

From the Left Hand

by Bud Besser

For the next two weeks it's Michael Jordan time in Chicagoland; also, throughout America and throughout the world. He's become an international icon. Overseas, foreigners used to identify you with a "rat-tat-tat" and a shout of "Al Capone" when you told them you were from Chicago. Today, they blurt out "Michael Jordan" when you mention our fair city.

Last week in the San Diego Union Tribune a sports columnist named Trotter reported Michael was asking for $18 million a year for the Chicago Bulls. Eighteen million big ones for shooting a basketball through a eighteen-inch hoop. Is he worth it? You better believe he is. Eighteen plus many millions more. How about five billion? That would be more in line with his "market" value.

The sports columnist mentioned a Bulls stockholder, Lamar Hunt, paid $66,000 for a 11% interest in the Bulls ten years ago. He reported Hunt's interest is now worth $30 million. Since Hunt compounded his profit during Michael Jordan time here in Chicago, I think Hunt should

Niles remembers United States veterans

The Village of Niles is making great efforts to honor U.S. Veterans, and POW-MIA soldiers, that valiantly served their country during times of war. Several steps have been taken to insure that all residents remember veterans, and the many ways they have served this nation, this state, and this community.

The first step was taken by the Village Board who declared Friday and Saturday, June 21 and 22, as "Veterans of Foreign Wars Days" in Niles. This recognition is being given to honor VFW Memorial Post 7712, and its veterans that served from the time of World War II, Korea, Vietnam, and Desert Storm. The VFW was originally founded on June 22, 1946 and is celebrating 50 years of service in the Armed Forces.

"These veterans dedicated themselves to serving their country and deserve to be honored for their service," says Mayor Nicholas B. Blase.

A new POW-MIA flag has been honored at the Village of Niles Trident Center, 8060 Oakton Street. A flag had been flying there previously, but it was destroyed by weather conditions. This new flag will help to commemorate the 10 year anniversary of the "Welcome Home Parade" in Chicago, on June 13.

Madura repeats Trident Spelling Bee victory

For the second successive year Leo Madura outspelled his opponents in the Third Annual Trident Senior Center Spelling Bee.

Madura and five other contestants gathered at the Trident on Wednesday, May 29. After several rounds Madura claimed victory when he spelled the word "hyperglycemia." He will now go on to the Regional Spelling Finals which will be held July 31 at the Berwyn-Cicero Council on Aging. Runner-up Celine Tymczuk will also attend the Regional Finals with Madura.

Other contestants at the Trident included Evelyn Wielgus, Betty Kennitz, Irene Forte, and Florence Metler.

Chairing the spelling bee was Dr. Robert Varga, superintendent of School District 63 and judges included Judy Felcher of the Niles Library, Kathy Bannette of the Village of Niles and Diane Miller of The Bugle Newspapers.

Admiral Oasis, homes to be razed for project

Morton Grove plans set for Waukegan Rd. revamping

By Rosemary Tirio

All systems seem to go for Morton Grove's proposed redevelopment project at the north end of Waukegan Road.

Aside from concerns over traffic issues, few complaints were voiced by residents who attended a May 21 public hearing on the project, which will be financed by a tax increment financing (TIF) district created by the village last year.

The TIF plan calls for complete redevelopment of the site occupied by the Admiral Oasis Motel and three homes that will be razed for the project.

Several residents at the meeting said they welcome the redevelopment because it will rid the area of the motel. "I wish you could start tomorrow," one resident said.

The Skokie-based Taxman Corporation proposed the first project in the redevelopment plan which calls for a 13,500-square-foot retail store, probably a drug store, at the south end of the site which runs between Beckwith Road on the south and Lyons Avenue on the north. Continued on Page 30

Manager retrieves stolen lawn mower

by Rosemary Tirio

In another case of alert civilians acting quickly to report crimes and apprehend perpetrators, the 34-year-old manager of the home improvement store at 901 Civic Center did not hesitate when a customer alerted him to a theft occurring in front of the store around 8 p.m. June 2.

The manager went out and found two male subjects loading a Lawn Boy lawn mower valued at $344 into the trunk of the Chevrolet Caprice they were driving. The subjects fled southbound on Waukegan Road.

The manager gave chase in his own car, catching up to the offenders when they stopped at a traffic light at Milwaukee and Touhy Avenues. The manager noticed the lawn mower in the trunk of the car. He exited his vehicle and asked the driver if he had a receipt for the lawn mower. The driver ignored the him and laughed when the manager warned the offenders that he

When hearing aids are not enough

Do you hear sound but not understand what people say, or have difficulty understanding the radio, television or telephone, even with the strongest or most advanced hearing aids? If so, you are not alone.

