Movie Critic: The best movie we've seen this summer is Contact, a story by the late astronomer, Carl Sagan, about landing on Vegas, the brightest star in the constellation. The most exciting movie was Air Force One. It was also the most violent.

Historical Trivia: Washington, D.C.'s Willard Hotel was called "The residence of the presidents". Abe Lincoln's and the Adams' families were among the many Presidential families which slept there.

Celebrity: The late movie star Marilyn Monroe has become increasingly more popular as the years go by. We're being generous when we describe her as being a "courtesan" of many including (the Kennedy brothers) - which seems to enhance her fame. Pamela Harriman, who married into the Churchill and Harriman families, was alleged to be a "courtesan" and the rich and famous - and slept there.

Security agent
uncovers theft
ring at K-Mart

by Rosemary Tirio
Once again, an observant loss prevention agent has uncovered an employee theft ring.

This time, it was the K-Mart store at 8650 Dempster Street where the agent watching a security video noticed employees doing under-rings for each other at closing time.

The tape showed a cashier scanning the top tag of a group of clothing and ringing up only one item, not the seven or eight items in the cart, which was loaded with merchandise that was bagged but had not been rung up or paid for, police said.

The purchasers in the incident were off-duty K-Mart employees. The tape shows other employees adding items to the cart while one duty.

The items were purchased at

Township tax rates announced

The following is the list of combined tax rates for Cook County communities. These rates will be used by the county clerk's office to compute the 1996 property tax bills, which are collected this year. The rates are the sum of those levied by the number of tax authorities. Within each municipality, property tax owners in different areas will pay taxes at different rates; depending on which park, school, library or fire protection district is providing those services. The 1995 rates are provided for comparison. Tax bills will be mailed this week. Key to abbreviations: SD=school district; HSD=high school district; CC=community college; SSA=special service area.

Plans outlined for new health center

The Village of Niles broke ground recently for a 97,000-square-foot Health and Wellness Center that will meet the diverse needs of the village's large senior citizen population and reach out to young families.

Burnidge Cassell Associates of Elgin, IL, is the architect for the new facility, which will bring under one roof a full range of recreational facilities and the village's Human Services Department, which includes a senior center and family services professionals.

Michael Mackey of Burnidge Cassell Associates, project architect for the facility, said, "We wanted to establish a sense of community and destination through an open, accessible civic center complex for a village that does not have a defined downtown. We tried to reinforce the public focus of the buildings with clear circulation patterns, dramatic volumes and natural light."

The concave brick and glass facade is a welcoming entrance that mirrors the circular drive which separates it from the new Niles Village Hall, also designed by Burnidge Cassell.

Thief pulls handgun at supermarket, flees

by Rosemary Tirio

The 37-year-old manager of the supermarket in the 8900 block of Greenwood reported that two unknown men between 18 and 20 years of age entered the store and appeared to take a bottle of liquor without paying for it.

The manager followed the two, both clad in shorts and T-shirts into the parking lot where they entered a late model maroon Chevrolet Lumina driven by an unknown woman who immediately started yelling that she did not know the suspects.

Both men exited the auto and the manager asked them to walk back into the store because he wanted to question them about the bottle of liquor.

At that point, one of the men removed a dark object which the manager described as an unknown type of handgun from his waistband. The suspect placed the alleged weapon in a K-Mart bag.

The manager asked the suspect to leave the store, and both suspects did so, entering the vehicle driven by the woman and fled the area.

Investigation of the license plate number showed that the plates were issued to a 1984 older model auto.

Exploring Niles' History: Meinke's has deep roots in Niles history

The time was 1862. General Robert E. Lee took command of the Northern Army of Virginia. Martin Van Buren, eighth President of the United States, died. Land was made available to people who would settle, or who intended to settle, in the western states. Cost: $1.25 per acre. They were to stay at least five years.

A farmer from Mecklenburg in Germany bought ten acres of land in Northern Illinois. He probably paid more than $1.25 per acre. Nine years later he died. His widow, Louisa, inherited the land. Later that same year she married Henry Meinke. Henry had a son he named Henry who had a son named Henry who had a son named Henry who is called Jimmy.

The third and fourth Henry, who is called Jimmy, along with Morrie Dolores, who says "Jimmy is very active in the business," can be found daily at the Meinke Garden Center, 5803 W. Touhy. A Henry Meinke has been farming, growing, tending to vegetables and, in recent years, flowers, since 1871, twelve months a year.

Selling vegetables fresh between October and March. Henry Meinke, Jimmy's dad, describes how vegetables were stored in dirt so they could be sold between October and March. First, a pit had to be dug. Beets, carrots and other root crops would be placed in the pit. The two most popular crops stored were German celery (called celeriac) and leeks. They would be covered with two feet of dirt. When they were taken to market, a ton or more would be uncovered for the day-long trip to the produce market in Chicago.

