 Streets bordering Muslim Community Center among those to receive increased regulation.

Morton Grove residents were greeted Friday with new signs throughout the area near the Muslim Community Center, Friday morning, Oct. 24.

"Among revenues and expenses, the total compensation package is the most costly, and our staff is aware that many of you are looking any kind of layoffs in the future," said Wachtel. "That's why we have done all we can to cut personnel costs in recent years, including retaining and offering modestly.

Karen VanderWiel, who has been a resident of Morton Grove for more than 30 years, said she was pleased to see the new signs being installed, especially since she had been dealing with the draft issue for many years.

"It's a good thing to have these signs up, because it reminds people to park in designated areas," she said. "I'm glad the village is taking action to improve parking conditions in this area."
Cheritable groups benefit from Morton Grove Lions’ work

WENDY ELLIS

Early this fall charitable organizations in and around Morton Grove benefited from the hard work and dedication of the Morton Grove Lion’s Club this year. The club donated over $14,500 to the various groups through its fund raising efforts. Two or three high school seniors benefited from the club’s work this year from the local chapter. The Morton Grove Chapter of the Misericordia Society, the Maryville Society, the Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce, the Park District, the Morton Grove Lion’s Club also shared in the club’s generosity.

Among the major fund raisers for the club is the Candy Day, which was held in and around Morton Grove. The Morton Grove Lion’s Club has long been associated with efforts to snake life easier for the blind and Hadley School for the Blind. Members of the club serve as auxiliary members in and around Morton Grove. Among those that do not have metal glasses. Hearing Aids are also handed out to those in need.

Blind and Hadley School for the Blind.

One of the major fund raisers for the club is the annual Carnival. Members of the club raise money by an eye doctor. Hearing Aids are also handed out to those in need. The International Lion’s Club was founded in 1917 and now has chapters in 192 countries around the globe.

Police joined with Wheeling and Park Ridge police Thursday Oct. 16 to capture a Park Ridge man who allegedly responsible for burglarizing a number of lockers in a health club in Golf Mill. According to police, Christopher Hohimer, 24, was charged with burglary after the undercover surveillance team stopped Hohimer after he allegedly broke into two lockers at the club and had the items from the two lockers in his possession. Morton Grove police are searching for four more suspects who allegedly disguised the lockers on Wednesday. The owner of the Morton Grove Animal Hospital, left the locker with a wire and was able to select the clothing that the woman had taken from the locker and said the items were not stolen. The woman was released from custody.

Forest Villa strives for excellence

WENDY ELLIS

Wendy Ellis is a disease of the brain, not the heart, but it’s real. If you’re being diagnosed with Dementia, it is basically a condition of confusion and memory loss, and it comes in all degrees of severity. "Alzheimer’s is a progressive illness," said Julie Olds, administrator at Forest Villa Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Villa. "There is no cure but there are ways to slow the progress of the illness.

These treatments are a major part of daily life at Forest Villa, which for 25 years has been home to residents with memory and health care needs. With 200 beds divided among four units, Forest Villa offers Skilled Nursing for residents who need a lot of care, Intermediate care for residents who are stable but still have some needs, Dementia treatment, and short term rehabilitation. The home specializes in Dementia treatment in its unit called "The Garden." Olds says the treatment of Dementia patients is different from that given others. "When they ask you over and over what is it, you are trying to be soothing," said Olds. "They just don’t remember they asked you.

Many of the signs of Dementia are behavior related, the forgetting of names, wandering and restlessness, a tendency to repeat themselves and even compulsive cleaning. "Specific ways of dealing with this behavior can be taught," said Olds. "There are different types of tools that can ease those symptoms. For example, Olds says they give their Dementia patients a big bucket of clothes and let us sit and fold them. "The majority of our patients are women, and this is something they did when they were young."

One major attraction at Forest Villa is an in-house palliative machine located in the lower level. "For a lot of them with other medical problems, having to make the trip out a few times a week for treatments is a week we can hard, oldes said."

The home is in the midst of a remodeling project that will move to the lower level. "We are trying to be soothing," said Olds. "We just don’t remember they asked you."

Although Olds has only been the administrator at Forest Villa for 5 months, many of her staff members have been there for 20 years. "That’s a beautiful thing in a nursing facility," said Olds. "This is not an easy place. It’s hard and stressful and often difficult." Olds believes that, in general, long-term health care has changed to a more holistic approach in recent years. "People have horrible images of what nursing homes were like in the past," said Olds. "Forest Villa’s mission is to make the quality of life good for all these residents, no matter what their conditions. Now we treat the whole person, not just the disease.

"We take their conditions and treat as well as medical."

Niles Mayor Nicholas Blake speaks to Business community

Niles Mayor Nicholas Blake presented a "Mayoral Address to the Niles Business Community" at the White Eagle restaurant Tuesday. Blake was optimistic about the prospects for Niles economy in the future. "Employment is down, which is discouraging," said Blake. "But, purchasing is increasing and that’s better for us."

