Buglebits.....

My wife is a finalist to win $5,000,000 in a Readers Digest giveaway. When she wins, she'll be getting $167,000 a year for 20 years. Of course, there's a few other finalists - perhaps 5,000 or 50,000 or 5,000,000. But she's hung on through many months of correspondence between the Digest people and herself. She's received at least 15 mailings since she first entered the contest. Most of the letters salute her for her reaching the next plateau of competition and "Oh, by the way, we're offering a subscription to the Digest, or a book about Life Among the Aborigines or a book prescribing how to end insomnia by watching a baseball game." So far she's only bought the Digest, sort of a bribe for the Digest judges, who might prefer to hand out the big bucks to a subscriber rather than to a non-Digest reader.

Since I am the Bugle resident expert on basketball and the Chicago Bulls I must warn b-ball fans the Bulls championship season now reaches its critical stage. It is expected the Bulls will be playing the Orlando Magic the next two weeks, a team which is better than the Bulls. Better does not mean Orlando will win the series. But man for man, Orlando has a better first team. The Bulls have a better bench, have more team poise and seem to want to to Responding to the March 13 planting of a fake bomb on the Des Plaines campus that was followed by a series of telephone bomb threats, Oakton officials have taken several steps to ensure the security of the school.

Trustees approved spending $49,000 in life-safety funds for a caller ID program that will operate through the telecommunication system on both the Des Plaines and Skokie campuses.

By Rosemary Tirio
In yet another example of alert detective work by Niles police, two suspects were taken into custody and charged with theft in numerous car break-ins that have plagued the Niles area in recent weeks.

While on routine patrol in the 7100 block of Jarvis Street the evening of May 8, police noticed a red Monte Carlo similar to an auto described in a patrol bulletin as possibly being the get-away car in a rash of car burglaries.

Police proceeded southbound on Harlem Avenue and entered a restaurant parking lot where they noticed a woman walk out from between two parked vehicles and

A 31-year-old Park Ridge woman observed a man with blonde hair using a "Slim Jim" tool to gain entry to a 1995 Ford Probe in the parking lot of an ice cream store in the 8900 block of Greenwood Avenue around 6 p.m. May 2. The car belonged to a 19-year-old Streamwood woman.

The witness watched as the offender removed the owner's purse from the car and ran on foot west.

District 63 plans 5 year upgrade of facilities

By Rosemary Tirio

Staff members of East Maine Elementary School District 63 have submitted a five-year plan to the School Board for facilities repairs and upgrades.

The plan will give the Board an estimate of what will be needed to bring the district into compliance with safety standards and other guidelines for the Americans with Disabilities Act and also maintain the properties.

The plan is scheduled to begin this summer with $837,000 worth of repairs and improvements to be completed during the remainder of the present school year. An additional $1 million will be spent the following school year. An updated plan will be prepared and presented to the board each year of the project until it is completed in 2004.

A bone marrow screening will be held at the Arle Crown Hebrew Day School, 4600 Main St., Skokie, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday to find a suitable donor for the toddler.

Potential donors between 18 and 60 years of age who have not already been tested and registered, may take part in the screening at no cost.

The larger the number tested, the greater the chance of finding a match for Coby. His best chance for a match, however, lies within the Jewish community.

Donations to help defray the costs of trying to save little Coby's life may be made to the Coby Levi Emergency Fund,

Friendly visitors needed for Senior Outreach Program

Have you an hour or two per week to share with a shut-in Senior Citizen in the Niles Township area? Leaning Tower YMCA Senior Center has an Outreach Program that is in need of Friendly Visitors who can volunteer their services to bring some cheer into the lives of lonely Nursing Home Residents who often have no family or friends to call on them.

The number of people who need a Friendly Visitor increases regularly and we have only so many volunteers to visit. It would help so much if we could get some men and women who could volunteer even one hour a week to visit (either) in the 10 Area Nursing Homes we cover, or to visit a lonely person in their own home. Perhaps they might provide time, so that the caretaker of an Alzheimer's or Parkinson's victim can get away from their duties to shop or have a little time for themselves. If you are in or near the Niles Township Area and are able to donate some of your time on a weekly basis, contact Rose Wahlburg, Outreach Supervisor, at Leaning Tower YMCA Senior Center, 6300 W. Touhy Ave., Niles or call (847) 647-8222, ext. 2234. Rose is at the center on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday; from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

For membership information on Resurrection's free ResCare 65 program, counselors are available at Resurrection Medical Center at (312) 792-5012 and at Our Lady of the Resurrection Medical Center at (312) 794-7681.

