D64 launches anti-bullying program

Park Ridge-Niles Elementary School District 64 will launch an anti-bullying initiative this year that administrators have dubbed the "Civil Behavior Initiative."

The initiative is meant to address a study conducted in 2003 and 2004 in which nearly a third of surveyed students in grades 3 through 5 said they were hit, pushed, or kicked by other students one to three times per week.

Diane Betts, Dist. 64's assistant superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction, said that the initiative is designed to create a culture of civil behavior.

“We decided that we wanted to take a proactive approach to what’s going on,” Betts said. “It’s not just our responsibility to develop students intellectually, but also emotionally and socially.”

As a result, the District has developed a variety of methods to promote its goals for the Civil Behavior Initiative within the curriculum. The District hopes that teachers will be able to foster the Initiative’s primary goals, citizenship, group excellence and individual excellence, during regular class and in special projects.

“We’re ready as we begin the new school year, to have teachers focus in on these areas,” said Betts. “Right before the summer we had some staff training. We’ve given teachers a new focus on these goals.”

While some subjects, like social studies, easily lend their material to a goal like citizenship, District officials said that even math and science courses could promulgate the principles by encouraging students to conduct their work with

Bird was recovered by village resident while in Glenview

A crow that tested positive for the West Nile Virus was mistakenly identified last week as originating in Morton Grove by the Cook County Department of Public Health.

The bird was actually found in Glenview by a Morton Grove resident. She turned it in to the County and contacted Morton Grove officials after reading articles in local papers stating that it originated in the village.

Morton Grove Environmental Health Inspector Bonnie Burnett contacted local media outlets Friday after realizing the error.

“It was mistakenly reported to us last week as a Morton Grove bird by Cook County,” Burnett said.

The crow would have been the first positive bird found in the village this year. Others have already been identified in Northfield, Northbrook, Evanston, Skokie, Glenview and Lincolnwood. In September of 2003, one crow was found in Morton Grove that tested positive.

Even though no West Nile-positive birds have been found in the village this year, a batch of mosquitoes tested on July 22 were positive. Residents should remain on the alert.

Introduction of new traffic study: A project postpostmenon

By ANDREW SCHNIEDER andrewschnieder@gmail.com

Residents wary of additional traffic may be among those who were given an opportunity to apply for approval of the project, pending review of an updated traffic study. If approved, the plan would allow MB to move its drive-through to a separate facility on the corner of Dempster and Georgia. Early proposals call for Morton Grove and Harrer Park, the Park District’s Pershing Avenue facility. If approved, the plan would allow MB to move its drive-through to a separate facility on the corner of Dempster and Georgia.

Residents are concerned about the primary problem with the existing drive through facility at the current location. The Village Board would like to see the drive through moved to a separate facility on the corner of Dempster and Georgia.

Many of the residents are concerned about the possibility of additional traffic from the drive-through facility. They fear that the current facility would force traffic onto the three-block road that connects Davenport and Lincoln. This is a prescription for a perfect storm, said Robert Dillman, a resident of the Park District. It’s a small problem that could be solved by a public health endeavor.

Five Morton Grove Firefighters will participate in the World Championship of the ‘Firefighter Combat Challenge’ this November in Las Vegas, Nevada. In the competition, firefighters compete in a variety of events such as moving hoses in full gear. The Morton Grove firefighters are training for the competition in Ontario, Canada. Niles Parks in good financial health

The Niles Park District board met for the fourth time this fiscal year on Monday. At the meeting, the District’s financial manager, Todd Barlow, presented a financial summary of the District for the first three months of fiscal year 2004-05.

“The District has a lot of expenses to cover, but we are doing a good job of controlling our spending,” Barlow said.

Barlow noted that the District’s revenues exceeded its expenses by $25,000 during the first three months of fiscal year 2004-05.

One major expense for the District is the cost of providing services to the community.

“People love our programs,” Chief Jim Neville said. “This year, we have had more participants than in any other year. People just keep coming back.”

Park Ridge Parks review affiliate policy

Commissioners call for greater accountability

Vice President Tom Dobbs has proposed the Park Ridge Park District to begin a review of its affiliate contract. The Board's recommissioner will review the document in coming months.

Board members were concerned that conferring clauses in the contract would provide “untold power” to the organizations leaders to discontinue any affiliate program or fund with no excuse other than the money. The agreements would have to be reviewed and corrected by the Board President Bob Trizna said at the Board's August 5th meeting. Josh Grant argued that both the Board and the Park District’s Staff should have made for the initiative, such as the Park Ridge's health initiatives. Grant, said that greater accountability was needed. The Park District made for the initiative, such as the Park Ridge's health initiatives. Grant, said that greater accountability was needed.

