Hohs retains MG mayor's post following challenge by Szachowicz

Mayor Richard Hohs won his second term in office Tuesday, defeating challenger Henry Szachowicz.

Incumbent Hohs was retained with 3,106 votes to 2,056 votes for Szachowicz, a local attorney and a former Village Trustee.

Hohs' entrenched Act-On party held onto Village offices, despite a determined onslaught by the Morton Grove First Party led by Szachowicz. It may prove voter discontent over a projected mountain of spoil from Deep Tunnel drillings was not as widespread as once thought. Early results showed Hohs' party behind in only one precinct, in the Eldorado Estates vicinity. That area will be most directly affected by truck traffic carrying spoil.

Village Clerk Wilma Wendt won a bid for a third term with 3,320 votes, surpassing challenger Marjorie Hirshman's 1,811 votes.

Blase leads ticket for his 9th term

by Bud Besser

Unopposed Niles village president, Nick Blase, was re-elected for a ninth term Tuesday as he lead his unopposed "Progress Party" village ticket to victory.

The non-competitive election led to a low turnout of only 25% of registered Niles voters.

In a Wednesday morning interview Blase told The Bugle after 32 years the job of village president is still "challenging, stimulating and is at the center of where things are happening." He noted it doesn't seem like 32 years since

Park President Carol Panek loses seat; 25% voter turnout

Sheridan, Skaja Breitzman take over Park Dist.

Voters overwhelmingly put to rest the most contentious chapter in the history of the Niles Park District on Tuesday.

Electing candidates Rick Sheridan, Myrna Breitzman and returning incumbent Bud Skaja Jr. promises the park board a majority whose platform was based upon bringing financial stability as well as political harmony to the board.

Unseated Tuesday was Park Board President Carol Panek, who with Commissioner Marlene Baczek and retiring Commissioner Jim Pierski, formed a three member majority on the five-person board.

Controversial firings as well as over $3 million in bond purchases marked the Panek-Baczek-Pierski years.

Unofficial election results showed Skaja receiving 2,026 votes; Sheridan 1,762 votes and Breitzman 1,643 votes.

Candidate for Park Commissioner Mike Cielinski received 1,164 votes; Panek 966 votes and candidate James Hynes 925 votes.

Commenting on being the top vote-getter on Tuesday night Skaja said, "I'm shocked. I never received that many votes before. It seems people got the message."

Newly elected commissioner Rick Sheridan said, "I'm happy people have that much confidence in us; we're going to do the best we can."

Also, winner Myrna Breitzman , who was celebrating both her victory and her wedding anniversary, said, "Our team looks forward to working with the staff and looks forward to a new beginning. I'm excited. We want the park district to work together as a team."

Looking back on his campaign, unsuccessful candidate Jim Hynes said, "I don't think I would have changed anything. The people with a better organi-

Plan benefit for leukemia patient

Joseph Laurie

Joseph Laurie, 18, grandson of Frank and Emma Laurie, Niles resident for 30 years and cousin of Frank Laurie, Niles fireman and paramedic, was diagnosed with Acute Leukemia in October 1992.

He underwent chemotherapy, radiation and a bone marrow transplant at Loyola Medical Center and was hospitalized for 4 months. Joey is home now, but requires daily in-home nursing care and has been re-hospitalized several times for numerous infections and complications.

Joey's lifetime maximum health insurance of $250,000 has been exhausted and his medical bills are in excess of $500.000

Niles Sports Complex rehab will cost $1.5 million

by Sheilya Hackett

Niles Park Board on April 13 acted to get rehab work moving at the Ballard Road Sports Complex. It named the Schaefges Brothers, a Wheeling, IL firm as the lowest of five bidders at $1,547,946.

The District will draw from its $2.8 million bond issue to pay for the project, with construction due to begin about May 1 and be completed by mid-September.

The basic bid of $1,530,000 was expanded to include $14,805 to landscape and light the main entrance and an additional $3,141 to finish a meeting room with basic walls and paint, explained Jerry Krewer, Superintendent of Leisure Services.

Keeping to necessities, project planners eliminated other rehab options, such as a fitness room for $75,000 and an automated pool filtration system for $35,000, said Park director Tim Royster. And even though it is overdue, ice rink walls will not be painted because the painting is not a basic need, he added.

District finances will again be

Branch pickup service resumes in Niles

The Village of Niles has resumed Branch Pickup Service. This program works as follows:

Branches must be less than 10 inches in diameter.

Branches must be tied in bundles no more than 18 inches in diameter and 4 feet in length. (One person must be able to lift the bundles).

No stumps, roots or attached dirt will be accepted.

Branch pickup service will run from April through October.

Branch pickup service will be divided east and west along Milwaukee Avenue as follows:

Residents living east of Milwaukee Avenue will have branch pickup service on the first Monday of the month.

Residents living west of Milwaukee Avenue will have branch pickup service on the last Monday of the month.

Branches must be put out at the curb on the appropriate Monday morning and will be picked up during that week. There will be no alley pickup.

Branch pickup Service does not require a yard waste bag. On the appropriate Monday, simply put the branches at the curb in front of each home. Any branches or logs in excess of 10 inches in diamater will not be accepted by Village crews. Larger logs and branches should be handled by a tree servce or landscaper hired by the homeowner.

Drop-off recycling set at Maine Town Hall

Maine Township will hold its monthly drop-off recycling program, Saturday, April 24. The collection will be held from 8 a.m. to noon in the parking lot of the Maine Township Town Hall, 1700 Ballard Rd., Park Ridge.

The following items will be accepted: newspapers; corrugated cardboard; aluminum and metal cans; and green, brown and clear glass bottles and jars. All items should be sorted. All glass, metal and plastic containers must be thoroughly cleaned with lids, tops and rings removed. Labels also should be removed from cans. Newspapers and cardboard must be bundled separately. Newspapers must be tied or stacked in brown bags and cardboard must be tied with string.

