Buglebits.....

Princess Di came down the pike a week ago Tuesday. We had just left the office and were heading west on Dempster Street when we saw Harlem Avenue blocked off by Niles police cars. To the west, three helicopters were flying overhead. We pulled into Kappy's Restaurant's parking lot and asked a young man standing by the curb what was going on. He said, "Di, the Princess of Wales, was being driven east on Dempster Street." A couple of minutes later a police escort of Chicago, County and Niles police cars, surrounding a Rolls Royce, sped east down Dempster Street, heading for Northwestern University.

How times have changed. In 1924, King George V was supposed to disembark from a Lake Michigan boat in the basin in front of Buckingham Fountain. Chicago Mayor Bill Thompson obviously wasn't too fond of Britishers and particularly the Royal family. He said if the King came to Chicago he'd hit him in the snoot. We're sure if the pretty Princess stopped in our towns Mayors Blase and Hohns would have welcomed her with graciousness and clan.

We stopped by Niles West's baseball field last Wednesday to watch two of Illinois' best high school teams, Oak Park and Lyons, play for the right to compete

Maine school districts hold joint meeting

By Rosemary Tirio

In an unprecedented move to join forces with feeder elementary school boards, Maine Township High School District 207 held its first-ever joint board meeting with school districts 62, 63, 64 and 79.

The group of approximately 50 school officials representing the various districts broke up into small groups to discuss a variety of topics.

Culver crossing moved to Library driveway

By Rosemary Tirio

Fourteen parents of Culver Middle School students were willing to fight City Hall for their children's safety, and Mayor Nicholas Blase was willing to help them.

The parents, who attended the May 29 Village Board meeting expressed concern with District 71's conceding to the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) plan to move the current school crosswalk and traffic signal from New England Avenue two blocks west to the Civic Center Plaza.

The parents, especially those who live north of Oakton Street, were concerned that the children would be unwilling to walk two blocks out of their way to cross at the new signal at the Civic Center and then two blocks back east to the school entrance.

The parents feared the children.

Fees set at Air Station golf course

An amazingly simple and clear-cut fee schedule has been worked out by the several agencies involved with the new Glenview Naval Air Station golf course.

The National Park Service, the Glenview Park District and the Golf Course Consortium, an umbrella group including the Niles, Morton Grove, Park Ridge and Des Plaines park districts, came up with the agreement after months of negotiating.

If no more land is needed to complete the golf complex, all golfers will pay the same greens fees, pro shop charges and rentals fees, driving range, membership and food and beverage fees.

Niles, Morton Grove and Skokie critical of District 219's position

Local mayors support Lincolnwood TIF plan

By Rosemary Tirio

Despite its seeming silence when Niles, Morton Grove and Skokie created Tax Increment Financing Districts (TIF) redevelopment zones, the District 219 School Board drew the line when Lincolnwood proposed a similar district.

District 219, represented by Board member Joe Monahan, withheld its approval when the seven-member joint review board voted on the Lincolnwood Northeast Industrial TIF District.

The other bodies represented on the review board, the Village of Lincolnwood, the Lincolnwood Public Library, Elementary School District 74, Oakton Community College and the Cook County Economic Development Office along with Public Member David Chaikenall—all voted in favor of the issue and the ordinance creating the TIF was passed at the Village Board meeting June 6.

District 219 officials fear the possible loss of $900,000 in revenue during the 23-year life of the Lincolnwood TIF.

Timothy Clarke, Lincolnwood Economic Development Director, said, "Their [District 219 officials'] definition of loss and our definition of loss are different. We can't see how they're going to lose a penny."

Clarke explained that creating the TIF, which is targeted at economic revitalization and blight eradication, will cause the value of real estate to rise, and the taxes collected to rise accordingly. The tax rate in the designated area will be frozen, but the tax revenue will be increased.

The additional taxes collected above the frozen level will be placed in a special municipal fund that will finance the improvements in the TIF district.

Woman loses $2,300 in pigeon drop

by Rosemary Tirio

As sure as the swallows return each year to Capistrano, the pigeons and their con-artist predators have returned to the Niles area.

A 33-year-old Chicago woman was the victim of a "pigeon drop" scam June 3 when she was approached by a woman in her mid-to late-30s at 400 Golf Mill.

