Niles trustees limit traffic at proposed car wash facility

by Sheila Hackett

There will be no traffic back-up along a planned gas station/car wash/mini-mart at Touhy and Lehigh Avenues, Niles. To make sure, Niles trustees tacked their own amendment onto a zoning board's unconditional approval of a re-zoning request from the Touhy/Lehigh Shell station. President Nicholas Blase emphasized, "We've had a problem with a car wash on Dempster; we can't afford stacking on Touhy...and Lehigh is just one lane."

While the Niles Zoning Board approved the station's request for re-zoning from M to B-2, special use, and a variation to the north set-back requirement, at Trustee Louella Preston's suggestion, Continued on Page 39

The Bugle is the only community newspaper of record at the Niles Library, sort of the official recorder of the history of the community during the past 34 years. Consequently, we thought the following three stories, which have been previously reported, should be grouped together where future seekers may gather information about what went on in our neighborhood in the summer of 1991.

by Linda A. Burns

High winds, referred to as a microburst, ripped through the northeast section of Morton Grove suddenly during a brief downpour July 18, destroying 15 trees in the village and causing power outages throughout the area.

While no one was injured in the storm, between 12 to 14 homes suffered some damages, the heaviest reported in the 8900 blocks of Parkside and Major Avenues, according to Morton Grove Police Lieutenant Victor Pearson. Fallen trees damaged gutters, awnings and roofs and even flattened one resident's car.

Thursday night, 29-year-old Chuck Mueller, of 8945 Marmora Ave., Morton Grove, watched as Public Works employees cleared debris off his 1985 Mustang, where a maple tree had fallen dead center through its side crushing the passenger and driver's seats.

Mueller was visiting friends at 8909 Parkside Ave., a few blocks from his home, when the storm hit.

"Within five minutes the car was trashed," he said. "I was speechless when it happened. I knew where it (the car) was. Continued on Page 39

Board members ignore agenda item on 'Macken Money'; keep public in dark

Is Library hiding facts on embezzlement?

by Eileen Hirsch

The recent embezzlement of library funds by former administrator Daniel C. Macken III is beginning to read like a soap opera, but library board members apparently are not enjoying the scenario.

At last week's regular meeting, an item on the agenda entitled "Macken Money" was not addressed by the board.

Three members of the press who were present, asked for more information. After a consultation with board attorney Dennis Walsh, Board President Ted Przybylo, "I get process and reveal a stink," he concluded. Przybylo, Walter Dudycz (R-7) have to fight homeowners' information request to Cook County, Illinois. Information request bodies may be requested by any citizen under the FOI Act. The body must respond within seven working days.

Board member Robert Quattrocchi loudly debated media attention stating the real story was how diligently board members worked to regain the money. Quattrocchi's arguments date back to first evidences of scandal. Continued on Page 39

Niles police nab home burglary suspects

Two Chicago men were arrested by Niles police July 19, charged with attempted burglary of one Niles home and under investigation in other recent break-ins.

According to Sgt. Dennis McEnerney, the suspects, both 19 years old, were arrested by detectives in the 8300 block of Harlem Avenue, shortly after witnesses spotted a pair of suspicious men near a home in the 8600 block of Ozanam Avenue.

"One guy was acting like a lookout," McEnerney said. "They took off in a white car and Commander (William) Reid spotted the Camaro near Harlem and Main." Reid radioed for assistance and the suspects were arrested by officers James Zimmerman, Richard Leddy and Victor Gramza.

"They found a bunch of coins and jewelry in the car," McEnerney continued, adding the suspects gave oral admissions to a break-in at a Maryland Avenue residence earlier that day. The residence in the 9200 block of

Library Board shaves budget by $9,000

by Eileen Hirschfeld

In a tentative $2,571,181 budget, board members of the Niles Public Library District lowered expenditures by about $9,000 from last fiscal year, according to Board President Ted Przybylo at last Wednesday's regular meeting.

About $60,000 will be budgeted for a new administrator. The former administrator, Daniel C. Macken III, resigned following his embezzlement of funds from the library.

Przybylo said this year's budget will be used to increase staff salaries, keep purchase of materials at the proper level as well as lower taxes. Noting this is the fourth consecutive year the budget was lowered, Przybylo said he is especially proud the library does "not owe a penny to anyone" although increasing services.

He indicated that the lower tax rate may be slight, but costs have increased. "So, we're making better use of what we have."

Przybylo cited capital improvements such as the recently renovated parking lot and courtyard, library sign, remodeling of the adult section and a new bookmobile. Total amount of these im-

A man who told a sandwich shop employee he had a gun nearby escaped with $73 in cash July 21. Unfortunately for Philip Morrison of Utica, Michigan, Niles officer Lee Elsingher spotted the armed robber in his rented moving truck as he attempted to drive away via Milwaukee Avenue.

Police said Morrison, 36, entered the Subway Sandwich Shop at 7744 Milwaukee Ave. around 10:05 p.m. Sunday. Wearing a zipped up blue coat with his hand in his pocket he told the employee, "Give me your money."

