From the Left Hand

by Bud Besser

Jackie Cerone died last week. The alleged confidant of Sam Giancanna and Tony Accardo had a Niles connection which bears mentioning.

Years ago, perhaps 20 or more, Cerone's wife was at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club which preceded today's park district golf course. She got involved in some silly bit of controversy. We vaguely recall she splashed, soaked or tossed some water at one of her fellow country clubbers. The immersed, water-drenched victim hauled Cerone's wife into Niles' local court.

While we all anticipated a 60 point bold headline story it turned into a pipsqueak which was relegated to a filler in the back of the paper. When the case began, Mrs. Cerone's attorney, one of the three B's, a guy named Brodin, a partner in one of the most famous criminal attorney firms in the country, represented the alleged water-thrower. He was a John Gresham-type of an attorney for the bad guys, white on white, black pinstripe with one inch of white showing just south of the well-tailored sleeves. He was arrogant and smiling and self-assured and the judge moved the case forward in record time. The decision was of little consequence though Mrs. Cerone might have paid a fine which allowed the victim a new hairdo or perhaps enabled her to purchase a new frock. But we were sure after the water-

Public Works to prepare flood plan study

by Kathleen Quirksfeld

At a Pre-Village Board meeting on Tuesday, July 23, Jun Noriega, Director of Public Services for the Village of Niles spoke to the Village Board about plans that could alleviate present flooding problems in Niles.

In response to a recommendation from the Board, Noriega introduced several ideas and possible plans that the Public Services Department designed for lessening the inundated areas that collect heavy water during severe rains.

Noriega told the trustees that while some flood studies had been done prior to the one his staff is working on, more analysis will be needed to complete this.

The increases were based on length of service, performance and additional education, Snider said.

Snider received a 3.8 percent increase raising his remuneration from $120,000 to $124,800.

Three assistant superintendents, Dennis Dresen, Merilee McCracken and Suzanne Millies, are receiving 6 percent boosts to bring their salaries up to a level more commensurate with their duties, Snider said. Even with the increase, the assistant superintendents continue to earn less than some building principals, Snider said, even though their responsibilities exceed those of principals.

Two retail stores in the Golf Mill Center would be adding another thousand dollars or so to the shoplifting statistics, had it not been for an alert 21-year-old cashier who smelled a rat and acted upon that suspicion.

A 33-year-old Chicago woman, Pamela McDonald, approached the Service Merchandise cashier around 6:50 p.m. July 20 and said she wanted to purchase a Sharp Viewcam Camcorder valued at $579.99 and an RCA video recorder valued at $189.72.

What aroused the cashier's suspicion was the fact that the woman never asked any questions regarding the operation of the items or any other questions.

Customers usually ask questions prior to purchasing such costly equipment, so the cashier alerted the 25-year-old store manager who began checking into McDonald's identification.

In early June, Mayor Blase had proposed the idea to the Board of purchasing the Finkler's home and turning the property into a retention pond for the water that collects there during bad rainstorms.

"We don't want to just do this one area (Oconto)," Noriega said. "Areas to the west of it also need help. We want to help those residents, too."

"We are still checking this out," he said, "to see what the best course of action for the Village is."

Public Works had already done sewer work on Sherman and Dempster, and severe flood problems had been corrected with this and also by planting berms on Milwaukee and the "O" Streets, Oconto, Oriole and Oconto.

Noriega admitted that part of the 1996 flood plan study was prompted by the plight of Richard and Pat Finkler, 8239 Oconto, long-time residents of Niles who have repeatedly asked the Village to assist them with some form of relief for their soaked property.

Kidnap suspect linked to Niles abduction

by Rosemary Tirro

The Niles Police Department announced July 23 that a man arrested in a Schaumburg abduction case July 10 is suspected of being the same man who abducted a 12-year-old Niles girl Feb. 28, 1995.

