A tentative budget of $19.4 million for fiscal year 1990-'91 was approved by board members of East Maine Elementary School District last Tuesday. Although the budget may be amended and some figures are subject to change, the amount is about $750,000 less in expenditures than last year's budget.

Many insurance carriers will still charge Niles residents Chicago rates

Insurers shrug off complaints

by Sheilya Hackett

Niles will continue to be considered part of Chicago by many state insurance agencies because of its shared zip code with the major city.

Village Trustee Bart Murphy told the monthly meeting of the village board June 26 he and Mayor Nicholas Blase talked with a number of insurance carriers at a state-arranged meeting and told them of Niles' unhappiness at having higher premiums because of the 60648 zip code. He said the companies shrugged off the complaints.

Murphy called it an "unfortunate" experience, because Niles' demographics are the same as the suburbs around them. He suggested citizens' only recourse was to shop around, check if the companies charge according to zip codes and if they do, determine if they are on the Chicago rate.

The board also asked attorney Richard Troy to examine the feasibility of a class action suit on behalf of the citizens of Niles against the insurance companies that charge higher rates.

The cost of emergency care by police and fire departments was addressed by Police Chief Ray Giovanelli. He cited an Illinois law which allows municipalities to recover some of the costs expended in emergency care in an accident in which the driver is driving under the influence (DUI). Chief Giovanelli gained board approval to extend this law in Niles to cover the emergency care of one who suffers battery while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

The village emergency services are currently assessing their costs of response and hospital transport. The state limits fines on DUI car accident cases to $500.

The board also acted to meet a state-ordered July deadline which requires home rule municipalities to have a plan in place establishing group homes for people with functional limitations. Trustees agreed to have the Planning commission scrutinize an ordinance that would allow no more than eight persons to occupy a group home in an area zoned R-1 and R-2. As an effort to provide scattered housing, these homes could be no closer than 1,300 ft., unless allowed by the

by Bud Besser

A rather irate anonymous letter-writer called Niles village administrators "gutless" for not raising the weekly garbage fee by a dollar and reducing landscape trash bags to 20 cents. He contends the present pickup system will not be efficient. And he says seniors will find creative ways to dispose of their trash which includes tossing branches over the fences.

He enclosed a newspaper article about McHenry's problems with garbage disposal. It notes this town now charges residents a flat $1.35 for each bag of garbage it picks up. But residents have countered the high fee by dumping in parks, lots and ditches in the area. Any available dumpsters which are not sealed are targets for other people's garbage.

McHenry officials are fearful beginning July 1 the dumping problem will be more severe. State law will then ban the dumping in landfills of yard waste such as grass clippings and leaves.

Prior to April, McHenry residents paid a quarterly bill of $32.25 for weekly collections up to four bags. Today, collection of each bag costs $1.35.

Other towns which use the bag charge for each bag of garbage picked up - Downers Grove, St. Charles and Woodstock - crack down on garbage

Niles Library board approves proposed budget

by Eileen Hirschfeld

A tentative budget of about $2.6 million dollars was approved by board members of the Niles Public Library District for the fiscal year of 1991. This would amount to a decrease in taxes of $655 from last year.

According to Administrator Dan Macken, this will be the second year in a row the library reduced taxes, last year's reduction being $900,000. A public hearing on the budget will be conducted Wednesday, Aug. 15.

Macken attributed the decrease to recently completed capital improvements such as a building addition, parking lot purchase and resurfacing, exteri-

Skaja undertakers celebrate their 25th year of business in Niles

by Sheilya Hackett

The Skaja Terrace Funeral Home in Niles celebrated 25 years of service to the community June 23. But mourning procedures are different now than when the Skajas began in the field, 62 years ago.

Not too long ago, the death of a family member meant, besides grief, a floral wreath at the front door, a casket in the living room and folding chairs edging the walls. It meant sitting up all night with the corpse and in some ethnic groups, having a consoling cup of cheer in the kitchen.

But in 1928, the old customs

were starting to change and slowly, folks were seeking professional help when a loved one passed away.

About that time, Bernard Skaja, founding father of the Niles undertaking family, moved into his first funeral parlor, a 12 1/2' x 70' space at 3715 W. Belmont Ave., Chicago. Four years later, he moved a block east to 3656 Belmont. During that time, his family was growing and Bernard and his wife Helen raised nine children: seven boys and two girls.

The family business was never an impediment to the growing Skaja kids: their dad reserved the large hall behind the main funeral parlor for the kids' roller skating and dances. In winter, he'd flood part of the parking lot for ice skating and many times, when the hearse returned from a cemetery trip, there would be the Skaja kids, and 20-30 friends, waiting for a ride to the nearby Harding and Milford theaters.

The kids grew up helping when they could and the funeral routine became familiar. The eldest son, Bud, Sr. was in the service and his brother Larry, was three years old when Bernard died in 1949, so mother Helen and a daughter, Dorothy, took over. Dorothy retired from the business in '55 and gradually the brothers joined their mother as operators of the home. The business thrived. Eventually, a list of the firm's officers would include Bud, Sr., Mickey, Jack, Jim, Jerry and Larry Skaja, along with Bud, Jr. and

Jack's son, John. When Bud, Sr. recalls his early routine of seven day weeks and 24 hour days, he's grateful so many of his brothers came on board.

In the early Sixties, the Skajas surveyed the open lands along Niles' main commercial artery, Milwaukee Avenue. South of Oakton Street was mostly prairie, save for Callero and Catino real estate and an excavating firm. It seemed a likely spot to extend the business. Though temporarily stalled because Niles zoning had no provision for funeral parlors, they soon began construction of the imposing building with the sheltered walkway that stands today at 7812 Milwaukee Ave. Drawing on their mother's description, they named it Skaja Terrace Funeral Home. It houses four funeral parlors and two, eight-room apartments upstairs. Currently, plans are being made to convert the second floor into four more funeral parlors.

Branching out in Chicago again in '85, the Skajas acquired the Skaja/Stanley home at 3060 Milwaukee Ave.

Bob Wordel, executive director of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, notes Jerry Skaja was a village trustee and describes the whole Skaja family as "Very community-minded, helpful in all Niles events. Whenever I've asked for help, they've never turned me down."

He characterized mother Helen as "a fine business lady" with administrative talents and recalls when she and World's wife, Lois, were active in the Chamber. He applauded Helen's efforts in "putting the Chamber on the map."

Other stories surface about Helen's kinship with Niles neighbors: she'd send coffee and rolls across the street to the Park District Senior Citizens when they embarked on bus trips—a custom continued by her children for many years. Bud, Sr. tells of Helen's hosting a Niles Grandmothers' Club picnic in a grassy field behind a nearby firm on Milwaukee Avenue.

Even after Helen's death in '75, the family continued their community involvement and currently, Bud, Jr. is a park district commissioner. But to focus on Bud, Sr. is to see behind him a record of contributions to church and village. He serves as a director of the First National Bank of Niles and has been a Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus, Tontine Council, president of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and the Archdiocesan chairman for the Knights of Columbus CYO fund, overseeing 99 councils. Almost as a rite of spring each year, the Skaja brothers give tickets to Great America to altar servers at area churches.

Bud, Sr. is appropriately dressed in a dark suit and quiet tie

Improvements slated for MG parks

by Nancy Keraminas

Morton Grove Park District Commissioners unanimously approved a proposal for a new basketball court surface at Palma Lane Park and a timetable for future improvements at Harter Park, 6250 Dempster St. Estimated completion date for Harter's $1.3 million renovation is projected at mid-November, 1991.

Harter will receive a new $120,000 shelter building with washrooms, reconfigured parking, five baseball fields, a walking/jogging path, an asphalt basketball court and new landscaping. The construction phase of the project will get underway in April, 1991 to coincide with municipal storm sewer work running through the park.

