

AB Dick gives Library lease extension for February

by Rosemary Tirio

After weeks of negotiations, the AB Dick Company, new landlord of the building at 7400 Caldwell Ave. where the library has been housed temporarily while construction work is completed at the Oakton Street-Waukegan Road building, granted the Niles Library a lease extension for the month of February.

"AB Dick did contact us and did agree to extend the lease for the month of February," said Library Administrator Cary Czarnecki. "We are negotiating now for one more month," he added. After lengthy negotiations with the Broadway Construction Company of Chicago, library trustees reached an agreement guaranteeing that at least 35,000 square feet will be completed by April 1 allowing the library staff to move the library's holdings back into the building, Czarnecki said.

The agreement stipulates 35,000 square feet because that was the amount of space used at

Groundbreaking for Public Works bldg. in the fall

by Rosemary Tirio

Progress on the new public works building which is to be built on the former Jozwiak Park site after the park is relocated on 7.4 acres of the Renaissance property at Touhy and Harlem avenues was brought up at the Jan. 27 Village Board meeting.

Niles Finance Director George Van Geem said "We are not going to build that building until we've completely developed Joz-wiak Park. It will probably be a year until we put one shovel in the ground for that building."

Village Manager Abe Selman said that the public works building project is on schedule but that the final plans have not been drawn up by the architects as yet. The Village Board approved the project in concept, but "we just don't have the plans in hand yet."

District 219 considers bond sale to defer deficit

Officials of the Niles Township District 219 don't need a crystal ball to see that a dire financial crisis is just a few years away.

At a finance committee meeting Jan. 26, District 219 Board President Robert Silverman said that the board must find sources of revenue besides selling bonds to solve the problem.

The district's financial consultant, William Blair & Co., made a presentation confirming the gravity of the situation as the district continues spending more than it takes in and a deficit of $60,000 in the education fund is predicted by the end of the 2005-06 school year. The building and tort liability funds would also show large deficits by that time, officials said.

A deficit in the overall operating fund balance is predicted by the end of the 1999-2000 school year.

Pontarelli's personal bankruptcy has no impact on numerous area developments: Mayor Blase

Niles reassures anxious public about Pontarelli

by Kathleen Quirsfeld

Niles residents were reassured by the Village Board at its monthly meeting, Tuesday night, about the safety of the arrangement of the Village has made with Pontarelli & Associates.

Jim Cienny, a 15-year resident of Niles, approached the podium asked the Board about a concern he had after reading in Crain's Chicago Business newspaper that Michael Pontarelli had filed for bankruptcy. Cienny queried what the Board knew about the matter.

Mayor Blase, Trustee Bart Murphy and Finance Director, George VanGeem confidently stated that this report had nothing to do with the condominium development project currently under construction at Touhy & Harlem Avenues.

"Pontarelli Co. is not going bankrupt," the Mayor vehemently said. "This (newspaper story) has nothing to do with the condominium development." VanGeem stated that under the terms of the Illinois Tax Increment Allocation Redevelopment Act (TIF) agreement, the Village

Coyotes, deer stir up trouble in area cemeteries

by Rosemary Tirio

Departing from the Bugle's custom of ignoring unsigned letters to the editor, an investigation was launched when a "Concerned Citizen" who purports to be a 30-year Niles resident wrote that deer and fawns are being killed in Maryhill Cemetery by coyotes that Mayor Nicholas B. Blase allegedly "had someone put in the cemetery to kill the fawns and deer."

The anonymous writer stated that loud cries and moans are emanating from the cemetery, but that cemetery personnel deny hearing or seeing any coyotes or foxes in the cemetery. The writer also alleges that he or she has actually seen dead animals lying in the cemetery and then being picked up by "men with trucks."

When Village Manager Abe Selman was contacted, he labeled the alleged problem "absolute nonsense."

"People go to the cemetery to visit the graves of their relatives. Can you imagine what would

Edward Jones: Ask Your Lawyer About a Power of Attorney

Suppose you were going away on an extended trip and wanted someone else—your accountant or a grown child, for example—to handle your investments while you were away. Would your broker let them?

Probably not without a power of attorney.

A power of attorney (POA) is a document that allows you to authorize someone else to act on your behalf. POAs are used frequently—for example, to allow spouses to conduct business for each other, or adult children to handle their older parents' finances. The examples are endless.