She gave him cash from the restaurant, mostly in singles, and he escaped north on Milwaukee

Smoking ban irks several pool users

by Shellya Hackett

The newly-stated smoking ban at Niles Park District pools caused a tempest of retorts from some long-time patrons of the facilities. Nilesite Rita Rademacher of Touhy Avenue asked "Why don't they ban it at Jozwiak and Tam? ...I think it's illegal. I can go two hours a day without a cigarette, it's the principle...when someone tells me, then I get mad."

Delores Stankowicz of Rosemary Lane agreed. She said "I am very much concerned. We have one cigarette and it's in the open air. I've been going there for years; they should have said that before we bought our passes."

The good news is Illinois legislators finally passed a state budget. The bad news is suburban Cook County will receive little or no benefit from the legislation.

The legislation includes a state-imposed property-tax cap that will limit increases by local governments to no more than five percent annually, but does not include Chicago or Cook County — only the five collar counties of Lake, DuPage, McHenry, Kendall, Kane and Will counties.

The measure provides for a one-year freeze on property assessments in Cook County using 1991 as the base year for 1992 taxes, but no limit on future increases. The Cook County Board also could decide to spread property-tax bills over four payments, rather than the current two, to reduce the tax shock felt by many homeowners.

Representative Ralph Capparelli (D-13) said the bill is "the most ridiculous thing I've seen in my life. This proposal is even worse than the one that would have capped property taxes throughout the state, except for local governments like the city of Chicago and suburbs like Niles, Park Ridge and Rosemont. Even with next year's freeze on assessments for the suburbs, it's a bad idea because property taxes will soar twice as much the following year."

Capparelli said property tax reform is needed so that senior citizens and young homeowners can afford to own a house. "The whole budget process and revenue stream stunk," he concluded.

Senator Walter Dudyycz (R-7) believes "that homeowners of Chicago and of Cook County are getting shortchanged in this bill."

Niles begins curbside recycling Aug. 1

by Shellya Hackett

Niles scavenger, Haulaway, will see red starting Aug. 1, the date Niles begins its curbside recycling program using red plastic bins.

July 22, Assistant Village Manager John Coakley said collections will begin in conjunction with the regular garbage pick up, which generally targets the north end of the village on Thursday, the south end on Friday.

The new, 18-gallon bins will be distributed to residents July 29, 30 and 31. They can be used to hold recyclables such as any metal cans, glass bottles and jars which are clear, brown or green colored; newsprint which has had the shiny-paper inserts removed and numbers 1 and 2 plastic bottles.

Coakley explained the plastic containers have the number color coded on the bottom. Number 1 plastic usually includes two-liter pop bottles; Number 2, milk, detergent and large orange juice containers. The coding is in response to a state law requiring a numerical classification of seven types of plastics.

The entire village recycling program is an effort to comply with a state law, effective in 1990

Tam marks 20 years with park district

July 31, on rolling land where Niles pioneers farmed and world celebrities played, the Niles Park District will celebrate the 20th anniversary of its operation of the Tam golf course. The present Tam was originally part of the world famous Tam O'Shanter golf course.

Dave Figgins, interim revenue facilities manager for the park district, said memorabilia from the original Tam O'Shanter will be displayed and residents are invited to bring along any they might have. For the celebration, the course is rolling back prices on hot dogs, beer and pop at the Tam patio, and pro shop items will be offered as prizes in contests held from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Golfers can compete in "the longest drive" contest at hole #8; in the "closest to the pin" contest at hole #5 and a putting contest on the putting green.

Long ago, a portion of the land later turned into the original Tam O'Shanter belonged to John Ruesch, great uncle of Jim Ruesch, operator of the Ruesch garage, 8650 Shermer Road. Jim recalls when he was a child, his grandfather, George Ruesch, Sr., plowed the same land for his truck farm.

The property was sold in the '20s and business consultant and entrepreneur George S. May bought the land in the late '30s, transforming it into an 18-hole golf course.

John Ruesch's frame house became the course's half way house.

Under May's leadership, Tam O'Shanter hosted the Western Open golf tourney every summer. Thousands of fans jammed the course to see renowned golfers such as Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, "Babe" Didrikson Zaharias and "Chi Chi" Rodriguez compete.

Former Park Board President Walt Beusse remembers being present when golfer Lew Worsham used a wedge iron on the 18th fairway to hit a ball 110 yards into the hole to win the tourney.

Beusse, a park board commissioner when the May family decided to dispose of the course, said the present 37 1/2 acre, nine-hole Tam course, plus 1 1/4 acres on the south side of Howard Street, was the park district's winning portion of a struggle over the land holding the famous Tam O'Shanter course.

The park district tried to condemn the entire property for its own, he recalls, but lost it on a technicality and had to split the property with builder J. Emil Anderson, who was developing land for Niles' industrial park.

Athletic directors say safety comes first

by Gail Jersey

The safety of the kids is the priority, say area athletic directors, but little can be done to prevent a tragedy like the death of Jeffrey Richards when inclement weather strikes suddenly.

Tim Albers, athletic director at Niles North High School, says his coaches are directed to "get everyone off the field immediately in the event of lightning -- that's the standard rule."

