California double murder suspect arrested in Skokie

by Rosemary Tirio

A former Niles resident wanted for the Sept. 7 murder of his sister and brother-in-law in Union City, Calif., was arrested by Skokie police at Howard Street and Crawford Avenue around 10:55 a.m. Sept. 17.

Union City police alerted the staff of Pearl Vision on Milwaukee Avenue in Niles to be on the lookout for Godofredo "Gilbert" DeGuzman who had lived in Niles and worked at Pearl Vision before moving to California.

When DeGuzman went to his former place of employment seeking to raise cash by selling some of his things to one of the employees there, Niles police received the report that DeGuzman had left Pearl Vision and was driving eastbound on Golf Road.

Niles police immediately contacted both Skokie and Morton Grove police informing them that DeGuzman might be entering their jurisdictions momentarily.

Within minutes, a Skokie officer observed DeGuzman's vehicle stopped in traffic at the intersection. The forewarned Skokie police converged on the fugitive, who was taken into custody with neither a chase nor a struggle.

DeGuzman was held in the

Cop evades death when drunk rams squad car

by Rosemary Tirio

"I thought I was about to be a memory, hopefully a fond memory," said Patrolman Larry Mayer who escaped being killed by a drunk driver who rammed his parked squad full-speed when he was making a routine traffic stop.

The incident occurred in the 7300 block of Dempster Street near Oketo Avenue around 8:28 p.m. Sept. 17.

While making what he thought would be a routine traffic stop of a 1999 GMC Safari driven by a Park Ridge man, Mayer was standing behind his parked

Teachers in Dist. 64 sign first 4-year pact

Teachers and officials have reached agreement on the first four-year pact ever signed in District 64.

The unprecedented contract was approved by 82 percent of the 350-member Park Ridge Education Association teachers union in a vote conducted Sept. 13. The seven-member school board approved the pact Sept. 14.

The usual elementary district teachers contract in the Chicago area has been for three years.

Storm sewer repaired by Public Services

In answer to a concerned citizen who sent The Bugle a copy of her letter to Mayor Blaise calling attention to an uncovered open storm sewer in the 8500 block of Oriole Avenue, Public Services Director said, "It's been taken care of."

Noriega explained that the problem arose as a result of a collapsed catch basin. It was discovered at the end of the day, and his workers needed to obtain parts for it, so it could not be repaired right away.

"It's normal procedure for a contractor to put up a barricade

Location of Skokie alternative schools leads to court fight

In a year when no school strikes seem to be clouding the educational skies of the near north and northwest suburbs, another kind of battle is being waged in Skokie.

The dispute centers around the location of Project Achieve, a controversial alternative high school that opened last year in adjoining storefronts in the 5270 block of Lincoln Avenue.

Skokie officials were unaware of the school's existence until the school year was half over. They allowed it to remain for the rest of

Controversial decision will allow non-park district residents living in Niles full access to park facilities

Niles Parks agrees to accept non-residents

by Lisa Ashkenaz Croke

An intergovernmental agreement targeted at Niles residents living outside the park district's boundaries narrowly passed the Niles Park District Board of Commissioners by a 3-2 vote.

The need for the agreement arose from protests by Niles residents who live outside of the park district (referred to as "the grey area"). These residents, who live closer to neighboring park districts, such as Park Ridge currently pay higher, non-residential fees for use of Niles state-of-the-art facilities.

However, two board members, vice-president Elaine Heinen and commissioner Walter Beusse voted against the agreement presented at Tuesday's meeting.

While Heinen could not be reached for comment, Beusse

Thousands visit Our Lady of The New Millennium statue at St. John Brebeuf

by Rosemary Tirio

A massive statue of Mary, Our Lady of the New Millennium, arrived at St. John Brebeuf parish Saturday, Sept. 18.

Last week, the "traveling" statue made its way via flatbed trailer truck from Immaculate Conception Church in Chicago to St. John Brebeuf Church in Niles, where it remained until its departure at 10:30 a.m. Monday morning, Sept. 27.

Transported on a huge flatbed trailer and raised into place by a special hydraulic lift, the 4-ton 33-foot tall stainless steel statue drew the faithful from St. John Brebeuf and five neighboring "cluster" parishes, as well as many Chicagoans.

Longtime parishioner Dorothy Garby, a member of the SJB Women's Club, initiated the statue's visit last March when she approached Pastor Thomas May with the idea.

"He gave us a free hand," said Carl Ferina, a Fourth Degree Member of the Knights of Columbus, one of the many parish groups that joined in welcoming the statue and planning services. "He [Father May] was real great."