POAs are legal documents that should be drafted with guidance from an attorney. The attorney can ensure that you clearly specify what act(s) the POA is designed to accomplish.

In a POA, the person giving the authority is the principal, and the authorized person is the agent, POA and/or attorney-in-fact. Common transactions between agents and brokerage firms include purchases, sales, gifts and loans. POAs give agents fiduciary duty to act in the principal's best interests and make decisions that are reasonably prudent and suitable for the principal.

Most POAs give agents general authority to make purchases for the principal. Securities purchases, due to their increased risk, need specific language authorizing the added risk. Transfers and gifts that change ownership of property require even more specific language.

Many transfer agents accept general language, such as "the power to sell, assign and transfer securities." However, some transfer agents may find such general language unacceptable. Therefore, it's to your benefit to be as specific as possible in describing the powers granted by your POA. Avoid blanket POAs that give your agent unlimited discretion.

In most states there is no automatic expiration date on POAs. However, it's best to write them to expire at a specific time. For POAs older than one year, brokers typically are required to certify that the principal is alive and the POA remains in effect. POAs are not valid after the principal dies. However, most POAs today are drafted as "durable," meaning they remain in effect even if the principal becomes mentally incompetent.

If you have a need for someone else to act on your behalf, see your lawyer about a power of attorney. Getting legal help can ensure that you don't give away the store.

Maine East Career Month Activities/Project Big

February is traditionally designated Career Month at Maine East with College/Career counselor Verne Farrell actively organizing activities so students can explore career choices in-depth.

Several field trips and speaker opportunities have been scheduled at Maine East for the weeks ahead; Mrs. Farrell also encourages all levels of students and their parents to attend Project Big, District 207's annual career night, scheduled Tuesday, March 17, at Maine West.

The first of three speaker programs at Maine East features Dr. Ravi Dhillon, Maine East alum, Class of 1983. He will discuss medical careers on Tuesday, February 17. The following day the career speaker program highlights the application of physics and chemistry careers. Then, Thursday, February 19, Mr. Steve Brenner, Maine East alum, Class of 1984, will discuss the field of law.

Four field trips have also been planned as part of Career Month at Maine East. If students are considering a military career, they should plan to attend the Tuesday, February 3, field trip to Great Lakes Naval Base. Technical careers will be highlighted with a field trip to DeVry and I.T.T. on Friday, February 6. MacCormac and Robert Morris Colleges will be visited Wednesday, February 11, so Maine East students can explore health/computer/art/business careers. Management, finance, and marketing careers will be the highlight of the Wednesday, February 25, field trip to Northwestern University.

Mrs. Farrell advises interested Maine East students to visit the CRC in guidance immediately to pick up either field trip permission forms or classroom passes for the speaker programs in the CRC as space is limited for both career activities.

Project Big, from 7-9 p.m. at Maine West Tuesday, March 17, will feature representatives from well over 100 occupations. The adult representatives are actually employed in the jobs they represent and have volunteered, according to Mrs. Farrell, to share with students the requirements, benefits, and day-to-day experiences that their career field involves.

Michael and Natasha

Book reviewer Suzanne Hales will discuss Michael and Natasha: the Life and Love of Michael II, The last of the Romanov Tsars by Rosemary and Donald Crawford at the Lincolnwood Public Library on Feb. 6. The book is a portrait of the last age of elegance as it tells one of the greatest love stories of all times -- a passion that would never fade and that would lead to disgrace, cruel humiliation and banishment. Michael and Natasha gives an account of World War I, of front line heroism and of events that brought about the downfall of Nicholas II and his abdication in favor of his brother, the Grand Duke Michael Aleksandrovich. The bobsleigh team has seasoned veterans returning to lead their drive to the 1998 Nagano Winter Olympic Games. They have successfully worked well together to score World Cup points and qualify for the 1994 Olympic games in their second season.

The team of Greg Gebald (driver) and John-Andrew Kambanis (brakeman), a 1991 Notre Dame

As a former collegiate sprinter John has participated in competitions around the world and will continue as the team's brakeman.