He adds, "Our coaches are conscientious about it. As soon as they see lightning, the kids' safety is their first and foremost concern."

Albers says in his career he has not seen any close calls, and believes the tragedy last week was a freak incident. "There are so many trees around the field, the lightning seemed to come out of nowhere," he said.

Niles West High School Athletic Director Gerald Turry cited the handbook used by his coaches. "It's a Central Suburban League rule," he said. "For all outdoor activities, in the event of lightning, suspend play and move to shelter. In other weather-related activities, use your best judgement," he quoted.

In the incident on Thursday evening, he said, "You couldn't see it, from the majority of accounts. It was not preventable in this case." He added that coaches are instructed to do "Whatever is the reasonable and prudent thing to do," to assure the safety of the kids.

The Niles Park District takes similar precautions, according to John Jekot, athletic coordinator.

"The game ends immediately if there is lightning," he explains. "We wait 15 minutes, and if it clears up, the game resumes. If not, the game is cancelled." In the meantime, Jekot says, coaches are directed to get the players and spectators to seek protection inside buildings or cars. He says he has never seen such an incident occur in Niles.

SJB GOLDEN AGERS CLUB
The three main events of July are just a memory now. As always the parade on the 4th of July, was spectacular, and keeps improving. The decorated van was driven by Chester Bonk, with passengers Veronica, Anne Jurasz, Joan and Michael Provenzano, Ed and Clara Domzalski, and Bernice Gozdecki. The Niles Festival Days was a huge success, due to great weather. Our Golden Agers were seen working at various booths, contributing to this worthy cause.

The annual picnic was held on the 18th, and we doubled the attendance this year. There was good food, games, prizes, and surprises. We thank Carl Ferina, picnic chairman and all the volunteers, who were responsible for making it a great event.

Len Ardent, who had a stroke several weeks ago, is looking well and hopes to be at the meetings soon, with his wife, Jean. Louis Bassie, the talented drummer of the popular "Mario's Society Orchestra" is back home after heart surgery, and feeling better. Good news! Although he is not a member, we had the privilege of having the band play at many of our functions. Ed Zalesny, whose sense of humor has kept us laughing for years, had heart surgery also, on the 18. We pray he recovers to continue his antics. God bless all the members who are sick at this time. Happy birthday to all who are celebrating this month. Best wishes to Joe Tomaska, who celebrated his 80th birthday, and treated the members to sweet rolls and coffee.

Taxpayers' deduction on car loans proposed

Congressman Frank Annunzio (D-Ill.) said elimination of tax deductions on car loans has crippled the already-ailing automobile industry, hindered the nation's economic growth and unfairly increased the cost to consumers.

New judicial map will shorten ballot

Suburban voters will no longer face a bedsheet of unfamiliar names in voting for Cook County judicial candidates, thanks to legislation signed by Gov. Jim Edgar, according to House Assistant Minority Leader Penny Pullen (R-55), a member of the Republican task force which drew the map.

Rep. Pullen witnessed the signing of the landmark Cook County Judicial Districting legislation, breaking Cook County into 15 judicial districts from which future circuit judges will be elected and "ending the historic lockout of suburban voters in choosing judges from their own area."

Under the new legislation, 11 new judges will be elected over a period of years from each of the 15 districts.

The result will be a shorter ballot of candidates from the local area and better representation of the public.

Previously, Rep. Pullen noted, judges in Cook County have been elected countywide, as a rule. "Only when the legislature has been specifically created new judgeships in the suburbs have suburban voters been guaranteed one of their own would be elected to the bench. And each time that has occurred, the legislature has simultaneously created new judgeships for the city only."

The result, Rep. Pullen said, has been overwhelming domination of the Cook County judiciary by the Chicago Democratic machine.

"There are fewer than two dozen Republican elected judges in the entire Cook County Circuit," Rep. Pullen said. "That's out of a total of nearly 200."

Rep. Pullen noted that a June ruling by the United States Supreme Court was observed by negotiators in working out the judicial lines, putting Cook County ahead of the nation in responding to the new requirement that elected judiciaries be structured according to the one man/one vote principle historically employed in apportioning legislative bodies.

"The new law culminates three years of our efforts to provide fairness to the suburbs in electing circuit judges and to reform the system by which judges are chosen by voters.

"I have long favored judicial selection reform," Rep. Pullen said, "and I am tremendously pleased that we have achieved it without sacrificing the right of the voters to choose their own judges. In fact, in signing this law, Governor Edgar has enhanced that right."

"It's a great day for the people of Cook County and especially of the suburbs!" she said.

Orthodox community welcomes Soviet Jews

For the second year in a row the Chicago orthodox community will host a picnic and celebration welcoming new Soviet Jewish immigrants to the community. Coordinated by its Rabbinic leadership - the Chicago Rabbinical Council and the Mercza Harabonim in conjunction with F.R.E.E. and with the support of the Jewish United Federation of Chicago and the Jewish organizational family of the Chicago orthodox community, last year, this event witnessed an attendance of over 6,000 people.