Moisturize your eyes

Most people moisturize their skin, and even their hair, but never think about moisturizing their eyes. Eyes, like the rest of the body, require moisture to stay healthy. Tears are moisturizers.

Res to celebrate Emergency Medical Services Week

Emergency personnel at Resurrection Medical Center, 7435 West Talcott Ave., will celebrate National Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Week May 19 through 25 by delivering free pizzas to local fire stations. The pizzas will be delivered to stations in Chicago, Park Ridge, Skokie Park, Norwood Park, and Rosemont.

National EMS Week is sponsored each year by a group of 10 national organizations involved in the delivery of emergency medical services to recognize the personal commitment shown by emergency personnel. The theme for this year's observance, "It's Up to You," celebrates the contributions of emergency personnel nationwide and underscores the importance of strong public support for emergency medical services.

Systemic lupus erythematosus research study

Physicians at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke Medical Center are participating in a national study of an investigational hormone therapy for systemic lupus erythematosus. Lupus is a chronic inflammatory disease that can affect many parts of the body, including the joints, skin, lungs, heart and kidneys. Symptoms include joint pain, fatigue, sun sensitivity and rashes.

The majority of people who have irritated eyes don't realize that the irritation may be caused by a lack of moisture. They blame their scratchy, red eyes on fatigue and, in many cases, just live with the discomfort. Or they use products to reduce redness, which can actually dry eyes out even more.

Many eye specialists recommend using lubricating eye drops to keep eyes moisturized. A preservative-free formulation in a sterile, single-use dropper is also recommended, because studies show that frequent use of preserved drops, such as those found in bottles, can lead to preservative-induced irritation.

A new brochure, Refreshing Tips For Dry & Irritated Eyes, offers a comprehensive guide to the symptoms and treatment of dry, irritated eyes. For a free copy, call (800) 999-1870.

UOA Chapter to hear panel of ET nurses

A panel of nurses who specialize in care for people with ostomies will be featured when the United Ostomy Association's North Suburban Chicago Chapter meets at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 22 in the East Dining Room, 10th floor, of Lutheran General Hospital, 1775 Dempster St., Park Ridge.

Called enterostomal therapists (ETs), the nurses will discuss changes with aging related to an ostomy and then answer general questions, giving attendees who don't have access to an ET an opportunity to draw on the panel's combined knowledge.

The panelists are Jennifer Dore, RN, of the Rush-North Shore Medical Center, moderator; Connie Kelly, RN, University of Chicago Hospital, and Carol Kaplan, RN.

Ostomy is a surgical procedure required when a person has lost his normal function of the bowel or bladder because of birth defects, injury or diseases, such as colon-related cancer, ulcerative colitis and Crohn's disease.

UOA is a national volunteer, nonprofit organization that provides support and education to people who have had or are about to have ostomy surgery or related medical procedures.

The chapter meets the fourth Wednesday of each month at Lutheran General. People with ostomies, family members and friends are welcome. For more information on the group or the meeting, phone (847) 677-8284.

BBB warns Investigate carpet cleaning offers

With the arrival of spring comes spring cleaning and many people will want to hire contractors to clean their carpets. Flyer-tape postcards in the mail often promise that a company will clean up to three bedrooms in your home for $39.95 or a similar enticing price. The Better Business Bureau (BBB) warns that exceptionally low prices may be "traps," a gimmick to get into your home. Upon arrival, the cleaning service will be little more than unneeded work.

Ask neighbors, friends or relatives for recommendations of good carpet cleaners before deciding who to hire. The best advertising is word of mouth. Check with the BBB, at (312) 832-0500 or at (815) 963-2222 to find out if other customers have complained, and how (or if) the company responded and if the company meets the BBB standards of business practice and if the company is a member of the BBB.

Bicycle riding facts

Bicycles are a great form of recreation, physical fitness and transportation for people of all ages, but riding a bike in traffic can be dangerous if done improperly. In 1994, 25 bicyclists were killed in Illinois in 4,229 collisions with motor vehicles.

May is National Bicycle Safety Month, a time when children especially need to be reminded to obey all traffic laws and to wear a helmet to ensure their safety.