Carl Ferina continued. After receiving Father May's permission in March, Garby learned in April that Our Lady of the New Millennium would be

CHOLESTEROL SCREENING
Cholesterol is a soft, fat-like substance found in body cells. Cholesterol is made in the liver and consumed via animal fat in foods. Egg yolks, meat, poultry and dairy products all contain cholesterol. Everyone needs some cholesterol, but not too much. Eating foods low in animal fat is one of the best ways to lower cholesterol. Cholesterol screenings will be offered from 9 to 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 5 in the Morton Grove Village Hall Senior Center. This is a finger stick blood test and gives a total cholesterol reading only. For Morton Grove seniors (age 65+) there is a charge of $3. For those under 65 or for non-residents, the charge is $4.

FLU & PNEUMONIA SHOTS
Influenza and pneumonia shots are available this fall for residents age 60+. The cost is free for those whose primary insurance is Medicare Part B. Those enrolled in an HMO or who don't subscribe to Medicare Part B must pay $10 for the flu shot, and $15 for the pneumonia shot. Shots at the home are also available for those unable to leave the house.

Influenza damages the mucous lining of the lungs, enhancing susceptibility to pneumonia. This is dangerous for people with heart disease, diabetes, anemia, and lung or kidney disease. Influenza shots provide immunity to the most commonly predicted flu strains for the coming winter. Seniors should get a flu shot each year. Pneumonia shots provide lifelong immunity to the most common forms of pneumonia. People who have already received this shot do not need another one. Anyone:

- 1) allergic to chicken, chicken feathers or eggs;
- 2) allergic to contact lens solution or thimerosal (mercurial antiseptic);
- 3) allergic to the antibiotic family called aminoglycosides (gentamycin, kanamycin or neomycin);
- 4) who has ever suffered from the illness known as Guillain-Barre Syndrome; or
- 5) who has cold symptoms the day of their shot; will not be immunized.

Evanston Northwestern Healthcare Home Services will be administering the shots and there is a choice of a needle injection or a Biojector (needle-free) injection. Those interested in a shot must make a reservation by calling the Morton Grove Senior Hot Line at 470-5223. Dates and times in the Morton Grove Village Hall Senior Center are:

- Tuesday, October 5, 2 to 5 p.m.
- Saturday, October 9, 9 a.m. to noon
- Thursday, October 21, 2 to 5 p.m.
- Saturday, October 30, 9 a.m. to noon
- Thursday, November 4, 2 to 5 p.m.

ILLINOIS IDENTIFICATION CARD
The Office of the Secretary of State will be issuing identification cards and driver's licenses from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 13 in the First National Bank of Morton Grove. Please note that only drivers who need to take the vision and written tests for their license renewal within the next calendar year may renew on this date.

Identification cards are free to citizens 65+ and for persons with disabilities. The card is accepted as a valid form of identification just like a driver's license. Documents required for issuance of the card are a Social Security Card, plus two acceptable forms of identification that provide name, date of birth, residency and signature.

Edward Jones: Put Triple Compounding to work for you

Someone once asked Albert Einstein what was the most amazing discovery he had ever encountered. Without hesitation, he replied, "Compound Interest."

Of course, you don't have to be a scientific genius to appreciate the "miracle" of compounding. The ability of money to grow over time has benefited anyone who has ever saved for a goal.

Let's see how compounding works. Suppose you put $100 in an investment that earns a fixed 10 percent rate of interest. At the end of the first year, you will have $110. After two years, you will have $121. The extra dollar, which was earned on the $10 interest from the first year, is the compounded interest. (This example shows interest compounded annually; interest can also be compounded daily, quarterly or semiannually.)

Earning compound interest is obviously a good thing, but it won't help you escape the tax man. In the above example, you would pay $3.71 in taxes on your $10 interest the first year, $7.79 on your $21 interest the second year, and so on, assuming you had a combined state and federal tax rate of 37.1 percent. If you withdrew this amount each year to pay taxes, you would be left with considerably fewer dollars to compound.

What's the alternative? You might want to put the same amount of money in a tax-deferred investment, such as an annuity. With a tax-deferred vehicle, you pay no taxes on your earnings until withdrawal. By investing in an annuity or other tax-deferred product, you can benefit from "triple compounding." First, you'll earn interest on your principal. Second, you'll earn interest on your earnings. And third, you'll earn interest on money that would normally have been lost to taxes.

Over time, the benefits of triple compounding can add up. Suppose, for example, that you invest $50,000 in an annuity that earns 8 percent each year. After 30 years, your initial $50,000 investment will have grown to $503,133. Conversely, if you had put the same $50,000 in an investment on which you paid taxes every year, your money would only have grown to $218,082 after 30 years, assuming an 8 percent annual rate of return and a combined state and federal tax rate of 37.1 percent.

You will eventually have to pay taxes on your earnings when you start making withdrawals. However, by that time, you may be retired and in a lower tax bracket. Or you may be able to structure your annuity payouts in a way that will reduce your tax burden. Even if you took your annuity as a lump sum, you would end up with an after-tax amount of $335,020 after 30 years -- nearly $117,000 more than you would have accumulated on an investment that wasn't tax-deferred.