As last year, the celebration will include entertainment, refreshments, and booths depicting various aspects of Jewish belief and custom hosted by volunteers from the Chicago orthodox community.

Aimed at extending a warm and brotherly welcome to their new neighbors, the event will serve as a means to introduce these newcomers to Jewish tradition in a festive atmosphere. Additional volunteers for the day's program are needed. All those interested in working on this celebration should call the Chicago Rabbinical Council at 588-1600.

The Community-wide picnic and celebration will be held on Sunday, Aug. 18, from 1-5 p.m. in Warren park (Western Avenue and Albion).

These are just two facts noted in a brochure developed by B'nai B'rith Women (BBW) as part of the organization's effort to heighten awareness of domestic violence in this country, and to help the women and children who are its victims.

The brochure, "Facts About Domestic Violence," is available to the public for $1 per copy by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to BBW, 7701 N. Lincoln, Skokie, IL, 60077. The brochure describes the typical victims of domestic violence, profiles their batterers, explains why women stay in violent homes, and offers recommendations to help break the cycle of domestic abuse.

A series of domestic violence projects will be implemented in communities throughout the country by October, National Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Hospital's Cesarean birth rate low

Holy Family Hospital, corner of Golf and River Roads, Des Plaines, ranked in the lower 20 percent for Cesarean births, with only 18 percent of all births at the hospital being Cesarean deliveries, according to a study conducted by the Illinois Health Care Cost Containment Council (IHCCCC).

The study included 75 hospitals in Illinois. This rate is nearly four percent below the state average of 21.9 percent. A commitment to pre-natal care contributes to the low C-section rates at Holy Family. "The majority of the patients who give birth at Holy Family Hospital receive pre-natal care," said Marcella Edwards, clinical manager of maternity at Holy Family, "thereby reducing the risk for complications that require surgical intervention."

Holy Family's maternity unit is a Level II perinatal facility which allows for the care of specific high-risk mothers and babies.

The woman will appear in court Aug. 12 on charges of DUI, improper lane usage and disregarding a red light.

In addition, the woman's blood alcohol level was tested at .18 and she was charged accordingly. She refused urine tests.

NILES POLICE REPORT

Column

by Lt. Jerry Sheehan
Niles Police Department

Be wary of repair solicitors

Here's a new twist on a good samaritan, or maybe just a twisted good samaritan. Over the course of the last month we have received several complaints from elderly residents who have reported money stolen from them after contact with a suspicious white man approximately 66, 59", 140 pounds, brownish-gray hair, sun-tanned complexion, pock marked nose and wearing western-type clothing.

This suspect would hang around grocery store parking lots, pick out a victim, strike up a conversation, and assist them with their groceries. He would then follow the victim home and once arriving at their intended destination, he would advise them he observed some type of malfunction with their auto. It was during this time he would gain access to their purse or wallets and steal their cash.

Det. Marty Stankowicz conducted a follow-up on one such complaint and developed a suspect, who was subsequently identified in a photo line-up. It is believed that the arrestee may have committed other such thefts in the area and it is hoped other victims will come forward.

Along the same vein other reports have been taken from victims duped by driveway sealing frauds. Be wary of the solicitor, who approaches you to seal coat your driveway because many times it's a sham and the alleged sealer usually washes away with the first heavy rain. This fraud is also accompanied by the sidewalk and drive-patchers. These con men advise the victim they will patch the cracks in their sidewalk or driveway for a slight sum and ask for a bucket of hot water. While the homeowner and one of the workers are getting the water, the other offender will busy himself with stealing the homeowner's cash and jewelry.

The moral of these stories is "Don't let strangers into your home, and be wary of the home repair solicitors, who may approach you to do work on your home such as driveway sealing and crack repairing." Many times these alleged repair men will be gypsies working their well-documented home repair schemes and thefts.

As I finish typing this article I have to offer congratulations to the neighbors in the Greenleaf and Ozanam area who's observations and notification to the police department has just led to the arrest of two gypsies, who were in the process of burglarizing one of their neighbor's homes. Their arrest today may well lead to other clear-ups and it is the assistance from residents in instances such as this that will make all of our neighborhoods a safer place to live.

Owner orders burglary suspect from store

The owner of a cosmetic store in the 7200 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, decided not to press charges against a man suspected of taking $150 from her purse after an investigating Morton Grove officer found the money hidden near where the suspect had been standing the night of July 19 when the officer entered the store.

Instead, the owner ordered the 26-year-old and his 18-year-old male companion, who worked as floor cleaners, from the premises.

BB's damage window

A business in the 8100 block of Milwaukee Avenue was vandalized sometime between July 14 and 16. A $500 window was apparently damaged by BB's.

Signs of a prank at MG home

A witness called police when she saw two men putting up signs in the front yard of a residence in the 6600 block of Davis Street, Morton Grove, in the early hours of July 18.

Seven signs were erected: three from realtors, one from a construction company, one from a painting crew and two saying "For Sale By Owner."

The men were described as between 20-30 years old; one had dark hair, the other, long, blonde hair.