The railroad began building in 1872. The Meinke's had to farm on both sides of the tracks. It made life a bit difficult for the horse-drawn plows which cultivated the land.

In 1929 the Meinke's started their own vegetable stand on Touhy. Radishes, tomatoes, onions, sweet peppers, beans, carrots, lettuce and other vegetables were sold. As the depression adversely affected business in the early 1930's, the Meinke's began raising chickens. Twice-monthly market days in Skokie also proved to be popular and profitable. They were one of the few businesses listed in the area phone directory for 1931.

From Touhy to Howard carried in a snowstorm. There were difficult times. Henry explains how his mom, who was pregnant, had to be carried from Touhy Avenue to Howard in a big snowstorm. From there she was taken by car to St. Francis Hospital in Evanston where she delivered Henry.

The roadside vegetable business remained stable and popular until 1986 when heavy road construction on Touhy made access difficult for motorists.

By then, since about 1962, the Meinke's were getting more and more involved with the flower business. In 1964 they put up their first greenhouse and have continued to add additional ones over the years. Today there are ten greenhouses in which they grow, one that is used for storage, and one that is used for display. The original farm stand still remains on the acre and a half that today are the Meinke Garden Center.

In springtime roses are extremely popular and for Christmas many in the area buy their poinsettias at Meinke's.

The Niles Chamber of Commerce selected Meinke's Garden Center as the Business of the Year in 1988.

Son Henry, who is called Jimmy, smiles broadly when asked if he's getting involved in the business. The smile suggests his studies at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls specializing in greenhouse plants will be put to good and happy use. With Niles not quite to its centennial, Jimmy just might already be planning to observe a sesquicentennial.

COLONIAL & WOJCIECHOWSKI FUNERAL HOMES

With over 85 years of service in the Chicagoland area, we have come to know what most families expect when selecting a funeral home: Service, Location, Price, Quality, Comfortable Surroundings and an Understanding staff. We invite all families to visit our facilities and see first hand what a full service family owned funeral home can offer that corporate owned funeral homes can't.

Glenview Evangelical Free Church

Members of Glenview Evangelical Free Church are helping the Raic family, Serbo-Croatian refugees from Bosnia, to begin a new life in the United States.

In cooperation with Exodus World Service, an Itasca-based agency which recruits Christian volunteers for service to refugees, the representatives of Glenview Evangelical Free Church are providing a Welcome to America! Pack for the Raic family.

The Welcome! Pack includes a one-month supply of food staples and any household items which will enable the family to establish its first American home in a Chicago-area apartment. The Glenview Evangelical Free Church volunteers will deliver the pack to the Raic family when they arrive in Chicago. Estimated date of arrival is late September, 1997.

Exodus World Service is a non-profit agency which recruits local volunteers, equips them with information and training, and then links them directly with newly arrived refugees in the Chicago metropolitan area. It also provides training and tools for frontline staff of other refugee service agencies throughout the country.

Last year Exodus helped more than 400 volunteers representing 42 groups to complete 54 service projects. Those projects benefited 225 refugees who came to the Chicago area from the former Yugoslavia, the Sudan, Somalia, Cuba, Vietnam, and other countries.

Information about Exodus World Service and its programs of assistance to refugees may be obtained by writing to Exodus World Service, PO Box 620, Itasca, IL 60143-0620, or by telephoning 312-REFUGEE or 630-307-1400.

Laser vision correction for farsightedness

Are you farsighted? If you or someone you know is farsighted...take a closer look at laser vision correction, a quick and painless procedure that can reduce or eliminate dependency on glasses or contacts. Clinical trials to evaluate the use of laser vision correction for farsightedness are taking place this summer at Kraft Eye Institute in Chicago.

Clinical investigators at Kraft are seeking 25 farsighted patients to receive laser vision correction with the VISX STAR Excimer Laser System™. This system has already been used successfully in more than one million procedures worldwide for the safe and effective correction of nearsightedness (myopia) and nearsightedness with astigmatism.

Farsightedness is a variation of the shape of the eye that causes blurred vision, making it difficult to see both near and far.

VISX, Incorporated is currently conducting clinical trials using the VISX STAR System to reshape the cornea to correct farsighted eyes. Laser vision correction is a safe, approved procedure in which a cool beam of light gently reshapes the surface of the eye—the cornea—thereby improving vision. Patients who undergo the procedure may reduce or eliminate their dependence on corrective lenses for distance vision, limiting the need for glasses or contacts to close-up reading or similar activities.

This offer of laser vision correction for farsightedness is only available for a limited time. For more information on how you can participate in the clinical trials please call Kathy Bailey or Karen Stubbe, Kraft Eye Institute, at (312) 444-1111.