Robert R. Kopka was linked to the Niles crime because of "extreme similarities between the incidents," Sgt. Daniel Hale, director of staff services, said.

The juvenile involved in the Niles incident was abducted from the 9000 block of North Cumberland Avenue. She was later released, as was the Schaumburg victim.

Niles Police investigators conducted a line-up with Kopka, but results were inconclusive, according to Sgt. Roger Wilson, Niles Public Information Officer.

CHOLESTEROL SCREENING

Cholesterol is a soft, fat-like substance found in every cell in the body. Most of the body's cholesterol is made in the liver, the rest comes from animal fat in foods. Egg yolks, meat, poultry and dairy products all contain cholesterol. Everyone needs some cholesterol, but not too much. Eating foods low in animal fat is one of the best ways to lower cholesterol. Cholesterol screenings will be offered from 9 to 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 6 in the Flickinger Senior Center. The quick and simple test will give an accurate total blood cholesterol measurement in just three minutes. For Morton Grove seniors (age 65+) there is a charge of $3. For those under 65, or for non-residents, the charge is $4.

LUNCH BUNCH MOVIES

Following the regular Senior Nutrition Site lunch on Wednesday, Aug. 7, "On Borrowed Time" will be shown at 1 p.m. in the Flickinger Senior Center. Lunch is provided for those who make a reservation. Seniors who do not come in for lunch can still come for the show. For information about the lunch program, call the Morton Grove Senior Hot Line at 470-5223. In September, the film, "The Fugitive" will be shown on Sept. 4.

FREE MEDICAL FINANCIAL ADVISORY AVAILABLE

Seniors who have questions about insurance, Medicare and medical bills may contact certified counselors at Trinity Hospital, 2320 E. 93rd Street, Chicago. Sponsored by the State of Illinois Health Insurance Department, this free service is provided in cooperation with the Senior Health Insurance Program. Seniors may ask questions either by phone or in person. For more information, or to make an appointment, call (312) 933-3900.

The Morton Grove Homecare Service is a program offered by the Village of Morton Grove and funded by Cook County. The service is for residents age 60 and older who may need assistance with a combination of the following: bathing, laundry, personal care, companionship, preparing meals, and light housekeeping. The amazing thing about this program is that all services are provided at no charge for a duration of up to six months through the Visiting Nurse Association North. To qualify a person must be age 60+, be a Morton Grove resident, demonstrate a medical need for home care, meet income (less than $28,150 annually) and asset (less than $50,000) eligibility criteria. For more information, contact Morton Grove's Department of Health & Human Services at 470-5246 today.

Niles Community Church

A small group of people who have been looking for greater fellowship and closeness than is found in a normal Sunday morning worship service have started to meet on Wednesday evenings at the Niles Community Church. It's a very informal group with the members organizing the meetings and setting the agenda. They've found in the last year that the fellowship and the opportunity to share their joys and concerns with each other has become an essential part of their lives.

Marilyn Doering, a member of Niles Community Church and a student at McCormick Seminary, related the experiences they had when one of their members was hospitalized with a serious illness. Marilyn said the group knew how much their meetings had meant to that member during his illness and felt he needed their closeness even more at that time so they moved their meeting to his hospital room. The effect the group and their prayers had on him and his recovery impressed his family, friends and even the hospital staff.

Although most of the members also belong to the Niles Community Church, the group has welcomed anyone wishing to share their fellowship.

For membership information, call Synagogue office 965-0900.

Is chocolate really the enemy?

Easter is a time when chocolate and other sweets are available in abundance, a temptation many find irresistible. So don't resist, at least not for the sake of your teeth, reports the Academy of General Dentistry. "Chocolate may not be as harmful as once believed."

"Just because chocolate contains sugar doesn't mean it is cariogenic, or cavity-causing," says Charles Perle, DMD, FAGD. "There are other factors you'll want to take into consideration including the adhesive quality, or stickiness of the food; and the pH level, or acid level in the mouth."