A new brochure, When Hearing Aids Are Not Enough, offers information about cochlear implants, surgically implanted devices that bypass damaged parts of the inner ear, which may enable recipients to receive sound information useful in understanding speech. Cochlear implants are a proven medical option designed to help people communicate more easily, interact more comfortably with others and take advantage of educational, occupational and social opportunities that might otherwise be missed.

Previously available only for the profoundly deaf, the Nucleus 22 Channel Cochlear Implant was recently released for a broader range of people, adults with severe-to-profound hearing loss and limited benefit from hearing aids.

Could you or someone you know be a candidate for a cochlear implant? Call (800) 458-4999 (VOICE) or (800) 483-3123 (TDD) for a copy of the free brochure, When Hearing Aids Are Not Enough. Knowledgeable hotline staff can also direct you to an experienced cochlear implant center in your area. The hotline operates weekdays, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Eastern time.

Regency celebrates National Nursing Home Week

Mayor Nicholas Blase of Niles proclaimed May 12-18 as National Nursing Home Week in the Village of Niles at the 20th Anniversary Celebration of Regency Health Centre on Monday, May 13 at Regency-Nursing Centre.

The mayor issued a proclamation encouraging the citizens of Niles and the greater Chicago-land area, to visit nursing home facilities and learn more about the quality and variety of long-term care services that are available.

"It is time for the community, the state and the country to recognize the importance of nursing homes in our country," said

Blase. "The reform of America's health care system is a major concern for nursing facility residents, their families, and staff, and the American people in general."

The mayor additionally urged all citizens in Niles to support the quality of life in nursing home facilities and to learn more about long-term care in Niles and across the nation.

"Benjamin Rogow, Regency president," said Blase has "accomplished more than any other man in the field of health care" through various ordinances which later were adopted by the state and other localities.

"Regency Health Centre is a full service health care provider that has been providing services for the past 20 years," says Linda Dickson, Regency's Director of Public Relations. "Regency offers a complete continuum of care ranging from a 300-bed skilled nursing home with a specialized Alzheimer's and Parkinson's Unit, Home Health Services, Outpatient Rehabilitation Services to an Adult Day Care Center."

LGH vascular laboratory accredited

The vascular laboratory of Lutheran General Hospital was among the first 581 vascular laboratories in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico to receive three-year accreditation by the Intersocial Commission for the Accreditation of Vascular Laboratories (ICAVL).

The voluntary accreditation process signifies Lutheran General's commitment to quality testing for diagnoses of vascular disease.

The ultrasound technology used to provide noninvasive testing of blood vessels focused on the carotid artery, venous imagery and arterial studies. Each procedure is videotaped, documented in writing and photographed. Extensive patient follow-up includes angiograms and studies to determine the level of disease. All the vascular lab procedures are completely noninvasive.

One American dies every 32 seconds of cardiovascular disease.

Entrepreneur of the Year® competition

Two north suburban business leaders have been named finalists in Ernest & Young's 1996 Illinois/Northwest Indiana Entrepreneur Of The Year® awards competition. The finalists were announced by Mark R. Williams, director of entrepreneurial services in the Chicago and Schaumburg offices of professional services firm Ernest & Young LLP, the originator of the program.

North suburban finalists, selected by a distinguished panel of independent judges, include: Michael Low, Vice President, Plextel Telecommunications, Evanston and Lou Weisbach, President & CEO, HA-LO Industries, Inc., Niles. Low is a finalist in the Emerging Entrepreneur Of The Year category for those companies in business less than five years, while Weisbach is competing in the Retail/Wholesale group.

From these finalists, the Entrepreneur Of The Year award recipients will be chosen, announced and honored at the annual Illinois/Northwest Indiana awards banquet on Friday evening, June 14 at the Fairmont Hotel in downtown Chicago.

Second quarter-tax payment due

The Internal Revenue Service reminds people who make estimated tax payments that the second installment for 1996 is due Monday, June 17.

The payment should be sent to the IRS along with the second quarter payment voucher from Form 1040ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. To make sure the payment is properly credited to your account, the IRS asks that you write your social security number and the words "1996 Form 1040ES" on the check.

If you expect to owe $500 or more in federal tax at the end of the year, you probably should be making quarterly estimated tax payments, the IRS says. Although retirees and business people are most often affected by this requirement, it can potentially apply to anyone who receives income not subject to withholding, such as unemployment benefits, capital gains, interest, dividends, and rental income.