To ensure top athletic performance during the racing season, the team utilizes a year-round training program including push camps and sport-specific programs at the U.S. Olympic Training Center. Both Greg and John have recently been doing some of their training at Notre Dame High School, Niles, taking advantage of the all-weather track and weight facilities. Notre Dame wishes John as well as his teammates great success in the 1998 Winter Olympics.

Letters to the Editor

Snug Hugs for Kids expresses gratitude

Dear Editor:

We at Merlin Muffler & Brake would like to express our thanks for the hard work and generosity of citizens throughout the greater Chicagoland area, along with more than 2,400 Girl Scouts and more than 100 knitters & crocheters who helped make our Sixth Annual Snug Hugs For Kids™ winter clothing drive a record success. We are happy to report that due to their efforts we collected more than 25,000 pounds, or 12+ tons, of quality winter clothing. All clothing collected benefited thousands of children served through the Children's Home & Aid Society of Illinois in 40 counties throughout the state.

Merlin would also like to express our gratitude for the support of many community leaders. This year more than thirty proclamations declaring Nov. 1-Dec. 17, 1997, Snug Hugs For Kids Days were issued by community, state and nationally elected officials, including Mayor Richard M. Daley, Governor Jim Edgar and Senator William Shaw.

As part of Snug Hugs '97, the First Annual Merlin Snug Hugs Knit-A-Thon™ & Crochet Event, was held on November 15 in St. Charles, IL. At this event some 100 knitting and crochet enthusiasts gathered to make mittens, scarves, hats, slippers, sweaters, blankets and other warm winter wear over the course of 11 hours. They were joined by dozens of "virtual" volunteers who learned about Snug Hugs from the internet and contributed from as far away as Canada.

Also for the first time, the Girl Scouts were officially involved in the drive. For the past 5 years Brownie Troop #941 (they are Junior Girl Scouts now) collected clothing for Snug Hugs as its holiday service project. Led by Kathy Norman, the Des Plaines troop was the inspiration for Merlin adding the Kids Helping Kids™ component to the Snug Hugs event this year.

We at Merlin believe that community service is a life long lesson, especially when taught early on. We applauded the Girl Scout organization, all the girls, their leaders and families for helping Snug Hugs reach new heights.

In addition to Merlin Muffler & Brake's sponsorship of the annual event, we would like to recognize several Chicago area companies that helped out with in-kind donations. They include: National Photo Service Inc., 3X Copy Centers, Tenneco Packaging, Ilford Film, Whiteco Outdoor Advertising and Sonoco Industrial Container.

And last, but not least, we want to thank Bugle Publications for helping spread the word to its readers about Snug Hugs For Kids. It is through the media that more people find out about worthy community service projects like Snug Hugs and we appreciate your support.

Sincerely,
Penny McDowell,
Marketing Coordinator

First installment of real estate taxes due

Approximately 1.5 million first installment real estate tax bills have been mailed to Cook County property owners, announced Cook County Treasurer Edward J. Rosewell.

The tax bills reflect 1997 real estate taxes due in 1998. The statutory due date for the tax bills is March 1. However, because this is a Sunday, and Monday, March 2, is Casimir Pulaski Day, a legal county holiday, payments will be accepted through Tuesday, March 3, without penalty. Payments received after March 3 will be assessed a 1 1/2 percent per month penalty on the amount due.

The first installment bills are for estimated taxes based upon 1/2 of the previous year's total tax bill. The second installment bill, due next August, will reflect the actual tax rates and assessments.

The tax bills can be paid by mail in the enclosed return envelope, or in person at any of the Treasurer's six offices. These offices include the downtown office at 118 North Clark Street, and the five suburban offices located at: 16501 South Kedzie, Markham; 1500 Maybrook Drive, Maywood; 5600 Old Orchard Road, Skokie; 10200 South 76th Avenue, Bridgeview and 2121 Euclid Avenue, Rolling Meadows.

Rosewell said that as soon as his office begins receiving payments, distributions of these taxes will be made to the county's more than 1,100 taxing agencies.

He reminded property owners that it is their responsibility to pay their real estate taxes by the due date. If a property owner does not receive a tax bill, he or she can obtain a duplicate free of charge at any of the six offices, or by calling the Treasurer's office at (312) 443-5100.