The actions, including the $8,960 basketball court action were taken at the park district's regular June 21 meeting. Commissioner Doug Steinman recommended the proposal submitted by Olson Bros. Recreational

by Sheilya Hackett

The attorney defending a Maine Township District 207 science teacher accused of allegedly raping a 14-year-old girl over two years ago on June 25 asked the court for additional time to acquire further testing on hair samples.

Circuit Court Judge Margaret Frossard granted defense attorney Ray Garza's request and set August 14 at 10 a.m. for the next status hearing on the case. Assistant States Attorney Kathy Crowley said the trial date will be set at that time.

The accused teacher, Scott Welty, 39, has no criminal record and is free on bond. He is charged in the alleged rape over two-and-a-half years ago in the forest preserve near Devon Avenue and Dee Road, Park Ridge. His alleged victim described her attacker to Park Ridge police and her mother drew a picture of him from her daughter's description.

The girl, now over 16, and a student in District 207, allegedly recognized Welty as her attacker when she entered her first science class last August. In October, a Cook County Grand Jury indicted him on multiple counts in connection with the case.

Correction

In the June 21 editions of The Bugle, Nick Costantino and Sam Bruno were identified as Niles liquor commissioners. Costantino is deputy liquor commissioner and Bruno is a member of the village's liquor committee. The village liquor commissioner is Nicholas Blase.

A Cook County Circuit Court judge has ordered a Des Plaines bank to hand over $6,000 in Maine Township Regular Republican Organization funds to Park Ridge Mayor Marty Butler, who now heads that group.

The June 20 decision by Judge Richard L. Curry is seen as a defeat for former Maine GOP Committeeman Phil Raffo, who has had to surrender a $23,000 campaign coffer raised during 14 years leading the Maine Republicans. Raffo deferred comment to his attorney, who had not returned a call by press deadlines.

In addition, all but one Raffo lawsuit has been dismissed by the courts. According to Butler's attorney, Regan Ebert, Raffo still has an amended complaint in the docket, asserting the funds belong to the maverick GOP organization Raffo now heads. That group claims ownership because it raised the money. Ebert will argue for a summary judgment to dismiss the revised complaint for lack of cause.

Funds were deposited at First National Bank of Des Plaines and three other area banks. First National officials retained the $6,000 after the other banks re-

Pullen and Mulligan attorneys end testimony

by Sheilya Hackett

Wrapped in a legal wrangle over the outcome of the March primary election, attorneys for legislator Penny Pullen (R-55th) and Des Plaines paralegal Rosemary Mulligan are expected to summarize their testimonies for the court this week. Circuit Court Judge Francis Barth could decide on a court-ordered recount next week.

Pullen, a 13-year incumbent, is asking the court to declare her the winner of the election on the basis of mistakes found in a partial recount of the election results. She asserts she has a 17 vote lead.

Rosemary Mulligan, a Des Plaines paralegal, is the certified winner of the contest by a 31 vote margin. But on the basis of recent findings, Mulligan has adjusted her victory margin claim to between 10-12 votes, according to an aide.

Mat De Lori, a Mulligan attorney, said June 26 while Pullen

S.I.J. 55 PLUS CLUB

Our two theatre parties were great. At Holiday Park to see "I Do, I Do" and to Fort Atkinson in Wisconsin to see "70 Girls 70". The food was delicious and bus trips fun with Bingo, we missed our president Ann Romeo, and her husband Frank, who were at a convention. On June 11 members left for a Day at the Races at Arlington Park. The day included a dinner, bus and program, it was a great success, due mainly to all who attended and supported the event. Everyone had a good time, some even had a winning horse! There are many events coming up, we hope everyone will take an active interest and join in the different events. A thank you to Bernice Tegeler, program chairman, for all her efforts. Josephine Florio enjoyed a nice vacation in Canada. Thanks again to all those who helped make Little City Tag Days another success. Mike Provenzano thanks all who volunteered. Our Memorial Mass on June 14 was well attended, we had Father John Hennessey as our Celebrant. He paid tribute to our club, its members and it was a way for all to honor our deceased members. An OSCAR was given to our orchestra members for the wonderful entertainment they furnish, Mario Argulla, Louie Bassi and John Blasucci. Also nice to see Rita Mancuso who is here visiting from Florida. Best wishes to those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this month. Our sincerest condolences to Esther Feil and family on the death of her husband Hugh and to the family of Leonard Pruetting on the death of their father.

Construction begins at Regency Park

A rendering of Regency Park at Lincolnwood Town Center. The development, a $44 million, 350,000-square-foot rental retirement community on 5.5 acres of land in Lincolnwood, offers the mature population a full continuum of care, including independent living apartments, assisted living units and a nursing care center. Construction is scheduled to be completed in the fall of 1991.

United community and Housing Development Corporation (UCHDC) and Retirement Housing Corporation officially broke ground Thursday, June 14 for Regency Park, a $44 million rental retirement community to be developed as part of Lincolnwood Town Center, located at 7000 McCormick Boulevard in Lincolnwood.

The Illinois Development Financing Authority recently provided Regency Park with the largest tax-exempt bond financing for the new construction of a retirement community. Although construction is scheduled for completion in the fall of 1991, Regency Park has already received lease commitments for one-third of the project's units.

The 5.5 acre, 350,000-square-foot rental development offers residents a full continuum of care, including 722 independent living apartments, 25 assisted living units and 40 nursing care beds.

The independent living apartments will be located in three contiguous six-story towers surrounding a central courtyard. The assisted living units and nursing care facility will be situated in a two-story health care center at the rear of the site with its own separate entrance.

All residents will receive a broad range of services and amenities for a monthly rental fee, including a unique long-term nursing care insurance program. Spreaders at the event included Frank Chulay, mayor of Lincolnwood; Stanley Treit; and Bruce Spear, president, Retirement Housing Corporation.

Board of governors member receives award

Sandra Nash, vice president of the Salem Village Board of governors, recently received the 1990 trustee award from the Illinois Association of Homes for the Aging (IAHA).

The award recognizes Nash for her work with the state legislature to improve care for the poor elderly, and also for her leadership on the board of Salem Village, a program of Lutheran Social Services of Illinois in Des Plaines.

Nash's advocacy work has included appearing before the Illinois Senate in support of increasing reimbursement rates to long-term care facilities for the care of older adults who have exhausted their financial resources. She began serving on the Salem Village board in 1986 and became vice president in 1989.

Salem Village provides a continuum of care ranging from independent living to 24-hour nursing care for older adults. Lutheran Social Services of Illinois is a statewide, not-for-profit social service agency of the Illinois synods of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Firework safety information

The Fourth of July is almost here. Parades, picnics, and public firework displays are great ways to celebrate our Nation's birthday. The Cook County Department of Public Health wants to help you keep the holiday fun by giving you some fireworks safety information.

In 1989, 9,733 people were treated in hospital emergency rooms for injuries associated with fireworks. Over half of the injuries were burns, and most of those injuries involved the head and face. Almost fifty percent of the victims were under 15 years of age.

The laws governing the sale and use of fireworks vary from state to state. Illinois only allows the use of sparklers. Whether or not they are legal, fireworks are still widely sold, bought, and used. Due to their unpredictable nature, it is strongly recommended that fireworks not be used at all. If you do use them in spite of the dangers take the following precautions:

1. Provide adult supervision for children. Do not allow very young children to handle fireworks. They are not toys. Even sparklers, considered by some to be safe and ideal for children, burn at a very high temperature and can easily ignite clothing.