Before you purchase any annuity, you will want to make sure the issuer, typically an insurance company, has earned high ratings for safety and financial management. But once you choose a high-quality annuity, you'll be harnessing the power of compounding -- in triplicate.

Suspicious activities

Niles Fire Department personnel reported an electric pole located on the west side parkway of the 8700 block of Cumberland Avenue came down around 6 a.m. Sept. 25. It is unclear how the pole came down. Evidence is not consistent with the pole's being hit by a car or other vehicle. The pole appeared to be repeatedly drilled into and an osmosis wood preserving tube was put into the pole.

Police informed the ComEd personnel in the Northbrook office of the occurrence, and they said the pole would be replaced as soon as possible.

A 25-year-old Niles business assistant reported Sept. 25 that some of her personal checks were cashed at a casino in Elgin between Sept. 6 and Sept. 22. Unknown offender(s) apparently removed the checks from the victim's automobile and cashed them. Police are investigating.

Vandalism to autos

Two Niles men residents reported that eggs were thrown at their cars between 3 p.m. Sept. 25 and 6:30 a.m. Sept. 26. A 39-year-old man residing in the 8100 block of Lyons reported that his white Pontiac Bonneville was egged. A 48-year-old man residing in the 7900 block of Park Street reported that his 1988 blue Ford van was egged during the times indicated.

Burglary

A salesman for an insurance company in the 7400 block of Waukegan Road reported that person(s) unknown entered the front door of the building with a key or through an unlocked door sometime between 4:30 p.m. Sept. 22 and 9 a.m. Sept. 23. Half-inch pry marks made by a round tool were discovered on the doors of five office suites in the building. The occupants of only one suite reported that $8 to $10 in change was removed from a cash box. Evidence technicians were called to the scene to take photos and dust for prints. No good prints were found, however. The complainant will advise all the suite occupants to make sure the front door of the building is locked nightly.

Burglary to vehicle

A 37-year-old employee of a Medford, Wis., pizza company reported that while he was making a delivery at 290 Golf Mill, unknown offender(s) used a bolt cutter or like tool to break off the padlock on the rear door of his 1994 white International Truck and removed 11 cases of DiGiorno pizzas valued at $563. There was no other damage to the vehicle.

Burglary from trailer

The assistant manager of a furniture store in the 5600 block of Touhy Avenue reported that sometime between 9:40 p.m. Aug. 26 and 7 a.m. Sept. 21 person(s) unknown gained entry to a padlocked trailer parked on the west side of the building and removed assorted pieces of furniture having a total value of $3,550.

Retail theft

The manager of a video rental store in the 8900 block of Greenwood reported that two men in their 20s entered the store around 3:07 p.m. Sept. 21. The pair walked around the store until one left, leaving one behind. The remaining man removed two video tapes of "The Matrix," concealed them under his arms and exited the store without paying for the tapes. The offender entered a red Ford Thunderbird driven by the other offender, which then fled the area. Police checked the area with negative results. The tapes were valued at $202.

Stolen auto

A 68-year-old Chicago man reported that he parked his beige 1994 Nissan Sentra in a bowling center parking lot in the 7300 block of Milwaukee Avenue around 7:30 p.m. Sept. 21 and went bowling. When he returned to the parking lot at 10:30 p.m., his auto was missing. There was no evidence of broken glass left at the scene. Police are investigating the incident.

Theft by deception

A 75-year-old Niles woman who had contracted in June with a Chicago roofing company for repairs to the roof of her home, reported that she thought she had been duped into paying two fictitious repairmen $3,500 Sept. 22.

One of the suspects was described as between 57 and 62 years of age, 6 feet tall, weighing 250 pounds with gray hair and a stocky build. The second suspect was described as being in his 20s, 6 feet tall, weighing 180 pounds and also of stocky build. The men approached the suspect as she was leaving her home to go to the doctor around 2 p.m. Sept. 20. They told her they were there to redo the roof repairs which previous workmen had botched, and for which the victim refused to pay the roofing company.

The victim told the men they would have to return on a day when she would be home. The suspects returned Sept. 26. When the older suspect told the victim the repairs were completed, she presented her with a bill for $4,200. He told her if she gave them cash, however, he could reduce the bill to $3,500. The victim then agreed to drive herself to the bank in the 9100 block of Greenwood, while the suspect followed her in his own vehicle. He waited for her to return from the bank with the money she had withdrawn. The victim gave the cash to the suspect, but soon began to feel that she had been duped out of her money.

The victim learned in a phone call to the roofing company that they never sent any new workers to her home. The victim responded to the Niles Police Department at 7:30 p.m. to assist investigators with a photo identification. A follow-up investigation will be conducted.

