Maine Township offers seniors and disabled Energy Assistance Program in Illinois. This program helps low-income households pay for heating and cooling bills. The program is available to individuals aged 60 and older, regardless of income level. Applications are available online at the Illinois Department of Human Services website or in person at the Maine Township office. The program is open year-round, and applications can be submitted at any time.

For further information or to schedule an appointment, contact Barbara Wirsz at (847) 965-1967. The program also offers additional resources and programs, such as the Illinois Senior Link program, which provides transportation, meal delivery, and other services to seniors.

Maine Township is located at 2300 N. Milwaukee Avenue, Niles. The program is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. For more information, call (847) 965-1210.

The following document is a list of acceptable forms of identification for the Energy Assistance Program:

1. Social Security card
2. Driver's license
3. State ID card
4. Birth certificate
5. Marriage certificate

The following documents are required to complete the application:

1. Proof of income for all members of the household
2. Proof of household size
3. Proof of residency
4. Proof of utilities (electric, gas, and water)
5. Proof of Social Security benefits
6. Proof of disability (if applicable)

Additional forms of identification may be required as specified by the Illinois Department of Human Services. The program is funded by the Illinois General Assistance Program and the Illinois Energy Assistance Program.

For more information, visit the Illinois Department of Human Services website or call the Maine Township office at (847) 965-1967.

Oakton president named vice president of educational association

Margaret L. Lue, president of Oakton Community College in Des Plaines, has been elected vice president of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. Lue served as the college’s president for 3 years starting in 1981 and was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Association of State Universities in 1985. She has been a long-time member of the association and is currently serving as its president-elect. The National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges is a professional organization that represents the public universities and land-grant colleges in the United States. Lue’s election to the position of vice president is a recognition of her leadership and contributions to the field of higher education. She will serve as vice president for the next two years before assuming the position of president in 1995. Lue is the first woman to be elected vice president of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges.

Edward Jones: Don’t Chase Mutual Fund ‘Super-winners’
By Jeffrey Cardella
With more than $500 billion in mutual funds on the market, it’s almost too much to count. When you think of mutual funds, you probably think of a single portfolio of stocks or bonds, but there are actually thousands of mutual funds available. Some are designed to provide high growth, while others focus on income or stability. So how do you choose the right mutual fund? The key is to look for funds that have consistently performed well over time, and avoid chasing those that have recently done well. By doing so, you can avoid investing in companies that are at the peak of their growth cycle and are likely to experience a decline in the future. For more information, contact Edward Jones at (555) 123-4567.