Q. Does Illinois law require bicyclists to wear a helmet?

A. No. However, wearing a helmet will reduce the risk of head injury dramatically if involved in an accident. More than 75 percent of all bicycle-related fatalities could have been prevented if the cyclists had been wearing helmets.

Q. Should a helmet be worn only when riding in traffic?

A. No. It is a good idea to wear a helmet whenever riding a bicycle. More and more head injuries are occurring as more people start to ride bicycles "off road." Riders can fall and hit their heads on rocks, trees or other obstacles. It also is a good idea to wear other safety equipment, such as knee and elbow pads.

Q. Should I ride my bike with or against traffic?

A. Bicyclists are required by law to ride on the right side of the road in the same direction as other vehicles.

Q. What are the best ways to avoid a crash with a motorist?

A. Follow all traffic laws that apply to motorists, such as observing right-of-way laws and obeying stop signs and lights.

Use arm signals to let drivers know your intentions. Look for cars and make eye contact with drivers to ensure that you have been seen.

Q. If you must ride at night, make sure your bike has a front light that shines for 500 feet and a rear, red reflector that can be seen for up to 600 feet. In addition, wear white or reflective clothing.

Q. Should a helmet be worn only when riding in traffic?

A. No. It is a good idea to wear a helmet whenever riding a bicycle. More and more head injuries are occurring as more people start to ride bicycles "off

Sheriff's "Swap Crews" clean up Des Plaines

Labor crews from the Sheriff's Work Alternative Program (SWAP) worked in Des Plaines in May as a public service to the taxpayers of Cook County, according to the Office of Sheriff Michael F. Sheahan.

The SWAP Program is made up of non-violent offenders charged with DUI and other misdemeanor crimes who "swap" jail time for a community service sentence. Under the supervision of specially trained sheriff's deputies, the crews work throughout the county on a variety of public works projects such as cleaning parks, viddicks,

Dumping complaint

The plant manager of a metal marking equipment manufacturing company in the 6100 block of Howard Street reported that unknown person(s) dumped two 55-gallon drums by the southwest side of the building sometime between 7 p.m. May 7 and 6:30 a.m. May 8.

The residence was clean and all family members seemed very surprised at the allegations. Police obtained the child's physician's name for possible further investigation but were satisfied with their findings. No further action was necessary.

Theft

The 29-year-old manager of a rental business in the 8800 block of Dempster Street told police that a 21-year-old former employee from Chicago reported that another former employee now residing in Machesney Park near Rockford took a diamond pendant and bracelet valued at a total of $954.46 from the store, which rents jewelry, and home furnishings.

The witness said the suspect gave the jewelry to him, and he took the jewelry and gave it to his mother in return for large amounts of marijuana.

Substance spill

The 30-year-old Chicago woman who manages a tile company in the 9000 block of Milwaukee Avenue reported a green fluid in the alley behind the store. A representative of the plumbing company that shares the alley with the tile firm said that it was a harmless green dye, but the complainant said it is a radiator fluid or some similar chemical coming from the tile company's vehicles.

The manager checked store records and discovered that the offender had also taken part or all of the down payments from many rental contracts he had written while an employee. The stolen down payments totaled $2,500. The total theft amounted to $3,454.46.

The victim requested a follow-up investigation and said he will sign a complaint.

The 31-year-old man reported that unknown offender(s) poured paint remover on his Teal/Silver 1995 Chevrolet Suburban while it was parked in a lot in the 7800 block of Milwaukee Avenue between 11 p.m. May 1 and 7:30 p.m. May 12.

No other cars in the lot were damaged. The cost to repair the damage is estimated at over $500.

him. She told police that the child's bloody nose was due to a cold.

The child was sleeping soundly when the officers were investigating. No cuts, bruises or other signs of abuse or neglect were evident, and the child appeared to be well-fed and clothed.

The residence was clean and all family members seemed very surprised at the allegations. Police obtained the child's physician's name for possible further investigation but were satisfied with their findings. No further action was necessary.

The complainant heard the offender walking through the hallway and then opening and closing a file cabinet drawer in an office.

The complainant entered the office and confronted the suspect who said he was in the building to use the phone. The offender walked out of the office toward the door he had entered but turned around and exited through the doorway's front door when the complainant alerted workmen to stop the offender when he passed them.

The file cabinet contained the church's checks, but none was found to be missing. No one else in the building saw the offender.