2. Store fireworks in a dry, cool place. Avoid rough handling which might damage the fuse.

3. Light only one firework device at a time.

4. Light fireworks outdoors in a clear area away from houses, people, and flammable material. In this dry weather, even your grass could start a fire. Keep a bucket of water nearby for emergencies and for pouring on fireworks that do not go off.

5. Do not try to relight or handle malfunctioning fireworks. Soak them with water and throw away.

6. Parents should supervise the ordering and use of mail order "Make Your Own" Fireworks Kits.

The Cook County Department of Public Health wishes you a happy and safe Fourth of July.

Host families needed for exchange students

You can extend the hand of friendship around the world as an American host family for a summer foreign exchange student. These homestays are always interesting and are often the beginning of lasting friendships.

Most students come for short summer homestays beginning in early July. A few may come for the school year. Students come from France and Spain and range in age from 15 to 18. All will speak English, although some are more fluent than others in the language.

They live as fully participating members of the family, not as guests in the home. It is an opportunity for American families to share their home and life with someone from a different country and culture and learn something of the language and customs of the homeland of their new family member.

For more information about hosting a student for the summer, or the school year, contact the local program representative. She is Carole Maes. Phone: (708) 355-7118.

Center of Concern recognizes volunteer

The Center of Concern always extends a hearty welcoming hand to those who want to volunteer, but feel we are especially blessed in our recent new volunteer, Loretta Ohler.

From Monday through Friday, Loretta works as a computer engineer. On Saturday mornings she comes to The Center's office to serve as receptionist. In that capacity she answers the questions of those who are taking advantage of Saturday's free services: personal, legal or financial counseling, blood pressure testing and blood sugar screening.

In addition, Loretta enters current data in the computer which is an extension of her work day's occupation. Not content with these duties, Loretta has also joined or Friendly Visitor program and calls on an isolated individual every week, assisting her in coping with a less than ideal situation.

In her free time, Loretta enjoys tennis and bike riding.

St. Benedict Home for the Aged, 6930 W. Touhy Ave., is marking the second phase of construction for their new 99-bed facility with a ceremony for the Blessing of the Cornerstone. The Right Reverend Hugh Anderson, O.S.B., Abbot of St. Procopius Abbey in Lisle, Illinois will perform the blessing on Saturday, June 30, 10:30 a.m. at the construction site.

The cornerstone will bear the names of Cardinal Bernardin, the Catholic Bishop of Chicago; Reverend Edwin Conway, Administrator of Catholic Charities; and Sister Irene Sebo, O.S.B., Administrator of St. Benedict Home. Through the generosity of residents, family and friends, St. Benedict's Building fund is halfway to its goal. Additional support is still being sought for the remaining $2.5 million. Construction is expected to be complete in December, 1990.

St. Benedict Home's present facility provides light intermediate care for forty residents. Following completion of the new building, the original will be converted to 30 assisted living units. For more information on St. Benedict Home or to make a donation call Sister Irene Sebo, O.S.B. at (312) 774-1440.

Microwave safety tips from Commonwealth Edison

More than any other kitchen appliance, the microwave has revolutionized the world of cooking. In a fraction of the time required of a conventional oven, a creative chef can produce terrific meals. Microwaves are not only easy, but very energy efficient, too.

But, microwave ovens can be home safety hazards if basic guidelines for their operation are not followed. A common myth suggests that radiation leakage from microwaves poses the greatest danger. If the door hinges and seal on your microwave are tight, leakage should not be a problem. In fact, the American Council on Science and Health says that electrical shock is the most frequent danger. To prevent this kind of accident from occurring, check the oven's electrical cord and plug regularly for any signs of wear or damage. The microwave should be properly installed and plugged into an outlet that is polarized and grounded. Also, check to make sure the circuit is rated for at least 15 amperes of current.

Burns resulting from cooking in a microwave oven can take you by surprise because a microwave oven heats the food without heating the dish. Before removing a dish from the microwave, open the door and allow the dish to stand for a minute or two. Always use hot pads to remove a dish from the microwave. Many recipes require the use of plastic wrap to cover the food. Serious vapor burns can result from the hot moisture retained in the dish. Before removing a completed dish from the oven, use a lengthy kitchen utensil, such as a skewer, to puncture the covering. This will allow the steam to escape before you actually handle the dish. Some microwaves do not heat food evenly, creating the danger of "hot spots" which can burn you when you eat. Before eating be sure to stir and mix the food thoroughly.

A microwave oven can make your life much easier by reducing the time spent in the kitchen. And your family can enjoy delicious, economical meals with little or no effort.

A Tribute to a Grand Old Lady

It is time to say goodbye to a familiar and faithful, if not sometimes fickle, friend: The Niles Public Library Bookmobile.

She has served the community well for the past 21 years. Little children will remember the comfort she brought them with her vast supply of books which transported them into the world of laughter, tears and imagination.

Parents will recall the many hours of pleasure her cargo gave them. The elderly will never forget the hours of companionship and pleasure her treasures delivered.

Recent winters have been difficult on the van, and spring, summer and fall have also taken their toll. There have been a series of replaced parts and at times some leaky fluid could be seen.

On July 4th, she will take her place, like she has done for so many years, in the 4th of July Parade. This will be her last parade. Soon she will be replaced by a shiny new Bookmobile, but it will take many years for the new one to achieve the dignity and grace of this fine old lady.

So come join us at the parade - say farewell-wave, hoot and holler and let this grand dame know the community will miss her!

If you can't make it to the parade, come and visit the Bookmobile sometime this summer.

Police News

Thieves steal water from fire hydrant

Two water thieves got the drop on Niles police, escaping three minutes after a Public Services employee reported their scaling up to 500 gallons of water from a hydrant located at Franks Avenue and Cherry Street.

The June 22 incident began around 7:13 p.m. when the worker spotted a maroon Ford pick-up truck containing two 250-gallon tanks. Two men were filling the drums from the fire hydrant. Police arrived at 7:16 p.m. and searched the area without locating the suspicious truck.

Men caught stealing at Niles auto dealer

Two young Des Plaines men were caught in the act by an alert Niles police officer who spotted them in the lot at Jerry Gleason Golf Mill Ford shortly before 1 a.m. June 21.

Arrested were Edward Y. Kai, 18, of 500 Ironwood Drive and Thomas Talaczynski, 17, of 485 Good Ave. Both men were charged with possession of burglary tools, a felony, as well as theft.

Officer William Christie was on patrol near 9401 Milwaukee Ave. when he noticed Kai underneath a Ford van in the lot. Kai reportedly told the officer he was looking for a new car.

Asked where he had parked his own car, Kai led Christie to the rear of the dealership. Nearby were four hubcaps belonging to a Gleason black Mustang. Inside Kai's car were burglary tools.

Niles units assisted in the arrest of Kai's accomplice, Talaczynski. Both men were given a $50,000 bond and a July 11 court appearance.

Lawn fixtures stolen

A resident of the 7100 block of Church Street, Morton Grove, told police persons unknown took three wooden windmills from his front lawn the night of June 16.

One represented a woman doing wash; a second, a duck and the third, a tripod tower. They were valued at $50.

Auto burglarized

Unknown offenders used a slim jim to enter an '84 Oldsmobile Cutlass in a drive in the 8900 block of Oak Park Avenue, Morton Grove, the night of June 18.

They took an AM/FM stereo cassette radio valued at $350 from the dashboard.

Cubs tickets stolen

Two tickets to a Cubs game were in a wallet taken by persons unknown from a locker in the health club at 6821 Dempster St., Morton Grove. The victim, an Elmwood Park man, valued the terrace box seat tickets at $20.

Mt. Prospect man arrested

A 42-year-old Mount Prospect man was arrested by Niles police June 18 after he allegedly attempted to pawn $750 worth of postal stamps. He is also suspected of stealing an additional $2,250 worth of 25-cent stamps.