The woman showed the victim a cardboard box with a partial address written on top, which she said fell out of a car driven by an Arabian or Iranian man. The woman told the victim she was trying to figure out how to return the box to the man and asked the victim if she was familiar with the address.

The victim told the woman she thought it was a bogus address. The offender kept walking with and talking to the victim until they were outside the mall where the offender opened the

Theft

The 41-year-old manager of a jewelry store at 239 Golf Mill reported a witness informed him that a man weighing about 150 pounds, about 5'4" tall and wearing a black shirt with the number 6 on the back lifted the glass top of a display case and removed a tray of gold colored chains valued at $550 while the employee was busy taking care of another customer. The offender fled southbound from the mall.

The loss prevention agent of the grocery store at 801 Civic Center observed a 25-year-old Skokie man enter the store around 2:50 p.m. May 30 and conceal 17 video tapes valued at $217.51 under his shirt and jacket. When the offender left the store through the northeast exit, the agent stopped him and detained him until police arrived. The offender was transported to the Niles Police Department where he made a verbal admission of the theft and told police he stole the tapes because he had little money and had to feed his daughter.

Burglary to vehicle

A 27-year-old waitress from Park Ridge reported that she left her purse on the floor of her 1991 Toyota Tercel while she shopped in the retail store in the 8500 block of Golf Road between 8:55 p.m. and 9:20 p.m. June 4. When she returned, she found the purse, which contained $20 cash, a Gucci wallet and make-up pouch, had been removed. No damage was done to the vehicle.

Aggravated battery

A 17-year-old youth living in the 7800 block of Nordica Ave. and his 21-year-old neighbor who have had an ongoing dispute for the past two months became involved in a verbal dispute that led to a shoving match around 9:10 p.m. June 3.

When the 21-year-old man received a scratch under his left eye, he took a baseball bat from the rear of his girlfriend's car and struck the victim in the head. He also tried to strike a 17-year-old Rolling Meadows youth who witnessed the incident, but missed and hit the ground.

The offender and his girlfriend fled the scene. The victim was transported to Lutheran General Hospital where he provided police with identifying information of his attacker.

At 9:55 p.m. police observed the offender in the passenger seat of a pick-up truck traveling eastbound on Oakton Street from Nordica Avenue. Police made a traffic stop and took the offender into custody despite attempts by the girlfriend to obstruct the officers.

The offender was charged with aggravated battery. The girlfriend was released without charge.

A 40-year-old teacher in the school in the 8200 block of Harrison reported that a 17-year-old Glenview student attacked him from the rear biting him on the back and breaking the skin after a verbal argument around 1:10 p.m. June 6.

The teacher refused medical treatment and made the report as a matter of record.

Neighbor dispute

A 39-year-old man employee of the Skokie Public Works department residing in the 6800 block of Madison reported that his 76-year-old neighbor, armed with a shotgun, was pounding on his side door and threatening to kill his dog, which the neighbor alleged had been barking while left in the complainant's fenced yard before it was let back inside the house.

Police spoke with the offender's son who told them that he knew his father had a gun but he did not think his father had been out of the house because of failing health.

Police found a loaded 12 gauge shotgun in the offender's bedroom, which they confiscated when the offender was unable to produce an Illinois Firearm Owner's card. They advised the offender to call police if he had further problems with his neighbor.

The complainant did not wish to press charges but was satisfied that the shotgun had been confiscated. No other firearms were found in the home.

Stolen purse

A 27-year-old Chicago woman reported that an unknown person or persons removed her purse from her shopping cart in the grocery store in the 7900 block of Milwaukee Avenue sometime between 8:51 p.m. and 9:04 p.m. June 4.

The victim said she could not recall anyone distracting her or seeing anyone near her cart. The purse contained $250 cash, a $50 gift certificate and various credit cards.

Lost wallet

A 40-year-old Illinois State police officer residing in Chicago reported that he placed his wallet on the roof of his car while loading goods and then drove off forgetting about the wallet.

When he returned he was unable to find the wallet which contained his driver's license, bank cards and various credit cards.