Ballard therapy aide receives certification

Chicago resident Cindy Gonzalez has attained certification as an occupational therapy assistant (COTA), and has been promoted to a higher post within the rehabilitation department at Ballard, a healthcare residence in Des Plaines, announced Dolores Kadow, Ballard's director of rehabilitative therapy services.

Gonzalez had been employed by Ballard's rehabilitation department as an occupational, physical, and language therapy aide for eight years.

"As a COTA, Cindy assists in the evaluation of patient's occupational therapy needs and assesses their level of function for the activities of daily living, such as dressing, bathing and maneuvering in the kitchen," said Kadow.

Gonzalez completed her certification at Wright College in Chicago, where she attended classes on a part-time basis for four years. Ballard assisted Gonzalez financially by funding a portion of her schooling through the cooperative education program which was designed for employees who are furthering their education. "The Ballard family has been very supportive of me while I was finishing my education," said Gonzalez. "They not only paid for a portion of my schooling, but they were very flexible in my work schedule."

Many Retirees Face Financial Disaster! By Robert C. Copeland E.A.

Many retirees face a 100% chance of financial ruin. How? They must bear the cost of long term nursing home care if they, or a loved one, require such care. The Government can, and will force you to use your CD's, house, Social Security pension checks, investments, IRA's and just about everything else of value to pay for long term care.

The greatest myth is that Medicare will pay for long term care, this is absolutely and totally WRONG. Medicare is a health insurance program, not a long term care program. The other myth is that Medicaid will pay for such care. This is true, but not until you have exhausted nearly ALL of your own assets to pay for such care. Medicaid steps in only after you are basically BROKE.

The national average cost for long term care is $40,000 per year. How long will your assets last at that rate? Nobody wants to see their life savings evaporate before their eyes, but it is happening every day. Can you do anything to prevent this tragedy? Yes, but 99 out of every 100 people don't know what to do. (This includes many legal and financial professionals). As a result nothing is done. People start asking questions after it's too late.

You deserve the peace of mind and security that protecting your assets from Medicaid achieves.

You can learn much of what you need to know by getting a FREE copy of a new report called "How To Preserve Your Assets From The Federal Government And The Medicaid Gang."

You can obtain your copy of the report by calling (312) 631-2220. This number can be called anytime as it is available 24 hours a day. Time is critical when dealing with this subject. Don't delay calling for your report.

Senior Vacation Classic Tourney winner

Dan Burns defeated Mike Rola in a roll-off to win the 1996 Vacation Senior Classic. He was 68 pins over his average. He bowls in the Wednesday Morning Owls League. Brunswick Niles Bowl has run the tournament for over 8 years and has had 4 Regional Center winners.

Niles Bowl competes with 10-12 other centers. The senior bowler with the most pins over wins a trip for two. The final results will not be official until late May. Great bowling Dan and good luck.

It doesn't make sense to work hard all your life and then give your savings to someone else!

Forest Villa resident celebrates 105th birthday

Resident Karen Brickland was all smiles celebrating her 105th birthday with family members, staff, co-residents and of course the children from Our Lady of Victory. The children sang several songs while Karen sat and enjoyed every moment. When it was time to blow out the candles, she made it on the first try. Of course it wasn't 105 candles, only 5. Everyone present wished her the best as she continued to enjoy the activities.

Edward Jones: Diversify retirement plan distributions

Many investors take the time to carefully diversify their investments. They study the economy and markets, evaluate their investment objectives and work with a professional to make sure their assets are properly allocated among cash, stocks, bonds, mutual funds and other investments. But while they gingerly place their eggs among these various baskets, some people completely forget about one of the most important baskets of all: their retirement money.

Often, investors in their working years place retirement funds entirely in their employers' corporate stock. When they retire or move to another job, they leave all those funds invested in that one stock. This could prove unwise.

Some years ago, an employee began preparing for retirement. He invested all of his retirement dollars in his company's stock through an employee stock purchase plan. It seemed like a good idea while he was building his retirement fund; the company was sound, and the terms under which he purchased the stock were favorable.

At retirement, however, the man realized that his nest egg was overexposed to the risk of the company's future performance.

He decided to exercise his option to liquidate the stock and diversify the proceeds. However, before this happened, the company became involved in a takeover, and the market value of the stock collapsed. The man's retirement "basket" was suddenly a lot lighter.