Notre Dame Dons grab playoff slot

The Bugle

Thursday October 30, 2003

RYAN BISHOP

Notre Dame's game against Benet Academy on Saturday will be remembered by fans as one of the most exciting games the team has played in recent memory. The Dons had the opportunity to advance into the playoffs, as they defeated the Benet Redwings 17-16. Matt McAleer's 23-yard field goal with 1:19 left was the game winner. The field goal was McAleer's first of the year.

Notre Dame players rushed onto the field in triumphant fashion, full of elation and joy as the team celebrated a winning season and victory over a tough conference foe. The team celebrated their helmets high and sang the fight song with pride.

Dean Cadamartiotis's blocked punt at the Benet 14-yard line led to Corliss' 1-yard run. This brought the Don's to within two at 9-7 with 3:38 left in the half. The Don's #47 came up with a spectacular one-handed interception right before the end of the half to take the momentum away.

Notre Dame quarterback #4 Ryan Corliss heads against Benet for two touchdowns on the day. Coach Mike Hennessey praised the play of Corliss this year, "anybody that has seen us play this year, knows that he's got the ball 80 percent of the time. I have all the faith in the world in him and when he takes that snap that something good is going to happen. I put him in the game and he doesn't let us down. He tells me when we're ready to go and when we're ready to pass."

Defensive star of the game for Marussels and Frank Fuchter came up with big plays to inch the Dons closer to victory. On first down for Benet at the Notre Dame 44, running back Chris Martin had the ball stripped after a 5-yard gain. Marussels was there to pick it up and run 85 yards for a touchdown. The Don's played it safe on offense as Corliss ran twice for six yards, setting up the FG attempt for McAleer.

McAleer had one last possession to win the game. Notre Dame's special teams covered the Benet 15-yard line. The Don's played it safe on offense as Corliss ran twice for six yards, setting up the FG attempt for McAleer.

THE FACTS ABOUT THE MEC EXPANSION PLAN

On September 5th, the Morton Grove Organization (some neighbors surrounding the MEC area) filed a lawsuit against both the Village of Morton Grove and the Muslim Community Center. The Chicago Tribune quoted a representative who stated the reason for this lawsuit:

...deals with parking, not prayer; with trees, not theology; with real estate, not religion." (Chicago Tribune, September 7, 2003.)

Did you also know, that after a year of trying to work out the development of our own property—the Muslim Education Center (MEC)—we were forced to file a federal lawsuit protecting our civil rights despite our best efforts to reach a compromise with the Village government and one neighbor? Here are some facts:

- OUR PARKING PLAN INCLUDES 90% MORE SPACES THAN REQUIRED BY LAW
- OUR PLAN PROVIDES THE SAME OR LOWER DENSITY THAN FIVE OF THE SIX OTHER HOUSES OF WORSHIP IN MORTON GROVE
- THE MORTON GROVE ORGANIZATION HAS ASKED US TO MOVE AWAY FROM THE CURRENT LOCATION AND DONATE OUR LAND TO THE MORTON GROVE PARK DISTRICT
- OUR LANDSCAPING PLAN WILL IMPROVE THE BEAUTY OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD
- FOUR LEADERS OF OTHER FAITHS SUPPORT OUR RIGHTS—Earlier this year, leaders of other Morton Grove religious organizations sent an open letter to the Trustees regarding their support for the MCC's right to worship. Our supporters include:
  - Rabbi Kenneth Cohen, Northeastern Jewish Congregation
  - Rev. Daniel O'Neill, St. Martha's Catholic Church
  - Rev. Michael Winters, Morton Grove Community Church
  - Rev. Raymond W. Nyquist, St. Luke's Christ United Church
  (*Note: They have not endorsed the specifics of our plan.)

- WHAT OUR FEDERAL CIVIL RIGHTS LAWSUIT ASKS—While we do seek $5 million in damages, we sued primarily to protect our legal rights to worship per our needs.

- THE REAL COST OF THIS DISPUTE TO EACH MEMBER OF THE COMMUNITY—We believe most citizens of Morton Grove support freedom of worship. To settle our suit and other legal bills could cost each Morton Grove household as much as $1,000. It is far to the entire community to be penalized because a small minority—some neighbors—want "privacy space" on our property for their personal benefit and to the detriment of the rest of Morton Grove residents!

Contact your elected officials and let them know you stand for tolerance and equality!

The Facts about the MEC Expansion plan

On September 5th, the Morton Grove Organization (some neighbors surrounding the MEC area) filed a lawsuit against both the Village of Morton Grove and the Muslim Community Center. The Chicago Tribune quoted a representative who stated the reason for this lawsuit:

"...dealing with parking, not prayer, with trees, not theology, with real estate, not religion" (Chicago Tribune, September 7, 2005).