People helping people

Dear Editor:

Who says there is no such thing as a Good Samaritan anymore? I would like to say a great big Thank You to four such people. Recently, I was driving home from school, when someone in the car next to me got my attention. She let me know that one of the back tires on my car was low on air. As a result, I pulled into the Mobil station at Cicero & Devon. When I got there, I tried to take the tire off. I got part of the way through and then I ran into a problem, the lugnuts on the tire were rusted on. When the woman working at the station noticed that I was having trouble, she tried to help loosen them. When that didn't work, she asked her boss for help. He came out, helped a little and then let me know that if I could get my car to the service station across the street, they could help me. As I got ready to do just that, a nice young man approached me and said that he would help. He took over where the woman and I left off, proceeded to loosen the lugnuts and put on the spare.

I would like to say to all of those people out there who think that people won't help you unless there is something in it for them, you are wrong. If you really need it, help will come, you just have to believe in the kindness of others.

Sincerely,
Laura Hedberg

905 Club comes alive with jazz, blues and rock and roll

The 905 Club, 9055 N. Milwaukee Ave., Niles, has transformed itself into one of the northwest suburbs' hottest nightclubs with the announcement of upcoming shows featuring jazz drummer Tony Smith's Tony Smith Show, the big-band sound of "Breezin'", and the unique musical stories of love songs of singer-songwriter Stuart Jacobson. The two-year old nightclub also added Euro-Greek Night featuring "Gus Babalis, Your Greek D.J.," on Tuesdays, and Karaoke Night on Wednesdays, and has expanded its space and menu to accommodate banquets and private parties. Smith's group—formerly Tony Smith and the Aristocrats—brings a 40s, jazz, blues, comedy, calypso, limbo show to the 905 Club on Friday and Saturday, February 6-7. Smith has been performing since the 1950s and mixes old and new music, jazz, blues, and rock and roll. The "Breezin'" brand of popular songs ranging from today's contemporary music to hits from the 50s and 60s, including a big band sound and older standards, is featured Saturday, February 21. The band, with Niles roots and Windy City sophistication, draws the young and young-at-heart. Jacobson and Vince Micko, of "Stuart Jacobson and the Missing Bikini Top," play songs from their debut album, "Romance Theatre," on the Frozen Lips label, and tunes from his upcoming album, in a special Valentine's Day show on Saturday, February 14. Jacobson, who was invited to perform March 29 at the prestigious Bluebird Cafe in Nashville, was just signed to write the title song for a soon-to-be-announced Fox Television Network comedy show. All shows begin at 9 p.m. "The 905 Club has made a commitment to bring the finest entertainment to the northwest suburbs," said Sam Sutter, manager of the two-year-old nightclub. For more information call (847) 470-1700.

Barnette pledges, children first

Eighth District democratic State Senate candidate, Randy J. Barnette, issued a long-term funding proposal for Illinois' public school system. The education plan, called "Children First," would allocate a majority of Illinois' new revenue growth to the funding of Illinois' public education, and would be accomplished without any additional tax increases.

Illinois currently allocates only 36% of funding toward public schools, with the vast majority coming from local property taxes. This allows for school districts with healthy businesses and expensive homes to have a strong tax base of support for their local schools, while rural areas and communities without a strong property tax base fall far short of their funding goals. The education funding proposal would be the first bill introduced by Barnette.

"It is time for the State to live up to its promise to the children of Illinois and fulfill our constitutional responsibility, by providing the majority of funding to our public schools," said Barnette. "Until Illinois' commitment to our public schools reaches majority funding, 51% of every dollar of new revenue Illinois collects would be dedicated toward our schools." If "Children First" had been implemented last year, more than 423 million new dollars would have been added to Illinois' public school system. This dollar figure is more than the $332 million tax increase passed by the General Assembly in 1997.

Illinois approaches 1 million annual locate requests

JULIE, Inc., the Illinois One-Call System, and DIGGER, Chicago's Utility Alert Network combined to once again make Illinois the highest volume "Call Before You Dig" state in the U.S. in 1997. Over 989,000 utility locate requests were called in by Illinois excavators over the past year. JULIE processed over 876,000 locate requests across Illinois, while CUAN handled over 113,000 requests from Chicago excavators.