Fly dumping

A 37-year-old employee of a manufacturing company in the 5700 block of Jarvis Street got the license plate number of a red Ford pick-up truck driven by a mustached man around 30 years of age who deposited several garbage bags into a dumpster on the east side of the building.

Police were unable to reach the suspect because there was no phone number listed with the subject's address.

Injured animal

Police responded to a report of a deer impaled on a fence in the cemetery in the 6800 block of Milwaukee Avenue around 7:21 a.m. June 4.

Police found that the deer's right rear leg was severely ripped and used a 9 mm weapon to shoot the deer once in the head to put it out of its misery.

Mark Twain students and Sheriff's D.A.R.E. program

More than 75 students from Mark Twain School in Niles were recently awarded certificates of graduation for completing the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) program, according to the office of Cook County Sheriff Michael F. Sheahan.

The students participated in a 17-week anti-drug curriculum designed to equip them with the skills to resist peer pressure and the use of drugs. The program provides students with information of the dangers of drugs and alcohol and teaches them decision making skills by providing positive alternatives to drug or gang involvement.

D.A.R.E. is a successful, national program that is conducted locally by the Cook County Sheriff's Office. The program puts specially trained Sheriff's officers in the classroom to teach grade school children about the perils of drug use. "Law enforcement officials and educators must work together to convince children of the dangers of gangs and drugs," Sheriff Sheahan said. "By working closely in classrooms directly with students, our officers are making a tremendous impact."

The Sheriff's Office also offers D.A.R.E. sessions for parents. This five session program covers topics such as parenting skills, warning signs of drug use and factors that can lead to gang membership.

For more information about the Cook County Sheriff's D.A.R.E. program or for information on parent D.A.R.E. sessions, contact the Sheriff's Office of Preventive Programs at (708) 974-6772.

Sheriff honored for targeting gangs

Railroad crossing safety

Despite increased awareness of railroad crossing safety, hundreds of crashes occur each year due to careless motorists. In 1994, there were 35 fatalities and 100 injuries in railroad crossing accidents in Illinois. National Operation Lifesaver Day, held May 15, urged motorists to "look, listen and live" when approaching railroad crossings.

Q. What signs and or pavement markings warn motorists of a railroad crossing?

A. A round, yellow sign with a black X and the letters RR is located 750 feet before a crossing. The pavement may be marked with large X and two Rs, and a solid yellow line before the intersection indicates a no passing zone. White lines on each side of the tracks show motorists where to stop when a train is approaching. Many crossings also have flashing lights, ringing bells and large safety gates.

Q. What if I'm on the tracks when the gates begin to lower?

A. Never stop on the tracks. The warning signals allow you enough time to drive over the crossing before the train arrives. When following another vehicle, make sure there is room for you on the other side of the tracks before entering the crossing.

Q. What vehicles are required to stop at all railroad crossings?

A. Commercial vehicles for hire carrying people, school buses carrying children and vehicles carrying hazardous materials.

Q. After the train has passed, when is it safe to cross the tracks?

A. After all warning signals have stopped flashing and the gates are completely raised. Look and listen for a second train, and then proceed.

Call JULIE before you dig

Now that spring is in the air, homeowners' thoughts are turning to landscaping and home-improvement projects. Northern Illinois Gas reminds residents to call JULIE, Joint Utility Locating Information for Excavators, before they reach for the shovel. JULIE is a statewide, one-call system to notify Northern Illinois Gas and other participating utilities of any digging or excavating projects.

When you call the 24-hour JULIE hotline at 1-800-892-0123, Northern Illinois Gas will come to mark its underground facilities with yellow warning stakes, flags or paint. Other utilities will mark their facilities with a different color.

Call JULIE no more than two weeks, but at least 48 hours before you begin digging (not including Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays).

When you call, be prepared to give the following information:

- The county, city or township and section number where you will dig. (You can find this information on your property bill.)
 - The address and description of the excavation project.
 - The date and time you'll begin work.
 - Your name, telephone number, and address.
- The leading cause of damage to underground gas lines is caused by people who carelessly hit gas facilities during digging projects. Please take a few minutes to make the call.