The township program is intended to provide a convenient recycling site for residents who do not have curbside recycling and those who wish to recycle acceptable items that are not collected by their local haulers.

Maine Township holds monthly recycling collections on the fourth Saturday morning of each month. For information on recycling, call Maine Township at 297-2510.

$29 million budget is 6% less than year before

Niles trustees review lean $28.9 million budget

by Sheilya Hackett

An uncertain economy and stagnant revenues are reflected in a pared-down Village of Niles budget for 1993-'94. Village Trustees on April 19 publicly reviewed the $28.9 million budget, which is 6.2 percent less than the previous fiscal year's.

Until the Village levy is determinced in May, it is uncertain how the budget will affect homeowner taxes.

Introducing the budget document, Village Manager Abe Selman said Niles would defer major capital projects in order to continue to supply basic Village services. He said "We take pride in the quality of service provided to the Niles residents."

Village Finance Director George Van Geem highlighted one bright spot, noting the Touhy Avenue Village Crossing Tax Incremental Financing (TIF) district is doing so well, the bonds could be paid off this year. He described the TIF district as "one of the most successful in the state."

Budget planners trimmed appropriations for most departments, except the Finance, Fire, Police and Human Services divisions. And while no personnel cuts are indicated, no new jobs are authorized. The Public Services department saw a 37 percent decrease from last year's allotment.

District 63 approves tuition-only summer school

by Ben Rieck

A resolution to run the School District 63 summer school program on a tuition only basis was approved at the District's Board of Education meeting March 23.

The program has this status because state reimbursement for gifted and remedial students was cut. The tuition cost feature is in place so the summer school can be run at no cost to the District.

Gemini parents request graduate date change

by Ben Rieck

Concern was expressed over the back to back stacking of graduation and summer school starting dates at the last School District 63 Board of Education meeting held April 13.

Richard Mangold, representing several Gemini parents, asked the board to change the date for graduation. He used the school calendar to make his case.

The original dates for graduation were June 14 and 16. Mangold wanted the date moved back a week.

He said that the East Maine School District 63 1992-'93 calendar allowed for 10 emergency snow days that were not used, leaving June 10 as the last day for school.

Mangold pointed out that Maine East High School begins its summer school program on June 15 and every day after that is lost time for students enrolled in it.

Check your Social Security record

by Thomas A. Curin
Social Security Manager in Des Plaines

This is the time of year when many people make money related resolutions. I've got an idea for tax time resolution that's simple to make and even easier not to break: check your Social Security earnings record and at the same time get an estimate of your future Social Security benefits. And here's even better news - it's free!

All you have to do is contact the Des Plaines Social Security office or call our toll-free number: 1 (800) 772-1213. Ask for the "Request For Personal Earnings And Benefit Estimate Statement (Form 7004). The form asks a few identifying questions (name, address, date of birth, etc.). About a month after you send in the form, you'll receive a statement that shows your earnings as reported to Social Security by your employer(s). Check our records against your own file. If you find an error, contact us right away with proof of your actual earnings (such as a W-2 form).

The statement also gives you an estimate of your future Social Security retirement and disability benefits, as well as estimates of benefits that would be payable to your family members if you should die.

Remember: checking your Social Security earnings record and getting an estimate of your benefits is the easiest resolution you can make

In a recent article that appeared in the Chicago Tribune, it was noted that thousands of elderly Americans, home alone and too frail to cook, are not receiving hot meals because programs across the country are strapped for cash and are closing their doors.

The ARK's Hot Kosher Home Delivered Meals prides itself on delivering over 24,000 meals a year. They are delivered daily to the home bound and the ill, the elderly and the handicapped. Special care is taken to satisfy diet restrictions as well as preferences. For many of these shut-ins, the delivery person is their only contact with another human being.

Paget's disease education meeting to be held at Rush

Paget's disease of the bone is a chronic skeletal disorder that occurs in one to three percent of Americans over 40 years old. In these patients, the body's process of making and reforming bone goes awry, resulting in enlarged and deformed bones. A major symptom of the disease is pain in the bones, joints and back.

A patient education meeting on Paget's disease will be held on Saturday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to noon, at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center. Sponsored by the Paget Foundation, the meeting will provide information about this bone disease and the new medications being tested.

At Rush, Dr. Ryan is studying in Paget's disease patients the effectiveness of several compounds called bisphosphonates, which can build up skeletal mass. Bisphosphonates can also inhibit the activity of osteoclasts, the cell that break down bone. In Paget's disease, an overabundance of osteoclasts destroys the bone.

The patient education meeting will be held in room 598 of the Searle Conference Center, fifth floor of the Professional Building on the Rush campus, at 1725 West Harrison Street. The meeting is free, but reservations are recommended. For more information, call the Section of Endocrinology at Rush at (312) 942-6163 or the Paget Foundation at (212) 229-1582.

Eight years, two kids, two cars, a house and one bank.

Meet the Davises. Tim, Catherine and Matt. Oh, and that's Erica. When she came along, life changed pretty drastically. But they handled it with help from First of America.

Not long after the baby was born, they discovered the old two-door coupe just wasn't big enough anymore. So we set them up with an affordable low-rate car loan for a minivan.

Then they wanted a home of their own. And we gave them a variety of Homelight℠ mortgage options. Of course, they needed furniture, so we offered them a choice of MasterCard® or VISA®.

The family continued to grow. And thanks to a First of America home improvement loan, their house has too, with a new family room.

And college isn't very far off. So they're putting money in the Parkstone Tuition Management fund.†

It seems that life is always coming up with reasons for a good bank. That's why First of America offers such a vast array of products and services. And why people like the Davises are making us their bank for life.

14.9% APR. No annual fee VISA® or MasterCard®. Call (800) 733-3359.