Loyola Medical School's Award Dinner set

Plans are underway for Chicago's oldest and largest benefits—the Loyola University Chicago Stritch School of Medicine Annual Award Dinner.

Celebrating its 6th year, the dinner is one of Chicago's most well-attended, successful benefits of its kind. The event will be held on Friday, Nov. 21 at the Chicago Hilton and Towers in downtown Chicago.

The $450-per-person dinner raises an estimated $800,000 annually to benefit the medical school, which provides state-of-the-art instruction and training to more than 900 students, residents and postdoctoral fellows.

"This year's event promises to be one of the most celebrated benefits in recent time due to the opening of our new medical education building," said Dr. Daniel H. Winship, dean of the Stritch School of Medicine.

One feature of dinner is the presentation of two awards honoring outstanding humanitarians. The Sword of Loyola is conferred upon an honored citizen recognized for dedication and selfless service in a vocation other than medicine. Previous recipients have included Danny Thomas and Bob Newhart, comedians; George S. Halas, former Chicago Bears owner and coach; Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, former cardinal for the Chicago Archdiocese; and Sister Helen Prejean, C.S.J., well-known author of the book, "Dead Man Walking."

The Stritch Medal is conferred upon a distinguished member of the medical profession or health scientist who has exhibited to an outstanding degree professional competence, dedication and resourcefulness in a chosen field of endeavor. Prior recipients have included Dr. Christian N. Barnard, who performed the first heart transplant; Dr. Robert J. Lukes, who pioneered Hodgkin's disease research; Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin, the first physician to travel in space; and Dr. Geraldine M. Peiffer, an outstanding anesthesiologist and committed Loyola alumna.

In its 46-year history, the dinner has raised more than $16 million to benefit the Stritch School of Medicine. These dollars have helped fund projects and patient care areas that might otherwise been unavailable. Funds continue to provide for the education of well-trained and morally responsible physicians.

For additional information about the dinner or to receive an invitation, contact Loyola's Development Office at (312) 915-6653.

Edward Jones: Retirement Age Could Be Raised

Mention the words "Social Security," and you're likely to spark a debate. Younger people say they're tired of paying into a system that won't benefit them; older people say they've spent many years paying into Social Security, too, and they couldn't live without it.

Individuals aren't the only ones arguing about Social Security. This popular entitlement program continues to make legislators debate its future health.

Although no laws have passed, one of the most agreed-upon solutions is to raise the retirement age to 70, with reduced benefits available as early as age 65, say that doing so is logical given our longer life expectan-more than 14 years, or nearly 23 percent.

With the average retiree receiving benefits of more than $7,900 in 1996, and expected to live 11 years past retirement age, the 33 million retired Americans today are scheduled to draw much more from Social Security than the system was designed for. And if you consider that 83 percent of retirees start drawing benefits before age 65, the cumulative costs are even higher.

Proponents of raising the retirement age to 70, with reduced benefits available as early as age 65, say that doing so is logical given our longer life expectancies. They add that phasing in these higher age limits over the next 10 years would be fair to workers within two to three years of retirement and provide adequate transition time to save and plan. And it still would allow the average worker to enjoy a longer retirement than was originally planned when Social Security was signed into law.

Experts say that raising the retirement age would postpone the bankruptcy far beyond 2030 and provide hope that the children and grandchildren of today's retirees will be able to receive benefits from the system they paid into over their entire working careers.

The 1997 Reverse Mortgage Seminar

SSI Benefits to Noncitizens Extended One Month
New legislation extends Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments through September 1997 for noncitizens whose SSI eligibility would have ended in August 1997 under last year's welfare reform legislation. A supplemental appropriations bill signed into law by the President changes the original ending date from August 22, 1997 to September 30, 1997 for ineligible noncitizens who were receiving SSI when the 1996 welfare reform law was enacted. Under this extension, affected recipients will receive their last checks in September 1997, and SSI eligibility will be suspended effective October 1, 1997.

Social Security Now Offers Fax Service
The Social Security Administration has a new service that provides faxes of important Social Security information upon request.

Widows and Widowers Get Alert on Higher Retirement Benefits

If you have a fax machine, you have access to over 125 documents through the Fax Catalog. First you need the fax number where you want your document sent. Using a touch-tone telephone, call the toll-free number, 1-888-475-7000. A voice menu leads you through the simple steps necessary to receive the document you need.

Social Security Now Offers Fax Service
Using a new automated system, Social Security is now reminding surviving spouses four months before they reach age 65 that they may be eligible for a higher benefit based on their own earnings record. Although surviving spouses are told at the time they apply for widows and widowers benefits at age 60 (or age 50 if disabled) that they may be eligible for a higher retirement benefit at age 65, many fail to contact Social Security to file a claim.