Home Safety Tips from ComEd

More accidents happen at home than in seemingly more dangerous industrial surroundings. Generally speaking, a factory worker is more conscious of what is safe and unsafe. He or she is especially on guard in potentially dangerous areas. In addition, many hazards have been "engineered" out of the worker's environment.

However, potential electrical hazards exist in the bathroom of your home, where water, electric current and you or a member of your family might converge. Even though electric shavers, toothbrushes and the like are generally well-insulated, you should observe certain precautions. If one falls into the water while buzzing, don't fish it out. Dry your hands, then unplug it.

Portable hair dryers are also well-insulated, but they should never be used when bathing. If the dryer has a defect, your wet skin could set you up for a shock. Also, the hair dryer could fall into the tub and literally leave you in hot water.

Always keep your hair dryer away from wet floors, hands, washers and sinks.

Damp floors can be another danger area for electric shocks. If one part of your body is touching water while another part is in contact with electric current, your entire body can become a conductor when you're handling electrical appliances, flipping switches or plugging them into wall outlets.

Water and electricity both can flow. Make sure they don't flow together around you.

Gift Certificates ideal for dads, all golfers

Cook County Forest Preserve District Board President John Stroger suggests a gift idea for any occasion: the Forest Preserve's golf gift certificate. The Preserve's golf gift certificate can be redeemed at any of the Preserve's 10 golf courses and 3 driving ranges.

The Forest Preserve's gift certificates are sold in denominations of $20 and can be purchased during hours of operation at the Preserve's 10 golf courses and the Highland Woods (Hoffman Estates), George W. Dunne National (Oak Forest), and Harry H. Semrow (Des Plaines) driving ranges. The certificates are also available Monday-Friday, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., at the District's General Headquarters, 536 N. Harlem Ave., River Forest.

A golfer can use the gift certificate in a number of ways: to buy a Forest Preserve golf activity card, apply it towards greens fees, or use it for the driving range.

The activity card costs residents $20 and non-residents $50. It entitles golfers to daily discounts, from $3-$20 per round, green fees and additional savings for twilight, sunrise and senior/junior play during the entire 1996 District golf season.

The activity card also provides golfers with gas cart rental and advance reservation system privileges. Golfers can use their activity card to access the District's up to 7-day advance reservation system at (708) 366-9466. The card can also be used as a security deposit for golf cart rentals. The activity card can be obtained at the golf courses during designated days.

For additional information about the Preserve's gift certificates and 1996 program, contact the Department of Recreation at (708) 366-9420.

Golf Privilege Card

With Father's Day right around the corner, it's time to think about what to get dad. The Golf Privilege Card from the American Lung Association of Metropolitan Chicago (ALAMC) makes the perfect gift! The Golf Privilege Card gives card holders a $2,500 value for only $35.

The Golf Privilege Card entitles golfers to free or reduced green fees at popular courses and driving ranges throughout the state. The card is honored at more than 170 courses in Illinois. Among the Chicago area courses on the card are the Fresh Meadow Golf Course, Anets Golf Course, Winnetka Golf Club, Silverlake Country Club, Palatine Hills Golf Course, Deer Creek Golf Club, Rolling Meadows Golf Course and the Illinois Center Golf Course, which was selected as one of the Top 50 Golf Ranges in the United States by the Golf

Train lovers fantasy for Father's Day

Here's a unique Father's Day gift idea - especially if you've got a train lover in your family. Dad can be the engineer and drive a train at the Illinois Railway Museum and make a generous donation at the same time.

The "Take the Throttle" program is a fund raiser that will allow Dad to drive one of the museum trains for just $150 ($200 for non-members). For $400 ($500 for non-members) he can run an electric trolley, plus a steam and diesel locomotive. Participants must be at least 18 years of age and will be under the instruction and supervision of a qualified museum crewman.

Time slots are on Saturday and Sunday evenings after regular service through September. Space in the program is limited and advance reservations are essential. For information and registration write to "Take the Throttle," IRM, PO Box 427, Union, IL 60180.

The not-for-profit Illinois Railway Museum is located in Union at 7000 Olson Rd., six miles northwest of the US-20 Marengo exit of the I-90 Northwest Toll-way. For recorded information call (800) BIG-RAIL, or call (815) 923-4000.