FIRST OF AMERICA. A bank for life.℠

Regina benefit recreates Disney's Magic Kingdom

Regina Dominican High School was transformed into a Whole New World Sunday, March 28 for the school's 35th annual benefit.

A capacity crowd of 1,200 filled the auditorium for "Disney Spectacular, A Minnie Revue" featuring Regina performing arts students and the Acme Vocals.

The Chamber Singers, Regina Orchestra, Swing Chorale and Regina Singers re-created Disney's Magic Kingdom in a medley of 36 Disney tunes from 55-year-old "Snow White" to Academy Award winners "Beauty and the Beast" and "Aladdin."

"This year's theme wa spurred by the popularity of the recent Disney shows," said crator and director Suzanne Senese. "The students are so fond of Disney that I researched possibilities last summer and put together the show."

Des Plaines, IL 60016
Dear Mr. Pick:
I want to take this opportunity to express to you and your entire staff my sincere appreciation for the exemplary care and affection given my mother, Helen Mittelpunkt, during her four year stay at Ballard.
Your entire staff gave far in excess of what would be considered normal. I came away with the impression that Mom was considered by the staff as a member of their own personal families. The care she was given far exceeded that which would have been rendered at any hospital.
Again, on the behalf of our entire family, many, many thanks to you and your entire staff.
Kindest Regards,

Harts Rd. residents thwart robbery

Two Niles men thwarted a car robbery April 16 and held the burglar until police arrived. Early April 16, a 21 year old resident of the 6800 block of Harts Road went to his alley and noticed a man inside a car with its motor running. Glancing toward his brother's Camaro nearby, he saw a burglar inside it, tools in hand, removing a radio and speakers.

He shouted to his brother, 24, and the waiting car sped off. Hearing the noise, the burglar exited the car and started to run, but was caught by the 24 year old and a neighbor who joined the chase.

A struggle ensued, but police arrived and arrested the thief, a Bellwood man, 30, who was found to be carrying a flashlight and two screwdrivers.

During the arrest process, the man flashed gang signs and bragged of being convicted 13 times of various crimes. He said he had never spent time in the penitentiary because he had a good lawyer. He called his pursuers "stupid" because he could have stabbled them with his screwdriver.

Police charged the man with burglary, placed him on $85,000 bond and gave him a May 4 court date.

The night of April 10, unknown offenders entered The Package Depot in the 9300 block of Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, pried open a cash register and took $750.

Indecent exposure

Two reports of a van driver without his pants reached police the morning of April 12. In one incident, two Glenview women, aged 45 and 46, left an exercise club in the 8400 block of Golf Road, Niles. As they approached their car in the parking lot, they saw the thirtyish man in his 1980 silver Buick minivan, performing indecent acts.

A similar incident was reported about a half hour later in a lot in the 8500 block of Golf Road. A Police computer check determined the man's license number checked out to an Elmhurst address.

Purse theft

A Des Plaines woman, 71, reported unknown offenders took her purse from her unattended shopping cart when she was in a Golf Mill grocery the afternoon of April 17. The purse contained her wallet, $35, credit cards and identification.

Retail thefts

Security cameras at Kohl's, Golf Mill, on April 15 recorded a woman hiding a pair of the store's gym shoes in a baby carrier and then leaving the store. Store agents were unable to apprehend her. Two days later, the same woman returned with a male companion and attempted a similar theft of shoes. This time store agents caught the woman and her companion, who was attempting to flee. Both were Des Plaines residents.

The woman, 25, was charged with retail theft, placed on $1,000 bond and given a May 14 court date. Her companion, 19, was also arrested when police found he had an outstanding warrant from Cook County.

April 16, agents for Kohl's, Golf Mill, stopped a 34 year old Skokie man who took a pair of $65 gym shoes and attempted to leave without paying. He was charged with retail theft, placed on $30,000 bond and given a May 7 court date.

A 23 year old Chicago woman made two attempts to return store merchandise on display for a cash refund at J. C. Penney's, Golf Mill April 12. Each time, she approached a cashier, who asked for a sales receipt and each time she said she had none. The cashier called security and the woman walked away. An agent stopped the woman when she left the store and she admitted the attempted thefts. For trying to take an $80 juicer and a $110 coat, police charged her with two counts of retail theft, placed her on $1,000 bond and gave her a May 14 court date.

Sign up to be an organ donor

by Secretary of State George H. Ryan

A record 647 organs were procured by the Regional Organ Bank of Illinois (ROBI) in 1992, and 460 were transplanted. However, 1,359 Illinoisans were waiting for transplants on Jan. 1, 1993. Sadly, many will die before suitable organs are found.

Q. How can I become an organ donor?

A. In recognition of Organ and Tissue Donor Awareness Week (April 18-24), I encourage you to sign the organ donor card on the back of your driver's license or identification card, and have your signature witnessed by two people. Your simple signature has the power to give the gift of life to others. In addition, we recently implemented an Organ Donor Central Registry program.

Q. What is the Organ Donor Central Registry?

A. Each person applying for or renewing a driver's license or identification card is asked to participate in the Central Registry program by agreeing to be an organ donor. This information is stored in our computer, kept confidential, and made available to ROBI and the Mid-American Transplant Association when a potential donor is identified. To date, 22 percent of applicants have participated in this lifesaving program, making Illinois a national leader in the organ donor field.

Q. Do I need to discuss my decision with my family?

A. Yes. Even if you sign the back of your license or ID card and participate in the Central Registry, hospitals require family consent before organ donation can occur.

Culver students and faculty have been participating in a "reading trip around the world." Weekly activities were arranged and completed during student advisory periods.

The first week's activity was to make passports with each student's identification photo. Everytime a book was read, the student received an official stamp in the passport. The passport would be filled upon the completion of reading 3 books.