JULIE's call volume represents an 8.2% increase in excavation notification in Illinois through JULIE from 1996's benchmark of 810,242 calls. An average of 5.98 messages per call, or over 5,176,000 messages for the year, were sent to the appropriate utility companies across the state who are members of the Illinois One-Call System. JULIE membership currently stands at 780, including 27 new members who joined in 1997.

In 1997, JULIE set ten single month call volume records, including its first ever 100,000 call month in April.

"Illinois excavators, utility companies and the one-call staffs at JULIE and CUAN all shared in making Illinois a leader in utility damage prevention," according to JULIE Board President Steve Meyer, who is Superintendent of the City of Aurora's Water & Sewer Department. "The fact that Illinois' ranks first in the nation is a credit to this shared concern for safety," Meyer concluded.

JULIE is a not-for-profit organization that notifies member utility facility owners/operators of planned digging activities in areas where facilities are present. Each utility sends locators to the dig site to mark the location of buried utility lines. JULIE serves the entire state of Illinois outside the City of Chicago and provides contractors, homeowners and others who plan to dig, with a toll-free telephone number to call for the locating and marking of underground facilities, which are done at no cost to the excavator.

Exploring Niles' History:

Robert E. Reed "sold" homes in Niles to people who didn't know they weren't buying them Bless the day you weren't there to buy the gorgeous Cape Cod brick that Robert E. Reed was going to build especially for you. It would be in a beautiful development that closed-in suburb, Niles, Illinois.

The model stood there inviting all to take a closer look. It was on Waukegan, just south of Oakton. The price was steep: $1,000. At the time, 1946, a year after World War II ended, most full time employees were not making a dollar an hour. Niles policemen were getting paid .85 cents an hour in 1946.

But veterans, newly-married, and working as civilians for a year or so, were especially attracted to the site. Postcards were mailed to interested parties. There was an office in Chicago, another at the model building in up-and-coming Niles.

In a few weeks more than fifty, in their minds, new home owners signed on the dotted line. Each gave Reed a down payment of $2,000 to $3,000. Many had borrowed from others to make the down payment.

Weeks, months, a couple years, passed. During this time, there was little evidence, said the future home owners, of any building activity. Reed would respond by digging out a foundation. More complaints. Another foundation. Still more complaints. A third foundation was started, next to the model, and four rows of brick were layered.

A Chicago newspaper headline shocked and stunned the would-be home owners. Reed had taken off. All the deposit money went with him. Checks that Reed had written in payment of the land and to the construction workers bounced. Construction workers, who now realized they would not be paid, walked off the job. The states attorney began searching for Reed.

Reed gets ten-year jail term
All indications pointed to Reed coming from Pennsylvania to Niles. He "developed" a similar project in Pennsylvania using a different name. Months later Reed would be located in California but would not be prosecuted in Illinois since Pennsylvania, said the law, was entitled to prosecute first. Reed, eventually, was sentenced to ten years in prison.

Niles would-be home owners realized they did not own anything. All were out their $2000 to $3000. Several attorneys were approached. Each turned down the plea of the "home owners" until Anton Smigiel listened sympathetically.

Smigiel brought all debtors together: tradesmen, merchants, everyone who gave money to

The cost is $15/advance or $20/door. Valet parking is available at additional cost. Adults of all ages are welcome. Coat & tie/dressy attire are recommended. Anyone wishing more information may call 312/661-1976.

"Lovers' Holiday" weekend at Howard Johnson Hotel

Valentine's Day is a time of quiet togetherness - an intimate time for two - and there is no better place to celebrate this romantic holiday night than at the relaxing Howard Johnson Hotel, 9333 Skokie Blvd., Skokie, for their "Lovers' Holiday" on Valentine's Day night, Saturday, Feb. 14.

This charming hotel offers a special Valentine rate, and for just $99 guests may enjoy the cozy ambience of its Tower rooms, with a king-sized bed, wine, special amenities, two complimentary cocktails at the lively adjacent Don's Tavern, and access to the hotel's indoor swimming pool, which at 25' by 50' is the largest pool of any area hotel, with an adjacent sauna, exercise room and whirlpool.

Guests may also enjoy a complimentary hot buffet breakfast on Sunday morning, with eggs, sausage, pancakes, fresh fruit, coffee/tea and juices.