Resurrection & Dominick's to promote mammography

Women shopping at selected area Dominick's Fresh Stores can accomplish more than grocery shopping when they visit their local supermarket in October. Resurrection Health Care is teaming up with Dominick's to promote mammography screening during National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Because studies show that one in eight women in the United States has a lifetime risk of breast cancer, the American Cancer Society recommends annual screening mammograms for women over the age of 40. Staff members from Resurrection Medical Center, Our Lady of Resurrection Medical Center, St. Francis Hospital and Westlake Hospital will be on hand in several local Dominick's stores to provide education on breast screening, schedule appointments for mammograms and offer physician referrals for women who do not have a personal physician.

Resurrection Medical Center representatives will be available from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursdays, October 7 and 14, and from 1 to 6 p.m., Fridays, October 8 and 15, at the Dominick's Fresh Store at 1900 South Cumberland in Park Ridge. Resurrection staff will also be available from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursdays, October 21 and 28, and from 1 to 6 p.m., Fridays, October 22 and 29, at the Dominick's Fresh Store at 7000 West Forest Park Drive in Norridge.

Women can schedule appointments for mammogram screenings when visiting with hospital representatives in the stores. Participants completing mammograms will receive a $20 coupon for use at a participating Dominick's store.

Resurrection Medical Center's mammography program is accredited by the Food and Drug Administration. The state-of-the-art R2 Technology ImageChecker, a computer aided detection system, will be used to analyze all mammograms performed at Resurrection Medical Center. Week-day and Saturday appointments for mammograms are available. For additional information about this special promotion or the mammography program at Resurrection Medical Center, call (773) 792-5127.

Quick, easy ways to spruce up your home

Time is a commodity. And, no matter what the task, time is of the essence. The hectic lives of consumers are the driving force behind the creation of goods and services that make life easier.

For example, kitchen or bathroom remodeling is no longer a time-consuming, budget-breaking project. That's because home products manufacturers have answered consumer demands for products with new features that make it simple to spruce up their kitchens or baths without spending endless hours with decorators, plumbers and contractors.

A colorful shower curtain, floor mat or sink-top toiletry set is a fast and easy way to add a splash of color and style to the bath. If you're looking for something a little more challenging, adding a modern faucet in either room will totally change its look and feel in just a few hours.

One leading faucet manufacturer, Peerless Faucet Company, has taken special care to design faucets that make it simple for homeowners to tackle this job on their own. Peerless faucets come with special features that make them especially easy to install, such as easy-to-follow, step-by-step instructions, patented accessories and a toll-free helpline for assistance during installation.

With styles ranging from classic to contemporary, a new faucet can totally change the flavor of your kitchen or bath in a matter of hours. That leaves plenty of quality time for the family and room to boast when the in-laws stop by. "With a little direction, do-it-yourselfers can get big results without taking time away from the things they love to do," said R.C. Walker of the Peerless Faucet Company. Walker suggests looking for consumer friendly packaging, easy-to-read "maintenance and installation" sheets, and products that offer "no-tools" hookup.

"People investing in do-it-yourself products are very excited about tackling home renovation projects on their own," Walker added. "They feel a strong sense of pride and accomplishment when they can say to their friends, 'Yes, I did that myself!'"

Kitchen and bath renovations don't have to take you away from fun and family. Little touches make a big difference and, like Peerless, more and more manufacturers are paying special attention to details that make it simple for consumers to fulfill their remodeling needs in a timely manner. It's easy, it's economical and you can brag about it at the water cooler.

Financial planning for erratic incomes

The majority of workers receive regular fixed paychecks. Each year they get a modest raise, or if they move up the corporate ladder they get a bigger raise. But for an increasing number of workers, pay is becoming more erratic. Freelancers, consultants, small business owners, salespeople, project workers, piecework factory workers, executives who depend heavily on bonuses, temporary workers, even company employees whose pay raises are linked to productivity or profit gains find their pay varies month to month or year to year. For them, keeping personal finances under control takes a little extra planning.

Cash flow. While everyone should budget, it's especially important for those with irregular incomes. The key is to base your budget on income you can reasonably count on each month. Maybe that's your base pay. Consider bonus money, commissions, etc., as gravy. If that's too harsh, say, all or most of your income is undependable from month to month, at least try to estimate a monthly average you can reasonably expect. On months that income exceeds the average, bank the extra in a savings account or money market. Leave it there until you need to draw on it for those rainy months when income falls below average. Only after you consistently earn above-average income for at least several months, or better yet, a year or more, should you consider raising your standard of living.

The important thing is to resist the temptation to spend during the high times. This is what does in people whose income is unstable. They splurge when they are flush, and they have nothing when the lean times come. One trick is to use last year's bonus to buy a new computer or spend on that family vacation. Never spend money based on the bonus you expect this year. It may be smaller than you anticipate, or worse, it may not arrive at all. Emergency funds and borrowing.