The second week's activity was for each advisory class to design and make an air transport to travel from continent to continent on a large, centrally-located bulletin board. Designs included a flying saucer, blimp, spaceship, jet fighter plane, flying carpet, rockets, hot air balloons and jet passenger planes. When an advisory class read 6 books, its air transport would fly to the next continent.

During the third week, advisory classes constructed felt banners promoting reading, which are displayed in the Library/Media Center.

A Book Swap Day was held in the fourth week. Students brought books from home to trade with others.

If the students complete the Trips Around the World, Mr. Ray, principal of Culver Middle School, will be called upon to meet their challenge.

Another culminating activity will be a visit from a storyteller.

Learn to 'eat healthy'

Tired of yo-yo dieting? With millions of dollars spent each year on weight loss diets and devices, many people find themselves caught in a constant cycle of losing and regaining the same weight over and over.

To help individuals end the vicious dieting/overeating cycle and learn a new eating style, the community dietitians at The Glenbrook Hospital are sponsoring an eight session healthy eating program entitled Diet Free Forever at The Glenbrook Hospital, 2100 Pfingsten Road, Glenview.

The program will address problems concerning food, eating, weight and health. Participants will learn how to respond to their internal hunger cues as a solution to overeating. In addition, the program will explore the joy of movement exercise and the use of self talk for positive change. Participants will receive a confidential and individualized eating profile. In addition, there will be time for a group discussion of the new eating style.

Classes will be held at two different times: the evening class begins on Tuesday, May 4 at 7 p.m. and the morning class begins on Wednesday, May 5 at 9 a.m. The cost is $176 for the 8-session program.

For more information or to register, call Marianne Evans, R. D., at (708) 657-5666.

Holy Family accredited by ACR

Holy Family Hospital offers a mammography suite that is fully accredited by the American College of Radiology (ACR).

As an ACR accredited mammography program, Holy Family's facility has met all necessary requirements, including a peer physician review of staff qualifications; certification of equipment; quality control and quality assurance programs; imaging quality and certification of the low amount of radiation the breast receives.

The American Cancer Society reports that one in nine women will develop breast cancer during her lifetime. Even more alarming, about 15 percent of women who are candidates for annual breast X-rays are not receiving them, primarily because they do not understand the importance of mammograms in saving lives.

Early detection is the key to survival. Mammograms will pinpoint tumors too small to be felt, and can detect cancer in the earliest, most treatable stage. Some 85 percent of breast cancers are discovered by mammography. However, examination of the breasts by a physician is necessary and compliments a mammogram.

Holy Family Hospital's accredited mammography services ensure that qualified personnel perform and interpret mammograms using state-of-the-art equipment for accurate exams with minimal risk.

For more information about Holy Family's mammography screenings or to make an appointment, call MedConnection, Holy Family's free physician referral an appointment service at (708) 297-1800, ext. 1110.

Is a household worker an employee or an independent contractor?

by
Thomas A. Curin
Social Security manager,
Des Plaines, IL

If you hire a household worker, such as a cleaning person, cook, gardener, handyman, or child care provider, you should be aware of Social Security laws concerning the payment of Social Security and other taxes for them. Sometimes the household worker is your employee and you are responsible for paying the taxes. Other times the household help is self-employed or works for a business. In that case, they, or the business must pay the taxes.

If you hire someone, to work in your home the person is usually your employee if:

* the person does not work for anyone else;
* you control how the person does the work;
* you provide the tools or materials; and
* you pay an hourly or daily wage.

There are two situations in which you clearly are not responsible for paying taxes for your household worker.

1. If the worker belongs to an agency and isn't hired, fired, or paid directly by you, then she is the agency's employee, not yours, and the agency is responsible for paying the taxes.

2. If the person has his own company, advertises, works for anyone who needs the services, brings his own tools or equipment, tells you when he can do the work, and is paid a fixed amount for a job performed rather than an hourly rate, he is usually an independent contractor and responsible for paying his own taxes.

Many household situations are not as conctusive. For example, you may have hired someone to work in your home and be uncertain as to whether the person is your employee or a self-employed contractor. If you are in doubt about your household worker, you should get Internal Revenue Service (IRS) publication 926, "Employment Taxes for Household Employers," and 937, "Employment Taxes and Information Returns." This last publication offers tips that help you decide whether or not the person is your employee.

If, after reading the IRS publications, you still are unsure of the worker's status, you can file form SS-8 with the IRS, and the IRS will decide if the person is your employee or self-employed. If the person is your employee, and you pay at least $50 in a 3 month period, you are responsible for paying Social Security taxes that equal 7.65 percent of his or her wages. You must pay another 7.65 percent for the employee's Social Security contribution. There are also unemployment taxes and worker's compensation premiums that must be paid if your worker makes over a certain amount. And you must pay state taxes as well.

To help you pay these taxes, IRS has Package 942, "Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees" that contains all the forms a household employer needs to file. You can get the package and the publications by calling IRS at 1-800-839-3676.

Think you know your History? Try this N.H.S. quiz

1. What do The Green Hornet and a Street Car have in common? If you guessed that both have been seen on TV, it's a great guess. But the answer I was looking for, is that both were once means of transportation in Chicago. Try again.

2. True or False. There were once double decker busses (like the ones in England) driving around Chicago streets? If you answered True, you are not only correct, but you're catching on quickly to this quiz. One more.

3. What is a Blue Goose? If you said that it's a bird who forgot to fly south for the winter, you obviously have a terrific sense of humor. But if you guessed that it was once a Street Car, you definitely know your History.

Get the feeling that my little quiz has a theme to it? You're Right! It's to let you know that you can find out even more information about Street Cars, Cable Cars & Trolleys at the Niles Historical Museum.