"Chocolate tends to be less cariogenic than previously believed because it has a low resting pH level. That means the acid level in one's mouth is low," says Dr. Perle.

Lunch meats and aged cheeses such as Gouda, mozzarella, Swiss and cheddar neutralize the acid in the mouth. They are also less likely to cause cavities since they contain less sugar.

High fiber snacks such as apples are a good choice because they produce saliva which washes away the sugar in the mouth and reduces the opportunity for decay.

Foods to avoid include dried fruits because they stick to the teeth and apple juice because it is loaded with sugar. Dr. Perle suggests eating chocolate and foods loaded with sugar within a short period of time, then brushing immediately afterward.

If you do eat foods high in sugar and can't brush your teeth,

Famed Chicago Jazz Quartet to perform

A band who once shared the stage with jazz greats Miles Davis, Jean Luc Ponty, Chick Corea and Oregon, Streetdancer - a four piece progressive jazz ensemble - will hit the Chicago scene again this August.

A composition-oriented improvisational group, Streetdancer combines jazz, blues and acoustic elements. Born out of the 1970s Chicago club circuit, the band made a local name for themselves and soon after forged a spot on jazz radio across the country. Their work has been heralded by billboard magazine as

"music that moves well and has a good sense of rhythm and dynamics." With Kestutis Stanciauskas on bass, Andy Potter on drums, Robert "Keys" Long on keyboard, and Steven Eisen on sax, Streetdancer is amalgam of varied musical styles. Streetdancer will perform at Borders Books and Music in Deerfield on August 10 at 8 p.m., at the Oak Brook store on August 11 at 2 p.m. and at Borders in Wilmette on August 12 at 7:30 p.m. The band will also be featured at Fitzgerald's, 6615 W. Roosevelt Rd. in Berwyn, on August 14 at 8:30 p.m. and at Green Dolphin St., 2200 N. Ashland, on August 17 at 10 p.m.

COUNTER REVOLUTION . . .

Join The Revolution (In Kitchen & Bath)

The idea for a solid surface showroom started in the summer of 1993. We had been trying to stimulate new business through the wholesale trade which for years has been saturated with wholesale fabricators. The idea of a counter top store selling Avonite, Corian, and Surell counter tops direct wholesale to the home owner was an area no one had yet tried. In November of 1993 the COUNTER REVOLUTION SHOWROOM opened its doors.

We fabricate and install the counter tops through our parent company COUNTER INTELLIGENCE, INC.

The majority of our customers are pleasantly surprised at the reasonable prices of solid surface counter tops. Many who come in for replacement laminate tops decide to move up to Corian or another brand. The installation process, in most cases, takes about one day. You can have an early breakfast and by dinner time your kitchen is back in working order to prepare your evening meal.

Our company prides itself on professional work and reasonable prices. One of the ways we are able to do that is by offering over the phone pricing. Since we do not go out to home estimates, you, the customer, can either call, fax, E-mail, or come in with back wall lengths and depths of your counter tops. We can usually give you your price right then and there. After the tops are ordered we then come to template for the new tops.

There are endless color and edge choices available so we do feel a trip to our showroom is important.

COUNTER REVOLUTION SELLS:

CORIAN, AVONITE, SURELL, LAMINATE &

GRANITE COUNTER TOPS. THE MOST COMMON QUES-TION ASKED BY OUR

CUSTOMERS IS WHAT THE

DIFERENCE IS BETWEEN THE

MATERIALS AND AS MANY

LIFESTYLES ARE DIFFERENT

SO ARE YOUR COUNTER

TOP SURFACE OP-

TIONS.

YOU DO NOT WANT TO

PLACE HOT POTS ON ANY

COUNTER TOP SURFACE,

YOU ALSO SHOULDN'T

CUT ON THEM. USING A

HOT PAD OR CUTTING

BORDERS WILL KEEP YOUR

COUNTER TOPS LOOKING

NEW FOR A LONG TIME.