The rolls of stamps were taken from the man's employer, Johnson and Quinn, 7460 N. Lehigh Ave. The thefts were discovered when a U.S. postal inspector investigated the pawn shop.

The man posted a $5,000 personal recognizance bond and was scheduled to appear in court July 6.

Wife charges spouse with battery

A 36-year-old Niles man faces July 12 battery charges in connection with his alleged attack on his 40-year-old wife June 22.

The husband, identified as a cocaine user in police reports, reportedly suspected his wife of cheating on him and forcibly removed articles of her clothing searching for proof while in the couple's home. Police reports indicate the man was intoxicated at the time of the incident.

Niles man charged with drunk driving

Early June 22, a patrolling Morton Grove officer, alerted by the sound of skidding tires, observed a driver make several turns without using a turn signal and make an abrupt stop a full car length beyond a stop sign.

When halted by the officer, the 47-year-old driver, a Niles resident, failed field sobriety tests and was charged with driving under the influence. He has a court date Aug. 3. The man told police he had one drink with a friend.

Leather coats stolen

Management at Lane Bryant, Golf Mill, reported the theft of two suede leather coats, valued at $458 on June 22.

A female customer was seen trying on the coats and emerging from a dressing room without the coats. A store employee suggested the patron may have concealed the outerwear under her dress.

NILES POLICE REPORT

Column

by Lt. Jerry Sheehan
Niles Police Department

Officers crack down on grass offenders

It was just after the 10:30 p.m. roll call on summery Friday night. The patrol officers on the midnight shift were gathering up their assignment sheets, briefcases and night socks, heading out the door for their eight hours on the street when Officer Monohan approached Sgt. O'Brien.

Off. Monohan: "Sarge"
Sgt. O'Brien: "What is it Monohan?"
Off. Monohan: "I got a tip from my snitch that there is a grass deal going down in the industrial area near Howard and Lehigh tonight."
Sgt. O'Brien: "Take Kelly and Murphy and make the collar."
As Officer Monohan approaches Howard and Lehigh he can see in the distance three large, black plastic bags being thrown onto the roadside from the rear of a pickup truck. As Officer Monohan approaches the pickup truck speeds off into the darkness.

As Officers Monohan, Murphy, and Kelly approach the bulging black bags, fully aware of the great amounts of marijuana transported daily in bags just like this and the fact that many dope deals are consummated in dark, lightly populated areas such as this; Officer Monohan: "Murphy, a recovery like this could get us those stipes in no time."
Ten minutes later at the police dept. the phone rings in the watch commander's office.

Sgt. O'Brien: "Police Dept. Sgt. O'Brien speaking."
Off. Monohan: "Sarge, its Monohan. We have three bags of grass."
Sgt. O'Brien: "Good job Monohan, is it Sensimilla?" (A highly potent strain of marijuana)
Off. Monohan: "No sarge."
Sgt. O'Brien: "Is it Accapulco Gold?" (Another potent grade of marijuana).
Off. Monohan: "No sarge."
Sgt. O'Brien: "Well then it must be Jamaican Red?"
Off. Monohan: "No sarge."
Sgt. O'Brien: "Well then what is it Monohan?"
Off. Monohan: "Sarge, it looks to me like Kentucky Blue with a sprinkling of Rye and Fescue!"

Sgt. O'Brien: "You mean you've got a -----dum-da-dum-dum----- Disposal of Yard Waste and Fly Dumping beef?"
Off. Monohan: "Yes sarge, and its real healthy and green, we could have included a charge of violation of the Sprinkling Ban!"
Sgt. O'Brien: "This is serious Monohan, T.O.T. (turn over to) this case to the detectives".

This story is fictitious enough but our yard waste ordinance is not. In 1989 the state of Illinois passed legislation prohibiting yard waste from being dumped in landfills after July 1, 1990. In response to the state law the Village of Niles amended its Disposal of Garden Waste ordinance 15-6 to Disposal of Landscape Waste (sec. 15-6). This ordinance prohibits residents from mixing their yard waste amongst their regular garbage and trash and mandates its disposal in large paper bags imprinted "Village of Niles".

The Yard Waste ordinance defines yard waste as "all accumulations of grass or shrubbery cuttings, leaves, tree limbs, and other materials accumulated as the result of the care of lawns, shrubbery, vines and trees".

The village approved yard waste bags can be purchased at numerous locations in the Niles area and must be printed with Village of Niles on them.

So far compliance with the new ordinance has been good. The police department has begun enforcing the yard waste ordinance and will be especially serious about the associated charge of "fly dumping". I'm not too sure about the lineage of the term "fly dumping".

Police reprimand man trying to catch thief

An employee intent on trapping the person responsible for thefts from his office at 6245 W. Howard St. was chastized by Niles police for touching off a false drug investigation June 22.

According to reports, he put white foot deodorizing powder in a container in his desk drawer, hoping the person who was improperly looking inside the drawer would mistake the powder for cocaine and report the incident.
A fellow employee did report him to his manager and Niles police were asked to investigate. His story was corroborated after the powder was analyzed and determined to be harmless. Officers warned him to report problems to his manager in the future.

STRANGE

If you read the police report in this paper, you are quite well aware that robberies, burglaries and worse are taking place every week within minutes of where you live.

Yet you still don't have a home security system.

The FBI says your home is fifteen times less likely to be victimized if you do have one. That means your home is fifteen times more likely to be victimized if you don't. Professional and amateur criminals definitely prefer unprotected homes. Like yours.

The price of a home security system is no longer alarming. You actually can't afford not to have it. A good, basic, high technology home security system is only $549. Professionally installed! But what price can you put on the protection of your family and your own peace of mind.

Woman arrested for diamond necklace theft

A 22-year-old Chicago woman was arrested June 13 in connection with a June 4 $299.90 theft from Service Merchandise, 8303 Golf Road. The woman also consented to taping an admission to $2,000 worth of previous thefts from that store, but later recanted that confession.

The woman attempted to obtain a cash refund for the diamond and gold necklace from the company's Norridge store when she was directed to Niles. She was arrested in Niles.

Despite her confession to the larger thefts, felony charges were denied. She will appear in court July 6 for misdemeanor theft.

TV's stolen from vans

Gleason Ford was targeted June 19 by unknown thieves who cut a chain fence and then took two six-inch color TV's from vans parked on the company premises at 9401 Milwaukee Ave. The loss was estimated at $1,300.20.

Mailbox fire

Niles firefighters extinguished a mailbox fire June 24 at 8060 Oakton. The fire was caused by an incendiary device placed inside.

Bike stolen

The owner of a 26-inch women's powder blue bicycle is missing the $270 bike, stolen June 21 from a location in the 8100 block of Merrill Street.

Retail theft

The afternoon of June 19, a 26-year-old Brookfield woman hid two pairs of shoes in a booster purse—a large purse often used by shoplifters—in a shoe store in the 7200 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove.

She approached the clerk to pay for other items, but while paying she placed the purse on the floor. An alarm sounded when she was asked to pass through a security sensor before leaving and the clerk retrieved the shoes, valued at about $105.

The woman admitted to police she took the shoes, but didn't know why she did. After being charged with one count of misdemeanor retail theft, the woman was given a court date of Aug. 3.

Peterson serves as Potentate for Shriners

Illustrious Sir Robert E. Peterson of Park Ridge is the current Potentate of Medinah Temple of the Ancient Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine (Shriners).

Noble Peterson has been a member of Medinah Temple for 36 years. Twenty-two of those years were spent in the Arab Patrol, with the last six as major.