On April 26 at 7:30 p.m., the Niles Historical Society will present a video and pictorial display on the Magical History of Street Railways, from early horse cars to modern light rail. It's a comprehensive and entertaining collection of trolleys, seen on motion picture footage dating from the 1890's to the 1990's including open cars, closed cars, horse cars and cable cars, urban street cars and country trolley cars, elevated railways and underground subways.

The Niles Historical Museum is located at 8970 Milwaukee Avenue in Niles. For more information, contact the Society at (708) 390-0160.

I guarantee you'll have a tram good time.

Letters To The Editor

NOTICE

These Letters to the Editor were received too late for publication before Tuesday's election. This information was printed in both the April 1 and April 8 issues as a forewarning to letter writers.

The role of the Niles Township Assessor

Dear Editor:

The Niles Township Assessor's office does not do the actual assessment or reassessment of your property; it is involved in helping make sure that Niles Township homeowners are assessed properly.

Often homeowners mistakenly believe that the assessor determines the amount of taxes they must pay. In fact, the actual amount of taxes is determined by the spending and the budget requests of local governments such as county, township, park districts, school districts, villages and other municipalities. These spending decisions are made by the officials of your local governments.

The assessor's job is to determine the value of your real estate. This assessed value does determine what portion of the spending you must share with the other property owners in your taxing district. It is therefore, very important that all property be valued fairly uniformly and accurately. Increased spending is what usually makes your taxes go up. Increased assessments should not automatically cause tax bill increases.

Remember, there are ways that you can give input and help direct and control much of the spending. It does take time, effort and involvement in your community. Become part of the solution - get involved! Try to read your local newspapers and watch for news of spending by taxing bodies - particularly now at budget time.

Assessor - Niles Township

Former commissioner says parks in good financial shape

Dear Editor:

In the Left Hand column of the Bugle 4/1/93, the following question was raised about Pontarelli's control of the condo development in Niles, "with the condo invasion, there is only one developer building here. Why?"

Isn't the answer found in the article concerning contributions to the Citizens for a Better Niles? Pontarelli was one of the major contributors. Anyone who has dared to question the Village of Niles' interest in park land for future development or who "harps" on the fact that unlike the park district, the village is not prohibited by law from selling park land to developers is accused of being unduly suspicious. I think anyone who looks at the Village's track record in selling land and the control certain developers have is dumb not to be suspicious.

There have been rumors galore about developments on the Oak School property. Part of the land around the school belongs to the Niles Park District. The school has been allowed to stand and deteriorate. Schools in other communities have been fixed up and used for the community. Is that property just waiting till all the land is available for development?

During my first term as a Niles Park Commissioner, the financial problems of the district were serious. So much progress has been made over the years. The district is in better financial shape now. All areas of the district have received awards for excellence.

On the other hand, the Village faces a serious cut in state funds and has already used hidden increased fees and sales tax to raise additional funds. Even Mayor Blase has alluded to the problems the village faces in the future.

Why now, when the park district is in good financial shape and the village faces cuts in state funding, is the village so interested in taking over the park district? Is it really so suspicious to wonder if it is not the Park Land and the opportunities for profit that appeal to "generous" real estate developers and their political friends?

An independent park district, protected by state statue is something a community should protect. Discussions usually lump libraries and park districts into the same group when talking about the advantages of village control. The difference is the land a park district owns and the protection the laws provide when park districts are independent. Considering the history of political influence on the part of the developers in Niles that is a point of major importance in our community.

Nilesite urges residents to vote for 'common sense' candidates

Citizens of Niles:

Arise! Voting time is at hand. Is there a little conscience bothering you some place? Did you try to speak at a park board or any other meeting and they tried to shut you up (like me)? Don't you like the candidates? Whatever, sharpen your pencils and clean your glasses and please come out and vote for the candidates of your choice. You are their boss! Notice how nice these people are at meetings? How jovial and kind and telling us to speak up and tell us what you want, maybe we can do it for you, OK! Let the ballot box speak out!

Ms. Baczek, one of our park board members, referred in one of her letters to the newspapers, that all the board members of "Citizens For A Better Niles" organizations must all be liars (including yours truly). Does she feel threatened by the overwhelming vote we were able to receive from the citizens of Niles, on our so-called illegal referendum to throw the present park board out? The illusions, by the present park board, of grandeur are really amazing and incomprehensible.

As long as I'm on the subject of Ms. Baczek (one of our park board commissioners), I found some very disturbing news. The man who signs his letters "Roy Stanley," says he is living in our town for some 30 odd years and dislikes our Mayor Blase sooo much and dislikes our town sooo much that he just doesn't know what to do. (Advice, anyone, please!). Here is the father of one of our park board commissioners, Ms. Baczek, who instead of bragging about his daughter's accomplishment (?), tells us how terrible this town has become.

Now is our time to play catch-up. We have a lot to do.

You know who I really feel sorry for? A guy by the name of Mr. Besser on The Bugle, he writes all these beautiful editorials called the "Left Hand". When he was knocking and criticizing Mayor Blase, some people were saying what a terrific guy to bring all this into the open. Now, the poor guy, knocks the park board a couple of times and these same people say "crucify him". Nobody dares to mention the people involved in the "publicity dept" of the Niles Park Board who are employees of other newspapers that publish in Niles. I don't know if they are paid employees of the park board or are volunteers. I just haven't been able to find out.

Another thing that really bothers me is the attorney who serves the board as their attorney and advisor (?) a Mr. Berrafato. I've tried to find facts and figures about how much he was paid in 1992. I can't even find attorney's fees listed on anything, s'help me! The park board blew $30,000 for a survey of what we want from our parks. They received 200 replies from our citizens. Not enough the board said. Sooo they sent out again for another excessive fee and another 200 answers are received from mostly the same people who answered the first time. That is about $200 for each and every answer they received for the first mailing and if you use the same $30,000 (not counting the extra charge) for the second mailing) it would cost $75 for each and every reply. I call that using our tax money in a fiscally irresponsible manner. Elaine Heinen predicted this originally at the very outset of this debacle. She said this would happen. Nobody listens to the seniors. They just don't know nuttin! Here is a classy lady with the smarts.

