeon were also retained in evidence.

The male victim was taken to Lutheran General Hospital after he complained of head pain.

Arthur's bond was set at $100,000. He was held at Cook County Jail prior to his Jan. 10 court appearance.

then you get something like this," she sighed. "I'm so aggravated."

Senior citizens also complained. Two Morton Grove couples sounded off about their 35 percent increases as well as taxing bodies in general. "They waste the money. If they can't afford it, they raise taxes. You and me... if we can't afford it, we cut back," a woman complained.

posed valuation. Rueckert's staff will also work two Saturdays, Jan. 20 and Jan. 27, to process complaints.

People begin lining up at 8 a.m. Rueckert has added extra staff and increased the office's hours of operation to handle the volume. On an otherwise sunny Monday, over 330 gloomy homeowners had come through the doors by 1 p.m., armed with their proposed valuations and comparisons between their homes and those of neighbors.

Village of Niles employees, supervised by Senior Director Mary Kay Morrissey is helping people figure out their percentage of increase and explaining the complaint procedure to them.

Some of the information needed may be obtained at Cook County Assessor branch offices located in Circuit Court Buildings in Skokie and Rolling Meadows.

All formal complaints (submitted in triplicate) should include the property address and permanent index number of the homeowner's property as well as the purchase price, date purchased, and estimate of current value. According to a spokesman at the assessor's loop office, the market value used by that office is roughly 80 percent of the home's market value.

Most Maine Township homeowners were protesting their assessments based on the principle of lack of uniformity, where a home has been assessed at a higher rate than a similar neighboring home.

The Real Estate Assessed Valuation Complaint form which is sent to the Cook County Assessor's office has space for listing three comparable properties with similar square footage, construction and bedrooms, along with the assessed valuations and permanent index numbers (PINs) for the three similar units.

Locally, PINs are only available through the township assessor's office.

A flood victim may have grounds to protest a reassessment if the residence suffered structural damage from flooding. Berrigan suggests that each homeowner verify the accuracy of the property description as well, since the valuations are based on style of house, age, square footage, and number of bedrooms.

authorize $88,500 to Consoer Townsend and Associates for engineering fees involved in the South Central Combined Sewer Relief Project. The funds will be obtained from the 1989-90 budget, the revenue generated from the sewer user fee.

The original contract with Consoer Townsend and Associates was for $174,700. Additional funding is needed because of the extended time period of the project, modifications in sewer routing and design and the complexity of the work. Eighty percent of the engineering work is already complete.

The board authorized $15,700 to Donahue and Associates for the engineering work involved in the preparation of a facilities planning report, concerning the Parkview neighborhood's drainage problems. The Parkview area is the western portion of the Central Combined Sewer area bounded by Dempster Street on the south, the Cook County Forest Preserve on the west, Austin Avenue on the east and Church Street on the north.

The facilities planning report is necessary to satisfy the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency's requirements and allow the village to request funding under the IEPA's Revolving Loan Program.

Donahue & Associates will modify a draft report the firm has already prepared into a facilities report. The draft report recommends converting the existing combined sewer system into separate storm and sanitary sewer components to eliminate street and basement flooding in the area. The estimated cost for this project is $2.7 million and is expected to get underway by the middle of 1991.

In other business, the board voted to amend the village's existing ordinance for mini-mart stations allowing coffee makers and soft drink dispensing equipment at mini-marts while prohibiting all other food preparation or food warming devices such as microwave ovens, soft ice cream machines and hot dog warmers.

The amendment also increases the number of parking spaces allowed from three to five, to include two handicapped spaces.

Two amendments were passed regarding the village code for motor vehicles and traffic. The first amendment makes the alley behind Beckwith Center, 9227-9259 Waukegan Rd., one-way eastbound.

The other amendment restricts parking to 90 minutes on the west side of Fernald Avenue from Lincoln Avenue about one-third of a block north. This amendment also prohibits parking from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. on the west side of Ferris Avenue in front of the Ferris Point Condominiums, 8650 Ferris Ave.

The board passed a resolution recognizing the Morton Grove Lions Club's 50th anniversary. Board President Richard Hohns commended the club, chartered on Feb. 20, 1940, for its record of community service. The club supports many local and civic projects and aids many charities. The club will officially celebrate its anniversary on Feb. 17, 1990.

Additionally, the board voted to submit an application for $25,000 to the Cook County Community Development Block Grant Program. The $25,000 will be added to the $100,000 fund the village already has for its residential rehabilitation program.