As the Potentate, Peterson will play a major role when the A.A.O.N.M.S. hold their 116th Imperial Council Session in Chicago June 30-July 6. More than 25,000 Shriners are expected to converge on Chicago for this annual conclave. The festivities include a mammoth six-hour parade on July 4.

Children's Museum celebrates Bastille Day

There is no need to travel all the way to France for Bastille Day festivities, because the Kohl Children's Museum is bringing the celebration to you Saturday, July 14 at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. and Sunday, July 15 at 1:30 p.m.

Bastille Day, July 14, is France's most important national holiday. It commemorates the successful capturing of the Bastille, an old fortress once used as a prison, in 1789. Similar to our July 4th, Bastille Day symbolizes freedom and independence for all the people of France.

Celebrate with the French by designing and constructing an Eiffel Tower out of recycled materials. In addition, learn about French people and their culture by joining us for French songs and stories.

The Kohl Children's Museum is located at 165 Green Bay Rd., Wilmette. Hours are Tuesday-Saturday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Sunday, noon-4 p.m. Admission is $2.50; children under one year of age are free. For more information call, (708) 256-6056.

Outdoor food preparation for summer

Summer is the time for picnics, barbecues, and all too often poisoning. Over 850 cases of food-borne illnesses were reported to the Cook County Department of Public Health in 1989. Although this number may seem large, it is really only a small fraction of the total number of food poisoning cases. According to Dr. Karen L. Scott, Director of the Cook County Department of Public Health, "most people either do not need medical care or are treated by private doctors. Only persons who require hospitalization are counted in these statistics."

Many cases of food-poisoning occur in the hot summer months. If basic food preparation precautions are not followed the outdoor picnic can become an unhappy event. Here are six guidelines for storing and preparing food for the outdoors:

1. Keep hot foods hot - 140 degrees F or more. If you can't keep the dish hot until it's time to serve it, then either don't serve it or bring the food in your cooler and cook it at the site.

2. Keep cold foods cold - 45 degrees F or less. Don't skimp on the ice and replace ice as it melts.

Since foods should be cold when they are packed in the ice chest, prepare them the night before so they have time to chill. Put perishable foods back in the ice chest immediately after serving.

3. Keep hands, dishes and utensils clean. Use one platter for raw food and another for cooked. Clean utensils and chopping board after each use so bacteria aren't transferred from one food to another.

4. Cook meat, poultry, and fish thoroughly. This is very difficult when you grill frozen or partially-frozen meat. The inside may not get hot enough to kill illness-causing bacteria.

5. Use covered containers. Covered containers not only prevent soggy foods in the ice chest, but also stop insects that carry germs from joining in your festivities.

6. When in doubt, throw it out. Bacterial growth can't always be detected by changes in appearance, taste, or odor. If something has been sitting out for over two hours, you should discard it. Leftovers you want to save should go back into the cooler after being served.

Cragin Federal sponsors cholesterol screening

Coronary heart disease is the leading cause of death in the United States. More than 50 percent of Americans have blood cholesterol levels high enough to be at risk of heart disease. And most don't know it because high blood cholesterol is a painless condition.

To help combat heart disease, Cragin Federal Bank for Savings will hold cholesterol screening at a number of its Chicago-area branches.

Administered by Medical Screening Systems, two cholesterol tests are available: a total cholesterol count, which indicates your risk for heart disease, and an HDL test, a count of the "good" cholesterol which is thought to protect against it. The cholesterol screening uses the finger stick method and is a painless procedure.

Fasting is not required for a total cholesterol reading. Participants will receive their results within three minutes of testing and can take home a written evaluation; no appointments are necessary. There will be a nominal charge of $6 for the regular cholesterol test and $8 for the HDL screening. For more information, please call (312) 889-1000.

The cholesterol screenings will be held at the following Cragin locations: Thursday July 5 from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., 4738 N.

Cumberland Ave., Chicago, Thursday July 19 from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., 7225 W. Belmont Ave., Chicago and Friday July 27 from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., 7201 N. Harlem Ave., Niles.

Diabetes program held at Swedish Covenant

"Living Well with Diabetes," a free program for persons with diabetes and their families, will be given in the Anderson Pavilion of Swedish Covenant Hospital, 2751 W. Winona, from 6 to 8 p.m. beginning on Thursday, July 5. The remaining three sessions will be held at the same time on Wednesdays, July 11 to 25.

The program will cover subjects of interest to persons with diabetes, such as, what to do in an emergency, nutrition and meal planning, glucose self-monitoring and exercise and diabetes control.

Mary Ann Lopez, RN, nurse manager, is the program coordinator and Debbie Davis, RN, is the nurse educator. A therapeutic dietician and a pharmacist from the hospital staff also will participate. For more information or to register call Ms. Davis at 878-8200, x 5256, or 989-3823.

Park Ridge resident Millie Standa, a registered nurse and the manager of Resurrection Medical Center's Nursery, was honored as the March of Dimes "Outstanding Nurse" Friday, June 1, at Resurrection Medical Center, 7435 W. Talcott Ave., Chicago.

The award, which was presented to nurses across the state, honors the efforts of individuals instrumental in the March of Dimes' mission in the prevention of birth defects.

The Nurse Recognition certificate award was presented to Standa by Sister Donna Marie, C.R., hospital executive vice president, during special ceremonies.

Standa, who has been taking care of newborns at Resurrection since 1965, is a graduate of the St. Francis Medical Center nursing program (Peoria) and earned her bachelor of science degree in nursing from St. Francis College in Joliet. She is a member of the Nursing Association of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

In addition, she has taught special prenatal education classes for expectant parents, coordinated the Perinatal Support Services program, and has been a member of many neonatal and perinatal committees.

She and her husband, Steven, have six children and are grandparents to 11. They are long-time Park Ridge residents.

Resurrection hosts blood drive July 2

Community residents and friends are invited to participate in Resurrection Medical Center's summer blood drive on Monday, July 2 at the Northwest side facility, 7435 W. Talcott Ave., Chicago.

Medicare coverage for the disabled

A new rule makes it easier for a disabled Social Security beneficiary who works to retain Medicare coverage when coverage lapses because of earnings. If Medicare coverage has already lapsed, a person must sign up by June 30, for coverage to begin July 1.

Under the provision, a person may purchase Medicare coverage by paying a monthly premium. In 1990, the premium is $175 a month for Medicare hospital insurance coverage and $28.60 per month for Medicare's medical insurance coverage.

People have 7 months after they receive notice that their Medicare coverage has lapsed to enroll. Those who do not enroll during that time would have to wait until the general enrollment period—January-March of each year—and may have to pay a premium surcharge.

Note that, while a person may purchase hospital insurance without the medical insurance, it is not possible to purchase medical insurance without hospital insurance. Medical insurance pays doctor bills and certain outpatient expenses not covered by hospital insurances.

The new rule is expected to be a major boost for disabled beneficiaries who are attempting to return to the workplace in spite of their disability. Fear of losing Medicare protection is one of the major deterrents to such work attempts. Because their disability continues, they can expect continued substantial medical expenses.

Disabled beneficiaries who would be eligible to buy Medicare but have limited income and resources need to know that the states are required to pay Medicare hospital insurance premiums for "qualified disabled and working individuals" who meet certain income and resource standards. However, the states are not required to pay Medicare medical insurance premiums. For specific information on the income and resource requirements, contact your State Medicaid agency.

Disabled people who would like to buy Medicare coverage or need more information should contact Social Security. Call the nationwide, toll-free telephone number 1 (800) 234-5554. It's available Monday-Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Book provides family trip ideas

In Joanne Y. Cleaver's new book Somewhere Over the Dan Ryan: Day and Weekend Outings for Chicago-Area Families, parents and their children will discover not Oz, but scores of terrific ideas for family fun in Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan.