Programming is individualized and structured to the needs of the resident depending on the stage of the disease.

And, our monthly family support group will help you learn more about Alzheimer's disease and coping strategies as a caregiver. More importantly, you will learn that you are not alone in facing these challenges.

The Suburban Area Agency on Aging, Oak Park, received notice in July that its "Health Care Anti-Fraud, Waste, and Abuse Community Volunteer Demonstration Project" is one of twelve projects to receive federal funding under a national competitive grant process. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration on Aging awarded the Area Agency $376,000 ($183,000 for each of two years) to recruit and train retired professionals to identify fraud, waste and abuse in the Medicare and Medicaid health care systems. Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Illinois is also supporting the project with funding for volunteer recruitment, training, mileage and recognition.

The Project is a collaborative effort of the Suburban Area Agency on Aging, which serves older persons who reside in the municipalities of suburban Cook County, and the Northeastern Illinois Area Agency on Aging which serves DuPage, Grundy, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, Lake, McHenry, and Will Counties. ### Convenient methods for obtaining vital records

Cook County Clerk David Orr began a public service program to remind county residents of the 5 convenient ways to order a birth, marriage or death record in Cook County.

"Residents need to know that they do not have to come all the way to the County building to get a vital record," Orr said. "These documents can be easily obtained by mail, over the phone, through a currency exchange or at one of our five suburban locations. We are working hard to make residents aware of these convenient alternatives."

Orr is now placing Public Service Announcements in local media, to broaden awareness of the variety of means available to order a birth, marriage or death record in Cook County. Posters with this information are also being distributed to county schools, libraries, day care centers and village and township halls.

The cost of a vital record is $7. It costs $2 for each additional copy.

Requests for vital records can be mailed to:

Cook County Vital Statistics
P.O. Box 642570
Chicago, IL 60664-2570.

A mail request must include the signature of the person requesting the document, along with a check or money order made payable to the Cook County Clerk, a self-addressed stamped envelope and all information pertinent to the requested certificate.

By calling Vital Chek (312) 603-7799, records can be ordered for a small fee and charged to any major credit card.

The program will begin at 7 p.m. Friday, September 5, until 9 p.m. On Saturday, September 6, the program will begin at 8:30 a.m. and conclude at 5 p.m. Topics include: the tasks of grief, guilt, anger, unresolved grief issues and saying goodbye to our losses. A "Brown Bag" lunch is needed on Saturday.

There is no charge to attend this program, but registration and a commitment to attend the full program is required.

To register, contact the Bereavement Services Office of VITAS at (847) 568-0066.

How can I be a better parent?

Parenting is full of questions, from how to get a child to sleep through the night to the best choices in child care. For most parents, however, the big question (and the one that produces the most ongoing anxiety) is "Am I doing everything I can to make sure my child grows up happy, healthy and capable?"

The "All-Time-Great Parent Test," which debuts on WGN-TV Channel 9 on Sunday, August 31 at 5 p.m. will answer 12 important and timely questions about child development to help parents give their children the best possible start in life during their most important learning years, from birth to age eight.

The test will cover such issues as how to make the home environment most conducive to learning; how to select the best possible child care, preschool or Head Start program; how to make sure a child is emotionally ready to meet future challenges; and how to promote positive moral development from the beginning. The questions will be answered by five outstanding Chicagoland early childhood educators—recent winners of The Kohl/McCormick Early Childhood Teaching Awards—who will illustrate their expert advice with examples and anecdotes from their daily experiences with young children and families.

To make the program fun and interactive, the 12-question parent test will be made available prior to the broadcast so parents

Police News*Consumers to strike back against "Telephone Slamming"

Since 1995, more than one million telephone customers have fallen victim to a high-priced U.S. Sen. Dick Durbin announced new legislation to give these consumers the ability to fight back against the illegal practice of slammers.

The Durbin Slamming Protection Act of 1997, would create three obstacles to telephone slamming.

"Slamming takes choices away from consumers and rewards companies that engage in misleading practices," Durbin said. "The Slamming Protection Act establishes minimum damages of $2,000—or $6,000 if the slamming was done willfully and knowingly."

When have you been slammed? When your long-distance service has been changed without your consent or knowledge. Some telephone customers pay as much as three times the amount of their regular long-distance bill as a result of this practice. Consumers are also penalized by lost time and the hassle of trying to correct their phone bill.

New limits on uninsured motorists signed into law

Secretary of State George H. Ryan's proposal to require uninsured motorists who cause crashes to get high-risk insurance or lose their driving privileges was signed into law by Gov. Jim Edgar on Wednesday.

The law, which takes effect on Jan. 1, will require uninsured motorists who are at fault in a motor vehicle wreck to buy high-risk insurance for at least three years from the date of the crash. Drivers who fail to buy the insurance or don't maintain their policies will have their licenses suspended until they buy insurance.

