Dear Santa, I would like to ask for a few gifts this year. I would like a Power Rangers toy, a new Beanie Baby, and a new puppy. My family and I have been very good this year, and I think we deserve these gifts. Thank you, [Your Name]

All I want for Christmas...
Dear Santa,

How are you doing? I'm doing okay. First day of school was tough, but I'll get used to it.

I have a few things I would like for Christmas this year.

1. A new bike: It would be really cool to have a bike that I can ride to school and the park.
2. A new video game: I love playing video games and I'm hoping for a new one to add to my collection.
3. A pet: I've always wanted a pet, especially a dog.

I'm looking forward to Christmas and the holidays. I hope you have a good time as well.

Happy Holidays!

John Doe

Christmas is a time to give, not receive. We often forget that giving is more important than receiving. That's why I'm asking you to help me give.

My class is collecting toys for children in need. I would like to give a toy to a child who doesn't have one. Can you help me find a toy?

Thank you,

John Doe

Whoever said it's better to give than to receive never received one of these.

BBB warns: Selling pre-paid phone cards can be risky

In Chicago and across the country, a new type of pyramid scheme is flourishing. Pyramid schemes are often referred to as "pre-paid phone card schemes."通过 this scheme, participants are promised a "quick buck" without having to provide any products or services.

The BBB warns consumers to be wary of these pyramid schemes. The BBB has received complaints from people who have lost money in these schemes.

Check the BBB's warning for more information.