Try to put away enough money in a bank account for at least three, and preferably six months, of bare-bones living. This will help you through tough times if you drain the overflow, or worse, if the money stops flowing in entirely.

If you must borrow, pay it back as soon as you get your next bonus, big commission, or freelance check. Debt's a killer for people whose income varies.

Smooth out taxes. Wide swings in income can create havoc for tax planning. A lot of income piled into one year, and relatively little the next, usually means you'll pay more in total taxes for the two years than if the income was evenly divided between the years. It may be possible for you to smooth out your income to some extent by intentionally delaying income from a great year, say a year-end bonus, into the next year, which may not be as great.

A good year might be a time to make an extra charitable contribution, kick more into a tax-sheltered retirement account if you haven't already maximized your contributions, pay state taxes early or take other tax strategies. You might sell investment winners in lean years and investment losers in good years, but only if selling is first and foremost the right investment decision.

Cautious investing. Investment decisions depend on many factors: your financial goals, age, risk tolerance, and so on. However, financial planners often recommend that people with unstable incomes keep a slightly larger portion of their portfolio in cash instruments or short-term bond funds. If times get really tough, you may have to draw on those less-risky assets. That's better than being forced to sell higher risk assets such as stocks, which might be down at the time, or assets that might be difficult to sell quickly for cash, such as real estate.

Retirement accounts. What you definitely want to avoid if you find yourself cash short is to dip into your retirement accounts. Try to sell taxable investments first. Pulling money out of retirement accounts not only hurts your future nest egg, but you will probably pay income tax on the withdrawals and possibly penalties.

In fact, try to keep paying into your retirement accounts even during lean times. Cut other expenses first, if possible.

Local students awarded Weiss Scholarships for study in Israel

Natasha Karpasov

Two local area college students - Natasha Karpasov of Skokie and Sean E. Matlis of Evanston - are the recipients of $1,500 Benjamin Weiss Hillel Scholarships for an Israel Experience. The scholarship program, which is administered by The Hillels of Illinois, has been established in memory of Benjamin Weiss, a real estate developer and philanthropist, who loved the State of Israel and believed that young people could make a difference.

Sean E. Matlis

Loyola, where she is pursuing a major in international studies and a minor in political science, and her participation as an active member of Hillel. Ms. Karpasov has been a ballet dancer for 14 years. She has worked as a dance instructor, choreographer and director for the past seven years.

Mr. Matlis, a 1999 graduate of the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, will be studying directly with Professor Michal Schwartz at the Weizman Institute of Science in Rehovot, Israel. He will be working in her lab, in the Department of Neurobiology-Regeneration of the central nervous system and how it is affected by the immune system. He has been engaged as Professor Schwartz's full-time lab assistant for between six months and a year.

Mr. Matlis was actively engaged in Hillel activities during his years at the University of Illinois and credits the Hillel director at UIUC, Alan Potash, with encouraging him to pursue his education in Israel. The Hillels of Illinois, a partner in serving our community, is supported by the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago and Hillel: The Foundation for Jewish Campus Life. Hillel serves as the Jewish address on campuses throughout the United States and in countries abroad, providing year-round cultural, educational, spiritual, vocational, athletic, social and community service programs designed to engage Jewish young adults.

Stroke (brain attack) fact sheet

- A stroke is the result of a blockage of blood flow to the brain or bleeding in the brain. It is also called a "brain attack."
- Each year, approximately 600,000 people suffer a new or recurrent stroke.
- Stroke killed 157,991 people in 1995 and accounted for about one of every 15 deaths in the United States. It is the third leading cause of death, ranking behind diseases of the heart and cancer, according to the National Center for Health Statistics.
- Stroke kills more women than men. The mortality data for 1995 show that 96,428 females died of stroke compared to 61,563 males. However, the in-

- cidence of stroke for people the same age is about 19 percent higher for males than for females, according to the National Heart Lung and Blood Institute's Framingham Heart Study.
- Brain attacks can happen at any time. On average, someone suffers a stroke in the United States every 53 seconds. Every 3.3 minutes, someone dies of one.
- Stroke is not a death sentence. About 4 million stroke survivors are alive today.
- Stroke survivors often need assistance after they leave the hospital. According to the Framingham Heart Study, 31 percent of stroke survivors need-

- ed help caring for themselves, 20 percent needed help walking and 71 percent had an impaired ability to work when examined an average of seven years later.
- In 1995, 424,000 males and 501,000 females were discharged from hospitals after having a brain attack.
- Stroke is the leading cause of serious, long-term disability in the United States.
- Stroke accounts for more than half of all patients hospitalized for acute neurological disease.
- Stroke does not occur in the elderly. The Framingham Heart Study showed that of all - people who have a stroke in a given year, 28 percent are under the age of 65.