'Lookin' Good!' program

The June "Take Time For Thursday" program at Prairie View Community Center, 6834 Dempster, will be a presentation by Robin Ashley of Avon. The program "Lookin' Good" will be June 20 at 1 p.m. Robin will give information on good skin and makeup that will make you feel and look years younger. Be ready for those summer parties and pictures.

The program is free, but reservations are required. Call Catherine Dean at (847) 965-1200 to save a space for "Lookin' Good!"

Fall Soccer Registration

The American Youth Soccer Organization of Morton Grove has added an extra fall soccer registration day on June 17 at the Prairie View Community Center. This registration will be held from 7-8 p.m. in the lobby area. For more details, call the AYSO Hotline at 965-7558.

Children's Reading Club

Take a trip this summer on a Ms. Frizzle's School Bus with Liz, Keesha, Brian, Arnold and the gang at the Morton Grove Public Library. Stops include inside the human body, in the time of the dinosaurs, into the future, at the Olympics and lost in the solar system. Win prizes when you report on books you've read. Jump on the bus Monday, June 17 when registration for "Reading Is a Magic Trip" begins.

The Morton Grove Public Library is located at 6140 Lincoln Ave. For more information, or for mobility and communication access assistance, call (847) 965-4220, TDD 965-4236.

in the final eight tournament for the state championship. Lyons upset favorite Oak Park but lost the next day in the quarterfinals. As always, we were impressed with how well the game was played. Many of these teenagers are good enough to play minor league baseball. The Lyons catcher hit a booming home run which hit the left field scoreboard 365 feet north of homeplate. *****

With all the hoopla surrounding the 1996 elections we read two quotes which should be kept in mind when you read the political ads for this year's candidates.

Charles Haddon Spurgeon said in the nineteenth century, "A lie travels around the world while truth is putting on her boots."

The famous German soldier, Karl von Clausewitz contended, "One of the striking differences between a cat and a lie is that a cat has only nine lives." *****

During the recent months we've been to two "1990s" weddings which are signs of our ever-changing world. In March we attended a wedding at the Hollywood Park gambling casino which is part of the racetrack complex near Los Angeles' LAX airport. The couple being married included a professional poker player and his wife-to-be, who was a manager at the casino. The young crowd included the beautiful young people and employees of the casino who were having one heluva good time. One young thing dressed to the nines, with a very low décolletage, was whirling around the dance floor when she fell out of her bodice. The video cameras were all over the place and the cameraman who caught this dislodging moment was the most sought-after guest at the wedding.

In April we attended a wedding in Yavna, Israel. In this rather desolate town there was a brand new building which housed the most elegant chandeliered-dining halls. More than 500 people attended the affair including fifty Yeshiva (religious school) boys. They took over the dance floor at the first downbeat and never left it all evening. Arm in arm, they whirled in a huge circle. When the orchestra finished its number they continued singing and dancing forcing the band to pick-up the music and continue to play. They carried the bride and groom on chairs above their heads as they danced in unison. They next picked up the Mother of the groom and carried her on a chair as they continued the circular dancing.

What was so "1990s" about this wedding? As the Mother whirled above the dancers, one guest thrust a cellular telephone in her hand and she received "congratulations" via a phone call from the United States. *****

We wonder who was the sage who said, "Life isn't about who dies with the most money." And who was the other wise man who observed, "I've never heard a man on his deathbed say, 'I wish I had spent more time at the office.'" *****

Under our Did You Know File, there are 684,000 physicians in the United States. In Florida and California some of them belong to unions. And most doctors' dads were Republicans and the doctors see themselves as bourgeois rather than as proletarian.

We read in the Wall Street Journal: Toys R Us sells 20% of the toy market. Wal Mart has captured 15% of that market. The average toy sells for $4. May 29, video-gambling was introduced on British Airways on their Boeing 747 planes.

On Friday, June 14 at 7 p.m., the Niles Park District will have the first of its teen pool parties at Oasis Water Park. Teens will keep busy by dancing the night away, swimming in relays and dance contests. Last year's teen nights drew over 150 teens to each party.

box, which was filled with what appeared to be a large amount of cash. A note in the box referred to unnamed "deliveries" and "payments" leading the victim to conclude the money was used in some type of illegal transaction. The note stated that there was approximately $30,000 in the box.