Just off the lobby is the award-winning Don's Fishmarket which is offering a special "Lovers' Delight" prix-fixe dinner featuring the special foods of romance, including House-Made Lobster Cakes, Menage au Deux (tenderloin nestled with grilled scampi), Grilled Fresh Salmon, and for dessert - such aphrodisiacal enjoyments as Passion by Chocolate (chocolate heart stuffed with white chocolate mousse and fresh berries) and Raspberry St. Philippe Cake. This romantic dinner will be served from 4 to 11 p.m. and is priced at $39.95. And other fresh seafood and prime steak selections will also be available at the Fishmarket as well. For reservations at the restaurant, call (847) 677-3424.

For reservations and information on the Lovers' Holiday hotel package, call the hotel at (847) 679-4200, and ask for the Lovers' Holiday weekend.

A tall order of magic at Morton Grove Library

Grab your sweethearts and bring them to the Morton Grove Public Library for a Valentine's Day magic show with Dennis DeBont, the "Sears Tower of Magic." At 67', Mr. DeBont truly towers above the rest, but his Good Clean Comedy Magic show on Saturday, February 14 at 10:30 a.m., puts children and adults on the same level with plenty of laughter and magical mystery. Mr. DeBont will choose one child from the audience to levitate; it could be you.

the struggle went on to elected or appointed positions in the government in the Village of Niles.

The Reed episode was well documented in newspapers. After the Kirk Lane Homeowners Association was launched, it was called upon by other emerging groups of homeowners who encountered problems.

Who has records of homeowner associations?
Scant, documented information is available on homeowner associations in Niles. Even the Grennen Heights Improvement Association which had its own newsletter and frequent columns in neighborhood newspapers, could not locate the names of its presidents when preparing to celebrate their 25th anniversary. The Golden Acres Homeowners Association, The Golden Triangle Homeowners Association had intriguing names. But what were their activities? How long were they active? The Jonquil Terrace Civic Association tried to launch a junior chamber of commerce in 1954. The Greenwood Estates Homeowners Association, was concerned about faulty construction of new homes.

Homeowner associations were vital in developing the stability of many areas in Niles. Perhaps there are records of these associations hidden away in some basement or attic. It would greatly assist us as we are writing the history of Niles if such records can be located and donated to the Niles Historical Museum.

What types of records? Original flyers, leaflets, pamphlets, encouraging people to attend an organization meeting. Maps of the area the association would represent. Rosters of members. The first constitution or by-laws. Newsletters or announcements of activities. Minutes or notes of meetings. Photographs of association activities.

Christmas is just a few "days" away and we're all "seasoned" to respond, we have no time. But the League of Women Voters, in the persons of Marilyn Kramer and Elizabeth Matteoni, went through several hundred pounds of records and put in an order for four good-sized boxes of their records for deposit in the Niles Historical Museum.

They somehow found the time and delivered all records with a smile to convince us it can be done during the Christmas season. And they weren't even shut in by big snowfall.

Thanks for looking. Deliver or mail to: Niles Historical Museum, 8970 N. Milwaukee Ave., Niles, Illinois, 60714.

Park district operating budget open for viewing

Dear Niles Residents:

The Niles Park District Proposed Operating Budget for the Fiscal Year 1998 is available for the public to view beginning January 16, 1998 through February 16, 1998. You are encouraged to visit the Howard Leisure Center at 6676 W. Howard to look over the Proposed Budget.

This budget is made up of the following funds: Corporate, Recreation, Golf Course, Pools, Ice Rink and Food Operations. As you are aware, we discussed each fund at length at our budget workshops held January 7th, 8th and finalized on Friday, January 9th. This budget will be presented for final approval on Tuesday, February 17th at our regular scheduled Board Meeting.

I want to thank all the staff and their supervisors for the many hours of hard work to prepare this budget. I also want to thank my support staff, especially my Executive Secretary, Kris Svachula for all the time to assist me in the final production of this document. Many more questions were asked this year since this was my first experience with the municipal budget process. I truly appreciate all those who helped me through it. Just having a list of numbers would be very difficult to comprehend. This year we again have included the Narratives and Objectives for 1998 and Accomplishments for 1997 for each department.