LAMINATE TOP WAR-

RANTIES ARE VERY LIMIT-

ED. IF THE TOPS ARE DAM-

AGED THE BEST REPAIR IS

TO PUT A GLASS OR WOOD

CUTTING BOARD, INSTALLED

INTO THE SURFACE OF THE TOP. IF THAT

DOESN'T FIX IT YOU MAY

NEED TO REPLACE THE

NAKED FURNITURE . . . One Of The Nation's Top 100 Retailers For 1996

Recently, Naked furniture was named one of the nation's Top 100 Furniture Retailers for 1996 by Furniture Today. Every year, this weekly trade periodical for the home furnishings industry publishes a ranking of furniture retailers based on volume. This is Naked Furniture's third consecutive appearance on this prestigious annual list.

Naked Furniture, located at 1411 Ellinwood St. in Des Plaines, is part of the 40 store franchise network, and has been owned and operated by Ruth and Harlan Roloff for the past eleven years. Two years before that, their showroom was located in Norridge.

Specializing in oak, ash, pine, maple and other fine woods, Naked Furniture offers their customers a high quality, moderately priced selection of ready-to-finish furnishings for home and office. Customers can opt for Naked Furniture's professional finishing, or select various finishing materials for a satisfying do-it-yourself project.

One of the things that sets Naked Furniture apart from most other unfinished furniture stores is presentation. Naked Furniture's wide assortment of real wood furniture is arranged in room settings coordinated with decorative accessories and prints. Much of the furniture on display is already finished to give customers ideas they can use in their own homes. This has prompted more than one customer to comment upon entering a Naked Furniture showroom, "oh, you're a real furniture store".

Because Naked Furniture is ready-to-finish, customers select the colors and finishing styles they want for their purchases. Along with a complete assortment of wood finishes, customers can also choose colors in bold or pastel tones. Many choose to combine colors and wood stains to create a more customized look.

It is not uncommon for an artist or artisan to purchase Naked Furniture to use as a "canvas" for their work. Many showrooms actually display such pieces and encourage customers to consider the possibility of owning a one-of-a-kind "work or art". Paying particular attention to the needs of the individual buyer is an important part of Naked Furniture's success. Individualism has been identified as the decade's single most influential consumer trend. According to noted marketing consultant, Regis McKenna, in an article published in the Harvard Business Review, "...it's the desire for individual expression that's becoming the new consumer wave. The 'any color as long as it's black' school of marketing no longer applies. And, even the most basic of products are now adapting to this new trend".

This trend may be new to the rest of the retail world, but Naked Furniture has been offering their customers the choices afforded by custom finishing for over 20 years.

Most customers are also pleased to discover how well new Naked Furniture blends with their existing furniture, including antiques and heirlooms. When just a chair or just a chest is needed, Naked Furniture can provide it. Many traditional furniture stores are geared to sell furniture in groupings, such as bedroom and dining room sets, and are reluctant to sell individual pieces. Naked Furniture has recognized the need for purchasing flexibility and has made it one of their specialties.

Storing foods properly

provided by the refrigerator's sealed crisper drawers.

*For longest storage life select high quality vegetables when shopping. And quality levels will not be the same for all items in a package, so sort vegetables as soon as possible. Eliminate decayed ones, used bruised or soft ones immediately and store the rest in a crisper.

*Wash and drain leafy vegetables, store them in plastic bags or sealed plastic containers and store them in the crisper. Storing in sealed containers retains the moisture needed to keep leafy vegetables from wilting. After washing, drain vegetables thoroughly on paper towels. Too much water produces brown spots on leaves and speeds decay. Close crisper drawers tightly.

*Refrigerate most vegetables except potatoes, sweet potatoes, mature onions, most winter squash, eggplant and rutabagas. These vegetables require cool dry storage. Most other vegetables require the high-moisture storage ways be stored in paper bags, not plastic, for longer crisper life.