If you're not sure how much you'll make this year, the IRS says you can usually base your quarterly payments on 1995's total tax. Under this method, each quarterly payment must be at least one fourth of the total tax shown on your 1995 return. This method can be used by people whose 1995 adjusted gross incomes were $150,000 or less. Those with higher incomes can base their quarterly payments on 110% of their 1995 tax liability. Publication 505 has more information on figuring estimated tax payments correctly. To get a free copy of this booklet or the 1040ES form, call the IRS toll-free at 1-800-TAX-FORM (829-3676).

Threats

A 36-year-old fork lift operator from Chicago told police that he has been threatened and harassed to quit his job at a caster company in the 7500 block of Caldwell Avenue numerous times over the last three weeks by a fellow employee.

The victim said he reported the incidents to the management of the company, but nothing has been done.

A 33-year-old Niles resident reported that her 12-year-old daughter has been threatened several times by a 12-year-old male classmate who claims to be a gang member.

The mother asked for a follow-up investigation to put an end to the situation, which has been ongoing for some time.

Theft

The 47-year-old manager of a photo store in the 8500 block of Golf Road reported June 1 that sometime between Jan. 1 and May 7 someone removed a bag containing a photo back drop valued at $400.

The manager said she has not seen the bag in six months and does not know when it was taken. She suspects that a former employee whose job was terminated May 7 for removing items from the store may have taken the bag.

A 22-year-old employee of a pool store in the 9100 block of Milwaukee Avenue reported that an unknown man and woman in their 40s driving a late model Chevrolet Blazer became agitated when they had to wait for a part they had ordered around 4:45 p.m. June 2.

The couple went out of the store to the service department and took a one horsepower black and white motor pump valued at $175 and placed it into the car, which was last seen driving southbound on Milwaukee Avenue.

A check of the license plate number traced the vehicle to a Franklin Park address, but police were unable to contact the registered owner because the phone number was non-published.

The security agent of a business in the 5900 block of Howard Street reported that unknown person(s) removed a payroll check for $327.28 around 1:25 p.m. May 28. The check was cashed by a currency exchange in the 1700 block of Simpson Street in Evanston by an unknown person.

Paramedics assist

A 21-year-old industrial worker from Chicago sustained a deep laceration to his left forearm when he lost control of the hand grinder he was operating in the doors section of a company in the 6400 block of Howard Street around 4:15 p.m. May 28. The victim was transported to St. Francis Hospital for treatment of the injury.

Criminal damage to auto

A 53-year-old teacher reported that unknown offender(s) keyed the left side of her 1993 Mercury Sable while it was left in a parking lot behind the 8000 block of Lyons Street sometime between 9 p.m. May 27 and 7 a.m. May 28. Damage was estimated at $400.

Burglary to auto

The 39-year-old head bartender of a banquet hall in the 6800 block of Milwaukee Avenue reported that he found the passenger window of his 1995 Chrysler Concord LXI smashed and a car phone and black brief case missing when he returned to his car in the parking lot after working in the banquet hall from 3 p.m. to 9:40 p.m. June 1.

Stolen motorcycle

A 25-year-old Glenview man reported that his 1995 Suzuki GSX-R 750 motorcycle was removed from the parking space where he left it in the lot at 575 Golf Mill outside the #4 entrance between 5:30 p.m. and 6:06 p.m. June 2.

Police drove the victim around the parking lot with negative results in locating the motorcycle.

Sheriff issues appeal to citizens

Responding to the increasing number of people wanting to assist law enforcement officials and build a stronger partnership in the fight against crime, Sheriff Michael Sheahan today announced that Cook County citizens are being invited to become Associate Members of the Illinois Sheriffs' Association.

Membership appeals go out in the mail this week. Individuals choosing to join the voluntary program can do so for as little as $25, while businesses can show their support with a $50 contribution. The funding provides critically important technical resources, training, and legislative support on key criminal justice issues.

In addition, dues will be used to support crime prevention and awareness programs...promote programs for senior citizens...support the Association's college scholarship fund and teenage substance abuse institute, and Explorer Scouts.

Contributions are tax-deductible. "With government funding becoming increasingly difficult to secure, the Associate Citizen Membership drive has taken on greater importance than ever before," said Sheriff Sheahan. "The funding is vital to helping us carry out our mission of making our communities a safer place to live, work and play." Individuals not receiving a membership appeal or desiring more information can obtain it by contacting the Illinois Sheriffs' Association at: P.O. Box 263, Sherman, IL 62684.

Meanwhile, residents wishing to become Associate Citizen Members can also sign up for the program by contacting the sheriff's office.