"This is a way we can make sure that uninsured motorists don't repeat the offense," Ryan said. "If they know we'll be keeping a close eye on their insurance policies, we can increase compliance and get more uninsured drivers insured."

Unlike conventional auto insurers, high-risk insurance companies are required by law to notify the secretary of state's office when policies are purchased, canceled or lapsed.

Ryan estimated the new law would apply to about 21,000 uninsured motorists each year who cause traffic crashes but are not sued in court by others involved in the incident. Currently, uninsured drivers must buy high-risk insurance only if they are sued in court for damages caused in a traffic crash.

Boot Camp participants receive substance abuse counseling, vocational training and educational programming that includes literacy classes and basic computer training, in addition to high school equivalency training.

Boot Camp participants are classified upon entering the facility and placed in appropriate educational programs. Most are assigned to high school equivalency course work.

In order to be eligible for the boot camp, participants must be between the ages of 17 and 35, must have never committed a violent or sex-related crime, and must not have served more than one term in state prison. All offenders chosen for the Boot Camp must plead guilty to their charges and agree to placement in the program. All participants undergo a health and psychological assessment before they are admitted.

The Boot Camp also features an eight-month long post-detention supervision program. After release from the Boot Camp, all participants will be placed on electronic monitoring which will keep them restricted to their homes. They will also be enrolled in the Sheriff's Day Reporting Center, where they will continue to participate in education programs started in the Boot Camp.

Governor signs property tax freeze extension bill

On Monday, July 14, Governor Jim Edgar signed into law House Bill 982 which amends the revenue law to extend historic preservation tax benefits to owner-occupied multi-family residences with up to six units. Previously, the law only provided property tax freeze benefits for single family landmarked dwellings, including co-ops and condominiums.

"This bill will enable many property owners throughout the state to participate in the program," said Donna Ann Harris, Executive Director of Landmarks Preservation Council of Illinois, the prime sponsor of legislation.

Local entrepreneurs open 1st Equity Bank on Dempster

Louis Kolom (left), and Ross Levin are childhood friends who raised more than $5 million to open 1st Equity Bank at 3956 Dempster St. in Skokie, the village's newest and only local bank.

For further information, contact Donna Ann Harris, Landmarks Preservation Council of Illinois at (312) 922-1742.

It all started 25 years ago as they counted nickels and dimes at their lemonade stand on Farwell Avenue.

Little did Louis Kolom and Ross Levin realize that their entrepreneurship would some day make it possible to launch the newest and only local bank in Skokie. The lifelong friends raised more than $5 million to open 1st Equity Bank at 3956 Dempster in Skokie, not far from their initial retail collaboration in neighborhood beverage sales.

Happily, word of mouth spread and customers started arriving before the sign and official opening. A grand opening celebration is planned for early September and the entire community will be invited.

At 1st Equity, all officers are looking for new and only knowledgeable professionals will be brought on as managers. Although it is a new venture, its roots are deep in the community and in the local business and banking community. Arthur Goldrich of Skokie, chief financial officer, has 40 years of experience in public accounting and holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Chicago. Connie Griffen, loan officer, has more than 14 years of banking experience in the community.

The bank opened quietly in July with the officers and staff on site even before the sign went up. They rehabilitated the 1960's vintage building on the corner of Dempster and Crawford, removing the siding to return to the original brick and adding windows so the interior is bright and open. Neighbors have dropped in to compliment them on the improvement to the neighborhood with the distinctive red stained brick facade. The 3,700-square foot corner building was most recently the site of Record City and before that Wesley's restaurant for many years.

Tax-rate study finds justification for cutting capital gains tax

As Congress and the President negotiate on how much to cut capital gains taxes, a study by agricultural economists from the University of Illinois and Michigan State University finds justification for a reduction.

"If you look at selected investments from 1978 through 1994, you'll find that the effective tax rate on farmland has averaged almost 10 percentage points higher than 10-year treasury bonds," said David A. Lins, UI professor of agricultural and consumer economics, who co-authored the study with Lindon Robison, MSU professor of agricultural economics. "This assumes the farmland investment is sold, not passed through an estate."

The Lins-Robison study also found that effective income tax rates - what is paid after allowing for deductions - have actually been declining since 1978. For a married taxpayer with two dependents and a $75,000 income, the marginal income tax rate in 1978 was 55 percent, but after accounting for exemptions and deductions the effective income tax rate was only 32.7 percent. By 1994, the marginal rate had declined for the same taxpayer to 28 percent, with the effective rate at 15 percent.