We have a lot of people who are running for the park board who are very highly educated. Degrees for this and degrees for that, but do they know the meaning of the words "common sense"? I hope so because that's what you need and lots of it. I know some people who are just common Joe's and Jill's, who aren't that well educated but common sense to them is what gives them the smarts, what we need on the board are a couple of people familiar with the construction trade. With all the construction at the parks we have no Walt Beusse (engineer) or Val Engelman (engineer) to guide us, but we have a lot of future politicians who want to use the park district board for a stepping stone into one of the trusteeships or the mayor's job for the village. Ho hum! That's life. What surprises me is that The League of Women Voters from Morton Grove and Niles (?) hasn't thrown in a couple of their staunch members into the fray. They have one running for the library board by the name of Ms. Avis Gibbons. I hope she doesn't try to screw up the library as badly as The League has helped screw up the park board. Ms. Panek and Ms. Baczek are both members of The League.

I have met some wonderful people in our town. People who have helped me to enjoy a healthy, happy and full life in Niles. The present park board, of course, is not included (except for a couple of good guys). So, I would suggest to you to consider voting for some people, because they have the odd numbers on the ballot. Their No's are 217-219-221, Rick Sheridan, Myrna Brietzman and Bud Skaja. Respectively, people who served on the park board should be prepared to serve you and me and our village of Niles, today, tomorrow and always.

The only level-headed people around here seem to be "Callero and Catino". They keep passing out their bumper stickers that read "I Love Niles". How true! How true! How true!

Thanks a million,
Ray Grochocki

Not only theater experts will enjoy the trip. Group discussions of the plays will be presented in a clear and introductory manner to familiarize attendees with the vocabulary and structure of drama.

Oakton's adjunct faculty member Allen Schwartz, will conduct the tour. This is his 72nd tour to the Stratford and Niagara-on-the-Lake Festivals in the last 15 years.

For more information, call Allen Schwartz at (708) 679-4123.

Lincolnwood restauranteur strives for success

The story of American successes contains hundreds of stories of immigrants who came to these shores and, in the true American tradition, have done very well for themselves.

Such is the case of Ed Balakhanpour, a resident of Lincolnwood.

Ed came to the United States on November 1, 1985, emigrating from Iran. Although he led a comfortable life there, operating a plastics business, he was determined to do even better in this land of opportunity.

After a brief stay in California, Ed came to Chicago with the goal of establishing himself in the restaurant business.

Today, Ed Balakhanpour is the owner of the Thai Castle restaurant at 313 S. Halsted in Chicago. And he attained that place by means of the hard work and long hours that have epitomized many of our immigrants.

Knowing that he wanted to eventually own a place with an Oriental style, Ed worked successively at the China Doll, Happy Wok, Jim Ching, BAR Association, and the Peapod Restaurant.

Ed began with all of the basic jobs and "dirty work" as he progressed upward. He perceived that delivery services would play an important role in his future restaurant, so he went to work for Giordano's for three years, learning every facet of the delivery trade.

By mid-1990, he was ready. But Ed took three months to conduct research to determine what type of restaurant to open. He finally decided to open a restaurant featuring Thai cuisine.

Ed's decision was based on several factors. First, Thai foods are very healthy and nutritious, and because these qualities are emphasized in the American health picture, Ed decided to present foods that are both healthy and filling. "Also," says Ed, "many members of the current generation want to get away from blandness and prefer the spiciness of Thai cuisine."

Thai Castle has been very successful since it opened in September 1990. Not only do many diners visit the place, but Ed's emphasis on delivery service has really paid off. It has become a thriving part of his restaurant business, along with carryout and catering.

Ed Balakhanpour plans to pursue the ideal of American entrepreneurship even further, after he consolidates his present operation. Ed, who graduated from high school in 1979 and attended college in Iran before emigrating, also designed the decor for his Thai Castle restaurant.

Ed, who is a "middle brother" in his family, brought his mother, three sisters and brother - plus their families - to Lincolnwood four years ago. His father chose to remain in Iran and visits here periodically.

Ed is single, stating that he is too busy with this business to pursue any hobbies or personal interests at this time.

Lyric Opera returns to Oakton

The Oakton Community College Educational Foundation will sponsor a double bill of one-act operas, Gian Menotti's The Old Maid and the Thief and Maurice Ravel's The Spanish Hour, on Saturday, May 22 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 23 at 2 p.m. The operas will be presented in the Performing Arts Center at Oakton's Des Plaines campus, 1600 E. Golf Road.

An old maid finds love with a mysterious drifter in The Old Maid and the Thief, while the flirtatious wife of a clockmaster attempts to keep order among her many suitors in The Spanish Hour. These two comic operas depicting the pursuit of love are performed by the Lyric Opera Center for American Artists (LOCAA).

The performance will be preceded by an opera forum by Professor Patrick Casali, at 7 p.m. Saturday, and 1 p.m. Sunday, in Room 1540 at the Des Plaines Campus. Casali, who is an expert on opera, leads the Santa Fe Summer Opera Festival Tour each summer. On Saturday, a reception will be held between the two operas.

Ticket price is $25 each for Saturday and $15 each for Sunday. For more information or to purchase tickets, call the Oakton Box Office at (708) 635-1900.

Dance company opens season

Hubbard Street Dance Chicago (HSDC), formerly Hubbard Street Dance Company, celebrates its 15th Anniversary season with a new name, the addition of two works to the repertoire, a souvenir poster by internationally acclaimed Chicago photographer Victor Skrebneski and local events at the Newberry Library and the Chicago Historical Society.