- For people over age 55, the incidence of brain attack more than doubles in each successive decade.
- Compared with whites, young African Americans have a two- to threefold greater risk of ischemic stroke, and African-American men and women are 2.5 times more likely to die of stroke.
- About 31 percent of people who have an initial brain attack die within a year.

Gallery owner gives something back to community: art classes

The Morgan Art Gallery, 5352 North Milwaukee Avenue in Chicago, started giving art lessons last May, and, according to owner Mrs. Wanda Morgan, has had some great success already. The Morgan Gallery has long been noted as a source of outstanding, eighteenth and nineteenth century original art as well as for their fine picture framing service. Morgan said she has hired some talented professional artists and teachers to conduct the moderately priced classes as her way of giving something special to the community that has supported her shop for the past 26 years. "It was my dream to have art classes and give something back to this community," Morgan said. The classes are conducted in a spacious studio next to the art gallery. The three teachers are noted area artists and art teachers. Anna Hoga was trained in Poland and taught high school art classes there for several years. Ilona Stefan studied in Romania, and Julie Peterson is a high school art teacher in Park Ridge. "You'd be surprised how many talented students we have already," Morgan said. "It's really beautiful work." The classes are taught in six-week sessions, with the first class free. Day and evening adult classes as well as children's classes are available.

"We have six full classes already," Morgan said. "It's very relaxing. It's good therapy," she added. Adult classes are three hours long, while children's classes are 90 minutes in duration. For ages 11 through 16, classes are two hours in length. Charges for the entire six-week (actually seven-weeks counting the first free class) range from just $45 for children to $85 for adults. "I'm not making money," Morgan said, "but I want to give something to the community...I'm happy parents can have their children accomplish something instead of sitting in front of the television." Among the courses taught at the Morgan Gallery are drawing, watercolor, pastels, acrylics and oil painting. Classes for children beginning at age 6 are available. There is no upper age limit for adults, Morgan said. Art classes taught by competent professionals are available close to home for a very moderate price at the Morgan Gallery, just a short ride down Milwaukee Avenue from Niles.

For more information about art classes for yourself or your child, call Wanda Morgan at (773) 631-0680.

Misericordia/GLADD help needed

For the past number of years, members of St. John Brebeuf parish have provided drivers to transport the young adults of Misericordia to Lois Kozny's special - GLADD program at St. John's School. As the school year begins, so too begins the next year of this special program.

Andy Beierwaltes, in conjunction with the GLADD program, is looking for drivers on Tuesdays and Wednesdays each week through April 2000. Drivers would pick up 4 to 5 young adults at Misericordia and transport them to St. John and then return them to Misericordia later that evening.

Anyone interested in providing their time for this rewarding charitable act of kindness, should contact Andy at 847-967-8976. Please help us bring some sunshine and love to these needy young adults.

Ron Ballard explains where we find fitness

On Sunday, October 2, at 2 p.m. in the Park Ridge Community Center, 1550 N. Touhy, the subject will be: "Where Do We Find Fitness?" Guest speaker is Ron Ballard, C.S.B., of Portland, OR. Developing a moral fitness keeps us in-harmony with all aspects of our being, is the focus of Mr. Ballard's message. "Spiritual principles provide us with a basis for making sound moral decisions." He is devoting his full time to the healing practice as a Christian Science practitioner. An earlier career as a professional campaign manager gave him contact with presidential and congressional candidates enabling him to use his knowledge gained from his college degree in Political Science. Each lecture is free to the public. There will be child care available at each location. For directions phone 823-3329.

Skokie school ...

Continued from Page 1 the year, even though it was in violation of the B-2 commercial zoning of the location. Skokie trustees then ruled that the school would have to vacate the location, and unanimously denied a zoning ordinance amendment Aug. 2 to allow the school to continue to operate. The school reopened Aug. 31, and students have had uninterrupted classes since because of a temporary restraining order granted by Circuit Judge Sydney Jones. In addition to the trustees contention that it has the right to restrict alternative schools in its B2 districts, residents in the neighborhood surrounding the school have also complained of loitering, youthful antics and even criminal activity by some Project Achieve's 45 students. The Project Achieve students were selected from five area districts, including Niles Township District 219, to receive support and academic help not normally available to students at risk of dropping out of regular high schools. Project Achieve officials contend that they were granted an occupancy permit by the state board of education, which was all they considered was necessary to open the school. They further maintain that the village is overreaching its authority when it attempts to control the placement of a state-supported school. Project Achieve is run by the North Cook Intermediate Service Center, which is under the state's jurisdiction. A Sept. 28 hearing, which is expected to be continued to Oct. 7, will likely settle the question of just who has authority to control the location of a state-supported school in Skokie.

Statue ...

Among the throngs of faithful who gathered before the beautiful statue was the statue's creator, Carl Demma, now of Oak Lawn, who attended services on three of the evenings.