At that time a second female offender described as between 60 and 70 years of age approached the two and struck up a conversation with them. The first offender showed offender two the money, and they formulated a plan to divide the money among the three.

The victim told police that both offenders acted very friendly to her and convinced her to accompany them in a newer Lincoln Town Car driven by the second offender which was parked on the east side of the mall.

Offender one said she worked at a retail store at 590 Golf Mill and wanted to scan the money at the store to see if it was counterfeit. She returned to the car saying the money was genuine and then outlined a plan to divide the money involving an "investment" of personal money to be contributed by the victim and the second offender.

Offender two displayed what she said was $4,500 in cash and gave it to offender one. The victim offered to give her $500 rent money, but offender one said it was not enough and that the victim would not have "enough serial numbers for the transaction."

The offenders then drove the victim to the currency exchange at Milwaukee Avenue and Ballard Road where she cashed her income tax refund check for $1,882.30. She then gave the offenders approximately $2,300.

The group returned to the Golf Mill Shopping Center where offender one took the money into the store where she is allegedly employed. She returned several minutes later and instructed the victim to go to a restricted area in the store near the service area, knock on a door and wait for a short man to assist her. The victim was then to return to the car and the three would drive to an unnamed bank to divide the money.

The victim was unable to locate the door or the person described by the offender and returned to the parking lot where she discovered that the two offenders had left the scene.

The victim called Niles police who conducted a preliminary investigation. At the Niles Police Department the victim constructed an Identikit of the offenders and told police she will sign complaints. Further investigation is pending.

would cross Oakton at New England Avenue, the current crosswalk leading to the school entrance, without the guidance of a crossing guard, traffic signal or crosswalk stripes.

One of the parents, Bart McGuinn, said the officials who approved the moving of the crosswalk were looking for an accident to happen. McGuinn suggested moving the signal to New England Avenue or establishing the alley behind the library as a walkway for the children.

Blase directed Village Manager Abe Selman to set up a meeting with village officials, District 71 parents and IDOT officials.

Selman said a "good resolution" was worked out with IDOT and the Niles Public Library. A lighted sidewalk, protected from auto traffic by a two-to-three-foot concrete barrier, will be constructed in the library driveway ending at Oakton Street across from the Civic Center.

Auto traffic through the driveway will be northbound, and a traffic signal and crosswalk will be installed at the foot of the driveway leading into Oakton Street, Selman said. Mc Guinn also spearheaded a campaign among residents of Oakton Court who were concerned that the IDOT plan would encourage autos to use the area.

McGuinn also noted that the Culver Middle School will soon be converted to a kindergarten through eighth grade facility thereby increasing the number of young children who will be walking in the area.

tin Board idea a step further, District 62 Superintendent Robert Willis suggested expanding the idea to connect all the Maine Township schools via computer. He said he envisions a day in the not too distant future when students will be able to get their schoolwork through their television sets.

Other topics the groups discussed included joint health insurance, having older students mentor younger students in art and music, sharing specialists within the districts, opening schools after hours for community use, assisting adults in the community to learn English and teaching foreign languages as early as third or fourth grade.

A second joint meeting for superintendents and board presidents is planned for June.

"District 219 itself has been the recipient and beneficiary of our completed TIF initiatives," the letter goes on, crediting the Village Crossing TIF in Niles with generating millions of dollars of new tax base for the district.

Borek, however, denied the district has changed its policy. The district has opposed other TIFs, Borek said, but now they are more organized and are presenting their challenge in a more "responsible fashion." Borek said the district is considering filing a lawsuit against Lincolnwood.

Borek said he is preparing an answer to the letter and will request a binding agreement with the village restricting the life of the TIF to less than 23 years, among other issues.

CabinetPRO, pros in Kitchen Remodeling

Remodeling your kitchen is the best dollar for dollar investment you can make in your home. Many Realtors we work with highly advise their clients to fix-up their kitchen before putting their homes on the market. A home with a new or improved kitchen sells faster and gets the higher price.

"Refacing" has become a very popular way to add value to your house. The refacing process is the removal of your old cabinet doors and drawers, adding veneer or laminate to the outside of the existing frames and adding new doors, hinges, and hardware of your choosing.