*Maintaining the refrigerator section between 34°F and 40°F is best food storage. Temperature controls should not be set so low that foods in crispers freeze. Freezing will cause most fruits and vegetables to turn brown and wilt, and will leave water in the crisper bottom and on the crisper cover. Crispers with humidity controls should be set high for most vegetables and low for fruits with skins (oranges, apples, lemons, etc.).

*Fresh vegetables should be stored only for their recommended times. When stored too long they brown, wilt and decay. Decaying food builds up water in the bottom of the crisper, causing other stored foods to decay.

*Peppers, cabbage, and other odorous foods should be wrapped or bagged to avoid transferring odors to other vegetables in the crisper. Mushrooms should always be stored in the outer portion of the crisper.

*Upon returning from shopping it's tempting to immediately store perishables in the refrigerator - with every intention to prepare them properly for storage later.

"Ears" to Summer!

Ear infections are among the most frequently diagnosed childhood illnesses, resulting in approximately 30 million pediatric visits each year. In the summer, a particular type of ear infection, referred to as swimmer's ear, becomes common. There are, however, other types of ear infections that can develop during the summer months.

There are three compartments to the ear, and therefore three different kinds of ear infections. Swimmer's ear affects the outer portion of the ear. Behind the eardrum is the middle ear, the area where most children will develop an ear infection. Inner ear infections are rare, especially in children, but cause severe dizziness.

Swimmer's Ear

Swimmer's ear is actually an infection in the skin of the canal that leads from the outer shell of the ear to the eardrum. It is caused by bacteria and fungus and often occurs when water from swimming sits in the canal, creating a warm, dark, wet place in which germs love to grow. Ear wax helps to protect against this type of infection by discouraging the growth of the germs.

Once the germs start to grow, symptoms will begin to appear. The ear may itch and become tender to touch, possibly becoming extremely painful. There may be a milky discharge from the ear, and the canal may even swell shut. If not treated, the infection may spread to the surrounding tissue, and redness and swelling on the outside of the ear will become noticeable. In the early stages, antibiotics and anti-inflammatory ear drops can be prescribed by your doctor to eliminate the infection. If the treatment is started later, oral antibiotics may need to be prescribed.

Itching or pain in the ears that gets progressively worse after swimming should not be ignored. A doctor should examine the ear, and treatment can be started before the infection advances. If a tendency toward frequent swimmer's ear infections exists, there are a few ways to help prevent it. The simplest method is to use a hair dryer on a cool setting to "blow dry" the ears after swimming. Using mild vinegar solution in the form of ear drops helps to discourage fungus. These are available at local pharmacies. Rubbing alcohol can be used, but may be painful if there is any open skin in the ear canal.

Middle Ear Infection

Middle ear infections occur more often in the winter, but can occur at any time. The space behind the eardrum fills up with infected mucus, causing pressure on the eardrum. The outside of the ear is generally not painful to the touch, but there may be severe pain inside the ear, often accompanied by a fever. Some children may have a middle ear infection without dramatic symptoms and poor hearing or irritability may be the only signs.

Middle ear infections are treated with oral antibiotics and, if necessary, ear drops may be prescribed by a doctor as well. Sometimes it may be difficult to tell which area was the original site of infection. In this instance, both types of medication may be prescribed. ### Be wary when exercising outdoors

As the weather begins to warm up, many people will be tempted to go outside and exercise. The American Lung Association of Metropolitan Chicago (ALAMC), however, warns that for the tens of millions of Americans who live in highly polluted areas, exercise can lead to serious health damage.

"Exercise makes us more vulnerable to air pollutants because during workouts we tend to breathe more air, and draw more deeply into the lungs," says John Kirkwood, ALAMC executive director. "And, when we exercise heavily, we breathe mostly through the mouth, bypassing the body's first line of defense against pollution, which is the nose."