The boyhood devotion of the young Demma to Mary, the Mother of Jesus, reached fruition last January when the huge statue of Mary that he commissioned and financed was blessed by Pope John Paul II while here on his visit to St. Louis.

Our Lady of the Millennium came into being when Demma, then a 9-year-old boy from the Bridgeport neighborhood of Chicago, accompanied his pastor on a trip downtown and mistook the statue of the Goddess Ceres atop the Board of Trade Building for a likeness of Mary. It was then that he vowed one day to build a statue of Mary that all the people Chicago would be able to see.

To Demma, the idea of the statue was more a promise than a dream. By 1983, Demma, who had become a successful businessman, went to see a 32-foot statue of Our Lady of Peace on display during a stop in Chicago while enroute to California.

Inspired, Demma determined to build a similar statue. He commissioned sculptor Charles Cooper Parks. Although friends Demma soon decided that he would finance the building of the statue himself and sold one of his businesses for that purpose.

Although the Our Lady of Peace statue that went to California reportedly cost $350,000, Demma declines to reveal the actual cost of Our Lady of the New Millennium.

Ferina estimates the statue, with the enormous flatbed truck and hydraulic lift must have cost its creator in excess of $1 million. Demma has been quoted as saying the cost of the statue was "immaterial."

From Niles, the statue went to St. Vincent Ferrar Church on North Avenue in River Forest, where it will remain for another week, drawing parishioners from other "cluster" parishes and inspiring prayer and devotion from the faithful who gather to honor Mary.

From Nov. 10 to Nov. 18, the statue will make its final visit to the North Side of Chicago when it stops at the Pelican Sisters' motherhouse at 3800 W. Peterson Ave.

The statue will continue to circulate on the West and South sides, making its last stop of the year at St. Jerome Church, 2823 S. Princeton Ave., from Nov. 30 through Dec. 31.

available to visit SIB in September. Garby then coordinated the many committees that were formed to facilitate the statue's visit.

Ferina's wife Ann, for example, was in charge of arranging candles and flowers on the seven 10-foot tables surrounding the statue.

Carl Ferina was in charge of planning the opening services, which included a group of Polish youngsters who danced before the statue, a candlelight procession from the church to the statue and recitation of the rosary and the litany to Mary.

"In the darkness, the candles looked so pretty," Carl Ferina said. "The congregation also formed a 'living rosary.'"

The service on Monday, Sept. 20 was also led by priests and parishioners of St. John Brebeuf. The services on the other nights were held by the neighboring parishes. Members of St. Isaac Jogues parish conducted the services on Tuesday, Sept. 21. St. Paul of the Cross parish in Park Ridge conducted the services on Wednesday, while Our Lady of Ransom and Mary Seat of Wisdom parishes sponsored the services on Thursday and Friday, respectively.

Most of the services consisted of recitation of the rosary and the litany. In addition, the senior club of St. John Brebeuf conducted rosary and litany services every day at 9:15 a.m. and at noon. SJB parishioners also kept vigil throughout the nights that the statue was here, Ferina said.

Buses transported many area senior and nursing home residents to honor Mary's statue, Ferina said, and he praised the people of Niles for their warm support of the statue's visit. He estimated crowds of 1,000 persons at most of the evening services and "at least 1,200" at the closing service Sunday.

Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus from throughout the area provided an honor guard for the final prayer service held at 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 26, which Ferina described as "really impressive."

"The [Niles] Police Department did a terrific job controlling traffic," Ferina said. He also had praise for Mayor Nicholas Blase who, he said, took a great interest in the visit when he first learned of it in June. "We owe the mayor a big thank you," Ferina said.

The visit was a great and unifying experience for the Village of Niles, Ferina said. A Jewish couple even gave him a Star of David to place on the altar before the statue, he said.

which had all 12 emergency lights fully activated.

Mayer had approached the Safar to speak with the driver. He was about to return to the squad when he looked up just in time to see the 1997 Ford Escort of John M. Weres driving eastbound in the curb lane and aiming full speed ahead for his squad.

Mayer scrambled out of the way narrowly avoiding being struck when Weres' vehicle rammed the back of the squad, deploying the airbags in the empty interior and pushing it into the Safar.

Mayer estimated that Weres, 41, of Elmhurst, was driving at least 35 mph. "He was doing the speed limit when he rammed right into the back of the squad," Mayer said. "His foot never touched the brake."

Weres later admitted to police that he had had "a few beers" and thought he was probably drunk. When he failed to recite the alphabet correctly and his blood alcohol test registered .26, more than three times the legal .08 limit, Weres was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol along with several other violations including failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and improper lane usage.

The Morton Grove Fire Department ambulance and paramedics responded to the scene and determined that none of the persons involved in the accident required medical attention.