The new repertory will include a specially commissioned piece by Margo Sappington, and Twyla Tharp's most popular work, "Nine Sinatra Songs." Both will have their Chicago premieres on April 28, 1993, opening night of the company's April 28 - May 9 engagement at the Civic Opera House during the Spring Festival of Dance.

Founder and Artistic Director Lou Conte has created a spectacular "Festival Within A Festival," featuring 17 works by eight choreographers to be performed in seven different programs. Opening night and the 15th Anniversary gala will be held April 28, designated Hubbard Street Dance Chicago Day by mayoral proclamation.

In honor of HSDC's milestone celebration, Victor Skrebneski has created a special commemorative poster to be sold at performances throughout the year. Skrebneski, a noted photographer, has exhibited work in galleries all over the world and is represented in the permanent collections of the Museum of Modern Art in New York and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. In addition, he has published eight books and is a filmmaker of note.

In further recognition of HSDC's stature in Chicago's arts community, both the Newberry Library and the Chicago Historical Society will host 15th Anniversary programs. The Newberry, which houses HSDC's permanent archives, offers a spring lecture-discussion series which will include the company's artistic director and general manager. The Historical Society will showcase and add to its permanent collection a costume, complete with bowler hat and cane, from the company's signature work, "The 40's."

National tour highlights for Hubbard Street Dance Chicago's celebratory year include The American Dance Festival (Durham, NC), July 22-24; Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival (Lee, MA), August 3-7; DanceAspen Festival (Aspen, CO), August 12-21; and Ravinia Festival (Highland Park, IL), September 1-4. International engagements include Heilbronn, Germany, March 3-19; Montreal, Canada, March 25-27; and Quebec, Canada, March 30.

Conceived 15 years ago as an outreach program for senior citizens, HSDC stands as one of the country's foremost dance companies and serves as Chicago's ambassador to the world. With a distinctive repertoire of 45 dances, including works by pre-eminent American choreographers Daniel Ezralow, Bob Fosse, Margo Sappington and Twyla Tharp, the company is both a performing ensemble for contemporary dances and a physical archive for classic choreographic works.

Vein Clinics of America treat vein disorders

Vein Clinics of America is the nation's largest physician group specializing in the non-surgical treatment of vein disorders, including varicose veins, spider veins and venous ulcers.

Clinic medical teams inject an FDA-approved solution into affected veins and apply compression wraps. When necessary, ultrasound technology is used to guide treatment for more rapid and complete results. Patients receive treatment in a series of office visits and can return to their normal routine immediately following each session. No hospital stay or costly surgery is required.

VCA physicians and nurses specialize exclusively in phlebology -- the treatment of vein disease. The Clinics have successfully treated over 30,000 patients, and procedures are covered by many insurance plans.

in mind when Royster and Commissioner Marlene Baczek attend a legislative conference in Springfield, IL this month to lobby in support of a tax cap bill as amended in Senate Bill #1.

The proposed cap limits budget increases to five percent per year or to increases in the Consumer Price Index, whichever is less. Niles Park District already operates on a self-imposed cap of five percent but needs to retain its bonding powers as its only way to fund capital projects.

The District's annual contribution to the Maine-Niles Association for Special Recreation (MNASR) could also be reduced if Lincolnwood decides to join the association. Niles' assessment this year is $95,713 and the District recently paid $23,928 of that, Baczek, M-NASR Liaison, noted. Since Lincolnwood Park District is not independent but a Village department, it must ask the Village for funds to join, she indicated.

The opening of the District's major revenue producer, Tam Golf Course has been stalled by the weather, but the remodeled clubhouse will be open when flood waters recede. Golf course bridge construction should be done by mid-May, said Mike Rea, Superintendent of Parks.

The weather is also affecting other construction projects, Rea noted, but at Golf Mill park, some progress is being made on the new shelter, the aeration of the soccer field and the renovation of the irrigation system. At Washington and Courtland parks, new playground equipment has been installed.

Commissioner Bud Skaja, Jr. displayed examples of the District's new marketing effort in the form of a community newsletter and two flyers which will be distributed to residents, schools and at the Sports Complex. A marketing program is being developed by Sports Complex Manager Joe Modrich and Leisure Services Superintendent Jerry Krewer and his staff.

Board President Carol Panek urged residents to participate in the March for Parks since any funds generated would benefit the parks and publicize the need to preserve and beautify the parks' open spaces.

Also, at the 11 a.m. service on April 25, new members will be received into the congregation. At 9:45 a.m., a special coffee hour is scheduled for the new members and for guests.

In a telephone interview April 14, Selman said cost savings would come by extending the use period for cars in the police fleet and some pick up trucks at the Public Services department. Several two-ton trucks will get new cabs instead of being entirely replaced and certain water main projects will be delayed.

Deferring the replacement of a Touhy Avenue water main will save about $2 million, according to Public Services Director Jun Noriega.

Capital projects such as street re-paving and re-surfacing and replacement of broken water main bolts will continue, Selman said. Niles' partial funding of the Dempster Street sewer is also not affected, he added and called that flood control project a "priority."

Selman blamed unfunded Federal and State mandates for usually passing on "significant costs without the commensurate resources for implementation."

As an example, he cited the law prohibiting the inclusion of yard waste into landfills. He said that law moved the Village to provide leaf pick up services in autumn to save residents the cost of yard waste disposal bags.

Selman said the Village is actively lobbying to get funding for similar mandates.

Heritage Museum opens new exhibit

The Skokie Heritage Museum announces the opening of the temporary exhibit entitled, "Generation to Generation; Temple Beth Israel, 75 Years." This free exhibit will be on display at the Skokie Heritage Museum, 8031 Floral Ave., Skokie; on the second floor of the building from April 6 until April 30.