Did you know, that after a year of trying to work out the development of our own property—the Muslim Education Center (MEC)—we were forced to file a federal lawsuit protecting our civil rights despite our best efforts to reach a compromise with the Village government and our neighbors? Here are some facts:

- Our Parking Plan Includes 50% More Spaces than Required by Law
- Our Plan Provides the Same or Lower Density Than Five of the Six Other Houses of Worship in Morton Grove
- The Morton Grove Organization Has Asked Us to Move Away from the Current Location and Donate Our Land to the Morton Grove Park District
- Our Landscaping Plan Will Improve the Beauty of the Neighborhood
- Four Leaders of Other Faiths Support Our Rights—Earlier this year, leaders of other Morton Grove religious organizations sent an open letter to the Trustees regarding their support for the MEC’s right to worship. Our supporters include
  - Rabbi Kenneth Cohen, Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation
  - Rev. Daniel O’Neill, St. Martha’s Catholic Church
  - Rev. L. Michael Winters, Morton Grove Community Church
  - Rev. Raymond W. Niquist, St. Luke’s Christian Community

(Note: They have not endorsed the specifics of the plan.)

- What Our Federal Civil Rights Lawsuit Asks—While we do seek $5 million in damages, we sued primarily to protect our legal rights to build a mosque. The MEC stands on “olive branch” to the Morton Grove Trustees. We will drop the damage claims if the Trustees, in the next few months, will recognize our right to build a house of worship on our property.

- The Real Cost of This Dispute to Each Member of the Community—The Village of Morton Grove has asked us to move away from our site. The Trustee’s in the first half of the Village have walked away. The Trustees have spent most of the first half of the Village, with the rest of the Village pressing forward to another exciting season next year with the Village trustees.

THEY KNEW:

- Did you see the story about the local high school basketball team? They played their last game of the season today.

THEY SAID:

- "We're going to miss those guys. They were great to have around."—Coach Jamie Thompson

THEY HAD:

- A 10-year-old boy who loves basketball. He grew up playing the game.

THEY WANTED:

- More players to fill their roster for next year.

THEY REGRETTED:

- Not being able to keep some of their best players.

THEY HOPED:

- For a better next season.

THEY PLEDGED:

- To work hard and play smart in their next season.

THEY OPPOSED:

- Some changes in the rules that they thought were unfair.

THEY ARGUED:

- Over who should have been on the varsity team.

THEY BELIEVED:

- That hard work and dedication lead to success.

THEY ACCUSED:

- Opposing team's player of cheating.

THEY COMPROMISED:

- On some issues to move forward.

THEY DECIDED:

- To stick together and continue playing.

THEY CONCLUDED:

- That it was a great season overall.

THEY ENJOYED:

- The support and encouragement from their fans.

THEY DECIDED NOT TO DO:

- Play any more games this year.

THEY MIXED FEELINGS:

- About saying goodbye to their teammates.

THEY FELT:

- Proud of what they achieved.

THEY THOUGHT:

- That they could have done better.

THEY LOOKED BACK:

- On their experiences so far.

THEY LOOKED AHEAD:

- To the opportunities they have next season.

THEY REMEMBERED:

- The memories they made together.

THEY PRAYED:

- For the health and safety of all players.

THEY HOPEFULLY:

- That they would all get back on the court next year.

THEY KNEW THEY HAD:

- Great friends who supported them through thick and thin.

THEY BECAME:

- Better players, both on and off the court.

THEY UNDERSTOOD:

- That sports is not just about winning, but about the journey.

THEY CHALLENGED:

- Themselves to be the best they could be.

THEY DISCOVERED:

- That teamwork and cooperation are key.

THEY LEARNED:

- About the importance of resilience.

THEY REALIZED:

- That every season is a learning experience.

THEY APPRECIATED:

- The support of their coaches and parents.

THEY ENJOYED:

- The thrill of competition.

THEY COLLABORATED:

- To improve their skills.

THEY PERSISTED:

- Through the ups and downs.

THEY CHAMPIONED:

- The values of sportsmanship.

THEY GROWN:

- Both as individuals and as a team.

THEY CONCLUDED:

- That they had a great season.

Park Ridge artist Amy Noble has been kind of colored pencil and paint since she was young, but her dad never thought she'd ever work in the field of art. Noble is the illustrator of "Creepy Chicago," a children's book about some of the city's scariest haunts from the windy city. The book, which just came out a month ago, was written by children's author Ursula Nordau. The publisher happened to mention in an interview that Noble frequently walked down Main Street in search of unique finds she'd see her work in the window displays of stores. "I remembered a couple of samples of her work and got the idea to illustrate the book with her," said Noble. Noble was walking down Main Street one day when she noticed a book store where the owner was in the window display. Noble walked over and talked to the book store owner through the window. The owner liked Noble's work and allowed her to do a drawing on a page in her sketchbook. "I love to do it every chance I get," said Noble.

"They let me do my own creative ideas for the stories," said Noble. "I always had a taste for illustrating." Noble feels that she's really nice to me."