The Safar sustained extensive rear-end damage, while the Escort had severe front-end damage. Mayer described his former squad as "three feet shorter than the usual Caprice." Niles Police Public Information Officer Roger Wilson estimated the replacement cost of the squad car at $40,000.

Mayer credits his narrow escape to the fact that he was wearing his lucky charm, a bead bracelet made for him over a year ago by his 8-year-old granddaughter Lindsey "to protect me." Mayer vowed to continue to wear the bracelet.

Mayer said he was willing to be identified in this article because he wanted to "let everyone who drinks and drives know they could have killed a person, not just some statistic. Names make things personal," he said.

opening school on time Aug. 24 and keeping it open throughout the talks. Schroeder likened the negotiations to a large family working through its problems and differences.

The final agreement provides 3 percent increases in the teachers' base salaries for the first three years, and a 2 percent cost of living raise in the last year of the contract.

Beginning at the start of school in the 2000-2001 school year, the school day will be extended by 10 minutes, except on Wednesdays when school will end 50 minutes early to provide time for teachers to participate in in-service staff and curriculum development programs.

An additional day will also be tacked onto the school calendar, Schroeder said.

Schroeder assured parents that the district will hold many community meetings to discuss the impact of the changes during the coming year.

"Because they (grey area residents) are not within the limits of the park district, legally we cannot charge them residential rates," said Hynes. "The only legal way to do it is with an intergovernmental agreement with the Village of Niles."

Hynes said that the purpose of the agreement allows the Park District to give a "benefit" to grey area residents in exchange for a "benefit" from the village.

Snow removal is the benefit currently on the table for the village, but Hynes emphasized that the agreement still had to be approved by the village's board of trustees, and that until that time, all terms are subject to negotiation.

Despite the park district board members' disagreements regarding this issue, the board did unanimously approve a measure to raise residential and non-residential rates for use of park district facilities.

President Hynes said residential fees could increase by approximately 10%, and non-residential fees would be increased as much as 25% above the new residential rates.

"It depends upon the program. Some are terribly below where they should be (financially) and the park district is losing money. Other programs are right where they should be and probably won't be raised at all," he said. "It's now up to the professional staff to go through and analyze each program and decide if they're priced correctly."

Lewis University announces new School of Education

As a result of expanding enrollments and increased program offerings to meet the educational needs of the community, Lewis University has announced the restructuring of its Education Department into a School of Education.

Brother James Gaffney, FSC, president of Lewis University, announced the creation of the School of Education this week. Dr. Katherine Delaney, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences which serves as the home of the School of Education, said the restructuring will accommodate the expansion of Education options that have been developed in response to student and community needs.

Established in the 1960s, the Education Department has more than doubled its enrollment in the past seven years, growing from fewer than 250 students in 1992 to more than 500 undergraduate and graduate students now attending classes at the Lewis main campus and at four cohort sites in the Chicago land area. In addition to Lewis degree programs, the School of Education also offers a variety of staff development workshops for educators.

"The School of Education with its new options and programs will support the continued growth and expansion of existing Education programs along with the development of innovative programs to serve our current and future students as well as surrounding educational communities," Brother James stated.

Dr. Jeanette M. Mines, professor of education and current chair of the Education Department, will serve as Dean of the School of Education and an Associate Dean in the College of Arts and Sciences at Lewis University.

According to Dr. Mines, "The new structure of the School of Education will allow us to respond to the anticipated demand for teachers in the 21st century which will be critical in this area because of soaring population growth. We also will develop and revise programs to meet new state certification requirements. Lewis University is ready for the future."

Teacher education programs at Lewis University are recognized by the Illinois State Board of Education in consultation with the State Teacher Certification Board for approval in the following areas: biology, chemistry, history, speech, special education and elementary education. Approved programs in school administration, reading, and curriculum & instruction also are offered.

For more information on becoming a teacher, call (800) 897-9000. For information on teacher certification or master's degree options, call (815) 836-5316.

The School of Education offers the following options: Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees in Elementary Education, Special Education/Combined Special Education/Elementary Education or Secondary Certification; Master of Arts in Education with specializations in Reading and Literacy, Secondary Certification, School Administration, Special Education and School Counseling and Guidance; Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction with specializations in Instructional Leadership; and the Certificate of Advanced Study in Education with specializations in General Administrative, Curriculum and Instruction, and Superintendent Endorsement.

All programs are offered at the Lewis main campus on Route 53 in Romeoville. Master degree options also are offered at cohort sites in the Chicago land area.

A Christian Brothers university, Lewis offers bachelor's degree programs in nearly 60 majors; accelerated programs for working adults; master's degrees in business administration, counseling psychology, criminal justice, education, leadership studies, nursing, and school counseling & guidance; Advanced Certificates of Study in Education; and certification options in aviation, business, education and nursing.