Research has found that air pollution can reduce breathing ability and cause chest pain, coughing, wheezing and other physical irritation. It can interfere with the workings of the lungs, heart and other organs. Children, the elderly, pregnant women, asthma sufferers and others with lung and heart disease must be particularly careful when exercising outdoors during high air pollution days.

Exposure to air pollution during exercising can be minimized by following some simple guidelines:

- Avoid busy streets when cars create high levels of air pollution.
- Make sure teachers, coaches and recreation officials know about air pollution and act accordingly.
- Be aware of the quality of the air you breathe. Pollution levels are often given with local weather reports and can be obtained by calling (708) 865-6320.

• Watch the calendar. Ozone smog tends to be worst during the May-to-September "smog season." Be especially conscious of smog levels during hot weather.

For more information on exercise and air pollution, call the American Lung Association of Metropolitan Chicago at (312) 243-2000.

Karma A. Chambers

Navy Seaman Recruit Karma A. Chambers, daughter of Hugh M. Chambers of Rosemont, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, IL.

After 34 years in Edison Park, the Resurrection Medical Center Auxiliary's Bargain Basket thrift shop opened at its new location in June, at 4740 N. Austin Ave.

A special open house was held for the shop's new neighbors, medical center employees, auxiliary members and volunteers.

Bargain Basket volunteers were on hand to mingle with visitors and display the more expansive stock of merchandise that will be available for purchase. The bargain items that are available at the shop range from housewares, pictures and books to jewelry, shoes and clothing.

Since opening in 1962, the Bargain Basket has been a major source of funding for Resurrection's auxiliary, which in turn provides support for many projects, programs and services at the medical center. Currently, proceeds from the shop are helping to meet the auxiliary's pledge to donate a total of $500,000 to Resurrection's Orthopedic Surgical Unit.

The Bargain Basket relies on donations to keep its shelves stocked. Donations can be dropped off at the shop during regular business hours, on Mondays from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m., and Tuesdays through Saturdays from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

For more information about the Bargain Basket, call (312) 481-6965. For information on volunteer opportunities at the shop, call Joanne Heneghan, Director of Volunteers, at (312) 792-5110.

Pope blesses local Father's Rights lawyer

Following the Pope's visit to the United States, he expressed his appreciation for the concerns of our local Father's Rights Attorney, Jeffery M. Leving. These concerns which centered around the preservation of the father-child relationship prompted Leving to initiate contact with the pope. His holiness also invoked upon Leving abundant divine blessings.

Jeffery M. Leving, whose offices are based in Chicago, leads a team of ten (10) attorneys on the cutting edge of social and legal change. Leving and his legal team represent the largely forgotten legions of divorced, separated and otherwise disenfranchised dads. They are the non-custodial fathers of our country.

Leving is one of the few lawyers in the country focused almost exclusively on men's issues. Leving, who is known as a "bulldog" in the legal community, contributed to the drafting of the 1986 Illinois Joint Custody Law. He also testified in the Illinois Senate and before the U.S. Commission on Child and Family Welfare.

The preservation of our family unit extends to preserving the father-child relationship which directly impacts upon the emotional well-being of our society's children, "Leving said. He further commented that fathers fighting for their children can encounter

Register now for fall classes at Oakton

Those who have already begun pondering which classes to take during the fall term at Oakton Community College can beat the rush and register now. Classes begin the week of Aug. 26.

Let's face it. By the time your daughter graduates from college, the world will be a lot different from what it is today.

Just think back a few years ago — when words such as megabyte, e-mail and world wide web did not exist. Or when you thought surfing the net was a new way to ride the waves.

For today's young women, computer literacy is a necessity for success in college, business and beyond.

At Regina Dominican, we bring the information superhighway right into the classroom, integrating technology in academics, athletics and student life activities.

