Library hosts investment seminar

The Niles Public Library District will host a two-part investment seminar, "Motor Fuel Tax." Candela of Candelas, Inc. Candela has secured a location in Niles for an investment seminar, which will be held in the Library. The seminar will be held on Tuesday, October 4 and Tuesday, October 11 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

The first session will focus on general and specific investment strategies and will end with a Q&A. The second session will focus on the price and control of petroleum products. The seminar will highlight some research tools available to the investor. Candela will also discuss international oil contracts and hedge funds. Reservations are required. For more information, contact Candela at 708-494-2680.

Distribute share of motor fuel tax

Niles city officials have been allocated $23,395.51 as their share of motor fuel tax paid over the state tax. According to the Illinois Department of Transportation, Niles is entitled to receive $23,395.51 as its share of motor fuel tax. Niles is estimated to collect $11,378.19 as its share of the state tax.

Issue of population

The Niles Public Library District has a board of trustees that meets the second Tuesday of every month. The board is responsible for the administration and operation of the library. The board is also responsible for the development of the library's strategic plan and the implementation of policies and procedures.

Barnat named Library board trustee

Michael Wayne Barnat, a local attorney, has been appointed to the Library Board of Trustees. Barnat has been a member of the library since 2003 and has served on the Library Board for the last five years. Barnat is currently the President of the Niles Public Library District. Barnat is also a member of the Niles Park District Board and serves as the President of the Board. Barnat has been an active member of the community for the last 15 years. Barnat is a second generation Niles resident and is currently the President of the Niles Park District Board.

Project To Free Battered Women From Jail Leaves Men Behind

Jeffrey M. Lavin

During the past decade, domestic violence has gained prominence in society. Women who are battered are often encouraged to leave their partners and seek protection. However, this can be a difficult and dangerous process. Some organizations are working to help battered women who are trying to leave situations of domestic violence.