Refacing has become a large part of CabinetPRO, Inc. business over the last 4 years. The key reasons to reface rather than buy all new cabinets are these: You are happy with your kitchen layout. Your cabinet frames and interiors are in satisfactory condition. You don't want the disruption of being without a kitchen for a number of weeks. You simply want an updated look without the cost of total replacement.

Regency hosts Wound Management Seminar
The understanding of how wounds heal has grown enormously over the past few years. Many of the guidelines to which physicians and nurses previously adhered for wound management have now been identified as having negative effects on wound healing rates. Wound management is rapidly changing as new information is obtained.

It is in response to this educational need that Regency At-Home Health Services, Ltd. is hosting a lecture on "Comprehensive Wound Management," on Friday, June 14, from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The focus of this lecture will be a review of the wound healing process, principles of wound management, product category review and appropriate documentation.

The speaker is Ms. Cynthia Campbell, RN, BSN, Director of Professional Services at Regency At-Home Health Services, Ltd. Ms. Campbell developed Regency's Wound Care Program, meeting the challenge of effectively managing complex wounds at home. Ms. Campbell has presented at the Annual Symposium on Advanced Wound Care and Medical Research Forum on Wound Repair and has authored a lead article in Ostomy/Wound Management.

Swedish Immigration Jubilee

The first Vikings—under their leader, Erik the Red—landed in North America 300 years before Columbus and were either killed by the native inhabitants or returned to Greenland. It was not until 750 years later that the Swedes made an impact in America. Here, in the great Midwest, specifically in Illinois, was the genesis—in 1846—of the emigration of one in five Swedes.

Now the Swedish government and local organizations throughout the country are celebrating this Jubilee in numerous ways. In Chicago, the longest day of the year—Midsummer—Swedish surprises await you in Andersonville on June 15 and 16. In Sweden it has been known for 500 years that the festivities around Midsummer celebrations have set many cradles rocking. So come to celebrate the longest day with entertainment, dancing, food, and conversation and community. A performance in English of the highly acclaimed Swedish play "The Bishop Hill (Illinois) Play," will begin at 5 p.m. For tickets, call (312) 728-8111.

The Turk^{II} Professional Duct Cleaning

Duct Cleaning Can Provide Outstanding Health Benefits!!!

Before our air duct cleaning, the ducts are loaded with filth. Remember, if there's dirt in your ducts, it's probably in your lungs!

After our professional air duct cleaning and sanitation, the ducts are free of dust and dirt.

Attention Allergy Sufferers!

If you or your family has allergies, you'll be pleased to know that we can also sanitize your ductwork. Our sanitizing agent is non-staining and is widely used in hospitals. It is also approved by the American Lung Association and the EPA. Our process will kill the germs, viruses and bacteria in your ducts, leaving you with a high level of sanitation and cleanliness which used to be only found in hospitals.

It's no secret; leading medical authorities have identified air ducts as a major haven for dust, dirt, mold, mildew, viruses and contaminants of all kinds.

The dirt and debris in your air ducts absorb moisture which then becomes a breeding ground for bacteria and fungi. This can cause disease or produce allergic symptoms.

Every time your system turns on, these contaminants are recirculated throughout your home. This leads to sinus problems, respiratory difficulties and will aggravate allergies.

Facts About Air System Contamination

- The average adult inhales 2 tablespoons of household dust daily.
- Indoor air is found to be up to 70 times more polluted than outdoor air.
- The average six-room house collects 40 pounds of dust each year.
- 9 of 10 system failures are caused by the effects of dirt and dust.
- 50% of all illnesses are caused or aggravated by polluted indoor air.
- Professional duct cleaning will remove dust, dirt and micro-organisms in your ducts. The air you breathe will be cleaner and fresher.

SPECIAL OFFER

For a limited time only we will completely power clean your ductwork for $399.00 per system. If you are interested in the complete sanitation process, we charge $15 per room.

BONUS . . . BONUS . . . BONUS . . .

The first 100 people who schedule a duct cleaning will receive a complete whole house sanitation and furnace cleaning absolutely FREE. You must mention this ad to receive the FREE sanitation.
