Senior Trans driver gives Morton Grove residents a lift

by Jonathan M. Marshall

"It's the best job I've enjoyed in my whole life, talking to seniors," Northon says.

Larry Northon drives the Senior Trans bus for the Morton Grove Township. He is one of the most popular men in the village, as chauffeur, counselor, comedian and handyman. The senior citizens are "happy to see him," he says, pointing to Northon.

"They're very outgoing," he adds. "They’re very kind to me and they talk to me about their problems."

During the day, Northon is the driver for Morton Grove's Senior Trans service, which provides transportation for senior citizens. He also plays piano and organ at Lutheran General Hospital. Northon is a musician, and he enjoys playing the piano and organ.

"I play for a lot of different things," he says. "I play for weddings, for funerals, for church services."

Northon was born in Morton Grove, and he has been a resident of the village for most of his life. "I've been here in Morton Grove my whole life," he says. "I grew up here, and I've been to every school in the village."}

U.S. rep challenger questions campaign gift

Harry N. Danko, the Democratic challenger to U.S. Rep. Dan Rostenkowski of Chicago, has asked the House ethics committee to investigate whether the Illinois congressman accepted a $1,300 contribution from the Chicago Women's Health Foundation, which supported the Illinois health care proposal. Danko made the request Thursday in a letter to the panel.

"The contribution of $1,300 has become the subject of widespread public discussion," Danko said. "While we do not have facts to suggest that this contribution was anything other than a legal one, we do have doubts about the manner in which it was solicited and the way in which it came to the House." Danko's letter also included a copy of a letter he sent to Rostenkowski, who said he will cooperate fully with the ethics committee.

Women for Edgar prepare for First Lady's arrival

Women for Edgar, a group of suburban women supporting Illinois Gov. James R. Thompson's running mate, Janet Wiles, have scored points with the politically savvy first lady of the White House.

"I have to say that we have been accused of doing nothing. We have been told that we don't know what we are doing," said Mary_vite, Wiles' executive assistant. "But the government is run by women, and we have used that $1,300 for a taster, a $1,300 donation to his campaign given the difficult job of raising money," said Mary_vite, Wiles' executive assistant.