Factory robbed

The manager of a factory in the 8000 block of Austin Avenue, Morton Grove, told police on July 16 he discovered $1,448 was missing from an unsecured desk drawer in a factory office.

Retail theft arrests

Morton Grove police arrested a 17-year-old Morton Grove woman employed by a clothing store in the 6800 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, the afternoon of July 20 after a security guard saw her place two sets of earrings into a pocket of sale slacks then enter a dressing room.

The woman was fired after she left the dressing room and the earrings were found in her purse. For taking the earrings valued at about $16, the woman was charged with retail theft, placed on an $1,000 bond and has an Aug. 14 court date.

Pharmor security agents nabbed two Chicago men in their 40's who reportedly stole batteries and Advil valued at $56.23 July 16. They will appear in court Aug. 12. Reports said one man allegedly was HIV positive and the second had drug needle marks on his arm.

Kenneth VanDeveer, aka Lawrence Scarpaci, 35, of North Lake, was charged with felony theft July 19, after he reportedly stole tools from Sears Golf Mill. His bond was set at $50,000 and his first court date was July 24.

Stolen car recovered

Investigation determined a 1976 Oldsmobile 98 found in the 9000 block of Central Avenue, Morton Grove, with a ransacked glove box and peeled steering column was stolen between July 19-20 from a Chicago woman, who had borrowed the car from a male friend.

The woman failed to report the car theft because she thought the owner had reclaimed it without telling her. The car was valued at $200.

Two charged with open liquor in vehicle

When questioned by a police officer, two men sitting and drinking in their car parked in a lot in the 5900 block of Dempster Street, Morton Grove, admitted they were drinking and were charged with possession of open liquor in a motor vehicle.

One man, 24, is an Evanston resident, but the residence of his 21-year-old companion is not known. They posted their driver's license as bond.

Woman cited for animal neglect

With temperatures at 96 degrees the afternoon of July 20, a small, white dog locked inside a car in a lot in the 6800 block of Dempster Street laid on the car floor and failed to respond to a knock on the window.

A Morton Grove officer began to jimmy the door when the owner, a River Grove woman, appeared. She was given a $100 ticket and charged with animal neglect.

Call new system for phone bill inquiries

Residential telephone customers now can clear up billing questions with one toll-free phone call to Illinois Bell's new automated system.

An insert in July phone bills tells customers about the company's new Automated Billing Service. Customers now can call (800) 873-5501 from a touch-tone phone to find out the balance due on their phone bills, make payment arrangements or request duplicate bills.

"We wanted to streamline the system for our customers," said Steve Harris, manager, customer interactive systems. "Now they can get answers without waiting to talk to a service representative."

After calling the toll-free number, customers first are asked to enter the 13-digit account number printed on their phone bill. The voice response system then tells callers, which number to press for each kind of information available.

The system operates from 7 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

Increasing retirement income with pension maximization

by Bob Korvas, CFP, ChFC
American Family Insurance

At retirement you and your spouse will have to make a difficult decision. "How to Take Your Monthly Qualified Pension Income?" Basically, there are two choices.

CHOICE #1: select a single survivor benefit, this entitles the employee to receive 100 per cent of the maximum benefit each month. But, if the employee dies the spouse gets nothing.

CHOICE #2: the employee takes a JOINT AND SURVIVOR benefit this guarantees a monthly income to the spouse even if the employee dies. But, in this case your income is reduced as much as 30 per cent.

For example: Choice #1, a single survivor benefit is $2,100 a month and #2 the joint survivor benefit may pay only $1,600 monthly.

In either case, if both of you die or you are single, your family and children get nothing because your benefits stop. This seems unfair, doesn't it? So, what can you do you ask?

Before you retire start a Pension Maximization Program. This plan will allow you to receive 100 per cent of your maximum monthly income. It allows you to pass on an income for life to your spouse, family, children and survivors. It gives you control and flexibility.

For details and an illustration of how this plan works contact me at: 8111 N. Milwaukee Ave., Niles, or phone (708) 470-8830.

Open Door program accepts registration

Applications are now being accepted at Oakton Community College for the next session of the Open Door program, a tuition-free educational and vocational program for high school graduates with learning disabilities. Classes begin Aug. 26.

Funded jointly by Oakton and the Private Industry Council of Northern Cook County. Students are trained at Oakton in basic skills such as communication, math, and introduction to microcomputers, as well as training in job-seeking and job-holding skills. At the same time, the students work half days at area businesses to gain firsthand knowledge of the work world.

PRO's aid taxpayers with IRS problems

If you've tested your skills against the IRS computer and lost, or run amuck in a sea of paper, the Problem Resolution Office (PRO) may be able to give you a hand.

Most of the time, you'll be able to take care of any business with the Internal Revenue Service through a phone call or a letter. But once in a while, things snafu and after several letters and phone calls, the problem still isn't solved. That's when the buck stops at the Problem Resolution Office.

Last year, PRO's across the nation helped more than 400,000 Americans with tax problems ranging from misapplied payments and lost refunds to scrambled social security numbers, garbled surnames, address changes, and Taxpayer Assistance Orders. But the PRO's do much more than just put out fires; they prevent them too, by spotting glitches in the system and correcting them.