Capital gains play an important role in the ongoing debate over competing tax cuts. The U.S. House of Representatives has passed a bill that would effectively cut the capital gains tax rate from 28 percent to 20 percent for individuals in the highest tax brackets and, after 2001, establish a system of indexing. The Senate version also reduces the rate to 20 percent but does not provide for indexing. The President's plan provides a smaller reduction in the rate for those in higher tax brackets but preserves a reduction similar to the House and Senate versions for those taxpayers with less income. It does not include indexing.

"The outcome of this debate is of considerable concern for owners of farmland," said Lins. "Capital gains are a significant component of the total returns to ownership of farmland."

"Today, some owners of farmland feel trapped in their investment. They may wish to sell the property, but are not comfortable paying the capital gains taxes that

The Turk II Professional Duct Cleaning*Duct Cleaning Can Provide Outstanding Health Benefits!!!

But First...

The Shocking Truth About Your Ducts!!

Leading medical authorities have identified air ducts as a major haven for dust, dirt, mold, mildew, viruses and contaminants of all kinds.

The dirt and debris in your air ducts absorb moisture which then becomes a breeding ground for bacteria and fungi. This can cause disease or produce allergic symptoms.

Every time your system turns on, these contaminants are recirculated throughout your home. This leads to sinus problems, respiratory difficulties and will aggravate allergies.

"1 of 6 people who suffer from allergies do so because of the direct relationship to the fungi and bacteria in air duct systems."

Total Health and Better Health Magazine

It seems that study after study has shown that dirty air ducts cultivate a host of infectious diseases including fungi, bacteria, and even viruses like hypersensitivity pneumonitis which is a flu-like illness.

Doctors and allergists across the country, along with the American Lung Association, scientists, researchers and a host of other leading medical authorities strongly recommend a complete and professional air duct cleaning.

Having Dirty Ducts Is Like Throwing Your Money Away!

If the health concerns weren't enough, there is new evidence that the pollutants in your air ducts also contribute to equipment failure and excessive energy costs.

The dirt and dust forms on the inside of your ducts and cooling coil. This restricts the air flow and causes your system to work harder and longer, eventually leading to inefficient operation and premature equipment failure.

If you think a little bit of water won't hurt anything, listen to this...

"A buildup of .042 inches of dirt on a heating or cooling coil can result in a decrease in efficiency of 21%."

Environmental Protection Agency

non-staining and is widely used in hospitals. It is also approved by the American Lung Association and the EPA. Our process will have fewer breakdowns.

Facts About Air System Contamination

The average adult inhales 2 tablespoons of household dust daily.

Indoor air is found to be up to 70 times more polluted than outdoor air.

The average six room house collects 40 pounds of dust each year.

• 9 of 10 system failures are caused by the effects of dirt and dust.

• 50% of all illnesses are caused or aggravated by polluted indoor air.

• Professional duct cleaning will remove dust, dirt and microorganisms in your ducts. The air you breathe will be cleaner and fresher.

Neighborhood Watch leads anti-crime walk

achieved an ambassadorship to France in her later years.

Marilyn's Husband No. 2: Joe DiMaggio was our athletic director at a Santa Ana airbase during World War II. He was a very nice man who would sit with us 18 year olds and tell baseball stories about his career as a Yankee. When he finished with our class he would drive off in his convertible and come back to the base in the evening to play baseball for the camp team. When we moved down the coast to the Presidio of Monterey Yankee second baseman Joe Gordon moved into our barracks.

TV Comedy: In David Halberstam's "Fifties" book he noted in the early fifties "I Love Lucy" was watched by 10 million families each week. In those days it was an astounding figure and put CBS in the black for the first time since they entered the TV field.

TV comedies have come and gone but we still watch "Mash" and "The Odd Couple", 20 year old programs which are among the best written TV shows. Both comedies were originally created by major writers, Max Shulman and Neil Simon.

Trivia: The average multiple-screen theatre has five screens.

Football trivia: Professional football careers average three and a half years.

UPS strike: A Gallup poll showed Americans favored workers' positions by a 2-1 margin. Years ago an acquaintance of ours told us UPS was a very tough and mean company to work for. Her family member had worked there, both inside and outside, for many years.

Black athletes: The black population in America is about 35 million. About 1,200 of them make a living as professional athletes.

Black Celebrities: While Jackie Robinson's heroic efforts helped to break down racial barriers in America back in 1947 the exposure on TV of Oprah Winfrey and Bill Cosby in recent years has created more good will among all Americans than most other singular efforts.

Baby Sitter Of A Hall Of Famer: Niles Director of Enforcement Code, Todd Barro and his wife, used to baby sit new baseball hall of famer Nellie Fox's children.

Breakfast Of Champions: Many years ago we had a neighbor who lived on the corner of Monroe and Ozanam who previously had boarded in the same house as young comedian Shelly Berman. Her only memory was that Berman had to have his fix of Wheaties, day after day.