The Freedom Alliance brought money to the Park District with hundreds of residents, notably the Park Ridge Swim Club, Park Ridge Soccer Association, Park Ridge Art League, Northern Illinois University, and the soccer association pays for lights and the cost of the ball. He also said that both the Park District's Staff should have reviewed and corrected the document. The recommendation back was to the Board's August 5th meeting. Josh Grant argued that those two, and the Board President Bob Trizna said at the Board's August 5th meeting that the Board should have foreseen and corrected the problems within. We can do better.

Three concerts left in series at 'Leaning Tower'

For local music lovers, the village of Niles will host three more concerts this season before the conclusion of the annual Leaning Tower Concert Series.

The remaining performances for the season are:

The String Brothers on Thursday, August 12. The 12-piece "Blue Brothers" imitator band was a favorite last season. Members Maili will perform on Thursday, August 19. The picnic group is presented by the Niles Civic Band.

Lesley Gayle and the Just Cans will perform the final concert on Thursday, August 26. They are a Chicago-based group that plays swinging jazz. The performances are free and open to the public, but the village encourages guests to bring their own lawn chairs. The Leaning Tower Concert Series has been running since 1997.

The Illinois champion Notre Dame baseball team has been busy. In addition to being honored at the upcoming Sun game, they attended the July 1 Chicago Cubs game at Wrigley Field where players and coaches sang the seven-row-melting anthem in front of a sellout crowd and a national television audience. The Diamond-Helmeted kids of the Notre Dame Independent Day Parade were also featured in the July issue of Sports Illustrated.

"Notre Dame’s my home. It’s my heart. I’ve been here 18 hours a day or more. I go home, go to bed, do homework, but other than that I was at Notre Dame. I loved every minute of it," said senior shortstop Pat Biele.

Thanks to a magical state tournament in June, Pat Biele and his teammates have now climbed into a higher status the Player of the Year Award.

"He tightens up the whole dugout," said Coach Biele of the mood he creates. "I’ve heard it from all the coaches and all the players. When he’s out there, they feel they can win."

Betony in Black

Betony in Black is one of the most versatile and beloved landscape trees. There are 124 different species of maples, so choosing one for your garden is easy. With its elegant, graceful form, Betony in Black excels in small spaces and makes a wonderful focal point. Its multi-trunked stature virtually gives it the feeling of being a single trunk. Whether it is pressed into a formal garden or placed in the middle of a lightly landscaped walkway, Betony in Black is a hardy and dependable tree.

Betony in Black is a small to medium-sized tree, ranging in height from 15 to 20 feet. Its leaves are simple, oval to lanceolate, and glossy green in summer, but turning to brilliant shades of yellow in the fall. The tree provides excellent shade and is an attractive addition to any landscape.

Tips for Successful Bathroom Remodeling

- Use space efficiently. Consider utilizing every inch of space in your bathroom. Use space-saving cabinets and shelves to maximize storage.
- Focus on functionality. Ensure that the bathroom is user-friendly with easy access to all amenities.
- Choose durable materials. Invest in materials that are resistant to moisture and easy to clean. This will ensure a long-lasting and maintenance-free bathroom.
- Consider ergonomics. When choosing bathroom fixtures, consider the height and placement to ensure they are comfortable for users of all ages.
- Plan for future needs. If you are planning a new home or improving your current one, give careful thought to how you use and plan for bathroom needs.

- Japanese maples are an excellent choice for landscaping. They are available in a variety of colors, shapes, and sizes, making them a versatile addition to any garden. These trees range from 2 to 30 feet tall and can be grown in USDA Zones 4-9. They are easy to plant and care for, and their leaves turn beautiful colors in autumn.

- Combining colored glass with natural light can create dramatic and unique lighting effects. Colored glass can filter sunlight in a variety of hues, creating a peaceful and inviting atmosphere. It can be used in windows, skylights, or even as decorative elements within the home.

- Flashings are an essential component of metal roofing systems. They ensure that the metal sheets are securely attached to the roof and prevent water from penetrating the structure. Flashings come in various materials and designs, offering durability and leak resistance.

- Owning a home can be a significant investment, but with the right care and maintenance, it can also be a rewarding and enjoyable experience. Regularly inspecting your home and addressing any issues promptly can help extend its lifespan and keep it in good condition.