If you have a problem with the IRS and haven't been able to solve it through normal channels, call the IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-1040 and ask for the Problem Resolution Office. Tele-Tax, an automated system of prerecorded tax information, can also provide more details on the Problems Resolution Office. Call 1-800-829-4477 any time of the day or night and request tape number 104.

For further information, or to enroll in the Building Project, please call Kathryn Moery at the CCHC offices, (312) 461-0048.

Real Estate News

by Sharon Kallish

Hello! This is my first introduction to you. I am hoping that thru this column I can answer a few of your questions and hopefully quiet some of your anxieties about either buying or selling your most valuable possession--your home.

I have been in real estate for many years and the broker/manager of Willoughby Elrod Realty at 8860 Milwaukee Ave., for five years. This office is strategically located to serve Morton Grove, Niles, Glenview, Des Plaines and Park Ridge; however, we are not limited to those areas because we belong to more than five multiple listing services, which serve all of Chicago, the Northshore, and the northwest suburbs including areas like Northbrook, Highland Park, Buffalo Grove, Arlington Heights, etc. Plus we have the additional advantage of having key offices in Skokie at 4027 W. Dempster St. and Chicago at 3050 West Devon Ave.

Our Niles office is "20" strong with realtors who are professionals. We have people who speak various languages besides English, including Russian, Polish, Phillipino, Chinese, Korean and Greek.

I have lived in Morton Grove for 23 years. I know what's going on in the schools, park district, synagogues and churches in the area. Over the years I have listed and sold property all around this area. In the next few weeks I will highlight various items of information and if you have a specific question you would like answered, please call or write to me (I am sure others have the same questions).

Glenview: No transfer tax.
Des Plaines: Seller pays $1 per $1,000 of sale price.
No fee in unincorporated area.
Niles: Seller pays $5 inspection fee.
Park Ridge: Buyer pays $100 flat fee.

Apply for Supplemental Security Income promptly

If you think you may be eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments, you should apply without any delay.

Payments can only be made as of the date you apply or the date you're eligible if that is later. Also, if you know someone who may be eligible, advise them to apply right away.

You can also apply for a child if you're the parent or guardian. Under certain circumstances, you can apply for someone even if you aren't the parent or guardian. You can speed the application process if you have certain information with you when you apply for yourself or someone else. But don't delay applying just because all the information is not at hand. The people at Social Security will help get what is needed.

Summer safety tips from Com Ed

Warm summer days mean children naturally will be spending a lot of time outdoors. They should be told to watch out for places of danger - right in their own neighborhood. Specifically:

- Substations. They reduce large amounts of electricity for distribution to homes. Don't climb over or crawl under fences or gates.
- Utility poles. Do not climb, and keep kites and model planes away.
- Distribution wires. Never shoot

- or throw anything at wires or equipment on poles.
- Behind large buildings. Electrical equipment that serves homes, apartment buildings, shopping centers or other locations may have wires that could cause a shock.

Society for Respiratory Care elects president

Suzanne Johnson, clinical coordinator of the pulmonary rehabilitation program at Rush North Shore Medical Center, has been elected president of the Illinois Society for Respiratory Care (ISRC). She resides in Skokie. ISRC represents and serves over 1,000 Illinois respiratory therapists. They provide oxygen therapy, trauma and critical care, and a variety of life-saving, breath-saving services. They are active healthcare team members in hospitals and patient homes. Johnson was raised on Chicago's south side and received a b.a. degree in education from the Univ. of Illinois/Champaign. After teaching in Highland Park and Deerfield schools, she switched to respiratory care in 1976. A resident of Skokie, Johnson received her respiratory therapy degree from Cental YMCA Community College in Chicago. She taught there for two years, then practiced at Evanston, Children's and Thorek Hospitals. She joined the Rush North Shore staff in 1981.

Operating weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in conjunction with the hospital's Child Psychiatry Unit, the new program helps children with emotional and behavioral problems who require more structure and intensive therapy than is available through outpatient treatment. Utilizing various therapeutic techniques such as individual group and family therapy and role playing, activities help develop children's self esteem, improve their social problem-solving skills, behavioral competence and their ability to constructively manage feelings and impulses.

Businessman needs liver transplant

Alex Tapper, 59, businessman, resident of Highland Park and lifelong Chicagoan, is in the University of Chicago Hospital suffering from fulminant hepatic failure after a bout with acute infectious hepatitis.

He has been in intensive care for the past week and is in urgent need of a liver transplant. Fortunately, he is under the care of one of the finest transplant institutions in the country, and there is a system in place for locating a donor liver to save his life.

When illness strikes a loved one, it is understandably devastating. The situation is even more catastrophic when medical insurance will not cover the tremendous costs and expenses that will surely be incurred.

Mr. Tapper's family is hoping that with community support enough money can be raised to help the family defray the mounting medical bills. Any amount contributed will be greatly appreciated.

Donations should be made payable to the ALEX TAPPER LIVER FUND, c/o Kathleen Schwind, First Commercial Bank, 6945 North Clark St., Chicago, Illinois 60626.