The Velvet Fog: I was in the same high school class as Mel Torme at Hyde Park High School. At best I had a nodding acquaintance with him. Many years ago I interviewed him at the Mill Run Theatre in Golf Mill. I jokingly told him I was his number one fan and then proceeded to tell him about some incidents I remembered from our high school days. When I finished, he said, "you must be my number one fan". I laughed and confessed, not only was I not his number one fan, but I wasn't his number 100 fan. I told him we had gone to school together. He asked me my name and then repeated it, "Besser, Besser, Besser?" Then he asked my first name. When I said, "Bud", he repeated my full name, "Bud Besser, Bud Besser, Bud Besser?" After a brief pause, he gave me the ultimate put-down...."I never heard of you."

Baseball nostalgia: Last week my granddaughter went to a Cube game with her Dad. She asked me to lend her a baseball glove which she could take to the park. Down in the basement I found my old finger glove with Mel Ott's name autographed in the front pocket of the glove. My son-in-law was amazed there was only strings attached between the thumb and the forefinger of the glove, unlike the webbing which is in the present-day gloves.

An expensive game of catch: In a recent edition of the Money section of the Tribune a reporter claimed an autographed Babe Ruth baseball in good condition may bring as much as $4,000 on the collector's market. If it has as a second autograph, such as Lou Gehrig's, it could bring up to $12,000. Thirty-five years ago my 6 year old son wanted to play catch with his Dad. It was so elated I reached in a drawer and pulled out a baseball and proceeded to play five or ten minutes of "catch". When I brought the ball into the house I noticed we had inadvertently used an old keep-sake, a Babe Ruth autographed baseball from the thirties, which also included Lou Gehrig's and Jimmy Foxx's signatures. We had scuffed up the ball and only the "H" in Ruth's name and the last letters of Gehrig's and Foxx's names were visible. That 5 or 10 minutes of "catch" might have been the most expensive game of "catch" in baseball history - $12,000 worth of "catch".

A lounge, two large divisible multi-purpose rooms, staff offices and locker rooms (including family locker room for parents with young children of the opposite sex) fill out the first level. A dramatic two-and-one-half story circulation drum leads from the reception area to the upper floors. A curving stair, a series of bridges and a suspended stair cut through the drum to connect all three levels.

The second floor gym, which is the size of two high school-sized basketball courts, is designed to accommodate volleyball and indoor soccer as well. The aerobics room and large fitness center with free weights also are on the second level. A running track is located around the gym on the third level.

The village plans to hire a health and wellness director to manage the facility and organize programming. Also under consideration are possible cooperative programs with a health care provider, such as nearby Lutheran General Hospital or other local health agencies.

Selman said the village has had initial discussions with Lutheran General, and that the hospital will probably play a role in the Health and Wellness Center once it has opened.

To facilitate the physical health and recreation needs of Niles, the south half of the building is devoted to recreation, with a large pool for lap swimming and leisure pool that features a swim channel, water sprays and geysers and a curving slide. Zero-depth entry provides comfortable access for senior citizens, children and those with disabilities. The aquatics area also includes a

Ameritech seeks representatives

Ameritech New Media is expanding its customer care center in Itasca and plans to hire an additional 50 service representatives to serve its growing number of cable TV customers in Illinois, Michigan and Ohio.

"Customers are excited and they're responding to Ameritech's competitive cable service, even more than we could have imagined," said Deb Lenart, president of Ameritech New Media.

"We began serving our first cable

TV customer in May of last year and already, where it's available, one out of every 3 families watching cable TV is watching our american(TM) service."

The subsidiary of Ameritech began offering its enhanced cable TV service in Arlington Heights earlier this summer, and is expected to begin offering service to residents of Elgin later this year. Ameritech New Media also offers its enhanced cable television service, called american(TM), to customers in Glendale Heights, Glen Ellyn and Naperville, as well as 25 other communities in Michigan and Ohio.

The north portion of the building contains the Human Services Department. The first and second floor house multi-purpose rooms and classrooms for the many senior citizen programs in Niles. On the third floor, Family Services will provide individual and group counseling services for adults and children in the community.

Selman said the village chose Burnidge Cassell because of a similar center the architects designed in Park Ridge. "It didn't have a municipal look to it; it had a flavor to it that made people want to come there. The design they've given us here is dynamite. This will be a milestone in the area. It will attract a lot of attention, and we're confident it will attract a lot of people."

New Whealan Pool Aquatic Center open

Cook County Board President John Stroger recently announced the opening of Whealan Aquatic Center (Chicago) at a recent press conference and reception. Joining President Stroger for the opening were (l-r) Commissioners Ted Lechowicz, Darlene Williams-Burnett, Peter Silvestri, John Daley, and Maria Pappas.