We encourage you to look at our capital improvements proposed for 1998. The Board of Commissioners and staff have come up with a list of much needed repairs. We recognize that some of our heavily used buildings are aging and in need of repair and upgrades. Grennan Heights and our fitness room will be renovated. New fitness equipment will be added. The completion of our bank stabilization project will take place in the Spring of 1998. Upon completion, the golf course river banks will take on an environmentally pleasing appearance. Our wetlands project will not only add a natural setting, but will provide an education workshop for all of the plant life. In 1998, Park Services will continue their outstanding work on our playgrounds, parks and ballfields. Many hours of discussion have taken place about O'Shanter's Restaurant. This year will bring a major change to this facility. We have decided to make O'Shanter's more golfer friendly. Renovation will begin this winter. A more friendly atmosphere will be created and terrace dining will be available during the season.

Air Force Airman Jason J. Gramza has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Gramza is the son of Victor J. and Melissa A. Gramza of Niles.

Many thanks to all the Board Members and staff who made the decisions to move forward on these projects to continue our goal to provide the best quality park district services to our residents and customers.

Once again we are faced with a new fiscal year under the continued tax cap. It is imperative that we look toward our operating funds to furnish the monies needed to keep our facilities operating. Staff will continue to plan over the next three years to generate fund balances in all our funds. These fund balances would be used in emergencies and for capital replacement items. Staff working with the Board of Commissioners will study cost analysis in programs, alternate funding sources and careful use of operating funds. This will be done in a careful and businesslike manner.

Although many challenges lie ahead, the 1998 budget is designed to provide the highest quality recreation programs and services, along with manicured parks and modern facilities, while maximizing the efficiency and use of every single dollar. The Niles Park District Board is committed to changes and improvements for our future.

On behalf of the Board of Commissioners and the entire staff, we thank you for your continued support.
Remain Sincerely,
Joseph V. LoVerde, Jr.
Executive Director

Keep tires properly inflated

Proper inflation is the key to maximum safety performance from any tire, especially in inclement weather. Driving on tires that are not properly inflated increases your risk of an accident by reducing the vehicle's traction and increasing wear and tear on tires. With the recent cold blast, many motorists may be riding on underinflated tires.

Q. Why do tires need more attention during winter months?
A. Because air contracts in the cold, tires lose about one pound of pressure for every 10 degree drop in temperature. A tire properly inflated in warmer weather could be five pounds underinflated by mid-winter.

Q. What are the dangers of improperly inflated tires?
A. When tires are underinflated or overinflated, portions of the tire are not in contact with the road surface. When tires are underinflated and you make an emergency stop, the tires are more likely to come off the rim. Overinflated tires reduce traction because the center is higher than the rest of the tire, making tires more prone to blowouts.

Legion helps kids at holiday time

The Children & Youth Committee of the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 had a busy December but did the duties they enjoy the most, helping the youngsters at Christmas season.

The month began with a Musical Dystrophy party held at the Legion Home, 6140 Dempster, for local kids afflicted.

A financial contribution was made to the WGN Neediest Kids Fund.

Concluding their busy month, NPHS Home Beautification Awards

On Wednesday evening February 18, the Norwood Park Historical Society will present the 1998 Home Beautification Awards to those homeowners in Community Area 10 whose projects were nominated for this distinction.

Winning homeowners will show pictures and tell the story of their projects -- a good time for inspiration and ideas!

Please note this meeting is being held one week earlier -- Wednesday, February 18, 7:30 p.m. at the Crippen House, 5624 N. Newark. Coffee and conversation will follow.

There is NO regular meeting in March. However, at 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 28, there will be an official ground-breaking ceremony to celebrate the start of our state-funded renovation project.

Cinderella auditions to be held

The Tempo Players announce open auditions for their upcoming production of Rogers and Hammerstein's Cinderella to be presented in May. Auditions will be held February 15 and 16 at 7 p.m. with callbacks February 18 if necessary. Rehearsals will take place on Wednesday and Friday evenings and Sunday afternoons. Auditions, rehearsals and performances will take place at The Tempo Players Theatre located in the Sacred Heart Monastery at 1910 Maple Ave. in Lisle.

Auditionees are asked to prepare a Rodgers and Hammerstein song and to bring their own sheet music, an accompanist will be provided. There will also be a dance audition and readings from the script. No appointment is necessary. For more information, call The Tempo Players Hotline at (630) 495-1120. Or visit Tempo Players Online at <http://members.aol.com/tempoplay/>