If you're in a position to receive a lump-sum distribution from your employer's retirement plan, it's important to diversify. Diversifying means spreading your dollars among a variety of investments. Leaving all the money in your employer's stock may be easier, but it's not necessarily a good idea. If the company cuts its dividend or its stock falls in value (as in the example), your entire nest egg will be affected.

With your money in a variety of investments, on the other hand, negative performance from one investment will hurt only part of your portfolio. Better yet, there's a chance that positive performance from your other investments could outweigh a downturn in any one investment.

A simple way to achieve diversification is to roll your retirement account directly into an IRA invested in mutual funds. For larger accounts, another option is self-directed IRA, which allows you to combine a wide range of investments in one account.

Completing a direct rollover is simple. Just open an IRA with the broker or financial organization of your choice.

Rather than opening an IRA, however, some people choose to take all or part of their lump-sum distributions in cash. If you decide to do this, you'll pay ordinary income taxes. Additionally, if you're under age 55 when you retire, you may also owe a 10 percent penalty.

"Silver Images Film Festival"

at North Shore Hotel

A special event held during the prestigious third annual "Silver Images Film Festival" will be presented at the North Shore Retirement Hotel, 1611 Chicago Ave., Evanston, on Friday, May 17 from 6 to 9 p.m. Three unique videos highlighting the issues of older women will be shown by Terra Nova Films, sponsor of the Festival.

The first, "Mayarton: Writing in the Upward Years," is a film about the late writer and poet which reflects on her life and art. It combines a poetry reading done when she was 77 years old with her many other observations about growing old.

The second, "Quilted by Hand" is a short, animated portrait of the filmmaker's grandmother. A charming and moving vision of one way the generations connect, it is a powerful reminder of the importance of legacy and heritage.

"Curatin Call," the main feature of the OWL Benefit, is a documentary which tells the true story of two concerned daughters, (one the filmmaker) and a widowed mother, a 78 year old stroke victim. The mother, a long-time actress, is determined to preserve her independence following the stroke. The daughters believe she needs their help.

OWL is the first grassroots membership organization to focus exclusively on the concerns of midlife and older women. It works on a national level for policy changes to reduce the inequities faced by older women and provide educational resources for members.

Tickets for the benefit are $10. Other screenings and special

Nolan seeks re-election to FOP Post

Bill Nolan, president of the Fraternal Order of Police, Chicago Lodge #7, remembers the "good old days" just like our elders. However, he views those days through the eyes of a policeman. Of course, it's not hard for him to do, considering that he has been a Chicago Police Officer for over 30 years.

President Nolan is a man on a mission. He states, forcefully, "My concern is for the rank and file officer out on the street, to see that they are treated with respect." Throughout his 36 years (to be exact) as a policeman, he has fought many battles to ensure that.

As a charter member of the F.O.P., which received its charter in 1963, he has played an active role in fighting for the rights of police officers.

In 1981, he was part of the negotiating team that won police officers their first union contract with the city. Since then he has never looked back.

His legislative groundwork in Springfield has led to gaining the support of the Illinois Legislature to increase pension benefits. Guaranteeing raises in benefits to disabled officers, retired officers and on widows' annuities, also needed the support of the Illinois Legislature. Many of the senators and representatives will tell you that President Nolan has become

The Niles Senior Men's Class, "Fitness For Fun," is concluding their spring term with a celebration at Nancy's Pizza Parlor, Thursday, May 23, honoring Paul Greco, who is being inducted into the Octogenarian Club (80 years old). Paul is the sixth senior in the class to reach this goal in the class of 42 men, who have been participating in Bill Zimmerman's Exercise Health Program for the past 14 years.

During this spring term, the entire group of 42 men, have been concentrating on the goal of walking 715 miles to the summer Olympics, being held in Atlanta, Georgia, July, 1996. The course was plotted and posted in the gymnasium and as the men walked biweekly, they logged the miles they walked. As of

Lauds Niles Park Ice Show

Dear Editor:

We recently moved to Niles and attended our first ice show Saturday night after reading about it in your paper. I hope the people in this town realize how lucky they are to have this, as it was nearly as professional as a Disney show and the price was very reasonable.

We were amazed at how young some of the soloists are and what good skaters they are. The witches especially were very pretty and wonderful actresses and skaters. The costumes are gorgeous and to think parents and volunteers made them! It was a cute story.