Bypassing the over-hyped commercial attractions, Somewhere Over the Dan Ryan offers the pleasures to be found at nature preserves, historical villages, zoos, museums, farms and family-friendly country inns located in the metro area or an overnight hop away.

Cleaver tested each trip with her kids—"a precocious and easily-bored 8-year-old, an extroverted 5-year-old, and a blessedly mellow baby"—and guarantees that each trip is worth the drive. Her book tells what kids will really like (and what will bore them), and gives firsthand advice on stroller and wheelchair accessibility, quality and price of on-site food and nearby restaurant fare.

Boat tour explores Chicago's past from the water

What do sea monsters, wild onions, and Abraham Lincoln have in common? They're all part of a new educational boat tour for children, co-sponsored by Chicago From the Lake boat tours and The Chicago Academy of Sciences.

Kids embarking on the 60-minute tour will learn about Chicago's architecture, cultural history, and the natural history of the area from 400 millions years ago to the present. They'll see where Abraham Lincoln was nominated; learn how the Sears Tower was built; and picture where the shoreline of Lake Michigan was 200 years ago.

The tour concludes with an environmental message on the importance of protecting our lakes and oceans. Each child will receive an educational coloring book with stickers inside to take home as a souvenir.

The sea monsters highlighted on the tour can be seen in lifelike form at the Chicago Academy of Sciences' robotic summer exhibit, "Prehistoric Sea Monsters: Dinosaurs and the Deep." The exhibit is located steps away from the Ogden Slip at North Pier, where the boat tour departs. A "Superticket" includes boat tour admission and a visit to the Sea Monsters exhibit (with front-of-the-line admission privileges) for $7.50 per child; $15 per adult. Admission for the boat tour only is $6 per child; $10 per adult.

The Children's History Tour departs daily from North Pier at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. through early fall. For reservations, call Chicago From the Lake at (312) 527-1977.

Police News

Unknown offenders cause property damage with BB's

Morton Grove police recorded seven cases of property damage by BB-like projectiles between June 21-24. Every case but one involved damage to vehicles. In each case, the offenders were unknown.

The custodian of the Melzer school, 9400 Oriole Avenue, Morton Grove, reported similar projectiles impaired a school entrance window valued at $200.

In the 5800 block of Madison Street, a door window in an '87 Chevrolet Nova was shattered for an $100 loss June 22. During that same period, a broken side window in an '89 Toyota Cressida parked in the 7800 block of Linder Avenue was called an $100 loss.

A side window hit in a '79 Ford Fairmont parked in the 5800 block of Warren Street, was estimated an $125 loss.

The owner of an '86 Toyota Camry parked in the 7900 block of Luna Avenue estimated the damage to a side window at $150. The windshield in a '77 International Scout wagon was valued at $200 after it was damaged while parked in the 8200 block of Major Avenue.

In the 8300 block of Major, the owner of an '82 Chevrolet Chevette estimated the damage to a rear side window at $125.

Criminal damage to property

A resident of the 8600 block of Fernald Avenue, Morton Grove, told police unknown offenders kicked in the bottom panel, broke the frame and tore the screen of his aluminum screen door June 19. The resident considered it a $200 loss.

Four days later, the same resident saw a male wearing a red and white jacket attempting to open his garage door. When the resident's wife shouted and he approached, the man and a male companion fled down the alley. No entry was gained to the garage, but the door knob lock was broken, a $15 loss.

As a Glenview man, 21, turned north onto Lehigh Avenue at Dempster Street, Morton Grove, the night of June 24, something hit and shattered the T-top of his

'87 Chevrolet Camaro. The driver exited his car to investigate and saw two subjects, one carrying a flashlight, run across the adjacent railroad tracks and into the woods. The driver estimated the loss at $300.

Between June 20-21, persons unknown threw small stones at an '83 Ford van parked in the 700 block of Reba Court, Morton Grove. The stones cracked the van's windshield, causing $200 damage.

Someone on June 21 removed a steering wheel from a 1984 Chevy Camaro parked in the 8500 block of Milwaukee Avenue and placed it on the driver's seat. Damage was estimated at $40.

Internal thefts

Management at McDonald's filed a June 13 report with Niles police as a matter of record regarding the theft of $267 from an office safe at the 7969 Milwaukee Ave. location.

Two previous thefts totalling $140 under similar circumstances were also communicated.

Days Inn, 6450 W. Touhy Ave., is reportedly missing a $518.70 check from a bank deposit made June 8. The incident information was forwarded to Niles police June 22.

Cash receipts of $771 in currency and a $379 company check were missing from a June 16 deposit made by Chicken Basket, a Golf Mill Eatery. The report was filed June 19.

Having lived above or behind a funeral home since birth, dealing with death has become second nature. He agrees they're trying to help mourning families, but "I'm not a psychologist...if people approve of what we do, it's something." He's not afraid of death, since "It's natural...whatever will be, will be."

Fireworks dangerous to bystanders too

Bystanders are more likely to suffer serious—and permanent—eye injuries from fireworks than the people setting the fireworks off, a recently published survey shows.

According to James A. McKechnie, Jr., executive director of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, a survey by one of the ISPB's affiliates in the United States Eye Injury Registry shows that in almost two-thirds of the eye injuries which were defined as permanent (with insignificant structural or functional change), the person injured was a spectator.

The estimated mean distance between the person injured and the place where the firework was lit was 22 feet.

The ISPB conducts an annual survey of eye injuries caused by fireworks serious enough to require medical attention from Illinois ophthalmologists and hospital emergency rooms in the state.

The number of reported eye injuries caused by fireworks continues to decline but one 39-year-old man still lost an eye last year from lacerations caused by a "festival ball." Four men—two in their late 30's, a 16-year-old and an unidentified fourth—were injured seriously enough by festival balls in the year prior to that to require removal of eyes.

In spite of the general decline, McKechnie said it was still disturbing that the number of injuries in the 20-29 age group increased to 33 percent, matching the 10-19 age group which traditionally has led with the largest number of eye injuries.

Sparklers, generally perceived as harmless and acceptable for use by children, injured a two-year-old boy and two girls, five and seven; a thirteen-year-old girl and two adults in their mid-twenties.

as often as females but the likelihood females would be hurt compared to males for the first time last year, was two to one, McKechnie said.

Burns continued to lead as the most commonly reported injury at 24 percent. Corneal abrasions, hyphemas (blood in the anterior portion of the eye) and lacerations were closely tied for second place as eye injuries.

Survey respondents identified unspecified firecrackers and fireworks as causing the most eye injuries (41%). Bottle rockets were named specifically in almost a quarter of the instances followed by sparklers and professional displays. Medical treatment for injuries caused by professional displays is called for most often because of debris and ashes blown into the eyes.

June 22. "He was a very, very talented man," said Allene Feldman, his wife of 33 years. "He really had a zest for life." Mrs. Feldman stated her husband was well respected in Maine Township for his contributions to recreation, to North Maine Fire Department and his synagogue.

Mr. Feldman, a Des Plaines resident, served as Golf-Maine park commissioner from 1971 until 1980. During his tenure, he became concerned about the death of park district opportunities for the disabled and began steps to form a special recreation association for those individuals. It took seven simultaneous referendums in seven suburbs to create M-NAAR.

A self-taught computer programmer, Mr. Feldman was founder of MicroLogic, selling and designing computer software. He formerly co-founded Drapery Service Corporation, a Chicago concern. A Korean War veteran, Mr. Feldman served in the Army's engineering corps.

Mr. Feldman was also on the boards of Showcase Players community theater and B'Nai Jehoshua Beth Eloheim Synagogue in Glenview. In addition, he was one of those who tried to save the Niles Public Library Branch at Ballard Road and Cumberland Avenue.

