Niles Chamber names DiMaria new director

BY ANDREW SCHNEIDER
editor@buglenewspapers.com

The Niles Chamber has selected Katie DiMaria, current head of the Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce and Industry as its new executive director. She will officially take the position on Tuesday, Feb. 17. DiMaria has worked at the Morton Grove Chamber for two years.

DiMaria is the second executive director of the Niles Chamber in a row to have moved from Morton Grove. Previous Director Dennis McCrery was also head of the Morton Grove Chamber. DiMaria graduated from Loyola University in Chicago. She was the same age that McCrery was when she became the director at Morton Grove.

"Morton Grove is a great town," said DiMaria. "So is Niles. The business community in Niles is larger though, that's why I'm so excited about working for the Niles Chamber."

DiMaria said that her first order of business is to learn everything that is going on at the Niles Chamber.

"I'm most looking forward to getting to know the Chamber members," she said, "I love working with people." Of her time with Morton Grove, DiMaria said she learned a great deal.

"I learned a lot about small and mid-size business and what a Chamber can do to help," she said. "Niles has done well as a Chamber. I hope to build off of the foundation they've created with my energy and experience."

Now that DiMaria has left the Morton Grove Chamber, their board is about to begin the search for a new executive director.

"The Morton Grove Chamber has a great board," said DiMaria. "They're very supportive."

Until a new director can be found, the Board's executive committee will fill in for Di Maria. Interested applicants should send their resumes to Terry Liston at the Morton Grove Chamber, 6101 Capulina, fax: (847) 965-2805.

Le Peep Restaurant: a Park Ridge fixture

BY PATRICK FERRELL
titrep@nilesnews.com

Y esencia Monter never pictured herself working in a restaurant. When the opportunity to bring the family instead of the cousins to a restaurant, she thought, "not right, night, nothing, but not right." When Monter describes "some of the best breakfast around," it is in your place.

The location is only open from 6:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 7 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

"Our skillet dishes are real good, Monter said, "so, we've added a few new items to our menu, but still keeping the same old favorites, sausages and pancakes around." The restaurant has made a point of following "gambling laws, and we also have good coffee, waffles, pancakes and orange juice." The restaurant is also open during the weekend.

Le Peep is a Sun. Excited Court, but has been a fixture in the Park Ridge for 15 years. It is owned by Katz and "has its regular customers who come from all around." The couple also own the Le Peep locations in Arlington Heights and Elk Grove Village and co-own the location in downtown Chicago.

Monter said. "The couple lives in Wheeling and also owns Le Peep locations in Arlington Heights and Elk Grove Village and co-own the location in downtown Chicago.

realizing the injustice of the law, continued to marry young couples in secret until he was captured and executed.

Another legend holds that after being arrested, St. Valentine fell in love with a woman who visited him regularly, possibly the jailor's daughter. In this version, he actually sends the first "Valentine" himself, writing a letter to her before he dies, signed, "From your Valentine."

Whatever the truth behind the Valentine's Day legend, it is a day when we can show those we love how much they mean to us. So whether you're sending a homemade card to your mother or a dozen roses to your soul-mate, make this year's Valentine's Day a memorable one.