We did feel the second half

Volunteer recommended

Dear Editor:

I would like to commend Tri-Media Publications, Inc. of Skokie and its president, Neal Siegel, for their excellence in giving back to the community by encouraging their employees to use part of their day to do volunteer work. Fran Horvath of Tri-Media is always a cheerful and enthusiastic volunteer as she restocks and organizes our food pantry shelves. We are very appreciative of the time and energy she expends on behalf of needy families and we encourage other companies in the Niles Township area to adopt such a program.

Thanks for Joz support

Dear Editor:

The following is a statement concerning the decision of the Niles Park District keeping Jozwiak Park at its current location.

Dear residents' of the Niles Park District and the Village of Niles.

As President of the Niles Culver District 71 PTA, I would like to extend a warm thank you to all of our parents, children and other residents who saw the urgency to get involved in the fight against the elimination of Jozwiak Park.

As an organization we have an obligation to our children and our community to be involved in such important issues. We worked quickly and diligently to send a strong message. A message that rang loud and clear that we had a right as taxpaying citizens to be heard and have our opinions and needs made public.

If it wasn't for Mary Krueger and Jeannie Scheler pushing for public meetings to be heard in front of the Niles Park District Board, I fear the continuation of negotiations between the Park Board, the Village of Niles and Pontarelli Builders would have gone on without us knowing about this illegal transfer of property.

What is even more disappointing is that after a well planned petition drive to collect signatures to show the Niles Park District Board that a significant amount of residents wanted to put the issue to a referendum vote, our rights as citizens were obstructed. We were not allowed to file these petitions under normal filing procedures by the officers of the Park Board.

Please realize the reason the Park Commissioners stated in their motion that it was not in the best interest of the Niles Park District to swap or exchange properties with Jozwiak and the Park to be created by Pontarelli Builders, is that they could not do this legally without going to a voters' referendum. The Park District could not prove to the people that no additional cost would be incurred by the district. Knowing that not a single person we had talked to was in favor of the transfer, I'm sure they realized their chances of passing by majority vote were slim to none and they have lost.

Too often our rights as taxpayers have been overlooked. Although, we should be happy with the final decision, this land transfer never should have been an issue. Many hours, much time and hard energy were put forth by citizens to stop this transfer of property. I can not help but think that the way our local units of government operate in Niles, is to see how far they can go until someone catches them on a technicality or legality. I cannot stop imagining how many residents are not aware that the Park District would have continued negotiations if the citizens did not put forth this tremendous effort to stop the Park District.

Park Districts throughout the State of Illinois are protected by Illinois Park District Law not Municipal Law. The law that protected Jozwiak Park was treated as though the law did not exist.

Book discussion at Niles Library

A book discussion on the Angel Carver, by Rosanne Daryl Thomas, will be on Monday, May 27, 7 p.m. at the Niles Public Library.

Join a lively discussion of a wonderfully imaginative novel that's part tragedy, part comedy, and part fable. A Brooklyn shoemaker, abandoned by his wife forty years before, spends his evenings carving angels. When he meets a woman who wants to become Marilyn Monroe, the adventure begins that will change his life forever.

If you are interested in joining the book discussion group, call (847) 967-8554 and ask for Barb or Joanne. We will supply you with a copy of the book.

Residents are asked to come early to the supply of covers is limited. After the first one thousand covers are distributed, add-on covers are distributed, and "Put A Lid On It" covers will be available for purchase at a nominal price. Need an additional recycling bin? Recycling bins prefitted with a "Put A Lid On It" cover will also be offered.

Representatives from Caldwell Industries will be on hand to help and to answer any questions about their recycled product.

Pamela Rosina, Chairman of "Keep Des Plaines Beautiful" is expecting the largest turnout ever for this Community Cleanup Day. Adding the "Put A Lid On It" cover to your recycling bin is an excellent way to participate in this cleanup day year round. For more information, call Pamela Rosina at 319-5650 or just show up with your recycling bin at the Des Plaines Mall parking lot, between the hours of 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. on May 18.

"Life on the Mississippi River"

John Lynn presents "Life on the Mississippi River". Friday, May 17 at the Lincolnwood Public Library for the final offering in the Travel Through Time series. Lynn canoed all 2,300 miles of the "mighty" Mississippi from its source in Minnesota to the Gulf of Mexico to tell the story of the third longest river in the world, its course and character, its people and towns and general river life.

A walker and talker from central Illinois with a history degree from the University of Illinois, John Lynn now has 15 years of professional experience as a writer/lecturer and photographer with special interests in travel, history, nature and outdoor adventure.
