Don't let Congress fix Medicare

Dear Editor:

As a registered Democrat, I was appalled to read the editorial published in the March 17 issue of the Lincoln Journal Star in which you state that the current Medicare program is "an expensive failure." In my opinion, this statement is incorrect and misleading.

Medicare is a vital program that provides health care coverage for millions of Americans, particularly seniors. It is not an expensive failure, but rather a program that provides essential benefits to many individuals who depend on it.

I urge you to explore all facets of Medicare and to consider its role in providing affordable and accessible health care for all Americans. Let us work together to ensure that Medicare remains a strong and reliable program for the future.

Sincerely,

John M.S. Santiago