Mr. Feldman was honored in 1983 when a park at Kathy and Western Avenues was named after him. He was designated Citizen of the Year in 1979 by Life Newspapers.

Mr. Feldman is also survived by his children, Kenneth, Stacy Fox and Jamie; his mother Rae, brother Gene and sister Ina.

forces claim irregularities in the Mulligan vote count, there are also irregularities in Pullen's, and "they wash each other out." He dismissed Pullen's claims that certain ballots were marked, describing them instead as "just smudged."

A Mulligan aide said Judge Barth earlier denied a bid by Pullen forces to bring election ballots into court on the basis they were confidential. At deadline, court was still in session and sources close to Pullen were not available for comment.

The trial began June 20 and on the same date about 200 of Mulligan's backers attended a fundraiser on her behalf at Des Plaines' Friendship Park Conservatory. The answering tape at Citizens for Mulligan headquarters reports "Although in an election contest, we are confident and preparing for the November election."

Maine Township Democrats recently introduced their candidate for the historically Republican legislative seat. Candidate Robert Mucci, a Park Ridge resident and an assistant Cook County Public Defender, revealed his abortion views as pro-choice until fetal viability, but pro-life beyond that period, with certain exceptions.

The race between Pullen and Mulligan is frequently perceived as a debate between anti-abortion forces as represented by Pullen and pro-choice factions as represented by Mulligan.

This is the 2nd year that Cablevision of Chicago has offered the Television Communications Award to students at Oak Park/River Forest High School. To be considered for the 1990 award, students were asked to submit an essay and a 15 minute documentary of racial diversity, the teen drug issue or the American homeless. Entries were judged on originality, creativity, technical quality, and presentation.

The event was attended by 300 people gathered to recognize Chicago's brightest and most creative marketing talent.

Karavas ran into the house, ran upstairs to search for occupants, then spotted the source of fire on the kitchen stove. He doused the flames with a bucket of water. The House had gone to a neighbor's help.

Morton Grove firefighters, directed by District Chief Ron Ruehrdanz, determined a faulty gas line was the cause of the fire. Pin hole leaks in the stove gas connection emitted gas that was ignited by the stove pilot light.

Arson investigator Jeff Adams said although Karavas extinguished a good part of the blaze, flames were still evident in the rear of the stove and when the stove was moved, the corroded gas line broke, causing flames with a "blow torch" effect.

The interior shut-off valve was

The board also unanimously approved a motion by Commissioner Nick Bozoz to approve a $6,128 architectural feasibility study relative to a possible purchase of the American Legion Post building at 6140 W. Dempster St.

If purchased, the building would be utilized as a multi-purpose Senior Center in cooperation with the Village of Morton Grove, according to Administrative Director Gary Balling. The commissioners retired into

Fish fry at Legion cancelled during carnival

The members of the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 wish to advise their faithful followers of the regular Friday fish fry, that a meal will not be served the Friday of the carnival, June 29.

Because of the outdoor operation of Crazy Daze on the Legion grounds, 6140 Dempster St., the regular food fare served will not be available. However, Post representatives invite the community to partake of the special refreshments which will be served at the kitchen tent and elsewhere during the Crazy Daze carnival.

The Crazy Daze fun carnival will operate from Friday, June 29 through Wednesday, July 4, and all residents of the area are urged to join the Legionnaires in this annual operation. There is no admission.

Parking will be available on the street, at the bank and in the adjacent park district area.

Nortran Route 233 discontinued

Nortran Bus Route 233 was discontinued as of June 25, due to a steady decrease in ridership over the years.

The route dropped 26 percent in ridership in 1989 from 1988. In 1990, this trend continued with ridership down an average of 5.8 percent for the first five months of the year.

Route 233 provided service on weekdays to Southwest Des Plaines via Ellinwood, Pearson, Thacker, Graeceland, Lee, Algonquin, Wolf, Touhy, Mount Prospect, and Oakton. It also provided service to the Des Plaines Metra/Chicago & Northwestern station.

For alternative service, passengers may refer to routes 220, 223,

Butler stated First National Vice President Robert Cornelison notified him June 26 that the money had been put in the control of Butler's group as of that morning.

"The nuisance is behind us," Butler announced. "At worst it was an irritant. We were confident we would win." Butler said the Maine GOP now has 125 precinct captains and is involved in voter registration drives. "Now we move ahead," he said.

Legion Auxiliary Meeting

In their usual bi-monthly meeting, the past presidents of the Morton Grove American Legion Auxiliary Unit #134, recently met for luncheon and a social afternoon at the Morton Grove Restaurant in Morton Grove.

Former leaders of the large women's service organization rotate as hostesses, planning the afternoon of cards after the meal and business meeting and providing prizes, snacks and the invitation to the meeting site.

Hostess for this recent session was Mrs. Nancy Schueter Morrison, the 1985 president. Mrs. Morrison had moved from the area quite a few years ago and upon her return, immediately became active in the Auxiliary Unit once again, both prior and since her remarriage.

A resident of the village of Morton Grove, this current year she has been serving as second vice president of the unit, handling the Christmas Cheer December social function for the Auxiliary. In the immediate past, in addition to becoming president, she also served in other chairmanships and offices, including first vice president-membership chairman.

Many boat fatalities are alcohol related

Operating a motorboat under the influence of alcohol or other drugs is just as dangerous as drinking and driving a motor vehicle. According to the U.S. Coast Guard, approximately 50 percent of all boating fatalities are alcohol related.

Boat operators are reminded that Illinois' operating under the influence (OUI) law requires them to take alcohol concentration (BAC) tests if arrested for OUI. It is illegal to operate a motor boat or a vehicle with a BAC of .10 or more.

One drink can affect your balance and coordination. Combined with a swaying boat, you can easily fall overboard. At least one in four boating fatalities involve someone simply falling overboard and drowning.

Hypothermia, the loss of body heat, is another major cause of deaths in boating accidents. Cold water chills 25 times faster than cold air. If you fall overboard with alcohol in your blood, the numbing effects of cold water occur much faster than when you are sober.

Alcohol also increases the effect of vertigo caused by water entering the ear. A drunk person can become confused and swim down to death instead of up to safety.

offenders who dispose of it illegally. Police are sent out to investigate violators. Downers Grove made two arrests of garbage criminals. One man dug through refuse thrown on his property and found written material which identified the miscreant. Police arrested the violator. Woodstock officials said when city workers rummaged through illegal garbage dumping and identified another garbage crook, the problem ended.

In Niles, Public Works' head Keith Peck said residents should leave grass clippings on the lawn. He said they are 90 percent water and the nitrogen from the grass should reduce the need for fertilizer.

Keith told The Bugle the city dump at the north end of the new Civic Center Plaza shopping center has been very successful. The Niles recyclable center has replaced the former center which was located at Niles West High School and is being run by the same people.

The Public Works head suggested residents create compost piles of leaves and clippings. He said the $9 per yard fee to dispose of such material is costly to Niles.

In Morton Grove the curbside recycling program seems to be going along well. A separate truck picks up the recyclable papers and bottles. The money earned from the sales of the recyclables pays for the extra service.

The man who answered the telephone at the Morton Grove public works building said branches which are blown down during storms will generally be picked up 48 to 72 hours after the storm. He suggested residents contact the Health and Human Services Department for this extra pick-up.

We previously noted Niles is the only Niles Township community which does not have curbside recyclable pick-up. The alternate dump site which Niles residents can use to get rid of their papers and bottles does not seem to be a very efficient alternative. There are many seniors in Niles who can't get over to the dump site.

It is Niles officials' contention that curbside recycling is not cost effective. It seems an unreasonable argument. Garbage pick-up is a cost burden which every community bears. Now, recycling has become an adjunct service which is part of this garbage service.