Learn CPR and become a lifesaver

It was a quiet afternoon at the Walgreen's drugstore. Quiet, that is, until pharmacist Nick Hano looked up and saw an elderly woman collapse on the floor. She'd had a heart attack...her heart and lungs had stopped.

"She turned completely yellow, and her eyes rolled back into her head," recalled Hano. "We didn't panic -- we called the paramedics right away. When she showed no signs of improvement, store manager Tom Bryant and I did CPR. She started straining to breathe almost right away."

"The whole thing took place without the woman's husband knowing about it -- even though he was in the store at the time!" That woman was lucky. She collapsed in front of someone trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Would you or your family be as fortunate if you drowned, or choked, or had a heart attack? Would you be able to help?

CPR is a combination of carefully controlled hand pressure on the chest and mouth-to-mouth breathing. It's not hard to learn, but it has to be done right (you can't blow too much air into the stomach, for instance). When it is done right, CPR can revive people who are clinically dead. If more people knew CPR, they'd save thousands of lives this year.

The basic CPR course takes about nine hours. You learn the technique and practice it on mannequins engineered to respond just like a human body. You can also take refresher courses.

To find out where you can take a course in CPR, call the American Heart Association, your local Red Cross chapter, or your local fire department.

The Theatre 219 stage will be alive with "The Sound of Music" for two weekends in July and August when the community theatre presents the classic Rodgers and Hammerstein musical.

Musical favorites, such as "Do-Re-Mi," "My Favorite Things" and "Edelweiss," will be performed at 8 p.m. July 26, 27, Aug. 2 and 3, and at 2 p.m. July 28. Because of renovations at the Niles West Theatre, the performances have been moved to the newly remodelled Niles North High School Theatre.

Deborah's husband, Kent Brody.

Kent Brody, a 1964 Niles East graduate, has gained substantial experience in area theatre, including the Northshore Theatre Company and the Starlight Theatre.

Maria is late to church again in Theatre 219's upcoming production of "The Sound of Music." Maria (at left), played by Deborah Crane Brody of Wilmette, is scolded by the Mother Abbess, portrayed by District 219 Board of Education Member Mariene Adam of Skokie. Three other nuns are (from left) Lucy Castellanos of Skokie, Cara Lazerwirth of Glenview and Helene Glickman of Chicago.

dies concerning local high school boys which occurred the past three weeks.

We reported two weeks ago the president of the past year's Notre Dame high school freshman class was killed in a freak accident in Chicago. Chicago resident, Taylor Eshoo, 14, was electrocuted near the Morse Avenue CTA station. According to a Chicago police officer it looked like Eshoo had stepped off the station platform and went down onto the tracks to go to the bathroom. The police officer said it looked like he urinated on the third rail and was electrocuted. According to a doctor from the Cook County Medical Examiner's office, skin samples showed Eshoo had been electrocuted. It was reported by that office that blood tests showed the boy had not been drinking alcohol and no drug abuse was involved. It was believed this is the first time this type of accident occurred in at least 15 years in Chicago.

Last week a Niles West 1991 graduate was killed at a baseball game in Winnetka when he was struck by lightning. The 17-year-old Skokie an was standing on second base when a lightning bolt struck down the boy. We had reports the young man was holding a metal bat when the bolt struck him but his being at second base refuted the implication the metal attracted the lightning.

The Bugle also reported a baseball player from Maine East drowned while swimming near the Commonwealth Edison plant in Waukegan. The outtake valve from the Edison facility throws out a powerful surge of warm water into Lake Michigan. It is possible the surge can create a strong undertow. It is alleged the surge sent the young man out into Lake Michigan. A rescuer was unsuccessful in attempting to save the boy and was almost drowned during the rescue effort.

Two of the three deaths were caused by freak accidents. The third death was caused by what some would say is "An Act of God".

The Niles West ballplayer was scheduled to go to the University of Tampa where he had been awarded a baseball scholarship.

Public Works crews cleared out a tree Friday morning, which fell into the yard at 8908 Major Ave. during Thursday's storm. According to owner Jim Elliott, the home did not suffer structural damage, but awnings and gutters were marred.

Two of the three deaths were caused by freak accidents. The third death was caused by what some would say is "An Act of God".

The Niles West ballplayer was scheduled to go to the University of Tampa where he had been awarded a baseball scholarship.

The awnings and gutters were damaged at Jim and Dolores Elliott's home, at 8908 Major Ave., after their elm tree toppled into their front yard. The home, however, sustained no structural damage, according to Jim.

"If the awnings hadn't been there, that tree would have been in our dining room," Dolores said.

Jim said the elm was a good, healthy shade tree, which he did not want to lose.

"The sad part is it takes so long for a tree to grow and in 10 seconds it's gone," he said.

Public Works crews assisted with fire, police, and Emergency Service Disaster Agency personnel worked Thursday night to clear streets. The park district also assisted with manpower and equipment.

By Saturday afternoon most of the debris from the initial storm was picked up. Assistant Superintendent of Public Works Pete Chepulis said.