The Associate Membership Program was begun to provide citizens with an opportunity to lend their support to more effective law enforcement and to better help local sheriffs protect the lives and property of citizens.

"As the need for building stronger public-private law enforcement partnerships in this country continues to escalate, programs such as this continue to grow in importance," said Sheriff Sheahan. "I encourage everyone receiving a membership appeal to consider joining forces with us by becoming an Associate Member. It's a valuable investment in our future."

Founded in 1928, the Illinois Sheriffs' Association is a non-profit, professional and educational organization dedicated to the preservation of peace and the protection of the lives and property of the citizens of Illinois. Greg Sullivan serves as Executive Director.

Smoke detectors, a sound for life

Each year over 5,000 people die in their homes. The killer, Smoke. Smoke that is generated from a fire. You increase your chances of surviving a home fire by 50% with properly installed and maintained smoke detectors.

Most fatal home fires occur between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. when most of us are sleeping. A working smoke detector is so vital to your survival in a home fire. It senses the smoke during the early stages of a fire and sounds a warning while escape is still possible. Questions have arisen in regard to smoke detectors, and we, the North Maine Fire Department, hope to answer some of these questions.

* How many of these smoke detectors should I have?
The average sized home or apartment needs more than one smoke detector. The exact number depends on the number of levels in the home and the number of bedrooms. The National fire safety standards recommend a minimum of one detector on each level of the home, one detector outside the bedroom area should be installed near enough that it can be heard through the bedroom door.

* Is there more than one type of smoke detector, and what is the difference?
There are three types of smoke detectors for homes. One type is called an ionization detector because it monitors "ions," or electrically charged particles. Smoke particles entering the sensing chamber change the electrical balance of the air. The detectors horn will sound when the change in electrical balance reaches a preset level.

Type two: detector is called photoelectric because its sensing chambers uses a beam of light and a light sensor. The detector sounds when the smoke density reaches a preset level.

Type three is a combination of both ionization and photoelectric. This detector contains sensors that detect light or heavy smoke particles and sounds a warning. This detector is the best for all household areas.

* Is one type better than the other?
The ionization detector responds faster to small smoke particles, while the photoelectric responds faster to large smoke particles, the combination smoke detector will respond to small or large particles of smoke. As a rule of thumb, fast-flaming fires produce more small smoke particles and smoldering fires produce more large particles.

Thus, the response time of the two types of detectors will vary, depending on the mix of small and large smoke particles in the fire, the combination detector will detect the fire no matter the size of smoke particles. But test results show that the differences in response time are small enough that all types provide enough time to escape.

* What is more important, the type of detector or the number?
The number of detectors is more important than the type. Since all types respond in time to escape, the most important thing is to install enough detectors in the proper locations. Detectors that are available with both types of sensors in the same unit will respond in the same time span no matter the size of smoke particles, this is due to use of both types of sensors in one unit, but they are more expensive than the models with a single sensor. If the choice is between having only one of each type or having more of the same type, more detectors is the better choice.

Batteries should be changed twice a year, we recommend when you change your clock that you change your battery. If your smoke detector is ten years old or older, it should be replaced. If you have any questions, feel free to contact the North Maine Fire Prevention Bureau at (847) 297-5020.

NTJC Open House

On Friday night, June 7 at 7 p.m., Niles Township Jewish Congregation, 4500 Dempster St., will host a Prospective Member Open House. Families are invited to enjoy the Erev Shabbat Family Hassidic Service which will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat featuring an ice cream buffet. Visitors will be invited to join a tour of the synagogue facilities, talk with the Educational Directors, Mrs. Trudy Brodsky (Religious School Director) and Mrs. Betsy Rotberg (Early Childhood Director), as well as members of the Sisterhood and Men's Club.

Rabbi Neil Brief and Hazzan Shlomo Shuster will be on hand to explain how, as a Conservative and Reconstructionist Congregation they are capable of serving the entire family from tots to seniors. For further information about this event, call the synagogue office at 675-4141.

Volunteer tutors retire from Mark Twain

Mark Twain School will miss the volunteer services of Ms. Terese K. Conway and Ms. Toby Cherney of Oakton Community College. Ms. Conway and Ms. Cherney have provided reading tutoring services to our first and second graders for the 1994-95 and 1995-96 school years. Their willingness to share their time and talents with the students of Mark Twain School demonstrates their commitment to the importance of reading. Both women will be recognized at the June 11 meeting of the East Maine School District 63 School Board. This meeting will be held at 7:30 at DCSESC, 10150 Dee Road in Des Plaines.

There are all kinds of boxes in which to hide your valuables but the only really safe one is our safe deposit box.