The community bans burning. The shortage of landfill dumps has forced this recycling effort on all of us. And yet, Niles is not keeping step with its neighbors because it is not "cost effective". It seems like a hollow argument coming from the wealthiest village in the area.

The incredible sales tax revenue Niles receives should enable the village to pay for a curbside service.

Edison asks customers to keep an eye out for trouble

The average person can be a big help to Commonwealth Edison in meeting its responsibility of providing a reliable supply of electricity at the lowest possible costs in a manner consistent with environmental standards.

By being observant and reporting abnormal conditions to the company, you can help avert a possible service interruption - perhaps to your own home or your own neighborhood - or correct a potentially dangerous situation.

Any time you see a downed power line, report it immediately. Failure to do so could result in serious injury or even death. Never touch a fallen line, and caution children to stay away, too.

Edison has a substantial amount of equipment mounted outdoors and protected by fences and locks. Give a call if you observe broken or missing locks or sections of fence. Children are curious and could wind up hurting themselves or damaging equipment that could cause a service interruption.

or refurbishing and bookmobile purchases made possible by a successful tax referendum.

He reported to board members, "We have tried to be fiscally responsible and this is the second year in a row that our taxes are down."

Board members also agreed to update the library's five-year plan with a total of $338,750 to be spent in the coming fiscal year. Major expenditures would include those for computer equipment, a microfiche/film printer reader, new furniture, shelving and display units, painting of public areas, a final payment on the new bookmobile and enhanced landscaping.

Board members also appointed two trustees to fill the vacant chairs of former board president, Margaret Rajski, and Richard Weaver, a Niles veterinarian. Both resigned last month.

Replacing them will be Florence Krok and Frank Allocco.

In other business, board members approved revising employees' salary schedule so that several steps will be eliminated in favor of a three-step schedule and average six percent merit increase.

Board members also agreed to spend $2,000 for refreshments and music to be presented at an open house Thursday, July 26, where district patrons may meet the administrator and trustees. The event will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. in the library courtyard.

Several students from the Center On Deafness in Des Plaines will be allowed to work in the library from July 9 through Aug. 31, under a government funded project, as agreed to by the trustees.

Trustee Irene Costello reported the Niles Friends of the Library will hold no more meetings until September and another book sale will take place in October.

PRO gives tax problems a hand

If you've tested your skills against the IRS' computer and lost, or run amuck in a sea of paper, the Problem Resolution Office (PRO) may be able to give you a hand.

Most of the time, you'll be able to take care of any business with the Internal Revenue Service through a phone call or a letter. But once in a while, things snafu and after several letters and phone calls, the problem still isn't solved. That's when the buck stops at the Problem Resolution Office.

Last year, PRO's across the nation helped more than 400,000 Americans with tax problems ranging from misapplied payments and lost refunds to scrambled social security numbers, garbled surnames, address changes, and Taxpayer Assistance Orders. But the PRO's do more than just put out fires; they prevent them too, by spotting glitches in the system and correcting them before they cause trouble for everyone.

If you have a problem with the IRS and haven't been able to solve it through normal channels, call the IRS toll free at 1-800-424-1040 and ask for the Problem Resolution Office.

Tele-Tax, and automated system of precoded tax information, can also provide more details on the Problem Resolution Office. Call 1-800-554-4477 any time of the day or night and request tape number 104.

A cheating spouse

For a number of years, Ralph hid money from his wife in various bank accounts. As a consequence, he underpaid his taxes during that time. When the IRS discovered the hidden accounts, it accused Ralph of tax fraud. But the Tax Court interpreted events differently. According to the court, Ralph intended to hide the money from his wife and not the IRS. Since the IRS couldn't prove that tax evasion was Ralph's primary motivation, the Court held that the IRS couldn't collect the tax for those years for which the statute of limitations had run out.

million, reflects an increase in the assessed valuation due to quadrennial reassessment. Last year's total revenue was about $15.8 million.

If these numbers stand, the district will be operating at about $1.4 million in the red. However, some budget items may not need to be spent and monies could be borrowed from the working cash fund.

Gleichman said the district is presenting a much better financial picture than previously but this is the sixth consecutive year that it will be borrowing from working cash.

A copy of the tentative budget will be on display at the central office, 10150 Dee Road, in Des Plaines, for 30 days and a public hearing will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 11.

A Morton Grove resident, Renee Weintraub, requested that the district provide barriers along Golf Road to protect Washington School youngsters from cars which may crash through the playground fence.

"Let's provide our children with the best safety measures we can," she said. Board President Steve Stone said Weintraub will receive an answer from the district.

In other business, board members renewed three insurance policies for the following school year.

Insurances and amounts are: Collective Liability Insurance Cooperative, $81,707; Excess Liability Fund and School Employees Loss Fund, $79,181.

After lengthy debate and one defeated motion, board members agreed to purchase five copiers and four stencil duplicators for a total cost of $35,000.

The copiers will cost $6,543 and duplicators contracted for on a service basis at the rate of $1,800 annually not to exceed five percent in successive years.

Again, board members awarded bids for art, office, classroom, paper and physical education supplies. Gleichman and board members indicated the district needed to review its entire bidding process to ensure financial savings and lessen paper work.

Also, board members approved kindergarten book fees of $25 and $29 for grades one through eight.

In a resolution, board members approved a total of $19,779 in donations to the Nelson School. The majority of the items or funds were provided by the school's parent teacher association.

Gleichman confirmed that the village purchased Oak School from the district for $1 and will be taking possession soon.

Zoning board. The action is in line with a federal prohibition against discrimination against the disabled and underscores the philosophy these people should be part of the regular community, not isolated.

The village board also moved to boost fines for those dumping or littering on public or private property. The present $500 fine was raised to $1,000, along with the cost of clean up. Trustee Andrew Przybylo noted the dumping has become more of a problem because of the village yard waste law.

In earlier action, the board approved an ordinance requiring private scavengers to pick up yard waste separately. The trustee is considering a seminar on adapting lawn mowers for mulching.

Discussion later centered upon an ordinance to limit cigarette vending machines to places of public accommodation where a person must be 21 years old to enter. The action was brought on by the difficulty of supervising the vending machine sale of cigarettes to those under the required age of 18.

In other action, village trustees accepted a bid of $135,000 from Midas Muffler for a village program at 7369 Milwaukee Ave. The bid was appraised at $143,000. Bids for properties at 7169 and 7201 Milwaukee Ave. were not accepted.

The board approved the acceptance of bids from Jerry Gleason Ford for a Ford wagon for the fire department; from Illinois Lift Truck Corp. for a fork lift truck; from Cutler Repairing for street work; from Leroy Construction for windows for the Historical Society and from Turk Heating for a vent system for the police pistol range.

Public Services Director Keith Peck introduced the new Village Engineering Superintendent George Holt, who said he had worked in Elmwood Park, Schaumburg and in private practice, previously. At the meeting's onset, President Blase awarded retiring Village Engineer Robert Kahler for his 22 years of "building good will for the board and community and as a man constantly involved with the problems that occur in a community."

Finance Director Gary Karshna said questionnaires included with the village's quarterly report were due back by the end of July and asked for public notice of the date. Trustee Tom Bondi reminded citizens the deadline to register for the Niles Beautification contest is 5 p.m. Friday, June 29 at the Village Hall. He also urged attendance at the annual Fourth of July parade.

Fire Chief Harry Kinowski accepted an award from the Inter-governmental Risk Management Agency for the best safety program for 1989.

At the conclusion of the meeting, three residents from the 7900 block of Odell Avenue asked the board to reroute the bus away from their heavily trafficked street and the board agreed to consider the situation.