Residents in the northwest corner of Skokie felt the storm's impact as well. Branches and limbs had to be cleared away and power was out, Skokie Public Works Director Don Manek said.

Electricity was restored by Friday morning to an estimated 8,000 customers in Morton Grove, Skokie, Lincolnwood and Evanston, according to Commonwealth Edison spokesman Michael Kelly.

Emergency crews worked Thursday night and Friday on replacing poles, which high winds snapped and repairing overhead wires, which trees and limbs had fallen onto.

Two dozen poles were down in Morton Grove and a 60-foot pole snapped in Skokie on Frontage Road on the east side of the Edens Expressway, south of Golf Road, Kelly said.

The storm's destructive winds are being referred to as a microburst, an intense downward rush of air in a confined area.

Pearson said the area, which seemed to be affected by the microburst was bounded by Dempster and Central Streets, Church and Central, Menard and Dempster and Menard and Church.

WBBM-TV's meteorologist Harry Volkman said microbursts are confined to a narrow path, but can be several blocks wide and can go on for as long as one mile.

They are not as powerful as tornadoes and do not have a tornado's spin. They generally travel 60 to 100 mph, whereas tornadoes can travel 300 mph, he said.

The storm, which struck Morton Grove about 6:48 p.m., built up over Glenview then traveled southeast towards Chicago, he said.

A microburst struck a six-block industrial area in Streamwood, Illinois, one year ago.

One man died after a wall collapsed on him and 15 buildings were heavily damaged, three of which had to be rebuilt, according to Deputy Chief David Danley of the Streamwood Fire Department.

Mackin had banked embezzled funds and not, according to early reports, spent the funds. He was found guilty of embezzling $165,000 for which he made restitution including payment for auditing and legal fees, for a total of $200,000.

However, his payments were required for fees up to a certain date and auditing continues. Restitution also did not include money for salaries of two of Mackin's friends hired in positions unauthorized by the board. When asked about this, board members stated those employees were doing library work.

In other board business, Acting Administrator Judith Zelter said employees are conducting a survey to determine what other libraries pay for their annual audits.

Also, she reported that a per capita grant of about $53,000 will be spent on adult and juvenile materials.

Presently, non-resident library cards cost $127 as determined by a state formula. Board members agreed to lower rates to $103. The Niles Library has issued about 10 non-resident cards.

Also, a laser scanner service contract will be set up to aid patrons in finding out about library services and activities.

Niles "Friends of the Library" liaison Irene Costello said the organization will conduct a book sale Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4 and Oct. 5.

Injured was Michael Bencal, 16, also of Skokie, who was in fair condition at Evanston Hospital, and later released.

Richards, who was to attend the University of Tampa on a baseball scholarship in the fall, is survived by his parents, Judy and Michael, and a brother.

As planned, an older building in the rear will be razed and the present station will be removed and set back. It will operate seven days a week, 365 days a year, from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Schroeter expects to begin operations "the first part of next year" and looks forward to it, telling reporters "It's a hard business; (this will be) a lot easier and cleaner."

In other zoning matters, trustees approved the installation of an 8-foot satellite dish at Arvey's restaurant, 7041 Oakton St. with several conditions, particularly that the present dish be re-located away from the west side of the restaurant building, closer to Waukegan Road.

In other business, Trustee Jeffrey Arnold gained board approval for amending the village code relative to water meter installations. Under the amendment, anyone constructing a building, which requires a water meter, must pay for the meter and its installation.

Addressing the awarding of bids, Trustee James Mahoney gained board approval for purchasing a Fire Department pumper for $223,187.

Also, bids for street reconstruction and repaving were approved from Johnson Paving of Arlington Heights and Cutler Repaving of Lawrence, Kansas.

The trustee said because of the spread of bids, between $27,000 and $144,000 for the external cleaning and refinishing of an elevated water tank near Notre Dame High School, specifications would have to be clarified and the work re-bid.

Trustee Tom Bondi reported on the village-sponsored Fourth of July parade, calling it successful and saying work on the 1992 parade had already begun. Trustee Bondi proved plans were underway for 1992 when he invited board guest, Cheryl Majercik, 1991 Miss Illinois, to take part in next year's parade. President Blase presented Majercik with a miniature key to the village.

On another topic, Trustee Bondi noted the 325 entrants to the trustees stipulated the special use permit would be revoked if traffic stacked on Touhy or Lehigh.

No mechanical service will be provided at the new station and Trustee Bart Murphy asked "Are we helping Harry (Schroeter, the station operator) or Shell Oil? We're losing a service station."

Schroeter replied he was considering renting a service station at Touhy and Caldwell Avenues, Chicago, site of a former Shell station. That business reportedly closed when it could not compete with nearby suburban stations because of higher Chicago gas taxes.

On another topic, Trustee Bondi noted the 325 entrants to the Niles Beautification contest would be judged Aug. 3.

Adding color and humor to the occasion, John Demand of the Sister City Committee, presented President Blase with an official red, white and blue sash from Niles' sister city, Pisa, Italy. Demand noted decorum requires the president wear the sash at all official events.