The Suburban Area Agency on Aging, Oak Park, and Southwest Airlines would like to make this Holiday season especially memorable for some very lucky suburban Cook County seniors. Together, they are sponsoring a "Home for the Holidays" contest to reunite seniors with loved ones they haven't been able to visit because of financial hardships. The lucky seniors will win a round trip ticket to any one of Southwest's designated airports in the United States for travel during the 1997 Winter Holiday season.

The contest, which has been an annual event for the last 6 years, has brought many families back together. Last year, some winners made trips to see relatives and friends they hadn't seen in over 15 years! To be eligible for the contest, a senior must: be 65 years of age or older; have an immediate family member near one of the cities served by Southwest that the person has not seen in a long time; preferably live alone on a fixed income; and be otherwise unable to afford the trip.

"Home for the Holidays" applications are available in both Spanish and English and can be obtained by contacting the Suburban Area Agency on Aging, 1146 Westgate, Suite L112, Oak Park, IL 60301, (708) 383-0258. Applications must be submitted by Friday, October 17, 1997, and winners will be notified in early November. Southwest Airlines will present the winners with their tickets at a special ceremony in late November, 1997. Tickets awarded are valid from December 1, 1997 through January 10, 1998.

The Suburban Area Agency on Aging is one of 13 agencies in Illinois designated by the Illinois Department on Aging to plan, coordinate, advocate and fund services for people over age 60. In its fiscal year 1996, the Area Agency and its network of senior service agencies served 97,070

PUBLIC INFORMATION MEETING

to be held for proposed improvement project on Beckwith Road and Church Street

Notice is hereby given that the Village of Morton Grove will hold two public information meetings concerning proposed improvements on Beckwith Road and Church Street between Washington Street and Linder Avenue in Cook County. The first meeting will be held at the Mansfield Park Field House, 5830 Church Street, Morton Grove on Monday, August 25, 1997. The second meeting will be held at the National Park Field House, 8325 Marion Avenue, Morton Grove on Tuesday, August 26, 1997. Both meetings will begin at 6:30 p.m. and end at 9:00 p.m. A formal presentation explaining the study process and extent of improvements will be made at 7:00 p.m.

Hundreds of Cook County residents and the "Whealan Pool Mermaids" helped the Forest Preserve District mark the grand opening of the Whealan Pool Aquatic Center. The "Whealan Pool Mermaids" participated in the opening day ceremony of the original facility in 1932.

Pet Line

The Village of Niles has created a PET LINE. Interested residents can call and seek assistance with common animal related questions - examples include:

- Advice on basic dog training/housebreaking;
- Cat behavior issues;
- Dog breeding questions - timing, how to prepare;
- Proper diet and nutrition;
- Suggestions for preventing/eliminating external parasites such as fleas and ticks.

PET LINE: 847/588-6508.

Personnel from the Village of Morton Grove will be available to discuss the proposed project between 6:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. and immediately following the presentation. Interested citizens and organizations from the affected area in Morton Grove may comment on the proposed design features. Written statements and other exhibits in place of, or in addition to oral statements at the public meeting will be received at the time of the meeting or at the Village of Morton Grove, 6101 Capulina Avenue, Morton Grove, Illinois 60053-2983 for a period of ten days subsequent to the holding of the public meetings.

The proposed improvement will consist primarily of milling, patching and resurfacing of the existing pavement. Due to the extent of patching and curb replacement needed, the pavement will be reconstructed between Washington Street and Oriole Avenue, and between Austin Avenue and Linder Avenue. New turning lanes and a modernized traffic signal system will be provided at the Beckwith Road intersection with Harms Road. The existing rural pavement section between Lehighton Avenue and Narragansett Avenue will be modified with a curb and gutter to create an urban pavement section. New "left-turn-only" lanes will be added at Natchez Avenue, Narragansett Avenue and Austin Avenue. The existing storm, sanitary and combined sewers will be repaired throughout the length of the project. New water mains will be constructed between Washington Street and Ozark Avenue, and between Waukegan Road and Narragansett Avenue.

To construct this improvement, additional right-of-way will be required at the Beckwith Road intersection with Waukegan Road. Personnel from the Village will be present at the meeting to discuss right-of-way acquisition procedures.

Engineering and environmental studies completed to date will be discussed at the meeting and public comments and questions will be solicited on the proposed improvement. The draft Project Development Report will be available for review and comment.

Maps, sketches and other information pertinent to the design of the proposed improvement will be available for inspection at the public meeting or later at the Department of Community Development, Village of Morton Grove, 6101 Capulina Avenue, Morton Grove.

Questions regarding the public meetings may be directed to Charles Scheek, Director of Community Development at (847) 965-4100 or (847) 470-5231.