- INTERNET access in every classroom
- Four computer labs, including a DESKTOP PUBLISHING lab for art and communications
- Computerized, on-line library with access to ILLINET, NORTH SUBURBAN LIBRARY SYSTEM, SIRS and MAS for electronic reference
- Mobile computers for use throughout the building

Preparing young women for the challenges of tomorrow has been the mission of Regina Dominican High School for nearly forty years. You can expect excellence from an experienced leader in education.

Visit our World Wide Web site at <http://nsls1.nslsilus.org/rdhs/> & come to our OPEN HOUSE on November 17 or December 4.

F.O.P. Service Award

Aware of a pattern of robberies involving antique dealers, Lt. Maher and Sgt. Graffeo posed as antique dealers and met with the possible offenders. They met the subject at the address of contact who lead them to a rear yard where they met two additional subjects. The subjects announced a robbery displaying a silver colored handgun and a shotgun pointing them at the officers. Lt. Maher announced his office and fired two shots. One of the subjects grabbed him and a struggle ensued.

Sgt. Graffeo gave chase to the fleeing offenders following the struggle when one of the offenders turned and twice pointed his weapon at him. The Sgt. fired two shots and continued to pursue. Officers Haniacek, George and Jensen joined in the pursuit and one of the offenders pointed his gun at them. Officers Haniacek and George returned fire. One offender was apprehended with a sawed off shotgun and following a blood trail led them to the two additional offenders. One was in serious condition with gun shot wounds to the chest and leg and was transported to the hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival. The additional offenders were charged with related robbery offenses.

thrower was identified; the victim did not dare institute a lawsuit. In those bygone Chicagoland days the FBI, the local gendarmes and the Cook County Democrats looked the other way when Jack Cerone and his friends took center stage.

Several weeks ago we mentioned our fast-moving world has a weekly theme which dominates the news for a few days and then we turn to the next theme. Newt Gingrich held the headlines many weeks ago. The Oklahoma massacre was on the front page and then came White-water. Then Filegate. Pat Buchanan held center court for a couple of weeks and then came the Valujet crash, then the Flight 800 crash, then the Olympics and now the pipe bomb explosion at Atlanta's Centennial Park.

We went to a wedding one day and spent $100 taking a taxi round trip. Cheap Charley won't spend $3 for a toll on the Calumet Expressway when he can get a free ride on alternate Interstate 94. But the hundred buck ride was preferable to boarding a bus in Jerusalem. That was caused by the intimidation of terrorism.

The two air crashes plus the pipe bomb explosion hints that terrorism might be an important part of the equation. And terrorism is relatively new in our part of the world. It's a burden which is ever-present and always just around the corner. With the upcoming national political conventions, security people will be working overtime in preparation to monitoring these events.

We spent two weeks in the Middle East this past April. Terrorism is so much a part of its territory it becomes a part of everyday living. In Israel, bomb squads and police sirens seem to be everywhere. It is commonplace. It is living in a war zone.

Five years ago we drove into Tel Aviv with my wife's cousin who is a tank commander. Quite unobtrusively he put his pistol in the glove compartment when we left his home. This time when the cashier and vct." The listing "Office Depot - telephone and plain paper fax" had been crossed out.

Police contacted the manager of the Office Depot store who confirmed that a transaction had taken place earlier on that date between the arrestee and the cashier.

The cashier alerted Niles police, who immediately noticed that the state I.D. McDonald was using had been issued the same day.

When police requested additional identification from McDonald, she presented a photo ID from a messenger service where she said she had been employed for four years. The employee of the messenger service who answered the police phone call said he did not know the offender, nor could the offender supply the name of any other employee at the messenger service.

McDonald was then taken into custody and transported to the Niles Police Department where she revealed her real name and admitted finding a purse belonging to a 47-year-old Chicago woman.

The offender said she used the documents she found in the purse to obtain the state I.D. card to use in cashing the personal checks of the victim drawn on an account in a Calumet City bank.

Police found a list of high-priced electronic items and corresponding store names written on the back of a deposit slip from the victim's checkbook. Next to the victim's merchandise was written