The exhibit features photographs and historical documents from Temple Beth Israel archives. The members of Temple Beth Israel, located on Dempster Avenue in Skokie, developed this exhibit to correspond with the Temple's 75th anniversary.

Tracing back to the Temple's first foundations in Albany Park, Chicago, the exhibit brings viewers to the present, emphasizing the importance of looking to the past for direction for the future.

The Skokie Heritage Museum public tours are noon to 4 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. There is no fee for this exhibit. For further information, call the Heritage Museum at (708) 677-6672, during public hours.

He said students and parents made summer plans based on the fact that the snow days were not used.

In the past, the high school and grade school calendars had been coordinated, Mangold said. Maine East High School's semester ends on June 10.

He said the students in the district will have met the number of required school days by then.

Mangold, in conclusion, asked for consideration when the board looks at graduation with the knowledge that summer school starts the next day.

A resolution passed later that evening eliminated days from the calendar. The motion, however, left June 15 as the last day of school, with the 8th graders graduation celebrated the day before.

Dr. Eldon Gleichman, superintendent, said that the calendar contains 190 days and the teachers contract includes 185 days. Contrary to Mangold's review of the calendar, this leaves five snow days.

Gleichman said that when school runs into the third week in June, there is usually a conflict with summer school. He will strongly propose at the next board meeting, which will discuss the 1993-'94 calendar, that school end in the second week of June.

He did remind the audience that school cannot start late and end early. To get in the required amount of days, school may have to start earlier next fall.

Dr. Eldon Gleichman, District 63 superintendant, said that the District has been fortunate to break even, so they can continue to offer the program. He added that many districts have had to cut summer school because they couldn't afford it.

The program is also surviving because its enrollment is healthy. Gleichman estimated that last summer 290 students attended classes.

Courses are offered in five areas. There are classes in reading and math and some remedial, gifted and computer classes. Gleichman figures that the program contains between 30 and 32 classes, with changes made based on request and need.

To create a course takes at least 9-10 students, so the addition can be self-supporting, he said.

The target date for receiving completed registration forms is May 1 Gleichman said. The program is scheduled to begin June 21.

A contingency of $5,000 was approved along with the resolution in case the summer school program is not attended by as many students as in previous years.

he first was elected. He didn't mention being at the center of the action as a lawyer-Mayor presents financial opportunities which has gone with his 32 year village job.

Blases's three village trustee running mates were also elected without opposition. All three were originally hand-picked by Blase to replace previous trustees who served Niles. Andrew Przybylo and Jeffrey Arnold replaced the late trustees, Ang Marcheschi and Pete Pesole, and Louella Preston replaced Carol Panek, who refused to run for re-election on a Blase ticket, and was subsequently defeated when she ran as an independent candidate.

Blase's 32 years as village president is the longest number of years ever served by a Niles village official. In the Chicagoland area, a Mayor Zeib has been in office for about 45 years and Lincolnwood's former Mayor, Henry Procsel, was Mr. Lincolnwood forever.

In the township elections Committeeman Blase's Democrats lost every race. The Democrats came close to capturing the supervisor's post for the first time when candidate Bonnie Lindquist lost by about 200 votes. Her fellow-Democrats lost the one trustee seat they had previously captured in heavily-dominated Republican Maine Township.

zation always get out more votes."

Loser Mike Cielinski said he would not run for a park board seat again. "People voted for a slate," said Cielinski. "The vote was 60-40, same as in the referendum."

The elections proved to be a continuation of the November 1992 referendum to have the Niles Park District absorbed by the Village of Niles.

Breitzman and Sheridan helped lead the way for the historic referendum, which passed with over 6,700 voters favoring the dissolution of the park district.

Legal maneuvering has kept the Niles Park District from being dissolved. The future of these legal challenges will be in doubt because of the election of this new park board.

Weather delays completion of park project

by Ben Rieck

A parks project started last fall to prepare a field for spring is unfinished with no plans for completion.

Gary Balling, Morton Grove Park District administrative manager, said that renovation of the Prairie View Park field was started in fall, but the climate was too wet. So far this spring, the conditions are still unworkable.

The project is 40 percent complete, Balling said, with a new fence erected, excavation complete and trees planted, so far.

The work still to come, Balling said; will include the laying of concrete walks, the sodding of the infield and the seeding of the outfield.

Completion of the project was originally set for May 22, when the Pony League Baseball Season is set to begin.

Balling said there is no time frame for the project and the park district has been tentatively inquiring about the use of other fields for the baseball season. Among the alternate sites considered are the Niles West High School freshman field and space in the Golf and Skokie park district.

Skokie kids learn about nutrition

Students at East Prairie Elementary learned to make healthy food choices through a national nutrition education program called "Healthy Choices for Kids."

The children in Sandie Pollock's first grade class joined three million children nationwide who are learning the importance of eating a wide variety of foods - - the foundation of the latest U. S. Dietary Guidelines (1990) released jointly by the U. S. Departments of Agriculture and Health and Human Services.

An important part of "Healthy Choices for Kids" is parental interaction. Students are encouraged to fill out food diaries at home with their parents, reinforcing at home what they've learned at school.

Pollock's students planned meals and had a healthy snack party, using foods from all five food groups.

Since there is no national nutrition requirement for elementary school, teachers like Pollock have responded favorably to the program.

"Healthy Choices for Kids" is part of an expansive health effort by the Washington apple growers called "Healthy Choices for America." This umbrella program is targeted at improving the overall health of all Americans. The state of children's health has become a major concern in the last few years: the proportion of overweight children in the U. S. has increased more than 50 percent over the past two decades.

This fall an additional supplement, "Choose A Healthy Lifestyle," will be available emphasizing exercise and is compatible with the "Eat A Wide Variety" supplement.

This program is available free and teachers must specify grades 1 - 5. Teachers may write to: Healthy Choices Education Curriculum, P. O. Box 550, Wenatchee, WA 98807.
